History.—s. 12, ch. 5201, 1903; GS 959; RGS 1744; CGL 2795.

157.11 Lateral drains may be established; commissioners may enlarge district or widen any drain; cost; proviso.—Lateral drains may be established in like manner as main ditches, drains or canals. Such lateral ditches, drains or canals may be made a part of the original plat and survey of such main ditch, drain or canal, and may be in the original petition therefor, or may be established in like manner under the provisions of this chapter, at any time after the completion of such main ditch, drain or canal. Any drain or lateral that has been constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed, under the provisions of this or any prior act, shall be and remain under the exclusive control and direction of the board of county commissioners, and no drain shall be connected therewith or cut into the same without the consent of the board of county commissioners first obtained in writing, stating how such connection shall be made, and the connection shall then be made in such manner as the said board shall direct; and any person failing to observe the direction of the board in making such connection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. The said board of county commissioners may enlarge or extend any drain and drainage district, or deepen or widen any drain, and assess the property benefited and raise the money and pay the cost thereof under the same conditions and procedure provided herein for the establishment and construction of drains; provided, that a drain may be deepened and widened upon the petition of one-fourth of the owners of property, or the owners of one-fourth of the property originally assessed for the construction thereof. Any mistake, oversight, miscalculation or error in any proceedings had under this chapter may be corrected, and shall thereafter be deemed and held as valid and binding as if the same had not occurred.

History.—s. 13, ch. 5035, 1901; GS 960; s. 9, ch. 6457, 1913; s. 3, ch. 6958, 1915; RGS 1745; CGL 2796; s. 81, ch. 71-136.

157.12 Duty of bond trustees to borrow money to pay interest on bonds until collection of first assessment; may issue notes; notes and bonds lien against lands; committee may issue notes.—Whenever any drainage district has been constituted and district drainage bonds issued by the board of county commissioners, as provided in this chapter, the bond trustees shall borrow such money as shall be found necessary to pay the semiannual installments of interest on said bonds until the collection of the first assessment levied against the lands in the drainage district, and said trustees may issue their negotiable notes, bearing interest at not more than 8 percent per annum, as evidence of and security for such loan as they may procure, and should there not be money to the credit of said drainage fund to pay any future installment of interest at the maturity thereof, the same shall be provided by the trustees in like manner; and the owner and holder of any such note or notes shall have by virtue thereof a lien against the lands in the drainage district, and the moneys raised by the assessments levied thereon for the payment of said note or notes. Bonds issued under this chapter shall be a lien upon the lands embraced within such drainage district, and such lien shall be prior in dignity to all others except taxes. Should the committee, provided for in s. 157.03, find it necessary to raise money to meet any expense incurred in the discharge of its duties before funds shall be provided by issue and sale of bonds, as herein stipulated, then and in that event the said committee, with the approval of the board of county commissioners, may issue negotiable promissory notes for such amount as shall be found necessary, said notes to bear interest not to exceed 8 percent per annum, and the owner and holder thereof shall have a like lien and be afforded like protection as herein provided for the holder of notes issued by the bond trustees.

157.13 Use of surplus of bond proceeds.—Should there remain any of the proceeds of the sale of said special drainage district bonds after paying for the construction of the improvements for which said bonds were issued, such surplus shall be held by the bond trustees and paid out by them, upon the order of the board of county commissioners, for the repair and maintenance of the public ditches, drains or canals within said special drainage district.

History.—s. 11, ch. 6457, 1913; RGS 1747; CGL 2798.

157.14 Owner may pay whole tax in one sum; county commissioners may make new assessments where former assessments found illegal; time in which assessments may be questioned in collateral proceedings.—Any person owning lands assessed for the purposes hereinbefore specified, may, at any time, pay in full the total amount assessed against his property and obtain a release therefrom from the board of county commissioners, and the same shall be entered upon the minutes of the board of county commissioners, and the board of county commissioners shall instruct the property appraiser to thereafter omit the said property, so released, from further assessment for said purpose. In the event any of the assessments herein provided for shall be found to be irregular or illegal, the said board of county commissioners may make new and other assessments in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, correcting such irregularities, until the owners of the land assessed shall have paid the amount for which they are properly assessable; and in no case shall the validity of any assessment be questioned in any direct or collateral proceedings brought more than 3 months after the report of the committee assessing the lands benefited shall be filed with the board of county commissioners and equalized and approved by said board.

157.15 County commissioners may issue bonds to pay scrip; decrease of assessment.—The county commissioners may, with the consent of the holder of any scrip issued under the provisions of any existing law to raise money to pay for the construction or the deepening or widening of any ditch, drain or canal, issue bonds for a corresponding or longer period, and sell the same and pay the scrip, or exchange with the holder thereof, cancel the original scrip and lower the annual assessment in accordance with the longer time the bonds may run.

History.—s. 13, ch. 6457, 1913; s. 6, ch. 6958, 1915; RGS 1749; CGL 2800; s. 43, ch. 77-104.

157.16 Enlarging drains and assessing cost.—Whenever, heretofore or hereafter, a public drain or auxiliary thereto shall have been constructed by the board of county commissioners of any county under any law now in force, or that hereafter may be in force, the said board of county commissioners upon a petition of one-fourth of the owners of the property originally assessed for said drain, shall enlarge or deepen said drain or auxiliaries thereto and assess the cost of such enlargement or deepening of said drain or auxiliaries thereto against the lands benefited thereby.

History.—s. 2, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1753; CGL 2804.

157.17 Assessment to maintain drains.—Whenever any public drain or auxiliaries thereto shall have been constructed by the board of county commissioners of any county under any law now in force, or that may hereafter be in force, the said board of county commissioners may assess against the lands benefited by said drain or auxiliaries thereto the necessary cost of the maintenance and repair of said drain or auxiliaries thereto.

History.—s. 3, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1754; CGL 2805.

157.18 Awarding contract for enlarging or repairing drains.—Whenever it shall become necessary in the opinion of the county commissioners to enlarge or deepen any drain or auxiliary thereto, heretofore constructed, or that may hereafter be constructed, or to contract for the maintenance or repair thereof, the contract for doing such work shall be let to the lowest bidder therefor, after public advertisement for such time as the county commissioners shall provide by resolution.

History.—s. 4, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1755; CGL 2806.

157.19 Where actual cost exceeds estimated cost; additional work; assessment for same.—Whenever during the construction of any drain or auxiliary thereto, and before the completion thereof, it shall be made evident to the board of county commissioners that the actual cost thereof will exceed the estimated cost thereof, or that further or additional work is necessary to complete said drain or auxiliary not covered or provided for in the original contract of construction, the said board of county commissioners may enter into any or all additional contracts for the additional work necessary to complete said drain or auxiliary thereto without advertising for bids thereon, and they shall make the best contract they can for the interests of the property owners, whose lands have been and will further be assessed to construct said ditch or auxiliary, and said board of county commissioners, shall make all further and necessary assessments against the lands already assessed to pay all necessary costs and charges for the full completion of said drain or auxiliary.

History.—s. 5, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1756; CGL 2807.

157.20 Appointment of committee to view work and make assessments; report to commissioners; form of assessment.—Whenever it shall become necessary to raise money for any of the purposes set out in ss. 157.07 and 157.19 the board of county commissioners shall appoint three competent and disinterested persons who are citizens of the county who shall view the work and all lands benefited by said drain or auxiliaries thereto, both those lands lying immediately along said drain or auxiliaries and those adjacent thereto, and shall assess against each parcel of land according and in proportion as each shall be benefited, its proportionate share of such additional cost of such drain or auxiliary above the estimated cost thereof, which said assessment shall be reported to the county commissioners at a regular meeting of said board, which said assessment shall show each parcel of land so assessed, the amount of said assessment and the names of the several owners, unless the said owners by diligent inquiry cannot be ascertained, when the names shall be given as unknown.

157.21 Enlargement of drains; appointment of committee; report to commissioners; letting contract; contractor's bond; payments; assessment.—Whenever the board of county commissioners shall have determined upon a petition, filed as provided in s. 157.16, to enlarge or deepen any drain, they shall appoint a committee of the three competent and disinterested persons who are citizens of the county, who shall cause an accurate survey to be made of the proposed work, and shall establish the depth or width to which the same shall be deepened and shall make and present to the county commissioners at their next regular meeting, an estimate of the cost of said work, and upon the report of said committee to them, said county commissioners shall advertise not less than 2 weeks in a newspaper published in the county, for bids on said work, to be given to the lowest responsible bidder, with the privilege of rejecting all bids that may be offered, should the same be considered unreasonable; and in case the said bids are rejected, they may again advertise for further bids. The said board of county commissioners shall require of the person whose bid is accepted for said work a good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of said contract, which said work shall be done under the supervision of the committee appointed as aforesaid. When the work shall be completed the committee shall certify the same to the board of county commissioners who shall also inspect such work before final payment is made to the contractor, and such confirmation with the report of the committee that the work has been done according to contract, shall be made a matter of record; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall prevent the county commissioners from making payments in installments during the progress of the work, if deemed expedient. Before letting such contract, the committee appointed by the commissioners shall view the lands to be benefited by the enlargement or deepening of said drain or auxiliary and assess each parcel according and in proportion as each shall be benefited, both those lands lying immediately along such ditch, drain or canal, and those adjacent thereto, for all the expenses that may be incurred in the enlarging or deepening of said drain and keeping the same in repair from year to year, and shall file a report of the same with the board of county commissioners, which said report shall show the several tracts of lands assessed and the names of the owners thereof, and the amounts assessed against each tract; provided, however, that if the owners of any tract cannot be ascertained by diligent inquiry, said tract shall be assessed as unknown.

157.22 Repairing drains; appointment of committee; report to commissioners; contract; bond; assessment, etc.—Whenever it shall become known to the board of county commissioners that it is necessary to repair any public drain or auxiliary thereto the said board of county commissioners shall appoint a committee of three competent and disinterested persons who are citizens of the county who shall ascertain the amount necessary for the repair of said work, and who shall report the same to the board of county commissioners at their next regular meeting, and upon the report of said committee to them they shall advertise not less than 30 days in a newspaper published in the county for bids on said work to be given to the lowest responsible bidder. Before letting the contract for the work, the said county commissioners shall require a sufficient bond from the contractor for the faithful performance of said work; when the work shall be completed the committee shall certify the same to the board of county commissioners who shall also inspect said work before final payment is made to the contractor, and such confirmation with the report of the committee that the work has been done according to contract shall be made a matter of record. Before letting such contract the committee appointed by the commissioners shall view the lands benefited by such drain or auxiliary and shall assess each parcel according and in proportion as each may be benefited, both those lands lying immediately along the drain or auxiliary thereto and those adjacent thereto for all the expenses that may be incurred in the repair of such drain, and shall file a report of the same with the board of county commissioners. Said report shall show each tract and parcel of land assessed, the amount of said assessment, and the names of the several owners, unless the owner cannot be ascertained by diligent inquiry, when the same may be assessed as unknown.

History.—s. 8, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1759; CGL 2810.

157.23 Objections to report of committee fixing assessments; notice; hearing; equalization; assessments; collection by tax collector.—Whenever the report of any committee appointed under the provisions of this chapter, showing the amount of assessment against any lands for work done, or to be done, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall have been filed with the board of county commissioners, they shall at once give notice by publishing in a newspaper published in said county, for not less than 2 weeks prior to a regular meeting that they will at their next regular meeting hear complaints from the owner or agent of any real estate against the assessment so made against said property and the said county commissioners shall have the full power to equalize the assessments so made against said real estate, but cannot raise or lower the entire assessment so made by the committee so appointed by them to make said assessment and said assessment when equalized shall, by the county commissioners when they are satisfied that such assessments are just and proper, be turned over to the property appraiser with instructions to levy such assessment upon such parcels of land as aforesaid; provided, that when the assessment shall have been made under s. 157.07, s. 157.17 or s. 157.19, the notice published by the county commissioners shall only be required to contain the name of the drain or auxiliary thereto and the total amount of the assessment; and provided further, that when the assessment is made under s. 157.16, if no other lands are assessed than those assessed for the original construction of the drain or auxiliary thereto, then the notice given by the county commissioners need not contain anything but the name of said drain or auxiliary and the total amount of said assessment, but if the assessment is made under s. 157.16 and any other lands are assessed than those assessed for the original cost of the drain or auxiliary then the notice given by the county commissioners shall, in addition to the name of the drain and the total amount of the assessment give the several additional tracts of land so assessed, the owners thereof and the amount of assessment against such additional tracts of land. Said assessments may be levied for 1 year or in yearly assessments for 2, 3, 4, or 6 years, according as it may be deemed advisable and for the best interests of those concerned, and shall be collected by the tax collector in like manner as other taxes are collected, and made a special fund for the cancellation or redemption of the indebtedness incurred in the construction of said drain or auxiliary as aforesaid.

157.24 Commissioners may issue interest-bearing scrip against land to borrow money or pay for work; lien on land assessed.—When any assessments under the provision of this chapter have been ordered by the county commissioners they may issue scrip bearing 6 percent interest against the lands assessed, redeemable in 1, 2, 3, 4, or 6 years, as the case may be, upon which they may borrow money with which to pay for the work aforesaid, or shall have the right to pay said scrip when issued for the cost of the work contracted for, direct to the contractor at its face value, and such scrip shall be a lien upon the lands assessed as aforesaid until such scrip shall be redeemed, and the indebtedness fully satisfied; provided, that no lien shall lie or be enforced against any tract of land for more than the amount so assessed against said tract.

157.25 Compensation of committee; irregular assessment corrected.—The committee appointed by the county commissioners for the purposes aforesaid shall receive such compensation for their services as may be agreed upon. In the event any of the assessments herein provided for shall be declared illegal by any court on account of any irregularities therein, the said board of county commissioners may make new and other assessments in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, correcting said irregularities until the owners of the lands assessed shall have paid the amount for which they are properly assessable.

History.—s. 12, ch. 5378, 1905; RGS 1763; CGL 2814.

157.26 Repair and maintenance of drains under supervision of county commissioners.—All ditches, drains and canals heretofore or hereafter constructed in any county of the state under the provisions of this chapter, shall for the purpose of maintenance and repair be and remain under the supervision and control of the board of county commissioners of the county where located.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6190, 1911; RGS 1764; CGL 2815.

157.27 Proceedings for making repair to drains, etc.—When it shall be made to appear to the board of county commissioners of any county that any such ditch, drain or canal within said county is in need of repair, that fact shall be entered upon the minutes of said board and published in at least one issue of a newspaper published in said county in and with the minutes of said board, and unless good cause to the contrary shall be shown by one or more interested owners of land to be taxed for said purpose, at the next regular meeting of the board, an order may be entered directing such repairs to be made.

History.—s. 2, ch. 6190, 1911; RGS 1765; CGL 2816.

157.28 Awarding contracts for repair, etc.—If the estimated cost of repairing any such ditch, drain or canal shall not exceed the sum of $100, the board of county commissioners shall have full power to have the same done in such manner as said board may see fit; but if such estimated cost shall exceed $100, then the contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder after giving 4 weeks' previous notice by advertising once each week in some newspaper published in the county, or by posting in five conspicuous places in the commissioners' district in which such ditch, drain or canal shall be located, and all work done shall be subject to the approval and acceptance of the board of county commissioners.

History.—s. 3, ch. 6190, 1911; RGS 1766; CGL 2817.

157.29 Levy of tax for maintaining and repairing drains; assessment and collection of tax; sale of land for unpaid taxes.—For the purpose of paying the cost of maintaining and repairing any such ditch, drain or canal and auxiliaries thereto, the board of county commissioners of the several counties of the state, wherein any such ditch, drain or canal is, or may be, located shall, when deemed necessary, levy such tax as in the opinion of said board may be deemed necessary for said purpose, which tax shall be levied upon the same lands originally assessed for the construction of such drain; and the expense of maintenance shall be borne by said lands in the same relative proportion as the original expense of constructing said drain, and the tax so imposed shall be levied and assessed by the same officers at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes are assessed, and shall be collected by the county tax collector as other taxes are collected, and in case of default in the payment of such tax the same penalty shall obtain and the lands may be sold and conveyed in the same way that lands are sold and conveyed for the collection of other taxes, and the money so collected shall be preserved in a separate fund for the maintenance of the ditch, drain or canal for the original construction of which such lands were assessed.

cf.—s. 298.66 Penalty for obstructing drainage canals, etc.

157.30 Reassessment of lands where attempt to establish ditch or canal irregular.—In all cases where there has been an attempt to establish a public ditch, drain or canal, in any of the counties of this state, and the county commissioners in pursuance of such attempt have proceeded to establish a public ditch, drain or canal, but there has been a failure to comply with the law, either in respect to the proceedings prior to the action by the county commissioners, or in respect to the subsequent proceedings, the lands specially benefited by such public ditch, drain or canal shall be subject to reassessment on account of such special benefit at any time within 3 years from the final completion of the work, or if bonds or scrip shall become due, in case a former assessment shall be discovered to be defective, irregular, or not in compliance with law, or be declared by the judgment of a court to be void.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6963, 1915; RGS 1768; s. 1, ch. 9130, 1923; CGL 2819; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

157.31 Notice of reassessment for drainage.—In all such cases, the board of county commissioners, upon the matter being brought to its attention, shall cause to be published in some newspaper published in the county, once a week for a period of 3 weeks, a notice substantially in the following form:

“Notice of Reassessment for Drainage.

Whereas, it has been discovered that the proceedings to establish a public ditch, drain or canal, commencing at and running in a general course through the following lands, viz. were defective, and the assessment in pursuance thereof made was invalid, or irregular and not made in compliance with law, now, therefore, notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that the County Commissioners of County, will be in session at o'clock in the forenoon, at the courthouse, on the day of, 19....., for the purpose of providing for a reassessment of the property specially benefited by the said public ditch, drain or canal, and all persons interested are hereby notified to attend on the said day, and present objections, if any, to the said reassessment, and are further notified that the board will give a hearing to all parties interested, and act on the said matter at the said meeting.”

157.32 Reviewing complaints and making assessment against property benefited.—If it shall appear to the board, after hearing all parties interested, that the public ditch, drain or canal has been an actual special benefit to the property served by it, and that the proceedings for the establishment thereof have been carried out bona fide and without fraud, the board shall proceed to assess each parcel of land benefited thereby for the expenses incurred in the construction of such ditch, drain or canal in proportion to the benefit accruing, and thereupon the board shall give notice once a week for 2 weeks, by publishing the same in some newspaper published in the county, that at its next regular meeting it will be in session for the purpose of reviewing the assessments and hearing complaints against the same. If no such complaints are filed in writing on the first day of the meeting of the board the assessments shall stand confirmed. If complaints are filed, the board shall hear and determine the same, and, if allowed, may modify or change the former assessments so as to equitably spread the burden on the property specially benefited.

History.—s. 3, ch. 6963, 1915; RGS 1770; CGL 2821.

157.33 Issuance of scrip to take up former scrip or bonds.—After the provisions of ss. 157.30-157.32 have been complied with, the board may issue scrip or bonds, as the case may be, to be delivered to the holder or holders of scrip or bonds issued pursuant to former proceedings upon surrender of the former scrip or bonds.

History.—s. 4, ch. 6963, 1915; RGS 1771; CGL 2822; s. 43, ch. 77-104.

157.34 Reassessments to have effect as original assessment.—All assessments made pursuant to the provisions of ss. 157.30-157.32, shall have the same force and effect as is provided in cases of original assessments, and payment thereof shall be provided for and be enforced in the same manner.

History.—s. 5, ch. 6963, 1915; RGS 1772; CGL 2823.

157.35 Assessments conclusive after lapse of 6 months.—After the lapse of 6 months from the final action of the board at its meeting to hear complaints against assessments, all assessments made shall be conclusive in any proceedings at law or in equity, in any court in this state.

History.—s. 6, ch. 6963, 1915; RGS 1773; CGL 2824.

157.36 Adjustment of drainage tax liens.—Boards of county commissioners may act as a board of adjustment in settling and adjusting all delinquent drainage tax liens levied for interest and sinking fund purposes in drainage districts created and established in their respective counties of Florida, under authority of this chapter, wherein the total delinquent drainage tax liens in such respective drainage districts are in excess of their respective total debt requirements.

159.01 Short title.—This part I of chapter 159 shall be known, and may be cited, as the "Revenue Bond Act of 1953."

History.—s. 1, ch. 28045, 1953.

159.02 Definitions.—As used in this part, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, unless some other meaning is plainly intended:

(1) The word "municipality" shall mean any city, town, village or port authority in the state, whether incorporated by special act of the Legislature or under the general laws of the state.

(2) The word "unit" shall mean any county or municipality in the state, now or hereafter created or established.

(3) The term "governing body," as applied to a county, shall mean the board of county commissioners, and as applied to a municipality, shall mean the council, commission or other board or body in which the general legislative powers of the municipality shall be vested.

(4) The word "project" shall include all property, rights, easements, and franchises relating thereto and deemed necessary or convenient for the construction or acquisition or the operation thereof, and shall embrace waterworks systems, sewer systems, gas systems, bridges, causeways, tunnels, incinerator and solid waste disposal systems, harbor and port facilities, mass transportation systems, expressways, marinas, civic auditoriums, sports arenas, parking facilities, and theme and amusement parks.

(5) A project shall be deemed "self-liquidating" if, in the judgment of the governing body, the revenues and earnings thereof and other special funds pledged therefor as provided in this part, will be sufficient to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the project and to pay the principal and interest of revenue bonds (as hereinafter defined) which may be issued to pay the cost of such project or improvements thereof.

(6) The term "revenue bonds" shall mean the obligations issued by a unit under the provisions of this part to pay the cost of a self-liquidating project or improvements thereof or combination of one or more projects or improvements thereof, and payable from the earnings of such project, and any other special funds authorized to be pledged as additional security therefor under this part. Whenever the word "bonds" is used in this part, it shall be deemed to mean "revenue bonds," unless the specific term "general obligation bonds" is used.

(7) The word "bridge" and the word "tunnel" shall include not only the bridge or the tunnel but also all structures and equipment connected therewith and the approaches thereto and approach roads.

(8) The word "causeway" shall mean any raised road or way over and across any marshy ground, swamp, river, bay or water in the state, the bridges or tunnels and structures connected therewith, and the approaches thereto and approach roads.

(9) The term "waterworks system" shall mean and shall include water supply systems, water distribution systems and any integral part thereof, whether inside or outside the unit, and shall include but shall not be limited to reservoirs, wells, intakes, mains, laterals, aqueducts, pumping stations, standpipes, filter stations, purification plants, hydrants, meters, valves and equipment.

(10) The term "harbor and port facilities" shall include docks, wharves, piers, warehouses, terminals, refrigerating plants, channels, turning basins, connecting railroads, breakwaters, causeways and bridges, and bulkheads and equipment.

(11) The word "improvements" shall mean such repairs, replacements, additions, extensions and betterments of and to a project as are deemed necessary to place such project in proper condition for the safe, efficient and economic operation thereof, or necessary to preserve a project or to maintain adequate service to the public.

(12) The term "cost of improvements" shall mean the cost of construction or acquiring improvements as hereinabove defined and shall embrace the cost of all labor and materials, the cost of all lands, property, rights, easements and franchises acquired which are deemed necessary for such construction, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, cost of engineering and legal expenses, plans, specifications, surveys, and such other expenses as may be necessary or incident to such construction.

(13) The term "cost of a project" shall mean the cost of acquiring or constructing such project, and the cost of improvements, and shall include the cost of all labor and materials, the cost of all lands, property, rights, easements and franchises acquired, which are deemed necessary for such acquisition or construction, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction and for 1 year after the completion of construction, engineering and legal expenses, cost of plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of construction costs and of revenues, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of such acquisition or construction, administrative expenses, and such other expenses as may be necessary or incident to the financing herein authorized and to such acquisition or construction and the placing of the project in operation.

(14) The term "sewer system" shall mean and include sewage disposal systems or sanitary sewer systems and any integral part thereof, whether inside or outside the unit, and shall include but shall not be limited to sewage disposal plants or facilities, sanitary sewers, pumping stations, intercepting or trunk or lateral sewers, and any other properties or works or equipment necessary for the collection, treatment and disposal of sewage and waste matter, including industrial wastes.

(15) The term "gas system" shall mean and include works and structures necessary for the production, supply and distribution of gas, manufactured or natural, for lighting, heating, refrigeration or other domestic or industrial use, whether inside or outside the unit and shall include but shall not be limited to distribution mains, meters, plants, equipment, machinery and any other property necessary for the production, supply and distribution of either manufactured or natural gas, for domestic or industrial use.

(16) The term "utilities services taxes" shall mean taxes levied and collected on the purchase or sale of utilities services pursuant to ss. 167.431 and 167.45 or any other law.

(17) The term "cigarette taxes" shall mean taxes levied and collected on the purchase or sale of cigarettes under the provisions of chapter 210 or any other law.

(18) The term "franchise taxes" shall mean payments to a municipality pursuant to the provisions of a franchise granted to a person, firm or corporation for the furnishing of utilities or other services or facilities in such municipality.

(19) The term "mass transportation system" shall mean any system for the transportation of the public by bus, rail or any other means of conveyance serving the general public and moving over prescribed routes.

(20) The term "expressways" shall mean any limited access highway where tolls are charged for use thereof.

(21) The term "marinas" shall mean any facilities for the sale, repair, rental, storage, and servicing of boats.

(22) The term "civic auditorium" shall mean any building constructed for the purpose of serving public gatherings, including but not limited to, conventions, meetings, and concerts where admission may be charged.

(23) The term "sports arena" shall mean any building or enclosed area where fees may be charged for the admission to sporting events.

(24) The term "incinerator and solid waste disposal systems" shall include any system whereby solid wastes are burned, buried, composted or any system for such disposal approved by a state pollution control agency.

(25) The term "parking facilities" shall mean any facility constructed for the purpose of vehicular parking and the use, operation and occupancy of such parking facilities and for which charges are made.

History.—s. 2, ch. 28045, 1953; ss. 1, 2, ch. 67-550; s. 1, ch. 77-351.

159.03 General powers.—The governing body of any unit in the state is hereby authorized and empowered:

(1) To acquire by purchase or to construct, or partly acquire and partly construct, and to improve, repair, reconstruct, own, operate and maintain any self-liquidating project, or any combination of one or more projects as a single project, either inside or outside or partly inside and partly outside of the boundaries of the corporate limits of such unit; provided, however, that the consent of the adjoining governmental authority must be first obtained before a project may be effected outside the boundaries of the corporate limits of such unit.

(2) To issue revenue bonds of such unit, payable from earnings and any other special funds pledged therefor as provided herein, to pay the cost of a project or improvement thereof.

(3) To fix and collect rates, fees, tolls, rentals or other charges for the services and facilities furnished by such project.

(4) To acquire in the name of the unit, either by purchase or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, such lands and rights and interests therein, including lands under water and riparian rights, and to acquire such personal property, as it may deem necessary in connection with the construction, reconstruction, improvement, extension, enlargement or operation of any project.

(5) To make and enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the execution of its powers under this part, and to employ such consulting engineers, attorneys, accountants, construction and financial experts, superintendents, managers, and other employees and agents as may, in the judgment of the governing body, be deemed necessary, and to fix their compensation; provided, however, that all such expenses shall be payable solely from funds made available under the provisions of this part.

(6) To receive and accept from any federal agency grants for or in aid of the planning, construction, reconstruction or financing of any project, and to receive and accept aid or contributions from any source of either money, property, labor or other things of value, to be held, used and applied only for the purposes for which such grants and contributions may be made.

History.—s. 3, ch. 28045, 1953; s. 3, ch. 67-550; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

159.04 Neither credit nor taxing power pledged.—

(1) Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the unit issuing the same or a pledge of the faith and credit of such unit, except as provided in s. 159.16, but such bonds shall be payable from the funds hereinafter provided therefor from revenues and any other special funds pledged for the payment of such bonds as provided herein. All such bonds shall contain a statement on their face to the effect that such unit is not obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from revenues and other special funds provided for in this part, and that the faith and credit of the unit are not pledged to the payment of the principal or interest of such bonds.

(2) The issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of this part shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the unit to levy or to pledge any form of ad valorem taxation whatever therefor. No holder of any such revenue bonds shall ever have the right to compel any exercise of the ad valorem taxing power on the part of such unit to pay any such bonds or the interest thereon or to enforce payment of such bonds or the interest thereon against any property of the unit, nor shall such bonds constitute a charge, lien or encumbrance, legal or equitable, upon any property of such unit, except the revenues and other special funds pledged for the payment of such revenue bonds.

History.—s. 4, ch. 28045, 1953; s. 4, ch. 67-550.

159.05 Purchase of projects.—The governing body of any unit is hereby authorized to acquire by purchase, whenever it shall deem such purchase expedient, any self-liquidating project as hereinabove defined, or any such project, wholly or partly constructed, and any franchise, easements, permits and contracts for the construction of any such project, upon such terms and at such prices as may be reasonable and can be agreed upon between such governing body and the owner thereof, title to be taken in the name of the unit. The governing body may issue revenue bonds of the unit, as hereinafter provided, to pay the cost of the acquisition of such project.

History.—s. 5, ch. 28045, 1953.

159.06 Improvement of projects purchased.

—It shall be the duty of the governing body at or before the time any such project shall be acquired by purchase, to determine what repairs, replacements, additions or betterments will be necessary to place the project in safe and efficient condition for use, and to cause an estimate of the cost of such improvements to be made. The governing body shall authorize such improvements before the sale of any revenue bonds for the acquisition of such project, and the cost of such improvements shall be paid for out of the proceeds of such bonds.

History.—s. 6, ch. 28045, 1953.

159.07 Construction of projects.—The governing body of any unit is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, whenever it shall deem such construction expedient, any self-liquidating project as hereinabove defined.

History.—s. 7, ch. 28045, 1953.

159.08 Revenue bonds.—

(1) The governing body of any unit shall have the power and it is hereby authorized to provide by ordinance or resolution, at one time or from time to time, for the issuance of revenue bonds of the unit for the purpose of paying all or a part of the cost as hereinabove defined of any one or more self-liquidating projects of the same class, or any combination thereof as a single project, or of any improvements thereof. The principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable solely from the special funds herein provided for such payment. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding 7.5 percent per annum, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding 40 years from their date or dates, as may be determined by the governing body, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the unit, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the governing body prior to the issuance of the bonds. The governing body shall determine the form of the bonds and the interest coupons to be attached thereto, the manner of executing the bonds and coupons, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of the principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the state. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. All revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall have and are hereby declared to be and to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the Negotiable Instruments Law of the state. Provision may be made for the registration of any of the bonds in the name of the owner as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion of any of the bonds registered as to both principal and interest into coupon bonds. Such bonds may be issued without regard to any limitation on indebtedness prescribed by any other law and shall not be included in the amount of bonds which any unit may be authorized to issue under any statute or charter. The governing body may sell such bonds in such manner and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interests of the unit, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than 7.5 percent per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computation the amount of any premium to be paid on the redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the governing body may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts, interim certificates, or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds have been executed and are available for delivery. The governing body may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated, or be destroyed or lost. Such revenue bonds may be issued without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this part.

(2) The proceeds of such bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the project, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, as the governing body may provide. If the proceeds of such bonds, by error of estimates or otherwise, shall be less than the cost of the project, additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit, and, unless otherwise provided in the ordinance or resolution or in the trust agreement hereinafter mentioned, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued for the same project. If the proceeds of bonds issued for any project shall exceed the cost thereof, the surplus shall be paid into the fund hereinafter provided for the payment of the principal of and the interest on such bonds.

(3) In the event that a unit has heretofore acquired or constructed a project as hereinabove defined, and, to pay the cost of such acquisition or construction or of improvements thereof, shall have issued revenue bonds or certificates of the unit payable from the revenues of such project or any other special funds provided for herein, and in the further event that such unit shall desire to construct additions, extensions, improvements or betterments to such project or to acquire by purchase or to construct an additional project and to combine such additional project with the project theretofore purchased or constructed, and to refund such outstanding revenue bonds or certificates, such unit may provide for the issuance of a single issue of revenue bonds under the provisions of this part for the combined purposes:

(a) Of refunding such revenue bonds or certificates then outstanding if they have matured or shall then be subject to redemption or will be subject to redemption within 10 years thereafter, or can be acquired for retirement, and

(b) Of constructing such additions, extensions, improvements or betterments or of acquiring by purchase or of constructing such additional project, and the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds shall be payable from the revenues derived from the operation of the combined projects as a single project, and any other special funds pledged therefor as provided herein.

(4) The ordinance or resolution providing for the issuance of the revenue bonds and the trust agreement hereinafter mentioned, may also contain such limitations upon the issuance of additional revenue bonds as the governing body may deem proper, and such additional bonds shall be issued under such restrictions and limitations as may be prescribed by such ordinance or resolution or by the trust agreement hereinafter mentioned. All moneys received from any bonds issued and sold under the provisions of this part shall be applied solely for the purposes for which the bonds shall be authorized or to the sinking fund created for the payment of such bonds.

(5) No revenue bonds shall be issued by a unit under the authority of this part unless the governing body of such unit shall have theretofore found and determined:

(a) The estimated cost of the project on account of which such bonds are to be issued,

(b) The estimated annual revenues of such project, and of any other special funds provided for in this part which are to be pledged as additional security for said bonds, and

(c) The estimated annual cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the project and the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof as such interest and principal shall become due.

History.—s. 8, ch. 28045, 1953; s. 1, ch. 67-484; s. 5, ch. 67-550; s. 10, ch. 73-302.

159.09 Trust agreement.—In the discretion of the governing body, each or any issue of such bonds may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the unit and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside the state. Such trust agreement may pledge or assign the revenues to be received, but shall not convey or mortgage any project or any part thereof. Either the ordinance or resolution providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or such trust agreement may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the unit and the governing body thereof in relation to the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance, operation, repair, and insurance of the project, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state to act as such depository and to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the governing body. Such ordinance or resolution or such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, if any, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures securing bonds or debentures of corporations. In addition to the foregoing, such ordinance or resolution or such trust agreement may contain such other provisions as the governing body may deem reasonable and proper for the security of bondholders. Except as in this part otherwise provided, the governing body may provide, by ordinance or resolution or by such trust agreement, for the payment of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and the revenues of the project to such officer, board or depository as it may determine for the custody thereof, and for the method of disbursement thereof, with such safeguards and restrictions as it may determine. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of operation of the project affected by such trust agreement.

159.10 Revenues of projects.—

(1) The governing body shall fix and revise from time to time rates, fees, rentals, tolls or other charges for the use of each project or for the services and facilities furnished thereby and charge and collect the same. Such rates, fees, rentals, tolls, or other charges shall be so fixed and adjusted, in respect of the aggregate of rates, fees, rentals, tolls, or other charges from the project or projects for which a single issue of bonds is issued, as to provide a fund sufficient, together with any other special funds pledged therefor as provided in this part, to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating such project or projects and the principal of and interest on the revenue bonds as the same shall become due and reserves for such purposes and all such other payments required by the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such revenue bonds. Such rates, fees, rentals, tolls and other charges shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any state commission, board, bureau or agency.

(2) All or a sufficient amount of the revenues derived from a project or projects for which revenue bonds have been issued shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same, in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to and charged with the payment of the principal and interest upon such bonds as the same shall become due, any premium upon bonds retired by call or purchase as herein provided, and for reserves therefor, and to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the project or projects and reserves therefor, all in the order of priority and manner as shall be provided in such ordinance or resolution or trust agreement. The use and disposition of such sinking fund shall be subject to such regulations as may be provided in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in such trust agreement, but, except as may otherwise be provided in such ordinance or resolution or such trust agreement, such sinking fund shall be a fund for the benefit of all bonds without distinction or priority of one over another.

(3) If any county, city or town or any department, agency or instrumentality thereof elects to avail itself of the services and facilities afforded by a project financed by it under the provisions of this part, it shall pay for the same at the established rates as the charges therefor accrue, and the revenues so received shall be deemed to be a part of the revenues of such project.

History.—s. 10, ch. 28045, 1953; s. 6, ch. 67-550.

159.11 Trust funds.—All moneys received pursuant to the authority of this part, whether as proceeds from the sale of revenue bonds or as revenues, shall be deemed to be trust funds, to be held and applied solely as provided in this part. The governing body shall, in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement, provide for the payment of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and the revenues to be received to any officer who, or to any agency, bank or trust company which, shall act as trustee of such funds, and hold and apply the same to the purposes hereof, subject to such regulations as this part and such ordinance or resolution or trust agreement may provide.

159.12 Remedies of bondholders and trustee.

—Any holder of revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part or any of the coupons attached thereto, and the trustee under the trust agreement, if any, except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by ordinance or resolution passed before the issuance of the bonds or by the trust agreement, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the state or granted hereunder or under such ordinance or resolution or trust agreement, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this part, or by such ordinance or resolution or trust agreement, to be performed by the unit or its governing body or by any officer thereof, including the fixing, charging and collecting of rates, fees, rentals, tolls and other charges for the use of the project or for the services and facilities furnished thereby.

159.13 Revenue refunding bonds.—

(1) The governing body of any unit is hereby authorized to provide by ordinance or resolution for the issuance of revenue refunding bonds of such unit for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds then outstanding and which shall then have matured or are then redeemable or subject to redemption within 10 years thereafter or can be acquired for retirement and issued under the provisions of this part or any other law for the purpose of paying all or a part of the cost of a project as defined in this part. The governing body of any unit is further authorized to provide by ordinance or resolution for the issuance of revenue bonds of the unit for the combined purposes of:

(a) Paying the cost of any improvements of a project or of acquiring by purchase or of constructing an additional project or projects and of;

(b) Revenue refunding bonds of the unit which shall theretofore have been issued for such project and shall then be outstanding and which shall then have matured or are then redeemable or subject to redemption within 10 years thereafter or can be acquired for retirement.

The issuance of such revenue refunding bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the governing body and of the unit in respect to the same, shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this part insofar as the same may be applicable.

(2) If such outstanding revenue bonds to be refunded are not immediately redeemable the issuing unit shall have power to invest the proceeds of such revenue refunding bonds in direct obligations of the United States until the first date upon which such outstanding revenue bonds are redeemable prior to maturity, not in any event later than 10 years from the date of issuance of such revenue refunding bonds.

History.—s. 13, ch. 28045, 1953; s. 7, ch. 67-550.

159.14 Alternative method.—This part shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized hereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing. This part, being necessary for the welfare of the inhabitants of the counties and municipalities of the state, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

History.—s. 14, ch. 28045, 1953.

159.15 Tax exemption and eligibility as investments.—

(1) It is hereby found and determined that all of the purposes for which revenue bonds are authorized to be issued by this part constitute essential governmental purposes, and all of the properties, revenues, moneys and other assets owned and used in the operation of such projects, and all revenue bonds issued hereunder and the interest thereon shall be exempt from all taxation by the state or by any county, municipality, political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof. The exemption granted by this subsection shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

(2) Any revenue bonds issued hereunder shall be and constitute legal investments for all public bodies and for all banks, savings banks, guardians, insurance funds, trustees or other fiduciaries and shall be and constitute eligible securities to be deposited as collateral for the security of any state, county, municipal or other public funds.

History.—s. 8, ch. 67-550; s. 2, ch. 73-327.

159.16 Additional pledge of faith and credit.—

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, any county or municipality issuing revenue bonds hereunder for any of the purposes provided in this part, shall have power to pledge the full faith and credit and ad valorem taxing power of such county or municipality for the payment of the principal of or interest on such revenue bonds if the issuance of such revenue bonds with such additional pledge shall have approval by the qualified electors who are freeholders residing in such county or municipality in an election called, conducted and held in the manner provided in the Constitution and Statutes of Florida for the holding of freeholder elections.

(2) In the event such additional pledge is made the county or municipality shall be obligated to levy ad valorem taxes without limit as to rate or amount for the payment of the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds, and the issuance of such revenue bonds with such additional pledge of the faith and credit of such county or municipality shall not be subject to any debt limitation contained in any other law, general, special or local.

History.—s. 8, ch. 67-550.

159.17 Lien of service charges.—Any municipality issuing revenue bonds hereunder shall have a lien on all lands or premises served by any water system, sewer system or gas system for all service charges for such facilities until paid, which liens shall be prior to all other liens on such lands or premises except the lien of state, county and municipal taxes and shall be on a parity with the lien of such state, county and municipal taxes. Such liens, when delinquent for more than 30 days, may be foreclosed by such municipality in the manner provided by the laws of Florida for the foreclosure of mortgages on real property.

History.—s. 8, ch. 67-550.

159.18 Collection of charges.—

(1) Any municipality shall have power to discontinue and shut off the supplying of any or all water, gas and sewer services to any users of the facilities of a water system, gas system or sewer system of such municipality for nonpayment of service charges for any such water system, gas system or sewer system, and may covenant with the holders of any revenue bonds issued hereunder that it will not restore the supplying of any water, gas or sewer services to such delinquent users until all charges, with reasonable interest and penalties, for all water, gas and sewer services have been paid in full.

(2) Any municipality shall have power to enter into valid and legally binding contracts with any person, public or private corporation, board or other body supplying water to any premises served by the sewer system or facilities of the municipality for the shutting off and discontinuing of the supply of water to such premises as long as any charges for the sewer services or facilities of the municipality are unpaid, under such terms and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon, including provisions for the billing and collecting of the sewer charges of the municipality by the owners of the water facilities at the same time water charges are billed and collected by such owners of the water facilities.

History.—s. 8, ch. 67-550.

159.19 Additional pledge of excise taxes.—

(1) Any municipality may pledge the proceeds of utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, or franchise taxes, as defined herein, or any other excise taxes or other funds which such municipality is authorized to levy and collect or will have available, as additional security for the payment of the principal of and interest on any revenue bonds issued hereunder, or for reserves for such debt service.

services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes, or other excise taxes as provided herein, such pledge shall be and constitute a valid and legally binding contract between the municipality and the holders of such revenue bonds as the case may be, and the municipality shall be obligated to continue the levy and collection of such utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes, or other excise taxes in accordance with the proceedings which authorize the issuance of the revenue bonds for which such utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes are so pledged as additional security as long as any of said revenue bonds are outstanding and unpaid.

(3) It shall be the mandatory duty of the municipality, when it has so pledged any utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes as additional security for such revenue bonds to continue the levy and collection of such utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes in the manner provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds for which the same are pledged, and to raise the rates of such utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes and other excise taxes to the maximum rates permitted by the statutes or franchises in effect at the time of the authorization of such bonds to the full extent necessary to comply with such proceedings authorizing the issuance of such revenue bonds.

(4) The state does hereby covenant with the holders of such revenue bonds that it will not repeal or impair, or amend in any manner which will materially and adversely affect the rights of such holders, the duty and obligation and power of the municipality to levy and collect such utilities services taxes, cigarette taxes, franchise taxes or other excise taxes in accordance with the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such revenue bonds.

159.25 Short title.—Part II of chapter 159 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Industrial Development Financing Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-104.

159.26 Legislative findings and purposes.—The Legislature finds and declares that, in order to improve the prosperity and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, to improve living conditions, to promote effective and efficient pollution control throughout the state, to promote the advancement of education and science, research in and the economic development of the state, and to increase purchasing power and opportunities for gainful employment, it is necessary and in the public interest to facilitate the financing of capital projects for industrial or manufacturing plants, research and development parks, and pollution-control facilities within the state; to facilitate and encourage the planning and development of these capital projects without regard to the boundaries between counties, municipalities, special districts, and other local governmental bodies or agencies in order to more effectively and efficiently serve the interests of the greatest number of people in the widest area practicable; and to otherwise effectuate the purpose of s. 10(c) of Art. VII of the State Constitution through the authorization of the issuance of revenue bonds by counties, municipalities, special districts, and other local governmental bodies or agencies for industrial or manufacturing plants, research and development parks, or pollution-control facilities to the extent that the interest on such bonds is exempt from income taxes under the then existing laws of the United States. The elimination, mitigation, abatement, control, or prevention of air and water pollution constitutes a proper public purpose. Local agencies are encouraged to facilitate the financing of the costs of pollution-control facilities by utilizing revenue bonds authorized by s. 10(c) of Art. VII to accomplish this public purpose.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-104; s. 1, ch. 75-126; s. 2, ch. 79-101.

159.27 Definitions.—The following words and terms, unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Bonds" or "revenue bonds" means the bonds authorized to be issued by any local agency under this part, which may consist of a single bond. The term "bonds" or "revenue bonds" shall also include a single bond, a promissory note or notes, or other debt obligations evidencing an obligation to repay borrowed money together with any security instruments or agreements securing repayment of such borrowed money and payable solely from the revenue derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of any project.

(2) "Cost" as applied to any project, shall embrace:

- (a) The cost of construction;
- (b) The cost of acquisition of property, including rights in land and other property, both real and personal and improved and unimproved;
- (c) The cost of demolishing, removing, or relocating any buildings or structures on lands so acquired, including the cost of acquiring any lands to which such buildings or structures may be moved or relocated;

(d) The cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction, and, if deemed advisable by the local agency, for a period not exceeding 1 year after completion of construction, the cost of engineering and architectural surveys, plans and specifications; and

(e) The cost of consultant and legal services, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing such project, administrative and other expenses necessary or incident to the construction of such project, and the financing of the construction thereof, including reimbursement to any state or other governmental agency or any lessee of such project for such expenditures made with the approval of the local agency that would be costs of the project hereunder had they been made directly by the local agency.

(3) "Governing body" means the board, commission, or other governing body of any local agency in which the general legislative powers of such local agency are vested.

(4) "Local agency" means any county or municipality existing or hereafter created pursuant to the laws of the state or any special district or other local governmental body existing or hereafter created pursuant to the laws of the state, the purpose for the creation of which could reasonably be interpreted to be consistent with the issuance of revenue bonds to finance the cost of projects within the meaning of this part.

(5) "Project" means any capital project comprising an industrial or manufacturing plant, research and development park, or pollution-control facility, including one or more buildings and other structures, whether or not on the same site or sites; any rehabilitation, improvement, renovation, or enlargement of, or any addition to, any buildings or structures for use as a factory, mill, processing plant, assembly plant, fabricating plant, industrial distribution center, repair, overhaul, or service facility, test facility or pollution-control facility, and other facilities, including research and development, for manufacturing, processing, assembling, repairing, overhauling, servicing, testing, or handling of any products or commodities embraced in any industrial or manufacturing plant, in connection with the purposes of a research and development park, or for controlling pollution; and including also the sites thereof and other rights in land therefor whether improved or unimproved, machinery, equipment, site preparation and landscaping, and all appurtenances and facilities incidental thereto, such as warehouses, utilities, access roads, railroad sidings, truck docking and similar facilities, parking facilities, dockage, wharfage, and other improvements necessary or convenient for any manufacturing or industrial plant, research and development park, or pollution-control facility.

(6) "State" means the State of Florida.

(7) "Research and development park" means a center of research and development activity consisting of research and development facilities, research institutes, testing laboratories, related business, government installations, and similar facilities, together with land, including all necessary appurtenances, rights, and franchises relating thereto with related buildings, facilities, and personal properties, but only to the extent that such facilities are incidental to the purposes of a research and development park.

History.—s. 3, ch. 69-104; s. 2, ch. 75-126; s. 3, ch. 79-101.

159.28 General powers.—Every local agency shall have all of the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this part, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the powers, with respect to any project or projects:

(1) To prescribe rules, regulations, and policies in connection with the performance of its functions and duties under this part;

(2) To receive, administer, and comply with conditions and requirements respecting any gift, grant, or donation of any property or money from any source, whether federal, state, or private;

(3) To make and execute agreements of lease, contracts, deeds, and other instruments necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers and functions of the local agency under this part, including contracts with persons, firms, corporations, federal and state agencies, and other local agencies, which state agencies and other local agencies are hereby authorized to enter into contracts and otherwise cooperate with any local agency to facilitate the financing, construction, and leasing of any project;

(4) To acquire by purchase, lease, gift, or otherwise, or to obtain options for the acquisition of, any property, real or personal, improved or unimproved, for the construction, operation, or maintenance of any project; provided that no project shall be financed hereunder unless the local agency shall have or shall acquire an interest in the site of the project not of less dignity than a leasehold interest, sufficient for the purpose;

(5) To sell, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, or to grant options for any such purposes with respect to any real or personal property or interest therein;

(6) To pledge or assign any money, rents, charges, fees, or other revenues and any proceeds derived from sales of property, insurance, or condemnation awards;

(7) To issue revenue bonds of the local agency for the purpose of providing funds to pay all or any part of the cost of any project, and to issue revenue refunding bonds;

(8) To construct, acquire, own, repair, maintain, extend, improve, rehabilitate, renovate, furnish, and equip projects and to pay all or any part of the costs thereof from the proceeds of bonds of the local agency or from any contribution, gift or donation or other funds made available to the local agency for such purpose;

(9) To fix, charge, and collect rents, fees, and charges for the use of any project; and

(10) To employ consulting engineers, architects, attorneys, real estate counselors, appraisers, and such other consultants and employees as may be required in the judgment of the local agency, and to fix and pay their compensation from funds available to the local agency therefor.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-104.

159.285 Additional county powers.—

(1) A county shall have full power and authority to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of financing and providing funds to pay the cost of pollution-control facilities or devices, or to provide facilities for the furnishing of water or sewerage or solid-waste disposal incorporated as a part of any project whether or not the site or sites of the project are located wholly or in part outside the boundaries of the county issuing the revenue bonds. However, the ultimate owner or user of the project shall maintain the project or the owner's or user's principal place of business within the boundaries of the county issuing the revenue bonds, and the revenue bonds shall comply with the requirements of s. 10(c) Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(2) As a condition precedent to issuing revenue bonds for the purpose of financing and providing funds to pay the cost of pollution-control facilities or devices or to provide facilities for the furnishing of water or sewerage or solid-waste disposal incorporated in a project located outside the boundaries of the county as authorized by subsection (1), the board of county commissioners or industrial development authority shall determine that the proposed facilities or devices are reasonably designed and intended to eliminate, mitigate, abate, control, or prevent air or water pollution or to provide facilities for the furnishing of water or sewerage or solid-waste disposal within the meaning of the rules and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service and that the ultimate owner or user of the project involved is financially responsible and fully capable and willing to fulfill its obligations under the contractual arrangements or lease with the county governing the project, including the obligation to pay rent or contract installments in the amounts and at the times required, to operate, repair, and maintain, at its own expense, the project leased or owned, and to serve the purposes of this part and such other responsibilities as may be imposed under the lease or contract.

(3) A county issuing revenue bonds pursuant to subsection (1) for the purpose of financing and providing funds for a project located wholly or in part outside the boundaries of the county issuing the revenue bonds may, in its discretion, request the board of county commissioners or the industrial development authority for the county or counties in which the site or sites of the project are located wholly or in part to make the determination required by s. 159.29 of the county issuing the bonds. The determination by such county or counties in which the project is located wholly or in part that the criteria and requirements of s. 159.29 are met shall be final and conclusive and shall constitute satisfaction of the requirements of s. 159.29.

159.29 Criteria and requirements.—In undertaking any project pursuant to this part, a local agency shall be guided by and shall observe the following criteria and requirements; provided that the determination of the local agency as to compliance with such criteria and requirements shall be final and conclusive:

(1) The project, in the determination of the local agency, shall make a significant contribution to the economic growth of the local agency in which it is to be located, shall provide gainful employment, and shall serve a public purpose by advancing the economic prosperity and the general welfare of the state and its people.

(2) No project shall be leased to any lessee which is not financially responsible and fully capable and willing to fulfill its obligations under the agreement of lease, including the obligation to pay rent in the amounts and at the times required, the obligation to operate, repair and maintain at its own expense the project leased, and to serve the purposes of this part and such other responsibilities as may be imposed under the lease. In determining financial responsibility of such lessee consideration shall be given to the lessee's ratio of current assets to current liabilities, net worth, earning trends, coverage of all fixed charges, the nature of the industry or business involved, its inherent stability, any guarantee of the obligations by some other financially responsible corporation, firm or person, and other factors determinative of the capability of the lessee, financially and otherwise, to fulfill its obligations consistently with the purposes of this part.

(3) The local agency in which the project is to be located will be able to cope satisfactorily with the impact of such project and will be able to provide, or cause to be provided when needed, the public facilities, including utilities and public services, that will be necessary for the construction, operation, repair, and maintenance of the project and on account of any increases in population or other circumstances resulting therefrom.

(4) Adequate provision shall be made for the operation, repair, and maintenance of the project at the expense of the lessee and for the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds, and for reserves therefor.

History.—s. 5, ch. 69-104.

159.30 Agreements of lease.—

(1) No project financed under the provisions of this part shall be operated by the local agency or any other governmental agency, provided that the local agency may temporarily operate or cause to be operated all or any part of a project to protect its interest therein pending any leasing of such project in accordance with this part. The local agency shall lease a project or projects to one or more persons, firms, or private corporations for operation and maintenance in such a manner as shall effectuate the purposes of this part, under an agreement of lease in form and substance not inconsistent herewith. Any such agreement of lease may provide, among other provisions, that:

(a) The lessee shall at its own expense operate, repair, and maintain the project or projects leased thereunder;

(b) The rent payable under the lease shall in the aggregate be not less than an amount sufficient to pay all of the interest, principal, and redemption premiums, if any, on the bonds that shall be issued by the local agency to pay the cost of the project or projects leased thereunder;

(c) The lessee shall pay all other costs incurred by the local agency in connection with the financing, construction, and administration of the project or projects leased, except as may be paid out of the proceeds of bonds or otherwise, including, but without being limited to, insurance costs, the cost of administering the bond resolution authorizing such bonds and any trust agreement securing the bonds, and the fees and expenses of trustees, paying agents, attorneys, consultants and others;

(d) The term of the lease shall terminate not earlier than the date on which all such bonds and all other obligations incurred by the local agency in connection with the project or projects leased thereunder shall be paid in full, including interest, principal and redemption premiums, if any, or adequate funds for such payment shall be deposited in trust;

(e) The lessee's obligation to pay rent shall not be subject to cancellation, termination, or abatement by the lessee until such payment of the bonds or provision for such payment shall be made.

(2) Such agreement of lease may contain such additional provisions as in the determination of the local agency are necessary or convenient to effectuate the purposes of this part, including provisions for extensions of the term and renewals of the lease and vesting in the lessee an option to purchase the project leased thereunder pursuant to such terms and conditions consistent with this part as shall be prescribed in the lease; provided that, except as may otherwise be expressly stated in the agreement of lease to provide for any contingencies involving the damaging, destruction, or condemnation of the project leased or any substantial portion thereof, such option to purchase may not be exercised unless all bonds issued for such project, including all principal, interest and redemption premiums, if any, and all other obligations incurred by the local agency in connection with such project shall have been paid in full or sufficient funds shall have been deposited in trust for such payment; and provided further that the purchase price of such project shall not be less than an amount sufficient to pay in full all of the bonds, including all principal, interest and redemption premium, if any, issued for the project then outstanding and all other obligations incurred by the local agency in connection with such project.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-104.

159.31 Tax exemption.—The exercise of the powers granted by this part in all respects will be for the benefit of the people of the state, for the increase of their industry and prosperity, and for the improvement of their health and living conditions, and for the provision of gainful employment, and will constitute the performance of essential public functions, and the local agency shall not be required to pay any taxes on any project or any other property owned by the local agency under the provisions of this part or upon the income therefrom, and the bonds issued under the provisions of this part, their transfer, and the income therefrom (including any profit made on the sale thereof), shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any local unit or political subdivision or other instrumentality of the state. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as exempting from taxation or assessments the leasehold interest of any lessee in any project or any other property or interest owned by any lessee, and if any project or any part thereof shall be occupied or operated by any private corporation, association, partnership, or person pursuant to any contract or lease with the local agency, the property interest created by such contract or lease shall be subject to taxation to the same extent as other privately owned property. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 7, ch. 69-104; s. 3, ch. 73-327.

159.32 Construction contracts.—Contracts for the construction of the project may be awarded by the local agency in such manner as in its judgment will best promote free and open competition, including advertisement for competitive bids in a newspaper of general circulation within the boundaries of the local agency; provided, however, that if the local agency shall determine that the purposes of this part will be more effectively served, the local agency in its discretion may award or cause to be awarded contracts for the construction of any project, or any part thereof, upon a negotiated basis as determined by the local agency. The local agency shall prescribe such bid security requirements and other procedures in connection with the award of such contracts as in its judgment shall protect the public interest. The local agency may by written contract engage the services of the lessee or prospective lessee of any project in the construction of such project and may provide in such contract that the lessee or prospective lessee may act as an agent of, or an independent contractor for, the local agency for the performance of the functions described therein, subject to such conditions and requirements consistent with the provisions of this part as shall be prescribed in such contract, including such functions as the acquisition of the site and other real property for such project, the preparation of plans, specifications and contract documents, the award of construction and other contracts upon a competitive or negotiated basis, the construction of such project, or any part thereof, directly by such lessee or prospective lessee, the inspection and supervision of construction, the employment of engineers, architects, builders, and other contractors, and the provision of money to pay the cost thereof pending reimbursement by the local agency. Any such contract may provide that the local agency may, out of proceeds of bonds, make advances to or reimburse the lessee or prospective lessee for its costs incurred in the performance of such functions, and shall set forth the supporting documents required to be submitted to the local agency and the reviews, examinations, and audits that shall be required in connection therewith to assure compliance with the provisions of this part and such contract.

History.—s. 8, ch. 69-104.

159.33 Credit of state or political subdivision not pledged.—

(1) Bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of the local agency or of the state or of any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the local agency or of the state or of any such political subdivision, but shall be payable solely from the revenues provided therefor. Each bond issued under this part shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that the local agency shall not be obligated to pay the same nor interest thereon except from the revenues and proceeds pledged therefor, and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the local agency or of the state or of any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of or the interest on such bonds.

(2) Expenses incurred by the local agency in carrying out the provisions of this part may be made payable from funds provided pursuant to this part and no liability or obligation shall be incurred by the local agency hereunder beyond the extent to which moneys shall have been so provided. Any and all moneys advanced on behalf of any project, which are derived from any tax source of the local agency, shall be repaid from the bond proceeds or from the lessee to the governmental entity which advanced same.

159.34 Bonds.—

(1) The local agency is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance, at one time or from time to time, of industrial revenue bonds of the local agency for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of any project or projects. The bonds shall be designated, subject to such additions or changes as the local agency deems advisable, ".....Industrial Development Revenue Bonds" (inserting in the blank space the name of the local agency which issues the bonds). The principal of and the interest on such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided for such payment. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates, and shall mature at such time or times from their date or dates as may be determined by the local agency, and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the local agency at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the local agency prior to the issuance of the bonds. The local agency shall determine the form and the manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the state. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. The local agency may also provide for the authentication of the bonds by a trustee or fiscal agent. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the local agency may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of registered and coupon bonds. The local agency may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as it may determine will best effectuate the purpose of this part.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions in this part, revenue bonds and revenue refunding bonds may be issued under this part only to the extent that the interest thereon is exempt from income taxes under the then existing laws of the United States, and revenue bonds may be issued only if they are payable solely from revenue derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of any project or projects.

(3) The proceeds of the bonds of each issue shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the project or projects, or portion or portions thereof, for which such bonds shall have been issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, as the local agency may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement hereinafter mentioned securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue, by reason of increased construction costs or error in estimates or otherwise, shall be less than such cost, additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficiency, and unless otherwise provided in the bond resolution or in the trust agreement, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue shall exceed such cost, such excess shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds, or, if so provided in such resolution or trust agreement, may be applied to the payment of the cost of any additional project or projects.

(4) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the local agency may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. The local agency may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost.

(5) Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this part without obtaining, except as otherwise expressly provided in this part, the consent of any department, division, commission, board, body, bureau, or agency of the state, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions, or things which are specifically required by this part and the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the trust agreement securing the same.

(6) A local agency may provide in any bond resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, or trust agreement securing the same, and in any agreement of lease or other contract respecting the project, that if at any time after such bonds have been sold and delivered it is ascertained by the local agency or its designee that the interest on the bonds is no longer exempt under federal income tax laws, or that operation of the project is no longer economically or legally feasible by reason of the condemnation, damaging, or destruction of all or any part of the project or by changes in the law, measures deemed necessary by the local agency may be taken to protect the interest of the holders of its bonds, including the acceleration of the date or dates for calling the bonds for redemption, increasing the redemption premium and the rates of interest on the bonds, or increasing the rent under any such agreement of lease. The local agency may also require financial guarantees by guarantors acceptable to the local agency that obligations of any lessee under any such agreement of lease or contract shall be performed or otherwise satisfied.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-104.

159.35 Trust agreement.—In the discretion of the local agency, any bonds issued under the provisions of this part may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the local agency and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state. Such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may pledge or assign the fees, rents, charges, proceeds from the sale of any project or part thereof, insurance proceeds, condemnation awards, and other funds and revenues to be received therefor, and may provide for the mortgaging of any project or any part thereof as security for repayment of the bonds. Such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the local agency in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation, and insurance of the project or projects in connection with which such bonds shall have been authorized, the fees, rents, and other charges to be fixed and collected, the sale of any project, or part thereof, or other property, the terms and conditions for the issuance of additional bonds, and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the state which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds, revenues, or other money hereunder to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the local agency. Any such trust agreement or resolution may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement or resolution may contain such other provisions as the local agency may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of such trust agreement or resolution may be treated as a part of the cost of the project or projects in connection with which bonds are issued or as an expense of administration of such project or projects, as the case may be.

History.—s. 11, ch. 69-104.

159.36 Revenues.—

(1) The local agency is hereby authorized to fix and to collect fees, rents, and charges for the use of any project or projects, and any part or section thereof, and to contract with any person, partnership, association, or corporation respecting the use thereof. The local agency may require that the lessee or users of any project or any part thereof, shall operate, repair, and maintain the project and shall bear the cost thereof and other costs of the local agency in connection with the project or projects leased, as may be provided in the agreement of lease or other contract with the local agency, in addition to other obligations imposed under such agreement or contract.

(2) The fees, rents, and charges shall be so fixed as to provide a fund sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable and to create reserves for such purposes. The fees, rents, and charges and all other revenues and proceeds derived from the project or projects in connection with which the bonds of any issue shall have been issued, except such part thereof as may be necessary for such reserves or any expenditures as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same, shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be specified in such resolution or such trust agreement in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to and charged with the payment of the principal of and the interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and the redemption price or the purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as therein provided. Such pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The fees, rents, charges, and other revenues and moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the local agency shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the local agency, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution nor any trust agreement by which a pledge is created need be filed or recorded except in the records of the local agency. The use and disposition of money to the credit of such sinking fund shall be subject to the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or of such trust agreement. Except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or such trust agreement, such sinking fund shall be a fund for all such bonds without distinction or priority of one over another.

History.—s. 12, ch. 69-104.

159.37 Trust funds.—Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, all money received pursuant to the provisions of this part, whether as proceeds from the sale of bonds, sale of property, insurance, or condemnation awards, or as revenues, shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this part. The resolution authorizing the bonds of any issue or the trust agreement securing such bonds may provide that any of such moneys may be temporarily invested pending the disbursement thereof and shall provide that any officer with whom, or any bank or trust company with which, such moneys shall be deposited shall act as trustee of such moneys and shall hold and apply the same for the purposes hereof, subject to such regulations as this part and such resolution or trust agreement may provide.

History.—s. 13, ch. 69-104.

159.38 Remedies.—Any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this part or any of the coupons appertaining thereto, and the trustee under any trust agreement, except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by such trust agreement or the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus, or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the state or granted hereunder or under such trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds, or under any agreement of lease or other contract executed by the local agency pursuant to this part, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this part or by such trust agreement or resolution to be performed by any lessee or the local agency or by any officer thereof, including the fixing, charging, and collecting of fees, rents, and charges.

History.—s. 14, ch. 69-104.

159.39 Negotiability of bonds.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents, including negotiability, of investment securities under the Uniform Commercial Code of the state but no provision of such code respecting the filing of a financing statement to perfect a security interest shall be deemed necessary for or applicable to any security interest created in connection with the issuance of any such bonds.

History.—s. 15, ch. 69-104.

159.40 Bonds eligible for investment.—Bonds issued by any local agency under the provisions of this part are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or obligations of the state is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

159.41 Revenue refunding bonds.—

(1) Any local agency is authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of revenue refunding bonds of the local agency for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding which shall have been issued under the provisions of this part, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, and, if deemed advisable by the local agency for either or both of the following additional purposes:

(a) Constructing improvements, additions, extensions or enlargements of the project or projects in connection with which the bonds to be refunded shall have been issued; and

(b) Paying all or any part of the cost of any additional project or projects.

The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties and obligations of the local agency in respect to the same shall be governed by the provisions of this part which relate to the issuance of revenue bonds, insofar as such provisions may be appropriate therefor.

(2) Revenue refunding bonds issued under this section may be sold or exchanged for outstanding bonds issued under this part and, if sold, the proceeds thereof may be applied, in addition to any other authorized purposes, to the purchase, redemption, or payment of such outstanding bonds. Revenue refunding bonds may be issued, in the determination of the local agency, at any time on or prior to the date of maturity or maturities or the date selected for the redemption of the bonds being refunded thereby. Pending the application of the proceeds of such refunding bonds, with any other available funds, to the payment of the principal, accrued interest, and any redemption premium on the bonds being refunded, and, if so provided or permitted in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same, to the payment of any interest on such refunding bonds and any expenses in connection with such refunding, such proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and the interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States which shall mature, or which shall be subject to redemption by the holder thereof at the option of such holder, not later than the respective dates when the proceeds, together with the interest accruing thereon, will be required for the purposes intended.

History.—s. 17, ch. 69-104; s. 2, ch. 77-269.

159.42 Cooperation of state.—The state, its officers, departments, divisions, and other state entities are authorized to cooperate with and provide assistance to local agencies in carrying out the purposes of this part and thereby promote the industry and economy of the state. Personnel, facilities, and property under the jurisdiction of such state officers and entities and such appropriated and other funds as from time to time may be available therefor may be used and applied pursuant to this section except to the extent prohibited by law.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-104.

159.43 Liberal construction.—Part II of chapter 159, being necessary for the prosperity and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

History.—s. 19, ch. 69-104.

PART III

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITIES

- 159.44 Definitions; industrial development authorities.
- 159.45 Creation of industrial development authorities.
- 159.46 Purposes.
- 159.47 Powers of the authority.
- 159.48 Levy of ad valorem taxes by board of county commissioners.
- 159.49 Credit of state or political subdivision not pledge.
- 159.50 Tax exemption.
- 159.51 Powers of chapter supplemental.
- 159.52 Issuance of bonds.
- 159.53 Construction.

159.44 Definitions; industrial development authorities.—The following words and terms, unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning, shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Bonds" or "revenue bonds" means the bonds authorized to be issued by any authority under this act, which may consist of a single bond. The term "bonds" or "revenue bonds" shall also include a single bond, a promissory note or notes, or other debt obligations evidencing an obligation to repay borrowed money.

(2) "Project" means any capital project comprising an industrial or manufacturing plant, including pollution and waste control facilities, or any part thereof, and including one or more buildings and other structures, machinery, fixtures, equipment and any rehabilitation or addition to any building or structure and machinery and equipment, as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act.

(3) "Authority," "authorities" or "industrial development authority" shall mean any of the public corporations created pursuant to ss. 159.44-159.53.

(4) "Commission" shall mean the board of county commissioners or other body charged with governing the county.

(5) "Cost" as applied to a project shall embrace the cost of construction, land or rights in land, other property, both real and personal, machinery and equipment, financing charges, including interest, and all other costs necessary for placing the project in operation as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. "Cost" shall also include the cost of financial consultants, accountants, legal services, engineering and architectural services, feasibility studies and services by other consultants and such experts as may be selected by the lessee of any such project if the cost thereof shall be paid by the lessee or be included as a cost of the project and reimbursed from proceeds of any bonds issued to finance the cost of such project.

(6) "Florida Industrial Development Financing Act" means ss. 159.25-159.43 and any amendments thereto, and the definitions contained therein shall also be applicable to ss. 159.44-159.53 and to any bonds issued pursuant thereto.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-229.

159.45 Creation of industrial development authorities.—

(1) In each county, there is hereby created a local governmental body as a public body corporate and politic to be known as the ".....County Industrial Development Authority," hereafter referred to as "authority" or "authorities." Each of the authorities is constituted as a public instrumentality for the purposes of industrial development, and the exercise by an authority of the powers conferred by ss. 159.44-159.53 shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public purpose and function. No authority shall transact any business or exercise any power hereunder until and unless the county commission by proper resolution shall declare that there is a need for an authority to function in such county. The determination as to whether there is such need for an authority to function:

(a) May be made by the commission on its own motion; or

(b) Shall be made by the commission upon the filing of a petition signed by 25 residents of the county asserting that there is need for an authority to function in such county and requesting that the commission so declare.

(2) The commission may adopt the resolution declaring that there is need for an industrial development authority in the county if it shall find that there exists a need for the development and financing of industry in the county. Such resolution shall be sufficient if it declares that there is such a need for an authority in the county. A copy of such resolution, duly certified by the clerk, shall be admissible in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(3) The aforementioned resolution shall designate five persons who are residents and electors of the county as members of the authority created for said county. Of the members first appointed, one shall serve for 1 year, one for 2 years, one for 3 years, and two for 4 years and in each case until his successor is appointed and has qualified. Thereafter, the commission shall appoint for terms of 4 years each a member or members to succeed those whose terms expire. The commission shall fill any vacancy for an unexpired term. A member of the authority shall be eligible for reappointment. Any member of the authority may be removed by the commission for misfeasance, malfeasance or willful neglect of duty. Each member of the authority before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe the oath or affirmation required by the state constitution. A record of each such oath shall be filed with the Department of State and with the clerk.

(4) The authority shall annually elect one of its members as chairman and one as vice chairman, and may also appoint a secretary who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority and receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the authority.

(5) The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books and records of the authority and of its official seal.

(6) Three members of the authority shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present shall be necessary for any action taken by the authority. No vacancy in the membership of the authority shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the authority. Any action taken by the authority under the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53 may be authorized by resolution at any regular or special meeting, and each such resolution shall take effect immediately and need not be published or posted.

(7) The members of the authority shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties hereunder but each such member shall be paid his necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the performance of such duties.

(8) The authority may also appoint such other officers as it may deem necessary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-229; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

159.46 Purposes.—Industrial development authorities, as authorized by ss. 159.44-159.53, are created for the purpose of financing and refinancing capital projects, including industrial and manufacturing plants and air, water and other pollution and waste control facilities together with appurtenant facilities for the complete operation thereof as defined by, and in the manner provided by, the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act and by ss. 159.44-159.53 and for the purpose of fostering the industrial and business development of a county. Each industrial development authority shall study the advantages, facilities, resources, products, attractions, and conditions concerning the county with relation to the encouragement of industry and business to locate in said county, and shall use such means and media as the authority deems advisable to publicize and to make known such facts and material to such persons, firms, corporations, agencies, and institutions which, in the discretion of said authority, would reasonably result in encouraging desirable industry to locate in the county. In carrying out such purpose, industrial development authorities are encouraged to cooperate and work with industrial development agencies, chambers of commerce, and other local, state, and federal agencies having responsibilities in the field of industrial development.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-229.

159.47 Powers of the authority.—The authority is authorized and empowered:

(1) To have perpetual succession as a body politic and corporate and to adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business;

(2) To adopt an official seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(3) To maintain an office at such place or places in the county as it may designate;

(4) To sue and be sued in its own name and to plead and be impleaded;

(5) To enter into contracts for any of the purposes enumerated in ss. 159.44-159.53 and in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act;

(6) To issue revenue bonds or other debt obligations repayable solely from revenues derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of such capital projects.

(7) To exercise all the powers in connection with the authorization, issuance, and sale of revenue bonds to finance the cost of capital projects conferred on counties, municipalities, special districts and other local governmental bodies by the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act; and all of the privileges, benefits, powers and terms of that act shall be fully applicable to authorities created pursuant to s. 159.45. Industrial development revenue bonds may be authorized, issued and sold by authorities in compliance with the criteria and requirements set forth in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, bear interest at such rate or rates, mature at such time or times, be redeemable prior to maturity at such price or prices, be in such denominations, contain such recitals, and be sold for such price or prices and in such manner as provided in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. Projects may be acquired, constructed, leased, operated, or sold in the manner provided in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act, and the items of cost as enumerated therein may be included as project costs. The repayment of bonds issued by the authorities may be secured by trust agreements or security agreements as set forth in such act; and fees, rents, and charges for the use of any project or any part of any project may be collected and fixed by the authority in the manner provided in such act. All moneys received pursuant to the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53 shall constitute trust funds as provided in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. The remedies provided by the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act shall also be applicable to bonds issued pursuant to ss. 159.44-159.53, and bonds of the authority may be refunded in the manner provided therein and shall be eligible for investment as provided in such act.

(8) To acquire by lease, purchase, or option real and personal property for use as sites for the location of projects as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. Authorities shall have the power to prepare sites for industrial use, including industrial parks to be used in connection with one or more projects, and may construct thereon access roads, drainage facilities, utilities, and other improvements necessary for ultimate use by industrial projects. The acquisition, development and financing of such sites may be in the manner provided in ss. 159.44-159.53 and the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. Authorities may also use such current funds as are available to acquire and prepare property as sites for industrial development purposes.

(9) In any case in which an addition to a project is financed or in which less than the entire project is financed or refinanced by industrial development bonds, the authority to secure the issuance and repayment of such bonds by a lease, mortgage, or other security instrument encumbering only the capital improvements which are financed by the authority. Such lease, mortgage, or other security instrument may include a security interest in both the land and personal property or may include a lease, mortgage, or other security instrument sufficient for the purpose encumbering only the personal property, including machinery and equipment, which is being financed. In financing projects, authorities may lease such projects to the industry which is the ultimate user until the debt obligations issued for such purpose are retired, or it may sell such capital projects to the industry using the project on an installment purchase contract or other type of purchase contract with such security instruments or trust agreements as the authority shall deem adequate, in which case the transaction shall be deemed to be a sale and not a lease of such project.

History.—s. 4, ch. 70-229.

159.48 Levy of ad valorem taxes by board of county commissioners.—The exercise of the powers granted industrial development authorities is declared to be a public and county purpose. The board of county commissioners is authorized to, and may, levy ad valorem taxes in an amount not to exceed 1 mill annually for the purposes of ss. 159.44-159.53. The proceeds of such ad valorem tax shall be used to aid each industrial development authority in fostering, developing, and locating industry in the county and to pay the reasonable operating expenses of the authority to the extent that the board of county commissioners finds necessary. No ad valorem taxes shall ever be used for the purpose of paying the interest or principal on any bonds issued to finance or refinance an industrial or manufacturing project as prohibited by the state constitution.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-229.

159.49 Credit of state or political subdivision not pledge.—

(1) The revenue bonds issued by the authority shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of any authority or county or of the state or any political subdivision, and such revenue bonds or debt obligations shall be payable solely from revenues derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of a project or projects.

(2) All bonds issued under the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53 shall have, and are declared to have, all the qualities and incidents, including negotiability, of investment securities under the Uniform Commercial Code.

(3) Bonds may be issued under the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53 without obtaining, except as otherwise provided in said sections, the consent of any department, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state and without any other proceedings or the happening of any conditions except those which are specifically required by the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the trust agreement securing the same.

History.—s. 6, ch. 70-229.

159.50 Tax exemption.—The exercise of the powers granted by ss. 159.44-159.53 in all respects will be for the benefit of the people of the state, for the increase of their industry and prosperity and the improvement of their health and living conditions, and for the provision of gainful employment and will constitute the performance of essential public functions, and the authority shall not be required to pay any taxes on any project or any other property owned by the authority under the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53 or upon the income therefrom, and the bonds issued under the provisions of ss. 159.44-159.53, their transfer, and the income therefrom (including any profit made on the sale thereof) shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any local unit or political subdivision or other instrumentality of the state. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as exempting from taxation or assessments the leasehold interest of any lessee in any project or any other property or interest owned by any lessee. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-229; s. 4, ch. 73-327.

159.51 Powers of chapter supplemental.—The powers conferred by ss. 159.44-159.53 shall be in addition and supplementary to existing powers and statutes, and said sections shall not be construed as repealing any of the provisions of any other law, general or local.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-229.

159.52 Issuance of bonds.—The bonds issued under ss. 159.44-159.53 may be validated in the manner prescribed by chapter 75.

History.—s. 9, ch. 70-229.

159.53 Construction.—Sections 159.44-159.53, being necessary for the prosperity and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

159.601 Short title.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Housing Finance Authority Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-89.

159.602 Finding and declaration of necessity.—It is found and declared that:

(1) Within this state there is a shortage of housing available at prices or rentals which many persons and families can afford, and a shortage of capital for investment in such housing. This shortage constitutes a threat to the health, safety, morals, and welfare of the residents of the state, deprives the state of an adequate tax base, and causes the state to make excessive expenditures for crime prevention and control, public health, welfare, and safety, fire and accident protection, and other public services and facilities.

(2) Such shortage cannot be relieved except through the encouragement of investment by private enterprise and the stimulation of construction and rehabilitation of housing through the use of public financing.

(3) The financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, and rehabilitation of housing and of the real and personal property and other facilities necessary, incidental, and appurtenant thereto are exclusively public uses and purposes for which public money may be spent, advanced, loaned, or granted and are governmental functions of public concern.

(4) The Congress of the United States has, by the enactment of amendments to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, found and determined that housing may be financed by means of obligations issued by any state or local governmental unit, the interest on which obligations is exempt from federal income taxation, and has thereby provided a method to aid state and local governmental units to provide assistance to meet the need for housing.

(5) The provisions of this act are found and declared to be necessary and in the public interest as a matter of legislative determination.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-89.

159.603 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Area of operation" means the area within the territorial boundaries of the county for which the housing finance authority is created, and any area outside the territorial boundaries of such county if the governing body of the county within which such outside area is located approves. The approval may be a general approval or an approval only for specified qualifying housing developments or only for a specified number of qualifying housing developments.

(2) "Bonds" means any bonds, notes, debentures, interim certificates, or other evidences of financial indebtedness issued by a housing finance authority under and pursuant to this act.

(3) "Housing finance authority" means a housing finance authority created pursuant to s. 159.604.

(4) "Housing development" means any residential building, land, equipment, facility, or other real or personal property which may be necessary, convenient, or desirable in connection therewith, including streets, sewers, water and utility services, park, gardening, administrative, community, health, recreational, and educational facilities, and other facilities related and subordinate to moderate, middle, or lesser income housing, and also includes site preparation, the planning of housing and improvements, the acquisition of property, the removal or demolition of existing structures, the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, and rehabilitation of housing and improvements, and all other work in connection therewith, and all costs of financing, including without limitation the cost of consultant and legal services, other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility of the housing development, administrative and other expenses necessary or incident to the housing development and the financing thereof (including reimbursement to any municipality, county, or entity for expenditures made with the approval of the housing finance authority for the housing development), and interest accrued during construction and for a reasonable period thereafter.

(5) "Lending institution" means any bank or trust company, mortgage banker, savings bank, credit union, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, insurance company, or other financial institution authorized to transact business in this state and which customarily provides service or otherwise aids in the financing of mortgages located in the state.

(6) "Qualifying housing development" means any housing development which a housing finance authority finds will assist in alleviating the shortage of housing in the area of operation of such authority.

(7) "Eligible persons" means persons or families, irrespective of race, creed, national origin, or sex, determined by the housing finance authority by rule to be of moderate, middle, or lesser income requiring such assistance as is made available pursuant to this act on account of insufficient personal or family income and taking into consideration such facts as:

(a) The amount of the total income of such persons and families available for housing needs.

(b) The size of the family.

(c) The cost and condition of available housing facilities.

(d) The ability of such persons and families to compete successfully in the normal, private housing market and to pay the amounts for which private enterprise is providing sanitary, decent, and safe housing.

(e) If appropriate, the standards established for various federal programs determining eligibility based on income of such persons and families.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-89.

159.604 Creation of housing finance authorities.—

(1) Each county in this state may create by ordinance a separate public body corporate and politic, to be known as the "Housing Finance Authority" of the county for which it is created, to carry out only the powers granted in this act. A housing finance authority shall not transact any business or exercise any powers under this act until the governing body of the county for which such housing finance authority is created passes a resolution declaring the need for a housing finance authority to function to alleviate a shortage of housing and capital for investment in housing in its area of operation.

(2) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of a housing finance authority, the housing finance authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers under this act upon proof of the adoption of an ordinance by the appropriate governing body declaring the need for the housing finance authority. The ordinance shall be sufficient if it declares the need for such a housing finance authority and finds that there is a shortage of housing and capital for investment in housing within its area of operation. A copy of the ordinance certified by the clerk of the circuit court shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(3) The county for which the housing finance authority is created may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of any housing finance authority, including the power to terminate such authority, subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by such authority and subject to the limitations or requirements of this act.

159.605 Members; employees; duties and compensation.—

(1) Each housing finance authority shall be composed of five members appointed by the governing body of the county for which the housing finance authority is created, one of whom shall be designated chairman. Not less than three of the members shall be knowledgeable in one of the following fields: Labor, finance, or commerce. The terms of the members shall be 4 years each, except that the terms of the initial members shall be as follows: Two members shall serve a term of 1 year; one member shall serve a term of 2 years; one member shall serve a term of 3 years; and one member shall serve a term of 4 years. A member of the housing finance authority shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. Each vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any member of the housing finance authority shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of the member. A member shall receive no compensation for his services, but shall be entitled to necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties.

(2) The powers of each housing finance authority granted by this act shall be vested in the members of the housing finance authority in office from time to time. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and action may be taken by the housing finance authority upon a vote of a majority of the members present. A housing finance authority may employ such agents and employees, permanent or temporary, as it may require and shall determine the qualifications, duties, and compensation of such agents and employees. A housing finance authority may delegate to an agent or employee such powers or duties as it may deem proper. A housing finance authority may employ its own legal counsel.

(3) Until the members of the housing finance authority are appointed, the governing body of the county for which the housing finance authority is created and the chairman of the housing finance authority shall have full authority to carry out the powers of a housing finance authority under this act; however, the governing body shall not delegate its authority to the chairman under this provision. Except as provided in this section, no member of the housing finance authority may be an officer or employee of the county for which the housing finance authority is created.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-89.

159.606 Conflicts of interest; disclosure.—No member or employee of a housing finance authority shall acquire any interest, direct or indirect, in any qualifying housing development or in any property included or planned to be included in such a development, nor shall he have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract for materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any qualifying housing development. If any member or employee of a housing finance authority owns or controls an interest, direct or indirect, in any property included or planned to be included in any qualifying housing project, he shall immediately disclose the same in writing to the housing finance authority. Such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the housing finance authority. Failure so to disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct in office.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-89.

159.607 Removal of members.—A member of a housing finance authority may be removed without cause by a three-fifths vote of the governing body of the county, or for neglect of duty or misconduct in office by a majority vote of the governing body of the county. A member may be removed only after he has been given a copy of the charges at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon and has had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. If a member is removed, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings thereon, shall be filed in the office of the clerk where the certificate of appointment for such member is filed.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-89.

159.608 Powers of housing finance authorities.—A housing finance authority shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising the public and essential governmental functions set forth in this act, and shall exercise its power to borrow only for the purpose as provided herein:

(1) To sue and be sued, to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure, to have perpetual succession, to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the housing finance authority, and to make and from time to time amend and repeal by-laws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the housing finance authority.

(2) To purchase or make commitments to purchase or to make loans for such purpose, and to take assignments of, from lending institutions acting as a principal or as an agent of the housing finance authority, mortgage loans and promissory notes accompanying such mortgage loans, including federally insured mortgage loans or participations with lending institutions in such promissory notes and mortgage loans for the construction, purchase, reconstruction, or rehabilitation of the qualifying housing development or portion thereof; provided, that the proceeds of sale or equivalent moneys shall be reinvested in mortgage loans.

(3) To make loans to lending institutions under terms and conditions requiring the proceeds thereof to be used by such lending institutions for the making of new mortgages for any qualifying housing development, or portion thereof, located wholly or partially within the area of operation of such housing finance authority. Prior to making a loan to a lending institution which makes such loans or provides such financing, the lending institution must agree to use the proceeds of such loan within a reasonable period of time to make loans or to otherwise provide financing for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or rehabilitation of a housing development or portion thereof, and the housing finance authority must find that such loan will assist in alleviating the shortage of housing and of capital for investment in housing within its area of operation.

(4) To invest, at the direction of the lending institution, any funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any funds not required for immediate disbursement in property or securities in which lending institutions may legally invest funds subject to their control.

History.—s. 8, ch. 78-89.

159.609 Limitation.—No housing finance authority shall finance the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, or rehabilitation of any qualifying housing development for its own profit or as a source of revenue to the state or any local governmental unit.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-89.

159.61 No power of eminent domain.—No housing finance authority shall have the power to acquire any real property by the exercise of the power of eminent domain to accomplish any of the purposes specified in this act.

History.—s. 10, ch. 78-89.

159.611 Planning, zoning, and building laws.—Each qualifying housing development shall be subject to the planning, zoning, health, and building laws, ordinances, and regulations applicable to the place in which such qualifying housing development is situate.

History.—s. 11, ch. 78-89.

159.612 Bonds.—

(1) A housing finance authority may issue revenue bonds from time to time in the discretion of the housing finance authority for the purposes of this act. A housing finance authority may also issue refunding bonds for the purpose of paying, retiring, or refunding bonds previously issued by it. A housing finance authority may issue such types of bonds as it may determine; provided that the principal and interest on such bonds are payable solely and only from:

(a) The repayment of any loans made by the housing finance authority pursuant to the provisions of s. 159.608 or purchased by the housing finance authority pursuant to s. 159.608; or

(b) The sale of any housing loans or commitments to purchase housing loans which are purchased pursuant to s. 159.608.

(2) Any bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be secured by a mortgage or other security device.

(3) In no event shall any bonds issued pursuant to the provisions of this act be payable from the general revenues of the housing finance authority.

(4) Neither the members of a housing finance authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds issued pursuant to the provisions hereof, and the bonds shall so state on their face, shall not be a debt of the county or the state, or any political subdivision thereof; and neither the county, nor any state or political subdivision thereof, shall be liable thereon; nor in any event shall such bonds or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of the housing finance authority.

159.613 Form and sale of bonds.—

(1) Bonds of a housing finance authority issued pursuant to this act shall be authorized by a resolution of the housing finance authority and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such dates, mature at such times, bear interest at such rates, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed by such members of the housing finance authority and in such manner, be payable in such means of payment at such places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution or any trust indenture entered into pursuant to such resolution may provide. However, the provisions of s. 215.685 shall apply.

(2)(a) The bonds issued by the authority shall be sold by the authority at public sale substantially in the manner provided by s. 215.68(5)(b) and (c), unless otherwise approved by the State Board of Administration; but such requirement shall be deemed waived if the State Board of Administration has not responded in writing within 30 days from the date of application, or if the bonds are rated by at least one nationally recognized rating service in any one of the three highest classifications approved by the Comptroller of the Currency for the investment of funds of national banks, an appropriate certification and opinion of counsel pursuant to the applicable arbitrage regulations under s. 103(c) of the Internal Revenue Code are delivered simultaneously with the delivery of the bonds, and the official statement issued in connection with the sale of the bonds has been filed with the State Board of Administration prior to the closing.

(b) In the event an offer of an issue of bonds at public sale produces no bid, or in the event all bids received are rejected, the authority is authorized to negotiate for the sale of such bonds under such rates and terms as are acceptable; however, no such bonds shall be so sold or delivered on terms less favorable than the terms contained in any bids rejected at the public sale thereof, or the terms contained in the notice of public sale if no bids were received at such public sale.

(3) In case any member of the housing finance authority whose signature appears on the bonds or coupons shall cease to be a member before the delivery of the bonds or coupons, such bonds shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such member had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this act shall be fully negotiable.

(4) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond of a housing finance authority or the security therefor issued pursuant hereto, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the housing finance authority to assist in providing financing of a qualifying housing development to alleviate the shortage of housing in its area of operation shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for a qualifying housing development of such character.

History.—s. 13, ch. 78-89.

159.614 Provisions of bonds and trust indentures.—In connection with the issuance of bonds and in order to secure the payment of such bonds, a housing finance authority, in addition to the other powers granted pursuant to this act, shall have power:

(1) To pledge all or any part of any payment made to the housing finance authority pursuant to any loan agreement or pursuant to a sale of any loan or loan commitment.

(2) To covenant against pledging or assigning all or any part of any payments made pursuant to any loan agreement or pursuant to the sale of any loan or loan commitment or against permitting or suffering any lien on such payments; and to covenant as to what other, or additional, debts or obligations may be incurred by the housing finance authority with respect to any qualifying housing development.

(3) To covenant as to the bonds to be issued and as to the issuance of such bonds in escrow or otherwise and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof; and to provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed, or mutilated bonds; to covenant against extending the time for the payment of its bonds or interest thereon; and to redeem the other bonds, covenant for their redemption, and provide the terms and conditions thereof.

(4) To create or to authorize the creation of special funds for moneys held for construction costs, debt service, reserves, or other purposes; and to covenant as to the construction and disposition of the moneys held in such special funds.

(5) To prescribe the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with the holder of any bonds may be amended or abrogated, the amount of the bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.

(6) To covenant as to the rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach by the housing finance authority of any covenant, condition, or obligation; and to covenant and prescribe as to events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its bonds or obligations shall become or may be declared due before maturity and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(7) To vest in a trustee or trustees or the holders of bonds or any proportion of them the right to enforce the payment of the bonds or any covenants securing or relating to the bonds; to vest in a trustee or trustees the right, in the event of a default by said housing finance authority, to collect the payments made pursuant to any loan agreement or pursuant to the sale of any loan or loan commitment and to dispose of such rights in accordance with the agreement of the housing finance authority with said trustee; to provide for the powers and duties of a trustee or trustees and to limit the liabilities thereof; and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees of the holders of bonds or any proportion of them may enforce any covenant or rights securing or relating to the bonds.

History.—s. 14, ch. 78-89.

159.615 Validation of bonds and proceedings.—A housing finance authority shall determine its authority to issue any of its bonds and the legality of all proceedings had or taken in connection therewith, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in chapter 75 for the determination by a county, municipality, taxing district, or other political subdivision of its authority to incur bonded debt or to issue certificates of indebtedness and of the legality of all proceedings had or taken in connection therewith.

History.—s. 15, ch. 78-89.

159.616 Actions to contest validity of bonds.—An action or proceeding to contest the validity of any bond issued under this act, other than a proceeding pursuant to s. 159.615, must be commenced within 30 days after notification in a newspaper of general circulation within the area of the passage by the housing finance authority of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bond.

History.—s. 16, ch. 78-89.

159.617 Remedies of an obligee of a housing finance authority.—An obligee of a housing finance authority shall have the right, in addition to all other rights which may be conferred on such obligee, subject only to any contractual restrictions binding upon such obligee:

(1) By mandamus, suit, action, or proceeding at law or in equity, to compel the housing finance authority and the members, officers, agents, or employees thereof to perform each and every term, provision, and covenant contained in any contract of the housing finance authority with or for the benefit of such obligee and to require the carrying out of any or all of the covenants and agreements of the housing finance authority and the fulfillment of all duties imposed upon the housing finance authority by this act.

(2) By suit, action, or proceeding in equity, to enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful or the violation of any of the rights of the obligee by the housing finance authority.

History.—s. 17, ch. 78-89.

159.618 Additional remedies conferrable by a housing finance authority.—A housing finance authority shall have power by resolution, trust indenture, or other contract to confer upon any obligee holding or representing a specified amount in bonds, the right, in addition to all rights that may otherwise be conferred, upon the happening of an event of default as defined in such resolution or instrument, by suit, action, or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction:

(1) To obtain the appointment of a receiver of any payments made pursuant to any loan agreement or sale of any loan. If such receiver is appointed, he may collect and receive all payments made pursuant to any such loan agreement or sale of any loan or loan commitment and shall keep such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in accordance with the obligations of said housing finance authority as the court shall direct.

(2) To require the housing finance authority and the members thereof to account as if it and they were the trustees of an express trust.

History.—s. 18, ch. 78-89.

159.619 Availability of financing.—As long as a shortage of housing exists, a housing finance authority shall not unreasonably refuse to participate in the financing of any qualifying housing development upon request.

History.—s. 19, ch. 78-89.

159.62 Liabilities of a housing finance authority.—In no event shall the liabilities, whether ex contractu or ex delicto, of a housing finance authority arising from the financing of any qualifying housing development be payable from any funds other than the revenues or receipts of such qualifying housing development.

History.—s. 20, ch. 78-89.

159.621 Housing bonds exempted from taxation.—The bonds of a housing finance authority issued under this act, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 21, ch. 78-89.

159.622 Limitation on rates.—The intent of this legislation is that consumers receive maximum possible benefits; therefore, no lending institution receiving proceeds of bond issues pursuant to this act may loan any of the proceeds of such bond issue at the rate violative of federal arbitrage regulations.

History.—s. 24, ch. 78-89.

159.623 Construction of law.—The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed in order to effectively carry out the purposes of this act.

History.—s. 22, ch. 78-89.

- 159.709 Powers of ss. 159.701-159.7095 supplemental.
- 159.7095 Issuance of bonds.

159.701 Purposes.—Research and development authorities, as authorized by ss. 159.701-159.7095, are created for the purpose of financing and refinancing capital projects related to establishment of a research and development park, including appurtenant facilities for the complete operation thereof as defined by, and in the manner provided by, the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act and by ss. 159.701-159.7095 and for the purpose of fostering the economic development of a county.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.702 Definitions.—The following words and terms, unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning, shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Bonds" or "revenue bonds" means the bonds authorized to be issued by any authority under ss. 159.701-159.7095, which may consist of a single bond. The term "bonds" or "revenue bonds" shall also include a single bond, a promissory note or notes, or other debt obligations evidencing an obligation to repay borrowed money.

(2) "Project" means any capital project comprising a research and development park, or any part thereof, and including one or more buildings and other structures, machinery, fixtures, equipment, and any rehabilitation or addition to any building or structure and machinery and equipment, as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act.

(3) "Authority" or "research and development authority" means any of the public corporations created pursuant to ss. 159.701-159.7095.

(4) "Board" means the board of county commissioners or other body charged with governing the county.

(5) "Cost" as applied to a project shall embrace the cost of construction; land or rights in land; other property, both real and personal; machinery and equipment; financing charges, including interest; and all other costs necessary for placing the project in operation as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. "Cost" shall also include the cost of financial consultants, accountants, legal services, engineering and architectural services, feasibility studies, and services by other consultants and such experts as may be selected by the lessee of any such project if the cost thereof shall be paid by the lessee or shall be included as a cost of the project and reimbursed from proceeds of any bonds issued to finance the cost of such project.

(6) "Florida Industrial Development Financing Act" means part II of this chapter and any amendments thereto, and the definitions contained therein shall also be applicable to ss. 159.701-159.7095 and to any bonds issued pursuant thereto.

(7) "Commission" means the Florida Research and Development Commission created pursuant to s. 23.147.

(8) "Contiguous counties" means counties with common borders.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.703 Creation of research and development authorities.—

(1) Subject to the provisions of this part, each county or group of counties may create by ordinance a local governmental body as a public body corporate and politic to be known as ".....Research and Development Authority," hereafter referred to as "authority" or "authorities." Each of the authorities is constituted as a public instrumentality for the purposes of development, operation, management, and financing of a research and development park, and the exercise by an authority of the powers conferred by ss. 159.701-159.7095 shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public purpose and function. However, no authority shall transact any business or exercise any power hereunder until and unless the commission has designated the authority pursuant to the requirements of s. 23.1491(2).

(2) The governing board of the county may adopt a resolution declaring that there is need for a research and development authority in the county if it finds that there exists a need for the development and financing of a research and development park.

(3) The resolution shall designate five persons who are residents and electors of, or have their principal place of employment in, the county as members of the authority created for said county. Of the members first appointed, one shall serve for 1 year, one for 2 years, one for 3 years, and the remainder for 4 years and in each case until his successor is appointed and has qualified. Thereafter, the board shall appoint for terms of 4 years each a member or members to succeed those whose terms expire. The board shall fill any vacancy for an unexpired term. A member of the authority shall be eligible for reappointment. Any member of the authority may be removed by the board for misfeasance, malfeasance, or willful neglect of duty. Each member of the authority before entering upon his duties shall take and subscribe the oath or affirmation required by the State Constitution. A record of each such oath shall be filed with the Department of State and with the clerk of the circuit court.

(4) The authority shall annually elect one of its members as chairman and one as vice chairman and may also appoint a secretary who shall serve at the pleasure of the authority and receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the authority.

(5) The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books and records of the authority and of its official seal.

(6) Three members of the authority shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present shall be necessary for any action taken by the authority. No vacancy in the membership of the authority shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the authority. Any action taken by the authority under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 may be authorized by resolution at any regular or special meeting, and each such resolution shall take effect immediately and need not be published or posted.

(7) The members of the authority shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties hereunder, but each such member shall be paid his necessary expenses incurred while engaged in the performance of such duties.

(8) The authority may also appoint such other officers as it may deem necessary.

(9) If two or more contiguous counties wish to create jointly a research and development authority, the governing boards of each county shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for a research and development authority for said counties, which shall be constituted in the manner prescribed by subsections (2)-(7), except that the resolution shall designate seven persons as members of the authority. Each county shall be equally represented on the authority except that the county in which the research and development park is located or in which a substantial portion is located shall be entitled to one additional member.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.704 Designation by Florida Research and Development Commission; procedure.—

(1) The authority shall prepare and submit to the Florida Research and Development Commission a petition requesting that the authority be designated a research and development authority.

(2) The petition shall contain, but not be limited to:

(a) The resolution of the governing board of the county constituting the authority.

(b) A concept of operation of the proposed research and development park consistent with the purposes of ss. 159.701-159.7095.

(c) A statement of affiliation with one or more state-based, accredited, public or private institutions of higher learning with research and development capabilities.

(d) Evidence of availability of a site suitable for the projected scope of operations.

(e) Evidence of the economic feasibility of the proposed research and development park.

(f) A plan for funding the development of the proposed research and development park, including a minimum financial commitment by the authority of $50,000 in liquid assets for development purposes.

(3) Upon approval of the petition and designation as a research and development authority by the commission, the governing board of the county may by enactment of an ordinance create the authority which shall then be empowered to transact any business and exercise any power authorized by ss. 159.701-159.7095 for the purposes of development, operation, management, and financing of a research and development park.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.705 Powers of the authority.—The authority is authorized and empowered:

(1) To have perpetual succession as a body politic and corporate and to adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business.

(2) To adopt an official seal and alter the same at pleasure.

(3) To maintain an office at such place or places in the county as it may designate.

(4) To sue and be sued in its own name and to plead and be impleaded.

(5) To enter into contracts for any of the purposes enumerated in ss. 159.701-159.7095 and in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act.

(6) To issue revenue bonds or other debt obligations repayable solely from revenues derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of such capital projects.

(7) To exercise all the powers in connection with the authorization, issuance, and sale of revenue bonds to finance the cost of capital projects conferred on counties, municipalities, special districts, and other local governmental bodies by the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. All of the privileges, benefits, powers, and terms of said act shall be fully applicable to authorities created pursuant to ss. 159.701-159.7095. Industrial development revenue bonds may be authorized, issued, and sold by authorities in compliance with the criteria and requirements set forth in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, bear interest at such rate or rates, mature at such time or times, be redeemable prior to maturity at such price or prices, be in such denominations, contain such recitals, and be sold for such price or prices and in such manner as provided in said act. Projects may be acquired, constructed, leased, operated, or sold in the manner provided in said act, and the items of cost as enumerated therein may be included as project costs. The repayment of bonds issued by the authorities may be secured by trust agreements or security agreements as set forth in said act, and fees, rents, and charges for the use of any project or any part of any project may be collected and fixed by the authority in the manner provided in said act. All moneys received pursuant to the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 shall constitute trust funds as provided in the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act. The remedies provided by said act shall also be applicable to bonds issued pursuant to ss. 159.701-159.7095, and bonds of the authority may be refunded in the manner provided therein and shall be eligible for investment as provided in said act.

(8) To acquire by lease, purchase, or option real and personal property for use as a site for the location of a research and development park project as defined in the Florida Industrial Development Fi-

ancing Act. Authorities shall have the power to prepare sites for use as the location of a research and development park and may construct thereon access roads, drainage facilities, utilities, and other improvements necessary for ultimate use by research and development projects. The acquisition, development, and financing of such sites may be in the manner provided in ss. 159.701-159.7095 and the Florida Industrial Development Financing Act.

(9) In any case in which an addition to a project is financed or in which less than the entire project is financed or refinanced by industrial development bonds, to secure the issuance and repayment of such bonds by a lease, mortgage, or other security instrument encumbering only the capital improvements which are financed by the authority. Such lease, mortgage, or other security instrument may include a security interest in both the land and personal property or may include a lease, mortgage, or other security instrument sufficient for the purpose encumbering only the personal property, including machinery and equipment, which is being financed. In financing projects, authorities may lease such projects to the industry which is the ultimate user until the debt obligations issued for such purpose are retired, or it may sell such capital projects to the industry using the project on an installment purchase contract or other type of purchase contract with such security instruments or trust agreements as the authority shall deem adequate, in which case the transaction shall be deemed to be a sale and not a lease of such project.

(10) Other provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding, to acquire by lease, without consideration, purchase, or option any lands owned, administered, managed, controlled, supervised, or otherwise protected by the state or any of its agencies, departments, boards, or commissions for the purpose of establishing a research and development park, subject to being first designated a research and development authority under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.706 Grandfather clause.—Each county designated as a research and development authority on June 30, 1979, shall be entitled to continue to be designated and shall be accorded all powers conferred to designated authorities by ss. 159.701-159.7095, except that any authority not constituted and designated under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 shall be prohibited from exercising any power to issue revenue bonds or other debt obligations pursuant to s. 159.705(6) and (7).

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.707 Credit of state or political subdivision not pledged.—

(1) The revenue bonds issued by the authority shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of any authority or county or of the state or any political subdivision, and such revenue bonds or debt obligations shall be payable solely from revenues derived from the sale, operation, or leasing of a project or projects.

(2) All bonds issued under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 shall have, and are declared to have, all the qualities and incidents, including negotiability, of investment securities under the Uniform Commercial Code.

(3) Bonds may be issued under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 without obtaining, except as otherwise provided in ss. 159.701-159.7095, the consent of any department, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state and without any other proceedings or the happening of any conditions, except those which are specifically required by the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or the trust agreement securing the same.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.708 Tax exemption.—The exercise of all powers granted by ss. 159.701-159.7095 in all respects will be for the benefit of the people of the state, for the increase of their industry and prosperity and the improvement of their health and living conditions, and for the provision of gainful employment and will constitute the performance of essential public functions. The authority shall not be required to pay any taxes on any project or any other property owned by the authority under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095 or upon the income therefrom, and the bonds issued under the provisions of ss. 159.701-159.7095, their transfer, and the income therefrom (including any profit made on the sale thereof) shall at all times be free from taxation by the state or any local unit or political subdivision or other instrumentality of the state. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as exempting from taxation or assessments the leasehold interest of any lessee in any project or any other property or interest owned by any lessee. The exemption granted by this section shall not be applicable to any tax imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.709 Powers of ss. 159.701-159.7095 supplemental.—The powers conferred by ss. 159.701-159.7095 shall be in addition and supplementary to existing powers and statutes, and these sections shall not be construed as repealing any of the provisions of any other law, general or local.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

159.7095 Issuance of bonds.—The bonds issued under ss. 159.701-159.7095 may be validated in the manner prescribed by chapter 75.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-101.

REGIONAL PLANNING COUNCILS

160.01 Establishment of regional planning councils; membership, terms, compensation, etc.

160.02 Powers of council.

(1) Any two or more counties and municipalities are hereby authorized and empowered to create and establish a regional planning council to be composed of two representatives appointed thereto by each county commission and municipal legislative body desiring representation on such council and to appropriate moneys, in lump sum or otherwise, from their respective public funds for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this law. Such funds shall be expended only for public purposes, and provision for annual audit thereof shall be made. Such annual audits shall be furnished to the governing bodies of each participating county and municipality for their examination. In addition, each governmental unit shall be entitled to appoint one additional representative for each 50,000 population residing within the boundaries of the municipality or county. Participating governmental units may designate to membership ex officio and without vote their chief planning officer and engineer, or either of them.

(2) Members of such regional planning council representing counties and municipalities shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061.

(3) The term of office of the members of any regional planning council shall be for staggered terms of 3 years. The method of filling vacancies shall be determined by the county commissions and municipal legislative bodies desiring representation on such council.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-369; s. 19, ch. 63-400; s. 1, ch. 69-63.

160.02 Powers of council.—Any regional planning council created hereunder shall have the following powers:

(1) To adopt rules of procedure for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business, and to appoint from among its members a chairman to serve annually, provided that such a chairman may be subject to reelection.

(2) To adopt an official name and seal.

(3) To maintain an office at such place or places within the state as it may designate.

(4) To employ and to compensate such personnel, consultants, and technical and professional assistants as it shall deem necessary to exercise the powers and perform the duties set forth in this law.

(5) To make and enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the execution of its powers under this law.

(6) To hold public hearings and sponsor public forums in any part of the regional area whenever it deems it necessary or useful in the execution of its other functions.

(7) To sue and be sued in its own name.

(8) To accept and receive, in furtherance of its functions, funds, grants and service from the Federal Government or its agencies; from departments, agencies and instrumentalities of state, municipal or local government; or from private or civic sources.

(9) To receive and expend such sums of money as shall be from time to time appropriated for its use by any county or municipality represented on such council and, with the approval of the Division of Economic Development of the Department of Commerce, to act as an agency to receive and to expend federal funds for planning.

(10) To act in an advisory capacity to the constituent local governments in regional, metropolitan, county and municipal planning matters involving land use, water resources, highways, recreational areas, public schools, sewage and garbage disposal, public libraries, urban redevelopment and other matters concerning the acquisition, planning, construction, development, financing, control, use, improvement and disposition of lands, buildings, structures, facilities, goods or services in the interest of the public, or for public purposes involving the expenditure of public funds.

(11) To cooperate, in the exercise of its planning functions, with federal and state agencies in planning for civil defense.

History.—s. 2, ch. 59-369; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-283.

161.011 Short title.—This chapter parts I and II, may be known and cited as the "Beach and Shore Preservation Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.021 Definitions.—In construing these statutes, where the context does not clearly indicate otherwise, the word, phrase, or term:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Natural Resources.

(2) "Division" means the Division of Marine Resources of the Department of Natural Resources.

(3) "Beach and shore preservation," "erosion control," "beach erosion control" and "erosion control" includes, but is not limited to, erosion control, hurricane protection, coastal flood control, shoreline and offshore rehabilitation, and regulation of work and activities likely to affect the physical condition of the beach or shore.

(4) "Coastal construction" includes any work or activity which is likely to have a material physical effect on existing coastal conditions or natural shore and inlet processes.

(5) "Inlet sediment bypassing" includes any transfer of sediment from an inlet or beach to another stretch of beach for the purpose of renourishment and beach erosion control.

(6) "Emergency" means any unusual incident resulting from natural or unnatural causes which endangers the health, safety, or resources of the residents of the state, including damages or erosion to any shoreline resulting from a hurricane, storm, or other such violent disturbance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 43, ch. 71-377; s. 1, ch. 78-257.

161.031 Personnel and facilities.—The Department of Natural Resources may call to its assistance temporarily, any engineer or other employee in any state agency or department or in the University of Florida or other educational institution financed wholly or in part by the state, for the purpose of devising the most effective and economical method of averting and preventing erosion, hurricane and storm damages. These employees shall not receive additional compensation, except for actual necessary expenses incurred while working under the direction of the Division of Marine Resources.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.041 Permits required.—If any person, firm, corporation, county, municipality, township, special district, or any public agency shall desire to make any coastal construction or reconstruction or change of existing structures, or any construction or physical activity undertaken specifically for shore protection purposes, or other structures and physical activity including groins, jetties, moles, breakwaters, seawalls, revetments, artificial nourishment, inlet sediment bypassing, excavation or maintenance dredging of inlet channels, or other deposition or removal of beach material or construction of other structures if of a solid or highly impermeable design, upon sovereignty lands of Florida, below the mean high waterline of any tidal water of the state, a coastal construction permit must be obtained from the Department of Natural Resources prior to the commencement of such work. Application for coastal construction permits as defined above shall be made to the Division of Marine Resources upon such terms and conditions as set by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 78-257.

161.0415 Citation of rule.—In addition to any other provisions within this chapter or any rules promulgated hereunder, the permitting agency shall, when requesting information for a permit application pursuant to this chapter or such rules promulgated hereunder, cite a specific rule. If a request for information cannot be accompanied by a rule citation, failure to provide such information cannot be grounds to deny a permit.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-161.

161.042 Coastal construction and excavation in barrier beach inlets.—The department is authorized to direct that any person, or any public body or agency, responsible for the excavation of sandy sediment as a result of any activity conducted to maintain navigable depths within or immediately adjacent to any coastal barrier beach inlet within sovereignty lands shall, after receipt of written authorization from the Department of Environmental Regulation relating to the deposition of spoil material from the excavation pursuant to chapters 253 and 403, use such sediment for beach nourishment as prescribed by the division. Requests for such authorization shall be made by the division to the Department of Environmental Regulation, and such authorization shall be granted upon issuance of water quality certification by the Department of Environmental Regulation. For any construction or excavation within or immediately contiguous to any coastal barrier beach inlet which has been permitted pursuant to s. 161.041, the department may require the permittee to supply beach profiles and conduct hydrographic monitoring of the impacted area.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-257.

161.051 Coastal construction by persons, firms, corporations, or local authorities.—Where any person, firm, corporation, county, municipality, township, special district, or any public agency shall construct and install projects when permits have been properly issued, such works and improvements shall be the property of said person, firm, corporation, county, municipality, township, special district, or any public agency where located, and shall thereafter be maintained by and at the expense of said person, firm, corporation, county, municipality, township, special district, or other public agency. No grant under this section shall affect title of the state to any lands below the mean high watermark, and any additions or accretions to the upland caused by erection of such works or improvement shall remain the property of the state if not previously conveyed. The state shall in no way be liable for any damages as a result of erections of such works and improvements, or for any damages arising out of construction, reconstruction, maintenance, or repair thereof, or otherwise arising on account of such works or improvements.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.052 Coastal construction and excavation; regulation.—

(1) No person, firm, corporation, municipality, county, or other public agency shall excavate or construct any dwelling house, hotel, motel, apartment building, seawall, revetment, or other structure incidental to or related to such structure, including but not limited to such attendant structures or facilities as a patio, swimming pool, or garage, within 50 feet of the line of mean high water at any riparian coastal location fronting the Gulf of Mexico or Atlantic coast shoreline of the state, exclusive of bays, inlets, rivers, bayous, creeks, passes, and the like.

(2) A waiver or variance of the setback requirements may be authorized by the Department of Natural Resources in the following circumstances:

(a) The department may authorize an excavation or erection of a structure at any riparian coastal location as described in subsection (1) upon receipt of an application from a riparian owner and upon the consideration of facts and circumstances, including adequate engineering data concerning shoreline stability and storm tides related to shoreline topography, which, in the opinion of the Department of Natural Resources, clearly and unequivocally justify such a waiver or variance.

(b) If in the immediate contiguous or adjacent area a number of existing structures have established a reasonably continuous and uniform construction line closer to the line of mean high water than the foregoing, and if said existing structures have not been unduly affected by erosion, a proposed structure may be permitted along such line on written authorization from the Department of Natural Resources if such proposed structure is also approved by the Department of Natural Resources. However, the Department of Natural Resources shall not contravene setback requirements established by a county or municipality which are equal to, or more strict than those setback requirements provided herein.

(c) The department may authorize the construction of pipelines or piers extending outward from the shoreline, unless it determines that the construction of such projects would cause erosion of the beach in the area of such structures.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to structures intended for shore protection purposes which are regulated by s. 161.041 or to structures existing or under construction on June 27, 1970.

(4) The Department of Natural Resources may by regulation exempt specifically described portions of the coastline from the provisions of this section whenever in its judgment such portions of coastline, because of their nature, are not subject to erosion of a substantially damaging effect to the public.

(5) The setback requirements as defined herein shall not apply to any riparian coastal locations fronting the Atlantic Ocean or Gulf of Mexico which have vegetation-type nonsandy shores.

(6) The setback requirements defined in subsection (1) shall not apply to any modification, maintenance, or repair to any existing structure within limits of the existing foundation which does not require, involve, or include any additions to, or repair or modification of, the existing foundation of that structure. Specifically excluded from this exemption are seawalls and any additions or enclosures added, constructed, or installed below the first dwelling floor or lowest deck of the existing structure.

(7) Any coastal structure erected, or excavation created, in violation of the provisions of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and such structure shall be forthwith removed or such excavation refilled after written notice by the Department of Natural Resources directing such removal or filling. In the event that the structure is not removed or the excavation refilled as directed within a reasonable time, the Department of Natural Resources may remove such structure or fill such excavation at its own expense. The cost thereof shall become a lien upon the property of the upland owner upon which such unauthorized structure or excavation is located.

(8) Any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each month during any portion of which any violation of this section is committed or continued.

(9) The executive director of the department may make recommendations to the Governor and Cabinet as head of the department concerning the purchase of the fee or any lesser interest in any lands seaward of the setback requirement as environmentally endangered lands or as outdoor recreation lands.

161.053 Coastal construction and excavation; regulation on county basis.—

(1) The Legislature finds and declares that the beaches of the state, by their nature, are subject to frequent and severe fluctuations and represent one of Florida's most valuable natural resources and that it is in the public interest to preserve and protect them from imprudent construction which can jeopardize the stability of the beach-dune system, accelerate erosion, provide inadequate protection to upland structures, and endanger adjacent property and the beach-dune system. In furtherance of these findings, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide that the department, acting through the division, shall establish coastal construction control lines on a county basis along the sand beaches of the state fronting on the Atlantic Ocean and the Gulf of Mexico. Such lines shall be established so as to define that portion of the beach-dune system which is subject to severe fluctuations based on a 100-year storm surge or other predictable weather conditions, and so as to define the area within which special structural design consideration is required to insure protection of the beach-dune system, any proposed structure, and adjacent properties, rather than to define a seaward limit for upland structures.

(2) Coastal construction control lines shall be established by the department only after it has been determined from a comprehensive engineering study and topographic survey that the establishment of such control lines is necessary for the protection of upland properties and the control of beach erosion. No such line shall be set until a public hearing has been held for each area involved. After the department has given consideration to the results of said public hearing, it shall, after considering ground elevations in relation to historical storm and hurricane tides, predicted maximum wave uprush, beach and offshore ground contours, the vegetation line, erosion trends, the dune or bluff line, if any exist, and existing upland development, set and establish a coastal construction control line and cause same to be duly recorded in the public records of any county and municipality affected and shall furnish the clerk of the circuit court in each county affected a survey of such line with references made to permanently installed monuments at such intervals and locations as may be considered necessary. Upon the establishment, approval, and recordation of such control line or lines, no person, firm, corporation, or governmental agency shall construct any structure whatsoever seaward thereof; make any excavation, remove any beach material, or otherwise alter existing ground elevations; drive any vehicle on, over, or across any sand dune; or damage or cause to be damaged such sand dune or the vegetation growing thereon seaward thereof except as hereinafter provided. Control lines established under the provisions of this section shall be subject to review by the department at 5-year intervals from time of establishment or at the written request of officials of affected counties or municipalities. Any riparian upland owner who feels that such line as established is unduly restrictive or prevents a legitimate use of his property shall be granted a review of the line upon written request. After such review, the department shall decide if a change in the control line as established is justified and shall so notify the person or persons making the request. The decision of the department shall be subject to judicial review as provided in chapter 120.

(3) Any coastal county or coastal municipality may establish coastal construction zoning and building codes in lieu of the provisions of this section, provided such zones and codes are approved by the department as being adequate to protect the shoreline from erosion and safeguard adjacent structures. Exceptions to locally established coastal construction zoning and building codes shall not be granted unless previously approved by the department. It is the intent of this subsection to provide for local administration of established coastal construction control lines through approved zoning and building codes where desired by local interests and where said local interests have, in the judgment of the department, sufficient funds and personnel to adequately administer the program. Should the department determine at any time that the program is inadequately administered, the department shall have authority to revoke the authority granted to the county or municipality.

(4) Except in those areas where local zoning and building codes have been established pursuant to subsection (3), a permit to alter, excavate, or construct on property seaward of established coastal construction control lines may be granted by the department as follows:

(a) The department may authorize an excavation or erection of a structure at any riparian coastal location as described in subsection (1) upon receipt of an application from a riparian owner and upon the consideration of facts and circumstances, including adequate engineering data concerning shoreline stability and storm tides related to shoreline topography, which, in the opinion of the department, clearly justify such a permit.

(b) If in the immediate contiguous or adjacent area a number of existing structures have established a reasonably continuous and uniform construction line closer to the line of mean high water than the foregoing, and if said existing structures have not been unduly affected by erosion, a proposed structure may be permitted along such line on written authorization from the department if such proposed structure is also approved by the department. However, the department shall not contravene setback requirements or zoning or building codes established by a county or municipality which are equal to, or more strict than, those requirements provided herein.

(c) The department may authorize the construction of pipelines or piers extending outward from the shoreline, unless it determines that the construction of such projects would cause erosion of the beach in the area of such structures.

(5) Any coastal structure erected, or excavation created, in violation of the provisions of this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, and such structure shall be forthwith removed or such excavation shall be forthwith refilled after written notice by the department directing such removal or filling. In the event the structure is not removed or the excavation refilled within a reasonable time as directed, the department may remove such structure or fill such excavation at its own expense, and the costs thereof shall become a lien upon the property of the upland owner upon which such unauthorized structure or excavation is located.

(6) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084; except that a person driving any vehicle on, over, or across any sand dune and damaging or causing to be damaged such sand dune or the vegetation growing thereon in violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. A person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each month during any portion of which any violation of this section is committed or continued.

(7) The provisions of this section shall not apply to structures intended for shore protection purposes which are regulated by s. 161.041 nor to structures existing or under construction prior to the establishment of the coastal construction control line as provided herein, provided such structures shall not be materially altered except as provided in subsection (4).

(8) The department may by regulation exempt specifically described portions of the coastline from the provisions of this section when in its judgment such portions of coastline because of their nature are not subject to erosion of a substantially damaging effect to the public.

(9) Pending the establishment of coastal construction control lines as provided herein, the provisions of s. 161.052 shall remain in force. However, upon the establishment of coastal construction control lines, or the establishment of coastal construction zoning and building codes as provided in subsection (3), the provisions of s. 161.052 shall be superseded by the provisions of this section.

(10) The coastal construction control requirements defined in subsection (1) shall not apply to any modification, maintenance, or repair to any existing structure within limits of the existing foundation which does not require, involve, or include any additions to, or repair or modification of, the existing foundation of that structure. Specifically excluded from this exemption are seawalls and any additions or enclosures added, constructed, or installed below the first dwelling floor or lowest deck of the existing structure.

(11) Concurrent with the establishment of a coastal construction control line, the executive director of the department shall make recommendations to the Governor and Cabinet as head of the department concerning the purchase of the fee or any lesser interest in any lands seaward of the control line as environmentally endangered lands or as outdoor recreation lands; and, with respect to those control lines established pursuant to this section prior to June 14, 1978, the executive director may make such recommendations.

161.061 Coastal construction serving no public purpose, endangering human life, health, or welfare, or becoming unnecessary or undesirable.—

(1) Any coastal construction, or any structure including groins, jetties, moles, breakwaters, seawalls, revetments, or other structures if of a solid or highly impermeable design upon sovereignty lands of Florida, below the mean high waterline of any tidal water of the state, regardless of date of construction or whether a permit has been issued in accordance with part I of this chapter, which serves no public purpose, which is dangerous to or in any way endangers human life, health, or welfare, or which proves to be undesirable or becomes unnecessary, as determined by the Department of Natural Resources, shall be adjusted, altered, or removed by the abutting upland property owner after written notice by the division. Request for hearing must be filed by the owner with the department within 15 days after such notice. Adjustments, alterations, or removals required by this section shall be accomplished at no cost to the state. The decision of the department as to whether to adjust, alter, or remove such coastal construction or structure shall be final and the department shall set a reasonable time within which the adjustment, alteration, or removal shall be accomplished.

(2) In the event that the upland property owner does not adjust, alter, or remove any coastal construction, or other structure including groins, jetties, moles, breakwaters, seawalls, revetments, or other structures if of a solid or highly impermeable design upon sovereignty lands of Florida, below the mean high waterline, when requested or directed by the department in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the department may alter, adjust, or remove such coastal construction or structures at its own expense, and the costs thereof shall become a lien upon the property of said abutting upland property owner.

161.071 Prosecuting officers to assist enforcement of part I of this chapter.—State attorneys, or other prosecuting officers of the state or county, and sheriffs and their deputies of the several counties of this state, shall assist the Department of Natural Resources in enforcement of part I of this chapter. The officers and their deputies shall, upon information that any persons, firms, or corporations are violating any of the provisions of part I of this chapter, report the same, together with the information in their possession relating thereto, to the department and shall cooperate with the department in carrying out the provisions of part I of this chapter. The state attorneys and other prosecuting officers of the state or any county, upon the request of the department, shall institute and maintain such legal proceedings as may be necessary to carry out the enforcement of the provisions of part I of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.081 Powers of Department of Legal Affairs.—When a permit is required under part I of this chapter and has not been issued as provided herein, any such project or physical activity shall be considered a public nuisance and the Department of Legal Affairs may at the request of the Department of Natural Resources institute proceedings to enjoin or abate such nuisance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 11, 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.091 Erosion Control Trust Fund Account.—

(1) There is created in the State Treasury an account to be known as the "Erosion Control Trust Fund Account." Subject to such appropriations as the Legislature may make therefor from time to time, disbursements from this account may be made by the Division of Marine Resources of the Department of Natural Resources subject to the approval of the department in order to carry out the proper state responsibilities in a comprehensive, long-range, statewide plan for erosion control, beach preservation, and hurricane protection, in accordance with the following:

(a) With regard to federal aid projects, the department is authorized to pay up to 75 percent of the nonfederal construction and maintenance costs of projects authorized for construction by the United States Congress, including biological monitoring costs, revegetation costs, and costs of monitoring post-construction shoreline changes, provided local interests shall, as project sponsor, pay:

1. The nonfederal costs for project engineering, including engineering supervision and inspection;
2. The costs for providing all required construction easements, rights-of-way, public access easements, and required vehicle parking spaces;

3. The costs of obtaining all required permits;
4. The costs of establishing erosion control lines; and
5. All other nonfederal costs.

The department is authorized to advance federal aid funds for projects authorized by the United States Congress when such funds are not made available by the Congress at the time a project is ready for construction. In such a case, the department shall request reimbursement of the authorized federal share in the cost of such projects and is authorized to accept such reimbursement and deposit same in the Erosion Control Trust Fund Account. The project sponsor shall assume full responsibility for all project costs in excess of the state-federal cost limitation.

(b) With regard to nonfederal aid projects, the department is authorized to pay up to 75 percent of the construction costs, maintenance costs, basic engineering data costs, biological monitoring costs, revegetation costs, costs of monitoring post-construction shoreline changes, and project monitoring costs of projects authorized for construction by the department, provided local interests shall, as project sponsor, pay:

1. The costs for project engineering, including engineering supervision and inspection;
2. The costs for providing all required construction easements, rights-of-way, public access easements, and required vehicle parking spaces;
3. The costs of obtaining all required permits;
4. The costs of establishing erosion control lines; and
5. All other costs.

(c) The department is authorized to pay up to 100 percent of the cost of sand-source data. The selection of a project engineer, acceptable to the department, by local interests, as project sponsor, shall be on a competitive negotiation basis as set forth in chapter 287. The project sponsor shall assume full responsibility for all project costs in excess of the state cost limitation.

(d) With regard to inlet sand transfer projects, the department is authorized to initiate and pay the entire cost of such projects when the primary purpose is beach nourishment. In the case of navigation channel construction or maintenance dredging projects, the department is authorized to pay up to 75 percent of any additional project cost, as determined by the department, involved in placing suitable sand material on nearby beaches instead of dumping such sand out at sea. However, if such sand is placed on beaches of which the state is the upland owner, the department is authorized to pay 100 percent of the additional costs.

(e) For an area to qualify for state funding, as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), local interests shall, as project sponsor, provide permanent public access to project areas at approximately one-half mile intervals, including adequate vehicle parking areas, as determined by the department to be necessary in the public interest. Notwithstanding anything else herein, no public funds shall be spent restoring any beach where adequate public access to, and use of, the restored beach is not available.

(f) Local interests, as project sponsor, desiring to initiate and pay the entire cost of designing, constructing, and maintaining erosion control projects prior to the state's or, in the case of a federal aid project, the federal government's, initiating such construction may be reimbursed from state funds on the basis of the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), and (d), provided the project is approved by the department prior to initiation, after construction and based on legislative appropriations. Such local interests shall, as project sponsor, be responsible for obtaining federal reimbursement in the case of federal aid projects.

(g) Local interests shall, as project sponsor, hold and save the state and its agencies, officers, and employees harmless from any and all liabilities which may result from the construction or operation of a project.

(h) The department is authorized to expend funds from the Erosion Control Trust Fund Account in order to alleviate emergency conditions related directly to shoreline stability, upon declaration by the Governor that a shoreline emergency of state concern exists.

(i) The department is authorized to expend funds from the Erosion Control Trust Fund Account to undertake such other erosion control, beach preservation, and hurricane protection work or activity as may be in the interest of the state, as determined by the department and subject to availability of funds as appropriated by the Legislature.

(j) The department is authorized to initiate, construct, and pay the entire costs of projects which involve shoreline of which the state is the upland owner.

(k) Twenty-five percent of any funds appropriated for implementation of this section shall be held by the department until the last quarter of the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made. This amount shall be used to meet emergencies prescribed in paragraph (h). If no such emergencies occur, then these funds may be released in the last quarter of the fiscal year in which the appropriation is made for projects.

(l) The department shall maintain a current project listing and may, in its discretion and dependent upon availability of local resources, revise the project listing.

(m) The department is authorized to pay 100 percent of the cost of studies and research it deems necessary for the state erosion control program.

(2) General revenue funds as appropriated by the Legislature shall be deposited in the Erosion Control Trust Fund Account upon appropriation. The Erosion Control Trust Fund Account and the moneys deposited therein shall be under the direct supervision and control of the department and such moneys may be disbursed by the State Treasurer from time to time upon requisition as determined by the department.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 216.292, the Erosion Control Trust Fund Account shall not be available for transfer for any purpose other than those provided for in this section.

161.101 State participation in federally and nonfederally authorized projects and studies relating to beach erosion control.—

(1) To carry out the beach and shore preservation programs, the department is hereby constituted as the beach and shore preservation authority for the state. In this capacity, the executive director of the department may at his own initiative take all necessary steps as soon as practicable and desirable to implement the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Whenever a beach erosion control project has been authorized by Congress for federal financial participation in accordance with any Act of Congress relating to beach erosion control in which nonfederal participation is required, it shall be the policy of the state to assist with an equitable share of such funds to the extent that funds are available, as determined by the department.

(3) The department, for itself or on behalf of any and all duly established beach and shore preservation districts and boards of county commissioners within the state, may enter into cooperative agreements and otherwise cooperate with, and meet the requirements and conditions (including, but not limited to, execution of indemnification agreements) of, federal, state, and other local governments and political entities, or any agencies or representatives thereof, for the purpose of improving, furthering, and expediting the beach and shore preservation program.

(4) The department is authorized, for and on behalf of the state, to accept such federal moneys for beach erosion control as are available and to sign all necessary agreements therefor and to do and perform all necessary acts in connection therewith to effectuate the intent and purposes of this act.

(5) The department is authorized to make application for federal participation in the cost of any beach and shore preservation program under any Acts of Congress and all amendments thereto.

(6) The department is authorized to pay up to 100 percent of the nonfederal construction and maintenance costs of projects authorized for construction by the United States Congress, including project sponsor costs as outlined in s. 161.091(1)(a), when construction and maintenance are on lands of which the state is the upland riparian owner.

(7) With regard to nonfederal aid projects the department is authorized to pay 100 percent of the project costs as outlined in s. 161.091(1)(b), (c), and (d) on lands of which the state is the upland riparian owner.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 78-257.

161.111 Shore erosion emergency.—If a shore erosion emergency is declared by the governor, the state, acting through the Department of Natural Resources, may spend whatever state funds are available to alleviate shore erosion, including such funds specifically set aside for such purposes in the erosion control account.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.121 Penalty.—Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, whoever shall fail to comply with the provisions of part I is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; s. 83, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 77-12.
cf.—ss. 161.052, 161.053 Coastal construction and excavation; regulation.

161.131 Construction of ss. 161.011-161.121.—The provisions of ss. 161.011-161.121 shall be liberally construed by all concerned in a manner to best accomplish the beach and shore preservation purposes and programs.

History.—s. 3, ch. 65-408.

161.141 Declaration of public policy.—Beach erosion being a serious menace to the economy and general welfare of the people of this state and having advanced to emergency proportions, it is hereby declared to be in the public interest that the Legislature make provision for publicly financed beach nourishment and restoration and erosion control projects and establish and clarify the property rights of the state and private upland owners arising from or created by such projects. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the public policy of the state to cause to be fixed and determined, pursuant to beach nourishment and restoration and erosion control projects, the boundary line between sovereignty lands of the state bordering on the Atlantic Ocean, the Gulf of Mexico, and the bays, lagoons, and other tidal reaches thereof, and the upland properties adjacent thereto. It is further declared that there is no intention on the part of the state to extend its claims to lands not already held by it or to deprive any upland or submerged land owner of the legitimate and constitutional use and enjoyment of his property. If a requested and authorized beach nourishment and restoration and erosion control project cannot reasonably be accomplished without the taking of private property, then such taking shall be made by the requesting authority by eminent domain proceedings.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-276; s. 1, ch. 79-233.

161.151 Definitions.—As used in ss. 161.141-161.211:

(1) "Board of trustees" means the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(2) "Requesting authority" means any coastal county, municipality, or beach erosion control district which requests a survey by the board of trustees under the provisions of ss. 161.141-161.211.

(3) "Erosion control line" means the line determined in accordance with the provisions of ss. 161.141-161.211 which represents the landward extent of the claims of the state in its capacity as sovereign titleholder of the submerged bottoms and shores of the Atlantic Ocean, the Gulf of Mexico, and the bays, lagoons and other tidal reaches thereof on the date of the recording of the survey as authorized in s. 161.181.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-276; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

161.161 Procedure for approval of projects.—

(1) Upon the request by written resolution of a requesting authority for a survey preliminary to the implementation of a beach erosion control project, the board of trustees shall first require the Department of Natural Resources to furnish a written recommendation approving or disapproving the requested project and, if approval be recommended, to certify in writing that:

(a) Severe beach erosion has occurred in the area encompassed by the requested survey; and

(b) The beach sought to be protected by an erosion control project has been or will be destroyed in the immediate future unless a publicly financed program is undertaken.

Upon receipt of the written recommendation and certification from the Department of Natural Resources, the board of trustees shall decide whether, in light of existing needs throughout the state, the project should be pursued. In determining the priority of projects to be undertaken, the board of trustees shall consider the relative need for protective measures, the availability of necessary equipment, and the anticipated local and federal contribution and cooperation. If the board of trustees determines that the requested project should be pursued, it shall forthwith conduct a survey of all or part of the shoreline within the jurisdiction of the requesting authority in order to establish the area of beach to be protected by the project and locate an erosion control line. However, no such line shall be fixed except in connection with an authorized beach erosion control project in which the requesting authority has secured the written consent of the owners of a majority of the lineal feet of contiguous riparian property which either abuts the requested erosion control line or would abut such line, if established at the line of mean high water, for the establishment of such a line. No provision of ss. 161.141-161.211 shall be construed as preventing a requesting authority from participating in the funding of erosion control projects or surveys undertaken in accordance with the provisions of ss. 161.141-161.211. In lieu of conducting a survey, the board of trustees may accept and approve a survey as initiated, conducted, and submitted by the requesting authority if said survey is made in conformity with the appropriate principles set forth in ss. 161.141-161.211.

(2) Upon completion of the survey depicting the area of the beach erosion control project and the proposed location of the erosion control line, the board of trustees shall give notice of the written resolution of the requesting authority, the survey, and the date on which the board of trustees will hold a public hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence on the merits of the requested project and, if approval be granted, of locating and establishing such requested erosion control line. Such notice shall be by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which the proposed beach erosion control project shall be located, not less than once a week for 3 consecutive weeks, and by mailing copies of such notice by certified or registered mail to each riparian owner of record of upland property lying within 1,000 feet (radial distance) of the shoreline to be extended through construction of the proposed beach erosion control project, as his name and address appear upon the latest tax assessment roll, in order that any persons who have an interest in the beach erosion control project or in the location of such requested erosion control line can be present at such hearing to submit their views concerning necessity for the project and the precise location of the requested erosion control line. Such notice shall be in addition to any notice requirement in chapter 120.

(3) The board of trustees shall approve or disapprove the beach erosion control project. If approval be granted, the board shall establish the location of the erosion control line. In locating said line, the board of trustees shall be guided generally by the existing line of mean high water, bearing in mind the requirements of proper engineering in the erosion control project, the extent to which erosion or avulsion has occurred, and the need to protect existing ownership of as much upland as is reasonably possible. In the event riparian upland owners agree to furnish financial or other acceptable assistance in the beach erosion control project, the board of trustees is authorized to locate the erosion control line a sufficient distance seaward of the existing line of mean high water in order to provide for an equitable distribution of the restored beach between the state and such existing upland owners.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-276; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 23, ch. 78-95; s. 2, ch. 79-233.

161.181 Recording of board of trustees' resolution and survey.—If no review is taken within the time prescribed from the decision of the board of trustees or, if review be timely taken, in the absence of a final decision of a court of competent jurisdiction preventing the implementation of a beach erosion control project or invalidating, abolishing, or otherwise preventing the establishment and recordation of the erosion control line as provided herein, the board of trustees shall file in the public records of the county or counties in which the erosion control line lies, a copy of its resolution approving the beach erosion control project and locating the erosion control line and shall also file and cause to be recorded in the book of plats of said county or counties a survey showing the area of beach to be protected and the location of the erosion control line.

161.191 Vesting of title to lands.—

(1) Upon the filing of a copy of the board of trustees' resolution and the recording of the survey showing the location of the erosion control line and the area of beach to be protected as provided in s. 161.181, title to all lands seaward of the erosion control line shall be deemed to be vested in the state by right of its sovereignty, and title to all lands landward of such line shall be vested in the riparian upland owners whose lands either abut the erosion control line or would have abutted the line if it had been located directly on the line of mean high water on the date the board of trustees' survey was recorded.

(2) Once the erosion control line along any segment of the shoreline has been established in accordance with the provisions of ss. 161.141-161.211, the common law shall no longer operate to increase or decrease the proportions of any upland property lying landward of such line, either by accretion or erosion or by any other natural or artificial process, except as provided in s. 161.211(2) and (3). However, the state shall not extend, or permit to be extended through artificial means, that portion of the protected beach lying seaward of the erosion control line beyond the limits set forth in the survey recorded by the board of trustees unless the state first obtains the written consent of all riparian upland owners whose view or access to the water's edge would be altered or impaired.

161.201 Preservation of common law rights.

—Any upland owner or lessee who by operation of ss. 161.141-161.211 ceases to be a holder of title to the mean high waterline shall, nonetheless, continue to be entitled to all common law riparian rights except as otherwise provided in s. 161.191(2), including but not limited to rights of ingress, egress, view, boating, bathing, and fishing. In addition the state shall not allow any structure to be erected upon lands created, either naturally or artificially, seaward of any erosion control line fixed in accordance with the provisions of ss. 161.141-161.211, except such structures required for the prevention of erosion. Neither shall such use be permitted by the state as may be injurious to the person, business, or property of the upland owner or lessee; and the several municipalities, counties and special districts are authorized and directed to enforce this provision through the exercise of their respective police powers.

161.211 Cancellation of resolution for non-performance by board of trustees.—

(1) If for any reason construction of the beach erosion control project authorized by the board of trustees is not commenced within 2 years from the date of the recording of the board of trustees' survey, as provided in s. 161.181, or in the event construction is commenced but halted for a period exceeding 6 months from commencement, then, upon receipt of a written petition signed by those owners or lessees of a majority of the lineal feet of riparian property which either abuts or would have abutted the erosion control line if the same had been located at the line of mean high water on the date the board of trustees' survey was recorded, the board of trustees shall forthwith cause to be canceled and vacated of record the resolution authorizing the beach erosion control project and the survey locating the erosion control line, and the erosion control line shall be null and void and of no further force or effect.

(2) If the state, county, municipality, erosion control district, or other governmental agency charged with the responsibility of maintaining the protected beach fails to maintain the same and as a result thereof the shoreline gradually recedes to a point or points landward of the erosion control line as established herein, the provisions of s. 161.191(2) shall cease to be operative as to the affected upland.

(3) In the event a substantial portion of the shoreline encompassed within the erosion control project recedes landward of the erosion control line, the board of trustees, on its own initiative, may direct or request, or, upon receipt of a written petition signed by the owners or lessees of a majority of the lineal feet of riparian property lying within the erosion control project, shall direct or request, the agency charged with the responsibility of maintaining the beach to restore the same to the extent provided for in the board of trustees' recorded survey. If the beach is not restored as directed or requested by the board of trustees within a period of 1 year from the date of the directive or request, the board of trustees shall forthwith cause to be canceled and vacated of record the resolution authorizing the beach erosion control project and the survey locating the erosion control line, and the erosion control line shall be null and void and of no further force or effect.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-276; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 3, ch. 79-233.

161.212 Judicial review relating to permits and licenses.—

(1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agency" means any official, officer, commission, authority, council, committee, department, division, bureau, board, section, or other unit or entity of state government.

(b) "Permit" means any permit or license required by this chapter.

(2) Any person substantially affected by a final action of any agency with respect to a permit may seek review within 90 days of the rendering of such decision and request monetary damages and other relief in the circuit court in the judicial circuit in which the affected property is located; however, circuit court review shall be confined solely to determining whether final agency action is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation. Review of final agency action for the purpose of determining whether the action is in accordance with existing statutes or rules and based on competent substantial evidence shall proceed in accordance with chapter 120.

(3) If the court determines the decision reviewed is an unreasonable exercise of the state's police power constituting a taking without just compensation, the court shall remand the matter to the agency which shall, within a reasonable time:

(a) Agree to issue the permit;

(b) Agree to pay appropriate monetary damages; however, in determining the amount of compensation to be paid, consideration shall be given by the court to any enhancement to the value of the land attributable to governmental action; or

(c) Agree to modify its decision to avoid an unreasonable exercise of police power.

(4) The agency shall submit a statement of its agreed-upon action to the court in the form of a proposed order. If the action is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court shall enter its final order approving the proposed order. If the agency fails to submit a proposed order within a reasonable time not to exceed 90 days which specifies an action that is a reasonable exercise of police power, the court may order the agency to perform any of the alternatives specified in subsection (3).

(5) The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and court costs to the agency or substantially affected person, whichever prevails.

(6) The provisions of this section are cumulative and shall not be deemed to abrogate any other remedies provided by law.

PART II

BEACH AND SHORE PRESERVATION DISTRICTS

- 161.25 County beach and shore preservation authority; board of county commissioners.
- 161.26 Expenses; use of county funds.
- 161.27 Personnel and facilities.
- 161.28 Comprehensive county beach and shore preservation program.
- 161.29 Benefit categories or zones.
- 161.31 Establishment of districts.
- 161.32 Existing erosion prevention district.
- 161.33 Cooperation with federal, state and other governmental entities.
- 161.34 Coordination of county preservation activities.
- 161.35 County shoreline; supervisory and regulatory powers of board of county commissioners.
- 161.36 General powers of authority.
- 161.37 Capital, operation and maintenance costs; district benefits tax levy.
- 161.38 Issuance of bonds.
- 161.39 Cooperation between two or more counties.
- 161.40 Tax exemptions.
- 161.41 Construction of ss. 161.25-161.40.
- 161.45 Effect of repeal of ch. 158 on districts created prior to repeal.

161.25 County beach and shore preservation authority; board of county commissioners.—To carry out the beach and shore preservation program, the board of county commissioners of any county and its successors in office, as an ex officio duty, are hereby severally constituted as the beach and shore preservation authority for their county. In this capacity, any such board of county commissioners may at its own initiative take all necessary steps as soon as practicable and desirable to implement the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.26 Expenses; use of county funds.—The board of county commissioners of any of the counties is authorized to use any available county funds to meet necessary expenses of its beach and shore preservation program. This may include, among other things, costs of studies, surveys, planning, engineering, coordination, negotiation, acquisition of lands, construction of works and facilities, operation and maintenance, and other activities incidental to acquisition and construction to the extent considered proper and desirable by the board of county commissioners.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.27 Personnel and facilities.—In carrying out the purposes of part II of this chapter, the board of county commissioners may use to the extent feasible any personnel or facilities employed by or available to the county. In addition, the board of county commissioners may hire such personnel and contract for such services as may prove necessary or desirable.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.28 Comprehensive county beach and shore preservation program.—The board of county commissioners of any of the counties may, by assignments to legally qualified personnel, whose services are made available as provided in s. 161.27, initiate and carry on such studies and investigations as may be necessary to plan a logical and suitable program for comprehensive beach and shore preservation within its county. This program may incorporate all or part of the recommendations of the United States Army Corps of Engineers concerning beach and shore restoration and erosion control, if there be any, and may additionally provide to an appropriate extent for the other aspects of beach and shore preservation. In conducting its studies and making its plans for a beach and shore preservation program, the board of county commissioners shall hold sufficient public hearings to ascertain the views and feelings of affected property owners in the various localities of the county regarding the needs to be served and manner in which they should best be served. The board of county commissioners shall give proper and reasonable consideration to all evidence received in planning the beach and shore preservation program.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.29 Benefit categories or zones.—Upon adoption of a reasonably final plan of improvement for the beach and shore preservation program for the entire county, the board of county commissioners shall conduct, through the use of personnel competent and qualified in this field, an economic analysis of the proposed program, determining the nature and extent of benefits expected to accrue from the program and allocating these benefits to their proper recipients by categories or zones of comparable benefits, and place in the same zone areas of equal benefit, or follow such other method as may be deemed suitable for the purposes of this section. From time to time, the board of county commissioners shall conduct in the same or similar manner a new analysis to better determine and allocate actual or expected benefits.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.31 Establishment of districts.—

(1) Districts established under the provisions of part II of this chapter shall constitute public bodies corporate and politic, exercising public powers and all other powers and duties incident to such bodies.

(2) The board of county commissioners shall serve as the governing body for all districts created under this authority and shall proceed as expeditiously as possible to determine and implement policy and program for each such district in accordance with the overall county program, except that the board of county commissioners may receive guidance in these matters for each district from an advisory group, consisting of not less than three nor more than five persons, which the board of county commissioners may appoint from any or each such district. Members of such advisory group shall have no definite term of office but shall serve at the pleasure of the board of county commissioners.

(3) To further provide for efficient administration of the district program, the board of county commissioners may hire such additional personnel or contract for such additional services as it considers necessary or desirable in each case.

(4) A uniform ad valorem tax not to exceed 1 mill per year on all nonexempt taxable property within the district may be levied for a period of not more than 2 years to defray organizational and administrative costs of said district.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; s. 3, ch. 71-14.

161.32 Existing erosion prevention district.—

Part II of this chapter shall not be construed to impair the existence, powers or functions of any existing erosion prevention, beach or shore preservation districts created by special or local act; provided, however, that any such existing district may recreate and reestablish itself under the provisions of this act as if originally created and established hereunder in all respects, by resolution of its governing body adopting the provisions of chapter 161, in their entirety and thereafter shall function as a beach and shore preservation district created and established under the provisions of part II of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

(1) The board of county commissioners, for itself or on behalf of any and all duly established beach and shore preservation districts within the county, may enter into cooperative agreements and otherwise cooperate with, and meet the requirements and conditions of, federal, state and other local governments and political entities, or any agencies or representative thereof, for the purpose of improving, furthering and expediting the beach and shore preservation program.

(2) The board of county commissioners and the Department of Natural Resources, for and on behalf of each or any district created in accordance with parts I and II of this chapter, are authorized to receive and accept from any federal agency, grants for or in aid of any beach and shore preservation program contemplated by part II of this chapter, and to receive and accept aid or contributions from any source, of money, property and other things of value. The board of county commissioners is authorized to make application for Federal participation in the cost of any beach and shore preservation program under any Acts of Congress and all amendments thereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.34 Coordination of county preservation activities.—The board of county commissioners shall coordinate the work and activity of all districts established hereunder within the county and, to further insure harmony and consistency with the overall county beach and shore preservation plan, shall establish working liaison with each municipality and other agencies and groups involved in beach and shore preservation activity within the county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

(1) With the consent of the Department of Natural Resources and of any municipality or other political authority involved, the board of county commissioners may regulate and supervise all physical work or activity along the county shoreline which is likely to have a material physical effect on existing coastal conditions or natural shore processes. This regulatory and supervisory authority shall specifically include, but not be limited to, installation of groins, jetties, moles, breakwaters, seawalls, revetments, and other coastal construction as defined herein. For this purpose, the board of county commissioners, with assistance as required from its professional personnel, may develop standards and criteria, issue permits and conduct inspections.

(2) All regulations and requirements prescribed by the board of county commissioners pursuant to part II of this chapter may be enforced by mandatory injunction or other appropriate action in any court of competent jurisdiction. Such regulations and requirements shall in no way affect the regulatory authority of the Department of Natural Resources.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.36 General powers of authority.—In order to most effectively carry out the purposes of part II of this chapter, the board of county commissioners, as the county beach and shore preservation authority and as the governing body of each beach and shore preservation district established thereby, shall be possessed of broad powers to do all manner of things necessary or desirable in pursuance of this end; provided, however, nothing herein shall diminish or impair the regulatory authority of the Department of Natural Resources or Division of Marine Resources under s. 370.02(2), or part I of this chapter, or the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund under chapter 253. Such powers shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) To make contracts and enter into agreements;
- (2) To sue and be sued;
- (3) To acquire and hold lands and property by any lawful means;
- (4) To exercise the power of eminent domain;
- (5) To enter upon private property for purposes of making surveys, soundings, drillings and examinations, and such entry shall not be deemed a trespass;
- (6) To construct, acquire, operate and maintain works and facilities;

- (7) To make rules and regulations; and
- (8) To do any and all other things specified or implied in part II of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; ss. 25, 27, 35, ch. 69-106.

161.37 Capital, operation and maintenance costs; district benefits tax levy.—

(1) To provide for the capital, operation and maintenance cost of the beach and shore preservation program, either by debt service or direct expenditure, the board of county commissioners as the governing body of each district created in accordance with part II of this chapter may levy upon all taxable property within each district an ad valorem benefits tax in any amount necessary to meet the requirements of the program but not exceeding the reasonable ability of the district to pay.

(2) The tax shall be levied upon each taxable property in proportion to benefits said property will receive as determined by the most recent economic analysis of the program as provided for under s. 161.29. General benefits shall be uniformly applied on an ad valorem basis to the entire assessed valuation of each district, while special benefits shall be assigned to groups of specific properties which shall constitute zones because of the equal or comparable benefits each included property will receive.

(3) Where the board of county commissioners levies any special benefits taxes, it shall consider the value of the property, its kind, susceptibility to improvement and the maximum annual benefits to be conferred thereon by the works or improvements in the district.

(4) The owner of lands where a special benefits tax is proposed to be levied shall be given written notice and an opportunity to be heard upon the amount of special benefits tax to be levied upon his lands. If the special benefits to all properties within any district are found to be equal or comparable, then the said district shall comprise only one tax zone. The proportional tax rate which each property within a district shall pay shall be determined by adding the general and special benefits assigned to its zone. The actual tax levy for any particular year shall depend on the revenue needs for that year.

(5) The board of county commissioners shall levy sufficient ad valorem and special benefits taxes to pay off debt service on any bonds issued. It shall be the duty of the board each year, sufficiently in advance of the preparation of the county tax roll, to establish the revenue requirements for each individual district for the fiscal year in question and certify this figure to the county property appraiser who shall then assign shares of this total to each zone within the respective district according to the proportion of total benefits previously assigned. The share of total required revenue assigned each zone shall then be collected by an ad valorem levy on each taxable property within the zone.

(6) All taxes provided for in part II of this chapter shall be levied and collected by the county in the same manner as other county taxes, and while unpaid shall constitute a lien of equal stature and dignity with other county taxes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

161.38 Issuance of bonds.—

(1) The board of county commissioners, for and on behalf of each or any district created in accordance with part II of this chapter, is authorized to provide from time to time for the issuance of bonds to obtain funds to meet the costs of the beach and shore preservation program; provided, however, that such issuance shall have first been approved at a duly conducted referendum election by freeholders within the subject district as provided for by law. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at rates not to exceed 7½ percent which mature at such time not to exceed 40 years from the date of issuance as determined by the board of county commissioners, and at the option of the board of county commissioners may be made redeemable before maturity under such terms and conditions and at such prices as fixed by the board of county commissioners prior to issuance.

(2) The board of county commissioners shall determine the form of such bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, the denomination of the bonds, and the place of payment of principal and interest which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the state.

(a) The resolution authorizing the issue may further provide that such bonds may be executed manually or by engraved, lithographed or facsimile signature.

(b) The appropriate seal may be affixed or lithographed, engraved or otherwise reproduced in facsimile on such bonds and shall be attested by the manual or facsimile signature of the county clerk; provided, however, that at least one of the signatures of executing officials on the bonds shall be manual. Signatures, manual or facsimile, of executing officials shall continue to be valid for all purposes whatsoever regardless of whether or not signing officials are still in office at the time bonds are actually delivered.

(c) Bonds may be issued in coupon or registered form as the board of county commissioners may decide and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone or as to principal and interest, and for the reconversion of coupon bonds or any bond registered as to principal and interest.

(d) The issuance of bonds provided for in part II of this chapter shall not be subject to any limitations or conditions contained in any other law, and the board of county commissioners may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or private sale and for such prices as it may determine to be in the best interests of the district concerned, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on money received therefor at a rate in excess of 6 percent per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding from such computation, however, the amount of any premium to be paid for the redemption of any bonds prior to maturity.

(e) Prior to the preparation or issuance of definitive bonds, the board of county commissioners may under like restrictions issue interim receipts or temporary notes or other forms of such temporary obligations with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds have been executed and are available for delivery. Such bonds may be issued under the provisions of part II of this chapter without obtaining the consent of any commission, board, bureau or agency of this state, and without any other proceeding or happening than specifically required by this chapter.

(3) All bonds issued under part II of this chapter shall constitute, and have all the qualities and incidents of, negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the Negotiable Instruments Law of Florida, and shall not be invalid for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings for the issuance and sale thereof and shall be incontestable in the hands of bona fide purchasers for value.

(4) The provisions of part II of this chapter shall constitute an irrevocable contract between the board of county commissioners and the holders of such bonds or coupons thereof issued pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(5) Any holder of such bonds issued under the provisions of part II of this chapter, and the trustee under any trustee agreement, except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by such trust agreement, may either at law or in equity, by suit, action or mandamus, force and compel the performance of the duties required by part II of this chapter or of any of the officers or persons herein mentioned in relation to said bonds, or the levy, assessment, collection and enforcement and application of the taxes pledged for the principal and interest thereof as provided for in s. 161.37.

(6) Bonds issued under the provisions of part II of this chapter shall not be subject to the consent or approval of any state board, commission or agency, but such bonds shall be validated in accordance with the provisions of chapter 75.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408; s. 11, ch. 73-302.

161.39 Cooperation between two or more counties.—

(1) When two or more counties have created one or more beach preservation districts as provided for under part II of this chapter or any other law with same or like intent, or desire to carry out programs of beach and shore preservation, and find it to be mutually beneficial, the boards of county commissioners of such counties may cooperate to any extent necessary or desirable to carry out the intent of part II of this chapter or any other law with same or like intent, in the implementation of any beach or shore preservation plan or project as defined herein. This cooperation may include but shall not be limited to cooperative participation in the nonfederal costs of federally authorized projects affecting one or more of the cooperating counties, plans or projects resulting from investigation, or studies made by any or all such counties, or other such plans or projects, which by their nature would prove to be beneficial to each such cooperating county as determined by the boards of county commissioners of each such county.

(2) The costs of any such plan or project shall be borne by each of the cooperating counties in accordance with the benefits expected to accrue to each county as determined in accordance with s. 161.29, or as determined and agreed upon by the boards of county commissioners of each such cooperating county.

(3) Any county may expend funds in any other county for the purposes provided herein if in the opinion of the board of county commissioners of one county such expenditure of its funds in other counties would be beneficial to the beaches and shores of that county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.40 Tax exemptions.—All properties, revenues and other assets of the board of county commissioners acting as the beach and shore preservation authority, or of any of the districts created thereby, shall, by recognition of its essential public function, be exempt from all taxation by the state or any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality thereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-408.

161.41 Construction of ss. 161.25-161.40.—The provisions of ss. 161.25-161.40 shall be liberally construed by all concerned in a manner to best accomplish the beach and shore preservation purposes and programs.

History.—s. 3, ch. 65-408.

161.45 Effect of repeal of ch. 158 on districts created prior to repeal.—The county erosion districts created under the provisions of chapter 158, and presently in existence shall not be affected by the repeal of chapter 158.

PART I

MISCELLANEOUS PROGRAMS

- 163.01 Florida Interlocal Cooperation Act of 1969.
 163.02 Councils of local public officials.
 163.03 Department of Community Affairs; local government.

163.01 Florida Interlocal Cooperation Act of 1969.—

(1) This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Interlocal Cooperation Act of 1969."

(2) It is the purpose of this section to permit local governmental units to make the most efficient use of their powers by enabling them to cooperate with other localities on a basis of mutual advantage and thereby to provide services and facilities in a manner and pursuant to forms of governmental organization that will accord best with geographic, economic, population, and other factors influencing the needs and development of local communities.

(3) As used in this section:

(a) "Interlocal agreement" means an agreement entered into pursuant to this section.

(b) "Public agency" means a political subdivision, agency, or officer of this state or of any state of the United States, including, but not limited to, state government, county, city, school district, single and multipurpose special district, single and multipurpose public authority, metropolitan or consolidated government, an independently elected county officer, any agency of the United States Government, and any similar entity of any other state of the United States.

(c) "State" means a state of the United States.

(4) A public agency of this state may exercise jointly with any other public agency of the state, of any other state, or of the United States Government any power, privilege, or authority which such agencies share in common and which each might exercise separately.

(5) A joint exercise of power pursuant to this section shall be made by contract in the form of an interlocal agreement, which may provide for:

(a) The purpose of such interlocal agreement or the power to be exercised and the method by which the purpose will be accomplished or the manner in which the power will be exercised.

(b) The duration of the interlocal agreement and the method by which it may be rescinded or terminated by any participating public agency prior to the stated date of termination.

(c) The precise organization, composition, and nature of any separate legal or administrative entity created thereby with the powers designated thereto, if such entity may be legally created.

(d) The manner in which the parties to an interlocal agreement will provide from their treasuries the financial support for the purpose set forth in the interlocal agreement, payments of public funds that may be made to defray the cost of such purpose, advances of public funds that may be made for the purposes set forth in the interlocal agreements and repayment thereof, and the personnel, equipment or property of one or more of the parties to the agreement that may be used in lieu of other contributions or advances.

(e) The manner in which funds may be paid to and disbursed by any separate legal or administrative entity created pursuant to the interlocal agreement.

(f) A method or formula for equitably providing for and allocating and financing the capital and operating costs, including payments to reserve funds authorized by law and payments of principal and interest on obligations. The method or formula shall be established by the participating parties to the interlocal agreement on a ratio of full valuation of real property, on the basis of the amount of services rendered or to be rendered or benefits received or conferred or to be received or conferred, or on any other equitable basis, including the levying of taxes or assessments to pay such costs on the entire area serviced by the parties to the interlocal agreement, subject to such limitations as may be contained in the constitution and statutes of this state.

(g) The manner of employing, engaging, compensating, transferring, or discharging necessary personnel, subject to the provisions of applicable civil service and merit systems.

(h) The fixing and collecting of charges, rates, rents, or fees, where appropriate, and the making and promulgation of necessary rules and regulations and their enforcement by or with the assistance of the participating parties to the interlocal agreement.

(i) The manner in which purchases shall be made and contracts entered into.

(j) The acquisition, ownership, custody, operation, maintenance, lease, or sale of real or personal property.

(k) The disposition, diversion, or distribution of any property acquired through the execution of such interlocal agreement.

(l) The manner in which, after the completion of the purpose of the interlocal agreement, any surplus money shall be returned in proportion to the contributions made by the participating parties.

(m) The acceptance of gifts, grants, assistance funds, or bequests.

(n) The making of claims for federal or state aid payable to the individual or several participants on account of the execution of the interlocal agreement.

(o) The manner of responding for any liabilities that might be incurred through performance of the interlocal agreement and insuring against any such liability.

(p) The adjudication of disputes or disagreements, the effects of failure of participating parties to pay their shares of the costs and expenses, and the rights of the other participants in such cases.

(q) The manner in which strict accountability of all funds shall be provided for and the manner in which reports, including an annual independent audit, of all receipts and disbursements shall be prepared and presented to each participating party to the interlocal agreement.

(r) Any other necessary and proper matters agreed upon by the participating public agencies.

(6) An interlocal agreement may provide for one or more parties to the agreement to administer or execute the agreement. One or more parties to the agreement may agree to provide all or a part of the services set forth in the agreement in the manner provided in the agreement. The parties may provide for the mutual exchange of services without payment of any contribution other than such services.

(7)(a) An interlocal agreement may provide for a separate legal or administrative entity to administer or execute the agreement which may be a commission, board, or council constituted pursuant to the agreement.

(b) A separate legal or administrative entity created by an interlocal agreement shall possess the common power specified in the agreement and may exercise it in the manner or according to the method provided in the agreement. The entity may, in addition to its other powers, be authorized in its own name to make and enter into contracts, to employ agencies or employees, to acquire, construct, manage, maintain, or operate buildings, works, or improvements, to acquire, hold, or dispose of property, and to incur debts, liabilities, or obligations which do not constitute the debts, liabilities, or obligations of any of the parties to the agreement.

(c) No separate legal or administrative entity created by an interlocal agreement shall possess the power or authority to levy any type of tax within the boundaries of any governmental unit participating in the interlocal agreement, to issue any type of bond in its own name, or in any way to obligate financially a governmental unit participating in the interlocal agreement. However, any separate legal entity comprised of electric utilities as defined in s. 361.11(2) and created for the purpose of exercising the powers granted by part II of chapter 361, the "Joint Power Act," may, for the purpose of financing or refinancing the costs of a joint electric power supply project as defined in said part, exercise all powers in connection with the authorization, issuance, and sale of bonds as are conferred upon municipalities by part I of chapter 159 or part II of chapter 166, or both. Any such entity may also issue bond anticipation notes, as provided by s. 215.431, in connection with the authorization, issuance, and sale of such bonds. All of the privileges, benefits, powers, and terms of part I of chapter 159 and part II of chapter 166, notwithstanding any limitations provided above, shall be fully applicable to such entity. Bonds issued pursuant to this section may be validated as provided in chapter 75. However, the complaint in any action to validate such bonds shall be filed only in the Circuit Court for Leon County. The notice required to be published by s. 75.06 shall be published only in Leon County, and the complaint and order of the circuit court shall be served only on the State Attorney of the Second Judicial Circuit and on the state attorney of each circuit in which a municipality participating in the subject bond issue lies.

(8) If the purpose set forth in an interlocal agreement is the acquisition, construction, or operation of a revenue-producing facility, the agreement may provide for the repayment or return to the parties of all or any part of the contributions, payments, or advances made by the parties pursuant to subsection (5) and for payment to the parties of any sum derived from the revenues of such facility. Payments, repayments, or returns shall be made at any time and in the manner specified in the agreement, and may be made at any time on or prior to the rescission or termination of the agreement or completion of the purposes of the agreement.

(9)(a) All of the privileges and immunities from liability; exemptions from laws, ordinances, and rules; and pensions and relief, disability, workers' compensation, and other benefits which apply to the activity of officers, agency, or employees of any public agents or employees of any public agency when performing their respective functions within the territorial limits for their respective agencies shall apply to the same degree and extent to the performance of such functions and duties of such officers, agents, or employees extraterritorially under the provisions of any such interlocal agreement.

(b) An interlocal agreement does not relieve a public agency of any obligation or responsibility imposed upon it by law except to the extent of actual and timely performance thereof by one or more of the parties to the agreement or any legal or administrative entity created by the agreement, in which case the performance may be offered in satisfaction of the obligation or responsibility.

(10)(a) A public agency entering into an interlocal agreement may appropriate funds and sell, give or otherwise supply any party designated to operate the joint or cooperative undertaking such personnel, services, facilities, property, franchises, or funds thereof as may be within its legal power to furnish.

(b) A public agency entering into an interlocal agreement may receive grants-in-aid or other assistance funds from the United States Government or this state for use in carrying out the purposes of the interlocal agreement.

(11) Prior to its effectiveness, an interlocal agreement and subsequent amendments thereto shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of each county where a party to the agreement is located.

(12) Any public agency entering into an agreement pursuant to this section may appropriate funds and may sell, lease, give, or otherwise supply the administrative joint board or other legal or administrative entity created to operate the joint or cooperative undertaking by providing such personnel or services therefor as may be within its legal power to furnish.

(13) The powers and authority granted by this section shall be in addition and supplemental to those granted by any other general, local or special law. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to interfere with the application of any other law.

(14) This section is intended to authorize the entry into contracts for the performance of service functions of public agencies, but shall not be deemed to authorize the delegation of the constitutional or statutory duties of state, county, or city officers.

163.02 Councils of local public officials.—

(1) The governing bodies of any two or more counties, municipalities, special districts, or other governmental subdivisions of this state, or any of them, herein referred to as member local governments, may, by resolution, enter into an agreement with each other for the establishment of a council of local public officials. Any council established under the authority of this section shall be a corporation not for profit.

(2) Representation on the council shall be in the manner provided in the agreement establishing the council. The representative from each member local government shall be the elected chief executive of said local government or, if such government does not have an elected chief executive, a member of its governing body chosen by such body to be its representative. Any member may withdraw from the council upon 60 days' notice subsequent to formal action by its governing body.

(3) The local government council shall have the power to:

(a) Study such area governmental problems as it deems appropriate, including but not limited to matters affecting health, safety, welfare, education, economic conditions, and area development;

(b) Promote cooperative arrangements and coordinate action among its members; and

(c) Make recommendations for review and action to the members and other public agencies that perform local functions and services within the area.

(4) The council shall adopt bylaws designating the officers of the council and providing for the conduct of its business. The council may employ a staff, consult and retain experts, and purchase or lease or otherwise provide for such supplies, materials, equipment and facilities as it deems desirable and necessary.

(5)(a) The governing bodies of the member governments may appropriate funds to meet the necessary expenses of the council. Services of personnel, use of equipment and office space, and other necessary services may be accepted from members as part of their financial support.

(b) The council may accept funds, grants, gifts, and services from the state, from any other governmental unit, whether participating in the council or not, from the Government of the United States, and from private and civic sources.

(c) The council shall make an annual public report of its activities to each of the member local governments, and shall have its accounts audited annually.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 69-69.

163.03 Department of Community Affairs; local government.—

(1) The Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs shall:

(a) Supervise and administer the activities of the department and shall advise the Governor, the cabinet, and the Legislature with respect to matters affecting community affairs and local government and participate in the formulation of policies which best utilize the resources of state government for the benefit of local government;

(b) Render services to local governments by assisting, upon request, in applying for and securing federal and state funds and by assisting the Executive Office of the Governor in coordinating the activities of the state with federal programs for assistance in and solution of urban problems;

(c) Under the direction of the Governor, administer programs to apply rapidly all available aid to disaster-stricken communities and, for this purpose, provide liaison with federal agencies and other public and private agencies;

(d) When requested, administer programs which will assist the efforts of local governments in developing mutual and cooperative solutions to their common problems;

(e) Conduct programs to encourage and promote the involvement of private enterprise in the solution of urban problems;

(f) Consult with governmental, academic, and private organizations which conduct research on metropolitan and other local problems; and report to the Governor and the Legislature concerning the findings and recommendations of these organizations;

(g) Conduct continuing programs of analysis and evaluation of local governments, and recommend to the Governor programs and changes in the powers and organization of local government as may seem necessary to strengthen local governments;

(h) Provide an informational service for local governments, or interested persons, by referring inquiries to the appropriate departments and agencies of the state and federal governments for advice, assistance, and available services in connection with particular problems;

(i) Assist the Governor and the cabinet in coordinating and making more effective the activities and services of those departments and agencies of the state which may be of service to units of local government;

(j) Provide consultative services and technical assistance to local officials in the fields of housing, redevelopment and renewal, local public improvement programs, planning and zoning, and other local programs; and collect and disseminate information pertaining thereto, including information concerning federal, state and private assistance programs and services;

(k) Conduct research and studies, and prepare model ordinances, charters, and codes relating to the areas referred to herein;

(l) Cooperate with other state agencies in the preparation of statewide plans relating to housing, redevelopment and renewal, human resources development, local planning and zoning, transportation and traffic, and other matters relating to the purposes of this section;

(m) Conduct a program of preservice and inservice training for local officials in technical and specialized areas of local administration, in cooperation with appropriate state agencies whose professional personnel possess specialized or technical knowledge which would be useful in conducting such training programs. Included in such programs shall be short courses in fiscal and debt management, and other areas in which the secretary determines that there is sufficient interest among local officials to warrant training programs;

(n) Perform such other functions, duties, or responsibilities as may be hereafter assigned to him by law;

(o) Accept funds from all sources to be utilized in programs designed to combat juvenile crime, including the making of contributions to the National Youth Emergency Corps; and

(p) Be authorized to accept and disburse funds from all sources in order to carry out the following programs:

1. Advisory and informational services to local governments;
2. Community development training under Title VIII of the Housing Act of 1964;
3. Local planning assistance under s. 701 of the Housing Act of 1954;
4. Statewide planning assistance under s. 701 of the Housing Act of 1954;
5. Model cities technical assistance under s. 701 of the Housing Act of 1954.

(2) It is the intent of this section, with respect to federal grant-in-aid programs that the department shall serve as the agency for disseminating information to local governments regarding the availability of federal grant-in-aid assistance to local governments in their efforts to secure federal grant-in-aid assistance, but only upon the request of such local governments; and assisting local governments in maintaining liaison and communications with federal agencies concerning federal grant-in-aid programs; provided, however that nothing contained herein shall be construed to require consent, approval, or authorization from the department as a condition to any application for or acceptance of grants-in-aid from the United States Government.

163.160 Scope of act.—

(1) The several counties and incorporated municipalities of this state may plan for future development, adopt and amend comprehensive plans to guide future development, adopt and enforce zoning regulations, adopt and enforce subdivision regulations, adopt and enforce building, plumbing, electrical, gas, fire, safety, and sanitary codes, and establish and maintain the boards and commissions herein described for carrying out the provisions and purposes of this act. The powers authorized by this act may be employed by counties and incorporated municipalities individually or jointly by mutual agreement in accordance with the provisions of this act in such combinations as their common interests may dictate.

(2) The provisions of this act shall not be deemed to repeal or modify any local or special act relating to zoning, planning, or subdivision regulations, but the provisions herein shall be supplemental and in addition to powers that may be exercised by any governing body that has a local or special act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-139.

163.165 Legislative intent.—

(1) In order to preserve and enhance their present advantages, overcome their present handicaps, and prevent or minimize future problems, it is the intent of this act to enable the several counties and incorporated municipalities to plan for future development and to prepare, adopt and amend comprehensive plans to guide future development. To implement the comprehensive plans, the several counties and incorporated municipalities may adopt and enforce zoning regulations, adopt and enforce subdivision regulations, and adopt and enforce building, plumbing, electrical, gas, fire, safety, and sanitary codes.

(2) The provisions of this act in its interpretation and application are declared to be the minimum requirements necessary to promote, protect, and improve the public health, safety, comfort, good order, appearance, convenience, morals, and general welfare; to conserve the value of land, buildings, and resources; and to protect the character and maintain the stability of residential, agricultural, business, and industrial areas and to promote the orderly development of such areas.

(3) Any governing body of any county or any incorporated municipality may, but shall not be required to, exercise any of the powers set out in this act. Whenever a governing body shall elect to exercise any of the powers granted by this act, such powers shall be exercised in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-139.

163.170 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Area" means the complete area qualifying under the provisions of this act, whether this be all of the lands lying within the limits of an incorporated municipality, lands in and adjacent to incorporated municipalities, all unincorporated lands within a county, or areas comprising combinations of the lands in incorporated municipalities and unincorporated areas of counties.

(2) "Commission" means the planning commission appointed by the governing body or bodies adopting the provisions of this part as provided hereinafter.

(3) "Due public notice," as used in connection with the phrase "public hearing" or "hearings with due public notice," shall mean publication of notice of the time, place, and purpose of such hearing at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area, with the first such publication to be at least 15 days prior to the date of the hearing and the second such publication to be at least 5 days prior to the hearing. In addition, except where the hearing applies to all of the lands within the area, similar notices setting forth the time, place, and purpose of such hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of the owners of the property involved in or directly affected by the hearing, and such notices shall also be posted in a conspicuous place or places on or around such lots, parcels, or tracts of lands as may be involved in or directly affected by the hearing. Affidavit proof of the required publication, mailing, and posting of the notice shall be presented at the hearing.

(4) "Governing body" means the board of county commissioners of a county, the commission or council of an incorporated municipality or any other chief governing body of a unit of local government, however designated, or the combination of such bodies where joint adoption of the provisions of this part is accomplished as herein provided.

(5) "Ordinance" means an official, legislative, policy-making action of a governing body. When used in relation to action by a board of county commissioners, the term means a resolution of the board of county commissioners. When used in relation to action by other governing bodies, the term means such appropriate official, legislative, policy-making action as is customarily taken by the governing body involved, regardless of the nomenclature given to such official action.

(6) "Special exception" as used in connection with the provisions of this act dealing with zoning, means a use that would not be appropriate generally or without restriction throughout the particular zoning district or classification, but which, if controlled as to number, area, location, or relation to the neighborhood, would not adversely affect the public health, safety, comfort, good order, appearance, convenience, morals, and the general welfare. Such uses may be permitted in such zoning district or classification as special exceptions only if specific provisions and standards for such special exceptions are made in the zoning ordinance.

(7) "Subdivision" means the division of a parcel of land, whether improved or unimproved, into three or more contiguous lots or parcels of land, designated by reference to the number or symbol of the lot or parcel contained in the plat of such subdivision, for the purpose, whether immediate or future, of transfer of ownership or, if the establishment of a new street is involved, any division of such parcel. However, the division of land into parcels of more than 5 acres not involving any change in street lines or public easements of whatsoever kind is not to be deemed a subdivision within the meaning of this act. The term includes a resubdivision and, when appropriate to the context, relates to the process of subdividing or to the land subdivided.

(8) "Variance" as used in connection with the provisions of this act dealing with zoning, means a modification of the zoning ordinance regulations when such variance will not be contrary to the public interest and when, owing to conditions peculiar to the property and not the result of the actions of the applicant, a literal enforcement of the ordinance would result in unnecessary and undue hardship. A variance is authorized only for height, area, and size of structure or size of yards and open spaces. Establishment or expansion of a use otherwise prohibited shall not be allowed by variance nor shall a variance be granted because of the presence of nonconformities in the zoning district or classification or in adjoining zoning districts or classifications.

163.175 Areas and jurisdictions which may qualify under the provisions of this act.—

(1) MUNICIPALITIES AND ADJACENT AREAS.—Any incorporated municipality may exercise any or all of the powers granted under the provisions of this act in the total area within its corporate limits upon passage of an appropriate ordinance to that effect by the governing body. Unincorporated areas adjacent to incorporated municipalities may be added to and included in the area under municipal jurisdiction for the purposes of this act, when the governing bodies of the municipality and the county in which the area is located shall agree as to the boundaries of such additional areas, procedures for joint action, procedures for administration of ordinances and regulations applying to the area, and the manner of obtaining equitable representation on the commissions and boards provided for under this act. Such agreements shall be formally stated in appropriate official action by the governing bodies involved.

(2) COUNTIES.—Any county may exercise any of the powers granted under the provisions of this act in the total unincorporated area within its boundaries or in such unincorporated areas as are not included in any joint jurisdiction with municipipalities established under the provisions of subsection (1). In order to exercise any of the powers granted under the provisions of this act, the board of county commissioners of the county shall pass an ordinance after due public notice to that effect.

(3) COMBINATIONS OF MUNICIPALITIES AND COUNTIES.—Combinations of incorporated municipalities, of counties, of an incorporated municipality or municipalities and a county or counties, or an incorporated municipality or municipalities and portions of a county or counties may jointly exercise the powers granted under the provisions of this act upon formal adoption of an official agreement by the governing bodies involved as described in subsection (1).

(4) PUBLIC HEARING.—Before any municipality or county, jointly or individually, may adopt the provisions of this act, there shall be at least one public hearing with due public notice held in the area involved at which time all affected persons shall be given an opportunity to appear and be heard.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-139.

163.180 Commissions.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT AND COMPOSITION.—The governing bodies of counties and incorporated municipalities are hereby empowered, individually or in combination as provided in s. 163.175, to establish commissions and appoint members thereto, the proportionate membership thereof to be as agreed upon and appointed by the governmental bodies concerned. Elected officeholders of any of the jurisdictions involved may serve only in an ex officio capacity.

(2) TERMS OF OFFICE; REMOVAL FROM OFFICE; VACANCIES.—Members of the commission shall be appointed for staggered terms of such length as may be determined jointly by the governing bodies involved and shall serve until their successors are appointed. Original appointments may be made for a lesser number of years so that the terms of the said members shall be staggered. The governing body creating the commission is authorized to remove any member of the commission for cause after written notice and public hearing. Any vacancy occurring during the unexpired term of office of any member shall be filled by the governing body concerned for the remainder of the term. Such vacancy shall be filled within 30 days after the vacancy occurs.

(3) OFFICERS, RULES OF PROCEDURE, EMPLOYEES AND SALARIES.—

(a) The commission shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman from among its members. The commission shall appoint a secretary who may be the executive director of the commission or an employee of the governing body.

(b) The commission shall meet at regular intervals to be determined by it and at such other times as the chairman or commission may determine. It shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business and keep a properly indexed record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations, which record shall be a public record. All meetings of the commission shall be public.

(c) The commission may, subject to the approval of the governing body concerned and within the financial limitations set by appropriations made or other funds available, employ such experts, technicians, and staff as may be deemed proper and pay their salaries, contractual charges and fees, and such other expenses as are necessary to conduct the work of the commission.

(d) Nothing in this act shall prevent the governing body of a county or incorporated municipality that participates in creating a commission serving two or more jurisdictions from continuing or creating its own commission. It may assign to the commission serving two or more jurisdictions any or all of the functions, powers and duties of its own commission, whereupon the functions, powers and duties so assigned shall no longer be exercised by its own commission but shall thereafter be exercised by the commission serving two or more jurisdictions.

(4) APPROPRIATIONS, FEES AND OTHER INCOME.—The governing body for the area under the jurisdiction of the commission is hereby authorized and empowered to make appropriations for salaries, fees, and expenses necessary in the conduct of the work of the commission and also to establish a schedule of fees to be charged by the commission. To accomplish the purposes and activities authorized by this act, the commission, with the approval of the governing body or bodies, has the authority to expend all sums so appropriated and other sums made available for its use from fees, gifts, state or federal grants, state or federal loans, and other sources when acceptance of such loans is approved by the governing bodies involved.

163.185 Functions, powers, and duties of commissions.—The functions, powers, and duties of the commission shall be, in general and in addition to any functions, powers and duties set forth in the body of this act, to:

(1) Acquire and maintain such information and materials as are necessary to an understanding of past trends, present conditions, and forces at work to cause changes in these conditions. Such information and material may include maps and photographs of man-made and natural physical features of the area concerned, statistics on past trends and present conditions with respect to population, property values, economic base, land use, and such other information as is important or likely to be important in determining the amount, direction, and kind of development to be expected in the area and its various parts.

(2) Prepare, adopt, and from time to time amend and revise a comprehensive and coordinated general plan for meeting present requirements and such future requirements as may be foreseen.

(3) Establish principles and policies for guiding action in the development of the area.

(4) Conduct such public hearings as may be required to gather information necessary for the drafting, establishment and maintenance of the comprehensive plan and such additional public hearings as are specified under the provisions of this act.

(5) Make or cause to be made any necessary special studies on the location, condition, and adequacy of specific facilities in the area. These may include, but are not limited to, studies on housing, commercial and industrial conditions and facilities, public and private utilities, and traffic, transportation, and parking.

(6) Perform any other duties which lawfully may be assigned to it.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-139.

163.190 The comprehensive plan.—

(1) COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.—When basic information for the area has been brought together, the commission shall prepare a comprehensive and coordinated general plan for the development of the area, based on existing and anticipated needs, showing existing and proposed improvements in the area and stating the principles according to which future development should proceed and the manner in which such development should be controlled. The plan shall be made with the general purpose of guiding and accomplishing a coordinated, adjusted, and harmonious development of the area which will, in accordance with existing and future needs, best promote public health, safety, comfort, order, appearance, convenience, morals, and the general welfare and which will contribute to efficiency and economy in the process of development. The comprehensive plan shall include plans for land use and may include plans for transportation, community facilities, a long-range financial program for public improvements, and such other matters as may be deemed necessary by the commission and the governing body for the purpose of meeting the objectives of this act.

(2) ADOPTION OF COMPREHENSIVE PLAN BY THE PLANNING COMMISSION.—The comprehensive plan shall be adopted by the commission either in its entirety or as substantial portions corresponding generally with functional or geographic classifications are completed. Before adoption of the comprehensive plan or any portion or portions thereof, a public hearing shall be held with due public notice by the commission. The adoption of the comprehensive plan or any portion or portions thereof, or of any amendment or additions thereto, shall be by resolution carried by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total membership of the commission. The resolution shall refer expressly to the maps, descriptive material and other matters intended by the planning commission to form the whole or part of the comprehensive plan. The action taken shall be recorded on the adopted plan or parts thereof by the identifying signatures of the secretary and the chairman of the commission, together with the date of such action, and a copy of the comprehensive plan or parts thereof shall be certified to the governing body. The officially adopted copy of the comprehensive plan or any portion thereof and any duly adopted amendments thereto shall be a part of the permanent records of the commission.

(3) ADOPTION OF COMPREHENSIVE PLAN BY GOVERNING BODY OR BODIES.—The governing body may formally adopt the comprehensive plan by appropriate official action either in its entirety or as substantial portions corresponding generally with the functional or geographic classifications are completed and adopted by the commission. Any comprehensive plan shall only become effective upon its adoption by a majority of the membership of the governing body.

History.—s. 7, ch. 69-139.

163.195 Legal effect of comprehensive plan.

—Whenever a comprehensive plan for the area or a portion of such a plan corresponding generally with a functional classification of the subject matter or a geographic classification of the area has been adopted, then and thenceforth no street, park, other public way, ground, place, or space, public building or structure not in conformity with the comprehensive plan shall be constructed, altered or authorized in the area unless the location and extent thereof shall have been submitted to the commission for a report and its statement of approval or disapproval and the reasons therefor. Within 30 days after the request for such report has been received by the commission or within such other time limit as may be agreed upon, the report shall either be made or failure of the commission to act shall be deemed approval. The commission's report may be overruled by a majority vote of the entire membership of the governing body. After a comprehensive plan for the area or a portion of such plan corresponding generally with a geographic classification of the area has been adopted by the governing body, no zoning ordinance, subdivision regulation, or code adopted under the authority of this act shall be amended until such amendment shall have been referred to the commission for review.

163.200 Review and amendment of comprehensive plan.

—At least once each year, the comprehensive plan or the completed parts thereof shall be reviewed by the planning commission to determine whether changes in the amount, kind or direction of development of the area, or other reasons make it beneficial to make additions or amendments to the plan. If the governing body desires an amendment or addition to the comprehensive plan, it may, on its own motion, direct the commission to prepare such amendment; and if such amendment is in accordance with the purposes of the comprehensive plan, the commission shall do so within a reasonable time as established by the governing body. The procedure for revising, adding to or amending the comprehensive plan shall be the same as the procedure for its original adoption.

163.205 Zoning; ordinances; contents.—

(1) After a comprehensive plan has been prepared and adopted as provided for in ss. 163.190, 163.195, and 163.200, and for the purpose of guiding and accomplishing coordinated, adjusted, and harmonious development in accordance with existing and future needs and in order to protect, promote, and improve public health, safety, comfort, order, appearance, convenience, morals, and general welfare, the governing body of an area described under s. 163.175, in accordance with the conditions and procedures specified in this act, may enact or amend and enforce a zoning ordinance after a public hearing with due public notice. In such ordinance the governing body shall divide the entire area into districts of such number, shape, and size as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this act, and within these districts may regulate, determine, and establish:

(a) Height, number of stories, size, bulk, location, erection, construction, repair, reconstruction, alteration, and use of buildings and other structures for trade, industry, residence, and other purposes;

(b) Use of land and water for trade, industry, profession, residence, and other purposes;

(c) Size of yards, courts, and other open spaces;

(d) Percentage of lot that may be occupied;

(e) Density of population;

(f) Conditions under which various classes of nonconformities may continue, including authority to set fair and reasonable schedules for the elimination of nonconforming uses;

(g) Use and types and sizes of structures in those areas subject to seasonal or periodic flooding, so that danger to life and property in such areas will be minimized; and

(h) Performance standards for use of property and location of structures thereon.

(2) All such regulations shall be uniform throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts. For each district designated for the location of trades, callings, industries, commercial enterprises, residences, or buildings designed for specific uses, regulations may specify those uses that shall be excluded or subjected to reasonable requirements of a special nature. Uses permitted in one district may be prohibited in other districts, to the end that incompatibility of uses is minimized or eliminated. Regulations and district boundaries shall protect, promote, and improve public health, safety, comfort, order, appearance, convenience, morals, and general welfare and shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, to the character of the districts and their special suitability for particular uses and with a view to conserving property values and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the area.

163.210 Zoning; procedure for establishing district boundaries; adoption of regulations.—

(1) TENTATIVE REPORT BY COMMISSION.—Tentative recommendations as to the boundaries of districts and the regulations to be enforced therein may be prepared by the commission on its own initiative or at the request of the governing body. The commission shall hold public preliminary hearings and conferences at such times and places and upon such notice as it may determine to be necessary to inform itself and the public in the preparation of the tentative report. The tentative report, which shall include the proposed zoning ordinance with maps and other explanatory materials, shall be made to the governing body by the commission.

(2) ACTION BY GOVERNING BODY.—Within 30 days or such reasonable times as shall be agreed upon, the governing body or bodies of the area shall consider the tentative report of the planning commission and shall return it, with any suggestions and recommendations, to the commission so that the commission may prepare a final report. No ordinance under the authority of this act shall be passed until after the final report of the commission has been received by the governing body.

(3) FINAL REPORT AND ACTION.—The commission shall then make a final report to the governing body. Such final report shall not be made by the commission until it has considered the recommendations and suggestions of the governing body and until it has held at least one public hearing, with due public notice. The commission may hold such additional hearings as it may consider desirable. After the final report has been submitted by the commission, the governing body shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard with reference to the proposed zoning ordinance at a public hearing with due public notice before adopting said ordinance.

163.215 Zoning; supplementing or amending the zoning ordinance.—

(1) The governing body may amend or supplement the regulations and districts fixed by any zoning ordinance adopted pursuant to this act after referral and recommendations of the commission. Proposed changes may be suggested by the governing body, by the commission, or by petition of the owners of 51 percent or more of the area involved in the proposed change. In the latter case, the petitioners may be required to assume the cost of public notice and other costs incidental to the holding of public hearings.

(2) The planning commission, regardless of the source of the proposed change, shall hold a public hearing or hearings thereon, with due public notice, but shall in any case, if any change is to be considered by the commission, submit in writing its recommendations on the proposed change to the governing body for official action. The governing body shall hold a public hearing thereon, with due public notice, if any change is to be considered and shall then act on the proposed change. If the recommendation of the commission is adverse to the proposed change, such change shall not become effective except by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire membership of the governing body, after due public notice.

163.220 Board of adjustment; creation and composition; terms; officers; etc.—

(1) CREATION AND COMPOSITION.—As part of the zoning ordinance, the governing body shall create a board of adjustment. The board of adjustment shall have not less than five nor more than ten members. Members of the board of adjustment shall be appointed by the governing body. In addition, the governing body may appoint not more than two alternate members, designating them as such. Such alternate members may act in the temporary absence or disability of any regular member, or may act when a regular member is otherwise disqualified in a particular case that may be presented to the board. No member or alternate member of the board of adjustment shall be a paid or elected official or employee of the governing body involved.

(2) TERMS OF OFFICE, REMOVAL FROM OFFICE, VACANCIES.—Members of the board of adjustment shall serve for overlapping terms of not less than 3 or more than 5 years or thereafter until their successors are appointed. Not more than a minority of the terms of such members shall expire in any one year. Any member of the board of adjustment may be removed from office for cause by the appointing governing body upon written charges and after public hearing. Any vacancy occurring during the unexpired term of office of any member shall be filled by the governing body concerned for the remainder of the term. Such vacancy shall be filled within 30 days after the vacancy occurs.

(3) OFFICERS, RULES OF PROCEDURE, EMPLOYEES AND SALARIES.—The board of adjustment shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman from among its members and shall appoint a secretary who may be an officer or employee of the governing body or of the planning commission. The board may create and fill such other offices as it may determine to be necessary for the conduct of its duties. Terms of all such offices shall be for 1 year, with eligibility for reelection. The board of adjustment shall adopt rules for transaction of its business, and shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings, and determinations, which record shall be a public record. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such times as the board may determine.

(4) APPROPRIATIONS, FEES AND OTHER INCOME.—The governing body is authorized and empowered to appropriate such funds as it may see fit for salaries, fees, and expenses necessary in the conduct of the work of the board of adjustment. The governing body is authorized to establish a schedule of fees to be charged by the board of adjustment. The board shall have the authority to expend all sums so appropriated and other sums made available for its use from fees and other sources for the purpose and activities authorized by this act.

History.—s. 13, ch. 69-139.

163.225 Board of adjustment; powers and duties.—The board of adjustment shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To hear and decide appeals when it is alleged that there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of any zoning ordinance or regulation adopted pursuant to this act.

(2)(a) To hear and decide such special exceptions as the board of adjustment is specifically authorized to pass on under the terms of the zoning ordinance; to decide such questions as are involved in the determination of when special exceptions should be granted; and to grant special exceptions with appropriate conditions and safeguards or to deny special exceptions when not in harmony with the purpose and intent of this act or any ordinance enacted under the authority of this act.

(b) In granting any special exception, the board shall find that such grant will not adversely affect the public interest.

(c) In granting any special exception, the board of adjustment may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards in conformity with this act and any ordinance enacted under it. Violation of such conditions and safeguards, when made a part of the terms under which the special exception is granted, shall be deemed a violation of the ordinance.

(d) The board of adjustment may prescribe a reasonable time limit within which the action for which the special exception is required shall be begun or completed or both.

(e) The zoning ordinance shall require that the board of adjustment shall confer with the planning commission in all cases involving requests for special exceptions.

(3)(a) To authorize upon appeal such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest when, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance would result in unnecessary and undue hardship. In order to authorize any variance from the terms of the ordinance, the board of adjustment must find:

1. That special conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land, structure, or building involved and which are not applicable to other lands, structures, or buildings in the same zoning district;

2. That the special conditions and circumstances do not result from the actions of the applicant;

3. That granting the variance requested will not confer on the applicant any special privilege that is denied by this ordinance to other lands, buildings, or structures in the same zoning district;

4. That literal interpretation of the provisions of the ordinance would deprive the applicant of rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same zoning district under the terms of the ordinance and would work unnecessary and undue hardship on the applicant;

5. That the variance granted is the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building or structure;

6. That the grant of the variance will be in harmony with the general intent and purpose of the ordinance and that such variance will not be injurious to the area involved or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare.

(b) In granting any variance, the board of adjustment may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards in conformity with this act and any ordinance enacted under its authority. Violation of such conditions and safeguards, when made a part of the terms under which the variance is granted, shall be deemed a violation of the ordinance.

(c) The board of adjustment may prescribe a reasonable time limit within which the action for which the variance is required shall be begun or completed or both.

(d) Under no circumstances except as permitted above shall the board of adjustment grant a variance to permit a use not generally or by special exception permitted in the zoning district involved or any use expressly or by implication prohibited by the terms of the ordinance in the zoning district. No nonconforming use of neighboring lands, structures, or buildings in the same zoning district and no permitted use of lands, structures, or buildings in other zoning districts shall be considered grounds for the authorization of a variance.

History.—s. 14, ch. 69-139.

163.230 Board of adjustment; review of administrative orders.—In exercising its powers, the board of adjustment may, upon appeal and in conformity with provisions of this act, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of any zoning ordinance or regulation adopted pursuant to this act, and may make any necessary order, requirement, decision, or determination, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken. The concurring vote of a majority of all the members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of any such administrative official or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which the board is required to pass under any such ordinance.

History.—s. 15, ch. 69-139.

163.235 Appeals to board of adjustment from decision of administrative official.—Appeals to the board of adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, board, or bureau of the governing body affected by any decision of an administrative official under any zoning ordinance enacted pursuant to this act. Such appeal shall be taken within 30 days after rendition of the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The appeal shall be in the form prescribed by the rules of the board. The administrative official from whom the appeal is taken shall, upon notification of the filing of the appeal, forthwith transmit to the board of adjustment all the documents, plans, papers, or other materials constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

History.—s. 16, ch. 69-139.

163.240 Stay of work and proceedings on appeal.—An appeal to the board of adjustment stays all work on the premises and all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the official from whom the appeal was taken shall certify to the board of adjustment that, by reason of facts stated in the certificate, a stay would cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case, proceedings or work shall not be stayed except by a restraining order which may be granted by the board of adjustment or by a court of record on application, on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

History.—s. 17, ch. 69-139.

163.245 Board of adjustment; hearing of appeals.—The board of adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing, any party may appear in person, by agent, or by attorney. Appellants may be required to assume such reasonable costs in connection with appeals as may be determined by the governing body through action in setting of fees to be charged for appeals. For procedural purposes, an application for a special exception shall be handled by the board of adjustment as for appeals.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-139.

163.250 Judicial review of decisions of board of adjustment.—Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the board of adjustment, or any officer, department, board, commission, or bureau of the governing body, may apply to the circuit court in the judicial circuit where the board of adjustment is located for judicial relief within 30 days after rendition of the decision by the board of adjustment. Review in the circuit court shall be either by a trial de novo, which shall be governed by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, or by petition for writ of certiorari, which shall be governed by the Florida Appellate Rules. The election of remedies shall lie with the appellant.

163.255 Enforcement of zoning ordinances.—

(1) The governing body shall provide for the enforcement of a zoning ordinance enacted pursuant to this act. A violation of this act or of such zoning ordinance is declared to be a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Each day such offense continues after written notice shall be deemed a separate offense. The governing body is also empowered to provide civil penalties for such violations.

(2) In case any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, or maintained or any building, structure, land, or water is used in violation of this act or any ordinance or other regulation made under authority conferred hereby, the proper local authorities, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings in a civil action in the circuit court to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, and to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, land, or water, and to prevent any illegal act, conduct of business, or use in or about such premises.

History.—s. 20, ch. 69-139; s. 84, ch. 71-136.

163.260 Regulation of subdivisions; purposes.—

(1) The public health, safety, comfort, economy, order, appearance, convenience, morals, and general welfare require the harmonious, orderly, and progressive development of land within Florida and its counties and incorporated municipalities. In furtherance of this general purpose, counties and incorporated municipalities, individually or in combination as authorized by this act, are authorized and empowered to adopt, amend, or revise and enforce measures relating to land subdivision.

(2) The regulation of the subdivision of land is intended:

(a) To aid in the coordination of land development in counties and incorporated municipalities in accordance with orderly physical patterns;

(b) To discourage haphazard, premature, uneconomic, or scattered land development;

(c) To insure safe and convenient traffic control;

(d) To encourage development of economically stable and healthful communities;

(e) To insure adequate utilities;

(f) To prevent periodic and seasonal flooding by providing protective flood control and drainage facilities;

(g) To provide public open spaces for recreation;

(h) To insure land subdivision with installation of adequate and necessary physical improvements;

(i) To insure that the citizens and taxpayers of incorporated municipalities and counties will not have to bear the costs resulting from haphazard subdivision of land and the lack of authority to require installation by the developer of adequate and necessary physical improvements;

(j) To insure to the purchaser of land in a subdivision that necessary improvements of lasting quality have been installed; and

(k) To serve as one of the several instruments of comprehensive plan implementation authorized by this act.

History.—s. 21, ch. 69-139.

163.265 Subdivision regulations; approval of subdivision plans by commission.—

(1) In any area in which a commission has been established in accordance with the provisions of this act and in which a comprehensive plan or such portion of a comprehensive plan as relates to the major street plan shall have been adopted, the governing body may designate the commission as its accredited representative for the purpose of approving subdivision plans and of approving plats, as provided in chapter 177. When so designated by ordinance, the commission shall be the agency which shall perform all or any designated portion of the functions prescribed in this act or in chapter 177 with respect to preparation of subdivision regulations, approval of subdivision plans, approval of plats, action on improvements and performance bonds relating thereto, and findings precedent to the reversion of subdivided land to acreage.

(2) When the commission has been accredited by the governing body for the approval of subdivision plans and of plats, it shall approve or disapprove subdivision plans and plats within a reasonable time after submission thereof. If a subdivision plan and plat is disapproved, the grounds for disapproval shall be stated on the records of the commission, and a statement in writing of such grounds of disapproval shall be furnished to the developer or his agent. If it is desired to hold a hearing upon any subdivision plan and plats submitted to the commission for consideration, parties in interest shall be notified by due public notice.

(3) Approval of subdivision plans and plats by the commission shall not constitute or effect an acceptance of the dedication of any street or any other ground shown upon the plat. The authority to accept dedications of land for whatsoever purpose shall be exercised exclusively by the governing body to which the dedication is deemed to be made, and such authority may not be delegated.

History.—s. 22, ch. 69-139.

163.270 Subdivision regulations; adoption and amendment.—

(1) The commission, when accredited by the governing body for the approval of subdivision plans and plats under the provisions of this act and chapter 177, shall prepare and recommend to the governing body for adoption regulations governing the subdivision of land within the area. Before the adoption of subdivision regulations or any amendment thereto, the governing body shall hold a public hearing thereon, with due public notice. Any proposed amendment to the subdivision regulations not initiated by the commission shall be submitted by the governing body to the commission for a report and its statement of approval or disapproval and the reasons therefor. Regardless of the source of the proposal for change, the commission shall hold a public hearing or hearings thereon, with due public notice.

(2) Subdivision regulations prepared by the commission and adopted by the governing body or any amendments to such subdivision regulations may provide regulatory measures to insure the achievement of those purposes and objectives set forth in s. 163.260. Such regulatory measures may also provide:

(a) That the commission shall not approve any subdivision plan and plat unless it finds after full consideration of all pertinent data that the subdivision can be served adequately and economically with such normal public facilities and services as are suitable in the circumstances of the particular case;

(b) That the standards and requirements set out in the regulations may be modified by the commission in the case of a plan and program for a new town, a complete community or a neighborhood unit, which, in the judgment of the commission, will assure conformity with and achievement of the comprehensive plan and the purposes of this act. In granting any such modifications, the commission may require such reasonable conditions and safeguards as will secure substantially the objectives of the standards or requirements so modified;

(c) That the commission shall not approve any subdivision plan and plat unless the land included within the subdivision is suitable for the various purposes proposed in the request for subdivision approval;

(d) For the tentative or preliminary approval of the subdivision plan and plat prior to the installation of required improvements, but such tentative or preliminary approval shall not be entered on the subdivision plan and plat;

(e) That the developer may install required improvements in accordance with subdivision regulations prior to final subdivision approval. As an alternative, such regulations may provide that a surety bond, executed by a company authorized to do business in the state that is satisfactory to the governing body, payable to such governing body in sufficient amount to assure the completion of all required improvements and providing for and securing to the public the actual construction and installation of such improvements within a period required by the commission and expressed in the bond. As a further alternative to the provisions of a surety bond, such regulations may provide, in lieu of such surety bond, for a deposit of cash in an escrow account or such other collateral as the governing body may deem reasonable and proper whereby the governing body is put in a position to provide reasonable assurances for completion of the required improvements. In any event, the commission is hereby granted the power to enforce such bonds, security deposits or other collateral agreements by appropriate legal proceedings.

163.275 Subdivision regulations; penalties for transferring lots in unrecorded subdivisions.—

—When a governing body has adopted subdivision regulations in accord with this act, it shall be unlawful for anyone who is the owner or agent of the owner of any land to transfer, sell, agree to sell, or negotiate to sell such land by reference to, exhibition of or other use of a plat of a subdivision of such land without having submitted a plan and plat of such subdivision for approval as required by this act and without having recorded the approved subdivision plat as required. If such unlawful use be made of a plat before it is properly approved and recorded, the owner or agent of the owner of such land shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. The governing body through its legal representative may enjoin such transfer, sale, or agreement. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not impair the title of land so transferred or affect the validity of the title conveyed. However, a purchaser of land sold in violation of this section shall, within 1 year from the date of purchase thereof, be entitled to bring an appropriate action to avoid such sale or to bring action against the seller for any damages which he suffers as a result of the seller's unlawful act, or both.

163.280 Subdivision regulations; reversion of subdivided land to acreage.—

(1) The owner of any land subdivided into lots may file for record a plat for the purpose of showing such land as acreage. Such plat and the procedure in connection therewith shall conform to the requirements of this act, regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and chapter 177, except that:

(a) No survey or certificate of any surveyor or engineer shall be required. However, the governing body may require a survey of the exterior boundaries of the land and the placing of suitable monuments along such boundaries if it finds that the last preceding survey of record is faulty or inadequate or that insufficient monuments are in position along such boundaries.

(b) No improvements shall be required, except such as may be necessary to provide equivalent access, as provided hereafter in this section.

(c) No findings need be made as to the suitability of the land or as to the provision of public facilities and services for it.

(2) The governing body may, on its own motion, order the vacation and reversion to acreage of all or any part of a subdivision within its jurisdiction, including the vacation of streets or other parcels of land dedicated for public purposes or any of such streets or other parcels, when:

(a) The plat of the subdivision was recorded as provided by law not less than 5 years before the date of such action; and

(b) In the subdivision or part thereof, not more than 10 percent of the total subdivision area has been sold as lots by the original subdivider or his successor in title.

Such action shall be based on a finding by the governing body or by its accredited representative for the approval of subdivision plats that the proposed vacation and reversion to acreage of subdivided land conforms to the comprehensive plan of the area and that the public health, safety, economy, comfort, order, convenience, and welfare will be promoted thereby. Before acting on a proposal for vacation and reversion of subdivided land to acreage, the governing body or its accredited representative shall hold a public hearing thereon, with due public notice.

(3)(a) If land in a subdivision or part thereof is proposed for reversion to acreage, either at the instance of the governing body or by filing a plat by the owner, and such land is subject to existing zoning regulations, the governing body shall, upon recommendation of the planning commission or other board or commission dealing with the recommendations as to zoning, where such agency exists concurrently with the proceedings for vacation and reversion to acreage, or for consideration of an action on such plat, conduct proceedings for such amendment of such zoning regulations as may be deemed advisable in view of the conditions that will exist subsequent to such reversion to acreage.

(b) No owner of any parcel of land in a subdivision shall be deprived by the reversion to acreage of any part of the subdivision of reasonable access to such parcel nor of reasonable access therefrom to existing facilities to which such parcel has theretofore had access. Such access remaining or provided after such vacation need not be the same as that theretofore existing, but shall be reasonably equivalent thereto.

History.—s. 25, ch. 69-139.

163.285 Subdivision regulations; erection of buildings adjacent to unapproved streets.—In any area in which a planning commission has been established and made the accredited representative of the governing body for the purpose of plat approval and for which a comprehensive plan, or such portion of a comprehensive plan as relates to the major street plan, has been adopted, the following limitation shall apply concerning erection of buildings adjacent to unapproved streets: No building shall be erected on a lot or parcel of land within the area, nor shall any building permit be issued therefor, unless the street giving access to the lot or parcel on which such building is proposed to be placed has been accepted and opened as a public street, has otherwise received the legal status of a public street, has been accepted by the governing body and is shown on a recorded subdivision plat, or is a private street dedicated for the use of certain lots or parcels but not accepted for maintenance by the governing body or available for use by the public.

History.—s. 26, ch. 69-139.

163.290 Subdivision regulations; delegation of authority to other governmental agencies.—Nothing contained in this act shall prevent the governing body from assigning part or all of the powers and duties described in ss. 163.260 to 163.285 to agencies other than the commission. Governing bodies are hereby empowered to make such assignment of part or all of such powers and duties for the purpose of carrying out and enforcing the provisions of ss. 163.260 to 163.285, relative to approval of subdivision plans and plats and other matters contained herein.

History.—s. 27, ch. 69-139.

163.295 Building, plumbing, electrical, gas, fire, safety, and sanitary codes.—The several counties and incorporated municipalities, individually or in combination as authorized by this act, are authorized and empowered to adopt and, from time to time, amend or revise and enforce building, plumbing, electrical, gas, fire, safety, and sanitary codes after a public hearing with due public notice. Such codes are declared to be necessary to promote and preserve the public health, safety, comfort, order, appearance, convenience, morals, and general welfare. Such codes are declared to be one of the several instruments for implementing such comprehensive plans or parts thereof as may have been or hereafter may be adopted. Such codes may be adopted by reference if at least three copies of each such code are kept available for public use, inspection, and examination at some public office under the jurisdiction of the governing body to be determined by the governing body at the time of the adoption of such code or codes. The penalty provisions for the violation of such codes shall be set out in full in the ordinance adopting the code or codes. The provisions of this section shall not be interpreted to authorize the adoption and enforcement of any minimum housing code or public school building codes.

History.—s. 28, ch. 69-139.

163.300 Fees and charges; employment of personnel.—

(1) The several counties and incorporated municipalities of this state, individually or in combination as authorized by this act, are empowered to determine and set equitable fees and charges for the services and activities necessary to the administration of any ordinance or regulation enacted pursuant to this act.

(2) The several counties and incorporated municipalities of this state, individually or in combination as authorized by this act, are empowered to employ personnel of the type and kind necessary to administer and enforce any ordinance or regulation enacted pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 29, ch. 69-139.

163.305 Enforcement of ordinances and regulations.—The governing body shall provide by ordinance for the enforcement of any ordinance or regulation enacted under the provisions of this act. When appropriate, violation of any ordinance or regulation passed under this act may be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable as provided by law. The governing body may have recourse to such legal remedies as may be necessary to insure compliance with the provision of any ordinance or regulation enacted pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 30, ch. 69-139.

163.310 Construction.—This act shall be liberally construed to promote the purposes for which it is intended except for the penalty provisions, which shall be strictly construed against the commission or governing body.

History.—s. 31, ch. 69-139.

163.315 Effect of act on existing planning and plan implementation authorization.—

(1) A county or incorporated municipality, jointly or individually as set out in this act, desiring to utilize the provisions of this act must take formal suitable action declaring its election to proceed under the provisions of this act. Any county or incorporated municipality which, prior to September 1, 1969, had the authority to engage in planning and plan implementation from whatever source derived may continue to operate under such preexisting authority until the governing body of such county or incorporated municipality shall declare this act to be effective therein.

(2) Any municipal or county ordinance legally enacted under the provisions of any such preexisting power and authority shall remain in force and effect after this act becomes effective until the county or municipality has elected to proceed under the provisions of this act and has brought such resolution or ordinance into conformity with the provisions of this act. However, after this act becomes effective in any county or municipality, such resolutions and ordinances shall be administered under the provisions of this act, and any amendments to any such county or municipal ordinance shall be made under the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 33, ch. 69-139.

✓ 163.3161 Short title; intent and purpose.—

(1) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Local Government Comprehensive Planning Act of 1975."

(2) In conformity with, and in furtherance of, the purpose of the Florida Environmental Land and Water Management Act of 1972, chapter 380, it is the purpose of this act to utilize and strengthen the existing role, processes, and powers of local governments in the establishment and implementation of comprehensive planning programs to guide and control future development.

(3) It is the intent of this act that its adoption is necessary so that local governments can preserve and enhance present advantages; encourage the most appropriate use of land, water, and resources, consistent with the public interest; overcome present handicaps; and deal effectively with future problems that may result from the use and development of land within their jurisdictions. Through the process of comprehensive planning, it is intended that units of local government can preserve, promote, protect, and improve the public health, safety, comfort, good order, appearance, convenience, law enforcement and fire prevention, and general welfare; prevent the overcrowding of land and avoid undue concentration of population; facilitate the adequate and efficient provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, recreational facilities, housing, and other requirements and services; and conserve, develop, utilize, and protect natural resources within their jurisdictions.

(4) It is the intent of this act to encourage and assure cooperation between and among municipalities and counties and to encourage and assure coordination of planning and development activities of units of local government with the planning activities of regional agencies and state government in accord with applicable provisions of law.

(5) It is the intent of this act that adopted comprehensive plans shall have the legal status set out in this act and that no public or private development shall be permitted except in conformity with comprehensive plans, or elements or portions thereof, prepared and adopted in conformity with this act.

(6) It is the intent of this act that the activities of units of local government in the preparation and adoption of comprehensive plans, or elements or portions thereof, shall be conducted in conformity with the provisions of this act.

(7) The provisions of this act in their interpretation and application are declared to be the minimum requirements necessary to accomplish the stated intent, purposes, and objectives of this act; to protect human, environmental, social, and economic resources; and to maintain, through orderly growth and development, the character and stability of present and future land use and development in this state.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3164 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Area" or "area of jurisdiction" means the total area qualifying under the provisions of this act, whether this be all of the lands lying within the limits of an incorporated municipality, lands in and adjacent to incorporated municipalities, all unincorporated lands within a county, or areas comprising combinations of the lands in incorporated municipalities and unincorporated areas of counties. In the case of municipalities where reserve areas have been designated for future annexation by law, the term "area" shall include, as being under the jurisdiction of the municipality for the purposes of this act, such unincorporated but designated and reserved lands.

(2) "Comprehensive plan" means a plan that meets the requirements of s. 163.3177.

(3) "Developer" means any person, including a governmental agency, undertaking any development as defined in this act.

(4) "Development" has the meaning given it in s. 380.04.

(5) "Development order" means any order granting, denying, or granting with conditions an application for a development permit.

(6) "Development permit" includes any building permit, zoning permit, subdivision approval, rezoning, certification, special exception, variance, or any other official action of local government having the effect of permitting the development of land.

(7) "Governing body" means the board of county commissioners of a county, the commission or council of an incorporated municipality, or any other chief governing body of a unit of local government, however designated, or the combination of such bodies where joint utilization of the provisions of this act is accomplished as provided herein.

(8) "Governmental agency" means:

(a) The United States or any department, commission, agency, or other instrumentality thereof.

(b) This state or any department, commission, agency, or other instrumentality thereof.

(c) Any local government, as defined in this section, or any department, commission, agency, or other instrumentality thereof.

(d) Any school board or other special district, authority, or governmental entity.

(9) "Land" means the earth, water, and air, above, below, or on the surface, and includes any improvements or structures customarily regarded as land.

(10) "Land use" means the development that has occurred on the land, the development that is proposed by a developer on the land, or the use that is permitted or permissible on the land under an adopted comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, land development regulations, or a land development code, as the context may indicate.

(11) "Local government" means any county or municipality or any special district or local governmental entity established pursuant to law which exercises regulatory authority over, and grants development permits for, land development.

(12) "Local planning agency" means the agency designated to prepare the comprehensive plan required by this act.

(13) A "newspaper of general circulation" means a newspaper published at least on a weekly basis and printed in the language most commonly spoken in the area within which it circulates, but does not include a newspaper intended primarily for members of a particular professional or occupational group, a newspaper whose primary function is to carry legal notices, or a newspaper that is given away primarily to distribute advertising.

(14) "Parcel of land" means any quantity of land capable of being described with such definiteness that its locations and boundaries may be established, which is designated by its owner or developer as land to be used, or developed as, a unit or which has been used or developed as a unit.

(15) "Person" means an individual, corporation, governmental agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal entity.

(16) "Public notice" or "due public notice" as used in connection with the phrase "public hearing" or "hearing to be held after due public notice" means publication of notice of the time, place, and purpose of such hearing at least twice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area, with the first publication not less than 14 days prior to the date of the hearing and the second to be at least 5 days prior to the hearing.

(17) "Regional planning agency" means the agency designated by the state land planning agency to exercise responsibilities under law in a particular region of the state.

(18) "State land planning agency" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(19) "Structure" has the meaning given it by subsection 380.031(17).

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-257; s. 49, ch. 79-190.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3167 Scope of act.—

(1) The several incorporated municipalities, the several counties, and certain special districts or local governmental entities set out in this act shall have power and responsibility:

(a) To plan for their future development and growth.

(b) To adopt and amend comprehensive plans, or elements or portions thereof, to guide their future development and growth.

(c) To implement adopted or amended comprehensive plans by the adoption of appropriate land development regulations or elements thereof.

(d) To establish, support, and maintain administrative instruments and procedures to carry out the provisions and purposes of this act.

The powers and authority set out in this act may be employed by incorporated municipalities, counties, and certain special districts individually or jointly by mutual agreement in accord with the provisions of this act and in such combinations as their common interests may dictate and require.

(2) On or before July 1, 1979, each county and each municipality in this state shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive plan of the type and in the manner set out in this act.

(3) On or before July 1, 1979, each special district or local governmental entity under subsection 163.3171(4) shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive plan of the type and in the manner set out in this act.

(4) When a municipality within a county under subsection (2) or when a special district or local governmental entity under subsection (3) has not prepared and adopted a comprehensive plan by July 1, 1979, as required by this act, the comprehensive plan of the county in which such municipality or special district or local governmental entity is situated shall govern. Such county shall have the responsibility to specifically review the application of its comprehensive plan to such municipality or special district or local governmental entity by not later than one year from the date by which such other local government was required to adopt its comprehensive plan.

(5) When a county under subsection (2) has not prepared and adopted a comprehensive plan by July 1, 1979, the state land planning agency shall prepare a comprehensive plan for such county and any municipalities or special districts or local governmental entities therein not having met the requirements of this act by July 1, 1979, and shall recommend its adoption to the Administration Commission which shall have authority to adopt the comprehensive plan.

(6) Municipal corporations established after the effective date of this act shall prepare and adopt a comprehensive plan of the type and in the manner set out in this act within 3 years of the date of such incorporation. However, no comprehensive plan need be adopted prior to July 1, 1979. A county comprehensive plan adopted prior to or after the date of incorporation shall be deemed controlling until the municipality adopts a comprehensive plan in accord with the provisions of this act. After July 1, 1979, if, upon the expiration of the 3-year time limit, the municipality has not adopted a comprehensive plan and no county comprehensive plan has been adopted, the state land planning agency shall prepare and recommend to the Administration Commission a comprehensive plan for such municipality.

(7) The time limits set out in subsections (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6) shall be extended by the state land planning agency for a period not to exceed one year upon application to the state land planning agency by the local unit of government involved and on due cause shown that good faith efforts to meet the requirements of this act have been and are being made. In addition to the time extension herein, the state land planning agency shall also extend the time limit for one additional time period, not to exceed an additional year, upon application in the same manner and with the same burden of proof as provided for the initial extension.

(8) On or before July 1, 1976, each unit of local government shall officially inform the state land planning agency and the appropriate regional planning agency of its designation of a local planning agency pursuant to s. 163.3174. This time limit shall be extended by the state land planning agency for a period not to exceed 1 year upon application to the agency and on due cause shown that good faith efforts to meet the requirements of this act have been and are being made. If the designation has not been made within the required time period, the appropriate county land planning agency, pursuant to notification by the state land planning agency in the case of a nondesignating municipality or special district, or the state land planning agency, in the case of a nondesignating county or a nondesignating county and nondesignating municipalities or special districts therein, shall assume the responsibilities of a local planning agency for the area involved upon adoption of an ordinance or rule, as the case may be, and after due notification to the governing body of the area involved, until such time as the required designation has been made.

(9) Upon assumption of responsibility under subsection (8), the state land planning agency shall approve the estimated cost of assumption by a county land planning agency or shall determine the estimated costs when the state land planning agency is assuming responsibility for a nondesignating county. Invoices for costs involved shall be rendered quarterly to the governing body involved and, upon failure to pay such invoices, the division, or the division upon request of a county land planning agency, as the case may be, is authorized, upon filing proper vouchers with the State Comptroller, to request payment from the State Comptroller from unencumbered revenue or other tax sharing funds due such nondesignating local government from the state for work actually performed; however, the amount of such payment shall not exceed 50 percent of such funds due such local government.

(10) Nothing in this act shall limit or modify the rights of any person to complete any development that has been authorized as a development of regional impact pursuant to chapter 380.

History.—s. 4, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3171 Areas under this act.—

(1) When exercising authority under this act, a municipality shall exercise such authority for the total area under its jurisdiction upon the passage of an appropriate ordinance declaring its intent to do so. Unincorporated areas adjacent to incorporated municipalities may be included in the area of municipal jurisdiction for the purposes of this act if the governing bodies of the municipality and the county in which the area is located agree on the boundaries of such additional areas, procedures for joint action in the preparation and adoption of the comprehensive plan, procedures for the administration of land development regulations or the land development code applicable thereto, and the manner of representation on any joint body or instrument that may be created under the joint agreement. Such joint agreement shall be formally stated and approved in appropriate official action by the governing bodies involved.

(2) A county shall exercise authority under this act for the total unincorporated area under its jurisdiction or in such unincorporated areas as are not included in any joint agreement with municipalities established under the provisions of subsection (1). A county shall exercise such additional authority over municipalities within its boundaries under the circumstances and as set out in subsection 163.3167(4). The board of county commissioners shall by ordinance declare its intent to exercise the authority set out in this act. In the case of chartered counties, the county may exercise such additional authority over municipalities or districts within its boundaries as is provided for in its charter.

(3) Combinations of municipalities within a county, or counties, or an incorporated municipality or municipalities and a county or counties, or an incorporated municipality or municipalities and portions of a county or counties may jointly exercise the powers granted under the provisions of this act upon formal adoption of an official agreement by the governing bodies involved pursuant to law. No such official agreement shall be adopted by the governing bodies involved until a public hearing on the subject with due public notice has been held by each governing body involved. The general administration of any joint agreement shall be governed by the provisions of s. 163.01 except that when there is conflict with this act the provisions of this act shall govern.

(4) The Reedy Creek Improvement District shall exercise the authority of this act, consistent with the legislative act under which it was established, over the total area under its jurisdiction. The Reedy Creek Improvement District may jointly exercise said authority with municipalities and counties in a manner consistent with subsection (3).

History.—s. 5, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3174 Local planning agency.—

(1) Local governing bodies, individually or in combination as provided in s. 163.3171, shall designate and establish a "local planning agency," unless the agency is otherwise established by law. This agency shall prepare the comprehensive plan after hearings to be held after due public notice and shall make recommendations to the governing body regarding the adoption of such plan or element or portion thereof. The agency may be a local planning commission, the planning department of the local government, or other instrumentality, including a countywide planning entity established by special act or a council of local government officials created pursuant to s. 163.02, provided the composition of the council is fairly representative of all the governing bodies in the county or planning area; however:

(a) If a joint planning entity is in existence on the effective date of this act which authorizes the governing bodies to promulgate and enforce a land-use plan effective throughout the joint planning area, that entity shall be the agency for those local governments until such time as the authority of the joint planning entity is modified by law, and

(b) In the case of chartered counties, the planning responsibility between the county and the several municipalities therein shall be as stipulated in the charter.

(2) The ordinance or act establishing the local planning agency shall, if applicable:

(a) Establish the method of choosing the members of the agency.

(b) Require the agency to set rules of procedure and to choose its officers.

(c) Provide a method of financial support for the staffing and the work of the agency.

(d) Require that all meetings of the agency shall be public meetings and that its records shall be public records.

(e) Set out the duties and responsibilities of the agency and its relationships to the governing body.

(f) Provide for other appropriate matters.

(3) Nothing in this act shall prevent the governing body of an incorporated municipality or county that participates in creating a local planning agency serving two or more jurisdictions from continuing or creating its own local planning agency. A governing body may assign to the local planning agency serving two or more jurisdictions any or all of the functions, powers, and duties of its own local planning agency. Thereafter, such functions, powers, and duties shall be exercised by the local planning agency serving two or more jurisdictions; however, the governing body may rescind such assignment upon passage of a resolution at a duly publicized public meeting.

(4) The governing body or bodies may appropriate funds for salaries, fees, and expenses necessary in the conduct of the work of the local planning agency and also establish a schedule of fees to be charged by the agency. To accomplish the purposes and activities authorized by this act, the local planning agency, with the approval of the governing body or bodies and in accord with the fiscal practices thereof, has the authority to expend all sums so appropriated and other sums made available for use from fees, gifts, state or federal grants, state or federal loans, and other sources; however, acceptance of loans must be approved by the governing bodies involved.

(5) The governing body of a municipality or county or combinations thereof shall assign to the local planning agency the general responsibility for the conduct of the comprehensive planning program and the preparation of the comprehensive plan or elements or portions thereof. The governing body in cooperation with the local planning agency may designate any agency, committee, department, or person to prepare the comprehensive plan or any element thereof, but the responsibility for final recommendation of the adoption of such plan to the governing body shall be the responsibility of the local planning agency. The local planning agency shall monitor and oversee the effectiveness and status of the comprehensive plan and recommend to the governing body such changes in the comprehensive plan as may from time to time be required. The responsibilities, powers, and duties of the local planning agency shall be set out in the ordinance or act establishing the agency, subject to the particular requirements of this act.

History.—s. 6, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-223.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3177 Required and optional elements of comprehensive plan; studies and surveys.—

(1) The comprehensive plan shall consist of materials in such descriptive form, written or graphic, as may be appropriate to the prescription of principles, guidelines, and standards for the orderly and balanced future economic, social, physical, environmental, and fiscal development of the area.

(2) Coordination of the several elements of the local comprehensive plan shall be a major objective of the planning process. The several elements of the comprehensive plan shall be consistent and the comprehensive plan shall be economically feasible.

(3) The economic assumptions on which the plan is based and any amendments thereto shall be analyzed and set out as a part of the plan. Those elements of the comprehensive plan requiring the expenditure of public funds for capital improvements shall carry fiscal proposals relating thereto, including, but not limited to, estimated costs, priority ranking relative to other proposed capital expenditures, and proposed funding sources.

(4) Coordination of the local comprehensive plan with the comprehensive plans of adjacent municipalities, the county, adjacent counties, or region and with the state comprehensive plan shall be a major objective of the local comprehensive planning process. To that end, in the preparation of a comprehensive plan or element thereof, and in the comprehensive plan or element as adopted, the governing body shall include a specific policy statement indicating the relationship of the proposed development of the area to the comprehensive plans of adjacent municipalities, the county, adjacent counties, or region and to the state comprehensive plan, as the case may require and as such adopted plans or plans in preparation may exist.

(5) The comprehensive plan and its elements shall contain policy recommendations for the implementation of the plan and its elements.

(6) In addition to the general requirements of subsections (1)-(5), the comprehensive plan shall include the following elements:

(a) A future land use plan element designating proposed future general distribution, location, and extent of the uses of land for housing, business, industry, agriculture, recreation, conservation, education, public buildings and grounds, other public facilities, and other categories of the public and private uses of land. The future land use plan shall include a statement of the standards to be followed in the control and distribution of population densities and building and structure intensity as recommended for the various portions of the area. The future land use plan may designate areas for future planned development use involving combinations of types of uses for which special regulations may be necessary to insure development in accord with the principles and standards of the comprehensive plan and this act.

(b) A traffic circulation element consisting of the types, locations, and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares and transportation routes.

(c) A general sanitary sewer, solid waste, drainage, and potable water element correlated to principles and guidelines for future land use indicating ways to provide for future potable water, drainage, sanitary sewer, and solid waste requirements for the area. The element may be a detailed engineering plan for such facilities. The element shall describe the problems and needs and the general facilities that will be required for solution of the problems and needs.

(d) A conservation element for the conservation, development, utilization, and protection of natural resources in the area, including, as the situation may be, air, water, estuarine marshes, soils, beaches, shores, flood plains, rivers, lakes, harbors, forests, fisheries and wildlife, minerals, and other natural and environmental resources.

(e) A recreation and open space element indicating a comprehensive system of public and private sites for recreation, including, but not limited to: natural reservations, parks and playgrounds, parkways, beaches and public access to beaches, open spaces, and other recreational facilities.

(f) A housing element consisting of standards, plans, and principles to be followed in:

1. The provision of housing for existing residents and the anticipated population growth of the area.

2. The elimination of substandard dwelling conditions.

3. The improvement of existing housing.

4. The provision of adequate sites for future housing, including housing for low-income and moderate-income families and mobile homes, with supporting infrastructure and community facilities as described in paragraphs (6)(c) and (7)(e) and (f).

5. Provision for relocation housing and identification of housing for purposes of conservation, rehabilitation, or replacement.

6. The formulation of housing implementation programs.

(g) For those units of local government lying in part or in whole in the coastal zone as defined by the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972, Title 16, United States Code s. 1453(a), a coastal zone protection element, appropriately related to the particular requirements of paragraphs (d) and (e), including surveys of existing vegetation types which need to be preserved for natural control of dune and beach erosion and surveys of traditional patterns of public access and use of beach resources, setting out the policies for:

1. Maintenance, restoration, and enhancement of the overall quality of the coastal zone environment, including, but not limited to, its amenities and aesthetic values.

2. Continued existence of optimum populations of all species of wildlife.

3. The orderly and balanced utilization and preservation, consistent with sound conservation principles, of all living and nonliving coastal zone resources.

4. Avoidance of irreversible and irretrievable commitments of coastal zone resources.

5. Ecological planning principles and assumptions to be used in the determination of suitability and extent of permitted development.

6. Proposed management and regulatory techniques.

In addition, at least 60 days before the adoption by a governing body of the coastal zone protection element, the governing body shall transmit a copy of the proposed element to the '[Department of Environmental Regulation] or its successor for written comment pursuant to s. 163.3184.

(h) An intergovernmental coordination element showing relationships and stating principles and guidelines to be used in the accomplishment of coordination of the adopted comprehensive plan with the plans of school boards and other units of local government providing services but not having regulatory authority over the use of land, with the comprehensive plans of adjacent municipalities, the county, adjacent counties, or the region, and with the state comprehensive plan, as the case may require and as such adopted plans or plans in preparation may exist. This element of the local comprehensive plan shall demonstrate consideration of the particular effects of the local plan, when adopted, upon the development of adjacent municipalities, the county, adjacent counties, or the region or on the state comprehensive plan, as the case may require.

(i) A utility element in conformance with the 10-year site plan required by the Florida Electrical Power Plant Siting Act, part II, chapter 403.

(j) The optional elements of the comprehensive plan in paragraphs (7)(a) and (b) are required elements for those units of local government having populations greater than 50,000, as determined under s. 23.019.

(7) The comprehensive plan may include the following additional elements, or portions or phases thereof:

(a) As a part of the circulation element of paragraph (6)(b) or as a separate element, a mass transit element showing proposed methods for the moving of people, rights of way, terminals, related facilities, and fiscal considerations for the accomplishment of the element.

(b) As a part of the circulation element of paragraph (6)(b) or as a separate element, plans for port, aviation, and related facilities coordinated with the general circulation and transportation element.

(c) As a part of the circulation element of paragraph (6)(b) and in coordination with paragraph (6)(e), where applicable, a plan element for the circulation of nonautomotive vehicular and pedestrian traffic, including bicycle paths and bikeways, exercise trails, riding facilities, and such other matters as may be related to the improvement and safety of movement of all types of vehicular and pedestrian traffic or to recreational aspects of circulation.

(d) As a part of the circulation element of paragraph (6)(b) or as a separate element, a plan element for the development of off-street parking facilities for motor vehicles and the fiscal considerations for the accomplishment of the element.

(e) A public services and facilities element, not including the solid waste, potable water, drainage, and sewer element which is required under paragraph (6)(c) or plans required by paragraph (6)(i), showing general plans for local utilities, rights-of-way easements, and facilities.

(f) A public buildings and related facilities element showing locations and arrangements of civic and community centers, public schools, hospitals, libraries, police and fire stations, and other public buildings. This plan element should show particularly how it is proposed to effect coordination with governmental units, such as school boards or hospital authorities, having public development and service responsibilities, capabilities, and potential but not having land development regulatory authority. This element may include plans for architecture and landscape treatment of their grounds.

(g) A recommended community design element which may consist of design recommendations for land subdivision, neighborhood development and redevelopment, design of open space locations, and similar matters to the end that such recommendations may be available as aids and guides to developers in the future planning and development of land in the area.

(h) A general area redevelopment element consisting of plans and programs for the redevelopment of slums and blighted locations in the area and for community redevelopment, including housing sites, business and industrial sites, public buildings sites, recreational facilities, and other purposes authorized by law.

(i) A safety element for the protection of residents and property of the area from fire, hurricane, or man-made or natural catastrophe, including such necessary features for protection as evacuation routes and their control in an emergency, water supply requirements, minimum road widths, clearances around and elevations of structures, and similar matters.

(j) An historical and scenic preservation element setting out plans and programs for those structures or lands in the area having historical, archaeological, architectural, scenic, or similar significance.

(k) An economic element setting forth principles and guidelines for the commercial and industrial development, if any, and the employment and manpower utilization within the area. The element may detail the type of commercial and industrial development sought, correlated to the present and projected employment needs of the area and to other elements of the plans, and may set forth methods by which a balanced and stable economic base will be pursued.

(l) Such other elements as may be peculiar to, and necessary for, the area concerned and as are added to the comprehensive plan by the governing body upon the recommendation of the local planning agency.

(8) All elements of the comprehensive plan, whether mandatory or optional, shall be based upon data appropriate to the element involved. Surveys and studies utilized in the preparation of the comprehensive plan shall not be deemed a part of the comprehensive plan unless adopted as a part of it. Copies of such studies, surveys, and supporting documents shall be made available to public inspection, and copies of such plans shall be made available to the public upon payment of reasonable charges for reproduction.

History.—s. 7, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Bracketed language substituted for "Coastal Coordinating Council" to conform to s. 18, ch. 75-22 and s. 4, ch. 77-306.

§163.3181 Public participation in the comprehensive planning process; intent.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the public participate in the comprehensive planning process to the fullest extent possible. Towards this end, local planning agencies and local governmental units are directed to adopt procedures designed to provide effective public participation in the comprehensive planning process and to provide real property owners with notice of all official actions which will regulate the use of their property. The provisions and procedures required in this act are set out as the minimum requirements towards this end.

(2) During consideration of the proposed plan or amendments thereto by the local planning agency or by the local governing body, the procedures shall provide for broad dissemination of the proposals and alternatives, opportunity for written comments, public hearings as provided herein, provisions for open discussion, communications programs, information services, and consideration of and response to public comments.

History.—s. 8, ch. 75-257; s. 3, ch. 76-155; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 3, ch. 77-331.

163.3184 Adoption of comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof.—

(1) At least 60 days before the adoption by a governing body of a comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, or before the adoption of an amendment to a previously adopted comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, the governing body shall:

(a) Transmit a copy of the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to the state land planning agency for written comment. The state land planning agency shall promptly publish the fact of the local government's intended adoption of the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof in the weekly publication required by subsection 380.06(9) and shall indicate therein the date, time, and place of the public hearing to be held thereon. It shall be the responsibility of the state land planning agency to circulate all or appropriate elements of the intended plan to appropriate state agencies for comment and advice.

(b) Transmit a copy of the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to the regional planning agency having responsibility over the area for written comment.

(c) If it is a municipality or a unit of local government under subsection 163.3171(4) transmit a copy of the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to the local planning agency of the county for written comment or, if there is no county land planning agency, to the clerk of the circuit court or the administrative officer of the county commission.

(d) Transmit a copy of the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to any other unit of local government or governmental agency in the state that has filed with the governing body a request for copies of all proposed comprehensive plans or elements or portions thereof.

(e) Determine that the local planning agency has held a public hearing on the proposed plan or element or portion thereof with due public notice.

(2) Within 60 days, or any longer period to which the governing body has agreed, after a local government has transmitted a proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to the state land planning agency, the state land planning agency shall submit in writing its comments on the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, together with the comments of any state agencies to which the state land planning agency may have referred the plan. The state land planning agency shall specify any objections and may make recommendations for modifications. The review of the state land planning agency shall be primarily in the context of the relationship and effect, under chapter 23, of the locally submitted plan or element or portion thereof to or on the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, and in the context of the impact of the locally submitted plan or element or portion thereof on the lawful responsibility of state agencies. If the state land planning agency transmits objections to the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, the governing body shall transmit a written statement in reply thereto within 4 weeks. The governing body shall take no action to adopt the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof until 2 weeks have elapsed following the transmittal of the governing body's letter of reply. The written materials of the state land planning agency and the governing body required by this subsection shall become a permanent part of the public record in the matter.

(3) The procedure of subsection (2) shall apply to review by the regional planning agency. The time sequence of subsections (2) and (3) shall run concurrently upon appropriate transmittal. Review by the regional planning agency shall be primarily in the context of the relationship and effect of the locally submitted plan or element or portion thereof to or on any regional comprehensive plan.

(4) The procedure of subsection (2) shall apply to review by the county land planning agency. The time sequence of subsections (2) and (4) shall run concurrently upon appropriate transmittal. Review by the county land planning agency shall be primarily in the context of the relationship and effect of the locally submitted plan or element or portion thereof to or on any county comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof.

(5) Any comments, recommendations, or objections of the state land planning agency or the regional or county land planning agencies and any reply thereto shall be public documents, a part of the permanent record in the matter, and admissible in any proceeding in which the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof may be at issue.

(6) The governing body shall consider all comments received from any person, agency, or government. It may adopt, or adopt with changes or amendments, the proposed comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof despite any adverse comment received.

(7)(a) The procedure for adoption of a comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, except for the future land-use plan element, shall be by not less than a majority of the total membership of the governing body, in a manner prescribed by law.

(b) The procedure for adoption of the future land-use element or portion thereof which involves less than 5 percent of the total land area of the local government unit shall be by not less than a majority of the total membership of the governing body, in the following manner:

1. The governing body shall direct the clerk of the governing body to notify by mail each real property owner the use of whose land the governmental agency will restrict or limit by enactment of the proposal and whose address is known by reference to the latest ad valorem tax records. The notice shall state the substance of the proposal as it affects that property owner and shall set a time and place for one or more public hearings on such proposal. Such notice shall be given at least 30 days prior to the date set for the public hearing, and a copy of such notice shall be kept available for public inspection during regular business hours of the office of the clerk of the governing body.

2. The governing body shall hold a public hearing on the proposal and may, upon the conclusion of the hearing, adopt the proposal.

(c) The procedure for adoption of the future land-use plan element or portion thereof which involves 5 percent or more of the total land area of the local government unit shall be by not less than a majority of the total membership of the governing body, in the following manner:

1. The local governing body shall hold two advertised public hearings on the proposal. At the option of the governing body, one of the public hearings may be held by the local planning agency. Both hearings shall be held after 5 p.m. on a weekday, and the first shall be held approximately 7 days after the day that the first advertisement is published. The second hearing shall be held approximately 2 weeks after the first hearing and shall be advertised approximately 5 days prior to the public hearing. The day, time, and place at which the second public hearing will be held shall be announced at the first public hearing.

2. The required advertisements shall be no less than one-quarter page in a standard size or a tabloid size newspaper, and the headline in the advertisement shall be in a type no smaller than 18 point. The advertisement shall not be placed in that portion of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. The advertisement shall be published in a newspaper of general paid circulation in the county and of general interest and readership in the community, not one of limited subject matter, pursuant to chapter 50. It is the legislative intent that, whenever possible, the advertisement shall appear in a newspaper that is published at least 5 days a week, unless the only newspaper in the community is published less than 5 days a week. The advertisement shall be in the following form:

NOTICE OF REGULATION OF LAND USE

The (name of local governmental unit) proposes to regulate the use of land within the area shown in the map in this advertisement.

A public hearing on the proposal will be held on (date and time) at (meeting place).

The advertisement shall also contain a geographic location map which clearly indicates the area covered by the proposal. The map shall include major street names as a means of identification of the area.

3. In lieu of publishing the advertisements set out in this paragraph, the local governmental unit may mail a notice to each person owning real property within the area covered by the proposal. Such notice shall clearly explain the proposal and shall notify the person of the time, place, and location of both public hearings.

History.—s. 9, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 77-331.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3187 Amendment of adopted comprehensive plan.—The procedure for amendment of an adopted comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, other than for a future land-use plan element or portion thereof involving less than 5 percent of the total land area of the local governmental unit, shall be as for the original adoption of the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof set forth in s. 163.3184. The procedure for amendment of the future land-use plan element or portion thereof which involves less than 5 percent of the total land area of the local governmental unit shall be the same as the procedure provided in s. 163.3184(7)(b). If any amendment to the land use element would be inconsistent with any other element of the plan previously adopted, the governing body shall also amend such other element and may do so by a vote of a majority of the total membership of the governing body. Corrections, updates, or modifications of current costs which were set out as part of the comprehensive plan shall not, for the purposes of this act, be deemed to be amendments.

History.—s. 10, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 5, ch. 77-331.

163.3191 Evaluation and appraisal of comprehensive plan.—

(1) The planning program shall be a continuous and ongoing process. The local planning agency shall prepare periodic reports on the comprehensive plan, which shall be sent to the governing body at least once every 5 years after the adoption of the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof. Reports may be transmitted at lesser intervals as may be required or upon request of the governing body.

(2) The report shall represent an assessment and evaluation of the success or failure of the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof and shall contain appropriate statements (using words, maps, illustrations, or other forms) related to:

(a) The major problems of development, physical deterioration, and the location of land uses and the social and economic effects of such uses in the area.

(b) The condition of each element in the comprehensive plan at the time of adoption and at date of report.

(c) The comprehensive plan objectives as compared with actual results at date of report.

(d) The extent to which unanticipated and unforeseen problems and opportunities occurred between date of adoption and date of report.

(3) The report may also suggest changes in the comprehensive plan or elements or portions thereof, including reformulated objectives, policies, and standards.

(4) The report shall be transmitted to the state land planning agency, to the regional agency having responsibility over the area, and, for municipalities, to the county planning agency.

(5) Action on the report constitutes action as for an amendment to the comprehensive plan or portion or element thereof. The governing body may adopt the report or a portion or portions thereof or may adopt the report with changes or amendments after taking the steps required by s. 163.3184 and subject to the limitations of s. 163.3187. The adoption of the report amends the comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof to the extent specified in the report required by this section.

History.—s. 11, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3194 Legal status of comprehensive plan.—

(1) After a comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof has been adopted in conformity with this act, all development undertaken by, and all actions taken in regard to development orders by, governmental agencies in regard to land covered by such plan or element shall be consistent with such plan or element as adopted. All land development regulations enacted or amended shall be consistent with the adopted comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof.

(2)(a) After a comprehensive plan for the area, or element or portion thereof, is adopted by the governing body, no land development regulation, land development code, or amendment thereto shall be adopted by the governing body until such regulation, code, or amendment has been referred to the local planning agency for review and recommendation as to the relationship of such proposal to the adopted comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof. Said recommendation shall be made within a reasonable time, but no later than within 2 months after the time of reference. If a recommendation is not made within the time provided, then the governing body may act on the adoption.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, "land development regulations" or "regulations for the development of land" include any local government zoning, subdivision, building and construction, or other regulations controlling the development of land. The various types of local government regulations or laws dealing with the development of land within a jurisdiction may be combined in their totality in a single document known as the "land development code" of the jurisdiction.

(3)(a) A court, in reviewing local governmental action or development regulations under this act, may consider, inter alia, the reasonableness of the comprehensive plan or element or elements thereof relating to the issue justiciably raised or the appropriateness and completeness of the comprehensive plan or element or elements thereof in relation to the governmental action or development regulation under consideration. The court may consider the relationship of the comprehensive plan or element or elements thereof to the governmental action taken or the development regulation involved in litigation, but private property shall not be taken without due process of law and the payment of just compensation.

(b) It is the intent of this act that the comprehensive plan set general guidelines and principles concerning its purposes and contents and that this act shall be construed broadly to accomplish its stated purposes and objectives.

(4) The tax exempt status of lands classified as agricultural under s. 193.461 shall not be affected by any comprehensive plan adopted under this act as long as the land meets the criteria set forth in s. 193.461.

History.—s. 12, ch. 75-257; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 77-223.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3197 Legal status of prior comprehensive plan.—Where, prior to the effective date of this act, a local government had adopted a comprehensive plan or element or portion thereof, such adopted plan or element or portion thereof shall have such force and effect as it had at the date of adoption and until appropriate action is taken to adopt a new comprehensive plan as required by this act. The prior adopted plan or element or portion thereof may be the basis for meeting the requirement of comprehensive plan adoption set out in this act, provided all requirements of this act are met.

History.—s. 13, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3201 Relationship of comprehensive plan to exercise of land development regulatory authority.—It is the intent of this act that adopted comprehensive plans or elements thereof shall be implemented, in part, by the adoption and enforcement of appropriate local regulations on the development of lands and waters within an area. It is the intent of this act that the adoption and enforcement by a governing body of regulations for the development of land or the adoption and enforcement by a governing body of a land development code, as defined in paragraph 163.3194(2)(b), for an area shall be based on, related to, and a means of implementation for an adopted comprehensive plan as required by this act.

History.—s. 14, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3204 Cooperation by state and regional agencies.—The Interdepartmental Coordinating Council on Community Services created by subsection 20.18(5), the Division of Resource Management of the Department of Natural Resources or its successor, and any ad hoc working groups appointed by the division, and all regional agencies involved in the administration and implementation of this act shall cooperate and work with units of local government and technical advisory committees in the preparation and adoption of comprehensive plans or elements or portions thereof.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3207 Technical advisory committees.—In order to coordinate technical elements of a comprehensive plan and to advise local planning agencies and local governing bodies, each unit of local government shall appoint one person to a technical advisory committee to be established within the jurisdictional boundaries of a single county. Special districts which include within their jurisdictions land that is within the boundary of one or more counties may appoint one person to the technical advisory committee in each county. Members of each committee shall be appointed on the basis of their professional or technical background, and each committee shall elect a chairman from among its membership. Committees shall meet from time to time in order to achieve the required coordination and cooperation required by this act.

History.—s. 16, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.3211 Conflict with other statutes.—Where this act may be in conflict with any other provision or provisions of law relating to local governments having authority to regulate the development of land, the provisions of this act shall govern unless the provisions of this act are met or exceeded by other provision or provisions of law relating to local government. Nothing in this act is intended to withdraw or diminish any legal powers or responsibilities of state agencies or change any requirement of existing law that local regulations comply with state standards or rules.

History.—s. 17, ch. 75-257.

Note.—See s. 48, ch. 79-190, which transferred all powers, duties, functions, records, property, and funds of designated units of the Division of State Planning of the Department of Administration to the Department of Community Affairs, including the Bureau of Comprehensive Planning related to local government comprehensive planning functions and that portion of the office of the director of the division which includes administrative services related thereto.

163.330 Short title.—This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Community Redevelopment Act of 1969."

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-305.

163.335 Findings and declarations of necessity.—

(1) It is hereby found and declared that there exist in counties and municipalities of the state slum and blighted areas which constitute a serious and growing menace, injurious to the public health, safety, morals, and welfare of the residents of the state; that the existence of such areas contributes substantially and increasingly to the spread of disease and crime, constitutes an economic and social liability imposing onerous burdens which decrease the tax base and reduce tax revenues, substantially impairs or arrests sound growth, retards the provision of housing accommodations, aggravates traffic problems and substantially hampers the elimination of traffic hazards and the improvement of traffic facilities; and that the prevention and elimination of slums and blight is a matter of state policy and state concern in order that the state and its counties and municipalities shall not continue to be endangered by areas which are focal centers of disease, promote juvenile delinquency, and consume an excessive proportion of its revenues because of the extra services required for police, fire, accident, hospitalization, and other forms of public protection, services, and facilities.

(2) It is further found and declared that certain slum or blighted areas, or portions thereof, may require acquisition, clearance, and disposition subject to use restrictions, as provided in this part, since the prevailing condition of decay may make impracticable the reclamation of the area by conservation or rehabilitation; that other areas or portions thereof may, through the means provided in this part, be susceptible of conservation or rehabilitation in such a manner that the conditions and evils enumerated may be eliminated, remedied, or prevented; and that salvageable slum and blighted areas can be conserved and rehabilitated through appropriate public action as herein authorized and the cooperation and voluntary action of the owners and tenants of property in such areas.

(3) It is further found and declared that the powers conferred by this part are for public uses and purposes for which public money may be expended and the power of eminent domain and police power exercised, and the necessity in the public interest for the provisions herein enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-305.

163.340 Definitions.—The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this part, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Agency" or "community redevelopment agency" means a public agency created by s. 163.356 or s. 163.357.

(2) "Public body" means the state or any county, municipality, authority, district, or any other public body of the state.

(3) "Governing body" means the council or other legislative body charged with governing the county or municipality.

(4) "Mayor" means the mayor of a municipality or, for a county, the chairman of the board of county commissioners or such other officer as may be constituted by law to act as the executive head of such municipality or county.

(5) "Clerk" means the clerk or other official of the county or municipality who is the custodian of the official records of such county or municipality.

(6) "Federal government" includes the United States or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.

(7) "Slum area" means an area in which there is a predominance of buildings or improvements, whether residential or nonresidential, which by reason of dilapidation, deterioration, age or obsolescence, inadequate provision for ventilation, light, air, sanitation, or open spaces, high density of population and overcrowding, the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire or other causes, or any combination of such factors is conducive to ill health, transmission of disease, infant mortality, juvenile delinquency, or crime and is detrimental to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare.

(8) "Blighted area" means an area in which there are a substantial number of slum, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures and conditions which endanger life or property by fire or other causes or one or more of the following factors which substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of a county or municipality and is a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use:

(a) Predominance of defective or inadequate street layout;

(b) Faulty lot layout in relation to size, adequacy, accessibility or usefulness;

(c) Unsanitary or unsafe conditions;

(d) Deterioration of site or other improvements;

(e) Tax or special assessment delinquency exceeding the fair value of the land; and

(f) Diversity of ownership or defective or unusual conditions of title which prevents the free alienability of land within the deteriorated or hazardous area.

(9) "Community redevelopment project" means undertakings and activities of a county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency in a community redevelopment area for the elimination and prevention of the development or spread of slums and blight and may include slum clearance and redevelopment in a community redevelopment area, rehabilitation or conservation in a community redevelopment area, or any combination or part thereof in accordance with a community redevelopment plan.

(10) "Community redevelopment area" means a slum area or a blighted area or a combination thereof which the governing body designates as appropriate for a community redevelopment project.

(11) "Community redevelopment plan" means a plan, as it exists from time to time, for a community redevelopment project.

(12) "Related activities" means:

(a) Planning work for the preparation of a general neighborhood redevelopment plan or for the preparation or completion of a communitywide plan or program pursuant to s. 163.365; and

(b) The functions related to the acquisition and disposal of real property pursuant to s. 163.370(4).

(13) "Real property" means all lands, including improvements and fixtures thereon, and property of any nature appurtenant thereto or used in connection therewith and every estate, interest, right and use, legal or equitable, therein, including but not limited to terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage, or otherwise.

(14) "Bonds" means any bonds (including refunding bonds), notes, interim certificates, certificates of indebtedness, debentures, or other obligations.

(15) "Obligee" means and includes any bondholder, agents or trustees for any bondholders, or lessor demising to the county or municipality property used in connection with community redevelopment, or any assignee or assignees of such lessor's interest or any part thereof, and the federal government when it is a party to any contract with the county or municipality.

(16) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other person acting in a similar representative capacity.

(17) "Area of operation" means, for a county, the area within the boundaries of the county, and for a municipality, the area within the corporate limits of the municipality.

(18) "Housing authority" means a housing authority created by and established pursuant to chapter 421.

(19) "Board" or "commission" means a board, commission, department, division, office, body or other unit of the county or municipality.

(20) "Public officer" means any officer who is in charge of any department or branch of the government of the county or municipality relating to health, fire, building regulations, or other activities concerning dwellings in the county or municipality.

History.—s. 3, ch. 69-305; s. 1, ch. 77-391.

163.345 Encouragement of private enterprise.—Any county or municipality, to the greatest extent it determines to be feasible in carrying out the provisions of this part, shall afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the county or municipality as a whole, to the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the community redevelopment area by private enterprise. Any county or municipality shall give consideration to this objective in exercising its powers under this part, including the formulation of a workable program, the approval of community redevelopment plans, communitywide plans or programs for community redevelopment, and general neighborhood redevelopment plans (consistent with the general plan of the county or municipality), the exercise of its zoning powers, the enforcement of other laws, codes and regulations relating to the use of land and the use and occupancy of buildings and improvements, the disposition of any property acquired, and the provision of necessary public improvements.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-305.

163.350 Workable program.—Any county or municipality for the purposes of this part may formulate for the county or municipality a workable program for utilizing appropriate private and public resources to eliminate and prevent the development or spread of slums and urban blight, to encourage needed community rehabilitation, to provide for the redevelopment of slum and blighted areas, or to undertake such of the aforesaid activities or other feasible county or municipal activities as may be suitably employed to achieve the objectives of such workable program. Such workable program may include provision for the prevention of the spread of blight into areas of the county or municipality which are free from blight through diligent enforcement of housing, zoning, and occupancy controls and standards; the rehabilitation or conservation of slum and blighted areas or portions thereof by replanning, removing congestion, providing parks, playgrounds and other public improvements, encouraging voluntary rehabilitation, and compelling the repair and rehabilitation of deteriorated or deteriorating structures; and the clearance and redevelopment of slum and blighted areas or portions thereof.

History.—s. 5, ch. 69-305.

163.355 Finding of necessity by counties or municipalities.—No county or municipality shall exercise the authority conferred by this part until after the governing body shall have adopted a resolution finding that:

(1) One or more slum or blighted areas exist in such county or municipality; and,

(2) The rehabilitation, conservation, or redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of the public health, safety, morals, or welfare of the residents of such county or municipality.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-305.

163.356 Creation of community redevelopment agency.—

(1) Upon a finding of necessity as set forth in s. 163.355, and upon a further finding that there is a need for a community redevelopment agency to function in the county or municipality to carry out the community redevelopment purposes of this part, any county or municipality may create a public body corporate and politic to be known as a community redevelopment agency. Each such agency shall be constituted as a public instrumentality, and the exercise by a community redevelopment agency of the powers conferred by this part shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential public function. The community redevelopment agency of a county shall have the power to function within the corporate limits of a municipality only as, if, and when the governing body of the municipality has by resolution concurred in the community redevelopment plan and project proposed by the governing body of the county.

(2) When the governing body adopts a resolution declaring the need for a community redevelopment agency, that body shall, by ordinance, appoint a board of commissioners of the community redevelopment agency, which shall consist of five commissioners. Terms of office of the commissioners shall be for 4 years, except that three of the members first appointed shall be designated to serve terms of 1, 2, and 3 years, respectively, from the date of their appointments, and two members shall be designated to serve for terms of 4 years from the date of their appointments. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled for the unexpired term.

(3)(a) A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services, but shall be entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. A certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner shall be filed with the clerk of the county or municipality, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner.

(b) The powers of a community redevelopment agency shall be exercised by the commissioners thereof. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting business and exercising the powers of the agency and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the agency upon a vote of a majority of the commissioners present, unless in any case the bylaws shall require a larger number. Any persons may be appointed as commissioners if they reside or are engaged in business, which shall mean owning a business, practicing a profession, or performing a service for compensation, or serving as an officer or director of a corporation or other business entity so engaged, within the area of operation of the agency, which shall be coterminous with the area of operation of the county or municipality, and are otherwise eligible for such appointments under this part.

(c) The governing body of the county or municipality shall designate a chairman and vice chairman from among the commissioners. An agency may employ an executive director, technical experts, and such other agents and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. For such legal service as it may require, an agency may employ or retain its own counsel and legal staff. An agency authorized to transact business and exercise powers under this part shall file with the governing body and with the Auditor General, on or before March 31 of each year, a report of its activities for the preceding calendar year, which report shall include a complete financial statement setting forth its assets, liabilities, income, and operating expense as of the end of such calendar year. At the time of filing the report, the agency shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the community a notice to the effect that such report has been filed with the county or municipality and that the report is available for inspection during business hours in the office of the clerk of the city or county commission and in the office of the agency.

(d) At any time after the creation of a community redevelopment agency, the governing body of the county or municipality may appropriate to the agency such amounts as the governing body deems necessary for the administrative expenses and overhead of the agency.

(4) The governing body may remove a commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office only after a hearing and only if he has been given a copy of the charges at least 10 days prior to such hearing and has had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-391.

163.357 Governing body as the community redevelopment agency.—

(1) As an alternative to the appointment of five members of the agency, the governing body may, at the time of the adoption of a resolution under s. 163.355, or at any time thereafter by adoption of a resolution, declare itself to be the agency, in which case all the rights, powers, duties, privileges, and immunities vested by this part in an agency shall be vested in the governing body of the county or municipality, subject to all responsibilities and liabilities imposed or incurred.

(2) Nothing in this part shall prevent the governing body from conferring the rights, powers, privileges, duties, and immunities of a community redevelopment agency upon any entity in existence on July 1, 1977, which has been authorized by law to function as a downtown development board or authority or as any other body the purpose of which is to prevent and eliminate slums and blight through community redevelopment plans. Any entity in existence on July 1, 1977, which has been vested with the rights, powers, privileges, duties, and immunities of a community redevelopment agency shall be subject to all provisions and responsibilities imposed by this part, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any law or amendment thereto which established the entity. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair or diminish any powers of any redevelopment agency or other entity as referred to herein in existence on the effective date of this act or to repeal, modify, or amend any law establishing such entity, except as specifically set forth herein.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-391; s. 75, ch. 79-400.

163.358 Exercise of powers in carrying out community redevelopment project and related activities.—The "community redevelopment powers" assigned to a community redevelopment agency created under s. 163.356 shall include all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this part, except the following, which shall continue to vest in the governing body of the county or municipality:

(1) The power to determine an area to be a slum or blighted area, or combination thereof, to designate such area as appropriate for a community redevelopment project, and to hold any public hearings required with respect thereto.

(2) The power to grant final approval to community redevelopment plans and modifications thereof.

(3) The power to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds as set forth in s. 163.385.

(4) The power to approve the acquisition, demolition, removal, or disposal of property as provided in s. 163.370(4) and the power to assume the responsibility to bear loss as provided in s. 163.370(4).

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-391.

163.360 Community redevelopment plans.—

(1) A community redevelopment project for a community redevelopment area shall not be planned or initiated unless the governing body has, by resolution, determined such area to be a slum area or a blighted area, or a combination thereof, and designated such area as appropriate for a community redevelopment project.

(2) The community redevelopment plan shall:

(a) Conform to the comprehensive plan for the county or municipality as prepared by the local planning agency under the Local Government Comprehensive Planning Act of 1975.

(b) Be sufficiently complete to indicate such land acquisition, demolition and removal of structures, redevelopment, improvements, and rehabilitation as may be proposed to be carried out in the community redevelopment area; zoning and planning changes, if any; land uses; maximum densities; and building requirements.

(3) The county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may itself prepare or cause to be prepared a community redevelopment plan, or any person or agency, public or private, may submit such a plan to a community redevelopment agency. Prior to its consideration of a community redevelopment plan, the community redevelopment agency shall submit such plan to the local planning agency of the county or municipality for review and recommendations as to its conformity with the comprehensive plan for the development of the county or municipality as a whole. The local planning agency shall submit its written recommendations with respect to the conformity of the proposed community redevelopment plan to the community redevelopment agency within 60 days after receipt of the plan for review. Upon receipt of the recommendations of the local planning agency, or, if no recommendations are received within said 60 days, then without such recommendations, the community redevelopment agency may proceed with its consideration of the proposed community redevelopment project.

(4) The community redevelopment agency shall submit any community redevelopment plan it recommends for approval, together with its written recommendations, to the governing body. The governing body shall then proceed with the hearing on the proposed community redevelopment project as prescribed by subsection (5).

(5) The governing body shall hold a public hearing on a community redevelopment project after public notice thereof by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the area of operation of the county or municipality. The notice shall describe the time, date, place, and purpose of the hearing, identify generally the community redevelopment area covered by the plan, and outline the general scope of the community redevelopment project under consideration.

(6) Following such hearing, the governing body may approve a community redevelopment project and the plan therefor if it finds that:

(a) A feasible method exists for the location of families who will be displaced from the community redevelopment area in decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations within their means and without undue hardship to such families;

(b) The community redevelopment plan conforms to the general plan of the county or municipality as a whole;

(c) The community redevelopment plan gives due consideration to the provision of adequate park and recreational areas and facilities that may be desirable for neighborhood improvement, with special consideration for the health, safety, and welfare of children residing in the general vicinity of the site covered by the plans; and

(d) The community redevelopment plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the county or municipality as a whole, for the rehabilitation or redevelopment of the community redevelopment area by private enterprise.

(7) If the community redevelopment area consists of an area of open land to be acquired by the county or the municipality, such area shall not be so acquired unless:

(a) In the event the area is to be developed for residential uses, the governing body shall determine:

1. That a shortage of housing of sound standards and design which is decent, safe, and sanitary exists in the county or municipality;

2. That the need for housing accommodations has been or will be increased as a result of the clearance of slums in other areas;

3. That the conditions of blight in the area and the shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary housing cause or contribute to an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare; and

4. That the acquisition of the area for residential uses is an integral part of and is essential to the program of the county or municipality.

(b) In the event the area is to be developed for nonresidential uses, the governing body shall determine that:

1. Such nonresidential uses are necessary and appropriate to facilitate the proper growth and development of the community in accordance with sound planning standards and local community objectives; and

2. Acquisition may require the exercise of governmental action, as provided in this part, because of:

a. Defective, or unusual conditions of, title or diversity of ownership which prevents the free alienability of such land;

b. Tax delinquency;

c. Improper subdivisions;

d. Outmoded street patterns;

e. Deterioration of site;

f. Economic disuse;

g. Unsuitable topography or faulty lot layouts;

h. Lack of correlation of the area with other areas of a county or municipality by streets and modern traffic requirements; or

i. Any combination of such factors or other conditions which retard development of the area.

(8) Upon the approval by the governing body of a community redevelopment plan or of any modification thereof, such plan or modification shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the respective community redevelopment area, and the county or municipality may then cause the community redevelopment agency to carry out such plan or modification in accordance with its terms.

(9) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, when the governing body certifies that an area is in need of redevelopment or rehabilitation as a result of a flood, fire, hurricane, earthquake, storm, or other catastrophe, respecting which the Governor has certified the need for disaster assistance under federal law, that area may be certified as a "blighted area," and the governing body may approve a community redevelopment plan and a community redevelopment project with respect to such area without regard to the provisions of this section requiring a general plan for the county or municipality and a public hearing on the community redevelopment project.

History.—s. 7, ch. 69-305; s. 3, ch. 77-391.

163.361 Modification of community redevelopment plans.—

(1) If at any time after the approval of a community redevelopment plan by the governing body it becomes necessary or desirable to amend or modify such plan, the governing body may amend such plan upon the recommendation of the agency. The agency recommendation to amend or modify a redevelopment plan may include a change in the boundaries of the project area to add land to or exclude land from the project area.

(2) The governing body shall hold a public hearing on a proposed modification of a community redevelopment plan after public notice thereof by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the area of operation of the agency.

(3) If a community redevelopment plan is modified by the county or municipality after the lease or sale of real property in the community redevelopment project area, such modification may be conditioned upon such approval of the owner, lessee, or successor in interest as the county or municipality may deem advisable and, in any event, shall be subject to such rights at law or in equity as a lessee or purchaser, or his successor or successors in interest, may be entitled to assert.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-391.

163.362 Contents of community redevelopment plan.—Every community redevelopment plan shall:

(1) Contain a legal description of the boundaries of the community redevelopment project area.

(2) Show by diagram and in general terms:

(a) The approximate amount of open space to be provided and the street layout.

(b) Limitations on the type, size, height, number, and proposed use of buildings.

(c) The approximate number of dwelling units.

(d) Such property as is intended for use as public parks, recreation areas, streets, public utilities, and public improvements of any nature.

(3) If the project area contains low or moderate income housing, contain a neighborhood impact element, which describes in detail the impact of the project upon the residents of the project area and the surrounding areas, in terms of relocation, traffic circulation, environmental quality, availability of community facilities and services, effect on school population, and other matters affecting the physical and social quality of the neighborhood.

(4) Describe generally the proposed method of financing the redevelopment of the project area.

(5) Contain adequate safeguards that the work of redevelopment will be carried out pursuant to the plan.

(6) Provide for the retention of controls and the establishment of any restrictions or covenants running with land sold or leased for private use for such periods of time and under such conditions as the governing body deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of this part.

(7) Provide assurances that there will be replacement housing for the relocation of persons temporarily or permanently displaced from housing facilities within the community redevelopment project area.

(8) Provide an element of residential use in the project area if such use exists in the area prior to the adoption of the plan.

History.—s. 5, ch. 77-391.

163.365 Neighborhood and communitywide plans.—

(1) Any municipality or county or any public body authorized to perform planning work may prepare a general neighborhood redevelopment plan for a community redevelopment area or areas, together with any adjoining areas having specially related problems, which may be of such scope that redevelopment activities may have to be carried out in stages. Such plans may include, but not be limited to, a preliminary plan which:

(a) Outlines the community redevelopment activities proposed for the area involved;

(b) Provides a framework for the preparation of community redevelopment plans; and

(c) Indicates generally the land uses, population density, building coverage, prospective requirements for rehabilitation and improvement of property and portions of the area contemplated for clearance and redevelopment.

A general neighborhood redevelopment plan shall, in the determination of the governing body, conform to the general plan of the locality as a whole and the workable program of the county or municipality.

(2) Any county or municipality or any public body authorized to perform planning work may prepare or complete a communitywide plan or program for community redevelopment which shall conform to the general plan for the development of the county or municipality as a whole and may include, but not be limited to, identification of slum or blighted areas, measurement of blight, determination of resources needed and available to renew such areas, identification of potential project areas and types of action contemplated, and scheduling of community redevelopment activities.

(3) Authority is hereby vested in every county and municipality to prepare, adopt, and revise from time to time a general plan for the physical development of the county or municipality as a whole (giving due regard to the environs and metropolitan surroundings), to establish and maintain a planning commission for such purpose and related county or municipal planning activities, and to make available and to appropriate necessary funds therefor.

History.—s. 8, ch. 69-305.

163.367 Public officials, commissioners, and employees prohibited from acquiring an interest.—

(1) No public official or employee of a county or municipality, or board or commission thereof, and no commissioner or employee of a community redevelopment agency which has been vested by any county or municipality with community redevelopment

ment powers under s. 163.356 or s. 163.357, shall voluntarily or involuntarily acquire any personal interest, direct or indirect, in any community redevelopment project, in any property included or planned to be included in any community redevelopment project of such county or municipality, or in any contract or proposed contract in connection with such community redevelopment project.

(2) In the event of involuntary acquisition, the interest acquired shall be immediately disclosed in writing to the governing body, and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the governing body. If any such official, commissioner, or employee presently owns or controls, or owned or controlled within the preceding 2 years, any interest, direct or indirect, in any property which he knows is included or planned to be included in a community redevelopment project, he shall immediately disclose this fact in writing to the governing body, and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the governing body, and any such official, commissioner, or employee shall not participate in any action by the county or municipality, or board or commission thereof, or community redevelopment agency affecting such property. Any disclosure required to be made by this section to the governing body shall concurrently be made to a community redevelopment agency which has been vested with community redevelopment powers by the county or municipality pursuant to the provisions of s. 163.356 or s. 163.357.

(3) No commissioner or other officer of any community redevelopment agency, board, or commission exercising powers pursuant to this part shall hold any other public office under the county or municipality other than his commissionership or office with respect to such community redevelopment agency, board, or commission.

(4) Any violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute misconduct in office.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-391; s. 76, ch. 79-400.

163.370 Powers; counties and municipalities; agencies.—

(1) Every county and municipality shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this part, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(a) To make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers under this part; to disseminate slum clearance and community redevelopment information; and to undertake and carry out community redevelopment projects and related activities within its area of operation, such projects to include:

1. Acquisition of a slum area or a blighted area or portion thereof.

2. Demolition and removal of buildings and improvements.

3. Installation, construction, or reconstruction of streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds, and other improvements necessary for carrying out in the community redevelopment area the community redevelopment objectives of this part in accordance with the community redevelopment plan.

4. Disposition of any property acquired in the community redevelopment area at its fair value for uses in accordance with the community redevelopment plan.

5. Carrying out plans for a program of voluntary or compulsory repair and rehabilitation of buildings or other improvements in accordance with the community redevelopment plan.

6. Acquisition of real property in the community redevelopment area which, under the community redevelopment plan, is to be repaired or rehabilitated for dwelling use or related facilities, repair or rehabilitation of the structures for guidance purposes, and resale of the property.

7. Acquisition of any other real property in the community redevelopment area when necessary to eliminate unhealthful, unsanitary or unsafe conditions, lessen density, eliminate obsolete or other uses detrimental to the public welfare, or otherwise to remove or prevent the spread of blight or deterioration, or to provide land for needed public facilities.

8. Acquisition, without regard to any requirement that the area be a slum or blighted area, of air rights in an area consisting principally of land in highways, railway or subway tracks, bridge or tunnel entrances, or other similar facilities which have a blighting influence on the surrounding area and over which air rights sites are to be developed for the elimination of such blighting influences and for the provision of housing (and related facilities and uses) designed specifically for, and limited to, families and individuals of low or moderate income.

9. Construction of foundations and platforms necessary for the provision of air rights sites of housing (and related facilities and uses) designed specifically for, and limited to, families and individuals of low or moderate income.

(b) To provide, or to arrange or contract for, the furnishing or repair by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, streets, roads, public utilities or other facilities for or in connection with a community redevelopment project; to install, construct, and reconstruct streets, utilities, parks, playgrounds, and other public improvements; and to agree to any conditions that it may deem reasonable and appropriate attached to federal financial assistance and imposed pursuant to federal law relating to the determination of prevailing salaries or wages or compliance with labor standards, in the undertaking or carrying out of a community redevelopment project and related activities, and to include in any contract let in connection with such a project and related activities provisions to fulfill such of said conditions as it may deem reasonable and appropriate.

(c) Within its area of operation:

1. To enter into any building or property in any community redevelopment area in order to make inspections, surveys, appraisals, soundings, or test borings and to obtain an order for this purpose from a court of competent jurisdiction in the event entry is denied or resisted.

2. To acquire by purchase, lease, option, gift, grant, bequest, devise, eminent domain, or otherwise, any real property (or personal property for its administrative purposes), together with any improvements thereon.

3. To hold, improve, clear, or prepare for redevelopopment any such property.

4. To mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber or dispose of any real property.

5. To insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the county or municipality against any risks or hazards, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance.

6. To enter into any contracts necessary to effectuate the purposes of this part.

(d) To invest any community redevelopment funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds not required for immediate disbursement in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; and to redeem such bonds as have been issued pursuant to s. 163.385 of this part at the redemption price established therein or to purchase such bonds at less than redemption price, all such bonds so redeemed or purchased to be canceled.

(e) To borrow money and to apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions and any other form of financial assistance from the federal government or the state, county, or other public body, or from any sources, public or private, for the purposes of this part, and to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts or agreements in connection therewith; and to include in any contract for financial assistance with the federal government for or with respect to a community redevelopment project and related activities such conditions imposed pursuant to federal laws as the county or municipality may deem reasonable and appropriate and which are not inconsistent with the purposes of this part.

(f) Within its area of operation, to make or have made all surveys and plans necessary to the carrying out of the purposes of this part and to contract with any person, public or private, in making and carrying out such plans and to adopt or approve, modify and amend such plans, which plans may include, but not be limited to:

1. Plans for carrying out a program of voluntary or compulsory repair and rehabilitation of buildings and improvements.

2. Plans for the enforcement of state and local laws, codes, and regulations relating to the use of land and the use and occupancy of buildings and improvements and to the compulsory repair, rehabilitation, demolition, or removal of buildings and improvements.

3. Appraisals, title searches, surveys, studies, and other plans and work necessary to prepare for the undertaking of community redevelopment projects and related activities.

(g) To develop, test, and report methods and techniques, and carry out demonstrations and other activities, for the prevention and the elimination of slums and urban blight and developing and demonstrating new or improved means of providing housing for families and persons of low income.

(h) To apply for, accept and utilize grants of funds from the federal government for such purposes.

(i) To prepare plans for and assist in the relocation of persons (including individuals, families, business concerns, nonprofit organizations and others) displaced from a community redevelopment area, and to make relocation payments to or with respect to such persons for moving expenses and losses of property for which reimbursement or compensation is not otherwise made, including the making of such payments financed by the federal government.

(j) To appropriate such funds and make such expenditures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this part; to zone or rezone any part of the county or municipality or make exceptions from building regulations; and to enter into agreements with a housing authority, which agreements may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary, respecting action to be taken by such county or municipality pursuant to any of the powers granted by this part.

(k) To close, vacate, plan, or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways or other places; and to plan or replan any part of the county or municipality.

(l) Within its area of operation, to organize, coordinate, and direct the administration of the provisions of this part, as they may apply to such county or municipality in order that the objective of remedying slum and blighted areas and preventing the causes thereof within such county or municipality may be most effectively promoted and achieved, and to establish such new office or offices of the county or municipality or to reorganize existing offices in order to carry out such purpose most effectively.

(m) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted or to elect to have such powers exercised by a community redevelopment agency.

(2) With the approval of the governing body, a community redevelopment agency may:

(a) Prior to approval of a community redevelopment plan or approval of any modifications of the plan, acquire real property in a community redevelopment area, demolish and remove any structures on the property, and pay all costs related to the acquisition, demolition, or removal, including any administrative or relocation expenses.

(b) Assume the responsibility to bear any loss that may arise as the result of the exercise of authority under this subsection, in the event that the real property is not made part of the community redevelopment project.

History.—s. 9, ch. 69-305; s. 7, ch. 77-391.

163.375 Eminent domain.—

(1) Any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency as provided by any county or municipal ordinance shall have the right to acquire by condemnation any interest in real property, including a fee simple title thereto, which it may deem necessary for, or in connection with, a community redevelopment project and related activities under this part. Any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency as provided by any county or municipal ordinance may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided in chapters 73 and 74 and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, or it may exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner now or which may be hereafter provided by any other statutory provisions for the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired in like manner. However, no real property belonging to the United States, the state, or any political subdivision of the state may be acquired without its consent.

(2) In any proceeding to fix or assess compensation for damages for the taking of property, or any interest therein, through the exercise of the power of eminent domain or condemnation, evidence or testimony bearing upon the following matters shall be admissible and shall be considered in fixing such compensation or damages in addition to evidence or testimony otherwise admissible:

(a) Any use, condition, occupancy, or operation of such property, which is unlawful or violative of, or subject to elimination, abatement, prohibition, or correction under, any law, ordinance, or regulatory measure of the state, county, municipality, or other political subdivision, or any agency thereof, in which such property is located, as being unsafe, substandard, unsanitary, or otherwise contrary to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare;

(b) The effect on the value of such property, of any such use, condition, occupancy, or operation, or of the elimination, abatement, prohibition, or correction of any such use, condition, occupancy, or operation.

(3) The foregoing testimony and evidence shall be admissible notwithstanding that no action has been taken by any public body or public officer toward the abatement, prohibition, elimination, or correction of any such use, condition, occupancy, or operation. Testimony or evidence that any public body or public officer charged with the duty or authority so to do has rendered, made, or issued any judgment, decree, determination, or order for the abatement, prohibition, elimination, or correction of any such use, condition, occupancy, or operation shall be admissible and shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and character of such use, condition, or operation.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-305; s. 8, ch. 77-391.

163.380 Disposal of property in community redevelopment area.—

(1) Any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may sell, lease, dispose of, or otherwise transfer real property or any interest therein acquired by it for a community redevelopment project or in a community redevelopment area to any private person, or may retain such property for public use, and may enter into contracts with respect thereto for residential, recreational, commercial, industrial, educational, or other uses, in accordance with the community redevelopment plan, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land, as it may deem to be necessary or desirable to assist in preventing the development or spread of future slums or blighted areas or to otherwise carry out the purposes of this part. However, such sale, lease, other transfer, or retention, and any agreement relating thereto, may be made only after the approval of the community redevelopment plan by the governing body. The purchasers or lessees and their successors and assigns shall be obligated to devote such real property only to the uses specified in the community redevelopment plan, and may be obligated to comply with such other requirements as the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may determine to be in the public interest, including the obligation to begin any improvements on such real property required by the community redevelopment plan within a reasonable time.

(2) Such real property or interest shall be sold, leased, otherwise transferred, or retained at not less than its fair value for uses in accordance with the community redevelopment plan and in accordance with such reasonable competitive bidding procedures as any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may prescribe. In determining the fair value of real property for uses in accordance with the community redevelopment plan, the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency shall take into account and give consideration to the uses provided in such plan; the restrictions upon, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by, the purchaser or lessee or by the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency retaining the property; and the objectives of such plan for the prevention of the recurrence of slum or blighted areas. The county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may provide in any instrument of conveyance to a private purchaser or lessee that such purchaser or lessee shall be without power to sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the real property without the prior written consent of the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency until he has completed the construction of any or all improvements which he has obligated himself to construct thereon. Real property acquired by the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency which, in accordance with the provisions of the community redevelopment plan, is to be transferred, shall be transferred as rapidly as feasible in the public interest, consistent with the carrying out of the provisions of the community redevelopment plan. Any contract for such transfer and the community redevelopment plan, or such part or parts of such contract or plan as the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may determine, may be recorded in the land records of the clerk of the circuit court in such manner as to afford actual or constructive notice thereof.

(3) Prior to disposition of any real property or interest therein in a community redevelopment area, any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency shall give public notice of such disposition by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation in the community, at least 30 days prior to the execution of any contract to sell, lease, or otherwise transfer real property and, prior to the delivery of any instrument of conveyance with respect thereto under the provisions of this section, invite proposals from, and make all pertinent information available to, private redevelopers or any persons interested in undertaking to redevelop or rehabilitate a community redevelopment area or any part thereof. Such notice shall identify the area or portion thereof and shall state that proposals shall be made by those interested within 30 days after the date of publication of said notice and that such further information as is available may be obtained at such office as shall be designated in said notice. The county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency shall consider all such redevelopment or rehabilitation proposals and the financial and legal ability of the persons making such proposals to carry them out, and may negotiate with any persons for proposals for the purchase, lease, or other transfer of any real property acquired by the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency in the community redevelopment area. The county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may accept such proposal as it deems to be in the public interest and in furtherance of the purposes of this part; however, a notification of intention to accept such proposal shall be filed with the governing body not less than 30 days prior to any such acceptance. Thereafter, the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may execute such contract in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) and deliver deeds, leases, and other instruments and take all steps necessary to effectuate such contract.

(4) Any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may temporarily operate and maintain real property acquired by it in a community redevelopment area for or in connection with a community redevelopment project pending the disposition of the property as authorized in this part, without regard to the provisions of subsection (1), for such uses and purposes as may be deemed desirable, even though not in conformity with the community redevelopment plan.

163.385 Issuance of revenue bonds.—

(1) When authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body, every county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency shall have power in its corporate capacity, in its discretion, to issue negotiable redevelopment revenue bonds from time to time to finance the undertaking of any community redevelopment project under this part, including, without limiting the generality thereof, the payment of principal and interest upon any advances for surveys and plans or preliminary loans, and shall have power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of bonds or other obligations previously issued. The security for such bonds may be based upon the anticipated assessed valuation of the completed community redevelopment project and such other revenues as may be legally available. In anticipation of the sale of such revenue bonds, the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew the same from time to time, but the maximum maturity of any such note, including renewals thereof, shall not exceed 5 years from the date of issue of the original note. Such notes shall be paid from any revenues of the county, municipality, or agency available therefor and not otherwise pledged or from the proceeds of sale of the revenue bonds in anticipation of which they were issued.

(2) Bonds issued under this section shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation or restriction, and shall not be subject to the provisions of any other law or charter relating to the authorization, issuance, or sale of bonds. Bonds issued under the provisions of this part are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempted from all taxes, except those taxes imposed by chapter 220 on interest, income, or profits on debt obligations owned by corporations.

(3) Bonds issued under this section shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body; may be issued in one or more series; and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either with or without coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics as may be provided by such resolution or ordinance or by a trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Bonds issued under this section may be sold in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as the governing body may determine will effectuate the purpose of this part.

(4) In case any of the public officials of the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons issued under this part shall cease to be such officials before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such officials had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this part shall be fully negotiable.

(5) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this part, or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency in connection with a community redevelopment project, as herein defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose, and such project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this part.

163.387 Redevelopment trust fund.—

(1) There shall be established for each community redevelopment agency created under s. 163.356 a redevelopment trust fund. Funds allocated to and deposited into this fund shall be used by the agency to finance or refinance each community redevelopment project it undertakes. No community redevelopment agency shall exercise any community redevelopment powers under this section unless and until the governing body has, by ordinance, provided for the funding of the redevelopment trust fund for the duration of a community redevelopment project. The annual funding of the redevelopment trust fund shall be in an amount not less than that increment in the income, proceeds, revenues, and funds of the county or municipality derived from or held in connection with its undertaking and carrying out of community redevelopment projects under this part.

Such increment shall be determined annually and shall be that amount equal to the difference between:

(a) The amount of ad valorem taxes levied each year by all taxing authorities except school districts on taxable real property contained within the geographic boundaries of a community redevelopment project; and

(b) The amount of ad valorem taxes which would have been produced by the rate upon which the tax is levied each year by or for all taxing authorities except school districts upon the total of the assessed value of the taxable property in the community redevelopment project as shown upon the most recent assessment roll used in connection with the taxation of such property by each taxing authority prior to the effective date of the ordinance approving the community redevelopment plan.

(2) Upon the establishment of a redevelopment trust fund as herein provided, each taxing authority except school districts shall annually appropriate to such fund a sum which is no less than the increment of ad valorem tax revenues as defined and determined in paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) accruing to said taxing authority.

(3) The obligation of a local governing body to fund the redevelopment trust fund annually shall continue until all loans, advances, and indebtedness, if any, and interest thereon, of a community redevelopment agency incurred as a result of a community redevelopment project have been paid, but only to the extent that the tax increment described in this section accrues.

(4) The revenue bonds and notes of every issue under this part shall be payable solely out of revenues pledged to and received by a community redevelopment agency and deposited to its redevelopment trust fund. The lien created by such bonds or notes shall not attach until the revenues referred to herein are deposited in the redevelopment trust fund at the times, and to the extent that, such revenues accrue. The holders of such bonds or notes shall have no right to require the imposition of any tax or the establishment of any rate of taxation in order to obtain the amounts necessary to pay and retire such bonds or notes. The redevelopment trust fund shall receive the tax increment described in this section only as, if, and when such taxes are collected.

(5) Revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this part shall not be deemed to constitute a debt, liability, or obligation of the local governing body or the state or any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the local governing body or the state or any political subdivision thereof, but shall be payable solely from the revenues provided therefor. All such revenue bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that the agency shall not be obligated to pay the same or the interest thereon except from the revenues of the community redevelopment agency held for that purpose and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the local governing body or of the state or of any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of, or the interest on, such bonds.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-391; s. 78, ch. 79-400.

163.390 Bonds as legal investments.—All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or other obligations issued by a county or municipality pursuant to this part or by any community development agency vested with community redevelopment project powers. Such bonds and other obligations shall be authorized security for all public deposits. It is the purpose of this section to authorize any persons, political subdivisions, and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds or other obligations. Nothing contained in this section with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

History.—s. 13, ch. 69-305; s. 12, ch. 77-391.

163.395 Property exempt from taxes and from levy and sale by virtue of an execution.—

(1) All property of any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency, including funds, owned or held by it for the purposes of this part shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, and no execution or other judicial process shall issue against the same nor shall judgment against the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency be a charge or lien upon such property. However, the provisions of this section shall not apply to or limit the right of obligees to pursue any remedies for the enforcement of any pledge or lien given pursuant to this part by the county or municipality on its rents, fees, grants, or revenues from community redevelopment projects.

(2) The property of the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency acquired or held for the purposes of this part is declared to be public property used for essential public and governmental purposes, and such property shall be exempt from all taxes of the municipality, the county, or the state or any political subdivision thereof. However, such tax exemption shall terminate when the county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency sells, leases, or otherwise disposes of such property in a community redevelopment area to a purchaser or lessee which is not a public body entitled to tax exemption with respect to such property.

History.—s. 14, ch. 69-305; s. 13, ch. 77-391.

163.400 Cooperation by public bodies.—

(1) For the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking, or carrying out of a community redevelopment project and related activities authorized by this part, any public body may, upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine:

(a) Dedicate, sell, convey, or lease any of its interest in any property or grant easements, licenses, or other rights or privileges therein to a county or municipality.

(b) Incur the entire expense of any public improvements made by such public body in exercising the powers granted in this section.

(c) Do any and all things necessary to aid or cooperate in the planning or carrying out of a community redevelopment plan and related activities.

(d) Lend, grant, or contribute funds to a county or municipality; borrow money; and apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions, or any other form of financial assistance, from the federal government, the state, county or other public body, or any other source.

(e) Enter into agreements, which may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary, with the federal government, a county or municipality, or other public body respecting action to be taken pursuant to any of the powers granted by this part, including the furnishing of funds or other assistance in connection with a community redevelopment project and related activities.

(f) Cause public buildings and public facilities, including parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer, or drainage facilities, or any other works which it is otherwise empowered to undertake to be furnished; furnish, dedicate, close, vacate, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan, or replan streets, roads, sidewalks, ways, or other places; plan or replan or zone or rezone any part of the public body or make exceptions from building regulations; and cause administrative and other services to be furnished to the county or municipality.

If at any time title to or possession of any community redevelopment project is held by any public body or governmental agency, other than the county or municipality, which is authorized by law to engage in the undertaking, carrying out, or administration of community redevelopment projects and related activities, including any agency or instrumentality of the United States, the provisions of the agreements referred to in this section shall inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by such public body or governmental agency. As used in this subsection, the term "county or municipality" shall also include a community redevelopment agency.

(3) For the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking, or carrying out of any community redevelopment project and related activities of a community redevelopment agency or a housing authority hereunder, any county or municipality may, in addition to its other powers and upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine, do and perform any or all of the actions or things which, by the provisions of subsection (1), a public body is authorized to do or perform, including the furnishing of financial and other assistance.

(4) For the purposes of this section, or for the purpose of aiding in the planning, undertaking, or carrying out of a community redevelopment project and related activities of a county or municipality, such county or municipality may, in addition to any authority to issue bonds pursuant to s. 163.385, issue and sell its general obligation bonds. Any bonds issued by the county or municipality pursuant to this section shall be issued in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by the applicable laws of this state for the issuance and authorization of general obligation bonds by such county or municipality. Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise adversely affect any other section of this part.

History.—s. 15, ch. 69-305; s. 14, ch. 77-391; s. 79, ch. 79-400.

163.405 Title of purchaser.—Any instrument executed by any county, municipality, or community redevelopment agency and purporting to convey any right, title, or interest in any property under this part shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with the provisions of this part insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, lessees, or transferees of such property is concerned.

History.—s. 16, ch. 69-305; s. 15, ch. 77-391.

163.410 Exercise of powers in counties with home rule charters.—In counties which have adopted home rule charters, the powers conferred by this part shall be exercised exclusively by the governing body of such county. However, the governing body of any such county which has adopted a home rule charter may, in its discretion, by resolution delegate the exercise of the powers conferred upon said county by this part within the boundaries of a municipality to the governing body of such a municipality. Such a delegation to a municipality shall confer only such powers upon a municipality as shall be specifically enumerated in the delegating resolution. Any power not specifically delegated shall be reserved exclusively to the governing body of the county.

History.—s. 17, ch. 69-305.

163.415 Exercise of powers in counties without home rule charters.—The powers conferred by this part upon counties not having adopted a home rule charter shall not be exercised within the boundaries of a municipality within said county unless the governing body of the municipality expresses its consent by resolution. Such a resolution consenting to the exercise of the powers conferred upon counties by this part shall specifically enumerate the powers to be exercised by the county within the boundaries of the municipality. Any power not specifically enumerated in such a resolution of consent shall be exercised exclusively by the municipality within its boundaries.

History.—s. 18, ch. 69-305.

163.430 Powers supplemental to existing community redevelopment powers.—The powers conferred upon counties or municipalities by this part shall be supplemental to any community redevelopment powers now being exercised by any county or municipality in accordance with the provisions of any population act, special act, or under the provisions of the home rule charter for Dade County, or under the provision of the charter of the consolidated City of Jacksonville.

History.—s. 21, ch. 69-305.

163.445 Assistance to community redevelopment by state agencies.—State agencies may provide technical and advisory assistance, upon request, to municipalities, counties, and community redevelopment agencies for a community redevelopment project as defined in this part. Such assistance may include, but need not be limited to, preparation of workable programs, relocation planning, special statistical and other studies and compilations, technical evaluations and information, training activities, professional services, surveys, reports, documents, and any other similar service functions. If sufficient funds and personnel are available, these services shall be provided without charge.

History.—s. 25, ch. 69-305; s. 16, ch. 77-391.

163.450 Municipal and county participation in neighborhood development programs under U.S.P.L. 90-448.—Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent a county or municipality which is engaging in community redevelopment activities hereunder from participating in the neighborhood development program under the Housing Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-448) or in any amendments subsequent thereto.

PART IV

REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITIES

- 163.565 Short title.
- 163.566 Definitions.
- 163.567 Regional transportation authorities.
- 163.568 Purposes and powers.
- 163.569 Exemption from regulation.
- 163.570 Special region taxation.
- 163.571 Issuance of bonds.
- 163.572 Expansion of area.

163.565 Short title.—This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Regional Transportation Authority Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.566 Definitions.—As used in this part, and unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Authority" means a body politic and corporate created pursuant to this part.
- (2) "Member" means the municipality, county, or political subdivision which, in combination with another member or members, comprises the authority.
- (3) "Board of directors," hereinafter referred to as the board, means the governing body of the authority.
- (4) "Director" means a person appointed to the board by a member. No person who serves without salary as a director or in any other appointed position of the authority shall be in violation of s. 99.012(2) by reason of holding such office.

(5) "Regional transportation area" means that area the boundaries of which are identical to the boundaries of the political subdivisions or other legal entities which constitute the authority.

(6) "Municipality" means any city with a population of over 50,000 within the regional transportation area.

(7) "County" means any county within the regional transportation area.

(8) "Public transportation" means transportation of passengers by means, without limitation, of a street railway, elevated railway or guideway, subway, motor vehicle, motor bus, or any bus or other means of conveyance operating as a common carrier within the regional transportation area, including charter service therein.

(9) "Public transportation system" means, without limitation, a combination of real and personal property, structures, improvements, buildings, equipment, plants, vehicle parking or other facilities, and rights-of-way, or any combination thereof, used or useful for the purposes of public transportation.

(10) "Operator" means any person engaged in, or intending to engage in, the business of providing public transportation, but does not include a person engaged primarily in the transportation of children to or from school or a person or entity furnishing transportation solely for his or its employees or customers.

(11) "Transportation facility" or "transportation facilities" means the property or property rights, both real and personal, of a type used for the establishment of public transportation systems which have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, established by public bodies for the transportation of people and property from place to place.

(12) "Population" means the population as determined under the provisions of s. 23.019.

History.—s. 2, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.567 Regional transportation authorities.—

(1) Any two or more contiguous counties, municipalities, other political subdivisions, or combinations thereof in this state are authorized and empowered to convene a charter committee for the purpose of developing a charter under which a regional transportation authority, hereinafter referred to as "authority," may be constituted, composed, and operated as delineated in this part. However, no county, municipality, or other political subdivision may be a member in more than one authority created under this part.

(2) Upon the decision by such governing bodies to convene the committee, each shall appoint one representative for the first 100,000 population or fraction thereof over 50,000, plus one additional representative for each additional 100,000 population to the charter committee, except that the population of any participating municipality shall be subtracted from the county's population in determining county representation. The committee shall meet for the purpose of preparing the authority's charter. The charter, in addition to the purposes and powers provided in s. 163.568, shall contain:

- (a) The formula for representation and voting of the members based on population, but in no event shall the Governor's appointees have less than one vote each.

(b) Any limitations on the authority's powers of eminent domain beyond those limitations contained in s. 163.568 and deemed necessary for the authority's purposes.

(c) The duration of the authority and the method by which it may be terminated or withdrawn from by any participating member prior to the stated date of termination, if any.

(d) The manner in which the authority members will provide from their treasuries the financial support for the authority.

(e) A method or formula for equitably providing for and allocating and financing the capital and operating costs, including payments to reserve funds authorized by law and payments of principal and interest on obligations.

(f) The manner in which strict budgeting and accountability of all funds shall be provided for and the manner in which reports, including an annual independent audit, of all receipts and disbursements shall be prepared and presented to each participating member.

(g) Any other necessary and proper matters agreed upon by the charter committee.

(3) The charter and all subsequent amendments thereto shall be duly executed by the governing bodies of all members and shall be filed with the Department of State, at which time the authority shall be activated and legally constituted.

(4) When the charter is filed with the Department of State, the Governor shall be notified that such action has been taken, and the Governor shall within 20 days appoint two members to the authority. Within 25 days from the filing of the charter, each member shall appoint its director or directors, and the first meeting of the authority shall be held.

(5) In addition to other funding as prescribed in this part, any member joining the authority shall agree to provide the authority with funds to be used only for planning and administration for a period not to exceed 5 years from such time as the authority was formally constituted. These total funds shall not exceed $300,000 per annum, and the cost shall be duly apportioned among the members by a ratio based on population. Any member may, of its own accord, pay more than its apportioned share of the funds.

(6) After the authority has been in existence for a period of not less than 12 months, municipalities having less than 50,000 population may be admitted as fully participating members if agreed upon by at least a three-fourths vote of all the members of the board of directors.

(7) Subsequent to the activation of the authority, contiguous counties, municipalities, or other political subdivisions not participating initially may become members of the authority with the same benefits as the initial members, upon approval by a majority vote of the board.

(8) The board of directors of the authority shall consist of at least one director representing each member, and two directors appointed by the Governor. In no event shall the board be composed of less than five directors, including the two appointed by the Governor. Each member shall initially appoint one director for a 3-year term. Of those members appointing more than one director, the remaining directors shall be appointed initially for a term of 2 years. Thereafter, all directors shall be appointed for 3-year terms.

(9) Each director shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and qualified. A vacancy occurring during a term shall be filled only for the balance of the unexpired term. The first directors shall be selected as provided above. An appointment to fill a vacancy shall be made within 20 days after the occurrence of the vacancy or before expiration of the term, whichever is applicable. If no appointment is made within the prescribed time by the appointing member, the board, by a majority vote, shall appoint an eligible person to the board with like effect as if the appointment were made by the member. However, if the board does not appoint an eligible person within 10 days, the appointment shall then be made by the Governor within 10 days thereafter. Any director shall be eligible for reappointment.

(10) The board shall elect one of its directors as chairman and one as vice chairman to serve for 1 year in that capacity or until their successors are elected. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum. A vacancy on the board shall not impair its right to exercise all of its powers and perform all of its duties. Any vacancy not filled within the period prescribed by this section shall be filled by appointment of the board. Upon the effective date of his appointment, or as soon thereafter as practicable, each director shall enter upon his duties.

(11) A director of the board may be removed from office by the Governor or by the appointing member for misconduct, malfeasance, misfeasance, or neglect of duty in office. Any vacancy so created shall be filled as provided above.

(12) The authority may employ an executive administrator, who shall be a person of recognized ability and experience, to serve at the pleasure of the authority. The executive administrator may employ such employees as may be necessary for the proper administration of the duties and functions of the authority and may determine the qualifications of such persons; however, the board shall approve such positions and fix compensation for employees. The authority may contract for the services of attorneys, engineers, consultants, and agents for any purpose of the authority, including engineering, architectural design, management, feasibility, transportation planning, and other studies concerning the design of facilities and the acquisition, construction, extension, operation, maintenance, regulation, consolidation, and financing of transportation systems in the area.

(13) Directors of the board shall be entitled to receive their traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in connection with the business of the authority, as provided in s. 112.061, but they shall receive no salaries or other compensation.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.568 Purposes and powers.—

(1) The authority created and established by this part is granted the authority to purchase, own, or operate, or provide for the operation of, transportation facilities; to contract for transit services; to exercise power of eminent domain limited to right-of-way and contiguous transportation facility acquisition and subject to any further limitations set forth in the authority charter; to conduct studies; and to contract with other governmental agencies, private companies and individuals. However, no public transportation system shall be purchased, owned, or operated that would be in the continued business of competing with existing private charter transportation companies for charter business, nor shall a new system be implemented where an existing transportation system of the same mode is operating a comparable service without first purchasing said existing system through negotiation.

(2) The authority is granted the authority to exercise all powers necessary, appurtenant, convenient, or incidental to the carrying out of the aforesaid purposes, including, but not limited to, the following rights and powers:

(a) To sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, complain and defend in all courts.

(b) To adopt, use, and alter at will a corporate seal.

(c) To acquire, purchase, hold, lease as a lessee, and use any franchise or property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible or intangible, or any interest therein, necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of the authority, and to sell, lease as lessor, transfer and dispose of any property or interest therein acquired by it.

(d) To fix, alter, charge, and establish rates, fares, and other charges for the services and facilities within the area, which rates, fees, and charges shall be equitable and just.

(e) To acquire and operate, or provide for the operation of, local transportation systems, public or private, within the area, the acquisition of such system to be by negotiation and agreement between the authority and the owner of the system to be acquired.

(f) To make contracts of every name and nature and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient for the carrying on of its business.

(g) To enter into management contracts with any person or persons for the management of a public transportation system owned or controlled by the authority for such period or periods of time, and under such compensation and other terms and conditions, as shall be deemed advisable by the authority.

(h) Without limitation, to borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness and to accept gifts or grants or loans of money or other property and to enter into contracts, leases, or other transactions with any federal agency, the state, any agency of the state, or any other public body of the state.

(i) To develop transportation plans, and to coordinate its planning and programs with those of appropriate municipal, county, and state agencies and other political subdivisions of the state. All transportation plans are subject to review and approval by the Department of Transportation and by the regional planning agency, if any, for consistency with programs or planning for the area and region.

(j) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient for the conduct of its business and the general welfare of the authority in order to carry out the powers granted to it by this part or any other law.

(k) To prescribe and promulgate necessary rules and regulations consistent with the provisions of this part and the requirements of chapter 120.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.569 Exemption from regulation.—The public transportation systems and facilities operating in and under the authority of this part shall be exempt from any of the regulatory provisions of chapters 323 and 350.

History.—s. 5, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.570 Special region taxation.—

(1) Any regional transportation authority created hereunder shall be deemed a special tax district and shall be authorized to levy an ad valorem tax based on full valuation of real property not to exceed 3 mills on the taxable real property in the areas affected by such authority, with the approval of the county commission or equivalent governing body of such area, at a rate sufficient to produce an amount that may be necessary for effectuating the purposes of this part, if such millage level is approved by a majority of the members of such authority and by referendum. Property taxes determined and levied under this section shall be certified by the authority to the appropriate auditor and extended, assessed, and collected in like manner as provided by general law for such political subdivisions. The proceeds under this section shall be remitted by the tax collector to the treasurer of the authority who shall credit them to the funds of the authority for use in effectuating the purposes of this part. At any time after making a tax levy under this section and certifying the same to the corresponding governing body represented by the membership on the authority, the authority may issue tax anticipation notes of indebtedness in anticipation of the collection of such taxes.

(2) No tax authorized by this part shall be levied unless the same shall be approved by a majority of the electors of each county, municipality, or other political subdivision, voting in elections to be held within the geographical area of the special tax district. A tax shall be authorized only in such political subdivisions as are approved by electors from within the counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions who are members of the regional authority.

History.—s. 6, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.571 Issuance of bonds.—Any transportation authority created hereunder may issue bonds to carry out the authorized powers or purposes of this part. In the creation of bonded indebtedness the procedure therefor shall be in conformity with the constitution and laws of the state.

History.—s. 7, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

163.572 Expansion of area.—Upon a resolution adopted by the governing body of any adjoining county, municipality, or other political subdivision, the authority may, subject to the provisions of s. 163.567(1), by a majority vote of its membership, include such territory in its regional transportation area.

History.—s. 8, ch. 71-373; s. 1, ch. 73-278.

PART V NEW COMMUNITIES

- 163.601 Short title.
- 163.602 Purpose.
- 163.603 Preemption; sole authority.
- 163.604 Definitions.
- 163.611 Establishment of district; petition.
- 163.612 Termination, contraction, or expansion of district.
- 163.613 Governing body; members and meetings.
- 163.621 General powers.
- 163.622 Special powers; public improvements and community facilities.
- 163.623 Special powers; special assessments and district taxes.
- 163.624 Special powers; borrowing.
- 163.631 Reports and reviews.
- 163.632 Disclosure of public financing.
- 163.633 Special acts prohibited.

163.601 Short title.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New Communities Act of 1975."

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204.

163.602 Purpose.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide local general-purpose government with the first opportunity to provide governmental services and to promote private initiative and voluntary participation in planned urbanization by authorizing new community districts in those areas of the state where, and for those services as to which, local general-purpose government has determined it presently cannot directly respond.

(2) The Legislature finds, in enacting this legislation, that new-community and large-scale development is a special function, based upon timely management of critical factors and sequential events, which requires a partnership between the expertise and management of private enterprise, the policy and priority considerations of local general-purpose government, and the overall public interest requirements of state and local government in combating duplication and proliferation of governmental bureaucracy and in seeing to it that any new growth pays for itself rather than burdening the established citizens and their local governments.

(3) In order to accomplish the purposes of this act, it is necessary for the state to develop, implement, coordinate, and enforce a "new communities" policy, and one essential element shall be a positive incentive for quality development through the mechanism of granting certain limited status as special improvement districts to private developers in order to operate, and finance the cost, delivery, and maintenance of, necessary predevelopment capital improvements such as water, sewer, road, and drainage systems and community facilities consistent with existing local facilities.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.603 Preemption; sole authority.—

(1) This act shall constitute the sole authorization for the future establishment of independent special districts having the power to provide the capital improvements for sewer, road, water management and supply, solid waste, and erosion control systems and community facilities for development of lands, except for independent special districts and municipal service taxing and benefit units established pursuant to chapters 125, 153, 163, and 298 and s. 1, Art. VIII of the State Constitution. All other independent special districts created by local ordinance or by a court or state agency order for these purposes shall, in the future, be established pursuant to this act and in accordance with chapter 165.

(2) This act shall not affect the existence or authority of special districts existing on October 1, 1975, except in those cases where the district or a petitioner, by action pursuant to this act, bring themselves within this act.

(3) This act shall not apply to the establishment of a special road and bridge district pursuant to the provisions of chapter 336 or to the extension of territorial boundaries of any such district existing on October 1, 1975, if the acreage to be included in such district or extension thereof is less than 1,000 acres and was owned by, or under contract on July 1, 1975, for acquisition by, the parties seeking creation of the district. This exemption shall apply only if all contiguous properties of such parties to be included in such district are included in the district or territorial extension thereof at the time of such creation or extension. The exemption granted by this subsection shall be deemed to apply only to the creation, with no territorial extension thereof, of a special road and bridge district pursuant to the above conditions or to one territorial extension of the boundaries of an existing district.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 76-147.

163.604 Definitions.—The following words and terms shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Ad valorem bonds" means bonds which are payable from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes levied on real and tangible personal property and are generally referred to as general obligation bonds.

(2) "Assessable improvements" includes, without limitation, any and all sewer systems, storm sewers and drains, water systems, streets, and roads of the new community district, or that portion or portions thereof local in nature and of special benefit to the premises or lands served thereby, and any and all modifications, improvements, and enlargements thereof.

(3) "Board" or "board of supervisors" means the governing board of that certain new community district, as herein defined, or, if such board be abolished, the board, body, or commission succeeding to the principal functions thereof or to whom the powers given by this act to the board shall be given by law.

(4) "Bond" includes "certificate," and provisions applicable to bonds shall be equally applicable to certificates. "Bond" includes general obligation bonds, assessment bonds, refunding bonds, revenue bonds, and other such obligations in the nature of bonds as are provided for in this act, as the case may be.

(5) "Cost," when used with reference to any project, includes but is not limited to:

(a) The expenses of determining the feasibility or practicability of acquisition, construction, or reconstruction.

(b) The cost of surveys, estimates, plans, and specifications.

(c) The cost of improvements.

(d) Engineering, fiscal, and legal expenses and charges.

(e) The cost of all labor, materials, machinery, and equipment.

(f) The cost of all lands, properties, rights, easements, and franchises acquired.

(g) Financing charges.

(h) The creation of initial reserve and debt service funds.

(i) Working capital.

(j) Interest charges incurred or estimated to be incurred on money borrowed prior to and during construction and acquisition and for such reasonable period of time after completion of construction or acquisition as the board may determine.

(k) The cost of issuance of bonds pursuant to this act, including advertisement and printing.

(l) The cost of any election held pursuant to this act and all other expenses of issuance of bonds.

(m) The discount, if any, on the sale or exchange of bonds.

(n) Administrative expenses.

(o) Such other expenses as may be necessary or incidental to the acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of any project, to the financing thereof, or to the development of any lands within the new community district.

(p) Reimbursement of any public or private body, person, or firm or corporation for any moneys advanced in connection with any of the foregoing items of cost.

Any obligation or expense incurred prior to the issuance of bonds in connection with the acquisition, construction, or reconstruction of any project or improvement thereon, or in connection with any other development of land that the board of the new community district shall determine to be necessary or desirable in carrying out the purposes of this act, may be treated as a part of such cost.

(6) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(7) "Elector" means a voter or qualified elector, as defined in subsection 97.021(5), who resides within the new community district.

(8) "General obligation bonds" means bonds which are secured by, or provide for their payment by, the pledge, in addition to those special taxes levied for their discharge and such other sources as may be provided for their payment or pledged as security under the resolution authorizing their issuance, of the full faith and credit and taxing power of the new community district and for payment of which recourse may be had against the general fund of the new community district.

(9) "Improvement bonds" means special obligations of the new community district which are payable solely from proceeds of the special assessments levied for an assessable project.

(10) "Landowner" means the owner of the freehold estate appearing in the official records, including trustees, private corporations, and owners of condominium units, but does not include reversioners, remaindermen, or mortgagees, who shall not be counted and need not be notified of proceedings under this act.

(11) "New community district" means a local or regional unit of special purpose government created pursuant to this act and limited to the purposes of performing those specialized functions specifically prescribed in this act, whose governing head is an independent body created, organized, constituted, and authorized to function specifically as prescribed in this act and whose location, formation, powers, governing body, operation, duration, accountability, requirements for disclosure, and termination are specifically set forth in this act.

(12) "Petitioner" means a landowner or private developer who is proposing the new community district.

(13) "Project" means any development, improvement, property, utility, facility, works, enterprise, or service, now existing or hereafter undertaken or established, under the provisions of this act.

(14) "Refunding bonds" means bonds issued to refinance outstanding bonds of any type and the interest and redemption premium thereon. Refunding bonds shall be issuable and payable in the same manner as the refinanced bonds, except that no approval by the electorate shall be required unless required by the State Constitution.

(15) "Revenue bonds" means obligations of the new community district which are payable from revenues derived from sources other than ad valorem taxes on real or tangible personal property and which do not pledge the property or credit of the new community district.

(16) "Sewer system" means any plant, system, facility, or property and additions, extensions, and improvements thereto at any future time constructed or acquired as part thereof, useful or necessary or having the present capacity for future use in connection with the collection, treatment, purification, or disposal of sewage, including without limitation industrial wastes resulting from any process of industry, manufacture, trade, or business or from the development of any natural resources and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall include:

(a) Treatment plants, pumping stations, lift stations, valves, force mains, intercepting sewers, laterals, pressure lines, mains, and all necessary appurtenances and equipment.

(b) All sewer mains, laterals, and other devices for the reception and collection of sewage from premises connected therewith.

(c) All real and personal property and any interest therein, rights, easements, and franchises of any nature whatsoever relating to any such system and necessary or convenient for operation thereof.

(17) "Water management and control facilities" means any lakes, canals, ditches, reservoirs, dams, levees, sluiceways, floodways, pumping stations, or any other works, structures, or facilities for the conservation, control, drainage, development, utilization, and disposal of water and any purposes appurtenant, necessary, or incidental thereto and includes all real and personal property and any interest therein, rights, easements, and franchises of any nature relating to any such water management and control facilities or necessary or convenient for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, operation, or maintenance thereof.

(18) "Water system" means any plant, system, facility, or property and additions, extensions, and improvements thereto at any future time constructed or acquired as part thereof, useful or necessary or having the present capacity for future use in connection with the development of sources, treatment, or purification and distribution of water and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes dams, reservoirs, storage tanks, mains, lines, valves, pumping stations, laterals, and pipes for the purpose of carrying water to the premises connected with such system and all rights, easements, and franchises of any nature whatsoever relating to any such system and necessary or convenient for the operation thereof.

(1)(a) A petition requesting establishment of a new community district shall be filed by the petitioner with the county having jurisdiction over the majority of land in the area in which the district is to be located. If all of the land in the area for the proposed district is within the territorial jurisdiction of a municipal corporation, then the petition requesting establishment of a new community district under this act shall be filed by the petitioner with that particular municipal corporation. In such event, the duties of the county, hereinafter described, in action upon the petition shall be the duties of the said municipal corporation. The petition shall be filed after the petitioner has secured an appropriate development order as a development of regional impact; however, the petitioner may process jointly the petition and an application for development of regional impact approval pursuant to chapter 380.

(b) The governing body of any special district in existence or any person therein who meets the requirements of a petitioner under this act may petition pursuant to this act for reestablishment of the existing district as a new community district pursuant to this act. In such case, the new district so formed shall assume the existing obligations, indebtedness, and guarantees of indebtedness of the district so subsumed, and the existing district shall be terminated.

(2) The petition shall contain:

(a) A legal description of the property to be included in the district and a listing, with the last known address, of all owners of real property within the general external boundaries of the district which are to be excluded from the district.

(b) A request for the specific governmental powers which the district will be authorized to assume pursuant to this act in addition to the general powers authorized pursuant to s. 163.621, including a statement describing the capacity of existing local facilities, the future use thereof, and the role of the new community district in providing for compatibility of facilities with local and regional services.

(c) A statement showing the creation of the district as being the best alternative available for delivering the specific services sought to be delivered and that the area is amenable to separate special district government.

(d) Specific statements showing compliance with the following standards:

1. The new community district shall consist of land which is sufficiently contiguous to be developable as one functional interrelated community, the total acreage of which shall not be less than 1,000 acres unless the land is wholly contained within one or more municipalities.

2. The petitioner shall have control, by deed, trust agreement, contract, or option, of 75 percent of the land to be included in the new community district.

3. The new community district shall be shown to have the capability to build facilities that will be compatible with the overall general-purpose government facilities in the land area involved.

4. There shall be a commitment to apply for, and accept, housing subsidy and assistance programs for low-income and moderate-income individuals in an amount not less than 5 percent or more than 25 percent, as provided in the ordinance, of the total residential units to be developed over the succeeding calendar year or some other period, not more than 5 years, agreed upon and stated in the ordinance creating such new community district.

5. There shall be a commitment to comply with all ecological, environmental, economic, and other governmental, procedural, and policy requirements of local and state general-purpose government.

(e) The proposed plan for termination.

(3) Upon receipt of the petition, the county shall request written comments and recommendations from adjacent local governments and the Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs, who shall notify all appropriate state agencies which the secretary determines have an interest in the proposed new community district. Such written comments and recommendations may be made available to the petitioner and to all affected local general-purpose governments.

(4)(a) Within 90 days after the petition is filed, a local hearing shall be held by the county. If the area proposed to be included in the district is under the jurisdiction of more than one unit of local general-purpose government, the county with whom the petition is filed shall convene and conduct a joint hearing of all units with jurisdiction over any of the area proposed to be included. Notice of the hearing shall be sent to all agencies receiving notices of the petition, all persons owning property within the proposed district, and any other person who has filed a request for such notice with the county or Secretary of the Department of Community Affairs. Notice shall be further provided by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected no less than 7 or more than 14 days in advance of such hearing. Transfer of control of the land to petitioner or written approval or consent by a landowner or agency, filed with the petition, shall constitute a waiver of the specific notice requirement contained in this paragraph.

(b) All relevant information, studies, data, comments, and recommendations received by the county shall be presented at the hearing. Interested persons shall be heard concerning establishment of the district. Petitioner, or any interested party, may request that the hearing and all testimony and evidence introduced thereat be transcribed by a certified court reporter at his own expense. Such transcript, together with the minutes of the meeting, shall be the official record of the hearing.

(5)(a) Within 45 days after the hearing, after consideration of all the comments and recommendations received, and after determining that the proposed new community district and development conform to this section, the county shall make, by non-emergency ordinance or, if more than one county is involved, by joint ordinance, a final ordinance granting or denying establishment of the district and, if the petition is granted, specifying the powers authorized the district in addition to the general powers granted by s. 163.621. Failure to enact an ordinance within the specified time may be considered a denial for the purposes of any appeal authorized under subsection (7). If a county fails to enact an ordinance or denies a petition, it shall set forth in writing the reasons for its failure to act or its denial. The ordinance shall be filed with the Department of State, the board of the local governing body or bodies affected, and the Department of Community Affairs.

(b) Such ordinance shall not be effective within the boundaries of any municipality if such municipality, within 45 days, specifically excludes the area by ordinance. In such case, the district boundaries shall be deemed amended to exclude any such area.

(6) The ordinance creating the district may be amended upon petition of the district board pursuant to the same procedures as the initial establishment, except the provisions of paragraphs (2)(a) and (c) need not apply.

(7) The petitioner may appeal the unreasonable denial of a petition creating a new community district for services which the county will not timely perform to the circuit court for the county in which the petition was made. Denial of a petition shall be unreasonable where the developer has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that creation of a district pursuant to this act is necessary to the implementation of permits or approvals for such development previously received by the developer from the county or municipality. The circuit court may provide such injunctive or other relief as may be necessary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.612 Termination, contraction, or expansion of district.—

(1) The district may contract or expand its boundaries by petition of either the governing body or the owner of lands to be included or excluded. The petition shall be made in the same manner and shall have the same effect as a petition under s. 163.611; however, the standards for annexation and contraction of a municipality pursuant to chapter 171 shall be additionally applied.

(2) The district may merge with other districts pursuant to subsection 165.041(4).

(3) The district shall remain in existence unless one of the following methods of termination is exercised at any time following the first replacement of a member appointed by the petitioner pursuant to paragraph 163.613(1)(c) or such shorter time provided in the ordinance, in addition to the preferred method set forth in the ordinance creating it:

(a) Upon meeting the standards of ss. 171.042 and 171.043, and upon assumption of the district's debt and any guarantee of such debt as provided in s. 165.071, a municipality may annex all the land included in the district by ordinance.

(b) Upon providing any one or all of those services offered by the district at a similar level, and upon assumption of the district's debt and any guarantee of such debt related to the services assumed as provided in s. 165.071, a county may merge, by non-emergency ordinance, all the land included in the district into its system for delivering such services.

(c) Upon meeting the requirements of s. 165.061, the governing body of the district shall propose a charter incorporating the area as a municipality to the legislative delegation representing the area.

(d) In the event the district has become inactive pursuant to s. 165.052, the board of county commissioners shall be informed and it shall take appropriate action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 30, ch. 79-164.

163.613 Governing body; members and meetings.—

(1)(a) The governing body of the district shall consist of five members, to be composed of two members appointed to represent the interests of the local citizenry by the county with jurisdiction over the area included within the district or, if more than one county or a municipality is affected, by a joint agreement as specified in the ordinance creating the district, and three members appointed by the petitioner to serve as his representatives to insure completion of the project. It shall not be deemed a conflict of interest under chapter 74-177, Laws of Florida, for an employee or stockholder of the petitioner to serve as a supervisor of the district.

(b) Members shall serve 4-year overlapping terms, with one each of the initial citizen and petitioner members appointed to serve initial 2-year terms.

(c) Members appointed by the petitioner shall be replaced by citizen members who reside in the district and are appointed by the county with jurisdiction over the area included within the district:

1. At a population level specified in the ordinance, or

2. According to a schedule calculated to achieve one such replacement each time the new community gains a proportion equal to one-third of its projected total population or has one-third of its platted residential lots deeded, whichever occurs first.

(2) Members of the district board, to be known as supervisors, entering into office shall take and subscribe to the oath of office as prescribed by law and shall hold office for the terms for which they are elected or appointed and until their successors are chosen and qualified. In case of a vacancy in office, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original office for the remainder of the term, unless the office is an elective one with less than 28 months remaining in the term thereof, in which case the remaining members of the board may fill the vacancy by appointment.

(3) A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action taken by the district shall be upon a vote of a majority of the members present unless state law, the local ordinance creating the district, or a rule of the district requires a larger number.

(4) As soon as practicable after each election or appointment, the board shall organize by electing one of its members as chairman and by electing a secretary, who need not be a member of the board, and such other officers as the board may deem necessary.

(5) The board shall keep a permanent record book entitled "Record of Proceedings of (Name) New Community District," in which shall be recorded minutes of all meetings, resolutions, proceedings, certificates, bonds given by all employees, and any and all corporate acts, which book shall at reasonable times be open to inspection in the same manner as state, county, and municipal records pursuant to chapter 119, as well as to such other persons as the board may determine to have proper interest in the proceedings of the board. Such record book shall be kept at any office or other regular place of business maintained by the board in the county or municipality in which the new community district is located.

(6) All meetings shall be open to the public and governed by the provisions of chapter 286.

(7) Each supervisor shall be entitled to receive for his services an amount not to exceed $100 per month. In addition, each supervisor shall receive travel and per diem expenses as set forth in s. 112.061.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.621 General powers.—A new community district established pursuant to this part shall have, in addition to any special powers as may hereinafter be authorized by the ordinance creating such district or subsequently amended, all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes for which it was established, including the following general powers:

(1) To sue and be sued in the name of the district; to adopt and use a seal and authorize the use of a facsimile thereof; to acquire real and personal property or any estate therein by purchase, gift, devise, or otherwise; and to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers.

(2) To employ and fix the compensation of a district manager who shall have charge and supervision of the works of the district and who may hire or otherwise employ and terminate the employment of such other persons, including, without limitation, professional, supervisory, and clerical, as may be necessary and authorized by the board. It shall not be deemed a conflict of interest under chapter 74-177, Laws of Florida, for an employee or stockholder of the petitioner to serve as an employee of the district. The compensation and other conditions of employment of such officers and employees shall be as provided by the board and shall not be governed by any rule applicable to state employees in the classified service unless the board, with the approval of the Secretary of the Department of Administration, so provides.

(3) To apply for coverage of its employees under the State Retirement System in the same manner as if such employees were state employees, subject to necessary action by the district to pay employer contributions into the State Retirement Fund.

(4) To authorize compensation for members of the district board for per diem, travel, and other reasonable expenses for meetings, hearings, and other official business, consistent with s. 112.061.

(5) To contract for the services of consultants to perform planning, engineering, legal, or other appropriate services of a professional nature. Such contracts shall be subject to the requirements of the state law relating to public bidding.

(6) To borrow money and accept gifts; apply for and use grants or loans of money or other property from the United States, the state, a local unit of government, or any person for any district purposes and enter into agreements required in connection therewith; and hold, use, and dispose of such moneys or property for any district purposes in accordance with the terms of the gift, grant, loan, or agreement relating thereto.

(7) To adopt bylaws, rules, resolutions, and orders, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 120, prescribing the powers, duties, and functions of the officers of the district, the conduct of the business of the district, the maintenance of records, and the form of certificates evidencing tax liens and all other documents and records of the district. The board may adopt administrative rules and regulations with respect to any of the projects of the district and define the area to be included therein on such notice as is required for elections and public hearings.

(8) To maintain an office at such place or places as it may designate within or without the district.

(9) To make use of any public easements, dedications to public use, platted reservations for public purposes, or reservations for specific public purposes within the boundaries of the district for those purposes authorized by the district.

(10) To lease as lessor or lessee to or from any person, firm, corporation, association, or body, public or private, any projects of the type that the district is authorized to undertake and facilities or property of any nature for the use of the district to carry out any of the purposes of this act or the ordinance authorizing such district.

(11) To borrow money and issue bonds, certificates, warrants, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness as hereinafter provided; to levy such tax and special assessments as may be authorized; to charge, collect, and enforce fees and other user charges; and to establish a budget and fiscal year in conformance with chapter 218.

(12) To raise, by user charges or fees authorized by resolution of the board, amounts of money which are necessary for the conduct of district activities and services and enforce their receipt and collection in the manner prescribed by resolution of the board not inconsistent with law.

(13) To exercise the right and power of eminent domain, pursuant to the provisions of chapters 73 and 74, over any property within the state, except municipal, county, state, and federal property, for the uses and purposes of the district relating solely to water, sewers, roads, and drainage, specifically including, without limitation, the power for the taking of easements for the drainage of the land of one person over and through the land of another.

(14) To cooperate or contract with other governmental agencies as may be necessary, convenient, incidental, or proper in connection with any of the powers, duties, or purposes of the district as stated in this act or by the ordinance creating such district.

(15) To exercise such special powers as may be authorized by the ordinance creating such district pursuant to ss. 163.622-163.624.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.622 Special powers; public improvements and community facilities.—The district shall have, concurrent within the boundaries of the district with other public bodies and agencies and subject to the regulatory jurisdiction and approval of any regulatory bodies and agencies, and the board may exercise any or all of the following special powers relating to public improvements and community facilities as may be specifically authorized by the ordinance creating such district or as it may be amended from time to time, namely, the power:

(1) To plan, establish, acquire, construct or reconstruct, enlarge or extend, equip, operate, and maintain systems and facilities for:

(a) Water management and control for the lands within the district and to connect some or any of such facilities with roads and bridges as in the judgment of the board is deemed advisable to provide access.

(b) Water supply, sewer and waste water management, or any combination thereof and to construct and operate connecting, intercepting, or outlet sewers and sewer mains and pipes and water mains, conduits, or pipelines in, along, and under any streets, alleys, highways, or other public places or ways within the district when deemed necessary or desirable by the board.

(c) Waste collection and disposal and to sell or otherwise dispose of any effluent, residue, or other byproducts of such system or sewer system.

(d) Bridges or culverts that may be needed in the district across any drain, ditch, canal, floodway, holding basin, excavation, public highway, tract, grade, fill, or cut and roadways over levees and embankments, and to construct any and all of said works and improvements across, through, or over any public right-of-way highway, grade, fill, or cut in the district.

(e) Highways, streets, roads, alleys, sidewalks, storm drains, bridges, and public thoroughfares of all kinds and descriptions, hereinafter collectively and severally referred to as "public roads," and connections to any extensions of any and all existing public roads within the district, deemed necessary or convenient by the board to provide access to, and efficient development of, the territory within the district and as may from time to time be deemed appropriate by the board to be adequate to service the district and its residential, park, recreational, commercial, and industrial areas, with such public roads to be equal to or exceed the specifications or requirements of the county in which such public roads are located.

(f) Indoor and outdoor recreational, cultural, and educational uses.

(g) Fire prevention and control, including fire stations, water mains and plugs, fire trucks, and other vehicles and equipment.

(h) Police and school buildings and related structures for use in the law enforcement and educational system, when authorized by proper governmental agencies.

(i) Common, private, or contract carriers, buses, vehicles, railroads, monorails, airplanes, helicopters, boats and any others, including transportation facilities and devices, whether now or hereafter invented or developed.

(j) Community redevelopment and to exercise any power and duty authorized to a community redevelopment agency pursuant to s. 163.425 and part III of this chapter.

(k) Industrial development and to exercise any power and duty authorized an industrial development authority pursuant to s. 159.45 and part III of chapter 159.

(2) To regulate, prohibit, and restrict, by appropriate resolution following the procedures of chapter 120 and in connection with the provision of one or more services through its systems and facilities:

(a) All structures, materials, and things, whether solid, liquid, or gas and whether permanent or temporary in nature, which come upon, come into, connect to, or are a part of any facility owned or operated by the district, limited to water, sewer, or surface water management.

(b) The supply and level of water within the district, including:

1. The diversion of waters from one area, lake, pond, river or stream, basin, and water control facility to another.

2. The control and restrictions of the development and use of natural or artificial streams or bodies of water, lakes, or ponds.

3. The taking of all measures determined by the board to be necessary or desirable to prevent or alleviate land erosion.

(c) The use of sewers and the supply of water within the district and the use and maintenance of outhouses, privies, septic tanks, or other sanitary structures or appliances within the district, including the prescription of methods in pretreatment of wastes not amenable to treatment with domestic sewage before accepting such wastes for treatment and to refuse to accept such wastes when not sufficiently pretreated as may be prescribed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.623 Special powers; special assessments and district taxes.—The district shall have, and the board may exercise, any or all of the following special powers relating to special assessments and district taxes as may be specifically authorized by the ordinance creating such district or as it may be amended from time to time and, if required, by referendum of the electors of such district, namely, the power:

(1) To assess, impose, and foreclose special assessment liens upon lands in the district for the costs of projects benefiting such lands in proportion to the benefits received by such land, as provided in chapters 170 and 173 or their successors.

(2) To assess, levy, and collect annual maintenance taxes based upon a footage or other equitable basis for the maintenance costs of those services requiring such maintenance.

(3) To levy and collect ad valorem taxes as may be required for general obligation or ad valorem debt service and for other purposes as may be authorized by vote of the electors.

Such special assessments and taxes shall be collected in the same manner and subject to the conditions as are special assessments and taxes of the county or, in the case of special assessments, may be collected as may be specifically authorized under chapters 170 and 173 and consistent with the authority granted by the ordinance establishing the district, as amended.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

(1) The district board may borrow money, contract loans, and issue bonds as defined in s. 163.604 from time to time to finance the undertaking of any capital or other project for the purposes permitted by the ordinance creating the district and by the State Constitution and may pledge the funds, credit, property, and taxing power of the district for the payment of such debts and bonds as hereinafter provided.

(2)(a) Bonds issued under this part shall be authorized by resolution of the district board and, if required by the State Constitution, by affirmative vote of the electors of the district. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates; be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times; bear interest at such rate or rates; be in such denomination or denominations; be in such form, registered or not, with or without coupon; carry such conversion or registration privileges; have such rank or priority; be executed in such manner; be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places; be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium; be secured in such manner; and have such other characteristics as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto.

(b) The district board shall determine the terms and manner of sale and distribution or other disposition of any and all bonds it may issue and shall have any and all powers necessary or convenient to such disposition.

(c) Any general obligation or ad valorem bond which is not a secondary pledge to an issue of special assessment or revenue bonds shall, in addition to being authorized by resolution, be further specifically approved by the local governing authority, individually or, if more than one, jointly, having jurisdiction over the area included in the district.

(d) The district board may establish and administer such sinking funds as it deems necessary or convenient for the payment, purchase, or redemption of any outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district.

(e) The district board may levy ad valorem taxes upon real and tangible personal property within the district as it deems necessary to make payment, including principal and interest, upon the general obligation and ad valorem bonded indebtedness of the district or into any sinking funds created under paragraph (d).

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204.

163.631 Reports and reviews.—

(1) The district shall provide financial reports in such form and such manner as prescribed pursuant to chapter 218.

(2) The district shall prepare an annual report on its activities and shall furnish such to the Governor, the presiding officers of the Legislature, the Department of Community Affairs, the presiding officers of the governing bodies of the units of local, general-purpose government and any water management district created under chapter 373 within its boundaries, and, upon payment of a fee if such be established by the district, to any interested person. Such report shall include:

(a) A financial statement in the form provided for financial reporting to the state.

(b) The budget for the year in which the report is filed, including an outline of its programs and activities for such period.

(c) Any other information deemed necessary by the district or which the Department of Community Affairs may require under a rule established pursuant to the provisions of chapter 120.

(3) Prior to September 1 of each year, the district manager shall prepare and submit to the district board and to all units of local general-purpose government and any water management district created under chapter 373 having jurisdiction over lands in the district a proposed annual budget for the next fiscal year. Not later than October 1, the district board shall adopt its annual budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

(4) The district board shall make provision for an annual independent postaudit of its financial records. The Auditor General of the state is hereby instructed and authorized to make such audit pursuant to chapter 11.

(5)(a) The district board shall, at least 60 days prior to adoption, submit the proposed annual budget for the ensuing fiscal year and any long-term financial plan or program to the local governing authorities having jurisdiction over the area included in the district and shall further submit any other plans or programs of the district for future operations.

(b) The local governing authorities may review the proposed annual budget and any long-term financial plan or program and make comments and recommendations thereon. Any other plans or programs of the district for future operations may be reviewed pursuant to the same procedure and to the same extent as future plans or programs of the local government pursuant to its policies.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204.

163.632 Disclosure of public financing.—

(1) The district shall take affirmative steps to provide for the full disclosure of information relating to the public financing and maintenance of improvements to real property pursuant to this act. Such information shall be provided by platted residential units and in such other formats as may be necessary.

(2) The petitioner and any subsequent purchaser for the sole purpose of resale shall provide for adequate financial disclosure of the method of public financing in order to allow comparative shopping by prospective purchasers.

(3) The Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums in the Department of Business Regulation shall assure that disclosures made pursuant to chapter 478 meet the requirements of this section.

(4) The Department of Community Affairs, in conjunction with the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums, shall keep a current list of districts and their disclosures pursuant to this act and shall make such studies and reports and take such actions, including filing with the Department of Legal Affairs, as it deems necessary.

(5) The district shall not finance any improvement for which property purchasers have been charged by contract or otherwise and have paid such charge to the developer without a specific finding as to the amount of such purchasers' contribution or payment and payment by the developer of an amount equal to such contribution or payment to the district.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-204; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

163.633 Special acts prohibited.—Pursuant to s. 11(a)(21), Art. III of the State Constitution, the Legislature hereby prohibits special laws pertaining to the future creation of independent special districts for any of the purposes set forth in this act.

History.—s. 2, ch. 75-204.

Note.—Chapter 75-204 passed both houses by the requisite three-fifths vote. See s. 11(a)(21), Art. III, State Const.

PART VI

ADVISORY COUNCIL ON INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

- 163.701 Short title.
- 163.702 Findings and purpose.
- 163.703 Council created.
- 163.704 Membership.
- 163.705 Functions and duties.
- 163.7055 Relationship to federal-state intergovernmental relations and activities.

- 163.706 Meetings, hearings, committees.
- 163.707 Staff.
- 163.708 Finances.

163.701 Short title.—This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340.

163.702 Findings and purpose.—

(1) The Legislature finds and declares that there is a need for an official body to:

(a) Involve local and state officials in an advisory capacity to the executive and legislative branches of state government.

(b) Study problems of the intergovernmental aspects of governmental structure, finance, functional performance, and relationships at the local, regional, state, and interstate levels.

(c) Recommend solutions to intergovernmental problems.

(d) Establish a regular system of reporting to state and local public officials on the progress of Florida and its political subdivisions toward meeting their intergovernmental responsibilities.

(e) Encourage and recommend methods of effective and efficient delivery of services at the state and local levels through services integration and combination of complementary services delivery functions.

(f) Assume such responsibilities for administering, coordinating, or providing intergovernmental services as may be required by the Legislature or Governor.

(g) Provide the Legislature, the Governor, and other interested parties with advice on intergovernmental concerns.

(2) It is the purpose of this part to improve the coordination and cooperation among the state and its local governments, other states, and the Federal Government through the establishment of a permanent Florida Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340.

163.703 Council created.—There is hereby created a Florida Advisory Council on Intergovernmental Relations, hereafter referred to as the "council."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340.

163.704 Membership.—

(1) The council shall be composed of 17 members as follows:

(a) Four members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate.

(b) Four members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(c) Nine members appointed by the Governor from elected and appointed state and local officials and other interested citizens.

(2) Each member of the council who is a public officer shall perform the duties of a member of the council as additional duties required of him in his other official capacity.

(3) Legislative members shall be appointed to terms which correspond to their terms of office. All other members shall be appointed to staggered 4-year terms. All members may be reappointed.

(4) The council shall elect a chairman from among its legislator members and a vice chairman and such other officers as it may deem necessary. The chairman and vice chairman shall serve for 1 year and may be reelected. If both the chairman and vice chairman are absent at any meeting, the voting members present shall elect a temporary chairman by a majority vote.

(5) If a representative of the counties or of the cities or a legislator ceases to be an officer or member of the unit he is appointed to represent, his membership on the commission shall terminate immediately and there will be a vacancy in the membership. Within 30 days, such vacancy shall be filled in the manner of the regular appointment, and the person so appointed shall serve only to the end of the unexpired term and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

(6) The presiding officers of the Legislature should be guided in their appointments by consideration of the legislators' expertise, interest, and experience, including legislative committee service in the field of intergovernmental relations.

(7) Nine of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340; s. 1, ch. 78-241; s. 80, ch. 79-400.

163.705 Functions and duties.—

(1) The council is authorized to:

(a) Serve as a forum for the discussion and study of intergovernmental problems.

(b) To the extent not otherwise provided by law, evaluate on a continuous basis the interrelationships among local, regional, state, interstate, and federal agencies in the provision of public services to the citizens of Florida and, as appropriate, prepare studies and recommendations to improve organizational structure, operational efficiency, allocation of functional responsibilities, delivery of services, and related matters.

(c) Analyze the structure, functions, revenue requirements, and fiscal policies of Florida and its political subdivisions; conduct studies of economic, administrative, tax, and revenue matters for all levels of state government; and make recommendations for improvement.

(d) Examine proposed and existing federal and state programs, assess their impact upon Florida and its political subdivisions, and provide such assessments and recommendations, when appropriate, to the Legislature, the Governor, or any other group, public or private, whose activities affect intergovernmental relations.

(e) Encourage and, when appropriate, coordinate studies relating to intergovernmental relations conducted by universities; state, local, and federal agencies; and research and consulting organizations.

(f) Review the recommendations of national commissions studying federal, state, and local government relationships and problems and assess their possible application to Florida.

(g) Issue annual reports of its findings and recommendations to be transmitted to the Governor and the presiding officer of each house of the Legislature not less than 30 days prior to the convening of each regular session of the Legislature. Such reports shall set forth the reasons and supporting data for each recommendation and shall include draft legislation to implement such recommendations. Recommendations regarding economic and taxation issues shall be accompanied by supportive analyses of economic data. The council may issue special or interim reports on specific subjects as it may deem appropriate.

(h) Review and assess the work and recommendations of the federal Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations and report such assessments to that body.

(2) The council is authorized to apply for, contract for, receive, and expend for its purposes any appropriations or grants from the state or its political subdivisions, the Federal Government, or any other source, public or private.

(3) As soon as practicable after the enactment or adoption of any new state program or increase in the level of services rendered in an existing program, which action substantially increases the expenditures of or reduces the revenue or revenue-producing ability of counties or municipalities, the council shall analyze such action. The council shall send its analysis and report thereon to the Governor and presiding officers of the Legislature no later than 30 days prior to the convening of the next regular legislative session. Each analysis shall include the council's recommendation and its identification of new sources of revenue required to fund the increased cost of, or to offset the revenue loss incurred because of, the action.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 77-340; s. 2, ch. 78-241.

163.7055 Relationship to federal-state intergovernmental relations and activities.—The primary role of the council shall be to study the relationships between state and local government. To the extent that these relationships affect federal-state intergovernmental relations, the council is directed to coordinate and cooperate with the Executive Office of the Governor and any other agency or activity concerned with federal-state relationships.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340; s. 92, ch. 79-190.

163.706 Meetings, hearings, committees.—

(1) The council shall hold meetings at least semi-annually at the call of the chairman and may meet at such other times as it deems necessary. The council may hold hearings from time to time on matters within its purview that it deems to be in the public interest. All meetings and hearings shall be open to the public and shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 286.

(2) Each officer, board, commission, council, department, or agency of state government and each political subdivision of the state shall, when not inconsistent with any law, rule, or regulation regarding confidentiality, make available all facts, records, information, and data requested by the council and in all ways cooperate with the council in carrying out the functions and duties imposed by this part.

(3) The council may establish committees as it deems advisable and feasible, the membership of which may or may not be made up, in whole, from members of the council.

(4) The council shall promulgate rules of procedure governing its operations in accordance with the provisions of chapter 120.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340; s. 3, ch. 78-241.

(1) The council shall employ and set the compensation of an executive director, who shall serve at its pleasure. Within available funds, the executive director may employ and set the compensation of professional, technical, legal, or clerical staff as may be necessary, and may remove these personnel. The executive director, with the consent of the council, may acquire the services of consultants and enter into contracts on behalf of the council.

(2) The staff of the council shall be governed by the same rules as are the personnel of the Legislature and shall receive the same rights and benefits accruing to legislative personnel. The council staff shall be members of the Florida Retirement System, and the council shall make employer contributions for this purpose.

(3) Upon request of the council, the Joint Legislative Management Committee is directed to provide such office space and equipment as the council deems necessary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-340.

163.708 Finances.—

(1) A member of the council is not entitled to a salary for duties performed as a member of the council, except that the members, other than public officers, shall receive the per diem authorized for legislators, and each member is entitled to reimbursement for travel and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties.

(2) Political subdivisions of the state are authorized to appropriate funds to the council to share in the cost of operations.

(3) Any requests by the Legislature for the performance of specific functions or studies requiring additional staff or expenses beyond the basic annual appropriations shall be accompanied by funds for such purposes.

(4) After the initial appropriation for the first year, the funding of this council will be part of the continuing legislative appropriation.

- 165.091 Department of Community Affairs; general powers and duties.
- 165.092 Local government service delivery; special studies.
- 165.093 All state and local agencies to cooperate in administration of chapter.

165.011 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Formation of Local Governments Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.021 Purpose.—The purpose of this act is to provide standards, direction, and procedures for the formation of local governmental units in this state and the provision of local governmental services so as to:

- (1) Allow orderly patterns of urban growth and land use.
- (2) Assure adequate quality and quantity of local public services.
- (3) Insure financial integrity of units of local government.
- (4) Eliminate or reduce avoidable and undesirable differentials in fiscal capacity among neighboring local governmental jurisdictions.
- (5) Promote equity in the financing of local government services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.022 Preemption; effect on special laws.—It is further the purpose of this act to provide viable and usable general law standards and procedures for forming and dissolving municipalities and special districts in lieu of any procedure or standards now provided by general or special law. The provisions of this act shall be the exclusive procedure pursuant to general law for forming or dissolving municipalities and special districts in this state except in those counties operating under a home rule charter which provides for an exclusive method as specifically authorized by s. 6(e), Art. VIII of the State Constitution. Any provisions of a general or special law existing on July 1, 1974 in conflict with the provisions of this act shall not be effective to the extent of such conflict.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.031 Definitions.—The following terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Unit of local government" means any local general purpose government or special district.

(2) "Local general purpose government" means a county, municipality, or consolidated city-county government.

(3) "County" means a political subdivision of the state established pursuant to s. 1, Art. VIII of the State Constitution.

(4) "Municipality" means a municipality created pursuant to general or special law authorized or recognized pursuant to s. 2 or s. 6, Art. VIII of the State Constitution.

(5) "Special district" means a local unit of special government created pursuant to general or special law for the purposes of performing prescribed, specialized functions within limited boundaries.

(6) "Department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(7) "Formation" means any one of the four following activities:

(a) "Incorporation"—The establishment of a municipality.

(b) "Creation"—The establishment of a special district.

(c) "Dissolution"—The dissolving of the corporate statutes of a municipality or special district.

(d) "Merger"—The merging of two or more municipalities with each other and with any unincorporated areas authorized pursuant to this act to form a new municipality; the merging of one or more municipalities or special districts, in any combination thereof, with each other; or the merging of one or more counties with one or more special districts.

(8) "Service delivery" means any mechanism used by a unit of local government to provide governmental services.

(9) "Newspaper of general circulation" means a newspaper printed in the language most commonly spoken in the area within which it circulates, which is readily available for purchase by all inhabitants in its area of circulation, but does not include a newspaper intended primarily for members of a particular professional or occupational group, a newspaper whose primary function is to carry legal notices, or a newspaper that is given away primarily to distribute advertising.

(10) "Parties affected" means any person owning property or residing either in a municipality or special district proposing a formation or in the territory that is proposed for a formation or any governmental unit with jurisdiction over such area.

(11) "Qualified voter" means any person registered to vote in accordance with law.

(12) "Sufficiency of petition" means the verification of the signatures and addresses of all signers of a petition with the voting list maintained by the county supervisor of elections and certification that the number of valid signatures represents the required percentage of the total number of qualified voters in the area affected by a proposal pursuant to this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.041 Formation procedures; incorporation, creation, and merger.—

(1) A charter for incorporation of a municipality, except in case of a merger which is adopted as otherwise provided herein, shall be adopted only by a special act of the Legislature upon determination that the standards herein provided have been met.

(2) A charter for creation of a special district shall be adopted only by special act of the legislature or by ordinance of a county or municipal governing body having jurisdiction over the area affected.

(3)(a) A charter for merger of two or more municipalities and associated unincorporated areas may also be adopted by passage of a concurrent ordinance by the governing bodies of each municipality affected, approved by a vote of the qualified voters in each area affected.

(b) The ordinance shall provide for:

1. The charter and its effective date.
2. The financial or other adjustments required.
3. A referendum for separate majorities by each unit or area to be affected.

4. The date of election, which should be the next regularly scheduled election or a special election held prior to such election, if approved by a majority of the members of the governing body of each governmental unit affected, but no sooner than 30 days after passage of the ordinance.

(c) Notice of the election shall be published at least once a week for the 4 successive weeks immediately prior to the election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the area to be affected. Such notice shall give the time and places for the election and a description of the area to be included in the municipality, with such description to be in metes and bounds and to include a map to show clearly the area to be covered by the municipality.

(4) The merger of one or more municipalities or counties with special districts, or of two or more special districts, may also be adopted by passage of a concurrent ordinance or, in the case of special districts, resolution by the governing bodies of each unit to be affected.

(5)(a) Initiation of procedures for an incorporation or merger may be done either by adoption of a resolution by the governing body of an area to be affected or by a petition of 10 percent of the qualified voters in the area.

(b) If a petition has been filed with the clerks of the governing bodies concerned, the governing bodies shall immediately undertake a study of the feasibility of the formation proposal and shall, within 6 months, either adopt an ordinance under subsection (3) or subsection (4) or reject the petition, specifically stating the facts upon which the rejection is based.

(c) The purpose of this subsection is to provide broad citizen involvement in both initiating and developing their local government; therefore, establishment of appropriate citizen advisory committees, as well as other mechanisms for citizen involvement, by the governing bodies of the units affected is specifically authorized and encouraged.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.051 Dissolution procedures.—

(1) The charter of any existing municipality or special district may be revoked and the municipal or special district corporation dissolved by either:

(a) A special act of the Legislature; or

(b) An ordinance of the governing body of the municipality or special district, approved by a vote of the qualified voters.

(2) If a vote of the qualified voters is required, the governing body of the municipality or special district or, if the municipal or special district governing body does not act within 30 days, the governing body of the county or counties in which the municipality or special district is located shall set the date of the election, which shall be the next regularly scheduled election or a special election held prior to such election, if approved by a majority of the members of the governing body of each governmental unit affected, but no sooner than 30 days after passage of the ordinance. Notice of the election shall be published at least once a week for the 4 successive weeks prior to the election in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality or special district.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.052 Special dissolution procedures.—

(1) The Secretary of State by proclamation shall declare inactive any municipality or special district in this state upon a report being filed by the department which shall show that such municipality or special district is no longer active, based upon a finding:

(a) That the municipality has not conducted an election for membership in its legislative body within the 4 years immediately preceding, or as otherwise provided by law; or

(b) That the special district has not had appointed or elected a governing body within the 4 years immediately preceding or as otherwise provided by law or has not operated within the 2 years immediately preceding; and

(c) That a notice of the proposed proclamation has been published once a week for 4 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county

wherein the territory of the municipality or special district is located, stating the name of said municipality or special district, the law under which it was organized and operating, a general description of the territory included in said municipality or special district, and stating that any objections to the proposed proclamation or to any debts of said municipality or special district shall be filed not later than 60 days following the date of last publication with the department; and

(d) That 60 days have elapsed from the last publication date of the notice of proposed proclamation and no sustained objections have been filed.

(2) The state agency charged with collecting financial information from municipalities and special districts shall report to the Department of State and the Department of Community Affairs any municipality or special district which has failed to file a report within the time set by law.

(3) If any municipality or special district declared inactive pursuant to this section owes any debt at the time of proclamation, any property or assets of such unit, or which belonged thereto at the time of such proclamation, shall be subject to legal process for payment of such debt. After the payment of all the debts of said inactive municipal or special district corporation, the remainder of its property or assets shall escheat to the county wherein located. If, however, it shall be necessary, in order to pay any such debt, to levy any tax or taxes on the property in the territory or limits of the inactive municipality or special district, the same may be assessed and levied by order of the county commissioners of the county wherein the same is situated, and shall be assessed by the county property appraiser and collected by the county tax collector. The proceedings in the assessment, collection, receipt, and disbursements of such taxes shall be like the proceedings concerning county taxes as far as applicable.

(4) Any special law authorizing the incorporation or creation, or relating only to the powers or duties, of any municipality or special district proclaimed inactive hereunder shall be reported by the Governor to the presiding officers of both houses of the Legislature. The proclamation of inactive status shall be sufficient notice as required by s. 10, Art. III of the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature to repeal any special laws so reported.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

165.061 Standards for incorporation, creation, merger, and dissolution.—

(1) The incorporation of a new municipality, other than through merger of existing municipalities, must meet the following conditions in the area proposed for incorporation:

(a) It must be compact and contiguous and amenable to separate municipal government.

(b) It must have a total population, as determined in the latest official state census, special census, or estimate of population, in the area proposed to be incorporated of at least 1,500 persons in counties with a population of less than 50,000, and of at least 5,000 population in counties with a population of more than 50,000.

(c) It must have an average population density of at least 1.5 persons per acre or have extraordinary conditions requiring the establishment of a municipal corporation with less existing density.

(d) It must have a minimum distance of any part of the area proposed for incorporation from the boundaries of an existing municipality within the county of at least 2 miles or have an extraordinary natural boundary which requires separate municipal government.

(e) It must have a proposed municipal charter which:

1. Prescribes the form of government and clearly defines the responsibility for legislative and executive functions.

2. Does not prohibit the legislative body of the municipality from exercising its powers to levy any tax authorized by the Constitution or general law.

(2) The incorporation of a new municipality through merger of existing municipalities and associated unincorporated areas must meet the following conditions:

(a) The area proposed for incorporation must be compact and contiguous and susceptible to urban services.

(b) Any unincorporated area to be included must meet the standards provided in s. 171.042, if available.

(c) The plan for merger and incorporation must provide for an equitable arrangement in relation to bonded indebtedness and the status and pension rights of employees of each governmental unit proposed to be merged.

(3) The creation of a special district must be the best alternative available for delivering the service and be amenable to separate special district government if such district is to have a governing body other than a county or municipal governing body.

(4) The dissolution of a municipality or special district must meet the following conditions:

(a) The municipality to be dissolved must not be substantially surrounded by other municipalities.

(b) The county or another municipality must be demonstrably able to provide necessary services to the municipal or special district area proposed for dissolution.

(c) An equitable arrangement must be made in relation to bonded indebtedness and vested rights of employees of the municipality or special district to be dissolved.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.071 Financial allocations.—

(1) The incorporation of a new municipality in previously unincorporated lands shall provide for assumption of the existing governmental indebtedness or property specially benefiting that area, if any, the fair value of such and the manner of transfer and financing.

(2) The government formed by merger of existing municipalities or special districts shall assume all indebtedness of, and receive title to all property owned by, the preexisting municipalities or special districts. The proposed charter, or merger agreement in the case of special districts, shall provide for the determination of the proper allocation of the indebtedness so assumed and the manner in which said debt shall be retired.

(3) The dissolution of a municipal or special dis-strict government shall transfer the title to all property owned by the preexisting municipal or special district government to the county, which shall also assume all indebtedness of the preexisting municipality or special district, unless otherwise provided in the dissolution plan. The county is specifically authorized to levy and collect ad valorem taxes in the same manner as other county taxes from the area of the preexisting municipality or special district for repayment of any assumed indebtedness through a special purpose taxing district created for such purpose.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.081 Judicial review.—Any special law or ordinance enacted, and any dismissal of petition made, pursuant to this chapter shall be reviewable by certiorari. No appeal may be brought after the effective date of an incorporation or dissolution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192; s. 3, ch. 78-95.

165.091 Department of Community Affairs; general powers and duties.—

(1) The department shall:

(a) Conduct studies of county, municipal, and special district formation and boundary reorganization problems throughout the state.

(b) Conduct studies relating to the need for, and the feasibility of, formation and service delivery adjustments that will strengthen the capability of local governments to provide and maintain essential public services in a fiscally equitable manner.

(c) Conduct studies relating to the fiscal conditions of units of local government.

(2) On or before July 1 of each year, the department shall develop and publish a general census of local government with respect to each county, municipality, and special district in the state. Information in the general census of local government shall be developed from any information maintained by any state agency and shall be consistent with standards developed by the United States Bureau of the Census and with s. 23.0115. Information in the census shall be summarized and organized to facilitate easy comparisons of major financial, economic, and demographic information for similar units of local government.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192; s. 3, ch. 79-183.

165.092 Local government service delivery; special studies.—

(1) The department shall, in consultation with the appropriate state and local agencies, conduct a continuing study of various governmental activities being conducted, and services being provided, by local governments in this state.

(2) The study of any function or activity shall consider the appropriate relationships of local-state-federal activity in the area and shall further consider the following criteria:

(a) The geographic and legal adequacy of the local governmental response;

(b) The degree of economic and social impact beyond the boundary of the local governmental unit involved in the activity or function;

(c) The degree of citizen access and control necessary for appropriate governmental response;

(d) The management and technical capability of the local governmental units involved in the function or activity; and

(e) The degree of economic efficiency and fiscal equity involved in the function or activity and any proposals for change.

(3) When a specific study of an activity or function is undertaken by the department, it shall notify the legislative committees and state agencies with jurisdiction over the subject matter, representatives of the state organizations of various local governmental units concerned, and any other person who has filed a request for such notification. The department shall further establish an advisory committee to review the study outline and any results or recommendations developing from such study.

(4) On or before February 1 of each year, the department shall report to the Governor and the presiding officers of both houses the status of the continuing study and any specific studies undertaken pursuant to this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-192.

165.093 All state and local agencies to cooperate in administration of chapter.—The department is empowered to call on any state, county, special district, or municipal agency, department, bureau, or board for any information or assistance which may, in its judgment, be of assistance in administering, or preparing for the administration of, this chapter, and such state, county, special district, or municipal agency, department, bureau, or board is hereby authorized, directed, and required to furnish such information or assistance.

- 166.031 Charter amendments.
- 166.032 Electors.
- 166.041 Procedures for adoption of ordinances and resolutions.
- 166.042 Legislative intent.
- 166.0425 Sign ordinances.
- 166.043 Ordinances and rules imposing price controls; findings required; procedures.

166.011 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Municipal Home Rule Powers Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.021 Powers.—

(1) As provided in s. 2(b), Art. VIII of the State Constitution, municipalities shall have the governmental, corporate, and proprietary powers to enable them to conduct municipal government, perform municipal functions, and render municipal services, and may exercise any power for municipal purposes, except when expressly prohibited by law.

(2) "Municipal purpose" means any activity or power which may be exercised by the state or its political subdivisions.

(3) The Legislature recognizes that pursuant to the grant of power set forth in s. 2(b), Art. VIII of the State Constitution, the legislative body of each municipality has the power to enact legislation concerning any subject matter upon which the state Legislature may act, except:

(a) The subjects of annexation, merger, and exercise of extraterritorial power, which require general or special law pursuant to s. 2(c), Art. VIII of the State Constitution;

(b) Any subject expressly prohibited by the Constitution;

(c) Any subject expressly preempted to state or county government by the Constitution or by general law; and

(d) Any subject preempted to a county pursuant to a county charter adopted under the authority of ss. 1(g), 3, and 6(e), Art. VIII of the State Constitution.

(4) The provisions of this section shall be so construed as to secure for municipalities the broad exercise of home rule powers granted by the Constitution. It is the further intent of the Legislature to extend to municipalities the exercise of powers for municipal governmental, corporate, or proprietary purposes not expressly prohibited by the Constitution, general or special law, or county charter and to remove any limitations, judicially imposed or otherwise, on the exercise of home rule powers other than those so expressly prohibited. However, nothing in this act shall be construed to permit any changes in a special law or municipal charter which affect the exercise of extraterritorial powers or which affect an area which includes lands within and without a municipality or any changes in a special law or municipal charter which affect the creation or existence of a municipality, the terms of elected officers and the manner of their election, the distribution of powers among elected officers, matters prescribed by the charter relating to appointive boards, any change in the form of government, or any rights of municipal employees, without approval by referendum of the electors as provided in s. 166.031. Any other limitation of power upon any municipality contained in any municipal charter enacted or adopted prior to July 1, 1973, is hereby nullified and repealed.

(5) All existing special acts pertaining exclusively to the power or jurisdiction of a particular municipality except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) shall become an ordinance of that municipality on the effective date of this act, subject to modification or repeal as other ordinances.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

(1) The governing body of a municipality may, by ordinance, or the electors of a municipality may, by petition signed by 10 percent of the registered electors, submit to the electors of said municipality a proposed amendment to its charter, which amendment may be to any part or to all of said charter except that part describing the boundaries of such municipality. The governing body of the municipality shall place the proposed amendment contained in the ordinance or petition to a vote of the electors at the next general election held within the municipality or at a special election called for such purpose.

(2) Upon adoption of an amendment to the charter of a municipality by a majority of the electors voting in a referendum upon such amendment, the governing body of said municipality shall have the amendment incorporated into the charter and shall file the revised charter with the Department of State, at which time the revised charter shall take effect.

(3) A municipality may amend its charter pursuant to this section notwithstanding any charter provisions to the contrary. This section shall be supplemental to the provisions of all other laws relating to the amendment of municipal charters and is not intended to diminish any substantive or procedural power vested in any municipality by present law. A municipality may, by ordinance and without referendum, redefine its boundaries to include only those lands previously annexed and shall file said redefinition with the Department of State pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2).

(4) There shall be no restrictions by the municipality on any employee's or employee group's political activity, while not working, in any referendum changing employee rights.

(5) A municipality may, by unanimous vote of the governing body, abolish municipal departments provided for in the municipal charter and amend provisions or language out of the charter which has been judicially construed to be contrary to either the state or federal constitution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.032 Electors.—Any person who is a resident of a municipality, who has qualified as an elector of this state, and who registers in the manner prescribed by general law and ordinance of the municipality shall be a qualified elector of the municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.041 Procedures for adoption of ordinances and resolutions.—

(1) As used in this section, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless some other meaning is plainly indicated:

(a) "Ordinance" means an official legislative action of a governing body, which action is a regulation of a general and permanent nature and enforceable as a local law.

(b) "Resolution" means an expression of a governing body concerning matters of administration, an expression of a temporary character, or a provision for the disposition of a particular item of the administrative business of the governing body.

(2) Each ordinance or resolution shall be introduced in writing and shall embrace but one subject and matters properly connected therewith. The subject shall be clearly stated in the title. No ordinance shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only. Ordinances to revise or amend shall set out in full the revised or amended act or section or subsection or paragraph of a section or subsection.

(3)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (c), a proposed ordinance may be read by title, or in full, on at least 2 separate days and shall, at least 7 days prior to adoption, be noticed once in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. The notice of proposed enactment shall state the date, time, and place of the meeting, the title or titles of proposed ordinances, and the place or places within the municipality where such proposed ordinances may be inspected by the public. Said notice shall also advise that interested parties may appear at the meeting and be heard with respect to the proposed ordinance.

(b) The governing body of a municipality may, by a two-thirds vote, enact an emergency ordinance without complying with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection. However, no emergency ordinance shall be enacted which enacts or amends a land use plan or which rezones private real property.

(c) Enactment of ordinances initiated by the governing body or its designee which rezone private real property shall be enacted pursuant to the following procedure:

1. In cases in which the proposed rezoning involves less than 5 percent of the total land area of the municipality, the governing body shall direct the clerk of the governing body to notify by mail each real property owner whose land the municipality will rezone by enactment of the ordinance and whose address is known by reference to the latest ad valorem tax records. The notice shall state the substance of the proposed ordinance as it affects that property owner and shall set a time and place for one or more public hearings on such ordinance. Such notice shall be given at least 30 days prior to the date set for the public hearing, and a copy of such notice shall be kept available for public inspection during the regular business hours of the office of the clerk of the governing body. The governing body shall hold a public hearing on the proposed ordinance and may, upon the conclusion of the hearing, immediately adopt the ordinance.

2. In cases in which the proposed ordinance deals with more than 5 percent of the total land area of the municipality, the governing body shall provide for public notice and hearings as follows:

a. The local governing body shall hold two advertised public hearings on the proposed ordinance. Both hearings shall be held after 5 p.m. on a weekday, and the first shall be held approximately 7 days after the day that the first advertisement is published. The second hearing shall be held approximately 2 weeks after the first hearing and shall be advertised approximately 5 days prior to the public hearing. The day, time, and place at which the second public hearing will be held shall be announced at the first public hearing.

b. The required advertisements shall be no less than one-quarter page in a standard size or a tabloid size newspaper, and the headline in the advertisement shall be in a type no smaller than 18 point. The advertisement shall not be placed in that portion of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. The advertisement shall be published in a newspaper of general paid circulation in the municipality and of general interest and readership in the community, not one of limited subject matter, pursuant to chapter 50. It is the legislative intent that, whenever possible, the advertisement shall appear in a newspaper that is published at least 5 days a week unless the only newspaper in the community is published less than 5 days a week. The advertisement shall be in the following form:

NOTICE OF ZONING CHANGE

The (name of local governmental unit) proposes to rezone the land within the area shown in the map in this advertisement.

A public hearing on the rezoning will be held on (date and time) at (meeting place).

The advertisement shall also contain a geographic location map which clearly indicates the area covered by the proposed ordinance. The map shall include major street names as a means of identification of the area.

c. In lieu of publishing the advertisement set out in this paragraph, the municipality may mail a notice to each person owning real property within the area covered by the ordinance. Such notice shall clearly explain the proposed ordinance and shall notify the person of the time, place, and location of both public hearings on the proposed ordinance.

(4) A majority of the members of the governing body shall constitute a quorum. An affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum present shall be necessary to enact any ordinance or adopt any resolution; except that two-thirds of the membership of the board is required to enact an emergency ordinance. On final passage, the vote of each member of the governing body voting shall be entered on the official record of the meeting. All ordinances or resolutions passed by the governing body shall become effective 10 days after passage or as otherwise provided therein.

(5) Every ordinance or resolution shall, upon its final passage, be recorded in a book kept for that purpose and shall be signed by the presiding officer and the clerk of the governing body.

(6) The procedure as set forth herein shall constitute a uniform method for the adoption and enactment of municipal ordinances and resolutions and shall be taken as cumulative to other methods now provided by law for adoption and enactment of municipal ordinances and resolutions. By future ordinance or charter amendment, a municipality may specify additional requirements for the adoption or enactment of ordinances or resolutions or prescribe procedures in greater detail than contained herein. However, a municipality shall not have the power or authority to lessen or reduce the requirements of this section or other requirements as provided by general law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129; s. 2, ch. 76-155; s. 2, ch. 77-331.

(1) It is the legislative intent that the repeal by chapter 73-129, Laws of Florida, of chapters 167, 168, 169, 172, 174, 176, 178, 181, 183, and 184 of Florida Statutes shall not be interpreted to limit or restrict the powers of municipal officials, but shall be interpreted as a recognition of constitutional powers. It is, further, the legislative intent to recognize residual constitutional home rule powers in municipal government, and the Legislature finds that this can best be accomplished by the removal of legislative direction from the statutes. It is, further, the legislative intent that municipalities shall continue to exercise all powers heretofore conferred on municipalities by the chapters enumerated above, but shall hereafter exercise those powers at their own discretion, subject only to the terms and conditions which they choose to prescribe.

(2) Nothing contained in s. 5, chapter 73-129, Laws of Florida, shall be interpreted to impair any claim against a municipality or to affect the validity of any bonds or obligations issued under authority of any of the chapters enumerated in subsection (1).

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-129.

166.0425 Sign ordinances.—Nothing in chapter 78-8, Laws of Florida, shall be deemed to supersede the rights and powers of municipalities and counties to establish sign ordinances; however, such ordinances shall not conflict with any applicable state or federal laws.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-8.

Note.—Also published at s. 125.0102.

166.043 Ordinances and rules imposing price controls; findings required; procedures.—

(1)(a) Except as hereinafter provided, no county, municipality, or other entity of local government shall adopt or maintain in effect an ordinance or a rule which has the effect of imposing price controls upon a lawful business activity which is not franchised by, owned by, or under contract with, the governmental agency, unless specifically provided by general law.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not prevent the enactment by local governments of public service rates otherwise authorized by law, including water, sewer, solid waste, public transportation, taxicab, or port rates.

(2) No law, ordinance, rule, or other measure which would have the effect of imposing controls on rents shall be adopted or maintained in effect except as provided herein and unless it is found and determined, as hereinafter provided, that such controls are necessary and proper to eliminate an existing housing emergency which is so grave as to constitute a serious menace to the general public.

(3) Any law, ordinance, rule, or other measure which has the effect of imposing controls on rents shall terminate and expire within 1 year and shall not be extended or renewed except by the adoption of a new measure meeting all the requirements of this section.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, no controls shall be imposed on rents for any accommodation used or offered for residential purposes as a seasonal or tourist unit, as a second housing unit, or on rents for dwelling units located in luxury apartment buildings. For the purposes of this section, a luxury apartment building is one wherein on January 1, 1977 the aggregate rent due on a monthly basis from all dwelling units as stated in leases or rent lists existing on that date divided by the number of dwelling units exceeds $250.

(5) No municipality, county, or other entity of local government shall adopt or maintain in effect any law, ordinance, rule, or other measure which would have the effect of imposing controls on rents unless:

(a) Such measure is duly adopted by the governing body of such entity of local government, after notice and public hearing, in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Florida and United States Constitutions, the charter or charters governing such entity of local government, this section and any other applicable laws.

(b) Such governing body makes and recites in such measure its findings establishing the existence in fact of a housing emergency so grave as to constitute a serious menace to the general public and that such controls are necessary and proper to eliminate such grave housing emergency.

(c) Such measure is approved by the voters in such municipality, county, or other entity of local government.

(6) In any court action brought to challenge the validity of rent control imposed pursuant to the provisions of this section, the evidentiary effect of any findings or recitations required by subsection (5) shall be limited to imposing upon any party challenging the validity of such measure the burden of going forward with the evidence, and the burden of proof, that is, the risk of nonpersuasion, shall rest upon any party seeking to have the measure upheld.

PART II

MUNICIPAL BORROWING

- 166.101 Definitions.
- 166.111 Authority to borrow.
- 166.121 Issuance of bonds.
- 166.122 Establishment of sinking funds.
- 166.131 Levy of taxes for payment of debt.
- 166.141 Full authority for issuance of bonds.

166.101 Definitions.—As used in this part, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless some other meaning is plainly indicated:

(1) The term "bond" includes bonds, debentures, notes, certificates of indebtedness, mortgage certificates, or other obligations or evidences of indebtedness of any type or character.

(2) The term "general obligation bonds" means bonds which are secured by, or provide for their payment by, the pledge, in addition to those special taxes levied for their discharge and such other sources as may be provided for their payment or pledged as security under the ordinance or resolution authorizing their issuance, of the full faith and credit and taxing power of the municipality and for payment of which recourse may be had against the general fund of the municipality.

(3) The term "ad valorem bonds" means bonds which are payable from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes levied on real and tangible personal property.

(4) The term "revenue bonds" means obligations of the municipality which are payable from revenues derived from sources other than ad valorem taxes on real or tangible personal property and which do not pledge the property, credit, or general tax revenue of the municipality.

(5) The term "improvement bonds" means special obligations of the municipality which are payable solely from the proceeds of the special assessments levied for an assessable project.

(6) The term "refunding bonds" means bonds issued to refinance outstanding bonds of any type and the interest and redemption premium thereon. Refunding bonds shall be issuable and payable in the same manner as the refinanced bonds, except that no approval by the electorate shall be required unless required by the state constitution.

(7) The term "governing body" means the council, commission, or other board or body in which the general legislative powers of the municipality shall be vested.

(8) The term "project" means a governmental undertaking approved by the governing body and includes all property rights, easements, and franchises relating thereto and deemed necessary or convenient for the construction, acquisition or operation thereof, and embraces any capital expenditure which the governing body of the municipality shall deem to be made for a public purpose including the refunding of any bonded indebtedness which may be outstanding on any existing project which is to be improved by means of a new project.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.111 Authority to borrow.—The governing body of every municipality may borrow money, contract loans, and issue bonds as defined in s. 166.101 from time to time to finance the undertaking of any capital or other project for the purposes permitted by the State Constitution and may pledge the funds, credit, property, and taxing power of the municipality for the payment of such debts and bonds.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.121 Issuance of bonds.—

(1) Bonds issued under this part shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body and, if required by the State Constitution, by affirmative vote of the electors of the municipality. Such bonds may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form, registered or not, with or without coupon, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics as may be provided by such resolution or ordinance or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto.

(2) The governing body of a municipality shall determine the terms and manner of sale and distribution or other disposition of any and all bonds it may issue and shall have any and all powers necessary or convenient to such disposition.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.122 Establishment of sinking funds.—The governing body of a municipality may establish and administer such sinking funds as it deems necessary or convenient for the payment, purchase, or redemption of any outstanding bonded indebtedness of the municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.131 Levy of taxes for payment of debt.—The governing body of a municipality may levy ad valorem taxes upon real and tangible personal property within the municipality as it deems necessary to make payment, including principal and interest, upon the general obligation and ad valorem bonded indebtedness of the municipality or into any sinking funds created under s. 166.122.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.141 Full authority for issuance of bonds.

—This part shall be full authority for the issuance of bonds authorized herein.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

PART III

MUNICIPAL FINANCE AND TAXATION

- 166.201 Taxes and charges.
- 166.211 Ad valorem taxes.
- 166.221 Regulatory fees.
- 166.231 Municipalities; public service tax.
- 166.232 Municipalities; public service tax; physical unit base option.
- 166.241 Fiscal years, financial reports, appropriations, and audits.
- 166.251 Service fee for dishonored check.
- 166.261 Municipalities; investments.

166.201 Taxes and charges.—A municipality may raise, by taxation and licenses authorized by the Constitution or general law, or by user charges or fees authorized by ordinance, amounts of money which are necessary for the conduct of municipal government and may enforce their receipt and collection in the manner prescribed by ordinance not inconsistent with law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.211 Ad valorem taxes.—

(1) Pursuant to s. 9, Art. VII of the State Constitution, a municipality is hereby authorized, in a manner not inconsistent with general law, to levy ad valorem taxes on real and tangible personal property within the municipality in an amount not to exceed 10 mills, exclusive of taxes levied for the payment of bonds and taxes levied for periods of not longer than 2 years and approved by a vote of the electors.

(2) The assessment and collection of municipal ad valorem taxes shall be performed by appropriate officers as prescribed by general law. At any time millage rates are published for the purpose of giving notice, the rates shall be stated in terms of dollars and cents for every thousand dollars of assessed property value.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.221 Regulatory fees.—A municipality may levy reasonable business, professional, and occupational regulatory fees, commensurate with the cost of the regulatory activity, including consumer protection, on such classes of businesses, professions, and occupations, the regulation of which has not been preempted by the state or a county pursuant to a county charter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.231 Municipalities; public service tax.—

(1)(a) A municipality may levy a tax on the purchase of electricity, metered or bottled gas (natural liquefied petroleum gas or manufactured), water service, telephone service, and telegraph service. The tax shall be levied only upon purchases within the municipality and shall not exceed 10 percent of the payments received by the seller of the taxable item from the purchaser for the purchase of such service. Municipalities imposing a tax on the purchase of cable television service as of May 4, 1977, may continue to levy such tax to the extent necessary to meet all obligations to or for the benefit of holders of bonds or certificates, which were issued prior to May 4, 1977.

(b) The tax imposed by paragraph (a) shall not be applied against any fuel adjustment charge, and such charge shall be separately stated on each bill. "Fuel adjustment charge" shall mean all increases in the cost of utility services to the ultimate consumer resulting from an increase in the cost of fuel to the utility subsequent to October 1, 1973.

(2) Services competitive with those enumerated in subsection (1), as defined by ordinance, shall be taxed on a comparable base at the same rates. However, fuel oil shall be taxed at a rate not to exceed 4 cents per gallon. However, for municipalities levying less than the maximum rate allowable in subsection (1), the maximum tax on fuel oil shall bear the same proportion to 4 cents which the tax rate levied under subsection (1) bears to the maximum rate allowable in subsection (1).

(3) The tax on electricity authorized under subsection (1) shall not be levied and collected on the first 50 kilowatt hours per month purchased for residential use beginning October 1, 1978. Such exemption shall apply to each separate residential unit, regardless of whether such unit is on a separate or central meter, and shall be passed on to each individual tenant. The electric utility shall compute the amount of the tax loss resulting from such exemption for each month and:

(a) Deduct this amount from the tax due the state for sales and use tax under chapter 212; and

(b) Remit this amount to the municipality in accordance with subsection (6).

(4) The purchase of natural gas or fuel oil by a public or private utility, either for resale or for use as fuel in the generation of electricity, or the purchase of fuel oil or kerosene for use as an aircraft engine fuel or propellant or for use in internal combustion engines shall be exempt from taxation hereunder.

(5) A municipality may exempt from taxation hereunder the purchase of the taxable items by the United States Government, the State of Florida, or any other public body as defined in s. 1.01, and shall exempt purchases by any recognized church in this state for use exclusively for church purposes.

(6) The tax authorized hereunder shall be collected by the seller of the taxable item from the purchaser at the time of the payment for such service. The seller shall remit the taxes collected to the municipality in the manner prescribed by ordinance.

(7) A municipality shall notify in writing any known seller of items taxable hereunder of any change in the boundaries of the municipality or in the rate of taxation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129; ss. 1, 2, ch. 74-109; s. 1, ch. 77-251; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-299; s. 1, ch. 78-400.

166.232 Municipalities; public service tax; physical unit base option.—

(1) At the discretion and option of the local tax authority, the tax authorized under s. 166.231 may be levied on a physical unit basis. The tax on the purchase of electricity may be based upon the number of kilowatt hours purchased; the tax on the purchase of metered or bottled gas (natural liquefied petroleum gas or manufactured) may be based on the number of cubic feet purchased; the tax on the purchase of fuel oil and kerosene may be based on the number of gallons purchased; and the tax on the purchase of water service may be based on the number of gallons purchased.

(2) In the event that a municipality shall choose the option provided in this section to tax on a physical unit basis, the tax on electricity authorized under s. 166.231 shall not be levied and collected on the first 50 kilowatt hours per month purchased for residential use. Such exemption shall apply to each separate residential unit, regardless of whether such unit is on a separate or central meter, and shall be passed on to each individual tenant.

(3) In exercising its option pursuant to this section, each municipality levying a tax pursuant to this section shall implement a new tax rate structure and tax base in accordance with this act. The new tax rates shall apply to prior purchases of service if the purchases were billed during the month of implementation and thereafter. The shift in the tax rate and tax base for electricity, metered or bottled gas, fuel oil, kerosene, and water shall be accomplished in the following manner:

(a) Each municipality levying the tax shall, prior to converting to unit-based rates, compute the amount of tax it received from each source for the most recent 12 months for which such data is available.

(b) The amount determined under paragraph (a) shall be divided by the number of units purchased and taxed for the same period of time used in paragraph (a).

(c) One hundred five percent of the resulting figure rounded to no more than four decimal places shall be the maximum amount per unit which the municipality may levy upon converting to unit-based rates. However, during the year of conversion to a physical unit tax, the municipality may adjust its rates to ensure that revenues derived from the tax shall equal 105 percent of the revenues derived in the immediately preceding year. In those years subsequent to the year of conversion to a physical unit tax, the municipality may amend its tax rate by ordinance.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-299.

166.241 Fiscal years, financial reports, appropriations, and audits.—

(1) Each municipality shall report its finances annually as provided by general law.

(2) Each municipality shall make provision for establishing a fiscal year beginning October 1 of each year and ending September 30 of the following year.

(3) The governing body of each municipality shall make appropriations for each fiscal year which, in any 1 year, shall not exceed the amount to be received from taxation or other revenue sources. It shall be unlawful for any officer of a municipal government to draw money from the treasury except in pursuance of appropriation made by law.

(4) Each municipality shall make provision for annual postaudit of its financial accounts in accordance with the rules of the Auditor General. It is the legislative intent that the rules of the Auditor General impose substantially the same requirements as formerly contained in s. 167.611.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.251 Service fee for dishonored check.—

The governing body of a municipality may adopt a service fee of up to $5 for the collection of a dishonored check, draft, or other order for the payment of money to a municipal official or agency. The service fee shall be in addition to all other penalties imposed by law. Proceeds from this fee, if imposed, shall be retained by the collector of the fee.

History.—s. 2, ch. 75-56; s. 31, ch. 79-164.

166.261 Municipalities; investments.—

(1) Except when another procedure is prescribed by law or by ordinance as to particular funds, the governing body of each municipality shall, by resolutions to be adopted from time to time, invest and reinvest any surplus public funds in its control or possession in:

(a) The Local Government Surplus Funds Trust Fund;

(b) Negotiable direct obligations of, or obligations the principal and interest of which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States Government at the then prevailing market price for such securities;

(c) Interest-bearing time deposits or savings accounts in banks organized under the laws of this state, in national banks organized under the laws of the United States and doing business and situated in this state, in savings and loan associations which are under state supervision, or in federal savings and loan associations located in this state and organized under federal law and federal supervision, provided that any such deposits are secured by collateral as may be prescribed by law; or

(d) Obligations of the Federal Farm Credit Banks, Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, or Federal Home Loan Bank or its district banks, including Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation participation certificates, or obligations guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association.

(2)(a) All securities purchased by any such governing body under this section shall be properly earmarked and immediately placed for safekeeping in a safety-deposit box in a bank or institution carrying adequate safety-deposit box insurance within the county in which said municipality is situated, and no withdrawal of such securities, in whole or in part, shall be made from such safety-deposit box except upon authority evidenced by resolution of the governing body of the municipality.

(b) The governing body may also receive bank trust receipts in return for investment of surplus funds in securities. Any trust receipts received must enumerate the various securities held, together with the specific number of each security held. The actual securities on which the trust receipts are issued may be held by any bank depository chartered by the United States Government or the State of Florida or their designated agents.

(3) When the money invested in such securities is needed in whole or in part for the purposes originally intended, the governing body of the municipality is authorized to sell such security or securities at the then prevailing market price and to pay the proceeds of such sale into the proper account or fund of the municipality.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the term "surplus funds" is defined as funds in any general or special account or fund of the municipality, held or controlled by the governing body of the municipality, which funds in reasonable contemplation will not be needed for the purposes intended within a reasonable time from the date of such investment.

(5) Any surplus public funds subject to any contract or agreement on the date of this enactment shall not be invested contrary to said contract or agreement.

(6) The provisions of this section are supplemental to any and all other laws relating to the legal investments of municipalities.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-394; s. 2, ch. 79-119; s. 4, ch. 79-262.

PART IV

EMINENT DOMAIN

166.401 Right of eminent domain.

166.411 Eminent domain; uses or purposes.

166.401 Right of eminent domain.—All municipalities in the state may exercise the right and power of eminent domain; that is, the right to appropriate property within the state, except state or federal property, for the uses or purposes authorized pursuant to this part. The absolute fee simple title to all property so taken and acquired shall vest in such municipal corporation unless the municipality seeks to condemn a particular right or estate in such property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

166.411 Eminent domain; uses or purposes.—Municipalities are authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain for the following uses or purposes:

(1) For the proper and efficient carrying into effect of any proposed scheme or plan of drainage, ditching, grading, filling, or other public improvement deemed necessary or expedient for the preservation of the public health, or for other good reason connected in anywise with the public welfare or the interests of the municipality and the people thereof;

(2) Over railroads, traction and streetcar lines, telephone and telegraph lines, all public and private streets and highways, drainage districts, bridge districts, school districts, or any other public or private lands whatsoever necessary to enable the accomplishment of purposes listed in s. 180.06;

(3) For streets, lanes, alleys, and ways;

(4) For public parks, squares, and grounds;

(5) For drainage, for raising or filling in land in order to promote sanitation and healthfulness, and for the taking of easements for the drainage of the land of one person over and through the land of another;

(6) For reclaiming and filling when lands are low and wet, or overflowed altogether or at times, or entirely or partly;

(7) For the abatement of any nuisance;

(8) For the use of water pipes and for sewerage and drainage purposes;

(9) For laying wires and conduits underground; and

(10) For city buildings, waterworks, ponds, and other municipal purposes which shall be coextensive with the powers of the municipality exercising the right of eminent domain.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-129.

- 170.21 Provisions of chapter supplemental, additional and alternative procedure.

170.01 Authority for providing improvements and levying and collecting special assessments against property benefited.—Any city, town, or municipal corporation of this state, hereinafter referred to as the "municipality," whether organized under the general law, or under special act, or having a charter adopted by vote under an enabling act, (hereinafter referred to as the "governing authority") may, by its governing authority, provide for the construction, reconstruction, repair, paving, repaving, hard surfacing, rehard surfacing, widening, guttering, and draining of streets, boulevards, and alleys and for grading, regrading, leveling, laying, relaying, paving, repaving, hard surfacing, and rehard surfacing sidewalks; order the construction or reconstruction of sanitary sewers, storm sewers, and drains, including the necessary appurtenances thereto; order the construction or reconstruction of water mains, water laterals, and other water distribution facilities, including the necessary appurtenances thereto; provide for the drainage and reclamation of wet, low, or overflowed lands; provide for offstreet parking facilities, parking garages, or similar facilities; and provide for the payment of all or any part of the costs of any such improvements by levying and collecting special assessments on the abutting, adjoining, contiguous, or other specially benefited property. However, offstreet parking facilities, parking garages, or other similar facilities shall have prior approval of affected property owners.

170.02 Method of prorating special assessments.—Special assessments against property deemed to be benefited by local improvements, as provided for in s. 170.01, shall be assessed upon the property specially benefited by the improvement in proportion to the benefits to be derived therefrom, said special benefits to be determined and prorated according to the foot frontage of the respective properties specially benefited by said improvement, or by such other method as the governing body of the municipality may prescribe.

170.03 Resolution required to declare special assessments.—When the governing authority of any municipality may determine to make any public improvement authorized by s. 170.01 and defray the whole or any part of the expense thereof by special assessments, said governing authority shall so declare by resolution stating the nature of the proposed improvement, designating the street or streets or sidewalks to be so improved, the location of said sanitary sewers, storm sewers, and drains, the location of said water mains, water laterals, and other water distribution facilities, or the location of the drainage project, and the part or portion of the expense thereof to be paid by special assessments, the manner in which said assessments shall be made, when said assessments are to be paid, what part, if any, shall be apportioned to be paid from the general improvement fund of the municipality; and said resolution shall also designate the lands upon which the special assessments shall be levied, and in describing said lands it shall be sufficient to describe them as "all lots and lands adjoining and contiguous or bounding and abutting upon such improvements or specially benefited thereby and further designated by the assessment plat hereinafter provided for." Such resolution shall also state the total estimated cost of the improvement. Such estimated cost may include the cost of construction or reconstruction, the cost of all labor and materials, the cost of all lands, property, rights, easements, and franchises acquired, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction and for 1 year after completion of construction, discount on the sale of special assessment bonds, cost of plans and specifications, surveys of estimates of costs and of revenues, cost of engineering and legal services, and all other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of such construction or reconstruction, administrative expense, and such other expense as may be necessary or incident to the financing herein authorized.

History.—s. 3, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3024; s. 2, ch. 59-396; s. 2, ch. 67-552; s. 1, ch. 78-330.

170.04 Plans and specifications, with estimated cost of proposed improvement required before adoption of resolution.—At the time of the adoption of the resolution provided for in s. 170.03, there shall be on file with the town or city clerk, or like officer, of the municipality adopting said resolution, an assessment plat showing the area to be assessed, with plans and specifications, and an estimate of the cost of the proposed improvement, which assessment plat, plans and specifications and estimate shall be open to the inspection of the public.

History.—s. 4, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3025; s. 3, ch. 59-396.

170.05 Publication of resolution.—Upon the adoption of the resolution provided for in s. 170.03, the municipality shall cause said resolution to be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in said municipality, and if there be no newspaper published in said municipality, the governing authority of said municipality shall cause said resolution to be published once a week for a period of 2 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which said municipality is located.

History.—s. 5, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3026.

170.06 Assessment roll.—Upon the adoption of the resolution aforesaid, the governing authority of the municipality shall cause to be made an assessment roll in accordance with the method of assessment provided for in said resolution, which assessment roll shall be completed and filed with the governing authority of the municipality as promptly as possible; said assessment roll shall show the lots and lands assessed, the amount of the benefit to and the assessment against each lot or parcel of land, and if said assessment is to be paid in installments, the number of annual installments in which the assessment is divided shall also be entered and shown upon said assessment roll.

170.07 Publication of assessment roll.—Upon the completion of said assessment roll, the governing authority of the municipality shall by resolution fix a time and place at which the owners of the property to be assessed, or any other persons interested therein may appear before said governing authority and be heard as to the propriety and advisability of making such improvements, as to the cost thereof, as to the manner of payment therefor and as to the amount thereof to be assessed against each property so improved. Ten days' notice in writing of such time and place shall be given to such property owners which shall be served by mailing a copy of such notice to each of such property owners at his last known address, the names and addresses of such property owners to be obtained from the records of the property appraiser or from such other sources as the city or town clerk or engineer deems reliable, proof of such mailing to be made by the affidavit of the clerk or deputy clerk of said municipality, or by the engineer, said proof to be filed with the clerk, provided, that failure to mail said notice or notices shall not invalidate any of the proceedings hereunder. Notice of the time and place of such hearing shall also be given by two publications a week apart in a newspaper of general circulation in said municipality, and if there be no newspaper published in said municipality the governing authority of said municipality shall cause said notice to be published in like manner in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which said municipality is located; provided that the last publication shall be at least 1 week prior to the date of the hearing. Said notice shall describe the streets or other areas to be improved and advise all persons interested that the description of each property to be assessed and the amount to be assessed to each piece or parcel of property may be ascertained at the office of the clerk of the municipality. Such service by publication shall be verified by the affidavit of the publisher and filed with the clerk of said municipality.

History.—s. 7, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3028; s. 4, ch. 59-396; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

170.08 Equalizing board to hear complaints and adjust assessments; rebate of difference in cost and assessment.—At the time and place named in the notice provided for in s. 170.07, the governing authority of the municipality shall meet as an equalizing board to hear and consider any and all complaints as to such special assessments and shall adjust and equalize the said assessments on a basis of justice and right; and when so equalized and approved by resolution or ordinance of the governing authority, such assessments shall stand confirmed and remain legal, valid and binding first liens, upon the property against which such assessments are made, until paid; provided, however, that upon completion of the improvement, the municipality shall credit to each of said assessments the difference in the assessment as originally made, approved and confirmed and the proportionate part of the actual cost of said improvement to be paid by special assessments as finally determined upon the completion of said improvement, provided that in no event shall the final assessments exceed the amount of benefits originally assessed. Promptly after such confirmation, the assessments shall be recorded by the city clerk in a special book, to be known as the "Improvement Lien Book," and the record of the lien in said book shall constitute prima facie evidence of its validity. The governing authority of the municipality may by resolution grant a discount equal to all or a part of the payee's proportionate share of the cost of the project consisting of bond financing costs, such as capitalized interest, funded reserves, and bond discount included in the estimated cost of the project, upon payment in full of any assessment during such period prior to the time such financing costs are incurred as may be specified by the governing authority.

History.—s. 8, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3029; s. 5, ch. 59-396; s. 1, ch. 78-330.

170.09 Priority of lien, interest and method of payment.—Said assessments shall be payable at the time and in the manner stipulated in the resolution providing for said improvements, and said special assessments shall remain liens, coequal with the lien of all state, county, district and municipal taxes, superior in dignity to all other liens, titles and claims, until paid, and shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed 8 percent per annum from the date of the acceptance of said improvement and may, by the resolution aforesaid, be made payable in not more than 10 equal yearly installments, to which, if not paid when due, there shall be added a penalty at the rate of 1 percent per month, until paid; provided that said assessments may be paid without interest at any time within 30 days after the improvement is completed, and a resolution accepting the same has been adopted by the governing authority.

History.—s. 9, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3030; s. 6, ch. 59-396; s. 1, ch. 61-349; s. 4, ch. 67-552.

170.10 Legal proceedings instituted upon failure of property owner to pay special assessment or interest when due; foreclosure; service of process.—Each annual installment provided for in s. 170.09 shall be paid upon the dates specified in said resolution, with interest upon all deferred payments, until the entire amount of said assessment has been paid, and upon the failure of any property owner to pay any annual installment due, or any part thereof, or any annual interest upon deferred payments, the governing authority of the municipality shall cause to be brought the necessary legal proceedings by a bill in chancery to enforce payment thereof with all accrued interest and penalties, together with all legal costs incurred, including a reasonable solicitor's fee, to be assessed as part of the costs and in the event of default in the payment of any installment of an assessment, or any accrued interest on said assessment, the whole assessment, with the interest and penalties thereon, shall immediately become due and payable and subject to foreclosure. In the foreclosure of any special assessment service of process against unknown or nonresident defendants may be had by publication, as now provided by law in other chancery suits. The foreclosure proceedings shall be prosecuted to a sale and conveyance of the property involved in said proceedings as now provided by law in suits to foreclose mortgages; or, in the alternative, said proceeding may be instituted and prosecuted under chapter 173.

170.11 Bonds may be issued to an amount not exceeding the amount of liens assessed for the cost of improvements to be paid by special assessment.—After the equalization, approval and confirmation of the levying of the special assessments for improvements as provided by s. 170.08 and as soon as a contract for said improvement has been finally let, the governing authority of the municipality may by resolution or ordinance authorize the issuance of bonds, to be designated "Improvement bonds, series No.," in an amount not in excess of the aggregate amount of said liens levied for such improvements. Said bonds shall be payable from a special and separate fund, to be known as the "Improvement fund, series No.," which shall be used solely for the payment of the principal and interest of said "Improvement bonds, series No." and for no other purpose. Said fund shall be deposited in a separate bank account; and all the proceeds collected by the city from the principal, interest, and penalties of said liens shall be deposited and held in said fund. Said bonds so issued shall never exceed the amount of liens assessed, and said bonds shall mature not later than 2 years after the maturity of the last installment of said liens. Said bonds shall bear certificates signed by the clerk of the municipality certifying that the amount of liens levied, the proceeds of which are pledged to the payment of said bonds, are equal to the amount of the bonds issued. The bonds may be delivered to the contractor in payment for his work or may be sold at public or private sale for not less than 95 percent of par and accrued interest, the proceeds to be used in paying for the cost of the work. Said bonds shall not be a charge on, or payable out of, the general revenues of the city, but shall be payable solely out of said assessments, installments, interest, and penalties. Any surplus remaining after payment of all bonds and interest thereon shall revert to the city and be used for any municipal purpose.

History.—s. 11, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3032; s. 8, ch. 59-396; s. 5, ch. 67-552; s. 1, ch. 78-330.

170.14 Governing authority of municipality required to make new assessments until valid assessment is made if special assessment is omitted or held invalid.—If any special assessment made under the provisions of this chapter to defray the whole or any part of the expense of any said improvement shall be either in whole or in part annulled, vacated or set aside by the judgment of any court, or if the governing authority of any municipality shall be satisfied that any such assessment is so irregular or defective that the same cannot be enforced or collected, or if the governing authority of a municipality shall have omitted to make such assessment when it might have done so, the governing authority of the municipality shall take all necessary steps to cause a new assessment to be made for the whole or any part of any improvement or against any property benefited by any improvement, following as nearly as may be the provisions of this chapter and in case such second assessment shall be annulled, said governing authority of any municipality may obtain and make other assessments until a valid assessment shall be made.

History.—s. 14, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3035; s. 11, ch. 59-396.

170.15 Expenditures for improvements.—The governing authority of any municipality may pay out of its general funds or out of any special fund that may be provided for that purpose such portion of the cost of any improvement as it may deem proper.

History.—s. 15, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3036; s. 12, ch. 59-396.

170.16 Assessment roll sufficient evidence of assessment and other proceedings of this chapter; variance not material unless party objecting materially injured thereby.—Any informality or irregularity in the proceedings in connection with the levy of any special assessment under the provisions of this chapter shall not affect the validity of the same where the assessment roll has been confirmed by the governing authority, and the assessment roll as finally approved and confirmed shall be competent and sufficient evidence that the assessment was duly levied, that the assessment was duly made and adopted, and that all other proceedings adequate to the adoption of the said assessment roll were duly had, taken and performed as required by this chapter; and no variance from the directions hereunder shall be held material unless it be clearly shown that the party objecting was materially injured thereby.

History.—s. 16, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3037.

170.17 Denomination of bonds, interest, place of payment, form, signatures, coupons and delivery.—All bonds issued under this chapter shall be the denomination of $100, or some multiple thereof, and shall bear interest at a uniform rate not exceeding 7.5 percent per annum, payable annually or semiannually thereafter until maturity, and 10 percent per annum after maturity, and both principal and interest shall be payable at such place or places as the governing authority may determine. The form of such bonds shall be fixed by resolution of the governing authority of the municipality and said bonds shall be signed by the mayor or chief executive officer of the municipality and the clerk or other like officers thereof, under the seal of the municipality; the coupons, if any, shall be executed by the facsimile signatures of said officers. The delivery of any bond and coupon so executed at any time thereafter shall be valid although before the date of delivery the person signing such bond or coupons shall cease to hold office.

170.18 Notice required where no newspaper is published in county in which municipality is situated.—Where, by any of the provisions of this chapter, any notice is required to be given by publication in a newspaper, if there be no newspaper published in the county in which the municipality is situated, then such notice shall be posted for the prescribed period of time in at least five public places in the municipality, one of which shall be the city or town hall, or the place of meeting of the governing authority, if there be no city or town hall.

History.—s. 18, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3039.

170.19 Construction and authority of chapter.—This chapter shall, without reference to any other law of Florida, be full authority for the issuance and sale of the bonds by this chapter authorized, and shall be construed as an additional and alternative method for the financing of the improvements referred to herein. No ordinance, resolution, election or proceeding in respect of the issuance of any bonds hereunder shall be necessary, except such as is required by this chapter, and no publication of any resolution, ordinance, election, notice or proceeding relating to the issuance of the bonds provided for by this chapter shall be required, except such as required by this chapter.

History.—s. 19, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3040; reenacted s. 14, ch. 59-396.

170.20 Bonds negotiable.—Bonds issued under s. 170.11 shall have all the qualities of negotiable paper under the law merchant, and shall not be invalid for any irregularity or defect in the proceedings for the issue and sale thereof, and shall be incontestable in the hands of bona fide purchasers or holders thereof for value.

History.—s. 20, ch. 9298, 1923; CGL 3041; s. 15, ch. 59-396.

170.21 Provisions of chapter supplemental, additional and alternative procedure.—This chapter shall not repeal any other law relating to the subject matter hereof, but shall be deemed to provide a supplemental, additional and alternative method of procedure for the benefit of all cities, towns and municipal corporations of the state, whether organized under special act or the general law, and shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose.

171.011 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Municipal Annexation or Contraction Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.021 Purpose.—The purposes of this act are to set forth procedures for adjusting the boundaries of municipalities through annexations or contractions of corporate limits and to set forth criteria for determining when annexations or contractions may take place so as to:

- (1) Insure sound urban development and accommodation to growth.
- (2) Establish uniform legislative standards throughout the state for the adjustment of municipal boundaries.
- (3) Insure the efficient provision of urban services to areas that become urban in character.
- (4) Insure that areas are not annexed unless municipal services can be provided to those areas.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.022 Preemption; effect on special laws.—

(1) It is further the purpose of this act to provide viable and usable general law standards and procedures for adjusting the boundaries of municipalities in this state.

(2) The provisions of any special act or municipal charter relating to the adjusting of municipal boundaries in effect on October 1, 1974, are repealed except as otherwise provided herein.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.031 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings unless some other meaning is plainly indicated:

(1) "Annexation" means the adding of real property to the boundaries of an incorporated municipality, such addition making such real property in every way a part of the municipality.

(2) "Contraction" means the reversion of real property within municipal boundaries to an unincorporated status.

(3) "Municipality" means a municipality created pursuant to general or special law authorized or recognized pursuant to s. 2 or s. 6, Art. VIII of the State Constitution.

(4) "Newspaper of general circulation" means a newspaper printed in the language most commonly spoken in the area within which it circulates, which is readily available for purchase by all inhabitants in its area of circulation, but does not include a newspaper intended primarily for members of a particular professional or occupational group, a newspaper whose primary function is to carry legal notices, or a newspaper that is given away primarily to distribute advertising.

(5) "Parties affected" means any persons or firms owning property in, or residing in, either a municipality proposing annexation or contraction or owning property that is proposed for annexation to a municipality or any governmental unit with jurisdiction over such area.

(6) "Qualified voter" means any person registered to vote in accordance with law.

(7) "Sufficiency of petition" means the verification of the signatures and addresses of all signers of a petition with the voting list maintained by the county supervisor of elections and certification that the number of valid signatures represents the required percentage of the total number of qualified voters in the area affected by a proposed annexation.

(8) "Urban in character" means an area used intensively for residential, urban recreational or conservation parklands, commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental purposes or an area undergoing development for any of these purposes.

(9) "Urban services" means any services offered by a municipality, either directly or by contract, to any of its present residents.

(10) "Urban purposes" means that land is used intensively for residential, commercial, industrial, institutional, and governmental purposes, including any parcels of land retained in their natural state or kept free of development as dedicated greenbelt areas.

(11) "Contiguous" means that a substantial part of a boundary of the territory sought to be annexed by a municipality is coterminous with a part of the boundary of the municipality. The separation of the territory sought to be annexed from the annexing municipality by a right-of-way for a highway, road, railroad, canal, or utility or by a body of water, a watercourse, or other minor geographical division of a similar nature, running parallel with and between the territory sought to be annexed and the annexing municipality, shall not prevent annexation under this act, provided the presence of such a division does not, as a practical matter, prevent the territory sought to be annexed and the annexing municipality from becoming a unified whole with respect to municipal services or prevent their inhabitants from fully associating and trading with each other, socially and economically. However, nothing herein shall be construed to allow local rights-of-way, utility easements, railroad rights-of-way, or like entities to be annexed in a corridor fashion to gain continuity, and when any provision or provisions of special law or laws prohibit the annexation of territory that is separated from the annexing municipality by a body of water or watercourse, then that law shall prevent annexation under this act.

(12) "Compactness" means concentration of a piece of property in a single area and precludes any action which would create enclaves, pockets, or finger areas in serpentine patterns. Any annexation proceeding in any county in the state shall be designed in such a manner as to ensure that the area shall be reasonably compact.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190; s. 1, ch. 75-297.

171.0413 Annexation procedures.—Any municipality may annex contiguous, compact, unincorporated territory in the following manner:

(1) An ordinance proposing to annex an area of contiguous, compact, unincorporated territory shall be adopted by the governing body of the annexing municipality pursuant to the procedure for the adoption of a nonemergency ordinance established by s. 166.041. Each such ordinance shall propose only one reasonably compact area to be annexed. However, prior to the ordinance of annexation becoming effective, a referendum on annexation shall be held as set out below, and, if approved by the referendum, the ordinance shall become effective 10 days after the referendum or as otherwise provided in the ordinance, but not more than 1 year following the date of the referendum.

(2) Following the final adoption of the ordinance of annexation by the governing body of the annexing municipality, the ordinance shall be submitted to a separate vote of the registered electors of the annexing municipality and of the area proposed to be annexed. The referendum on annexation shall be called and conducted and the expense thereof paid by the governing body of the annexing municipality.

(a) The referendum on annexation shall be held at the next regularly scheduled election following the final adoption of the ordinance of annexation by the governing body of the annexing municipality or at a special election called for the purpose of holding the referendum. However, the referendum, whether held at a regularly scheduled election or at a special election, shall not be held sooner than 30 days following the final adoption of the ordinance by the governing body of the annexing municipality.

(b) The governing body of the annexing municipality shall publish notice of the referendum on annexation at least once a week for the 4 consecutive weeks immediately preceding the date of the referendum in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the referendum is to be held. The notice shall give the time and places for the referendum and a description of the area proposed to be annexed. The description shall be by metes and bounds and shall include a map clearly showing such area.

(c) On the day of the referendum on annexation there shall be prominently displayed at each polling place a copy of the ordinance of annexation and a description of the property proposed to be annexed. The description shall be by metes and bounds and shall include a map clearly showing such area.

(d) Ballots or mechanical voting devices used in the referendum on annexation shall offer the choice "For annexation of property described in ordinance number of the City of" and "Against annexation of property described in ordinance number of the City of" in that order.

(e) If there is a separate majority vote for annexation in the annexing municipality and in the area proposed to be annexed, the ordinance of annexation shall become effective on the effective date specified therein. If there is a majority vote against annexation in either the annexing municipality or in the area proposed to be annexed, or in both, the ordinance shall not become effective, and the area proposed to be annexed shall not be the subject of an annexation ordinance by the annexing municipality for a period of 2 years from the date of the referendum on annexation.

(3) Any improved parcel of land which is owned by one individual, corporation, or legal entity, or owned collectively by one or more individuals, corporations, or legal entities, proposed to be annexed under the provisions of this act shall not be severed, separated, divided, or partitioned by the provisions of said ordinance, but shall, if intended to be annexed, or if annexed, under the provisions of this act, be annexed in its entirety and as a whole. However, nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the validity or enforceability of any ordinance declaring an intention to annex land under the existing law that has been enacted by a municipality prior to July 1, 1975. The owner of such property may waive the requirements of this subsection if such owner does not desire all of his tract or parcel included in said annexation.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this law, the annexation procedure as set forth in this section shall constitute a uniform method for the adoption of an ordinance of annexation by the governing body of any municipality in this state, and all existing provisions of special laws which establish municipal annexation procedures are repealed hereby; except that any provision or provisions of special law or laws which prohibit annexation of territory that is separated from the annexing municipality by a body of water or watercourse shall not be repealed.

(5) If the area proposed to be annexed is predominantly owned by individuals, corporations, or legal entities who are not registered electors of the area proposed to be annexed, such area shall not be annexed unless a majority of such individuals, corporations, or legal entities consent to such annexation.

History.—s. 2, ch. 75-297; s. 1, ch. 76-176; s. 44, ch. 77-104.

171.042 Prerequisites to annexation.—

(1) Prior to commencing the annexation procedures under s. 171.0413, the governing body of the municipality shall prepare a report setting forth the plans to provide urban services to any area to be annexed, and the report shall include the following:

(a) A map or maps of the municipality and adjacent territory showing the present and proposed municipal boundaries, the present major trunk water mains and sewer interceptors and outfalls, the proposed extensions of such mains and outfalls, as required in paragraph (c), and the general land use pattern in the area to be annexed.

(b) A statement certifying that the area to be annexed meets the criteria in s. 171.043.

(c) A statement setting forth the plans of the municipality for extending to the area to be annexed each major municipal service performed within the municipality at the time of annexation. Specifically, such plans shall:

1. Provide for extending urban services except as otherwise provided herein to the area to be annexed on the date of annexation on substantially the same basis and in the same manner as such services are provided within the rest of the municipality prior to annexation.

2. Provide for the extension of existing municipal water and sewer services into the area to be annexed so that, when such services are provided, property owners in the area to be annexed will be able to secure public water and sewer service according to the policies in effect in such municipality for extending water and sewer lines to individual lots or subdivisions.

3. If extension of major trunk water mains and sewer mains into the area to be annexed is necessary, set forth a proposed timetable for construction of such mains as soon as possible following the effective date of annexation.

4. Set forth the method under which the municipality plans to finance extension of services into the area to be annexed.

(2) The Department of Community Affairs shall lend its technical assistance to any such municipality in preparing for annexation or deannexation.

(3) Prior to commencing the annexation procedures under s. 171.0413, the governing body of the municipality shall file a copy of the report required by this section with the board of county commissioners of the county wherein the municipality is located.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190; s. 3, ch. 75-297; s. 1, ch. 78-19.

171.043 Character of the area to be annexed.—A municipal governing body may propose to annex an area only if it meets the general standards of subsection (1) and the requirements of either subsection (2) or subsection (3).

(1) The total area to be annexed must be contiguous to the municipality's boundaries at the time the annexation proceeding is begun and reasonably compact, and no part of the area shall be included within the boundary of another incorporated municipality.

(2) Part or all of the area to be annexed must be developed for urban purposes. An area developed for urban purposes is defined as any area which meets any one of the following standards:

(a) It has a total resident population equal to at least two persons for each acre of land included within its boundaries;

(b) It has a total resident population equal to at least one person for each acre of land included within its boundaries and is subdivided into lots and tracts so that at least 60 percent of the total number of lots and tracts are 1 acre or less in size; or

(c) It is so developed that at least 60 percent of the total number of lots and tracts in the area at the time of annexation are used for urban purposes, and it is subdivided into lots and tracts so that at least 60 percent of the total acreage, not counting the acreage used at the time of annexation for nonresidential urban purposes, consists of lots and tracts 5 acres or less in size.

(3) In addition to the area developed for urban purposes, a municipal governing body may include in the area to be annexed any area which does not meet the requirements of subsection (2) if such area either:

(a) Lies between the municipal boundary and an area developed for urban purposes, so that the area developed for urban purposes is either not adjacent to the municipal boundary or cannot be served by the municipality without extending services or water or sewer lines through such sparsely developed area; or

(b) Is adjacent, on at least 60 percent of its external boundary, to any combination of the municipal boundary and the boundary of an area or areas developed for urban purposes as defined in subsection (2).

The purpose of this subsection is to permit municipal governing bodies to extend corporate limits to include all nearby areas developed for urban purposes and, where necessary, to include areas which at the time of annexation are not yet developed for urban purposes whose future probable use is urban and which constitute necessary land connections between the municipality and areas developed for urban purposes or between two or more areas developed for urban purposes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190; s. 2, ch. 76-176.

171.044 Voluntary annexation.—

(1) The owner or owners of real property in an unincorporated area of a county which is contiguous to a municipality and reasonably compact may petition the governing body of said municipality that said property be annexed to the municipality.

(2) Upon determination by the governing body of the municipality that the petition bears the signatures of all owners of property in the area proposed to be annexed, the governing body may, at any regular meeting, adopt a nonemergency ordinance to annex said property and redefine the boundary lines of the municipality to include said property. Said ordinance shall be passed after same has been published once a week for 4 consecutive weeks in some newspaper in such city or town or, if no newspaper is published in said city or town, then in a newspaper published in the same county; and if no newspaper is published in said county, then at least three printed copies of said ordinance shall be posted for 4 consecutive weeks at some conspicuous place in said city or town.

(3) An ordinance adopted hereunder shall be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county in which the municipality is located and with the Department of State.

(4) The method of annexation provided by this section shall be supplemental to any other procedure provided by general or special law, except that this section shall not apply to municipalities in counties with charters which provide for an exclusive method of municipal annexation.

(5) Land shall not be annexed through voluntary annexation when such annexation results in the creation of enclaves.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190; ss. 4, 5, ch. 75-297; s. 3, ch. 76-176.

171.045 Annexation limited to a single county.—In order for an annexation proceeding to be valid for the purposes of this chapter, the annexation must take place within the boundaries of a single county.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-190.

171.051 Contraction procedures.—Any municipality may initiate the contraction of municipal boundaries in the following manner:

(1) The governing body shall by ordinance propose the contraction of municipal boundaries, as described in the ordinance, and provide an effective date for the contraction.

(2) A petition of 15 percent of the qualified voters in an area desiring to be excluded from the municipal boundaries, filed with the clerk of the municipal governing body, may propose such an ordinance. The municipality to which such petition is directed shall immediately undertake a study of the feasibility of such proposal and shall, within 6 months, either initiate proceedings under subsection (1) or reject the petition, specifically stating the facts upon which the rejection is based.

(3) After introduction, the contraction ordinance shall be noticed at least once per week for 4 successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality, such notice to describe the area to be excluded. Such description shall include a statement of findings to show that the area to be excluded fails to meet the criteria of s. 171.043, set the time and place of the meeting at which the ordinance will be considered, and advise that all parties affected may be heard.

(4) If, at the meeting held for such purpose, a petition is filed and signed by at least 15 percent of the qualified voters resident in the area proposed for contraction requesting a referendum on the question, the governing body shall, upon verification, paid for by the municipality, of the sufficiency of the petition, and before passing such ordinance, submit the question of contraction to a vote of the qualified voters of the area proposed for contraction, or the governing body may vote not to contract the municipal boundaries.

(5) The governing body may also call for a referendum on the question of contraction on its own volition and in the absence of a petition requesting a referendum.

(6) The referendum, if required, shall be held at the next regularly scheduled election, or, if approved by a majority of the municipal governing body, at a special election held prior to such election, but no sooner than 30 days after verification of the petition or passage of the resolution or ordinance calling for the referendum.

(7) The municipal governing body shall establish the date of election and publish notice of the referendum election at least once a week for the 4 successive weeks immediately prior to the election in a newspaper of general circulation in the area proposed to be excluded or in the municipality. Such notice shall give the time and places for the election and a description of the area to be excluded, which shall be both in metes and bounds and in the form of a map clearly showing the area proposed to be excluded.

(8) Ballots or mechanical voting devices shall offer the choices "For deannexation" and "Against deannexation," in that order.

(9) A majority vote "For deannexation" shall cause the area proposed for exclusion to be so excluded upon the effective date set in the contraction ordinance.

(10) A majority vote "Against deannexation" shall prevent any part of the area proposed for exclusion from being the subject of a contraction ordinance for a period of 2 years from the date of the referendum election.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.052 Criteria for contraction of municipal boundaries.—

(1) Only those areas which do not meet the criteria for annexation in s. 171.043 may be proposed for exclusion by municipal governing bodies. If the area proposed to be excluded does not meet the criteria of s. 171.043, but such exclusion would result in a portion of the municipality becoming noncontiguous with the rest of the municipality, then such exclusion shall not be allowed.

(2) The ordinance shall make provision for apportionment of any prior existing debt and property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.061 Apportionment of debts and taxes in annexations or contractions.—

(1) The area annexed to a municipality shall be subject to the taxes and debts of the municipality upon the effective date of the annexation. However, the annexed area shall not be subject to municipal ad valorem taxation for the current year if the effective date of the annexation falls after the municipal governing body levies such tax.

(2) The municipal governing body, in the event of exclusion of territory, shall reach agreement with the county governing body to determine what portion, if any, of the existing indebtedness or property of the municipality shall be assumed by the county of which the excluded territory will become a part, the fair value of such indebtedness or property, and the manner of transfer and financing.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.062 Effects of annexations or contractions.—

(1) An area annexed to a municipality shall be subject to all laws, ordinances, and regulations in force in that municipality and shall be entitled to the same privileges and benefits as other parts of that municipality upon the effective date of the annexation.

(2) If the area annexed was subject to a county land-use plan and county zoning or subdivision regulations, said regulations shall remain in full force and effect until otherwise provided by law. However, a municipal governing body shall not be authorized to increase, and is expressly prohibited from increasing, or decrease the density allowed under such county plan and regulations for a period of 2 years from the effective date of the annexation unless approval of such increase is granted by the governing body of the county.

(3) An area excluded from a municipality shall no longer be subject to any laws, ordinances, or regulations in force in the municipality from which it was excluded and shall no longer be entitled to the privileges and benefits accruing to the area within the municipal boundaries upon the effective date of the exclusion. It shall be subject to all laws, ordinances, and regulations in force in that county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.071 Effect in Dade County.—Municipalities within the boundaries of Dade County shall adopt annexation or contraction ordinances pursuant to methods established by the home rule charter established pursuant to s. 6(e), Art. VIII of the State Constitution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

171.081 Appeal on annexation or contraction.—No later than 30 days following the passage of an annexation or contraction ordinance, any party affected who believes that he will suffer material injury by reason of the failure of the municipal governing body to comply with the procedures set forth in this chapter for annexation or contraction or to meet the requirements established for annexation or contraction as they apply to his property may file a petition in the circuit court for the county in which the municipality or municipalities are located seeking review by certiorari. In any action instituted pursuant to this section, the complainant, should he prevail, shall be entitled to reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190; s. 3, ch. 78-95.

171.091 Recording.—Any change in the municipal boundaries through annexation or contraction shall revise the charter boundary article and shall be filed as a revision of the charter with the Department of State within 30 days.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-190.

CHAPTER 173

FORECLOSURE OF MUNICIPAL TAX AND SPECIAL ASSESSMENT LIENS

- 173.01 Foreclosure of municipal tax certificates authorized.
- 173.02 Proceedings in rem against the lands.
- 173.03 Conditions determining when suit may be brought; lands and claims included.
- 173.04 Procedure for bringing foreclosure suit; certificate of attorney as to notice of suit; jurisdiction obtained by publication of notice of suit; form of notice.
- 173.05 Parties; time for appearance, etc.
- 173.06 Affidavits and certificates as prima facie evidence; proof of validity or invalidity.
- 173.07 Tender of correct amount as condition precedent.
- 173.08 Judgment for complainant; amounts included; attorney's fee.
- 173.09 Judgment for complainant; special master's sale; complainant may purchase and later sell.
- 173.10 Judgment for complainant; court may order payment of other taxes, etc., or sale subject to taxes; special master's conveyances.
- 173.11 Distribution of proceeds of sale.
- 173.12 Lands may be redeemed prior to sale.
- 173.13 Procedure under this chapter optional.
- 173.14 Chapter supplemental to other law.
- 173.15 Parties and subject matter; tax liens, etc., of equal dignity.

173.01 Foreclosure of municipal tax certificates authorized.—The lien of any and all taxes, except those ad valorem taxes collectible by the county tax collector, tax certificates, and special assessments imposed by any incorporated city or town in the state upon real estate may be foreclosed by such city or town by suit in chancery. The practice, pleading, and procedure in any such suit shall be in substantial accordance with the practice, pleading, and procedure for the foreclosure of mortgages of real estate, except as herein otherwise provided.

History.—s. 1, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(2); s. 31, ch. 73-332.

173.02 Proceedings in rem against the lands.—Suits for the foreclosure of tax liens and special assessments under this chapter shall be in the nature of proceedings in rem against the lands upon which said taxes or special assessments are a lien or liens, and it shall not be material that the ownership of said lands be correctly alleged in said proceedings or that parties having an interest or interests in or liens or claims upon said lands be made parties to such proceedings by name or description or be served with process therein, except as hereinafter provided. In any such suit as many lots, parcels or tracts of land, regardless of ownership, and as many tax liens, tax certificates and assessment liens may be included in one suit as the complainant may desire. Any judgment or decree that may be rendered in any such suit shall be enforceable only against such lands.

History.—s. 2, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(3).

173.03 Conditions determining when suit may be brought; lands and claims included.—

(1) Suit may be brought at any time after any one or more of the following events, respectively:

(a) After the expiration of 2 years from the date of any tax certificate issued and held by a city or town whose charter provides for or requires the issuing of tax certificates for delinquent taxes;

(b) After the expiration of 2 years from the date any tax becomes delinquent which was imposed by a city or town whose charter does not provide for or require the issuing of tax certificates; or

(c) After the expiration of 1 year from the date any special assessment or installment thereof becomes due and payable.

(2) There may be included in any suit all or any part of the lands upon which tax certificates have been outstanding or taxes have remained delinquent or any special assessment or installment thereof shall have been in default for the respective periods aforesaid, and there may be included therein all claims and demands of said city or town against said lands or any part thereof for taxes, tax certificates and special assessments or installments thereof which may be due and payable to such city or town at the time of the institution of such suit.

History.—s. 3, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(4).

(1) Any suit hereby authorized shall be commenced by bill in chancery in the circuit court of the county in which such city or town is situated, in the name of the city or town whose taxes, tax certificates and special assessments are sought to be enforced, as complainant, and against any or all lands upon which any taxes, tax certificates and special assessments are delinquent (as the case may be) for the period aforesaid, as defendant, in which bill there shall be briefly described the levy and nonpayment of taxes and special assessments which are delinquent for the period aforesaid, and of all other taxes and special assessments then due and payable to said city or town and sought to be recovered in such bill, the lands proceeded against and the amount chargeable to each parcel or tract. It shall be unnecessary to name in such bill or proceedings any person owning or having any interest in or lien upon such lands as defendants. At least 30 days prior to the filing of any such bill in chancery, written notice of intention to file the same shall be sent by registered mail to the last known address of the holder of the record title and to the holder of record of each mortgage or other lien, except judgment liens, upon each tract of land to be included in said bill in chancery; such notice shall briefly describe the particular lot or parcel of land, shall state the amount of tax certificate and special assessment liens sought to be enforced and shall warn said owner and holders of liens, mortgages or other liens that on or after the day therein named said bill in chancery to enforce the same will be filed, unless paid on or before said date.

(2) A certificate of the attorney shall be attached to the bill of complaint to the effect that said written notice has been given, and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the provisions of this section have been complied with. The complainant's counsel shall make diligent inquiry as to the address of the record title and holders of record liens other than judgments and the clerk of the circuit court shall mail by registered mail a copy of the notice hereinafter provided for, to such record owner and holders of record liens other than judgments at such last known address.

(3) Jurisdiction of any of said lands and of all parties interested therein or having any lien thereon shall be obtained by publication of a notice to be issued as of course by the clerk of the circuit court in which such bill is filed on the request of complainant, once each week for not less than 4 consecutive weeks, directed to all persons and corporations interested in or having any lien or claim upon any of the lands described in said notice and said bill. Such notice shall describe the lands involved and the respective principal amounts sought to be recovered in such suit for taxes, tax certificates and special assessments on such respective parcels of land, and requiring all such parties to appear and defend said suit on or before the day specified in said notice, which shall be not less than 4 weeks after the date of the first publication of such notice. Said notice may be in substantially the following form, with blanks appropriately filled in: vs.

Name City or Town, Complainant,

Certain lands upon which (here insert the word
"taxes," or the words
"special assessments" or both, as the case may be) are delinquent,

Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR COUNTY, FLORIDA.
IN CHANCERY.

NOTICE

To all persons and corporations interested in or having any lien or claim upon any of the lands described herein:

You are hereby notified that (name city or town) has filed its bill of complaint in the above named court to foreclose delinquent (here insert the words "tax liens, tax certificates or special assessments," as the case may be) with interest and penalties, upon the parcels of land set forth in the following schedule, the aggregate amount of such (here insert the words "tax liens, tax certificates or special assessments," as the case may be) interest and penalties, against said respective parcels of land, as set forth in said bill of complaint, being set opposite such parcels in the following schedule, to wit:

DESCRIPTION OF LANDS

Amount of (here insert the word "taxes," or the words "special assessments" or both, as the case may be).

In addition to the amounts set opposite each parcel of land in the foregoing schedule, interest and penalties, as provided by law, on such delinquent taxes and special assessments, together with a proportionate part of the costs and expenses of this suit, are sought to be enforced and foreclosed in this suit.

You are hereby notified to appear and make your defenses to said bill of complaint on or before the day of, and if you fail to do so on or before said date the bill will be taken as confessed by you and you will be barred from thereafter contesting said suit, and said respective parcels of land will be sold by decree of said court for nonpayment of said taxes and assessment liens and interest and penalties thereon and the costs of this suit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of said court, this day of

.....(Clerk of said court.).....

By(Deputy clerk.).....

(4) Proof of publication of said notice, as herein required, shall be by affidavit of the publisher or some agent or employee thereof filed in said cause.

History.—s. 4, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(5); s. 32, ch. 71-355. cf.—s. 1.01 Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

173.05 Parties; time for appearance, etc.—Every person interested in or having any lien upon any parcel of land described in the bill of complaint shall be deemed a party to said cause and may appear and defend said cause within the time specified in such notice. Any person not appearing and defending within such time shall be deemed to have confessed said bill, but the court may in its discretion and for cause shown enlarge the time within which any such person may appear and defend said cause.

173.06 Affidavits and certificates as prima facie evidence; proof of validity or invalidity.—

(1) An affidavit or affidavits of the tax collector or other officer of complainant having the duty of issuing or collecting such taxes, special assessments or tax certificates, as to the existence of delinquent taxes, tax certificates and special assessments upon any parcel of land and the time when the same became due, the amount due thereon, including interest and penalties, and the nonpayment thereof, shall be received in evidence as prima facie proof of the facts so certified and of the validity of all proceedings in and about the levying and assessment of such taxes and special assessments and the issuing of such tax certificate or certificates.

(2) Tax certificates shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie valid.

(3) No tax certificate shall be held invalid except upon proof that the property was not subject to taxation or that the taxes had been paid previous to any tax sale or prior to the institution of the suit.

History.—s. 5, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(6).

173.07 Tender of correct amount as condition precedent.—If any person shall claim that any tax, tax certificate or assessment is improper or illegal, and seek to contest the same, then such person at the time of filing an answer resisting the foreclosure of any tax lien, tax certificate or assessment lien shall tender into the registry of the court such amount as he claims was properly assessable or for which the property of such person was properly assessable.

(1) In all cases where the cause may be decided for complainant, the judgment for delinquent taxes, tax certificates and special assessments against any parcel of land shall include the principal of, and interest and penalties on such taxes, tax certificates and special assessments, the costs of the suit and a reasonable attorney's fee; such costs and attorney's fee to be apportioned among and charged against the various parcels of land involved in proportion to the amount of taxes, tax certificates and special assessments adjudged against such respective parcels of land.

(2) In fixing the fees of complainant's attorney the court shall take into consideration the use which the complainant has made of the privilege hereby given of including in one suit divers taxes, tax certificates and assessment liens, and if the court be of the opinion that there has been an unnecessary separation of causes of action on the same or different parcels of land which might have been joined in the same action, it shall not allow an attorney's fee greater than would have been allowed if the action had been combined.

173.09 Judgment for complainant; special master's sale; complainant may purchase and later sell.—

(1) Any such decree shall direct the special master thereby appointed to sell the several parcels of land separately to the highest and best bidder for cash (or, at the option of complainant, to the extent of special assessments included in such judgment, for bonds or interest coupons issued by complainant), at public outcry at the courthouse door of the county in which such suit is pending, or at such point or place in the complainant municipality as the court in such final decree may direct, after having advertised such sale (which advertisement may include all lands so ordered sold) once each week for 2 consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the city or town in which is the complainant or if no such newspaper, in a newspaper published in the county in which the suit is pending, and if all the lands so advertised for sale be not sold on the day specified in such advertisement, such sale shall be continued from day to day until the sale of all such land is completed.

(2) Such sales shall be subject to confirmation by the court, and said special master shall, upon confirmation of the sale or sales, deliver to the purchaser or purchasers at said sale a deed of conveyance of the property so sold; provided, however, that in any case where any lands are offered for sale by the special master and the sum of the tax, tax certificates and special assessments, interest, penalty, costs and attorney's fee is not bid for the same, the complainant may bid the whole amount due and the special master shall thereupon convey such parcel or parcels of land to the complainant.

(3) The property so bid in by complainant shall become its property in fee simple and may be disposed of by it in the manner provided by law, except that in the sale or disposition of any such lands the city or town may, in its discretion, accept in payment or part payment therefor any bonds or interest coupons constituting liabilities of said city or town.

History.—s. 5, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(6).

(1) In the judgment or decree the court may, in its discretion, direct the payment of all unpaid state and county taxes and also all unpaid city or town taxes and special assessments or installments thereof, imposed or falling due since the institution of the suit, with the penalties and costs, out of the proceeds of such foreclosure sale, or it may order and direct such sale or sales to be made subject to such state and county and city or town taxes and special assessments.

(2) Any and all conveyances by the special master shall vest in the purchaser the fee simple title to the property so sold, subject only to such liens for state and county taxes or taxing districts whose liens are of equal dignity, and liens for municipal taxes and special assessments, or installments thereof, as are not directed by the decree of sale to be paid out of the proceeds of said sale.

History.—s. 5, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(6).

173.11 Distribution of proceeds of sale.—The proceeds of any foreclosure sale authorized by this chapter shall be distributed by the special master conducting the sale according to the final decree and if any surplus remains after the payment of the full amount of the decree, costs and attorney's fees and any subsequent tax liens which may be directed by such decree to be paid from the proceeds of sale, such surplus shall be deposited with the clerk of the court and disbursed under order of the court.

History.—s. 6, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(7).

173.12 Lands may be redeemed prior to sale.—Any person interested in any lands included in the suit may redeem such lands at any time prior to the sale thereof by the special master by paying into the registry of the court the amount due for delinquent taxes, interest and penalties thereon and such proportionate part of the expense, attorney's fees and costs of suit as may have been fixed by the court in its decree of sale, or by written stipulation of complainant, and thereupon such lands shall be dismissed from the cause.

History.—s. 7, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(8).

173.13 Procedure under this chapter optional.—The exercise of the power and provisions conferred in this chapter shall be optional with the municipalities and shall not be mandatory upon any municipality of the state. Any municipality desiring to proceed hereunder may elect to proceed hereunder by formal action of its governing authority and by proceeding as described herein.

History.—s. 8, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(9).

173.14 Chapter supplemental to other law.—This chapter shall not repeal any other statute relating to the subject matter hereof, but shall be deemed to provide a supplemental, additional and alternative method of enforcement of tax liens and special assessments for the benefit of all incorporated cities or towns of the state of Florida, whether organized under special act or general laws, and shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purpose.

History.—s. 9, ch. 15038, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 3004(10).

173.15 Parties and subject matter; tax liens, etc., of equal dignity.—

(1) In the foreclosure of municipal tax and special assessment liens by suit in the nature of proceedings in rem, as provided by chapter 173, for the purpose of adjudicating therein all tax liens against the lands being proceeded against, or any portion thereof, and receiving from the proceeds of any foreclosure sale in such proceedings a proper and proportionate share of such proceeds in satisfaction of tax liens so adjudicated, the owner, holder or assignee of any tax lien, however evidenced, of equal or inferior dignity with those of the complainant on or against the lands being proceeded against, or any portion thereof, may be included as and made a party defendant in such proceeding by the service of process on such party defendant in the manner provided by law for service of process on defendants in chancery.

(2) This section is intended to broaden the scope of the foreclosure proceedings authorized by chapter 173, so as to permit the adjudication of tax liens of equal dignity in said proceedings, and shall be liberally construed to effectuate such purpose.

175.011 Short title of act.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.021 Legislative declaration.—It is hereby declared by the Legislature that firefighters, as hereinafter defined, perform state and municipal functions; that it is their duty to extinguish fires, to protect life, and to protect property at their own risk and peril; that it is their duty to prevent conflagration and to continuously instruct school personnel, public officials, and private citizens in the prevention of fires and fire safety; that they protect both life and property from local disasters; and that their activities are vital to the public's safety. Therefore, the Legislature declares that it is a proper and legitimate state purpose to provide a uniform retirement system for the benefit of firefighters as hereinafter defined.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 1, ch. 79-380.

175.032 Definitions.—The following words and phrases used in this act shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1)(a) "Firefighter" means any person employed solely in a constituted fire department of any municipality, or special fire control district established by this state law prior to 1963, who is certified as a firefighter as a condition of employment in accordance with the provisions of s. 633.35 and whose duty it is to extinguish fires, to protect life, and to protect property. However, for purposes of this chapter only, "firefighter" also shall include public safety officers who are responsible for performing both police and fire services, who are certified as police officers or firefighters, and who are certified by their employers to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer as participating in this chapter prior to October 1, 1979. Effective October 1, 1979, public safety officers who have not been certified as participating in this chapter shall be considered police officers for retirement purposes and shall be eligible to participate in chapter 185.

(b) "Volunteer firefighter" means any person whose name is carried on the active membership roll of a constituted volunteer fire department or a combination of a paid and volunteer fire department of any municipality and whose duty it is to extinguish fires, to protect life, and to protect property. Compensation for services rendered by a volunteer firefighter shall not disqualify him as a volunteer. A person shall not be disqualified as a volunteer firefighter solely because he has other gainful employment. Any person who volunteers assistance at a fire but is not an active member of a department described herein is not a volunteer firefighter within the meaning of this paragraph.

(2)(a) "Average final compensation for full-time 'firemen'" means the average salary of the 10 best contributing years of the last 15 years prior to retirement, or the career average as full-time 'firemen' since July 1, 1953, whichever is greater. A year shall be 12 running months.

(b) "Average final compensation for volunteer 'firemen'" means the average salary of the 10 best contributing years prior to change in status to a permanent full-time 'fireman' or retirement as a volunteer 'fireman' or the career average of a volunteer 'fireman', since July 1, 1953, whichever is greater.

(3) "Salary" means the fixed monthly compensation paid 'firemen' and where, as in the case of volunteer 'firemen', compensation is derived from actual services rendered, salary shall be the total cash compensation received yearly for such services, prorated on a monthly basis.

(4) "Property insurance" means property insurance as defined in s. 624.604, and covers real and personal property within the corporate limits of any municipality within the state. Multiple peril means a combination or package policy which includes both property and casualty coverage for a single premium.

(5)(a) "Aggregate number of years of service with the municipality" shall mean the total number of years, and fractional parts of years of service of any 'fireman, omitting intervening years and fractional parts of years, when such 'fireman may not be employed by the municipality. Provided, however, that no 'fireman will receive credit for years of fractional parts of years of service for which he has withdrawn his contributions to the fund for those years or fractional parts of years of service, unless the said 'fireman repays into said fund the contributions he has withdrawn, with interest, within 90 days after his reemployment. Further, providing that a 'fireman may voluntarily leave his contributions in the fund for a period of 5 years after leaving the employ of the fire department, pending the possibility of his being rehired by the same department and remaining employed for a period of not less than 3 years, without losing credit for the time he has participated actively as a 'fireman. Should he not remain employed for a period of at least 3 years as a 'fireman, with the same department upon reemployment, within 5 years, his contributions shall be returned to him without interest.

(b) In determining the aggregate number of years of service of any 'fireman, the time spent in the military service of the Armed Forces of the United States, or the United States Merchant Marine, while on official leave of absence in the event of a national emergency, shall be added to the years of actual service; provided, however, that to receive credit for such services, the 'fireman must return to his employment as a 'fireman of the municipality within 1 year from the date of his release from such active service, provided further, however, that credit for such military service shall not exceed 5 years; provided further, however, that in order for any 'fireman to receive said military service credit, the said 'fireman must contribute into said fund the same sum which said 'fireman would have contributed should he have remained a 'fireman; provided further, however, that a request for such military service is made by the said 'fireman within 90 days after reentering the service of the fire department from such leave of absence granted, or such military service credit shall be forfeited forever.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.041 Municipal Firefighters' Pension Trust Fund created; applicability of provisions.—

(1) There is hereby created a special fund to be known as the "Municipal Firefighters' Pension Trust Fund," exclusively for the purpose of this act, in each municipality of this state heretofore or hereafter created which now has or which may hereafter have a constituted fire department or an authorized volunteer fire department, or any combination thereof, and which municipality does not presently have established by law, special law, or local ordinance a similar fund.

(2) To qualify as a fire department or volunteer fire department or combination thereof under the provisions of this chapter, the department shall own and use apparatus for the fighting of fires that is in compliance with National Fire Protection Association Standards for Automotive Fire Apparatus.

(3) The provisions of this act shall apply only to municipalities organized and established pursuant to the laws of the state, and said provisions shall not apply to the unincorporated areas of any county or counties nor shall the provisions hereof apply to any governmental entity whose employees are eligible for membership in a state or state and county retirement system.

(4) No municipality shall establish more than one retirement plan for public safety officers which is supported in whole or in part by the distribution of premium tax funds as provided by this chapter or chapter 185, nor shall any municipality establish a retirement plan for public safety officers which receives premium tax funds from both this chapter and chapter 185.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 1, ch. 65-153; ss. 2, 3, ch. 79-380; s. 1, ch. 79-388.

175.051 Actuarial deficits not state obligation.—Actuarial deficits, if any, arising under this act, shall not be the obligation of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

175.061 Board of trustees; members, terms of office.—In each municipality there is hereby created a board of trustees of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund. The board of trustees shall consist of the mayor, or corresponding officer, when the municipality does not have a mayor; the chief of the fire department; two 'firemen of the municipality, to be elected by a majority of the 'firemen whose names appear on the rolls as members of the fire department of the municipality; and one legal resident of the municipality, to be appointed by the legislative body of the municipality. The mayor, or corresponding officer of the municipality, and the chief of the fire department, shall serve as long as they shall continue to hold office as mayor or chief, respectively, and upon a vacancy in the office of mayor or chief, their respective successors shall automatically succeed to the position of trustee, and each of the 'firemen shall be trustee, appointed for a period of 2 years, unless he sooner leaves the employment of the municipality, whereupon a successor shall be elected by a majority of the 'firemen in the municipality where such vacancy exists; the resident member shall be a trustee for a term of 2 years and he may succeed himself in office. The resident member shall hold office at the pleasure of the legislative body of the municipality that he represents. The mayor shall be the chairman of the board. The board of trustees shall elect one of its members as secretary. The secretary of the board shall keep a complete minute book of the actions, proceedings, or hearings of the board. The trustees shall not receive any compensation as such, but may receive expenses and per diem as provided by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.071 Powers of board of trustees.—The board of trustees may:

(1) Invest and reinvest the assets of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund in annuity and life insurance contracts of life insurance companies in amounts sufficient to provide, in whole or in part, the benefits to which all of the participants in the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund shall be entitled under the provisions of this act, and pay the initial and subsequent premiums thereon.

(2) Invest and reinvest the assets of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund in:

(a) Time or savings accounts of a national bank, a state bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or a savings, building and loan association insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(b) Obligations of the United States or obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Government of the United States.

(c) County bonds containing a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county involved, bonds of the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services, or of any other state agency, which have been approved as to legal and fiscal sufficiency by the State Board of Administration.

(d) Obligations of any municipal authority issued pursuant to the laws of this state; provided, however, that for each of the 5 years next preceding the date of investment the income of such authority available for fixed charges shall have been not less than 1.5 times its average annual fixed-charges requirement over the life of its obligations.

(e) Bonds, stocks or other evidences of indebtedness issued or guaranteed by a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, any state, or organized territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, provided:

1. The corporation is listed on any one or more of the recognized national stock exchanges and holds a rating in one of the three highest classifications by a major rating service;

2. The corporation has paid cash dividends for a period of 7 fiscal years next preceding the date of acquisition;

3. The corporation fulfills either of the following standards: Over the period of the 7 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase the corporation must have earned after federal income taxes, an average amount per annum at least equal to two times the amount of the yearly interest charges upon its bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of equal or greater security outstanding at date of purchase, and earned after federal income taxes, an amount at least equal to two times the amount of such interest charges in each of the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase; or the corporation over the period of 7 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase must have earned after federal income taxes, an average amount per annum at least equal to 6 percent of the par value of its bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of equal or greater security outstanding at date of purchase, and earned after federal income taxes, an amount at least equal to 6 percent of the par value of such obligations in each of the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase. No investment shall be made under this paragraph upon which any interest obligation is in default or which has been in default within the immediately preceding 5-year period;

4. The board of trustees shall not invest more than 1 percent of its assets in the common stock or capital stock of any one issuing company, nor shall the aggregate investment in any one issuing company exceed 1 percent of the outstanding capital stock of that company; nor shall the aggregate of its investments under this section at cost exceed 10 percent of the fund's assets.

(3) Issue drafts upon the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund pursuant to this act and rules and regulations prescribed by the board of trustees; all such drafts shall be consecutively numbered and be signed by the chairman and secretary and shall state upon their face the purpose for which the drafts are drawn. The treasurer or depository of each municipality shall retain such drafts when paid, as permanent vouchers for disbursements made, and no money shall be otherwise drawn from the fund.

(4) Any and all acts and decisions shall be by at least three members of the board; however, no trustee shall take part in any action in connection with his own participation in the fund, and no unfair discrimination shall be shown to any individual 'fireman participating in the fund.

(5) The board's action on all claims for retirement under this act shall be final, provided, however, that the rules and regulations of the board have been complied with.

(6) Convert into cash any securities of the fund.

(7) Keep a complete record of all receipts and disbursements and of the board's acts and proceedings.

(8) The general administration of, and the responsibilities for, the proper operation of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund and for making effective the provisions of this act are vested in the board of trustees. The board of trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for an actuarial valuation of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund and for checking the actual experience of the fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 1, ch. 65-365; ss. 22, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.081 Use of annuity or insurance policies.

—When the board of trustees purchases annuity or life insurance contracts to provide all or any part of the benefits as provided for by this act, the following principles shall be observed:

(1) Only those 'firemen who have been members of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund for 1 year or more may participate in the insured plan.

(2) Individual policies shall be purchased only when a group insurance plan is not feasible.

(3) Each application and policy shall designate the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund as owner of the policy.

(4) Policies shall be written on an annual premium basis.

(5) The type of policy shall be one which for the premium paid provides each individual with the maximum retirement benefit at his earliest statutory normal retirement age.

(6) Death benefit, if any, should not exceed:

(a) One hundred times the estimated normal retirement income, based on the assumption that the present rate of compensation continues without change to normal retirement date, or

(b) Twice the annual rate of compensation as of the date of termination of service, or

(c) The single-sum value of the accrued deferred retirement income (beginning at normal retirement date) at date of termination of service, whichever is greatest.

(7) An insurance plan may provide that the assignment of insurance contract to separating 'firemen shall be at least equivalent to the return of the 'firemen's contributions used to purchase the contract. An assignment of contract discharges the municipality from all further obligation to the participant under the plan even though the cash value of such contract may be less than the 'firemen's contributions.

(8) Provisions shall be made, either by issuance of separate policies, or otherwise, that the separating 'fireman does not receive cash value and other benefits under the policies assigned to him which exceed the present value of his vested interest under the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund, inclusive of his contribution to the plan; the contributions by the state shall not be exhausted faster merely because the method of funding adopted was through insurance companies.

(9) The 'fireman shall have the right at any time to give the board of trustees written instructions designating the primary and contingent beneficiaries to receive death benefits or proceeds, and the method of settlement of the death benefit or proceeds, or requesting a change in the beneficiary designation or method of settlement previously made, subject to the terms of the policy or policies on his life. Upon receipt of such written instructions, the board of trustees shall take necessary steps to effectuate the designation or change of beneficiary or settlement option.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.091 Creation and maintenance of fund.

The Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund in each municipality shall be created and maintained in the following manner:

(1) By payment to the fund of the net proceeds of the 2 percent excise or license or other similar tax, which may be imposed by the respective municipalities upon fire insurance companies, fire insurance associations, or other property insurers on their gross receipts on premiums from holders of policies, which policies cover real or personal property within the corporate limits of such municipalities, as is hereinafter expressly authorized.

(2) By the payment to the fund of 5 percent of the salary of each uniformed 'fireman who is a member or duly enrolled in the fire department of any municipality, which 5 percent shall be deducted by the municipality from the compensation due to the 'fireman and paid over to the board of trustees of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund wherein such 'fireman is employed. A 'fireman participating in the old age survivors insurance of the Federal Social Security Law may limit his contribution to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund to 3 percent of his annual compensation and receive reduced benefits as set forth in s. 175.211 and s. 175.191(5). No 'fireman shall have any right to said money so paid into said fund except as provided in this act.

(3) By all fines and forfeitures imposed and collected from any 'fireman because of the violation of any rule and regulation promulgated by the board of trustees.

(4) By mandatory payment by municipality of a sum equal to the normal cost and the amount required to fund over a period of 40 years or on a 40-year basis, any actuarial deficiency shown by a quinquennial actuarial valuation. The first such actuarial valuation shall be conducted for the calendar year ending December 31, 1967.

(5) By all gifts, bequests and devises when donated to the fund.

(6) By all accretions to the fund by way of interest or dividends on bank deposits, or otherwise.

(7) By all other sources or income now or hereafter authorized by law for the augmentation of such Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 1, ch. 65-58; s. 1, ch. 67-218.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.101 Two percent excise tax on property insurance premiums authorized; procedure.

Each municipality in this state described and classified in s. 175.041, having a lawfully established Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund or municipal fund providing pension benefits to 'firemen by whatever name known, may assess and impose on every insurance company, corporation or other insurer now engaged in or carrying on, or who shall herein-after engage in or carry on the business of property insurance as shown by the records of the Department of Insurance, an excise or license tax in addition to any lawful license or excise tax now levied by each of the said municipalities, respectively, amounting to 2 percent of the gross amount of receipts of premiums from policyholders on all premiums collected on property insurance policies covering property within the corporate limits of such municipalities, respectively. In the case of multiple peril policies with a single premium for both the property and casualty coverages in such policies, 70 percent of such premium shall be used as the basis for the 2 percent tax above. Said excise or license tax shall be payable annually on March 1 of each year after the passage of an ordinance assessing and imposing the tax herein authorized. Every insurance company, corporation or other insurer paying such tax shall receive credit for the amount thereof, when paid on the amount payable by such insurer to the state for the similar state excise tax now imposed by other provisions of law; provided, however, that this chapter shall not be construed to require the payment of any excise tax by an insurance company that does not now pay such tax.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.111 Certified copy of ordinance filed; insurance companies' annual report of premiums; duplicate files; book of accounts.—Whenever any municipality shall pass an ordinance assessing and imposing the taxes authorized in s. 175.101, a certified copy of such ordinance shall be deposited with both the Department of Banking and Finance and the Department of Insurance, and thereafter every insurance company, association, corporation or other insurer carrying on the business of property insurance on real or personal property, on or before the succeeding March 1 after date of the passage of said ordinance shall report fully in writing and under oath to the Department of Banking and Finance and the Department of Insurance, a just and true account of all premiums by such insurer received for property insurance policies covering or insuring any real or personal property located within the corporate limits of each such municipality during the period of time elapsing between the date of the passage of said ordinance and the succeeding March 1. Said report shall include the city code designation as prescribed by the insurance commission for each piece of insured property, real or personal, located within the corporate limits of each municipality. The aforesaid insurer shall annually thereafter, on March 1, file with the same departments, a similar report covering the preceding year's premium receipts, and every such insurer at the same time of making such reports shall pay to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer the amount of the tax hereinbefore mentioned. Every insurer engaged in carrying on such insurance business in the state shall keep accurate books of accounts of all such business done by it within the corporate limits of each such municipality, and in such manner as to be able to comply with the provisions of this section. The Department of Insurance shall furnish to any municipality requesting the same a copy of any of the reports filed by insurers under this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 12, 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 75-240.

175.121 Moneys received by Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer paid into trust fund; Comptroller to pay municipalities annually.—The Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer of the state shall keep a separate account of all moneys collected for each municipality, under the provisions of this act and any and all moneys so collected, after deducting the necessary expenses incurred by the Department of Insurance (not to exceed $30,000 per annum) in carrying out the provisions of this act, shall be paid into the State Treasury in a fund known as the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund. The Comptroller shall, on or before June 1 of each year, and at such other times as the State Treasurer may elect, draw his warrant on the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer for the full net amount of money then on deposit with the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer in the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund, specifying the municipality to which said moneys shall be paid and the net amount collected for and to be paid to each said municipality, which said sums payable to said municipality are hereby appropriated annually out of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund. The warrants of the Comptroller shall be countersigned by the Governor and shall be payable to the municipality entitled to receive the same, and shall be remitted annually by the Comptroller to each municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 74-294.

175.122 Limitation of disbursement.—Any municipality participating in the Municipal Firemen's Pension Trust Fund pursuant to provisions of this chapter shall be limited to receiving any moneys from such fund in excess of that produced by one-half of the excise tax, as provided for in s. 175.101; provided, however, that any such municipality receiving less than 6 percent of its fire department payroll from such fund shall be entitled to receive from such fund the amount determined under s. 175.121, in excess of one-half of said excise tax, not to exceed 6 percent of its fire department payroll.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-217.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.131 Funds received by municipalities; deposit in Municipal Firefighters' Pension Trust Fund.—All funds received by any municipality under the provisions of this chapter, shall be by such municipality paid immediately into the Municipal Firemen's Pension Trust Fund of said municipality, as described in s. 175.041, or s. 175.351(13).

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.141 Tax imposed by municipalities under this act not additional to state excise tax; credit given on state tax.—The tax herein authorized to be imposed by each municipality shall in no wise be in addition to any similar state excise or license tax imposed by law, but the payer of the tax hereby authorized shall receive credit therefor on his said state excise or license tax and the balance of said state excise or license tax shall be paid to the State Treasurer as is now provided by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

175.151 Penalty for failure of insurers to comply with this act.—Should any insurance company, corporation or other insurer fail to comply with the provisions of this act, on or before March 1 of each year as herein provided, the certificate of authority issued to said insurance company, corporation or other insurer to transact business in this state may be canceled and revoked by the Department of Insurance, and it is unlawful for any such insurance company, corporation, or other insurer to transact business thereafter in this state unless such insurance company, corporation, or other insurer shall be granted a new certificate of authority to transact any business in this state, in compliance with provisions of law authorizing such certificate of authority to be issued.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

175.162 Requirements for retirement.—Any 'fireman who has attained the age of 60 years, or more, and who at such time has completed at least 10 years of continuous service within the contemplation of this act, as a 'fireman and who for such minimum period has been a member of the Municipal Firemen's Pension Trust Fund, is eligible for normal retirement benefits. Normal retirement under the plan is retirement from the service of the municipality, on or after the normal retirement date. In such event, payment of retirement income will be governed by the following provisions of this section:

(1) The normal retirement date of each 'fireman will be the first day of the month coincident with or next following the date on which he has attained the age of 60 years and has completed 10 years, in the aggregate within the contemplation of this act, of service.

(2)(a) The amount of monthly retirement income payable to a full-time 'fireman who retires on or after his normal retirement date shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 2 percent of his average final compensation as a full-time 'fireman. If the 'fireman has been contributing only 3 percent of his salary, his monthly retirement income shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 1.2 percent of his average final compensation.

(b) The amount of monthly retirement income payable to a volunteer 'fireman who retires on or after his normal retirement date shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 2 percent of his average final compensation as a volunteer 'fireman. If the 'fireman has been contributing only 3 percent of his salary, his monthly retirement income shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 1.2 percent of his average final compensation.

(3) The monthly retirement income payable in the event of normal retirement will be payable on the first day of each month. The first payment will be made on the 'fireman's normal retirement date, or on the first day of the month coincident with or next following his actual retirement, if later, and the last payment will be the payment due next preceding the 'fireman's death; except that, in the event the 'fireman dies after his retirement but before he has received retirement benefits for a period of 10 years, the same monthly benefit will be paid to the beneficiary (or beneficiaries), as designated by the 'fireman for the balance of such 10-year period. If a 'fireman continues in the service of the municipality beyond his normal retirement date and dies prior to his date of actual retirement, without an option made pursuant to s. 175.171 being in effect, monthly retirement income payments will be made for a period of 10 years to a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by the 'fireman as if the 'fireman had retired on the date on which his death occurred.

(4) Early retirement under the plan is retirement from the service of the municipality, with the consent of the said municipality, as of the first day of any calendar month which is prior to the 'fireman's normal retirement date but subsequent to the date as of which he has both attained the age of 50 years and has been a member of this fund for 10 continuous years. The monthly amount of retirement income payable to a 'fireman who retires prior to his normal retirement date shall be in the amount computed as described in subsection (2), such amount of retirement income to be actuarially reduced to take into account the 'fireman's younger age and the earlier commencement of retirement income benefits. The amount of monthly income payable in the event of early retirement will be paid in the same manner as in subsection (3).

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 1, ch. 70-129.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.171 Optional forms of retirement income.—

(1) In lieu of the amount and form of retirement income payable in the event of normal or early retirement as specified in s. 175.162, a 'fireman, upon written request to the board of trustees, and submission of evidence of good health (except that such evidence will not be required if such request is made at least 3 years prior to the date of commencement of retirement income or if such request is made within 6 months following the effective date of the plan, if later), and subject to the approval of the board of trustees, may elect to receive a retirement income or benefit of equivalent actuarial value payable in accordance with one of the following options:

(a) A retirement income of larger monthly amount, payable to the 'fireman for his lifetime only.

(b) A retirement income of a modified monthly amount, payable to the 'fireman during the joint lifetime of the 'fireman and a dependent joint pensioner designated by the 'fireman, and following the death of either of them, 100 percent, 66⅔ percent or 50 percent of such monthly amounts payable to the survivor for the lifetime of the survivor.

(c) Such other amount and form of retirement payments or benefits as, in the opinion of the board of trustees will best meet the circumstances of the retiring ¹fireman.

1. The ¹fireman upon electing any option of this section will designate the joint pensioner or beneficiary (or beneficiaries) to receive the benefit, if any, payable under the plan in the event of his death, and will have the power to change such designation from time to time, but any such change shall be deemed a new election and will be subject to approval by the board of trustees. Such designation will name a joint pensioner or one or more primary beneficiaries where applicable. If a ¹fireman has elected an option with a joint pensioner or beneficiary and his retirement income benefits have commenced, he may thereafter change his designated joint pensioner or beneficiary, but only if the board of trustees consents to such change and if the joint pensioner last previously designated by him is alive when he files with the board of trustees his request for such change.

2. The consent of a ¹fireman's joint pensioner or beneficiary to any such change shall not be required.

3. The board of trustees may request such evidence of the good health of the joint pensioner that is being removed as it may require and the amount of the retirement income payable to the ¹fireman upon designation of a new joint pensioner shall be actuarially redetermined taking into account the age and sex of the former joint pensioner, the new joint pensioner, and the ¹fireman. Each such designation will be made in writing on a form prepared by the board of trustees, and on completion will be filed with the board of trustees. In the event that no designated beneficiary survives the ¹fireman, such benefits as are payable in the event of the death of the ¹fireman subsequent to his retirement, shall be paid as provided in s. 175.181.

(a) If a ¹fireman dies prior to his normal retirement date, or early retirement date, whichever first occurs, no retirement benefit will be payable under the option to any person, but the benefits, if any, will be determined under s. 175.201.

(b) If the designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) or joint pensioner dies before the ¹fireman's retirement under the plan, the option elected will be canceled automatically and a retirement income of the normal form and amount will be payable to the ¹fireman upon his retirement as if the election had not been made, unless a new election is made in accordance with the provisions of this section, or a new beneficiary is designated by the ¹fireman prior to his retirement and within 90 days after the death of the beneficiary.

(c) If both the retired ¹fireman, and the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by him die before the full payment has been effected under any option providing for payments for a period certain and life thereafter, made pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1)(c), the board of trustees may, in its discretion, direct that the commuted value of the remaining payments be paid in a lump sum, and in accordance with s. 175.181.

(d) If a ¹fireman continues beyond his normal retirement date pursuant to the provisions of s. 175.162 (1), and dies prior to his actual retirement and while an option made pursuant to the provisions of this section is in effect, monthly retirement income payments will be made, or a retirement benefit will be paid, under the option to a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by the ¹fireman in the amount or amounts computed as if the ¹fireman had retired under the option on the date on which his death occurred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 2, ch. 65-58.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.181 Beneficiaries.—

(1) Each ¹fireman may, on a form provided for that purpose, sign and file with the board of trustees, designate a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) to receive the benefit, if any, which may be payable in the event of his death, and each designation may be revoked by such ¹fireman by signing and filing with the board of trustees a new designation of beneficiary form.

(2) If a deceased ¹fireman fails to name a beneficiary in the manner above prescribed, or if the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) named by a deceased ¹fireman predecease the ¹fireman, the death benefit, if any, which may be payable under the plan with respect to such deceased ¹fireman may be paid, in the discretion of the board of trustees, either to:

(a) The wife or dependent children of said ¹fireman; or

(b) Dependent living parents of said ¹fireman.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.191 Disability retirement.—

(1) A ¹fireman having 10 or more continuous years of credited service and having contributed to the Municipal ¹Firemen's Pension Trust Fund for 10 years or more may retire from the service of the municipality under the plan if, prior to his normal retirement date, he becomes totally and permanently disabled as defined in subsection (2), by reason of any cause other than a cause set out in subsection (3), on or after the effective date of the plan. Such retirement shall herein be referred to as disability retirement.

(2) A ¹fireman will be considered totally disabled if, in the opinion of the board of trustees, he is wholly prevented from rendering useful and efficient service as a ¹fireman; and a ¹fireman will be considered permanently disabled if, in the opinion of the board of trustees, such ¹fireman is likely to remain so disabled continuously and permanently from a cause other than is specified in subsection (3).

(3) A ¹fireman will not be entitled to receive any disability retirement income if the disability is a result of:

(a) Excessive and habitual use by the ¹fireman of drugs, intoxicants or narcotics;

(b) Injury or disease sustained by the ¹fireman while willfully and illegally participating in fights, riots, civil insurrections, or while committing a crime;

(c) Injury or disease sustained by the ¹fireman while serving in any armed forces;

(d) Injury or disease sustained by the 'fireman after his employment has terminated.

(4) No 'fireman shall be permitted to retire under the provisions of this section until examined by a duly qualified physician or surgeon, to be selected by the board of trustees for that purpose, and is found to be disabled in the degree and in the manner specified in this section. Any 'fireman retiring under this section shall be examined periodically by a duly qualified physician or surgeon or board of physicians and surgeons to be selected by the board of trustees for that purpose, to determine if such disability has ceased to exist.

(5) The benefits payable to a 'fireman who retires from the service of a municipality, due to total and permanent disability as a direct result of a disability commencing prior to his normal retirement date is the monthly income payable for 10 years certain and life which can be provided by the single-sum value of the deferred monthly retirement income beginning at normal retirement date which has accrued to his date of disability (where the amount of such accrued deferred monthly retirement income is computed by multiplying his number of years of actual credited service as of his date of disability by 2 percent of his average final compensation). If the 'fireman has been contributing only 3 percent of his salary, his monthly retirement income shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 1.2 percent of his average final compensation.

(6) The monthly retirement income to which a 'fireman is entitled in the event of his disability retirement will be payable on the first day of each month. The first payment will be made on the first day of the month following the later to occur of the date on which the disability has existed for 3 months and the date the board of trustees approved the payment of such retirement income. The last payment will be, if the 'fireman recovers from the disability prior to his normal retirement date, the payment due next preceding the date of such recovery, or, if the 'fireman dies without recovering from his disability, the payment due next preceding his death or the 120th monthly payment, whichever is later. Any monthly retirement income payments due after the death of a disabled 'fireman shall be paid to the 'fireman's designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) as provided in ss. 175.181 and 175.201.

(7) If the board of trustees finds that a 'fireman who is receiving a disability retirement income is, at any time prior to his normal retirement date, no longer disabled, as provided herein, the board of trustees shall direct that the disability retirement income be discontinued. Recovery from disability as used herein shall mean the ability of the 'fireman to render useful and efficient service as a 'fireman.

(8) If the 'fireman recovers from disability and reenters the service as a 'fireman, his service will be deemed to have been continuous, but the period beginning with the first month for which he received a disability retirement income payment and ending with the date he reentered the service, will not be considered as credited service for the purpose of this plan.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 3, ch. 65-58; s. 2, ch. 70-129.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.201 Death prior to retirement; refunds of death benefits.—Should any 'fireman die before being eligible to retire under the provisions of this act, the heirs, legatees, beneficiaries, or personal representatives of such deceased 'fireman shall be entitled to a refund of 100 percent without interest, of the contributions made to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund by such deceased 'fireman; or in the event an annuity or life insurance contract has been purchased by the board of trustees on such 'fireman, then to the death benefits available under such life insurance or annuity contract subject to the limitations on such death benefits set forth in s. 175.081, whichever amount is greater. In the event that the death benefit paid by a life insurance company exceeds the limit set forth in s. 175.081, the excess of the death benefit over the limit shall be paid to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.211 Separation from service; refunds.—Should any 'fireman leave the service of the municipality before accumulating aggregate time of 10 years toward retirement and before being eligible to retire under the provisions of this act, such 'fireman shall be entitled to a refund of all of his contributions made to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund after July 1, 1963, without interest, less any disability benefits paid to him after July 1, 1963. Should any 'fireman who has been in the service of the municipality for at least 10 years and has contributed to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund for at least 10 years elect to leave his accrued contributions in the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund, such 'fireman upon attaining the age of 50 years may retire at the actuarial equivalent of the amount of such retirement income otherwise payable to him.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.221 Lump sum payment of small retirement income.—Notwithstanding any provisions of the plan to the contrary, if the monthly retirement income payable to any person entitled to benefits hereunder is less than $30, or if the single-sum value of the accrued retirement income is less than $750, as of the date of retirement or termination of service, whichever is applicable, the board of trustees, in the exercise of its discretion, may specify that the actuarial equivalent of such retirement income be paid in a lump sum.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

175.231 Diseases of 'firemen suffered in line of duty; presumption.—Any condition or impairment of health of a 'fireman caused by tuberculosis, hypertension, or heart disease resulting in total or partial disability or death shall be presumed to have been accidental and suffered in the line of duty unless the contrary be shown by competent evidence, provided, however, that such 'fireman shall have successfully passed a physical examination before entering into such service, which examination failed to reveal any evidence of such condition. This section shall be applicable to all 'firemen employed in Florida only with reference to pension and retirement benefits under this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.241 Exemption from execution.—The pensions, annuities, or other benefits accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this act and the accumulated contributions and the cash securities in the funds created under this act are hereby exempted from any state, county, or municipal tax and shall not be subject to execution or attachment or to any legal process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

175.251 Employment records required to be kept by secretary of board of trustees.—The secretary of the board of trustees shall keep a record of all persons receiving retirement payments under the provisions of this act, in which shall be noted the time when the pension is allowed and when the same shall cease to be paid. In this record the secretary shall keep a list of all 'firemen employed by the municipality, and the record shall be kept in such manner as to show the name, address and time of employment of such 'firemen, and when such 'firemen cease to be employed by the municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.261 Report to Department of Insurance.—

(1) Each year, by February 1, the chairman or secretary of the board of trustees of each Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund shall file a report with the Department of Insurance, containing the following:

(a) Whether in fact the municipality is within the provisions of s. 175.041.

(b) A certified statement of accounting for the most recent fiscal year of the municipality, showing a detailed listing of assets (and methods used to value them) and a statement of all income and disbursements during the year. Such income and disbursements shall be reconciled with the assets at the beginning of and end of the year.

(c) A statistical exhibit showing the total number of 'firemen on the force, the number included in the retirement plan and the number ineligible, classified according to the reason for their being ineligible, and the number of disabled 'firemen and retired 'firemen and their beneficiaries receiving pension payments and the amounts of annual retirement income or pension payments being received by them.

(d) A statement of the amount the municipality, or other income source, has contributed to the retirement fund for the most recent fiscal year and the amount the municipality will contribute to the retirement fund during its current fiscal year.

(e) If any benefits are insured with a commercial insurance company, the report should include a statement of the relationship of the insured benefits to the benefits provided by this act as well as the name of the insurer and information about the basis of premium rates, mortality table, interest rates and method used in valuing retirement benefits.

(2) By February 1 of each quinquennial year, beginning with February 1, 1968, the chairman of each Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund shall report to the Department of Insurance such data that it needs to complete an actuarial valuation of each fund. The forms for each municipality shall be supplied by the department. The expense of this actuarial valuation shall be borne by the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund established by ss. 175.041 and 175.121.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 4, ch. 65-58; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.271 Advisory committee.—The Department of Insurance shall appoint annually an advisory committee to serve for 1 year, consisting of seven members, one of whom shall be from the department, as chairman, to receive such reports as may be brought to its attention and to advise and assist in matters relating to the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.291 Attorney for municipality to represent board of trustees upon request; failure to do so; board may employ independent counsel.—The attorney or corporation counsel of each municipality shall give advice to said board of trustees in all matters pertaining to its duties in the administration of said Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund whenever thereunto requested; and he shall represent and defend said board as its attorney in all suits and actions at law or in equity that may be brought against it and bring all suits and actions in its behalf that may be required or determined upon by said board; provided, however, that if said attorney shall fail or refuse to comply with the request of the board of trustees in this relation, the said board of trustees in its discretion may employ independent legal counsel for such purpose.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.301 Deposit of funds and securities with municipal treasurer.—The funds and securities of the Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund shall be deposited with the treasurer or depository of the municipality, who shall keep the same in a separate fund, and shall be liable for the safekeeping of same, under the bond given by him to the municipality, and he shall be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as he is liable for the safekeeping of the funds of the municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

¹Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.311 Each municipality independent of any other municipality in the operation of this act.—In the enforcement and in the interpretation of the provisions of this act, each municipality shall be independent of any other municipality, and the board of trustees of the Municipal Firefighters' Pension Trust Fund of each municipality shall function for the municipality which it is to serve as trustee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 4, ch. 79-380.

175.321 Application of ss. 175.101-175.121, 175.131-175.151.—Sections 175.101-175.121 and 175.131-175.151 shall be applicable in relation to all municipalities of the state, which now have or hereafter establish a Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund or a pension fund for 'firemen, regardless of whether said municipality shall fall within the classification of s. 175.041 and have its Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund established under the provisions thereof, or whether said city's or town's said pension fund shall exist under other general, special laws of the state, or a local ordinance. The remaining sections of this act, which apply specifically to the creation of a board of trustees, define its powers and establish a Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund in each municipality, as well as such sections as define the person who shall be entitled to a pension out of such fund the amount thereof, and govern the conditions upon which such pensions shall be allowed, and the duties of the officers of those municipalities in relation to such fund, shall not apply to any municipality which now has a Municipal 'Firemen's Pension Trust Fund or municipal pension fund for 'firemen and policemen.

¹Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.331 Rights of firefighters under former law.—The rights of 'firemen established by any former provisions of this act shall not be impaired nor shall their benefits be reduced by virtue of any provisions of this act; provided, however, that no member may receive the benefits under the former act and also be entitled to receive the benefits under this act. Unless an election is made in writing before January 1, 1964, to the board of trustees, to remain under the provisions of the former act, it shall be conclusively presumed that the provisions of this act as amended, will apply to all 'firemen. Members who have retired under the former act prior to the enactment of this act, shall continue to receive their benefits under the former act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249.

¹Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "firemen" to "firefighters" where the term appears in chapter 175.

175.333 Discrimination in benefit formula prohibited.—No plan established under the provisions of this chapter and participating in the distribution of premium tax moneys as provided in this chapter shall discriminate in its benefit formula based on color, national origin, sex, or marital status. Nothing herein shall preclude a plan from actuarially adjusting benefits or offering options based upon sex, age, early retirement, or disability.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-380.

175.341 Department of Insurance to establish rules and regulations.—The Department of Insurance shall establish rules and regulations pertaining to the operation of this fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

175.351 Municipalities having their own pension plans for firefighters.—In order for municipalities with their own pension plans for firefighters, or for firefighters and other employees, to participate in the distribution of the tax fund established in ss. 175.101-175.121, 175.131-175.151, their pension funds must meet each of the following standards:

(1) The plan must be for the purpose of providing retirement and disability income for 'firemen or their beneficiaries.

(2) The normal retirement age, if any, shall not be more than age 65.

(3) If the plan provides for a stated period of service as a requirement to receive a retirement income, that period must not be more than 35 years.

(4) The benefit formula to determine the amount of monthly pension should be equal to at least one-twelfth of 1 percent of the 'fireman's total earnings during his period of credited service.

(5) If a ceiling on the monthly payment is stated in the plan, it should be no lower than $100.

(6) Death or survivor benefits and disability benefits may be incorporated into the plan as the municipalities wish but in no event should the single-sum value of such benefits as of the date of termination of service because of death or disability exceed:

(a) One hundred times the estimated normal retirement income, based on assumption that the present rate of compensation continues without change to normal retirement date, or

(b) Twice the annual rate of compensation as of date of termination of service, or

(c) The single-sum value of the accrued deferred retirement income (beginning at normal retirement date) at date of termination of service, whichever is greatest; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall require any reduction in death or disability benefits provided by a retirement plan in effect prior to July 1, 1963.

(7) Eligibility for coverage under the plan must be based upon length of service, or attained age, or both; and benefits must be determined by a nondiscriminatory formula based upon:

(a) Length of service and compensation, or

(b) Length of service.

(8) If the retirement plan requires participants to contribute toward the cost of the plan, it must set forth the termination rights, if any, of an employee before retirement.

(9) An actuarial valuation of the retirement plan must be made at least once in every 5 years commencing with December 31, 1968, subject to the following:

(a) The assets shall be valued at cost, or market, or on such other basis as may be approved by the Department of Insurance.

(b) Minimum actuarial assumptions and methods to be used in valuing the liabilities will be provided by the Department of Insurance, and revised from time to time by it. The valuation must be on basis and methods not less conservative than those set forth by the Department of Insurance.

(c) Cost of the actuarial valuation must be paid by each individual 'fireman's retirement fund or by the municipality.

(d) A report of the valuation, including actuarial assumptions and type and basis of funding shall be made to the Department of Insurance within 3 months after the date of valuation. If any benefits are insured with a commercial insurance company, the report should include a statement of the relationship of the retirement plan benefits to the insured benefits, and in addition, the name of the insurer, basis of premium rates, mortality table, interest rate and method used in valuing the retirement benefits.

(e) Provided, however, that if an actuarial valuation has been made subsequent to December 31, 1963, the 5-year period will commence on the date of that valuation.

(10) The municipality shall contribute to the plan annually an amount which together with the contributions from the 'firemen and the amount derived from the premium tax provided in s. 175.101 and other income sources as authorized by law will be sufficient to meet the normal cost of the plan and to fund the actuarial deficiency over a period not more than 40 years. The advisory committee shall have authority to grant a maximum of 5 extensions of 1 year each for this mandatory payment.

(11) No retirement plan or amendment to a retirement plan shall be proposed without the proposed plan or amendment containing an actuarial estimate of the costs involved.

(12) Each year, on or before March 15, the trustees of the retirement plan shall submit the following information to the Department of Insurance in order for the retirement plan of such municipality to receive a share of the state funds for the then current calendar year; when any of these items would be identical with the corresponding item submitted for a previous year it will not be necessary to submit duplicate information, but to make reference to the item in such previous year's report:

(a) A certified copy of each and every instrument constituting or evidencing the plan. This includes the formal plan, including all amendments, the trust agreement, copies of all insurance contracts and formal announcement material.

(b) A certified statement of accounting for the most recent fiscal year of the municipality showing:

1. A detailed listing of assets and
2. A statement of all income and disbursements during the year.

Such income and disbursements must be reconciled with the assets at the beginning and end of the year.

(c) A certified statement listing the investments of the plan and a description of the methods used in valuing the investments.

(d) A statistical exhibit showing the total number of 'firemen, the number included in the plan, and the number ineligible classified according to the reasons for their being ineligible.

(e) A certified statement describing the methods, factors and actuarial assumption used in determining the cost.

(f) A certified statement by an actuary who is a member of the Society of Actuaries, Casualty Actuarial Society, Conference of Actuaries in Public Practice, or Fraternal Actuarial Association, showing the results of the latest quinquennial valuation of the plan and a copy of the detailed worksheets showing the computations used in arriving at the results.

(g) A statement of the amount the municipality, or other income source has contributed toward the plan for the most recent fiscal year and will contribute toward the plan for the current fiscal year.

(13) When a municipality has a 'firemen's retirement fund, which in the opinion of the Department of Insurance meets the standards set forth in subsections (1) through (12), the board of trustees of the pension fund, as approved by a majority of 'firemen of the municipality affected, or the official pension committee; as approved by a majority of 'firemen of the municipality affected, may place the income from the premium tax in s. 175.101 in its existing pension fund for 'firemen, where it shall become an integral part of said fund, or may use such income to pay extra benefits to the 'firemen included in the fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 79-380.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

175.361 Termination of plan and distribution of fund.—Upon termination of the plan for any reason, or upon written notice to the board of trustees that contributions thereunder are being permanently discontinued, the fund shall be apportioned and distributed in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) The board of trustees shall determine the date of distribution and the asset value to be distributed, after taking into account the expenses of such distribution.

(2) The board of trustees shall determine the method of distribution of the asset value, that is, whether distribution shall be by payment in cash, the maintenance of another or substituted trust fund, by the purchase of insured annuities or otherwise, for each 'fireman entitled to benefits under the plan as specified in subsection (3).

(3) The board of trustees shall apportion the asset value as of the date of termination in the manner set forth below, on the basis that the amount required to provide any given retirement income shall mean the actuarially computed single-sum value of such retirement income, except that if the method of distribution determined under subsection (2) involves the purchase of an insured annuity, the amount required to provide the given retirement income shall mean the single premium payable for such annuity.

(b) If there be any asset value remaining after the apportionment under paragraph (a), apportionment shall next be made in respect of each ¹fireman in the service of the city on such date who has completed at least 10 years of credited service and who has contributed to the Municipal ¹Firemen's Pension Trust Fund for at least 10 years and who is not entitled to an apportionment under paragraph (a), in the amount required to provide the actuarial equivalent of the accrued normal retirement income, based on the ¹fireman's credited service and earnings to such date, and each former participant then entitled to a benefit under the provisions of s. 175.211, who has not, by such date, reached his normal retirement date, in the amount required to provide the actuarial equivalent of the accrued normal retirement income to which he is entitled under s. 175.211, provided that, if such remaining asset value be less than the aggregate of the amounts apportioned hereunder, such latter amounts shall be proportionately reduced so that the aggregate of such reduced amounts will be equal to such remaining asset value.

(c) If there be any asset value after the apportionments under paragraphs (a) and (b), apportionment shall lastly be made in respect of each ¹fireman in the service of the city on such date who is not entitled to an apportionment under paragraphs (a) and (b) in the amount equal to his total contributions to the plan to date of termination, provided that, if such remaining asset value be less than the aggregate of the amounts apportioned hereunder such latter amounts shall be proportionately reduced so that the aggregate of such reduced amounts will be equal to such remaining asset value.

(d) In the event that there be asset value remaining after the full apportionment specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), such excess shall be returned to the city, less return of state's contributions to the state, provided that, if the excess is less than the total contributions made by the city and the state to date of termination of the plan such excess shall be divided proportionately to the total contributions made by the city and state.

(4) The board of trustees shall distribute, in accordance with the manner of distribution determined under subsection (2), the amounts apportioned under subsection (3).

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 5, ch. 65-58.

Note.—See s. 6, ch. 79-380, and s. 3, ch. 79-388, providing for the change of "fireman" to "firefighter" and "firemen" to "firefighters" where the terms appear in chapter 175.

177.011 Purpose and scope of part I.—This part shall be deemed to establish consistent minimum requirements, and to create such additional powers in local governing bodies, as herein provided to regulate and control the platting of lands. This part establishes minimum requirements and does not exclude additional provisions or regulations by local ordinance, laws, or regulations.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 33, ch. 79-164.

177.021 Legal status of recorded plats.—The recording of any plats made in compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall serve to establish the identity of all lands shown on and being a part of such plats, and lands may thenceforth be conveyed by reference to such plat.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339.

177.031 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Alley" means a right-of-way providing a secondary means of access and service to abutting property.
- (2) "Block" includes "tier" or "group" and means a group of lots existing within well-defined and fixed boundaries, usually being an area surrounded by streets or other physical barriers and having an assigned number, letter, or other name through which it may be identified.

(3) "Board" means any board appointed by a municipality, county commission, or state agency, such as the planning and zoning board, area planning board, or the governing board of a drainage district.

(4) "Governing body" means the board of county commissioners or the legal governing body of a county, municipality, town, or village of this state.

(5) "Cul-de-sac" means a street terminated at the end by a vehicular turnaround.

(6) "Developer" means the person or legal entity that applies for approval of a plat of a subdivision pursuant to this chapter.

(7)(a) "Easement" means any strip of land created by a subdivider for public or private utilities, drainage, sanitation, or other specified uses having limitations, the title to which shall remain in the name of the property owner, subject to the right of use designated in the reservation of the servitude.

(b) "Public utility" includes any public or private utility, such as, but not limited to, storm drainage, sanitary sewers, electric power, water service, gas service, or telephone line, whether underground or overhead.

(8) "Survey data" means all information shown on the face of a plat that would delineate the physical boundaries of the subdivision and any parts thereof.

(9) "Improvements" may include, but are not limited to, street pavements, curbs and gutters, sidewalks, alley pavements, walkway pavements, water mains, sanitary sewers, storm sewers or drains, street names, signs, landscaping, permanent reference monuments ("P.R.M.s"), permanent control points ("P.C.P.s"), or any other improvement required by a governing body.

(10) "Land surveyor" means a land surveyor registered under chapter 472 who is in good standing with the Florida State Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors.

(11) "Lot" includes tract or parcel and means the least fractional part of subdivided lands having limited fixed boundaries, and an assigned number, letter, or other name through which it may be identified.

(12) "Municipality" means any incorporated city, town, or village.

(13) "P.C.P." means permanent control point, which shall be a secondary horizontal control monument and shall be a metal marker with the point of reference marked thereon or a 4-inch by 4-inch concrete monument a minimum of 24 inches long with the point of reference marked thereon. "P.C.P.s" shall bear the registration number of the surveyor filing the plat of record.

(14) "Plat" means a map or delineated representation of the subdivision of lands, being a complete exact representation of the subdivision and other information in compliance with the requirement of all applicable sections of this chapter and of any local ordinances, and may include the terms "replat," "amended plat," or "revised plat."

(15) "P.R.M." means a permanent reference monument, which consists of a metal rod a minimum of 24 inches long or a 1½ inch minimum diameter metal pipe a minimum of 20 inches long, either of which shall be encased in a solid block of concrete or set in natural bedrock, a minimum of 6 inches in diameter, and extending a minimum of 18 inches below the top of the monument, or a concrete monument 4 by 4 inches, a minimum of 24 inches long, with the point of reference marked thereon. A metal cap marker, with the point of reference marked thereon, shall bear the registration number of the surveyor certifying the plat of record, and the letters "PRM" shall be placed in the top of the monument.

(16) "Right-of-way" means land dedicated, deeded, used, or to be used, for a street, alley, walkway, boulevard, drainage facility, access for ingress and egress, or other purpose by the public, certain designated individuals, or governing bodies.

(17) "Street" includes any access way such as a street, road, lane, highway, avenue, boulevard, alley, parkway, viaduct, circle, court, terrace, place, or cul-de-sac, and also includes all of the land lying between the right-of-way lines as delineated on a plat showing such streets, whether improved or unimproved, but shall not include those access ways such as easements and rights-of-way intended solely for limited utility purposes, such as for electric power lines, gas lines, telephone lines, water lines, drainage and sanitary sewers, and easements of ingress and egress.

(18) "Subdivision" means the platting of real property into three or more lots, parcels, tracts, tiers, blocks, sites, units, or any other division of land, and includes establishment of new streets and alleys, additions and resubdivisions and, when appropriate to the context, relates to the process of subdividing or to the lands or area subdivided.

(19) "State plane coordinates" means the system of plane coordinates which has been established by the National Ocean Survey for defining and stating the positions or locations of points on the surface of the earth within the state and shall hereinafter be known and designated as the "Florida Coordinate System." For the purpose of the use of this system, the divisions established by the National Ocean Survey in special publication number 255 shall be used, and the appropriate projection and zone designation shall be indicated and included in any description using the "Florida Coordinate System."

(20) Surveying data:

(a) "Point of curvature," written "P.C.," means the point where a tangent circular curve begins.

(b) "Point of tangency," written "P.T.," means the point where a tangent circular curve ends and becomes tangent.

(c) "Point of compound curvature," written

"P.C.C.," means the point where two circular curves have a common point of tangency, the curves lying on the same side of the common tangent.

(d) "Point of reverse curvature," written "P.R.C.," means the point where two circular curves have a common point of tangency, the curves lying on opposite sides of the common tangent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 2, ch. 72-29; s. 49, ch. 73-333.

Note.—The Florida State Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors was abolished by ch. 79-243, and a Board of Land Surveyors was created to regulate this profession.

177.041 Title certification.—Every plat of a subdivision submitted to the approving agency of the local governing body must be accompanied by a title opinion of an attorney-at-law licensed in Florida or a certification by an abstractor or a title company showing that apparent record title to the land as described and shown on the plat is in the name of the person, persons, or corporation executing the dedication, if any, as it is shown on the plat and, if the plat does not contain a dedication, that the developer has apparent record title to the land. The title opinion or certification shall also show all mortgages not satisfied or released of record.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 1, ch. 72-77.

177.051 Name of subdivision.—Every subdivision shall be given a name by which it shall be legally known. Such name shall not be the same or in any way so similar to any name appearing on any recorded plat in the same county as to confuse the records or to mislead the public as to the identity of the subdivision, except when the subdivision is subdivided as an additional unit or section by the same developer or his successors in title. Every subdivision's name shall have legible lettering of the same size and type, including the words "section," "unit," "replat," "amended," etc. The name of the subdivision shall be shown in the dedication and shall coincide exactly with the subdivision name.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339.

177.061 Qualification of person making survey and plat certification.—Every subdivision of lands made within the provisions of this chapter shall be made under the responsible direction and supervision of a land surveyor who shall certify on the plat that the plat is a true and correct representation of the lands surveyed, that the survey was made under his responsible direction and supervision, and that the survey data complies with all of the requirements of this chapter. The certification shall bear the signature, registration number, and the official seal of the land surveyor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339.

177.071 Approval of plat by governing bodies.—

(1) Before a plat is offered for recording, it shall be approved by the appropriate governing body, and evidence of such approval shall be placed on such plat. If not approved, the governing body shall return the plat to the land surveyor. However, such examination and approval for conformity to this chapter by the appropriate governing body shall not include the verification of the survey data, except by a land surveyor either employed by or under contract to the local governing body for the purpose of such examination. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) When the plat to be submitted for approval is located wholly within the boundaries of a municipality, the governing body of such municipality shall have exclusive jurisdiction to approve such plat.

(b) When a plat lies wholly within the unincorporated areas of a county, the governing body of such county shall have exclusive jurisdiction to approve such plat.

(c) When a plat lies within the boundaries of more than one governing body, two plats shall be prepared and each governing body shall have exclusive jurisdiction to approve the plat within its boundaries, unless the governing bodies having said jurisdiction agree that one plat is mutually acceptable.

(2) Any provision in a county charter, or in an ordinance of a county chartered under s. 6(e), Art. VIII of the State Constitution, which provision is inconsistent with anything contained in this section shall prevail in such charter county to the extent of any such inconsistency.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 1, ch. 76-110; s. 1, ch. 77-152; s. 1, ch. 77-278.

177.081 Dedication and approval.—

(1) Every plat of a subdivision filed for record must contain a dedication by the developer. The dedication shall be executed by all developers having a record interest in the lands subdivided, in the same manner in which deeds are required to be executed. All mortgagees having a record interest in the lands subdivided shall execute, in the same manner in which deeds are required to be executed, either the dedication contained on the plat or a separate instrument joining in and ratifying the plat and all dedications and reservations thereon.

(2) When a tract or parcel of land has been subdivided and a plat thereof bearing the dedication executed by the developers and mortgagees having a record interest in the lands subdivided and the approval of the governing body has been secured and recorded in compliance with this chapter, all streets, alleys, easements, rights-of-way, and public areas shown on such plat, unless otherwise stated, shall be deemed to have been dedicated to the public for the uses and purposes thereon stated. However, nothing herein shall be construed as creating an obligation upon any governing body to perform any act of construction or maintenance within such dedicated areas except when the obligation is voluntarily assumed by the governing body.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 2, ch. 79-86.

177.085 Platted streets; reversionary clauses.—

(1) When any owner of land subdivides the land and dedicates streets, other roadways, alleys or similar strips on the map or plat, and the dedication contains a provision that the reversionary interest in the street, roadway, alley or other similar strip is reserved unto the dedicator or his heirs, successors, assigns, or legal representative, or similar language, and thereafter conveys abutting lots or tracts, the conveyance shall carry the reversionary interest in the abutting street to the centerline or other appropriate boundary, unless the owner clearly provides otherwise in the conveyance.

(2) As to all plats of subdivided lots heretofore recorded in the public records of each county, the holder of any interest in any reversionary rights in streets in such plats, other than the owners of abutting lots, shall have 1 year from July 1, 1972 to institute suit in a court of competent jurisdiction in this state to establish or enforce the right, and failure to institute the action within the time shall bar any right, title or interest, and all right of forfeiture or reversion shall thereupon cease and determine, and become unenforceable.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 72-257; s. 50, ch. 73-333.

177.091 Plats made for recording.—Every plat of a subdivision offered for recording shall conform to the following:

(1) It shall be:

(a) An original drawing made with black permanent drawing ink or varitype process on a good grade linen tracing cloth or with a suitable permanent black drawing ink on a stable base film, a minimum of 0.003 inches thick, coated upon completion with a suitable plastic material to prevent flaking and to assure permanent legibility; or

(b) A nonadhered scaled print on a stable base film made by photographic processes from a film scribing tested for residual hypo testing solution to assure permanency.

Marginal lines, standard certificates and approval forms shall be printed on the plat with a permanent black drawing ink. A print or photographic copy of the original drawing shall be submitted with the original drawing.

(2) The size of each sheet shall be determined by the local governing body and shall be drawn with a marginal line, or printed when permitted by local ordinance, completely around each sheet and placed so as to leave at least a ½-inch margin on each of three sides and a 3-inch margin on the left side of the plat for binding purposes.

(3) When more than one sheet must be used to accurately portray the lands subdivided, each sheet must show the particular number of that sheet and the total number of sheets included, as well as clearly labeled matchlines to show where other sheets match or adjoin.

(4) In all cases, the scale used shall be of sufficient size to show all detail and shall be both stated and graphically illustrated by a graphic scale drawn on every sheet showing any portion of the lands subdivided.

(5) The name of the plat shall be shown in bold legible letters, as stated in s. 177.051. The name of the subdivision shall be shown on each sheet included.

(6) A prominent "north arrow" shall be drawn on every sheet included showing any portion of the lands subdivided. The bearing or azimuth reference shall be clearly stated on the face of the plat in the notes or legend.

(7) Permanent reference monuments shall be placed at each corner or change in direction on the boundary of the lands being platted; however, "P.R.M.s" need not be set closer than 310 feet, but shall not be more than 1400 feet apart. In all cases there shall be a minimum of four "P.R.M.s" placed on the boundary of the lands being platted. Where such corners are in an inaccessible place, "P.R.M.s" shall be set on a nearby offset within the boundary of the plat and such offset shall be so noted on the plat. Where corners are found to coincide with a previously set "P.R.M.," the number on the previously set "P.R.M." shall be shown on the new plat or, if unnumbered, shall so state. Permanent reference monuments shall be set before the recording of the plat and this will be so stated in the surveyor's certificate on the plat. Such "P.R.M." shall be shown on the plat by an appropriate designation.

(8) "P.C.P.s" shall be set at the intersection of the centerline of the right-of-way at the intersection of all streets, at "P.C.s," "P.T.s," "P.R.C.s" and "P.C.C.s" and no more than 1,000 feet apart, on tangent, between changes of direction, or along the street right-of-way or block lines at each change in direction and no more than 1,000 feet apart. Such "P.C.P.s" shall be shown on the plat by an appropriate designation. In those counties or municipalities that do not require subdivision improvements and do not accept bonds or escrow accounts to construct improvements, "P.C.P.s" may be set prior to the recording of the plat and shall be set within 1 year of the date the plat was recorded and shall be referred to in the surveyor's certificate. In the counties or municipalities that require subdivision improvements and have the means of insuring the construction of said improvements, such as bonding requirements, "P.C.P.s" shall be set prior to the expiration of the bond or other surety. It is the land surveyor's responsibility to furnish the clerk or recording officer of the county or municipality his certificate that the "P.C.P.s" have been set and the dates the "P.C.P.s" were set.

(9) Each plat shall show the section, township, and range as applicable, or, if in a land grant, the plat will so state.

(10) The name of the city, town, village, county, and state in which the land being platted is situated shall appear under the name of the plat as applicable.

(11) Each plat shall show a description of the lands subdivided, and the description shall be the same in the title certification. The description must be so complete that from it, without reference to the plat, the starting point and boundary can be determined.

(12) The dedications and approvals required by ss. 177.071 and 177.081.

(13) The circuit court clerk's certificate and the land surveyor's certificate and seal.

(14) All section lines and quarter section lines occurring in the map or plat shall be indicated by lines drawn upon the map or plat, with appropriate words and figures. If the description is by metes and bounds, the point of beginning shall be indicated, together with all bearings and distances of the boundary lines. If the platted lands are in a land grant or are not included in the subdivision of government surveys, then the boundaries are to be defined by metes and bounds and courses. The initial point in the description shall be tied to the nearest government corner or other recorded and well established corner.

(15) Location, width, and names of all streets, waterways, or other rights-of-way shall be shown, as applicable.

(16) Location and width of easements shall be shown on the plat or in the notes or legend, and their intended use shall be clearly stated.

(17) All contiguous properties shall be identified by subdivision title, plat book, and page, or, if unplatted, land shall be so designated. If the subdivision platted is a resubdivision of a part or the whole of a previously recorded subdivision, sufficient ties shall be shown to controlling lines appearing on the earlier plat to permit an overlay to be made; the fact of its being a resubdivision shall be stated as a subtitle following the name of the subdivision wherever it appears on the plat.

(18) All lots shall be numbered either by progressive numbers or, if in blocks, progressively numbered in each block, and the blocks progressively numbered or lettered, except that blocks in numbered additions bearing the same name may be numbered consecutively throughout the several additions.

(19) Block corner radii dimensions shall be shown.

(20) Sufficient survey data shall be shown to positively describe the bounds of every lot, block, street easement, and all other areas shown on the plat. When any lot or portion of the subdivision is bounded by an irregular line, the major portion of that lot or subdivision shall be enclosed by a witness line showing complete data, with distances along all lines extended beyond the enclosure to the irregular boundary shown with as much certainty as can be determined or as "more or less," if variable. Lot, block, street, and all other dimensions except to irregular boundaries, shall be shown to a minimum of hundredths of feet. All measurements shall refer to horizontal plane and in accordance with the definition of a foot or meter adopted by the United States Bureau of Standards.

(21) Curvilinear lots shall show the radii, arc distances, and central angles or radii, chord, and chord bearing, or both. Radial lines will be so designated. Direction of nonradial lines shall be indicated.

(22) Sufficient angles, bearings, or azimuth to show direction of all lines shall be shown, and all bearings, angles, or azimuth shall be shown to the nearest second of arc.

(23) The centerlines of all streets shall be shown with distances, angles, bearings or azimuth, "P.C.s," "P.T.s," "P.R.C.s," "P.C.C.s," arc distance, central angles, tangents, radii, chord, and chord bearing or azimuth, or both.

(24) Park and recreation parcels as applicable shall be so designated.

(25) All interior excepted parcels shall be clearly indicated and labeled "Not a part of this plat."

(26) The purpose of all areas dedicated must be clearly indicated or stated on the plat.

(27) When it is not possible to show curve detail information on the map, a tabular form may be used.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 51, ch. 73-333.

177.101 Vacation and annulment of plats subdividing land.—

(1) Whenever it is discovered, after the plat has been recorded in the public records, that the developer has previously caused the lands embraced in the second plat to be differently subdivided under and by virtue of another plat of the same identical lands, and the first plat was also filed of public record at an earlier date, and no conveyances of lots by reference to the first plat so filed appears of record in such county, the governing body of the county is authorized and directed to and shall, by resolution, vacate and annul the first plat of such lands appearing of record upon the application of the developer of such lands under the first plat or upon application of the owners of all the lots shown and designated upon the second and subsequent plat of such lands, and the circuit court clerk of the county shall thereupon make proper notation of the annulment of such plat upon the face of such annulled plat.

(2) Whenever it is discovered that after the filing of a plat subdividing a parcel of land located in the county, the developer of the lands therein and thereby subdivided did cause such lands embraced in said plat, or a part thereof, to be again and subsequently differently subdivided under another plat of the same and identical lands or a part thereof, which said second plat was also filed at a later date; and it is further made to appear to the governing body of the county that the filing and recording of the second plat would not materially affect the right of convenient access to lots previously conveyed under the first plat, the governing body of the county is authorized by resolution to vacate and annul so much of the first plat of such lands appearing of record as are included in the second plat, upon application of the owners and developer of such lands under the first plat or their successors, grantees, or assignees, and the circuit court clerk of the county shall thereupon make proper notation of the action of the governing body upon the face of the first plat.

(3) The governing bodies of the counties of the state may adopt resolutions vacating plats in whole or in part of subdivisions in said counties, returning the property covered by such plats either in whole or in part into acreage. Before such resolution of vacating any plat either in whole or in part shall be entered by the governing body of a county, it must be shown that the persons making application for said vacation own the fee simple title to the whole or that part of the tract covered by the plat sought to be vacated, and it must be further shown that the vacation by the governing body of the county will not affect the ownership or right of convenient access of persons owning other parts of the subdivision.

(4) Persons making application for vacations of plats either in whole or in part shall give notice of their intention to apply to the governing body of the county to vacate said plat by publishing legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the tract or parcel of land is located, in not less than 2 weekly issues of said paper, and must attach to the petition for vacation the proof of such publication, together with certificates showing that all state and county taxes have been paid. For the purpose of the tax collector's certification that state, county, and municipal taxes have been paid, the taxes shall be deemed to have been paid if, in addition to any partial payment under s. 194.171, the owner of the platted lands sought to be vacated shall post a cash bond, approved by the tax collector of the county where the land is located and by the Department of Revenue, conditioned to pay the full amount of any judgment entered pursuant to s. 194.192 adverse to the person making partial payment, including all costs, interest, and penalties. The circuit court shall fix the amount of said bond by order, after considering the reasonable time frame for such litigation and all other relevant factors; and a certified copy of such approval, order, and cash bond shall be attached to the application. If such tract or parcel of land is within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, the governing body of the county shall be furnished with a certified copy of a resolution of the town council or city commission, as the case may be, showing that it has already by suitable resolution vacated such plat or subdivision or such part thereof sought to be vacated.

(5) Every such resolution by the governing body shall have the effect of vacating all streets and alleys which have not become highways necessary for use by the traveling public. Such vacation shall not become effective until a certified copy of such resolution has been filed in the offices of the circuit court clerk and duly recorded in the public records of said county.

(6) All resolutions vacating plats by the governing body of a county prior to September 1, 1971 are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed. Such resolutions shall have the same effect as if the plat had been vacated after September 1, 1971.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 1, ch. 79-86.

177.111 Instructions for filing plat.—After the approval by the appropriate governing body required by s. 177.071, the plat shall be recorded by the circuit court clerk or other recording officer upon submission thereto of such approved plat. The circuit court clerk or other recording officer shall maintain in his office a book of the proper size for such papers so that they shall not be folded, to be kept in the vault. A print or photographic copy on cloth shall be filed in a similar book and kept in his office for the use of the public. The clerk shall make available to the public a full size copy of the record plat at a reasonable fee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339; s. 1, ch. 76-110.

177.121 Misdemeanor to molest monument or deface or destroy map or plat.—It is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, for any person to molest any monuments established according to this chapter or to deface or destroy any map or plat placed on public record.

History.—s. 1A, ch. 71-339.

177.131 Recordation of the Department of Transportation official right-of-way maps and other governmental right-of-way maps.—

(1) The circuit court clerk of a county shall record in the public land records of the county any map prepared and adopted by the Department of Transportation or any other governmental entity as its official right-of-way map after the same has been approved by the appropriate governmental authority. The clerk shall use special plat books provided by the appropriate governmental authority for such maps, which shall be kept with other plat books. The clerk shall make available to the public a full size copy of the right-of-way maps at a reasonable fee.

(2) Sections 177.011-177.121 of this chapter are not applicable to this section. Upon request of the clerk, the Department of Transportation shall furnish without charge a reproducible copy of its right-of-way maps.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339.

177.132 Preservation of unrecorded maps.—

(1) The Clerk of the Circuit Court of a county may receive and copy, as unrecorded maps, otherwise unrecorded plats and maps, including sales maps, which describe or illustrate the boundaries and subdivision of parcels of land, but which do not necessarily indicate proper metes and bounds or otherwise comply with the recording requirements of this chapter. The receipt and copying of such documents shall not affect or impair the title to the property in any manner, nor shall it be construed as actual or constructive notice, but shall be for informational purposes only and shall not be referred to for the purpose of conveying property or for circumventing the lawful regulation and control of subdividing lands by local governing bodies. The clerk may maintain a separate book or other filing process provided by the county for this purpose. The clerk shall make reproductions of these copies available to the public at a reasonable fee.

(2) Sections 177.021-177.121 of this chapter shall not apply to this section.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-110.

177.141 Affidavit confirming error on a recorded plat.—In the event an appreciable error or omission in the data shown on any plat duly recorded under the provisions of this chapter is detected by subsequent examination or revealed by a retracement of the lines run during the original survey of the lands shown on such recorded plat, the land surveyor who was responsible for the survey and the preparation of the plat as recorded may file an affidavit confirming that such error or omission was made. However, the affidavit must state the he has made a resurvey of the subject property in the recorded subdivision within the last 10 days and that no evidence existed on the ground that would conflict with the corrections as stated in the affidavit. The affidavit shall describe the nature and extent of such error or omission and the appropriate correction that in his opinion should be substituted for the erroneous data shown on such plat or added to the data on such plat. When such an affidavit is filed, it is the duty of the circuit court clerk to record such affidavit, and he may place in the margin of such recorded plat a notation that the affidavit has been filed, the date of filing, and the book and page where it is recorded. The affidavit shall have no effect upon the validity of the plat or on the information shown thereon.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-339.

177.151 State plane coordinate.—

(1) Coordinates may be used to define or designate the position of points on the surface of the earth within the state for land descriptions and subdivision purposes, provided the initial point in the description shall be tied to the nearest government corner or other recorded and well established corner. The plane coordinates of a point on the earth's surface, to be used in expressing the position or location of such point in the appropriate projection and zone system, shall consist of two distances, expressed in feet and decimals of a foot. One distance, to be known as the "x-coordinate," shall give the position in an east and west direction; the other, to be known as the "y-coordinate," shall give the position in a north and south direction. These coordinates shall be made to depend upon and conform to the origins and projections on the Florida Coordinate System and the triangulation and traverse stations of the National Ocean Survey within the state, as those origins and projections have been determined by the said survey. When any tract of land to be defined by a single description extends from one into the other of the above projections or zones, the positions of all points on its boundary may be referred to either of the zones or projections, with the zone and projection being used specifically named in the description.

(2) The position of points on the Florida Coordinate System shall be as marked on the ground by triangulation or traverse stations established in conformity with standards adopted by the National Ocean Survey for first-order and second-order work, the geodetic positions of which have been rigidly adjusted on the North American Datum of 1927, and the coordinates of which have been computed on the system herein defined. Any such station may be used for establishing a survey connection with the Florida Coordinate System.

(3) No coordinates based on the Florida Coordinate System purporting to define the position of a point on a land boundary shall be presented to be recorded in any public land records or deed records unless such point is within one-half mile of a triangulation or traverse station established in conformity with the standards described in s. 177.031(19). However, the said one-half mile limitation may be waived when coordinates shown are certified as having been established in accordance with National Ocean Survey requirements and procedures for first-order or second-order work by a surveyor licensed in the state. This certification of order-of-accuracy must be included in the description of the land involved.

(4) The use of the term "Florida Coordinate System" on any map, report of survey, or other document shall be limited to coordinates based on the Florida Coordinate System as defined in this chapter.

(5) Whenever coordinates based on the Florida Coordinate system are used to describe a tract of land which in the same document is also described by reference to any subdivision, line, or corner of the United States Public Land Survey, the description by coordinates shall be construed as supplemental to the basic description of such subdivision, line, or corner contained in the official plats and field notes of record, and, in the event of any conflict, the description by reference to the subdivision, line or corner of the United States Public Land Survey shall prevail over the description by coordinates.

(6) Nothing contained in this chapter shall require any purchaser or mortgagee to rely on a description any part of which depends exclusively upon the Florida Coordinate System.

177.25 Short title.—This part shall be cited as the "Florida Coastal Mapping Act of 1974."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-56.

177.26 Declaration of policy.—The legislature hereby declares that accurate maps of coastal areas are required for many public purposes, including, but not limited to, the promotion of marine navigation, the enhancement of recreation, the determination of coastal boundaries, and the implementation of coastal zone planning and management programs by state and local governmental agencies. Accordingly, a state coastal mapping program is declared to be in the public interest. The legislature further recognizes the desirability of confirmation of the mean high-water line, as recognized in the State Constitution and defined in s. 177.27(15) as the boundary between state sovereignty land and uplands subject to private ownership, as well as the necessity of uniform standards and procedures with respect to the establishment of local tidal datums and the determination of the mean high-water and mean low-water lines, and therefore directs that such uniform standards and procedures be developed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-56.

177.27 Definitions.—The following words, phrases, or terms used herein, unless the context otherwise indicates, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Apparent shoreline" means the line drawn on a map or chart in lieu of the mean high-water line or mean low-water line in areas where either or both may be obscured by marsh or mangrove, cypress, or other types of marine vegetation. This line represents the intersection of the mean high-water datum with the outer limits of vegetation and appears to the navigator as the shoreline.

(2) "Approved coastal zone map" means a map approved by the department.

(3) "Comparison of simultaneous observations" means a method of determining mean values by comparison of short-period observations at a station with simultaneous observations made at a station for which mean values, based on long-period observations, are available.

(4) "Control tide station" means a place so designated by the department or the National Ocean Survey at which continuous tidal observations have been taken or are to be taken over a minimum of 19 years to obtain basic tidal data for the locality.

(5) "Datum" means a reference point, line, or plane used as a basis for measurements.

(6) "Datum plane" means a surface used as reference from which heights or depths are reckoned. The plane is called a tidal datum when defined by a phase of the tide—for example, high water or low water.

(7) "Demarcation" means the act of setting and marking limits or boundaries on the ground.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Natural Resources.

(9) "Diurnal tides" means tides having a period or cycle of approximately one tidal day.

(10) "Foreshore" means the strip of land between the mean high-water and mean low-water lines that is alternately covered and uncovered by the flow of the tide.

(11) "Geodetic bench mark" means a permanently monumented and precisely referenced and described mark, usually a bronze tablet or copper or bronze bolt leaded or cemented into a masonry structure, which is established to give a definite high point on the monument to which geodetic elevations are referred.

(12) "Interpolated water elevation" means a point between two adjacent tide stations where the water elevation has been determined by interpolation from established datums at the two tide stations.

(13) "Leveling" means the operation of determining differences of elevation between points on the surface of the earth or of determining the elevations of points relative to some arbitrary or natural level surface called a datum.

(14) "Local tidal datum" means the datum established for a specific tide station through use of tidal observations made at that station.

(15) "Mean high water" means the average height of the high waters over a 19-year period. For shorter periods of observation, "mean high water" means the average height of the high waters after corrections are applied to eliminate known variations and to reduce the result to the equivalent of a mean 19-year value.

(16) "Mean high-water line" means the intersection of the tidal plane of mean high water with the shore.

(17) "Mean low water" means the average height of the low waters over a 19-year period. For shorter periods of observation, "mean low water" means the average height of low waters after corrections are applied to eliminate known variations and to reduce the result to the equivalent of mean 19-year value.

(18) "Mean low-water line" means the intersection of the tidal plane of mean low water with the shore.

(19) "Mean range difference" means the variation of the mean range of the tide at two different tide stations.

(20) "Mixed tide" means the type of tide in which the presence of a diurnal wave is conspicuous by a large inequality in either the high or low water heights, with two high waters and two low waters usually occurring each tidal day. The name is usually applied to the tides intermediate to those predominantly diurnal and those predominantly semidiurnal.

(21) "National map accuracy standards" means a set of guidelines published by the Office of Management and Budget of the United States, to which maps produced by the United States Government usually adhere.

(22) "Nineteen-year tidal cycle" means the period of time generally reckoned as constituting a full tidal cycle.

(23) "Nonperiodic forces" means those forces that occur without regard to a fixed cycle.

(24) "Photogrammetry" means the science of making precise measurements from photographs.

(25) "Semidiurnal tides" means tides having a period of approximately one-half of a tidal day.

(26) "Tidal bench mark" means a standard disk or other acceptable fixed point in the general vicinity of a tide station, used for the purpose of preserving tidal information, to which the tide staff at the tide station and the tidal datums determined from the observations at the tide station are originally referred.

(27) "Tidal datum" means a plane of reference for elevations determined from the rise and fall of the tides.

(28) "Tidal day" means the time of the rotation of the earth with respect to the moon, or the interval between two successive upper transits of the moon over the meridian of a place.

(29) "Tide" means the periodic rising and falling of the waters of the earth that result from the gravitational attraction of the moon and the sun acting upon the rotating earth.

(30) "Tide station" means a place at which continuous tide observations have been taken or are to be taken to obtain tidal data for the locality.

(31) "Time difference" means the variation in time between the occurrences of the same phase of the tide at two tide stations.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-56.

177.28 Legal significance of the mean high-water line.—

(1) Mean high-water line along the shores of land immediately bordering on navigable waters is recognized and declared to be the boundary between the foreshore owned by the state in its sovereign capacity and upland subject to private ownership. However, no provision of this part shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of state ownership of sovereignty submerged lands, nor shall any provision of this part be deemed to impair the title to privately owned submerged lands validly alienated by the State of Florida or its legal predecessors.

(2) No provision of this part shall be deemed to modify the common law of this state with respect to the legal effects of accretion, reliction, erosion, or avulsion.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-56.

177.29 Powers and duties of the department.—

(1) The provisions of this part shall be administered by the Department of Natural Resources.

(2) In addition to such powers as may be specifically delegated to it under the provisions of this part, the department is authorized to perform the following functions:

(a) To coordinate the efforts of all public and private agencies and organizations engaged in the making of tidal surveys and maps of the coastal areas of this state, with the object of avoiding unnecessary duplication and overlapping;

(b) To serve as a coordinating state agency for any program of tidal surveying and mapping conducted by the Federal Government;

(c) To assist any court, tribunal, administrative agency, or political subdivision, and to make available to them information, regarding tidal surveying and coastal boundary determinations;

(d) To contract with federal, state, or local agencies or with private parties for the performance of any surveys, studies, investigations, or mapping activities, for preparation and publication of the results thereof, or for other authorized functions relating to the objectives of this part;

(e) To develop permanent records of tidal surveys and maps of the state's coastal areas;

(f) To develop uniform specifications and regulations for tidal surveying and mapping coastal areas of the state;

(g) To collect and preserve appropriate survey data from coastal areas; and

(h) To act as a public repository for copies of coastal area maps and to establish a library of such maps and charts.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-56.

177.30 Authorization of coastal mapping program.—

The Department of Natural Resources is authorized and directed to conduct a comprehensive program of coastal boundary mapping with the object of providing accurate surveys of the coastline of the state at the earliest possible date.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-56.

177.31 Mapping standards.—All maps produced under the provisions of this part shall conform at least to minimal national map accuracy standards.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-56.

177.32 Approval of maps by department.—

(1) Upon completion of a map or series of maps, the department shall transmit a copy of the map or maps to the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the land shown on the map is located. In addition to any other notice required by law, the department shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected area at least once a week for 4 consecutive weeks a notice that a copy of the proposed map or maps is on file in the said clerk's office and that a public hearing shall be held at a specified time and place as provided in subsection (2).

(2) Before a proposed map shall become effective, the department shall hold a public hearing in the county or counties in which the land shown on the map is located.

(3) After such public hearing, the department may approve the proposed map with or without amendments or may withdraw it for further study.

(4) The decision of the department shall be subject to judicial review as provided in chapter 120.

(5) Upon approval by the department, these maps shall be known as "approved coastal zone maps," and copies thereof shall be filed among the public land records of all affected counties.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-56; s. 23, ch. 78-95.

177.33 Revised and supplemental maps.—

(1) The department shall endeavor to maintain the accuracy of its mapping program by reviewing its data at least every 25 years and, when necessary, issuing revised approved coastal zone maps.

(2) Any private person or government official may advise the department in writing of any instance in which significant shoreline alteration has occurred as the result of natural conditions or human activities. Upon notification thereof, or on its own initiative, the department may investigate such cases and, when appropriate, authorize the production of a revised coastal zone map of the affected area.

(3) When appropriate and when needed or desirable for particular areas, the department may publish supplemental maps of a scale larger than the standard scale.

(4) Revised or larger scale maps shall become approved coastal zone maps following approval by the department in accordance with the procedures set forth in s. 177.32.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-56.

177.34 Coastal boundary line location.—

Where approved coastal zone maps do not designate the mean high-water line but instead depict an apparent shoreline, the apparent shoreline is not intended to represent the mean high-water line. Mean high-water or mean low-water lines, whether or not represented on approved coastal zone maps, may be located precisely on the ground by field surveys made in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in ss. 177.37-177.39.

History.—s. 10, ch. 74-56.

177.35 Standards and procedures; applicability.—The establishment of local tidal datums and the determination of the location of the mean high-water line or the mean low-water line, whether by federal, state, or local agencies or private parties, shall be made in accordance with the standards and procedures set forth in ss. 177.37-177.39 and in accordance with supplementary regulations promulgated by the department.

History.—s. 11, ch. 74-56.

177.36 Work to be performed only by authorized personnel.—The establishment of local tidal datums and the determination of the location of the mean high-water line or the mean low-water line shall be performed by qualified personnel licensed by the 'Florida State Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors or by representatives of the United States Government when approved by the department.

History.—s. 12, ch. 74-56.

¹*Note.*—The Florida State Board of Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors was abolished by ch. 79-243, and a Board of Land Surveyors was created to regulate the profession of surveying.

177.37 Notification to department.—Any surveyor undertaking to establish a local tidal datum and to determine the location of the mean high-water line or the mean low-water line shall submit a copy of the results thereof to the department within 90 days after the completion of such work, if the same is to be recorded or submitted to any court or agency of state or local government.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-56.

177.38 Standards for establishment of local tidal datums.—

(1) Unless otherwise allowed by this part or regulations promulgated hereunder, a local tidal datum shall be established from a series of tide observations taken at a tide station established in accordance with procedures approved by the department. In establishing such procedures, full consideration will be given to the national standards and procedures established by the National Ocean Survey.

(2) Records acquired at control tide stations, which are based on mean 19-year values, comprise the basic data from which tidal datums are determined.

(3) Observations at a tide station other than a control tide station shall be reduced to mean 19-year values through comparison with simultaneous observations at the appropriate control tide stations. The observations shall be made continuously and shall extend over such period as shall be provided for in departmental regulations.

(4) When a local tidal datum has been established, it shall be preserved by referring it to tidal bench marks in the manner prescribed by the department.

(5) A local tidal datum may be established between two tide stations by interpolation when the time and mean range differences of the tide between the two tide stations are within acceptable standards as determined by the department. The methods for establishing the local tidal datum by interpolation shall be prescribed by regulations of the department. Local tidal datums established in this manner shall be recorded with the department.

(6) A local tidal datum properly established through the use of continuous tide observations meeting the standards described in this section shall be presumptively correct when it differs from a local tidal datum established by interpolation.

(7) The department may approve the use of tide observations made prior to July 1, 1974, for use in establishing local tidal datums.

History.—s. 14, ch. 74-56.

177.39 Determination of mean high-water line or mean low-water line.—The location of the mean high-water line or the mean low-water line shall be determined by methods which are approved by the department for the area concerned. Geodetic bench marks shall not be used unless approved by the department.

History.—s. 15, ch. 74-56.

177.40 Admissibility of maps and surveys.—No map or survey prepared after July 1, 1974, and purporting to establish local tidal datums or to determine the location of the mean high-water line or the mean low-water line shall be admissible as evidence in any court, administrative agency, political subdivision, or tribunal in this state unless made in accordance with the provisions of this part by persons described in s. 177.36.

History.—s. 16, ch. 74-56.

PART III

RESTORATION OF CORNERS

- 177.501 Short title.
- 177.502 Declaration of policy.
- 177.503 Definitions.
- 177.504 Powers and duties of the department.
- 177.505 Establishment of an advisory board.
- 177.506 Records exchange and availability.
- 177.507 Validation and certification of corners.
- 177.508 Private practice not affected.
- 177.509 Personnel requirements.
- 177.510 Penalty for disturbing monuments.

177.501 Short title.—Sections 177.501-177.510 may be cited as the "Florida Public Land Survey Restoration and Perpetuation Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.502 Declaration of policy.—The Legislature finds and declares that it is the responsibility of the state, and in the public interest, to provide a means for the identification, restoration, and preservation of the controlling corner monuments established during the original cadastral surveys, to which the vast majority of titles to lands in Florida are related and dependent. All such monuments and evidence pertaining to the original government surveys and resurveys are recognized as historical and economic resources of the state and, as such, are vitally important to the orderly planning, management, use, conservation, and public enjoyment of Florida's natural resources. In order to implement this policy, the Department of Natural Resources shall assume the responsibility for conducting a program of the identification, restoration, and preservation of such monuments.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.503 Definitions.—As used in ss. 177.501-177.510, the following words and terms shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Professional land surveyor" or "land surveyor" means a person authorized to practice land surveying under the provisions of chapter 472.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Natural Resources.

(3) "Corner" means a geographic position on the surface of the earth.

(4) "Monument" means a man-made or natural object that is presumed to occupy the corner or is a reference to the position of a corner.

(5) "Public land survey corner" means any corner actually established and monumented in the original public land survey or resurvey and those similar original corners subdividing Spanish land grants.

(6) "Corner accessory" means any exclusively identifiable physical object whose spatial relationship to the corner is recorded. Accessories may be, but are not limited to, bearing trees, bearing objects, monuments, reference monuments, line trees, pits, mounds, blaze marks, steel or wooden stakes, or other such natural or manmade objects.

(7) "Reference monument" means a monument that does not occupy the same geographical position as the corner itself, but whose spatial relationship to the corner is recorded and which serves to witness the corner.

(8) "Township" has the meaning ascribed in 43 U.S.C. s. 751.

(9) "Validated corner record" means a document prepared by the department or by a land surveyor under contract to the department for the execution of this act or a corner record prepared by a land surveyor and verified by a department land surveyor under an incentive program.

(10) "Certified corner record" means a document prepared by a land surveyor when a public land survey corner is used as control in his survey or resurvey.

(11) "State cadastral surveyor" means the chief of the Bureau of Coastal and Land Boundaries, Division of Resource Management of the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361; s. 83, ch. 79-400.

177.504 Powers and duties of the department.—

(1) The provisions of this act shall be administered by the department through the state cadastral surveyor.

(2) The functions, duties, and responsibilities of the department shall be:

(a) To establish a program for identification, restoration, maintenance, and perpetuation of the public land survey corners.

(b) To establish an incentive program with land surveyors throughout the state, providing for their participation in public land survey corner location and remonumenting. This program shall provide for a nominal fee, not exceeding $75, to cover a portion of the cost of the remonumentation when performed by a land surveyor and verified by a department land surveyor, creating a validated corner record.

(c) To provide for the extension and densification throughout the state of the federally initiated precise geodetic horizontal and vertical control networks, whereby these basic framework surveys shall be extended to survey corners identified under this program to permit the general use of the coordinate systems. The information derived from this work shall meet the standards established by the National Geodetic Survey in order to be accepted and published by the National Geodetic Survey.

(d) To provide for entering into agreements or contracts with agencies of the United States Government, the State of Florida, or other states, and with land surveyors in private practice and others, as are deemed necessary or desirable properly to plan and execute projects within the scope and purpose of this act, including the preparation of necessary cadastral documents, maps, and photogrammetric and geodetic control data. The department or its designated contracting agency, in contracting with land surveyors for professional services, shall give due consideration to their experience and knowledge of local conditions and the history of each particular area involved in the execution of this act.

(e) To act as a public repository of survey corner information.

(f) To adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purpose of this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.505 Establishment of an advisory board.

—The department shall select and appoint a five-person advisory board from a list of land surveyors recommended annually by the Florida Society of Professional Land Surveyors. The advisory board shall assist the department in formulating policies, in adopting rules and regulations, and in selecting qualified professional surveying personnel. The advisory board shall also advise the department with respect to differences occurring between a corner as located by an individual land surveyor and as located by a department land surveyor. Board members shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall receive their actual travel expenses, subsistence, and lodging, not to exceed the statutory amount allowed state officers and employees. The state cadastral surveyor shall serve as secretary to this advisory board, without voting privileges.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.506 Records exchange and availability.

—On request, all departments, boards, or agencies of state or local government shall furnish to the public or department certified copies of specified deeds, plats, or other land records which are in their custody. This service shall be free of cost when possible; otherwise, it shall be at the actual cost of reproduction of the records. On the same basis, the department shall furnish such certified records within its custody to the public or other agencies or departments of state or local government, upon request.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.507 Validation and certification of corners.

(1) The state cadastral surveyor shall complete a reproducible written record of corner identification or restoration, to be known as a validated corner record, for every public land survey corner and corner accessory identified, recovered, reestablished, remonumented, or restored under the provisions of this act. The state cadastral surveyor must file in the department, for public access, a copy of his validated corner record within 90 days after completion of each section of a township.

(2) Every land surveyor not under contract to the department for the execution of this act who, in any survey or resurvey made under his direction, identifies, recovers, reestablishes, remonuments, restores, or uses as control a public land survey corner or corner accessory shall, within 90 days after completion of the survey, file with the department a certified corner record for each such corner or corner accessory, unless the corner or its accessories are substantially as described in a previously filed corner record. The record shall be signed, embossed with the official seal of the surveyor, and produced on material suitable for reproduction or microfilming. The 90-day limitation may be extended with permission of the department. All such certified corner records shall be accepted and filed with the department without further inspection or approval of any public body or officer, if prepared in accordance with the criteria set forth in subsection (3).

(3) Each certified corner record shall contain the following minimum information:

(a) A description of the corner which the monument marks.

(b) A description of the monument.

(c) Descriptions and angular and linear measurements to at least three readily identifiable accessories or reference monuments, unless the department agrees to fewer accessories.

(d) A graphic illustration of the action by the land surveyor showing field conditions and dimensions at, and in the vicinity of, the corner as well as descriptive language, where appropriate, listing pertinent details of the action of the land surveyor.

(4) In every case in which a certified corner record of a public land survey corner is filed under the provisions of this act, the surveyor shall reconstruct or rehabilitate the monument of such corner and accessories to such corner, so as to make them as permanent as is reasonably possible and to facilitate easy location in the future.

(5) The department shall make its records available for public inspection during all usual office hours, and true full scale copies thereof shall be made available for a reasonable fee.

(6) In order to provide a means to protect property owners and others concerned with matters of land titles and title insurance, the department has no authority under this act to determine private property rights, private ownership boundaries where these boundaries are not adjoining public lands, or locations of survey corners other than public land survey corners.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361; s. 84, ch. 79-400.

177.508 Private practice not affected.—Nothing in this act is to be construed as restricting or limiting the actions or practice of land surveyors as provided in chapter 472.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.509 Personnel requirements.—A field supervisor who directs the field survey work required in the identification, restoration, and preservation of the public land survey corners shall be a land surveyor and shall direct not more than three field parties in a local geographic area during any one period of time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

177.510 Penalty for disturbing monuments.—Any person who willfully modifies, defaces, disturbs, removes, or destroys any monument or reference monument placed, or corner record filed, under the authority of this act without first obtaining written permission from the department is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-361.

MUNICIPAL PUBLIC WORKS

- 180.01 Definition of term "municipality."
- 180.02 Powers of municipalities.
- 180.03 Resolution or ordinance proposing construction or extension of utility; objections to same.
- 180.04 Ordinance or resolution authorizing construction or extension of utility; election.
- 180.05 Definition of term "private company."
- 180.06 Activities authorized by municipalities and private companies.
- 180.07 Public utilities; combination of plants or systems; pledge of revenues.
- 180.08 Revenue certificates; terms; price and interest; three-fifths vote of governing body required.
- 180.09 Notice of resolution or ordinance authorizing issuance of certificates.
- 180.10 When election necessary.
- 180.11 Referendum and procedure therefor.
- 180.12 Examinations, surveys, etc.
- 180.13 Administration of utility; rate fixing and collection of charges.
- 180.14 Franchise for private companies; rate fixing.
- 180.15 Liability of private companies.
- 180.16 Acquisition by municipality of property of private company.
- 180.17 Contracts with private companies.
- 180.18 Use by municipality of privately owned utility.
- 180.19 Use by other municipalities and by individuals outside corporate limits.
- 180.191 Limitation on rates charged consumer outside city limits.
- 180.20 Regulations by private companies; rates; contracts.
- 180.21 Powers granted deemed additional.
- 180.22 Power of eminent domain.
- 180.23 Contracts with engineers, attorneys and others; boards.
- 180.24 Contracts for construction; bond; publication of notice; bids.
- 180.25 Contents of notice of issuance of certificates.
- 180.26 Form of certificates.

180.01 Definition of term "municipality."—The term "municipality," as used in this chapter, shall mean any city, town, or village duly incorporated under the laws of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(6).

180.02 Powers of municipalities.—

(1) For the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter, any municipality may execute its corporate powers within its corporate limits.

(2) Any municipality may extend and execute all of its corporate powers applicable for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter outside of its corporate limits, as hereinafter provided and as may be desirable or necessary for the promotion of the public health, safety and welfare or for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter; provided, however, that said corporate powers shall not extend or apply within the corporate limits of another municipality.

(3) In the event any municipality desires to avail itself of the provisions or benefits of this chapter, it is lawful for such municipality to create a zone or area by ordinance and to prescribe reasonable regulations requiring all persons or corporations living or doing business within said area to connect, when available, with any sewerage system constructed, erected and operated under the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, in the creation of said zone the municipality shall not include any area within the limits of any other incorporated city or village, nor shall such area or zone extend for more than 5 miles from the corporate limits of said municipality.

180.03 Resolution or ordinance proposing construction or extension of utility; objections to same.—

(1) When it is proposed to exercise the powers granted by this chapter, a resolution or ordinance shall be passed by the city council, or the legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known, reciting the utility to be constructed or extended and its purpose, the proposed territory to be included, what mortgage revenue certificates or debentures if any are to be issued to finance the project, the cost thereof, and such other provisions as may be deemed necessary.

(2) Any objections to any of the provisions of said resolution or ordinance shall be in writing and filed with the governing body of the municipality, and hearing thereupon shall be held within 30 days after the passage of the resolution by the legislative body of said municipality.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(6).

180.04 Ordinance or resolution authorizing construction or extension of utility; election.—If after the passage of said resolution the said city council or other legislative body, by whatever name known, shall determine to proceed toward the construction of said utility, but not earlier than 40 days after the passage of said ordinance or resolution, the said city council or other legislative body, by whatever name known, shall pass an ordinance or resolution authorizing the construction of the utility or any extension thereof, reciting the purpose and the territory to be included, correcting any errors, remedying any sustained objections, authorizing the issuance of mortgage revenue certificates or debentures to pay for the construction and all other costs of the said utility, and containing all other necessary provisions. All other legislative and administrative functions and proceedings shall be the same as provided for the government of the municipality. The city council or other legislative body, by whatever name known, of the municipality, may adopt and provide for the enforcement of all resolutions and ordinances that may be required for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter, and its decision shall be final in determining to construct the utility, or any extension thereof as and where proposed, to promote the public health, safety, and welfare by the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter; provided, that where any mortgage revenue certificates, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness shall come within the purview of s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution, the same shall be issued only after having been approved by a majority of the votes cast in an election in which a majority of the owners of freeholds not wholly exempt from taxation who are qualified electors residing in such municipality shall participate, pursuant to the provisions of ss. 100.201-100.221, 100.241, 100.261-100.341, 100.351.

180.05 Definition of term "private company."

—A "private company" shall mean any company or corporation duly authorized under the laws of the state to construct or operate water works systems, sewerage systems, sewage treatment works, garbage collection and garbage disposal plants.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(7).

180.06 Activities authorized by municipalities and private companies.—Any municipality or private company organized for the purposes contained in this chapter, is authorized:

- (1) To clean and improve street channels or other bodies of water for sanitary purposes;
- (2) To provide means for the regulation of the flow of streams for sanitary purposes;
- (3) To provide a water supply for domestic, municipal or industrial uses;
- (4) To provide for the collection and disposal of sewage and other liquid wastes;
- (5) To provide for the collection and disposal of garbage;
- (6) And incidental to such purposes and to enable the accomplishment of the same, to construct reservoirs, sewerage systems, trunk sewers, intercepting sewers, pumping stations, wells, siphons, intakes, pipelines, distribution systems, purification works, collection systems, treatment and disposal works;
- (7) To construct airports, hospitals, jails and golf courses, to maintain, operate and repair the same, and to construct and operate in addition thereto all machinery and equipment;
- (8) To construct, operate and maintain gas plants and distribution systems for domestic, municipal and industrial uses; and
- (9) To construct such other buildings and facilities as may be required to properly and economically operate and maintain said works necessary for the fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter.

However, a private company or municipality shall not construct any system, work, project or utility authorized to be constructed hereunder in the event that a system, work, project or utility of a similar character is being actually operated by a municipality or private company in the municipality or territory immediately adjacent thereto, unless such municipality or private company consents to such construction.

History.—s. 3, ch. 17118, 1935; s. 1, ch. 17119, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(8).

(1) All such reservoirs, sewerage systems, trunk sewers, intercepting sewers, pumping stations, wells, intakes, pipelines, distribution systems, purification works, collecting systems, treatment and disposal works, airports, hospitals, jails and golf courses, and gas plants and distribution systems, whether heretofore or hereafter constructed or operated, are considered a public utility within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, owning, operating, constructing, equipping and maintaining such works.

(2) Whenever any municipality shall decide to avail itself of the provisions of this chapter for the extension or improvement of any existing utility plant or system, any then existing plant or system may be included as a part of a whole plant or system and any two or more utilities may be included in one project hereunder. The revenues of all or any part of any existing plants or systems or any plants or systems constructed hereunder may be pledged to secure moneys advanced for the construction or improvement of any utility plant or system or any part thereof or any combination thereof.

History.—s. 4, ch. 17118, 1935; s. 2, ch. 17119, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(9).

180.08 Revenue certificates; terms; price and interest; three-fifths vote of governing body required.—

(1) Any municipality which acquires, constructs or extends any of the public utilities authorized by this chapter and desires to raise money for such purpose, may issue mortgage revenue certificates or debentures therefor without regard to the limitations of municipal indebtedness as prescribed by any statute now in effect or hereafter enacted; provided, however, that such mortgage revenue certificates or debentures shall not impose any tax liability upon any real or personal property in such municipality nor constitute a debt against the municipality issuing the same, but shall be a lien only against or upon the property and revenues of such utility, including a franchise setting forth the terms upon which, in the event of foreclosure, the purchaser may operate the same, which said franchise shall in no event extend for a period longer than 30 years from the date of the sale of such utility and franchise under foreclosure proceedings.

(2) Such mortgage revenue certificates or debentures shall be sold for at least 95 percent of par value and shall bear interest not to exceed 7½ percent per annum.

(3) No mortgage revenue certificates or debentures shall be issued except upon a three-fifths affirmative vote of the city council, or other legislative body of the municipalities by whatever name known; such mortgage revenue certificates or debentures shall provide that out of the revenues and income derived and obtained from the operation of the utility ty so constructed, such portion thereof as may be deemed sufficient after all operating costs have been paid, shall be set aside annually in a sinking fund for the payment of interest on said certificates or debentures and the principal thereof at the maturity of the same.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(10); s. 18, ch. 73-302.

180.09 Notice of resolution or ordinance authorizing issuance of certificates.—Upon the adoption of resolution or ordinance by the city council, or other legislative body, by whatever name known, authorizing the issuance of mortgage revenue certificates or debentures, a notice thereof shall be published once a week for 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the municipality is located, or by posting a notice in at least three conspicuous places within the limits of the municipality, one of which shall be posted at the door of the city hall or city offices; provided, that if any of the mortgage revenue certificates or debentures are to be purchased by the United States of America, or any instrumentality or subdivision thereof, it shall not be necessary to advertise or offer the same for sale by competitive bidding.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(10).

180.10 When election necessary.—Where any mortgage revenue certificates, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness shall come within the purview of s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution, the same shall be issued only after having been approved by a majority of the votes cast in an election in which a majority of the owners of freeholds not wholly exempt from taxation who are qualified electors residing in such municipality shall participate, pursuant to the provisions of ss. 100.201-100.221, 100.241, 100.261-100.341, 100.351.

History.—s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 15, ch. 69-216; s. 64, ch. 77-175.

180.11 Referendum and procedure therefor.—

(1) A referendum may be held upon the issuance of such mortgage revenue certificates or debentures in the following manner: a petition shall be filed with the clerk within 30 days after the date of the first publication of the notice of the issuance of the proposed mortgage revenue certificates or debentures or after the posting of the notice, as hereinbefore provided. The petition shall contain the nature of the objection to the proposed utility or the issuance of said mortgage revenue certificates or debentures and shall be signed by 20 percent of the registered and qualified electors of said municipality. Such referendum shall be held not later than 60 days after the date of the first publication of said notice as aforesaid or the posting of such notice.

(2) The aforesaid petition shall be filed with the city clerk, or the officer performing the corresponding duties, and the said clerk or officer shall ascertain immediately if the requisite number of registered and qualified electors have signed the said petition; whereupon he shall immediately report in writing to the mayor, or the executive officer of said municipality, and to the city council or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known; whereupon a resolution or ordinance shall forthwith be enacted determining if the requisite number of registered and qualified electors have signed the petition, a resolution or ordinance shall forthwith be enacted setting forth the date upon which the referendum shall be held, appropriating sufficient funds to pay the expenses of said election, designating the places of voting and providing for the form of ballot to be used. In determining the number of registered and qualified electors for the purposes of determining the sufficiency of the petition for referendum, the city clerk, or such other officer, shall use the number of registered and qualified electors at the last municipal election held by the said municipality. All rules, regulations, ordinances or resolutions pertaining to municipal elections shall apply under the referendum herein set forth, except where the same are inconsistent with the proceedings herein authorized.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(10).

180.12 Examinations, surveys, etc.—Any municipality, to carry out the purpose of this chapter, may, through its officers, committees, agents, servants or employees, enter into and upon private property where it is proposed to construct said utility, or extensions thereof to make necessary examinations and surveys, and for such other purposes as may be required in the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter; provided, however, the municipality, before constructing any of said works upon private property, shall first acquire the right to take and use the property by agreement or purchase or by proceedings or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain in a court of the state having jurisdiction of the same in the manner prescribed by law.

180.13 Administration of utility; rate fixing and collection of charges.—

(1) The city council, or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known, may create a separate board or may designate certain officers of said municipality to have the supervision and control of the operation of the works constructed under the authority of this chapter, which said board or designated officers may make all necessary rules or regulations governing the use, control and operation of said works; subject, however, to the approval of the city council, or other legislative body, by whatever name known.

(2) The city council, or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known, may establish just and equitable rates or charges to be paid to the municipality for the use of the utility by each person, firm or corporation whose premises are served thereby; and provided further, that if the charges so fixed are not paid when due, such sums may be recovered by the said municipality by suit in a court having jurisdiction of said cause or by discontinuance of service of such utility until delinquent charges for services thereof are paid, including charge covering any reasonable expense for reconnecting such service after such delinquencies are paid, or any other lawful method of enforcement of the payment of such delinquencies.

History.—s. 7, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(12).

180.14 Franchise for private companies; rate fixing.—A private company or corporation organized under the laws of the state for any of the purposes recited in this chapter, may construct, operate and maintain such works provided for in this chapter, within or without the corporate limits of any municipality, upon application by such company or corporation to the city council, or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known, and the said municipality may grant to said private company or corporation the privilege or franchise of exercising its corporate powers for such terms of years and upon such conditions and limitations as may be deemed expedient and for the best interest of said municipality for the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in this chapter; said franchise, however, to be for a period of not longer than 30 years; provided further, that the rates or charges to be made by the private company or corporation to the individual users of the utility constructed or operated under authority of this chapter shall be fixed by the city council, or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known, upon proper hearing had for that purpose.

History.—s. 8, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(13).

180.15 Liability of private companies.—Any private company or corporation constructing or operating any of the works provided for in this chapter, within or without the corporate limits of any municipality, shall be liable for all damages occasioned by the acts, negligence or injury to the rights of other persons, firms or corporations in the same manner and with the same limitations as any other private corporation chartered under the laws of the state.

History.—s. 9, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(14).

180.16 Acquisition by municipality of property of private company.—When a municipality has granted to a private company or corporation a privilege or franchise, as set forth in s. 180.14, if at the expiration of the term of the privilege or franchise and after petition of the private company or corporation, the municipality fails or refuses to renew the privilege or franchise, then upon further petition of the private company or corporation, its property, consisting of all the works constructed and used in the operation and use of the utility, together with the appurtenances, materials, fixtures, machinery, and real estate appertaining thereto, which is on hand at the time of the expiration of said privilege or franchise, shall be purchased by the said municipality at a price to be mutually agreed upon; provided, however, if the price for same cannot be agreed upon, the price shall be determined by an arbitration board consisting of three persons, one of whom shall be selected by the city council or other legislative body, one shall be appointed by the private company or corporation, and the two persons so selected shall select a third member of said board; and provided further, that in the event said board cannot agree as to the price to be paid by the said municipality, then the municipality shall file appropriate condemnation proceedings under chapter 73, within 6 months after the date of filing the original petition.

History.—s. 10, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(15).

180.17 Contracts with private companies.—Any municipality may contract by and through its duly authorized officers with any private company or corporation which is organized for any purpose related to the provisions of this chapter, and may contract with said private company or corporation for the construction or use of such works authorized by this chapter.

History.—s. 11, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(16).

180.18 Use by municipality of privately owned utility.—Whenever a private company or corporation shall construct or operate any of the works authorized by this chapter, the municipality wherein the same shall be constructed or operated shall not use the said works in any manner except by and with the consent of the private company or corporation in the manner and upon the terms and conditions which are mutually agreeable to the private company or corporation and the municipality, except as hereinbefore provided.

180.19 Use by other municipalities and by individuals outside corporate limits.—

(1) A municipality which constructs any works as are authorized by this chapter, may permit any other municipality and the owners or association of owners of lots or lands outside of its corporate limits or within the limits of any other municipality, to connect with or use the utilities mentioned in this chapter upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed between such municipalities, and the owners or association of owners of such outside lots or lands.

(2) Any private company or corporation organized to accomplish the purposes set forth in this chapter, which has been granted a privilege or franchise by a municipality, may permit the owners or association of owners of lots or lands outside of the boundaries of said municipality granting said privilege or franchise, or other municipality, to connect with and use the utility operated by the said private company or corporation upon such terms as may be agreed between the said private company or corporation and the owners or association of owners of said lots or lands or the said municipality.

180.191 Limitation on rates charged consumer outside city limits.—

(1) Any municipality within the state operating a water or sewer utility outside of the boundaries of such municipality shall charge consumers outside the boundaries rates, fees, and charges determined in one of the following manners:

(a) It may charge the same rates, fees, and charges as consumers inside the municipal boundaries. However, in addition thereto, the municipality may add a surcharge of not more than 25 percent of such rates, fees, and charges to consumers outside the boundaries. Fixing of such rates, fees and charges in this manner shall not require a public hearing except as may be provided for service to consumers inside the municipality.

(b) It may charge rates, fees, and charges that are just and equitable and which are based on the same factors used in fixing the rates, fees, and charges for consumers inside the municipal boundaries. In addition thereto, the municipality may add a surcharge not to exceed 25 percent of such rates, fees and charges for said services to consumers outside the boundaries. However, the total of such rates, fees, and charges for said services to consumers outside the boundaries shall not be more than 50 percent in excess of the total amount the municipality charges consumers served within the municipality for corresponding service. No such rates, fees and charges shall be fixed until after a public hearing at which all of the users of the water or sewer systems, owners, tenants, or occupants of property served or to be served thereby, and all others interested shall have an opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed rates, fees, and charges. Any change or revision of such rates, fees, or charges may be made in the same manner as such rates, fees, or charges were originally established, but if such change or revision be made substantially pro rata as to all classes of service, no hearing or notice shall be required.

(2) Whenever any municipality has engaged, or there are reasonable grounds to believe that any municipality is about to engage, in any act or practice prohibited by subsection (1), a civil action for preventive relief, including application for a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order, may be instituted by the person or persons aggrieved.

(3) This section shall apply to municipally owned water and sewer utilities within the confines of a single county.

(4) This section shall not apply to a county operating under a home rule charter if said county has in operation under said charter an agency regulating water and sewer systems.

(5) In any action commenced pursuant to this section, the court in its discretion may allow the prevailing party treble damages and, in addition, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the cost.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 70-997.

180.20 Regulations by private companies; rates; contracts.—Whenever any private company or corporation organized for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter is granted a privilege or franchise by a municipality, it may prescribe the terms upon which owners and occupants of houses, buildings or lots may obtain the use of the utility constructed and operated by the said private company or corporation, and the rate charged for such use, and also the rate and terms upon which the municipality may use such utility for public purposes; such rates, however, shall be subject to the approval of the city council, or other legislative body of the municipality, by whatever name known; provided, however, that the municipality may contract with the said private company or corporation to pay the said company or corporation a flat or fixed rate for such service and use of the utility and may pay out of the general revenue or any special revenue such rate as agreed.

History.—s. 14, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(19).

180.21 Powers granted deemed additional.—The authority and powers granted by this chapter to municipalities shall be in addition to but not in limitation of any of the powers heretofore or hereafter granted to municipalities now existing or hereafter created.

History.—s. 15, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(20).

180.22 Power of eminent domain.—

(1) Any municipality or private company or corporation authorized to carry into effect any or all of the purposes defined in this chapter may exercise the power of eminent domain over railroads, traction and streetcar lines, telephone and telegraph lines, all public and private streets and highways, drainage districts, bridge districts, school districts, and any other public or private lands or property whatsoever necessary to enable the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Any municipality which exercises its power under this section outside of its corporate boundaries for the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter may finance such extraterritorial project in any manner in which it is presently authorized by law to finance a like project within its corporate boundaries.

History.—s. 16, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(21); s. 1, ch. 78-198, cf.—Ch. 73 Eminent Domain.

180.23 Contracts with engineers, attorneys and others; boards.—Any municipality desiring to construct, maintain or operate any of the utilities described in this chapter, may contract with engineers and attorneys for professional services required for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes of this chapter; provided, however, that such employment is to be evidenced by written agreement setting forth the terms and conditions of the employment; provided further, that such municipality may also create such other offices and boards as may be necessary and expedient for carrying out the purposes of this chapter and shall provide suitable and fit compensation for the same.

180.24 Contracts for construction; bond; publication of notice; bids.—

(1) Any municipality desiring the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes of this chapter may make contracts for the construction of any of the utilities mentioned in this chapter, or any extension or extensions to any previously constructed utility, which said contracts shall be in writing, and the contractor shall be required to give bond, which said bond shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state; provided, however, construction contracts in excess of $1,000 shall be advertised by the publication of a notice in a newspaper of general circulation for 2 consecutive weeks in the county in which said municipality is located, or by posting three notices in three conspicuous places in said municipality, one of which shall be on the door of the city hall; and that at least 10 days shall elapse between the date of the first publication or posting of such notice and the date of receiving bids and the execution of such contract documents.

(2) All contracts for the purchase, lease or renting of materials or equipment to be used in the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes of this chapter by the municipality, shall be in writing; provided, however, that where said contract for the purchase, lease or renting of such materials or equipment is in excess of $1,000, notice or advertisement for bids on the same shall be published in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1).

History.—s. 18, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(23); s. 3, ch. 73-129.
Note.—Former s. 255.26.

180.25 Contents of notice of issuance of certificates.—The form of the notice for advertising the proposed issuance of mortgage revenue certificates or debentures shall contain the amount of the certificates to be sold and the rate of interest thereon; a description in general terms of the utility to be constructed; the time, place and date where bids for the sale of the same are to be received; and such other pertinent information as may be deemed necessary.

History.—s. 19, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(24).

180.26 Form of certificates.—The certificate of indebtedness to be issued under the terms and conditions of this chapter shall contain a description of the utility, the revenue of which is pledged, together with the terms of payment of the same, as is established by the ordinances or resolutions of the municipality, in accordance with the conditions heretofore established in this chapter, and may or may not have attached thereto interest coupons, and shall contain such other and further conditions as shall be determined by the governing body of the municipality, in accordance with the terms and conditions of this chapter.

History.—s. 20, ch. 17118, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 3100(25).

185.01 Legislative declaration.—It is hereby found and declared by the Legislature that police officers as hereinafter defined perform both state and municipal functions; that they make arrests for violations of state traffic laws on public highways; that they keep the public peace; that they conserve both life and property and that their activities are vital to public welfare of this state. Therefore the legislature declares that it is a proper and legitimate state purpose to provide a uniform retirement system for the benefit of police officers as hereinafter defined.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28230, 1953.

185.02 Definitions.—The following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Police officer" means a full-time police officer who receives compensation from municipal funds of any incorporated municipality of the state for services rendered. For the purposes of this chapter only, "police officer" also shall include a public safety officer who is responsible for performing both police and fire services.

(2) "Average final compensation" means the average cash compensation of a police officer during his last 10 years of contributing service.

(3) "Salary" means the total cash remuneration paid to a police officer for services rendered.

(4) "Casualty insurance" means automobile public liability and property damage insurance to be applied at the place of residence of the owner, or if the subject is a commercial vehicle, to be applied at the place of business of the owner; automobile collision insurance; fidelity bonds; burglary and theft insurance; plate glass insurance.

(5) In determining the "aggregate number of years of service" of any police officer, the time spent in the military service of the United States or United States Merchant Marine by the police officer on leave of absence for such reason shall be added to the years of service, provided, however, that to receive credit for such service the police officer must have reentered the municipality's police service within 1 year of date of release from service.

(6) Otherwise, "aggregate number of years of service with the municipality" means the total number of years, and fractional parts of years, of service of any police officer, omitting intervening years and fractional parts of years, when such police officer may not be employed by the municipality. Provided, however, that no police officer will receive credit for years or fractional parts of years of service for which he has withdrawn his contributions to the fund for those years or fractional parts of years of service; and provided further that no credit will be given for service after the normal retirement date. Further providing that a police officer may voluntarily leave his contributions in the fund for a period of 5 years after leaving the employ of the police department, pending the possibility of his being rehired by the same department, without losing credit for the time he has participated actively as a police officer. Should he not be reemployed as a police officer, with the same department, within 5 years, his contributions shall be returned to him without interest.

185.03 Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund created; applicability of provisions; participation by public safety officers.—

(1) There may be hereby created a special fund to be known as the "Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund," exclusively for the purposes provided in this chapter, in each incorporated city or town of this state, heretofore or hereafter created, which now has or which may hereafter have a regularly organized police department, and which now owns and uses or which may hereafter own and use equipment and apparatus of a value exceeding $500 in serviceable condition, for the prevention of crime and for the preservation of life and property, and which city or town does not presently have established by law a similar fund.

(2) The provisions of this act shall apply only to municipalities organized and established pursuant to the laws of the state and said provisions shall not apply to the unincorporated areas of any county or counties nor shall the provisions hereof apply to any governmental entity whose employees are eligible for membership in a state or state and county retirement system.

(3) No municipality shall establish more than one retirement plan for public safety officers which is supported in whole or in part by the distribution of premium tax funds as provided by this chapter or chapter 175, nor shall any municipality establish a retirement plan for public safety officers which receives premium tax funds from both this chapter and chapter 175.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 29825, 1955; s. 2, ch. 61-119; s. 1, ch. 65-152; s. 7, ch. 79-380; s. 2, ch. 79-388.

185.04 Actuarial deficits not state obligations.—Actuarial deficits, if any, arising under this chapter shall not be the obligation of the state.

History.—s. 1b, ch. 28230, 1953.

185.05 Board of trustees; members, terms of office.—In each municipality described in s. 185.03, there is hereby created a Board of Trustees of the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund. The board of trustees shall consist of the mayor, or corresponding officer when the municipality does not have a mayor, the chief of the police department, and two regularly employed policemen of the municipality to be chosen by the legislative body of the municipality upon recommendation of a majority of the regularly employed policemen of the municipality, and one resident of the municipality to be appointed by the legislative body of the municipality. The mayor, or corresponding officer, and the chief of the police department shall serve as long as they shall continue to hold office as mayor or chief respectively, and upon a vacancy in the office of mayor or chief, their respective successors shall succeed to the position of trustees; and each of the policemen shall be trustee for a period of 2 years, unless he sooner leaves the employment of the municipality as a policeman, whereupon the legislative body of the municipality upon recommendation of a majority of the regularly employed policemen thereof, shall choose his successors; the resident member shall be a trustee for a term of 2 years and may succeed himself in office. The mayor shall be the chairman of the board. The board of trustees shall elect one of its members as secretary of the board. The secretary of the board shall keep a complete minute book of the proceedings of the board. The trustees shall not receive any compensation as such.

History.—s. 2, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.06 Powers of board of trustees.—The board of trustees may:

(1) Invest and reinvest the assets of the retirement trust fund in annuity and life insurance contracts of life insurance companies in amounts sufficient to provide, in whole or in part, the benefits to which all of the participants in the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund shall be entitled under the provisions of this chapter, and pay the initial and subsequent premiums thereon.

(2) Invest and reinvest the assets of the retirement trust fund in:

(a) Time or savings accounts of a national bank, a state bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or a savings and loan association insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

(b) Obligations of the United States or in obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States.

(c) County bonds containing a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county or district involved, provided that such bonds are approved by the State Board of Administration as to legal and fiscal sufficiency, bonds of the Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services, or any other state agency, which have been approved as to legal and fiscal sufficiency by the State Board of Administration.

(d) Obligations of any municipal authority issued pursuant to the laws of this state, provided, however, that for each of the 5 years next preceding the date of investment the income of such authority available for fixed charges shall have been not less than 1½ times its average annual fixed-charges requirement over the life of its obligations.

(e) Bonds, stocks or other evidences of indebtedness issued or guaranteed by a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, and state, or organized territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, provided:

1. The corporation is listed on any one or more of the recognized national stock exchanges and holds a rating in one of the three highest classifications by a major rating service;

2. The corporation has paid cash dividends for a period of 7 fiscal years next preceding the date of acquisition;

3. The corporation fulfills either of the following standards: Over the period of the 7 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase the corporation must have earned after federal income taxes, an average amount per annum at least equal to two times the amount of the yearly interest charges upon its bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of equal or greater security outstanding at date of purchase, and earned after federal income taxes, an amount at least equal to two times the amount of such interest charges in each of the three fiscal years immediately preceding purchase; or the corporation over the period of 7 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase must have earned after federal income taxes, an average amount per annum at least equal to 6 percent of the par value of its bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness of equal or greater security outstanding at date of purchase, and earned after federal income taxes, an amount at least equal to 6 percent of the par value of such obligations in each of the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding purchase. No investment shall be made under this paragraph upon which any interest obligation is in default or which has been in default within the immediately preceding 5-year period;

4. The board of trustees shall not invest more than 1 percent of its assets in the common stock or capital stock of any one issuing company, nor shall the aggregate investment in any one issuing company exceed 1 percent of the outstanding capital stock of the company; nor shall the aggregate of its investments under this section at cost exceed 10 percent of the fund's assets.

(3) Issue drafts upon the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund pursuant to this act and rules and regulations prescribed by the board of trustees. All such drafts shall be consecutively numbered, and be signed by the chairman and secretary and shall state upon their faces the purposes for which the drafts are drawn. The city treasurer or other depository shall retain such drafts when paid, as permanent vouchers for disbursements made, and no money shall otherwise be drawn from the fund.

(4) Any and all acts and decisions shall be by at least three members of the board; however, no trustee shall take part in any action in connection with his own participation in the fund, and no unfair discrimination shall be shown to any individual employee participating in the fund.

(5) Finally decide all claims to relief under the board's rules and regulations and pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(6) Convert into cash any securities of the fund.

(7) Keep a complete record of all receipts and disbursements and of the board's acts and proceedings.

(8) The general administration of, and the responsibilities for, the proper operation of the retirement trust fund and for making effective the provisions of this chapter are vested in the board of trustees. The board of trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for an actuarial valuation of the retirement trust fund and for checking the actual experience of the fund.

185.061 Use of annuity or insurance policies.

—When the board of trustees purchases annuity or life insurance contracts to provide all or part of the benefits promised by this chapter, the following principles shall be observed:

(1) Only those officers who have been members of the retirement trust fund for 1 year or longer may be included in the insured plan.

(2) Individual policies shall be purchased only when a group insurance plan is not feasible.

(3) Each application and policy shall designate the pension fund as owner of the policy.

(4) Policies shall be written on an annual-premium basis.

(5) The type of policy shall be one which for the premium paid provides each individual with the maximum retirement benefit at his earliest statutory normal retirement age.

(6) Death benefit, if any, should not exceed:

(a) One hundred times the estimated normal monthly retirement income, based on the assumption that the present rate of compensation continues without change to normal retirement date, or

(b) Twice the annual rate of compensation as of the date of termination of service, or

(c) The single-sum value of the accrued deferred retirement income (beginning at normal retirement date) at date of termination of service, whichever is greatest.

(7) An insurance plan may provide that the assignment of insurance contract to separating officer shall be at least equivalent to the return of the officer's contributions used to purchase the contract. An assignment of contract discharges the municipality from all further obligation to the participant under the plan even though the cash value of such contract may be less than the employee's contributions.

(8) Provisions shall be made, either by issuance of separate policies, or otherwise, that the separating officer does not receive cash values and other benefits under the policies assigned to him which exceed the present value of his vested interest under the retirement plan, inclusive of his contribution to the plan, the contributions by the state shall not be exhausted faster merely because the method of funding adopted was through insurance companies.

(9) The police officer shall have the right at any time to give the board of trustees written instructions designating the primary and contingent beneficiaries to receive death benefit or proceeds and the method of the settlement of the death benefit or proceeds, or requesting a change in the beneficiary, designation or method of settlement previously made, subject to the terms of the policy or policies on his life. Upon receipt of such written instructions, the board of trustees shall take the necessary steps to effectuate the designation or change of beneficiary or settlement option.

History.—s. 4, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.07 Creation and maintenance of fund.—The Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund in each municipality described in s. 185.03 shall be created and maintained in the following manner:

(1) By the net proceeds of the 1 percent excise or license tax which may be imposed by the respective cities and towns upon certain casualty insurance companies on their gross receipts of premiums from holders of policies which policies cover property within the corporate limits of such municipalities as is hereinafter expressly authorized.

(2) By 5 percent of the salary of each full-time policeman duly appointed and enrolled as a member of such police department, which shall be deducted by the municipality and paid over to the board of trustees of the retirement trust fund wherein such policeman is employed, provided that no deductions shall be made after an officer has passed his normal retirement date. A full-time police officer participating in the old age and survivors insurance of the Federal Social Security Law, and/or Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund, may limit his contributions to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund to 3 percent of salary and receive reduced benefits as set forth in ss. 185.16(2) and 185.18(5). No police officer shall have any right to said money so paid into said fund except as provided in this chapter.

(3) By all fines and forfeitures imposed and collected from any policeman because of the violation of any rule and regulation promulgated by the board of trustees.

(4) By payment by municipality or other sources of a sum equal to the normal cost and the amount required to fund over a 40-year basis any actuarial deficiency shown by a quinquennial actuarial valuation. The first such actuarial valuation shall be conducted for the calendar year ending December 31, 1963.

(5) By all gifts, bequests and devises when donated for the fund.

(6) By all accretions to the fund by way of interest on bank deposits or otherwise.

(7) By all other sources of income now or hereafter authorized by law for the augmentation of such Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund.

185.08 One percent excise tax on casualty insurance premiums authorized; procedure.—

(1) Each incorporated city or town in this state described and classified in s. 185.03, as well as each other city or town of this state which on July 31, 1953, has a lawfully established Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund or city fund providing pension or relief benefits to policemen by whatever name known, may assess and impose on every insurance company, corporation or other insurer now engaged in or carrying on, or who shall hereafter engage in or carry on the business of casualty insurance as shown by the records of Department of Insurance, an excise or license tax in addition to any lawful license or excise tax now levied by each of the said towns respectively, amounting to 1 percent of the gross amount of receipts of premiums from policyholders on all premiums collected on casualty insurance policies covering property within the corporate limits of such municipalities, respectively.

(2) In the case of multiple peril policies with a single premium for both property and casualty coverages in such policies, 30 percent of such premium shall be used as the basis for the 1 percent tax above.

(3) Said excise or license tax shall be payable annually March 1 of each year after the passing of an ordinance assessing and imposing the tax herein authorized. Every insurance company, corporation or other insurer paying such tax shall receive credit for the amount thereof, when paid, on the amount payable by such insurer to the state for the similar state excise tax now imposed by other provisions of law; provided, however, that this chapter shall not be construed to require the payment of an excise tax by an insurance company that does not now pay such tax.

History.—s. 5, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119; s. 1, ch. 63-196; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.09 Report of premiums paid; date tax payable.—Whenever any city or town shall pass an ordinance assessing and imposing the tax authorized in s. 185.08, a certified copy of such ordinance shall be deposited with both the Department of Banking and Finance and the Department of Insurance and thereafter every insurance company, corporation or other insurer carrying on the business of casualty insuring on or before the succeeding March 1 after date of the passage of said ordinance shall report fully in writing to the Department of Banking and Finance and Department of Insurance, a just and true account of all premiums received by such insurer for casualty insurance policies covering or insuring any property located within the corporate limits of such municipality during the period of time elapsing between the date of the passage of said ordinance and the succeeding March 1. The aforesaid insurer shall annually thereafter, on March 1, file with the same officers, a similar report covering the preceding year's premium receipts. Every such insurer shall, at the time of making such report, pay to the insurance commissioner and treasurer the amount of the tax heretofore mentioned. Every insurer engaged in carrying on a general casualty insurance business in the state, as shown by the records of the Department of Insurance, shall keep accurate books of account of all such business done by it within the limits of such incorporated municipality in such a manner as to be able to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The Department of Insurance shall furnish to any municipality requesting the same a copy of any of the reports filed by insurers under this section.

History.—s. 6, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-85; ss. 12, 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.10 Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer to keep accounts of deposits; disbursements.—The Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall keep a separate account of all moneys collected for each city and town under the provisions of this chapter and any and all moneys so collected, after deducting the necessary expense incurred by the Department of Insurance, in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid into the State Treasury in a fund known as the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund. The Comptroller shall on or before June 1 of each year, and at such other times as the State Treasurer may elect, draw his warrant on the State Treasurer for the full net amount of money then within the State Treasury in the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund specifying the cities or towns to which said moneys shall be paid and the net amount collected for and to be paid to each city or town, respectively, which said sums payable to said cities or towns are hereby appropriated annually out of the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund. Said warrants of said Comptroller shall be countersigned by the Governor and shall be payable to the cities or towns, respectively, entitled to receive the same, and shall be remitted annually by the Comptroller to such cities and towns.

185.11 Funds received by municipalities, deposit in retirement trust fund.—All funds received by any city or town under the provisions of this chapter, shall be by said town paid immediately into its Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund or into its pension fund for policemen, where such latter fund exists.

History.—s. 8, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.12 Payment of municipal tax credit on state tax.—The tax herein authorized shall in no wise be additional to the similar state excise or license tax imposed by part IV, chapter 624, but the payer of the tax hereby authorized shall receive credit therefor on his said state excise or license tax and the balance of said state excise or license tax shall be paid to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer as is now provided by law.

History.—s. 9, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 3, ch. 61-85; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.13 Failure of insurer to comply with chapter; penalty.—Should any insurance company, corporation or other insurer fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter, on or before March 1 in each year as herein provided, the certificate of authority issued to said insurance company, corporation or other insurer to transact business in this state may be canceled and revoked by the Department of Insurance, and it is unlawful for any such insurance company, corporation or other insurer to transact any business thereafter in this state unless such insurance company, corporation or other insurer shall be granted a new certificate of authority to transact business in this state, in compliance with provisions of law authorizing such certificate of authority to be issued.

History.—s. 10, ch. 28230, 1953; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.14 Contributions.—Except as provided in ss. 185.07(2) and 185.15, the municipal officer or board paying salaries to police officers entitled to the benefit of this chapter shall deduct 5 percent from each installment of salary of each police officer so long as such police officer shall hold office, or be employed. Said amount so deducted shall be deposited in a special fund hereby established in the municipal treasury, to be known as the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund.

History.—s. 12, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 6, ch. 59-320; s. 4, ch. 61-85; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.15 Contributions; new employees.—Any person who enters the employment of any incorporated municipality of the state as a police officer after July 31, 1953 and who does not desire to accept the provisions of this chapter shall, within 12 months after employment, notify the officer or board paying the salary of such police officer, in writing, to that effect. Thereupon, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to refund from the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund the full amount, without interest, withheld from such police officer's salary and deposited in such fund. Thenceforward no withholding shall be made from such salary and all police officers who have given such notice shall be barred from participating in the retirement system.

History.—s. 13, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 57-118; s. 6, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.16 Requirements for retirement.—Any police officer who has attained the age of 60 years, or more, and who at such time has completed at least 10 years of service as a police officer and for such period has been a member of the retirement fund, is eligible for normal retirement benefits. Normal retirement under the plan is retirement from the service of the city on or after the normal retirement date. In such event, payment of retirement income will be governed by the following provisions of this section:

(1) The normal retirement date of each police officer will be the first day of the month coincident with or next following the date on which he has attained the age of 60 years and has completed 10 years service. A police officer who retires after his normal retirement date will upon actual retirement be entitled to receive the same amount of monthly retirement income that he would have received had he retired on his normal retirement date.

(2) The amount of the monthly retirement income payable to a police officer who retires on or after his normal retirement date shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 2 percent of his average final compensation. If the police officer has been contributing only 3 percent of salary, his monthly retirement income shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 1.2 percent of his average final compensation. The retirement income will be reduced for moneys received under the disability provisions of this chapter.

(3) The monthly retirement income payable in the event of normal retirement will be payable on the first day of each month. The first payment will be made on the police officer's normal retirement date, or on the first day of the month coincident with or next following his actual retirement, if later, and the last payment will be the payment due next preceding the police officer's death; except that, in the event the police officer dies after his retirement but before he has received retirement benefits for a period of 10 years, the same monthly benefit will be paid to the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) as designated by the police officer for the balance of such 10-year period, or, if no beneficiary is designated, to the surviving spouse, descendants, heirs at law or estate of the police officer, as provided in s. 185.162. If a police officer continues in the service of the city beyond his normal retirement date and dies prior to his date of actual retirement, without an option made pursuant to s. 185.161 being in effect, monthly retirement income payments will be made for a period of 10 years to a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by the police officer as if the police officer had retired on the date on which his death occurred, or, if no beneficiary is designated, to the surviving spouse, descendants, heirs at law or estate of the police officer, as provided in s. 185.162.

(4) Early retirement under the plan is retirement from the service of the city, with the consent of the city, as of the first day of any calendar month which is prior to the police officer's normal retirement date but subsequent to the date as of which he has both attained the age of 50 years and completed 10 years of contributing service. In the event of early retirement, payment of retirement income will be governed as follows:

(a) The early retirement date shall be the first day of the calendar month coincident with or immediately following the date a police officer retires from the service of the city under the provisions of this section prior to his normal retirement date.

(b) The monthly amount of retirement income payable to a police officer who retires prior to his normal retirement date under the provisions of this section shall be an amount computed as described in subsection (2), taking into account his credited service to his date of actual retirement and his final monthly compensation as of such date, such amount of retirement income to be actuarially reduced to take into account the police officer's younger age and the earlier commencement of retirement income payments.

(c) The retirement income payable in the event of early retirement will be payable on the first day of each month. The first payment will be made on the police officer's early retirement date and the last payment will be the payment due next preceding the retired police officer's death; except that, in the event the police officer dies before he has received retirement benefits for a period of 10 years, the same monthly benefit will be paid to the beneficiary designated by the police officer for the balance of such 10-year period, or, if no designated beneficiary is surviving, the same monthly benefit for the balance of such 10-year period shall be payable as provided in s. 185.162.

185.161 Optional forms of retirement income.—

(1)(a) In lieu of the amount and form of retirement income payable in the event of normal or early retirement as specified in s. 185.16, a police officer, upon written request to the board of trustees and submission of evidence of good health (except that such evidence will not be required if such request is made at least 3 years prior to the date of commencement of retirement income or if such request is made within 6 months following the effective date of the plan, if later), and subject to the approval of the board of trustees, may elect to receive a retirement income or benefit of equivalent actuarial value payable in accordance with one of the following options:

1. A retirement income of larger monthly amount, payable to the police officer for his lifetime only.

2. A retirement income of a modified monthly amount, payable to the police officer during the joint lifetime of the police officer and a joint pensioner designated by the police officer, and following the death of either of them, 100 percent, 66⅔ percent, or

50 percent of such monthly amount payable to the survivor for the lifetime of the survivor.

3. Such other amount and form of retirement payments or benefit as, in the opinion of the board of trustees, will best meet the circumstances of the retiring police officer.

(b) The police officer upon electing any option of this section will designate the joint pensioner or beneficiary (or beneficiaries) to receive the benefit, if any, payable under the plan in the event of his death, and will have the power to change such designation from time to time but any such change shall be deemed a new election and will be subject to approval by the pension committee. Such designation will name a joint pensioner or one or more primary beneficiaries where applicable. If a police officer has elected an option with a joint pensioner or beneficiary and his retirement income benefits have commenced, he may thereafter change his designated joint pensioner or beneficiary but only if the board of trustees consents to such change and if the joint pensioner last previously designated by him is alive when he files with the board of trustees his request for such change. The consent of a police officer's joint pensioner or beneficiary to any such change shall not be required. The board of trustees may request such evidence of the good health of the joint pensioner that is being removed as it may require and the amount of the retirement income payable to the police officer upon the designation of a new joint pensioner shall be actuarially redetermined taking into account the ages and sex of the former joint pensioner, the new joint pensioner, and the police officer. Each such designation will be made in writing on a form prepared by the board of trustees, and on completion will be filed with the board of trustees. In the event that no designated beneficiary survives the police officer, such benefits as are payable in the event of the death of the police officer subsequent to his retirement, shall be paid as provided in s. 185.162.

(a) If a police officer dies prior to his normal retirement date or early retirement date, whichever first occurs, no benefit will be payable under the option to any person, but the benefits, if any, will be determined under s. 185.21.

(b) If the designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) or joint pensioner dies before the police officer's retirement under the plan, the option elected will be canceled automatically and a retirement income of the normal form and amount will be payable to the police officer upon his retirement as if the election had not been made, unless a new election is made in accordance with the provisions of this section or a new beneficiary is designated by the police officer prior to his retirement and within 90 days after the death of the beneficiary.

(c) If both the retired police officer and the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by him die before the full payment has been effected under any option providing for payments for a period certain and life thereafter, made pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1)(a)3., the board of trustees may, in its discretion, direct that the commuted value of the remaining payments be paid in a lump sum, and in accordance with s. 185.162.

(d) If a police officer continues beyond his normal retirement date pursuant to the provisions of s. 185.16 (1), and dies prior to his actual retirement and while an option made pursuant to the provisions of this section is in effect, monthly retirement income payments will be made, or a retirement benefit will be paid, under the option to a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) designated by the police officer in the amount or amounts computed as if the police officer had retired under the option on the date on which his death occurred.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320.

185.162 Beneficiaries.—

(1) Each police officer may, on a form, provided for that purpose, signed and filed with the board of trustees, designate a beneficiary (or beneficiaries) to receive the benefit, if any, which may be payable in the event of his death, and each designation may be revoked by such police officer by signing and filing with the board of trustees a new designation or beneficiary form.

(2) If a deceased police officer failed to name a beneficiary in the manner above prescribed, or if the beneficiary (or beneficiaries) named by a deceased police officer predeceases the police officer, the death benefit, if any, which may be payable under the plan with respect to such deceased police officer may be paid, in the discretion of the board of trustees, either to:

(a) Any one or more of the persons comprising the group consisting of the police officer's spouse, the police officer's descendants, the police officer's parents, or the police officer's heirs at law, and the board of trustees may pay the entire benefit to any member of such group or apportion such benefit among any two or more of them in such shares as the board of trustees, in its sole discretion, shall determine, or

(b) The estate of such deceased police officer, provided that in any of such cases the board of trustees, in its discretion, may direct that the commuted value of the remaining monthly income payments be paid in a lump sum. Any payment made to any person pursuant to the power and discretion conferred upon the board of trustees by the preceding sentence shall operate as a complete discharge of all obligations under the plan with regard to such deceased police officer and shall not be subject to review by anyone, but shall be final, binding and conclusive on all persons ever interested hereunder.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320.

185.18 Disability retirement.—

(1) A police officer having 10 or more years of credited service and having contributed to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund for 10 years or more may retire from the service of the city under the plan if, prior to his normal retirement date, he becomes totally and permanently disabled as defined in subsection (2), by reason of any cause other than a cause set out in subsection (3), on or after the effective date of the plan. Such retirement shall herein be referred to as disability retirement.

(2) A police officer will be considered totally disabled if, in the opinion of the board of trustees, he is wholly prevented from rendering useful and efficient service as a police officer; and a police officer will be considered permanently disabled if, in the opinion of the board of trustees, such police officer is likely to remain so disabled continuously and permanently from a cause other than as specified in subsection (3).

(3) A police officer will not be entitled to receive any disability retirement income if the disability is a result of:

(a) Excessive and habitual use by the police officer of drugs, intoxicants or narcotics;

(b) Injury or disease sustained by the police officer while willfully and illegally participating in fights, riots, civil insurrections or while committing a crime;

(c) Injury or disease sustained by the police officer while serving in any armed forces;

(d) Injury or disease sustained by the police officer after his employment has terminated;

(e) Injury or disease sustained by the police officer while working for anyone other than the city and arising out of such employment.

(4) No police officer shall be permitted to retire under the provisions of this section until examined by a duly qualified physician or surgeon, to be selected by the board of trustees for that purpose, and is found to be disabled in the degree and in the manner specified in this section. Any police officer retiring under this section shall be examined periodically by a duly qualified physician or surgeon or board of physicians and surgeons to be selected by the board of trustees for that purpose, to determine if such disability has ceased to exist.

(5) The benefit payable to a police officer who retires from the service of the city with a total and permanent disability as a result of a disability commencing prior to his normal retirement date is the monthly income payable for 10 years certain and life which can be provided by the single-sum value of the deferred monthly retirement income beginning at normal retirement date which has accrued to his date of disability (where the amount of such accrued deferred monthly retirement income is computed by multiplying his number of years of actual credited service as of his date of disability by 2 percent of his average final compensation). If the police officer has been contributing only 3 percent of salary, his monthly retirement income shall be an amount equal to the number of his years of credited service multiplied by 1.2 percent of his average final compensation.

(6)(a) The monthly retirement income to which a police officer is entitled in the event of his disability retirement will be payable on the first day of each month. The first payment will be made on the first day of the month following the later to occur of

1. The date on which the disability has existed for 6 months and

2. The date the board of trustees approves the payment of such retirement income.

(b) The last payment will be

1. If the police officer recovers from the disability prior to his normal retirement date, the payment due next preceding the date of such recovery, or,

2. If the police officer dies without recovering from his disability or attains his normal retirement date while still disabled, the payment due next preceding his death or the 120th monthly payment, whichever is later.

(c) Any monthly retirement income payments due after the death of a disabled police officer shall be paid to the police officer's designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) as provided in ss. 185.162 and 185.21.

(7) If the board of trustees finds that a police officer who is receiving a disability retirement income is, at any time prior to his normal retirement date, no longer disabled, as provided herein, the board of trustees shall direct that the disability retirement income be discontinued. Recovery from disability as used herein shall mean the ability of the police officer to render useful and efficient service as a police officer.

(8) If the police officer recovers from disability and reenters the service of the city as a police officer, his service will be deemed to have been continuous, but the period beginning with the first month for which he received a disability retirement income payment and ending with the date he reentered the service of the city will not be considered as credited service for the purposes of the plan.

185.19 Separation from municipal service; refunds.—

(1) Should any police officer leave the service of the municipality before accumulating aggregate time of 10 years toward retirement and before being eligible to retire under the provisions of this chapter, such police officer shall be entitled to a refund of all of his contributions made to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund without interest, less any benefits paid to him.

(2) Should any police officer who has been in the service of the municipality for at least 10 years and has contributed to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund for at least 10 years elect to leave his accrued contributions in the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund, such police officer upon attaining age 50 years or more may retire at the actuarial equivalent of the amount of such retirement income otherwise payable to him.

History.—s. 17, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 6, ch. 59-320; s. 7, ch. 61-85; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.191 Lump sum payment of small retirement income.—Notwithstanding any provision of the plan to the contrary, if the monthly retirement income payable to any person entitled to benefits hereunder is less than $30 or if the single-sum value of the accrued retirement income is less than $750 as of the date of retirement or termination of service, whichever is applicable, the board of trustees, in the exercise of its discretion, may specify that the actuarial equivalent of such retirement income be paid in a lump sum.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320.

185.21 Death prior to retirement; refunds or death benefits.—Should any police officer die before being eligible to retire under the provisions of this chapter, the heirs, legatees, beneficiaries, or personal representative of such deceased police officer shall be entitled to a refund of 100 percent, without interest, of the contributions made to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund by such deceased police officer; or in the event an annuity or life insurance contract has been purchased by the board on such police officer, then to the death benefits available under such life insurance or annuity contract, subject to the limitations on such death benefits set forth in s. 185.061 whichever amount is greater. In event the death benefit paid by a life insurance company exceeds the limit set forth in s. 185.061(6) the excess of the death benefit over the limit shall be paid to the municipal police officers' retirement trust fund.

History.—s. 19, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 6, ch. 29825, 1955; s. 3, ch. 57-118; s. 6, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.221 Report to Department of Insurance.—

(1) Each year by February 1, the chairman or secretary of each Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund shall file a report with the Department of Insurance containing the following:

(a) Whether in fact the municipality is within the provisions of s. 185.03.

(b) A certified statement of accounting for the most recent fiscal year of the municipality showing a detailed listing of assets, and methods used to value them and a statement of all income and disbursements during the year. Such income and disbursements shall be reconciled with the assets at the beginning and end of the year.

(c) A statistical exhibit showing the total number of police officers on the force of the municipality, the number included in the retirement plan and the number ineligible classified according to the reasons for their being ineligible, and the number of disabled and retired police officers and their beneficiaries receiving pension payments and the amounts of annual retirement income or pension payments being received by them.

(d) A statement of the amount the municipality has contributed to the retirement plan for the year ending with the preceding December 31 and the amount the municipality will contribute to the retirement plan for the current calendar year.

(e) If any benefits are insured with a commercial insurance company, the report shall include a statement of the relationship of the insured benefits to the benefits provided by this chapter. This report shall also contain information about the insurer, basis of premium rates and mortality table, interest rate and method used in valuing retirement benefits.

(2) By February 1 of each quinquennial year beginning with February 1, 1964, the chairman of each Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund shall report to the Department of Insurance such data that the department needs to complete an actuarial valuation of each fund. The forms for each municipality shall be supplied by the department. The expense of the actuarial valuation shall be borne by the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund established by ss. 185.10 and 185.24.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.23 Rules and regulations.—The Department of Insurance shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary for the effective administration of this chapter.

History.—s. 20, ch. 28230, 1953; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.231 Advisory committee.—The Department of Insurance may appoint annually an advisory committee, to serve for 1 year, or at its pleasure, consisting of seven members, one of whom shall be from the department, to receive such reports as may be brought to its attention and to advise and assist on matters relating to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

185.24 Annual appropriation.—There is hereby annually appropriated to the Department of Insurance from the moneys collected for each city and town under this chapter the amount necessary to administer efficiently the provisions of this chapter, not to exceed $30,000 per annum.

History.—s. 20, ch. 28230, 1953; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.25 Exemption from execution.—The pensions, annuities, or any other benefits accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this chapter and the accumulated contributions and the cash securities in the funds created under this chapter are hereby exempted from any state, county or municipal tax of the state and shall not be subject to execution or attachment or to any legal process whatsoever and shall be unassailable.

History.—s. 21, ch. 28230, 1953.

185.27 Roster of retirees.—The secretary of the board of trustees shall keep a record of all persons enjoying a pension under the provisions of this chapter, in which shall be noted the time when the pension is allowed and when the same shall cease to be paid. And in this book the secretary shall keep a record of all policemen employed by the municipality and a record shall be kept in such manner as to show the name, address and time of employment of such policemen and when such policemen cease to be employed by the municipality.

History.—s. 23, ch. 28230, 1953.

185.29 City attorney to represent board of trustees.—The city attorney or corporation counsel shall give advice to said board of trustees in all matters pertaining to their duties in the administration of said Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund whenever thereunto requested; and he shall represent and defend said board as its attorney in all suits and actions at law or in equity that may be brought against it, and bring all suits and actions in its behalf that may be required or determined upon by said board; provided, however, that if the city attorney should fail or refuse to comply with the request of the board of trustees in this relation, the said board of trustees in their discretion may employ independent legal counsel for such purpose.

History.—s. 25, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.30 Depository for retirement fund.—All funds and securities of the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund shall be deposited with the city treasurer or depository of the city, who shall keep the same in a separate fund, and he shall be liable for the safekeeping of the same, under the bond given by him to the city, and he shall be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as he is liable for the safekeeping of the funds of the city.

History.—s. 26, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.31 Municipalities and boards independent of other municipalities and boards.—In the enforcement and in the interpretation of the provisions of this chapter, each municipality shall be independent of any other municipality and the board of trustees of the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund of each municipality shall function for the municipality which they are to serve as trustees.

History.—s. 27, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

185.32 Exemptions from chapter.—This chapter shall not apply to any person who is or may become eligible to become a member of any other retirement system provided for by law, or of any retirement system provided for by any ordinance of any incorporated municipality of the state, nor shall this chapter, nor any provisions thereof, be construed as limiting, modifying or enlarging any ordinance of any incorporated municipality of the state; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to bar cities that have adopted the social security plan advanced by the federal government.

History.—s. 28, ch. 28230, 1953; s. 19, ch. 29615, 1955.

185.34 Disability in line of duty.—Any condition or impairment of health of any and all police officers employed in the state caused by tuberculosis, hypertension, heart disease, or hardening of the arteries, resulting in total or partial disability or death, shall be presumed to be accidental and suffered in line of duty unless the contrary be shown by competent evidence. Any condition or impairment of health caused directly or proximately by exposure, which exposure occurred in the active performance of duty at some definite time or place without willful negligence on the part of the police officer, resulting in total or partial disability, shall be presumed to be accidental and suffered in the line of duty; provided, however, that such police officer shall have successfully passed a physical examination upon entering such service, which physical examination including electrocardiogram failed to reveal any evidence of such condition; provided further, that such presumption shall not apply to benefits payable under or granted in a policy of life insurance or disability insurance. Nothing herein shall be construed to extend or otherwise affect the provisions of chapter 440, pertaining to workers' compensation. All laws, including local or special laws, in conflict herewith are repealed.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-340; s. 1, ch. 67-580; s. 62, ch. 79-40.

185.35 Municipalities having their own pension plans for policemen.—

(1) In order for cities with their own pension plans for policemen or for policemen and other employees to participate in the distribution of the tax fund established in ss. 185.07, 185.08 and 185.09, their retirement funds must meet each of the following standards:

(a) The plan must be for the purpose of providing retirement and disability income for policemen.

(b) The normal retirement age, if any, shall not be higher than age 65.

(c) If the plan provides for a stated period of service as a requirement to receive a retirement income, that period must not be higher than 35 years.

(d) The benefit formula to determine the amount of monthly pension should be equal to at least $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 percent of the officer's total earnings during his period of credited service.

(e) If a ceiling on the monthly payment is stated in the plan, it should be no lower than $100.

(f) Death or survivor benefits and disability benefits may be incorporated into the plan as the municipality wishes but in no event should the single-sum value of such benefits as of the date of termination of service because of death or disability exceed

1. One hundred times the estimated normal monthly retirement income, based on assumption that the present rate of compensation continues without change to normal retirement date, or

2. Twice the annual rate of compensation as of the date of termination of service, or

3. The single-sum value of the accrued deferred retirement income (beginning at normal retirement date) at date of termination of service, whichever is greatest; provided, however, that nothing in this subparagraph shall require any reduction in death or disability benefits provided by a retirement plan in effect on July 1, 1959.

(g) Eligibility for coverage under the plan must be based upon length of service, or attained age, or both, and benefits must be determined by a nondiscriminatory formula based upon

1. Length of service and compensation, or

2. Length of service.

(h) If the retirement plan requires participants to contribute toward the cost of the plan, it must set forth the termination rights, if any, of an employee in the event of the separation or withdrawal of an employee before retirement.

(i) An actuarial valuation of the retirement plan must be made at least once in every 5 years commencing with December 31, 1963, by an actuary who is a member of the Society of Actuaries, Casualty Actuarial Society, Conference of Actuaries in Public Practice, or Fraternal Actuarial Association, and who is selected by the individual municipal police officers' retirement trust fund.

1. Cost of the actuarial valuation must be paid by the individual retirement fund or by the municipality.

2. A report of the valuation, including actuarial assumptions and type and basis of funding shall be made to the Department of Insurance within 3 months after the date of valuation. If any benefits are insured with a commercial insurance company, the report shall include a statement of the relationship of the retirement plan benefits to the insured benefits and in addition the name of the insurer, basis of premium rates and the mortality table, interest rate and method used in valuing retirement benefits.

(j) Commencing on July 1, 1964, the municipality shall contribute to the plan annually an amount which together with the contributions from the police officers, the amount derived from the premium tax provided in s. 185.08 and other income sources will be sufficient to meet the normal cost of the plan and to fund the actuarial deficiency over a period not longer than 40 years.

(k) No retirement plan or amendment to a retirement plan shall be proposed without the proposed plan or amendment containing an actuarial estimate of the costs involved.

(l) Each year on or before March 15, the trustees of the retirement plan must submit the following information to the Department of Insurance in order for the retirement plan of such city to receive a share of state funds for the then current calendar year; when any of these items would be identical with the corresponding item submitted for a previous year it will not be necessary to submit duplicate information but to make reference to the item in such previous year's report:

1. A certified copy of each and every instrument constituting or evidencing the plan.

2. A certified statement of accounting for the most recent fiscal year of the municipality showing (a) a detailed listing of assets and (b) a statement of all income and disbursements during the year. Such income and disbursements must be reconciled with the assets at the beginning and end of the year.

3. A certified statement listing the investments of the plan and a description of the methods used in valuing the investments.

4. A statistical exhibit showing the total number of policemen, the number included in the plan and the number ineligible classified according to the reasons for their being ineligible.

5. A statement of the amount the city and other income sources has contributed toward the plan or will contribute toward the plan for the current calendar year.

(2) When a municipality has a policemen's retirement plan which meets the standards set forth in subsection (1), the board of trustees of the pension plan or the official pension committee or agency, may place the income from the premium tax in s. 185.08 in its existing pension fund for the sole and exclusive use of their policemen (or for firemen and policemen where included), or may use said income to pay extra benefits to the policemen.

(3) The retirement plan setting forth the benefits and the trust agreement, if any, covering the duties and responsibilities of the trustees and the regulations of the investment of funds must be in writing and copies made available to the participants and to the general public.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320; s. 2, ch. 61-119; s. 3, ch. 63-196; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

185.36 Rights of police officers under former law.—The rights of police officers established or declared by any former provisions of this chapter shall not be impaired nor shall their benefits be reduced by virtue of any provisions of this chapter, provided however that no member may receive the benefits under the former chapter and also be entitled to receive the benefits under this chapter as amended in 1959. Unless an election in writing is made before January 1, 1960, to the board of trustees to remain under the provisions of the former chapter, it shall be conclusively presumed that the provisions of this chapter, as amended, will apply as to all police officers. Members who have retired under the former chapter prior to the enactment of the 1959 law shall continue to receive their benefits under the former chapter. Nothing in this law shall be construed as affecting benefits, due or to become due any police officer under a statutory pension plan.

History.—s. 7, ch. 59-320.

185.37 Termination of plan and distribution of fund.—Upon termination of the plan for any reason, or upon written notice to the board of trustees that contributions thereunder are being permanently discontinued, the fund shall be apportioned and distributed in accordance with the following procedures:

(1) The board of trustees shall determine the date of distribution and the asset value to be distributed, after taking into account the expenses of such distribution.

(2) The board of trustees shall determine the method of distribution of the asset value, that is, whether distribution shall be by payment in cash, the maintenance of another or substituted trust fund, by the purchase of insured annuities or otherwise, for each police officer entitled to benefits under the plan, as specified in subsection (3).

(3) The board of trustees shall apportion the asset value as of the date of termination in the manner set forth below, on the basis that the amount required to provide any given retirement income shall mean the actuarially computed single-sum value of such retirement income, except that if the method of distribution determined under subsection (2) involves the purchase of an insured annuity, the amount required to provide the given retirement income shall mean the single premium payable for such annuity.

(a) Apportionment shall first be made in respect of each retired police officer receiving a retirement income hereunder on such date, each person receiving a retirement income on such date on account of a retired (but since deceased) police officer, and each police officer who has, by such date, become eligible for normal retirement but has not yet retired, in the amount required to provide such retirement income, provided that, if such asset value be less than the aggregate of such amounts, such amounts shall be proportionately reduced so that the aggregate of such reduced amounts will be equal to such asset value.

(b) If there be any asset value remaining after the apportionment under paragraph (a), apportionment shall next be made in respect of each police officer in the service of the city on such date who has completed at least 10 years of credited service and who has contributed to the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund for at least 10 years and who is not entitled to an apportionment under paragraph (a), in the amount required to provide the actuarial equivalent of the accrued normal retirement income, based on the police officer's credited service and earnings to such date, and each former participant then entitled to a benefit under the provisions of s. 185.19, who has not, by such date, reached his normal retirement date, in the amount required to provide the actuarial equivalent of the accrued normal retirement income to which he is entitled under s. 185.19, provided that, if such remaining asset value be less than the aggregate of the amounts apportioned hereunder, such latter amounts shall be proportionately reduced so that the aggregate of such reduced amounts will be equal to such remaining asset value.

(c) If there be an asset value after the apportionments under paragraphs (a) and (b), apportionment shall lastly be made in respect of each police officer in the service of the city on such date who is not entitled to an apportionment under paragraphs (a) and (b) in the amount equal to his total contributions to the plan to date of termination, provided that, if such remaining asset value be less than the aggregate of the amounts apportioned hereunder such latter amounts shall be proportionately reduced so that the aggregate of such reduced amounts will be equal to such remaining asset value.

(d) In the event that there be asset value remaining after the full apportionment specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), such excess shall be returned to the city, less return of state's contributions to the state, provided that, if the excess is less than the total contributions made by the city and the state to date of termination of the plan such excess shall be divided proportionately to the total contributions made by the city and the state.

(4) The board of trustees shall distribute, in accordance with the manner of distribution determined under subsection (2), the amounts apportioned under subsection (3).

- 189.007 Effect of failure to file certain reports.
- 189.008 Failure of district to disclose financial reports.
- 189.009 Action of the department.

189.001 Short title.—Sections 189.001-189.009 shall be known and may be cited as the "Special Districts Disclosure Act of 1979."

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.002 Legislative findings and intent.—

(1) The Legislature finds that special districts serve a necessary and useful function by providing services to residents and property in the state. The Legislature finds further that special districts operate to serve a public purpose and that this public trust is best secured by certain minimum standards of accountability designed to inform the public and appropriate general-purpose local governments of the status and activities of special districts. It is the intent of the Legislature that this public trust be secured by requiring each independent special district in the state to register and report its financial and other activities. The Legislature further finds that failure of an independent special district to comply with the minimum disclosure requirements set forth in this act may result in action against officers of such district board.

(2) Realizing that special districts are created to serve special purposes, it is the legislative intent of this act that special districts cooperate and coordinate their activities with the units of general-purpose local government in which they are located. The reporting requirements set forth in this act shall be the minimum level of cooperation necessary to provide services to the citizens of this state in an efficient and equitable fashion. It is not the intent of this act to confer budgetary powers upon boards of county commissioners for those independent special districts which file budgets with the clerk of the board of county commissioners, unless otherwise provided by law.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.003 Definitions.—As used in ss. 189.001-189.009, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) The meanings of the terms "special district" and "independent special district" shall be the same as those provided in s. 218.31.

(2) The term "department" means the Department of Community Affairs.

(3) The term "local governing authority" means the governing body of a unit of local general-purpose government. However, if the special district is a political subdivision of a municipality, "local governing authority" means the municipality.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.004 Designation of registered office and agent.—

(1) Prior to October 1, 1979, or no later than 1 year subsequent to its creation, each special district in the state shall designate a registered office and a registered agent and file such information with the local governing authority or authorities and with the Department of Community Affairs. The registered agent shall be an agent of the district upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the district may be served. A registered agent shall be an individual resident of this state whose business address is identical with the registered office of the district. The registered office may be, but need not be, the same as the place of business of the special district.

(2) The district may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing such information with the local governing authority or authorities and with the Department of Community Affairs.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.005 Meetings; notice; required reports.—

(1) The governing body of each special district shall file annually a schedule of its regular meetings with the local governing authority or authorities. The schedule shall include the date, time, and location of each scheduled meeting. The governing body of an independent special district shall advertise the day, time, place, and purpose of any special meeting, at least 7 days prior to such meeting, in a newspaper of general paid circulation in the county or counties in which the special district is located, unless a bona fide emergency situation exists, in which case a meeting to deal with the emergency may be held as necessary, with reasonable notice, so long as it is subsequently ratified by the board. The advertisement shall be placed in that portion of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. It is the legislative intent that, whenever possible, the advertisement shall appear in a newspaper that is published at least 5 days a week, unless the only newspaper in the county is published fewer than 5 days a week. It is further the legislative intent that the newspaper selected be one of general interest and readership in the community and not one of limited subject matter, pursuant to chapter 50.

(2) All meetings of the governing body of the special district shall be open to the public and governed by the provisions of chapter 286.

(3) Meetings of the governing body of the special district shall be held in a public building when available within the district, in a county courthouse of a county in which the district is located, or in a building in the county accessible to the public.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.006 Reports; audits.—

(1) Prior to October 1, 1979, or no later than 1 year subsequent to its creation, each special district shall file with the local governing authority or authorities and with the Department of Community Affairs a copy of the document authorizing its creation, by whatever method the creation occurred; a list of any improvements necessary to accomplish district purposes; a proposed schedule of completion of any improvements; and, if applicable, a plan of termination. Any amendment, modification, or update required shall be filed within 30 days of its adoption by the district board in the same manner as the original.

(2) Each special district shall file with the local governing authority or authorities a copy of the local government financial reports required by ss. 218.32 and 218.34 and a complete description of all outstanding bonds as provided in s. 218.38(1).

(3) Each special district shall make provisions for an annual independent postaudit of its financial records as provided in s. 11.45. A copy of the audit shall be filed with the local governing authority or authorities.

(4) All reports or information required to be filed with a local governing authority under ss. 11.45, 189.004, 189.005, 218.32, and 218.34 and this section shall:

(a) When the local governing authority is a county, be filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners.

(b) When the district is a multicounty district, be filed with the clerk of the county commission in each county.

(c) When the local governing authority is a municipality, be filed at the place designated by the municipal governing body.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.007 Effect of failure to file certain reports.—

(1) If a special district fails to file the reports required under s. 11.45, s. 189.004, s. 189.005, s. 189.006, s. 218.32, or s. 218.34 and a description of all outstanding bonds as provided in s. 218.38(1) with the local governing authority, the person authorized to read the reports shall notify the district's registered agent and the appropriate local governing authority or authorities. At any time, the governing authority may grant an extension of time for filing the required reports, except that no extension shall exceed 30 days.

(2) If at any time the local governing authority or authorities or the board of county commissioners determines that there has been an unjustified failure to file the reports described in subsection (1), it may petition the department to initiate proceedings against the special district in the manner provided in s. 189.008.

(3) If a special district fails to file the reports required under s. 11.45, s. 218.32, s. 218.34, or s. 218.38 with the appropriate state agency, the agency may request the department to initiate proceedings against the special district in the manner provided in s. 189.008.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

189.008 Failure of district to disclose financial reports.—

(1) The department shall investigate all petitions filed pursuant to s. 189.007 and determine whether or not the district board has made a good faith effort to file the required reports.

(2) If the department determines that a good faith effort has been made, it shall grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the required reports with the appropriate bodies and notify the special district of the granting of the extension.

(3) If the department determines that a good faith effort has not been made to file the report or that a reasonable time has passed and the reports have not been forthcoming, it may file a petition for hearing, pursuant to s. 120.57, on the question of the inactivity of the district. The proceedings and hearings required by ss. 189.001-189.009 shall be conducted by a hearing officer assigned by the Division of Administrative Hearings of the Department of Administration and shall be governed by the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act. Such hearing shall be held in the county in which the district is located, pursuant to all the applicable provisions of chapter 120. Notice of the hearing shall be served on the district's registered agent and published at least once a week for 2 successive weeks prior to the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected. The notice shall state the time, place, and nature of the hearing and that all interested parties may appear and be heard. Within 30 days of the hearing, the hearing officer shall file his report with the department in the manner provided in chapter 120.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-183.

¹Note.—The words "filed pursuant to s. 189.007" were inserted by the editors.

189.009 Action of the department.—

(1) If the department determines, after receipt of the report from the hearing examiner, that there is an inactive district under the criteria established in ss. 165.052 and 165.061(4)(b) and (c), it shall file such determination with the Secretary of State pursuant to s. 165.052.

(2) If the department determines that the failure to file the reports is a result of the volitional refusal of the members of the governing body of the district, it shall seek an injunction or writ of mandamus to compel production of the reports in the circuit court.

- 192.105 Unlawful disclosure of federal tax information; penalty.

192.001 Definitions.—All definitions set out in chapter 1 that are applicable to this part, are included herein. In addition, the following definitions shall apply in the imposition of ad valorem taxes:

(1) "Ad valorem tax" means a tax based upon the assessed value of property. The term "property tax" may be used interchangeably with the term "ad valorem tax."

¹(2) "Assessed value of property" means an annual determination of the just or fair market value of an item or property, or if a property assessed solely on the basis of character or use, or at a specified percentage of its value, pursuant to s. 4(a) or s. 4(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution, its classified use value or fractional value.

(3) "County property appraiser" means the county officer charged with determining the value of all property within the county, of maintaining certain records connected therewith, and of determining the tax on taxable property after taxes have been levied. He shall also be referred to in these statutes as the "property appraiser" or "appraiser."

(4) "County tax collector" means the county officer charged with the collection of ad valorem taxes levied by the county, the school board, any special taxing districts within the county, and all municipalities within the county.

(5) "Department" unless otherwise designated, shall mean the State Department of Revenue.

(6) "Extend on the tax roll" means the arithmetic computation whereby the "millage" is converted to a decimal number representing one one-thousandth of a dollar and then multiplied by the assessed value of the property to determine the tax on such property.

(7) "Governing body" means any board, commission, council, or individual acting as the executive head of a unit of local government.

(8) "Homestead" means that property described in s. 6(a), Art. VII and s. 4(a)(1), Art. X of the State Constitution.

(9) "Levy" means the imposition of a tax, stated in terms of "millage," against all appropriately located property by a governmental body authorized by law to impose ad valorem taxes.

(10) "Mill" means one one-thousandth of a United States dollar. "Millage" may apply to a single levy of taxes or to the cumulative of all levies.

(11) "Personal property" for the purposes of ad valorem taxation, shall be divided into four categories as follows:

(a) "Household goods" means wearing apparel, furniture, appliances, and other items ordinarily found in the home and used for the comfort of the owner and his family. Household goods are not held for commercial purposes or resale.

(b) "Intangible personal property" means money, all evidences of debt owed to the taxpayer, all evidences of ownership in a corporation or other business organization having multiple owners, and all other forms of property where value is based upon that which the property represents rather than its own intrinsic value.

(c) "Inventory" means only those chattels consisting of items commonly referred to as goods, wares, and merchandise (as well as inventory) which are held for sale or lease to customers in the ordinary course of business. Supplies and raw materials shall be considered to be inventory only to the extent that they are acquired for sale or lease to customers in the ordinary course of business or will physically become a part of merchandise intended for sale or lease to customers in the ordinary course of business. Partially finished products which when completed shall be held for sale or lease to customers in the ordinary course of business shall be deemed items of inventory. All livestock shall be considered inventory. Items of inventory held for lease to customers in the ordinary course of business, rather than for sale, shall be deemed inventory only prior to the initial lease of such items. Items of inventory refers to the total of such items in a class or category assessable to a particular taxpayer.

¹(d) "Tangible personal property" means all goods, chattels, and other articles of value (but not including the vehicular items enumerated in s. 1(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution and elsewhere defined) capable of manual possession and whose chief value is intrinsic to the article itself. "Inventory" and "household goods" are expressly excluded from this definition. Live-aboard vessels as defined in s. 371.021(18) are expressly included in this definition.

(12) "Real property" means land, buildings, fixtures and all other improvements to land. The terms "land," "real estate," "realty" and "real property" may be used interchangeably.

(13) "Taxpayer" means the person or other legal entity in whose name the property is assessed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 4, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As amended by s. 4, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 192.031, 192.041, 192.052, 192.064.

192.011 All property to be assessed.—The property appraiser shall assess all property located within his county, whether such property is taxable, wholly or partially exempt, or subject to classification reflecting a value less than its just value at its present highest and best use. Extension on the tax rolls shall be made according to regulation promulgated by the department in order properly to reflect the general law. Streets, roads, and highways which have been dedicated to or otherwise acquired by a municipality, a county, or a state agency may be assessed, but need not be.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 428; s. 1, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 694; CGL 893; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 2, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former s. 192.01.

192.032 Situs of property for assessment purposes.—All property shall be assessed according to its situs as follows:

(1) Real property, in that county in which it is located and in that taxing jurisdiction in which it may be located.

(2) Tangible personal property, in that county and taxing jurisdiction in which it is permanently located on January 1 of each year; except that tangible personal property brought into the state after January 1 and before April 1 of any year shall be taxable for that year if the property appraiser has reason to believe that such property will be removed from the state prior to January 1 of the next succeeding year. All tangible personal property which is removed from one county in this state to another county after January 1 of any year shall be subject to taxation for said year in the county where located on January 1; except that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to tangible personal property located in such county on January 1 on a temporary or transitory basis if such property is included in the tax return being filed in the county in this state where such tangible personal property is permanently located. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to goods-in-transit as described in subsection (4).

(3) Inventory, in that county where inventory is held for sale or lease to customers or will physically become a part of the merchandise to be held for sale or lease to customers, based upon the average value of the inventory attributable to the taxpayer during the prior calendar year; said average value shall reflect the average periodic amount of inventories physically on hand. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to goods-in-transit as described in subsection (4).

(4)(a) Personal property manufactured or produced outside this state and brought into this state only for transshipment out of the United States, or manufactured or produced outside of the United States and brought into this state for transshipment out of this state, for sale in the ordinary course of trade or business is considered goods-in-transit and shall not be deemed to have acquired a taxable situs within a county even though the property is temporarily halted or stored within the state.

(b) The term "goods-in-transit" implies that the personal property manufactured or produced outside this state and brought into this state has not been diverted to domestic use and has not reached its final destination, which may be evidenced by the fact that the individual unit packaging device utilized in the shipping of the specific personal property has not been opened except for inspection, storage, or other process utilized in the transportation of the personal property.

(c) Personal property transshipped into this state and subjected in this state to a subsequent manufacturing process or used in this state in the production of other personal property is not goods-in-transit. Breaking in bulk, labeling, packaging, relabeling, or repacking of such property solely for its inspection, storage, or transportation to its final destination outside of the state shall not be considered to be a manufacturing process or the production of other personal property within the meaning of this subsection. However, such storage shall not exceed 180 days.

(d) For purposes of computing the appropriate tax on inventory, a person shall keep records evidencing contracts of sale on the tax lien date and a full, true, and correct inventory of all property held for transshipment as goods-in-transit under the meaning of this subsection, together with the date of receipt of the property, the date of withdrawal of the property, the point of origin thereof, and the point of ultimate destination thereof.

(5) Intangible personal property, according to the rules laid down in chapter 199.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), live-aboard vessels shall be assessed on January 1 as tangible personal property if the vessel meets the provisions of s. 371.021(18) at any time during the prior year, in that county and taxing jurisdiction in whose waters it is located when meeting said provisions; except that live-aboard vessels meeting said provisions after January 1 and before April 1 of any year shall be taxable for that year if the property appraiser has reason to believe that such property will be removed from the state prior to January 1 of the next succeeding year. If a vessel meets the provisions of s. 371.021(18) in more than one county and taxing jurisdiction during any year, the vessel shall be subject to taxation in that county and taxing district where it was located when meeting said provisions for the greatest period of time.

(7) For the purposes of this section and with respect to tangible personal property, the term "permanently located" means habitually located or typically present for the 12-month period preceding the date of assessment.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 1, ch. 77-305; s. 1, ch. 78-269; s. 5, ch. 79-334; s. 85, ch. 79-400.

Note.—As amended by s. 5, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.022, 193.034, 196.0011.

192.042 Date of assessment.—All property shall be assessed according to its just value as follows:

(1) Real property, on January 1 of each year. Improvements or portions not substantially completed on January 1 shall have no value placed thereon. "Substantially completed" shall mean that the improvement or some self-sufficient unit within it can be used for the purpose for which it was constructed.

(2) Tangible personal property, on January 1.

(3) Inventory, on January 1 of each year at its average value during the prior calendar year.

(4) Intangible personal property, according to the rules laid down in chapter 199.

History.—s. 4, ch. 70-243.

192.047 Date of filing.—

(1) For the purposes of ad valorem tax administration, the date of an official United States Postal Service postmark of an application for exemption, an application for special assessment classification, or a return filed by mail shall be considered the date of filing the application or return.

(2) When the deadline for filing an ad valorem tax application or return falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the filing period shall extend through the next working day immediately following such Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-185.

192.053 Lien for unpaid taxes.—A lien for all taxes, penalties, and interest shall attach to any property upon which a lien is imposed by law on the date of assessment and shall continue in full force and effect until discharged by payment as provided in chapter 197 or until barred under chapter 95.

History.—s. 3, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 430; s. 3, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 696; CGL 896; s. 1, ch. 18297, 1937; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 5, ch. 70-243; s. 30, ch. 74-382.

Note.—Former s. 192.04; s. 192.021.

192.071 Administration of oaths.—For the purpose of administering the provisions of this law or of any other duties pertaining to the proper administration of the duties of the office of property appraiser, or of the filing of applications for tax exemptions as required by law, the property appraisers or their lawful deputies may administer oaths and attest same in the same manner and with the same effect as other persons authorized by law to administer oaths by the laws of the state.

History.—s. 9, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(10); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 6, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former s. 192.20.

192.091 Commissions of property appraisers and tax collectors.—

(1)(a) The budget of the property appraiser's office, as approved by the Department of Revenue, shall be the basis upon which the several tax authorities of each county, except municipalities and the district school board, shall be billed by the property appraiser for services rendered. Each such taxing authority shall be billed an amount that bears the same proportion to the total amount of the budget as its share of ad valorem taxes bore to the total levied for the preceding year. All municipal and school district taxes shall be considered as taxes levied by the county for purposes of this computation.

(b) Payments shall be made quarterly by each such taxing authority. The property appraiser shall notify the various taxing authorities of his estimated budget requirements and billings thereon at the same time as his budget request is submitted to the Department of Revenue pursuant to s. 195.087 and at the time he receives final approval of his budget by the department.

¹(2) The tax collectors of the several counties of the state shall be entitled to receive upon the amount of all real and tangible personal property taxes, and licenses, collected and remitted, the following commissions:

(a) On state licenses:

1. Ten percent on the first $5,000;
2. Five percent on the next $5,000; and
3. Three percent on the balance.

(b) On the county tax, including licenses:

1. Ten percent on the first $5,000;
2. Five percent on the next $5,000;
3. Three percent on the balance up to the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of $50 million; and

4. Two percent on the balance.

(c) On each taxing district:

1. Three percent on the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of $50 million; and
2. Two percent on the balance.

For purpose of this subsection the commissions on the nonvoted school millage shall be paid by the county commissioners.

(3) In computing the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of $50 million for the purposes of this section the valuation of nonexempt property and the taxes levied thereon shall be taken first.

(4) The commissions for collecting taxes assessed for or levied by the state shall be audited and allowed by the State Comptroller and shall be paid by the State Treasurer as other comptroller's warrants are paid; and commissions for collecting the county taxes shall be audited and paid by the boards of county commissioners of the several counties of this state. The commissions for collecting all special school district taxes shall be audited by the school board of each respective district and taken out of the funds of the respective special school district under its control and allowed and paid to the said tax collectors for collecting such taxes; and the commissions for collecting all other district taxes, whether special or not, shall be audited and paid by the governing board or commission having charge of the financial obligations of such district. All commissions for collecting special tax district taxes shall be paid at the time and in the manner now, or as may hereafter be, provided for the payment of the commissions for the collection of county taxes. All amounts paid as compensation to any tax collector under the provisions of this or any other law shall be a part of the general income or compensation of such officer for the year in which received, and nothing contained in this section shall be held or construed to affect or increase the maximum salary as now provided by law for any such officer.

(5) Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to commissions on intangible property taxes or drainage district or drainage subdistrict taxes; and

(6) Provided, further, that where any property appraiser or tax collector in the state is receiving compensation for expenses in conducting his office or by way of salary pursuant to any act of the Legislature other than the general law fixing compensation of property appraisers, such property appraiser or tax collector may file a declaration in writing with the board of county commissioners of his county electing to come under the provisions of this section, and thereupon such property appraiser or tax collector shall be paid compensation in accordance with the provisions hereof, and shall not be entitled to the benefit of the said special or local act. If such property appraiser or tax collector does not so elect, he shall continue to be paid such compensation as may now be provided by law for such property appraiser or tax collector.

(7) The provisions of subsection (1) as amended by chapter 67-558 shall apply to taxes assessed for the year 1967 and subsequent years, and commissions on taxes levied for prior years shall be paid at the rate in effect on September 1, 1967.

History.—s. 67, ch. 4322, 1895; ss. 11, 12, ch. 4515, 1897; s. 5, ch. 4885, 1901; GS 594, 595; ss. 63, 64, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 797, 801; CGL 1028, 1033; s. 1, ch. 17876, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1036(14); ss. 1, 1A, ch. 20936, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 21918, 1943; s. 1, ch. 67-558; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 6, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 70-246; s. 8, ch. 73-172; s. 1, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 7, ch. 79-332.

Note.—As amended by s. 7, ch. 79-332, effective upon approval of SJR 1-B (1979) at a special election to be held on March 11, 1980, or at the 1980 general election, and applicable to "assessment rolls for the year 1980 and each year thereafter," subsection (2) will read:

(2) The tax collectors of the several counties of the state shall be entitled to receive upon the amount of all real and tangible personal property taxes, and licenses, collected and remitted, the following commissions:

- (a) On state licenses:
 1. Ten percent on the first $5,000;
 2. Five percent on the next $5,000; and
 3. Three percent on the balance.
- (b) On the county tax, including licenses:
 1. Ten percent on the first $5,000;
 2. Five percent on the next $5,000;
 3. Three percent on the balance up to the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of $50 million; and
 4. Two percent on the balance.
- (c) On each taxing district:
 1. Three percent on the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of $50 million; and
 2. Two percent on the balance.

For purposes of this subsection, the commissions on the amount of taxes collected from the nonvoted school millage, and on the amount of additional taxes that would be collected for school districts if the exemptions applicable to homestead property for school district taxation were the same as exemptions applicable for all other ad valorem taxation, shall be paid by the board of county commissioners.

Note.—Former s. 193.65.

192.102 Payment of property appraisers' and collectors' commissions.—

(1) The board of county commissioners and school board of each county shall advance and pay to the county tax collector of each such county, at the first meeting of such board each month from October through July of each year, on demand of the county tax collector, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the commissions on the county taxes levied on the county tax roll for the preceding year and one-twelfth of the commissions on county occupational and beverage licenses paid to the tax collector in the preceding fiscal year. To demand the first advance under this section, each tax collector shall submit to the board of county commissioners a statement showing the calculation of the commissions on which the amount of each advance is to be based.

(2) On or before November 1 of each year, each tax collector who has received advances under the provisions of this section shall make an accounting to the board of county commissioners and the school board, and any adjustments necessary shall be made so that the total advances and commissions paid by the board of county commissioners and the school board shall be the amount of commissions earned. At no time within the year shall there be paid by the board of county commissioners and the school board more than the total advances due to that date or the commissions earned to that date, whichever is the greater. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to abrogate any law providing a salary for the tax collector or require the tax collector to accept the benefits of this section. This section shall apply to payments of advances and commissions for the calendar year 1959 and subsequent years.

(3) The Comptroller of the state shall issue to each of the county property appraisers and collectors of taxes, on the first Monday of January, April, July and October, on demand of such county property appraisers and collectors of taxes after approval by the Department of Revenue, his warrant, which shall be paid by the Treasurer of the state, for an amount equal to one-fourth of four-fifths of the total amount of commissions received by such county property appraisers and collectors of taxes or their predecessors in office from the state during and for the preceding year, and the balance of the commissions earned by such county property appraiser and collector of taxes, respectively, during each year, over and above the amount of such installment payments herein provided for, shall be payable when a report of errors and double assessments is approved by the county commissioners and a copy thereof filed with the Department of Revenue.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-243; s. 22, ch. 73-172; s. 1, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 192.101, 192.114, 192.122.

192.105 Unlawful disclosure of federal tax information; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to divulge or make known federal tax information obtained pursuant to 26 U.S.C. s. 6103, except in accordance with a proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law for use in the administration of the tax laws of this state.

(2) Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

- 193.116 Municipal assessment rolls.
- 193.122 Certificates of property appraisal adjustment board and property appraiser.
- 193.132 Prior assessments validated.

193.011 Factors to consider in deriving just valuation.—In arriving at just valuation as required under s. 4, Art. VII of the State Constitution, the property appraiser shall take into consideration the following factors:

(1) The present cash value of the property, which is the amount a willing purchaser would pay a willing seller, exclusive of reasonable fees and costs of purchase, in cash or the immediate equivalent thereof in a transaction at arm's length;

(2) The highest and best use to which the property can be expected to be put in the immediate future and the present use of the property, taking into consideration any applicable local or state land use regulation and considering any moratorium imposed by executive order, law, ordinance, regulation, resolution, or proclamation adopted by any governmental body or agency or the Governor when the moratorium prohibits or restricts the development or improvement of property as otherwise authorized by applicable law;

(3) The location of said property;

(4) The quantity or size of said property;

(5) The cost of said property and the present replacement value of any improvements thereon;

(6) The condition of said property;

(7) The income from said property; and

(8) The net proceeds of the sale of the property, as received by the seller, after deduction of all of the usual and reasonable fees and costs of the sale, including the costs and expenses of financing, and allowance for unconventional or atypical terms of financing arrangements. When the net proceeds of the sale of any property are utilized, directly or indirectly, in the determination of just valuation of realty of the sold parcel or any other parcel under the provisions of this section, the property appraiser, for the purposes of such determination, shall exclude any portion of such net proceeds attributable to payments for household furnishings or other items of personal property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-250; s. 1, ch. 67-167; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 13, ch. 69-216; s. 8, ch. 70-243; s. 20, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 1, ch. 77-363; s. 6, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As amended by s. 6, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Former s. 193.021.

193.023 Duties of the property appraiser in making assessments.—

(1) The property appraiser shall complete his assessment of the value of all property no later than July 1 of each year, except that the department may for good cause shown extend the time for completion of assessment of all property.

(2) In making his assessment of the value of real property, the property appraiser is required to inspect physically the property every 3 years to insure that his tax roll meets all the requirements of law. However, he shall physically inspect any parcel of taxable real property upon the request of the taxpayer or owner.

(3) In revaluating property in accordance with constitutional and statutory requirements, the property appraiser may adjust the assessed value placed on any parcel or group of parcels based on mass data collected, on ratio studies prepared by an agency authorized by law, or pursuant to regulations of the Department of Revenue.

(4) In making his assessment of leasehold interests in property serving the unit owners of a condominium or cooperative subject to a lease, including property subject to a recreational lease, the property appraiser shall assess the property at its fair market value without regard to the income derived from the lease.

History.—s. 9, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 72-290; s. 5, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

193.052 Preparation and filing of returns.—

(1) The following returns shall be filed:

(a) Tangible personal property;

(b) Inventory; and

(c) Property specifically required to be returned by other provisions in this title.

(2) No return shall be required for real property the ownership of which is reflected in instruments recorded in the public records of the county in which the property is located, unless otherwise required in this title. In order for land to be considered for agricultural zoning under s. 193.461, an application for such zoning must be filed on or before March 1 of each year with the property appraiser of the county in which such land is located. Such application shall state that said lands on January 1 of that year were used primarily for agricultural purposes.

(3) A return for the above types of property shall be filed in each county which is the situs of such property, as set out under s. 192.032.

(4) All returns shall be completed by the taxpayer in such a way as to correctly reflect owner's estimate of the value of property owned or otherwise taxable to him and covered by such return. All forms used for returns shall be prescribed by the department and delivered to the property appraisers for distribution to the taxpayers.

(5) Property appraisers may distribute returns in whatever way they feel most appropriate. However, as a minimum requirement, the property appraiser shall requisition, and the department shall distribute, forms in a timely manner so that each property appraiser can and shall make them available in his office no later than the first working day of the calendar year.

(6) The department shall promulgate the necessary regulations to insure that all railroad and utility property is properly returned in the appropriate county. However, the evaluating or assessing of utility property in each county shall be the duty of the property appraiser.

(7) All fiduciaries shall file with the Department of Revenue a copy of each inventory required to be filed in the circuit court under general law or rules adopted by the State Supreme Court relating to decedent's estates, trusts, or guardianships. No such inventory may be approved by the court until such copy as required hereunder has been filed with the Department of Revenue. When an inventory is not required by the court, the fiduciary shall return such information as shall be prescribed by regulation of the department.

¹(8) Upon approval of a return for a live-aboard vessel, the property appraiser shall issue to the vessel owner an acknowledgment on a form prescribed by the department that the vessel is included in an assessment of the tangible personal property of the owner for ad valorem taxation. The owner must present such acknowledgment to the county tax collector or the Department of Natural Resources pursuant to s. 371.65(7) to be eligible for exemption from license fees when applying for a certificate of registration.

Note.—As created by s. 7, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.113, 193.121, 193.203, 193.211, 193.231-193.261, 193.272, 193.281-193.311.

193.062 Dates for filing returns.—All returns shall be filed according to the following schedule:

(1) Tangible personal property—April 1.

(2) Inventory—April 1.

(3) Real property—when required by specific provision of general law.

¹(4) Railroad, railroad terminal, private car and freight line and equipment company property—April 1.

¹(5) All other returns and applications not otherwise specified by specific provision of general law—April 1.

History.—s. 12, ch. 70-243; s. 45, ch. 77-104; s. 8, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As created by s. 8, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.203, 193.211.

193.072 Penalties for improper or late filing of returns and for failure to file returns.—

(1) The following penalties shall apply:

(a) For failure to file a return—25 percent of the total tax levied against the property for each year that no return is filed;

(b) For filing returns after the due date—5 percent of the total tax levied against the property covered by that return for each year, for each month, or portion thereof, that a return is filed after the due date, but not to exceed 25 percent of the total tax.

(c) For property unlisted on the return—15 percent of the tax attributable to the omitted property.

¹(d) For incomplete returns by railroad and railroad terminal companies and private car and freight line and equipment companies—2 percent of the assessed value, not to exceed 10 percent thereof, shall be added to the values apportioned to the counties for each month or fraction thereof in which the return is incomplete; however, the return shall not be deemed incomplete until 15 days after notice of incompleteness is provided to the taxpayer.

(2) Penalties listed in this section shall be determined upon the total of all ad valorem personal property taxes, penalties and interest levied on the property, and such penalties shall be a lien on the property.

(3) Failure to file a return, or to otherwise properly submit all his property for taxation, shall in no regard relieve any taxpayer of any requirement to pay all taxes assessed against him promptly.

¹(4) For good cause shown, and upon finding that such unlisting or late filing of returns was not intentional or made with the intent to evade or illegally avoid the payment of lawful taxes, the property appraiser or, in the case of properties valued by the Department of Revenue, the executive director may reduce or waive any of said penalties.

History.—s. 13, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 9, ch. 79-334.

Note.—Paragraph (1)(d) as created and subsection (4) as amended by s. 9, ch. 79-334, apply to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1981 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.203, 193.222, 193.321.

193.073 Erroneous returns.—Upon discovery that an erroneous or incomplete statement of personal property has been filed by a taxpayer or that all the property of a taxpayer has not been returned for taxation, the property appraiser shall proceed as follows:

(1) If the property is personal property and is discovered before April 1, he shall make an assessment in triplicate. After attaching the affidavit and warrant required by law, he shall dispose of the additional assessment roll in the same manner as provided by law.

(2) If the property is personal property and is discovered on or after April 1, or is real property discovered at any time, the property shall be added to the assessment roll then in preparation.

History.—s. 38, ch. 4322, 1895; s. 5, ch. 4515, 1897; GS 538; s. 37, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 737; CGL 945; s. 8, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 2, ch. 72-268; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former s. 193.37; s. 197.031.

193.074 Confidentiality of returns.—All returns of property submitted by the taxpayer pursuant to law shall be deemed to be confidential in the hands of the property appraiser, the department, the tax collector, and the Auditor General, except upon court order or order of an administrative body having quasi-judicial powers in ad valorem tax matters.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-334.

¹Note.—Applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

193.075 Mobile homes.—Any mobile home without a current license plate properly affixed, as provided in s. 320.08(8) or s. 320.0815, shall be presumed to be either real property or tangible personal property. It shall be presumed to be real property only if the owner of the mobile home is also the owner of the land on which it is located and the mobile home is also permanently affixed to the realty. Otherwise it shall be presumed to be tangible personal property.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-234.

193.085 Listing all property.—

(1) The property appraiser shall insure that all real property within his county is listed and valued on the real property assessment roll. Streets, roads, and highways which have been dedicated to or otherwise acquired by a municipality, county, or state agency need not, but may, be listed.

(2) The department shall promulgate such regulations and shall make available maps and mapping materials as it deems necessary to insure that all real property within the state is listed and valued on the real property assessment rolls of the respective counties. In addition, individual property appraisers may use such other maps and materials as they deem expedient to accomplish the purpose of this section.

(3) The department will coordinate with all other departments of state government to insure that the several property appraisers are properly notified annually of state ownership of real property. The department shall promulgate regulations to insure that all forms of local government, special taxing districts, multicounty districts, and municipalities properly notify annually the several property appraisers of any and all real property owned by any of them so that ownership of all such property shall be properly listed.

¹(4) The department shall promulgate such rules as are necessary to ensure that all railroad property of all types is properly listed in the appropriate county and shall submit the county railroad property assessments to the respective county property appraisers not later than June 1 in each year. However, in those counties in which railroad assessments are not completed by the department by June 1, for millage certification purposes, the property appraiser may utilize the prior year's values for such property.

(a) All railroad and railroad terminal companies maintaining tracks or other fixed assets in the state and subject to assessment under the unit rule method of valuation shall make an annual return to the Department of Revenue. Such returns shall be filed on or before April 1 and shall be subject to the penalties provided in s. 193.072. The department shall make an annual assessment of all operating property of every description owned by or leased to such companies. Such assessment shall be apportioned to each county, based upon actual situs, and, in the case of property not having situs in a particular county, shall be apportioned based upon track miles. Operating property shall include all property owned or leased to such company, including right-of-way presently in use by the company, track, switches, bridges, rolling stock, and other property directly related to the operation of railroads. Nonoperating property shall include that portion of office buildings not used for operating purposes, property owned but not directly used for operation of the railroad, and any other property that is not used for operating purposes. The department shall promulgate rules necessary to ensure that all operating property is properly valued, apportioned, and returned to the appropriate county, including rules governing the form and content of returns. The evaluation and assessment of utility property shall be the duty of the property appraiser.

(b)1. All private car and freight line and equipment companies operating rolling stock in Florida shall make an annual return to the Department of Revenue. The department shall make an annual determination of the average number of cars habitually present in Florida for each company and shall assess the just value thereof.

2. The department shall promulgate rules respecting the methods of determining the average number of cars habitually present in Florida, the form and content of returns, and such other rules as are necessary to ensure that the property of such companies is properly returned, valued, and apportioned to the state.

3. For purposes of this paragraph, "operating rolling stock in Florida" means having ownership of rolling stock which enters Florida.

4. The department shall apportion the assessed value of such property to the local taxing jurisdiction based upon the number of track miles and the location of mainline track of the respective railroads over which the rolling stock has been operated in the preceding year in each taxing jurisdiction. The situs for taxation of such property shall be according to the apportionment.

¹Note.—As amended by s. 11, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.051, 193.061, 193.071, 193.113, 193.131, 193.272, 193.281.

193.092 Assessment of property for back taxes.—

(1) When it shall appear that any ad valorem tax might have been lawfully assessed or collected upon any property in the state, but that such tax was not lawfully assessed or levied, and has not been collected for any year within a period of 3 years next preceding the year in which it is ascertained that such tax has not been assessed, or levied, or collected, then the officers authorized shall make the assessment of taxes upon such property in addition to the assessment of such property for the current year, and shall assess the same separately for such property as may have escaped taxation at and upon the basis of valuation applied to such property for the year or years in which it escaped taxation, noting distinctly the year when such property escaped taxation and such assessment shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if it had been made in the year in which the property shall have escaped taxation, and taxes shall be levied and collected thereon in like manner and together with taxes for the current year in which the assessment is made. But no property shall be assessed for more than 3 years' arrears of taxation, and all property so escaping taxation shall be subject to such taxation to be assessed in whomsoever's hands or possession the same may be found; provided, that the county property appraiser shall not assess any lot or parcel of land certified or sold to the state for any previous years unless such lot or parcel of lands so certified or sold shall be included in the list furnished by the Comptroller to the county property appraiser as provided by law; provided, if real or personal property be assessed for taxes, and because of litigation delay ensues and the assessment be held invalid the taxing authorities, may reassess such property within the time herein provided after the termination of such litigation; provided further, that personal property acquired in good faith by purchase shall not be subject to assessment for taxes for any time prior to the time of such purchase, but the individual or corporation liable for any such assessment shall continue personally liable for same.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to property of every class and kind upon which ad valorem tax is assessable by any state or county authority under the laws of the state.

History.—s. 24, ch. 4322, 1895; s. 1, ch. 4663, 1899; GS 524; s. 22, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 722; ss. 1, 2, ch. 9180, 1923; CGL 924-926; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 15, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former s. 193.23; s. 193.151.

193.102 Lands subject to tax sale certificates; assessments; taxes not extended.

(1) All lands against which the state holds any tax sale certificate or other lien for delinquent taxes assessed for the year 1940 or prior years shall be assessed for the year 1941 and subsequent years in like manner and to the same effect as if no taxes against such lands were delinquent. Should the taxes on such lands not be paid as required by law, such lands shall be sold or the title thereto shall become vested in the county, in like manner and to the same effect as other lands upon which taxes are delinquent are sold or the title to which becomes vested in the county under this law. Such lands upon which tax certificates have been issued to this state, when sold by the county for delinquent taxes, may be redeemed in the manner prescribed by this law; provided, that all tax certificates held by the state on such lands shall be redeemed at the same time, and the clerk of the circuit court shall disburse the money as provided by law. After the title to any such lands against which the state holds tax certificates becomes vested in the county as provided by this law, the county may sell such lands in the same manner as provided in s. 197.302, and the clerk of the circuit court shall distribute the proceeds from the sale of such lands by the board of county commissioners in proportion to the interest of the state, the several taxing units, and the funds of such units, as may be calculated by the clerk.

(2) The property appraisers, in making up their assessment rolls, shall place thereon the lands upon which taxes have been sold to the county, enter their valuation of the same on the roll, and extend the taxes upon such lands.

Note.—Former ss. 193.16, 193.171; ss. 193.63, 193.181.

193.114 Preparation of assessment rolls.

(1) Each property appraiser shall prepare the following assessment rolls:

(a) Real property assessment roll.

(b) Tangible personal property assessment roll. This roll shall include inventory, taxable household goods, and all other taxable tangible personal property.

(2) The department shall promulgate regulations and forms for the preparation of the real property assessment roll to reflect:

(a) A brief description of the property for purposes of location.

(b) The just value (using the factors set out in s. 193.011) of all property.

(c) When property is wholly or partially exempt, a categorization of such exemption.

(d) When property is classified so that it is assessed other than under s. 193.011, the value according to its classified use and its value as assessed under s. 193.011.

(e) The owner or fiduciary responsible for payment of taxes on the property, his address, and an indication of any fiduciary capacity (such as executor, administrator, trustee, etc.) as appropriate.

(f) The millage levied on the property.

(g) The tax, determined by multiplying the millages by the assessed value for taxation.

(3) The department shall promulgate regulations and forms for the preparation of the tangible personal property roll to reflect:

(a) A code reference to the tax returns showing the property.

(b) The just value (using the factors set out in s. 193.011) of all such property, and, in the case of inventory, the percentage of the property, subject to taxation.

(c) When property is wholly or partially exempt, a categorization of such exemption.

(d) The owner or fiduciary responsible for payment of taxes on the property, his address and an indication of any fiduciary capacity (such as executor, administrator, trustee, etc.) as appropriate.

(e) The millages levied on the property.

(f) The tax, determined by multiplying the millages by the assessed value for taxation.

(4) The department shall promulgate regulations and forms for the preparation of the intangible personal property roll to comply with chapter 199.

(5) Each assessment roll shall be submitted to the executive director for review in the manner and form prescribed by the department on or before the first Monday in July. The roll submitted to the department need not contain centrally assessed properties prior to approval under this subsection and subsection (6). Such review by the executive director shall be made to determine if the rolls meet all the appropriate requirements of this section relating to form and just value. Upon approval of the rolls by the executive director, the hearings required in s. 194.032 may be held.

(6) The executive director shall disapprove all or part of any assessment roll of any county not in full compliance with the administrative order of the executive director issued pursuant to the notice called for in s. 195.097, and shall otherwise disapprove all or any part of any roll not assessed in substantial compliance with law, as disclosed during the department's investigation, including, but not limited to, audits by the Department of Revenue and Auditor General establishing noncompliance.

(7) Approval or disapproval of all or any part of a roll shall not be deemed to be final until the procedures called for in s. 195.098 [F. S. 1973] have been exhausted if an appeal has been sought thereunder.

(8) Chapter 120 shall not apply to this section.

History.—s. 17, ch. 70-243; ss. 10, 21, ch. 73-172; s. 21, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102; ss. 45, 46, ch. 77-104.

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.041, 193.051, 193.061, 193.071, 193.113, 193.131, 193.251, 193.261, 193.361-193.381, 193.392.

193.116 Municipal assessment rolls.—

(1) The county property appraiser shall prepare an assessment roll for every municipality in his county. The property appraisal adjustment board shall give notice to the chief executive officer of each municipality whenever an appeal has been taken with respect to property located within that municipality. Representatives of that municipality shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such hearing. The property appraiser shall deliver each assessment roll to the appropriate municipality in the same manner as assessment rolls are delivered to the county commissions. The governing body of the municipality shall have 30 days to certify all millages to the county property appraiser. The county property appraiser shall extend the millage against the municipal assessment roll. The property appraiser shall certify the municipal tax roll to the county tax collector for collection in the same manner as the county tax roll is certified for collection. The property appraiser shall deliver to each municipality a copy of the municipal tax roll.

(2) The county tax collector shall collect all ad valorem taxes for municipalities within his county. He shall collect municipal taxes in the same manner as county taxes. Each county tax collector shall include on the printed statement required under s. 197.072 a separate category for the municipality, if any, in which the property is located. This category shall state the rate of taxation for the municipality and the amount of tax.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 76-133; s. 2, ch. 76-140.

193.122 Certificates of property appraisal adjustment board and property appraiser.—

(1) The property appraisal adjustment board shall certify each assessment roll after all hearings required by s. 194.032 have been held. These certificates shall be attached to each roll as required by the Department of Revenue.

(2) After certification of the tax rolls by the property appraisal adjustment board, the property appraiser shall make all required extensions on the rolls to show the tax attributable to all taxable property. Upon completion of these extensions, and upon satisfying himself that all property is properly taxed, the property appraiser shall certify the tax rolls. These certificates shall be made in the form required by the department and shall be attached to each roll as required by the department by regulation. An appeal of a property appraisal adjustment board decision pursuant to section 194.032(6)(a) 1. or 2. by the property appraiser shall be filed prior to certification of the tax roll under this subsection. The roll may be certified prior to an appeal being filed pursuant to subparagraph 194.032(6)(a) 3., but such appeal shall be filed within 20 days after receipt of the department's decision relative to further judicial proceedings.

(3) The department shall promulgate regulations to insure that copies of the tax rolls are distributed to the appropriate officials and maintained as part of their records for as long as is necessary to provide for the orderly collection of taxes. Such regulations shall also provide for the maintenance of the necessary permanent copies of such rolls.

(4) The property appraiser may extend millage as required in subsection (2) against the assessment roll and certify it to the tax collector even though there are parcels subject to judicial or administrative review pursuant to paragraph 194.032(6)(a). Such parcels shall be certified and have taxes extended against them in accordance with the property appraisal adjustment board's decisions, except that payment of such taxes by the taxpayer shall not preclude the taxpayer from being required to pay additional taxes in accordance with final judicial determination of an appeal filed pursuant to paragraph 194.032(6)(a).

Note.—Consolidation of provisions of former ss. 193.401-193.421.

193.132 Prior assessments validated.—Every assessment of taxes heretofore made on property of any kind, when such assessment has been actually made in the name of the true owner, is hereby validated. No tax assessment or tax levy made upon any such property shall be held invalid by reason of or because of the subsequent amendment in the law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 100-23, 1925; CGL 927; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 19, ch. 70-243.

PART II

SPECIAL CLASSES OF PROPERTY

- 193.441 Legislative intent.
- 193.451 Annual growing of agricultural crops, non-bearing fruit trees, nursery stock; taxability.
- 193.461 Agricultural lands; classification and assessment.
- 193.481 Assessment of oil, mineral, and other subsurface rights.
- 193.501 Voluntary development right transfers; conservation restrictions; assessment.
- 193.507 Lands within areas of critical state concern; reassessment.

- 193.511 Assessment of inventory.
 193.621 Assessment of pollution control devices.
 193.623 Assessment of building renovations for accessibility to the physically handicapped.

193.441 Legislative intent.—For the purposes of assessment roll preparation and recordkeeping, it is the legislative intent that any assessment for tax purposes which is less than the just value of the property shall be considered a classified use assessment and reported accordingly.

History.—s. 12, ch. 79-334.

Note.—Applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

193.451 Annual growing of agricultural crops, nonbearing fruit trees, nursery stock; taxability.—

(1) Growing annual agricultural crops, nonbearing fruit trees, and nursery stock, regardless of the growing methods, shall be considered as having no ascertainable value and shall not be taxable until they have reached maturity or a stage of marketability and have passed from the hands of the producer and/or offered for sale. This section shall be construed liberally in favor of the taxpayer.

(2) Raw, annual, agricultural crops shall be considered to have no ascertainable value and shall not be taxable until such property is offered for sale to the consumer.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 63-432; s. 1, ch. 67-573; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.

Note.—Former s. 192.063.

193.461 Agricultural lands; classification and assessment.—

(1) The property appraiser shall, on an annual basis, classify for assessment purposes all lands within the county as either agricultural or non-agricultural.

(2) Any landowner whose land is denied agricultural classification by the property appraiser may appeal to the property appraisal adjustment board. The board may also review all lands classified by the property appraiser upon its own motion. The property appraiser shall have available at his office a list by ownership of all applications received showing the acreage, the full valuation under s. 193.011, the valuation of the land under the provisions of this section, and whether or not the classification requested was granted.

(3)(a) No lands shall be classified as agricultural lands unless a return is filed on or before March 1 of each year. The property appraiser, before so classifying said lands, may require the taxpayer or his representative to furnish the property appraiser such information as may reasonably be required to establish that said lands were actually used for a bona fide agricultural purpose. Failure to make timely application by March 1 shall constitute a waiver for 1 year of the privilege herein granted for agricultural assessment. The owner of land that was classified agricultural in the previous year and whose ownership or use has not changed may reapply on a short form as provided by the department.

(b) Subject to the restrictions set out in this section, only lands which are used primarily for bona fide agricultural purposes shall be classified agricultural. "Bona fide agricultural purposes" means good faith commercial agricultural use of the land. In determining whether the use of the land for agricultural purposes is bona fide, the following factors may be taken into consideration:

1. The length of time the land has been so utilized;
2. Whether the use has been continuous;
3. The purchase price paid;
4. Size, as it relates to specific agricultural use;
5. Whether an indicated effort has been made to care sufficiently and adequately for the land in accordance with accepted commercial agricultural practices, including, without limitation, fertilizing, liming, tilling, mowing, reforestation, and other accepted agricultural practices;
6. Whether such land is under lease and, if so, the effective length, terms, and conditions of the lease; and
7. Such other factors as may from time to time become applicable.

(c) The maintenance of a dwelling on part of the lands used for agricultural purposes shall not in itself preclude an agricultural classification.

(4)(a) The property appraiser shall reclassify the following lands as nonagricultural:

1. Land diverted from an agricultural to a nonagricultural use;
2. Land no longer being utilized for agricultural purposes;
3. Land that has been zoned to a nonagricultural use at the request of the owner subsequent to the enactment of this law; or
4. Land for which the owner has recorded a subdivision plat subsequent to the enactment of this law.

(b) The board of county commissioners may also reclassify lands classified as agricultural to nonagricultural when there is contiguous urban or metropolitan development and the board of county commissioners finds that the continued use of such lands for agricultural purposes will act as a deterrent to the timely and orderly expansion of the community.

(c) Sale of land for a purchase price which is three or more times the agricultural assessment placed on the land shall create a presumption that such land is not used primarily for bona fide agricultural purposes. Upon a showing of special circumstances by the landowner demonstrating that the land is to be continued in bona fide agriculture, this presumption may be rebutted.

(5) For the purpose of this section, "agricultural purposes" shall include horticulture; floriculture; viticulture; forestry; dairy; livestock; poultry; bee; pisciculture, when the land is used principally for the production of tropical fish; and all forms of farm products and farm production.

(6)(a) In years in which proper application for agricultural assessment has been made and granted pursuant to this section, the assessment of land shall be based solely on its agricultural use. The property appraiser shall consider the following use factors only:

1. The quantity and size of the property;
2. The condition of said property;

3. The present market value of said property as agricultural land;
4. The income produced by said property;
5. The productivity of land in its present use;
6. The economic merchantability of the agricultural product; and
7. Such other agricultural factors as may from time to time become applicable.

(b) In years in which proper application for agricultural assessment has not been made the land shall be assessed under the provisions of s. 193.011.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-226; s. 1, ch. 67-117; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-181; s. 4, ch. 74-234; s. 3, ch. 76-133.

193.481 Assessment of oil, mineral, and other subsurface rights.—

(1) Whenever the mineral, oil, gas, and other subsurface rights in or to real property in this state shall have been sold or otherwise transferred by the owner of such real property, or retained or acquired through reservation or otherwise, such subsurface rights shall be taken and treated as an interest in real property subject to taxation separate and apart from the fee or ownership of the fee or other interest in the fee. Such mineral, oil, gas, and other subsurface rights, when separated from the fee or other interest in the fee, shall be subject to separate taxation. Such taxation shall be against such subsurface interest and not against the owner or owners thereof or against separate interests or rights in or to such subsurface rights.

(2) The property appraiser shall, upon request of the owner of real property who also owns mineral, oil, gas, or other subsurface mineral rights to the same property, separately assess the subsurface mineral right and the remainder of the real estate as separate items on the tax roll.

(3) Such subsurface rights shall be assessed on the basis of a just valuation, as required by s. 4, Art. VII of the State Constitution, which valuation, when combined with the value of the remaining surface and undisposed of subsurface interests, shall not exceed the full just value of the fee title of the lands involved, including such subsurface rights.

(4) Statutes and regulations, not in conflict with the provisions herein, relating to the assessment and collection of ad valorem taxes on real property, shall apply to the separate assessment and taxation of such subsurface rights, insofar as they may be applied.

(5) Tax certificates and tax liens encumbering subsurface rights, as aforesaid, may be acquired, purchased, transferred, and enforced as are tax certificates and tax liens encumbering real property generally, including the issuance of a tax deed.

(6) Nothing contained in chapter 69-60, Laws of Florida, amending subsections (1) and (3) of this section and creating s. 197.083 shall be construed to affect any contractual obligation existing on June 4, 1969.

193.501 Voluntary development right transfers; conservation restrictions; assessment.—

(1) The owner or owners in fee of any land qualified as environmentally endangered pursuant to paragraph (6)(h), and so designated by formal resolution of the governing board of the county within which such land is located, or any land which is utilized for outdoor recreational or park purposes may, by appropriate instrument, for a term of not less than 10 years:

(a) Convey the development right of said land to the governing board of any county in this state within which said land is located or to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund; or

(b) Covenant with the governing board of any county in this state within which said land is located, or with the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, that said land shall be subject to one or more of the conservation restrictions provided in s. 704.06(1) or shall not be used by the owner for any purpose other than outdoor recreational or park purposes.

(2)(a) The governing board of any county in this state or the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is authorized and empowered in its discretion to accept any and all instruments conveying the development right of any land within said county or establishing a covenant pursuant to subsection (1), and if accepted by said board, the instrument shall be promptly filed with the appropriate officer for recording in the same manner as any other instrument affecting the title to real property.

(b) The governing board of any county may, by appropriate resolution, delegate to any municipality within said county, the power to exercise its authority under this section and if so authorized the governing board of the municipality shall have the same powers, duties and responsibilities as the governing board of the county hereunder, except that the authority granted to any municipality shall not extend to any lands not within the boundaries of the municipality.

(3) When, pursuant to subsections (1) and (2), the development right in real property has been conveyed to the governing board of any county in this state or to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund or a covenant has been executed and accepted by said board, the lands which are the subject of such conveyance or covenant shall be thereafter assessed as provided herein:

(a) If the covenant or conveyance extends for a period of not less than 10 years from January 1 in the year such assessment is made, the property appraiser, in valuing such land for tax purposes, shall consider no factors other than those relative to its value for the present use, as restricted by any conveyance or covenant under this section.

(b) If the covenant or conveyance extends for a period less than 10 years, the land shall be assessed under the provisions of s. 193.011, recognizing the nature and length thereof of any restriction placed on the use of the land under the provisions of subsection (1).

(4) After making a conveyance of the development right or executing a covenant pursuant to this section, the owner of said land shall not use said land in any manner not consistent with the development right voluntarily conveyed or with the restrictions voluntarily imposed or shall not change the use of said land from outdoor recreational or park purposes during the term of said conveyance or covenant without first obtaining a written instrument from the board, which instrument reconveys all or part of the development right to said owner or releases said owner from the terms of the covenant and which instrument must be promptly recorded in the same manner as any other instrument affecting the title to real property. Upon obtaining board approval for reconveyance or release, the reconveyance or release shall be made to the owner upon payment of the deferred tax liability. Any payment of said deferred tax liability shall be payable to the county tax collector within 90 days of the date of approval by the board of the reconveyance or release. The collector shall distribute the payment to each governmental unit in the proportion that its millage bears to the total millage levied on the parcel for the years in which such conveyance or covenant was in effect.

(5) No governing board of any county or the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund which holds title to a development right pursuant to this section shall convey said development right to anyone other than the record owner of the fee interest in the land to which the development right attaches, and the conveyance to said owner of the fee shall be made only after a determination by said board that such conveyance would not adversely affect the interest of the public. Section 125.35 shall not apply to such sales, but any board accepting any instrument conveying a development right pursuant to this section shall forthwith adopt appropriate regulations and procedures governing the disposition of same. These regulations and procedures shall provide in part that no development right shall be conveyed by said board without first holding a public hearing and unless notice of the proposed conveyance and the time and place that the public hearing is to be held shall be published once a week for at least 2 weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county involved prior to said hearing.

(6) The following terms whenever used as referred to in this section shall have the following meaning unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context:

(a) "Outdoor recreational or park purposes" includes, but is not necessarily limited to, boating, golfing, camping, swimming, horseback riding, and historical, archaeological, scenic, or scientific sites, and applies only to land which is open to the general public.

(b) "Development right" is the right of the owner of the fee interest in the land to change the use of the land.

(c) "Conservation restriction" means a limitation on a right to the use of land for purposes of conserving or preserving land or water areas predominantly in their natural, scenic, open, or wooded condition. The limitation on rights to the use of land may involve or pertain to any of the activities enumerated in s. 704.06(1).

(d) "Present use" is the manner in which the land is utilized on January 1 of the year in which the assessment is made.

(e) "Board" is the governing board of any county or the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(f) "Covenant" is a covenant running with the land.

(g) "Deferred tax liability" means an amount equal to the difference between the total amount of taxes which would have been due in March in each of the previous years in which the conveyance or covenant was in effect if the property had been assessed under the provisions of s. 193.011 and the total amount of taxes actually paid in those years when the property was assessed under the provisions of this section, plus 6 percent interest per year on the amount so established.

(h) "Qualified as environmentally endangered" means land which has unique ecological characteristics, rare or limited combinations of geological formations, or features of a rare or limited nature constituting habitat suitable for fish, plants, or wildlife, and which, if subject to a development moratorium or one or more conservation easements or development restrictions appropriate to retaining such land or water areas predominantly in their natural state, would be consistent with the conservation, recreation and open space, and, if applicable, coastal protection elements of the comprehensive plan adopted by formal action of the local governing body pursuant to the Local Government Comprehensive Planning Act of 1975, s. 163.3161; or land subject to regulation by the Department of Environmental Regulation and defined as submerged lands in regulations adopted pursuant to s. 403.817.

(7) The property appraiser shall report to the department the just value and the classified use value of property assessed as environmentally endangered land pursuant to this section separately from property assessed as outdoor recreational or park land.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-528; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 2, ch. 72-181; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 1, ch. 78-354.

Note.—Former s. 193.202.

193.507 Lands within areas of critical state concern; reassessment.—

(1) The property appraiser, on an annual basis, shall determine what land lying within the county has by rule been designated an area of critical state concern, or any part of such an area, by the Administration Commission under the provisions of s. 380.05 and over which land development regulations have been approved or established pursuant to the provisions of said section.

(2) Any landowner whose land has been assessed on the basis of a use which has been prohibited by the land development regulations adopted or approved pursuant to the designation of an area of critical state concern may, on or before April 1 of each year, petition the property appraiser for a reclassification and reassessment of the land for the upcoming tax year.

(3) The property appraiser shall examine the petition, the land development rules and regulations in effect within the area of critical state concern, and the land and shall secure any other information necessary. The property appraiser shall then make a determination of the highest and best use to which the land could have been expected to have been put under the existing tax classification and shall determine whether or not the land development regulations approved or established under the designation make development to that extent no longer possible. If development of the land to the maximum extent allowed within the present tax classification is no longer possible because of the land development regulations, then the property appraiser shall reclassify the land to the classification which corresponds most nearly to the land development which would be allowed under the land development regulations in effect and shall reduce the assessed valuation accordingly.

(4) Any landowner owning land within an area of critical state concern over which land development regulations have been approved or established who has properly petitioned the property appraiser for a reclassification and reassessment but has been denied such reclassification and reassessment may appeal to the property appraisal adjustment board. The board may review upon its own motion the classification of any land within an area of critical state concern.

(5) If the property appraiser determines that the use of the land has been affected by the land development regulations approved or established, and if the property appraiser shall then reclassify and reassess the property, he shall report same to the Department of Revenue along with an estimation of the tax revenue lost, by reason of the reclassification and reassessment, to the county, district school board, and any other special tax districts authorized by general law to levy and collect taxes.

History.—s. 19, ch. 74-234; s. 4, ch. 76-133; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

193.511 Assessment of inventory.—All items of inventory shall be assessed for the purpose of taxation at 10 percent of just valuation, except that goods in the process of manufacture and raw materials held for physical incorporation into the goods to be sold shall be assessed for the purpose of taxation at 1 percent of just valuation. For purposes of this section, fuels used in the production of electricity shall be considered goods in the process of manufacture.

Note.—Former s. 192.05.

193.621 Assessment of pollution control devices.—

(1) If it becomes necessary for any person, firm or corporation owning or operating a manufacturing or industrial plant or installation to construct or install a facility, as is hereinafter defined, in order to eliminate or reduce industrial air or water pollution, any such facility or facilities shall be deemed to have value for purposes of assessment for ad valorem property taxes no greater than its market value as salvage. Any facility as herein defined heretofore constructed shall be assessed in accordance with this section.

(2) If the owner of any manufacturing or industrial plant or installation shall find it necessary in the control of industrial contaminants to demolish and reconstruct that plant or installation in whole or part and the property appraiser determines that such demolition or reconstruction does not substantially increase the capacity or efficiency of such plant or installation or decrease the unit cost of production, then in that event, such demolition or reconstruction shall not be deemed to increase the value of such plant or installation for ad valorem tax assessment purposes.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, nothing in this section shall prevent an increase in the assessment of the plant or installation:

(a) In any year where the taxable property in the county is being reassessed or revalued; or

(b) If the assessed value of such plant or installation or parts thereof, during the year preceding the removal, was less than its just value as required by s. 4, Art. VII of the State Constitution, and s. 193.011; or

(c) In the 10th year after the completion of the reconstruction and replacement and thereafter.

The provisions of this subsection shall apply only if the demolition or removal shall commence prior to September 1, 1969, and if the reconstruction and replacements, in lieu thereof are completed and installed prior to September 1, 1971.

(4) The terms "facility" or "facilities" as used in this section shall be deemed to include any device, fixture, equipment, or machinery used primarily for the control or abatement of pollution or contaminants from manufacturing or industrial plants or installations, but shall not include any public or private domestic sewerage system or treatment works.

(5) Any taxpayer claiming the right of assessments for ad valorem taxes under the provisions of this law shall so state in a return filed as provided by law giving a brief description of the facility. The property appraiser may require the taxpayer to produce such additional evidence as may be necessary to establish taxpayer's right to have such properties classified hereunder for assessments.

(6) If a property appraiser is in doubt whether a taxpayer is entitled, in whole or in part, to an assessment under this section, he may refer the matter to the Department of Environmental Regulation for a recommendation. If he so refers the matter, he shall notify the taxpayer of such action. The Department of Environmental Regulation shall immediately consider whether or not such taxpayer is so entitled and certify its recommendation to the property appraiser.

(7) The Department of Environmental Regulation shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding the application of the tax assessment provisions of this section for the consideration of the several county property appraisers of this state. Such rules and regulations shall be distributed to the several county property appraisers of this state.

Note.—Former s. 403.241.

193.623 Assessment of building renovations for accessibility to the physically handicapped.—

Any taxpayer who renovates an existing building or facility owned by such taxpayer in order to permit physically handicapped persons to enter and leave such building or facility or to have effective use of the accommodations and facilities therein shall, for the purpose of assessment for ad valorem tax purposes, be deemed not to have increased the value of such building more than the market value of the materials used in such renovation, valued as salvage materials. "Building or facility" shall mean only a building or facility, or such part thereof, as is intended to be used, and is used, by the general public. The renovation required in order to entitle a taxpayer to the benefits of this section must include one or more of the following: the provision of ground level or ramped entrances and washroom and toilet facilities accessible to, and usable by, physically handicapped persons.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND JUDICIAL REVIEW OF PROPERTY TAXES

PART I ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW (ss. 194.011-194.032)

PART II JUDICIAL REVIEW (ss. 194.171-194.231)

PART I

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

- 194.011 Completion of assessment rolls.
 194.015 Property appraisal adjustment board.
 194.032 Hearing complaints.

194.011 Completion of assessment rolls.—

(1) The property appraiser shall complete all assessments and have them entered on the appropriate tax rolls on or before July 1 of each year, as required in s. 193.023.

(2) On or before approval of the assessment roll by the Department of Revenue, or upon order of the commission or court pursuant to s. 195.098, as appropriate, each property appraiser shall notify by first-class mail each person subject to real or tangible personal ad valorem taxes of the assessment of each taxable item of real property and tangible personal property, as the item appears on the assessment roll, which he proposes to increase from the previous year's assessment. The notice required above shall contain the dollar value of the prior year's assessment and the current assessed value as determined by the property appraiser. However, such notice shall not be required when such increased assessment is not greater than the value declared by the taxpayer on his return.

(3) Any person objecting to the assessment placed on any property taxable to him may request the property appraiser to informally confer with the taxpayer. Upon receiving the request, the property appraiser, or a member of his staff, shall confer with the taxpayer regarding the correctness of the assessment. At this informal conference, the taxpayer shall present those facts considered by the taxpayer to be supportive of the taxpayer's claim for a change in the assessment of the property appraiser. The property appraiser or his representative at this conference shall present those facts considered by the property appraiser to be supportive of the correctness of the assessment. However, nothing herein shall be construed to be a prerequisite to administrative or judicial review of property assessments. Petitions to the property appraisal adjustment board shall describe the property by parcel number and shall be filed as follows:

(a) The property appraiser shall have available and shall distribute forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue on which the petition shall be made. Such petition shall be sworn to by the petitioner.

(b) The completed petition shall be filed with the clerk of the property appraisal adjustment board of the county, who shall acknowledge receipt thereof and promptly furnish a copy thereof to the property appraiser.

(c) Each petition shall state the approximate time anticipated by the taxpayer to present and argue his petition before the board.

(d) Such petition may be filed at any time during the taxable year prior to the later of:

1. July 15, or

2. The 17th day following the mailing of notice by the property appraiser as provided in subsection (2).

Note.—Former s. 193.25.

194.015 Property appraisal adjustment board.—There is hereby created a property appraisal adjustment board for each county, which shall consist of three members of the governing body of the county as elected from the membership of the board of said governing body, one of whom shall be elected chairman, and two members of the school board as elected from the membership of the school board. The members of the board may be temporarily replaced by other members of the respective boards on appointment by their respective chairpersons. Any three members shall constitute a quorum of the board, except that each quorum must include at least one member of said governing board and at least one member of the school board, and no meeting of the board shall take place unless a quorum is present. Members of the board may receive such per diem compensation as is allowed by law for state employees if both bodies elect to allow such compensation. The clerk of the governing body of the county shall be the clerk of the property appraisal adjustment board. The office of the county attorney may be counsel to the board unless the county attorney represents the property appraiser, in which instance the board shall appoint private counsel who has practiced law for over 5 years and who shall receive such compensation as may be established by the board. No meeting of the board shall take place unless counsel to the board is present. However, counsel for the property appraiser shall not be required when the county attorney represents only the board at the board hearings, even though the county attorney may represent the property appraiser in other matters or at a different time. Two-fifths of the expenses of the board shall be borne by the district school board and three-fifths by the district county commission.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-140; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 26, ch. 70-243; s. 22, ch. 73-172; s. 5, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 75-77; s. 6, ch. 76-133; s. 2, ch. 76-234; s. 1, ch. 77-69.

194.032 Hearing complaints.—

(1) The property appraisal adjustment board shall meet on or before the 30th day following approval of all or any part of the assessment rolls by the Department of Revenue, for the following purposes:

(a) Hearing petitions relating to assessments filed pursuant to s. 194.011(3).

(b) Hearing complaints relating to homestead exemptions as provided for under s. 196.151.

(c) Hearing appeals from exemptions denied, or disputes arising from exemptions granted, upon the filing of exemption applications under s. 196.011.

(d) Hearing appeals concerning ad valorem tax deferrals.

(2) The clerk of the governing body of the county shall prepare a schedule of appearances before the board based on petitions timely filed with him. He shall notify each petitioner of the scheduled time of his appearance no less than 5 calendar days prior to the day of such scheduled appearance. No petitioner shall be required to wait for more than 4 hours from the scheduled time, and if his petition is not heard in that time he may, at his option, report to the chairman of the meeting that he intends to leave, and, if he is not heard immediately, his administrative remedies will be deemed to be exhausted and he may seek further relief as he deems appropriate. Repeated failure to convene at the scheduled time of meetings of the property appraisal adjustment board shall constitute grounds for removal from office by the Governor for neglect of duties.

(3) Petitioners before the board may be represented by an attorney and present testimony and other evidence. The property appraiser or his authorized representatives may be represented by an attorney in defending his assessment or opposing an exemption and may present testimony and other evidence. The property appraiser, each petitioner, and all witnesses may be required to testify under oath as administered by the chairman of the property appraisal adjustment board. Hearings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by rules and regulations of the department. Such hearings shall generally conform to the procedures prescribed for hearings in chapter 120, except that nothing herein shall preclude an aggrieved taxpayer from contesting his assessment in the manner provided by s. 194.171. A verbatim record of the proceedings shall be made, and proof of any documentary evidence presented shall be preserved and made available to the Department of Revenue, if requested, and for further judicial proceedings as provided in subsection (6).

(4) The board is hereby authorized to appoint special masters for the purpose of taking testimony and making recommendations to the board, which recommendations the board may act upon without further hearing. Such special masters may not be elected or appointed officials or employees of the county but shall be selected from a list of those qualified individuals residing in the county who are willing to serve as special masters. The clerk of the board shall annually notify such individuals or their professional associations to make known to them that opportunities to serve as special masters exist. The board shall appoint such masters from the list so compiled prior to convening of the board. The expense of hearings before special masters and any compensation of special masters shall be borne three-fifths by the board of county commissioners and two-fifths by the school board.

(5) In each case, except when a complaint is withdrawn by the petitioner or is acknowledged as correct by the property appraiser, the property appraisal adjustment board shall render a written decision. All such decisions shall be issued within 20 calendar days of the last day the board is in session under this section. The decision of the board shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall include reasons for upholding or overturning the property appraiser's determination. The clerk, upon issuance of the decisions, shall, on a form provided by the Department of Revenue, notify by first-class mail each taxpayer, the property appraiser, and the department of the decision of the board.

(6) Appeals of the board's decision shall be as follows:

(a) If the property appraiser disagrees with the decision of the board, he may appeal the decision to the circuit court if one or more of the following criteria are met:

1. The property appraiser determines and affirmatively asserts in any legal proceedings that there is a specific constitutional or statutory violation, or a specific violation of administrative rules, in the board's decision, except that nothing herein shall authorize the property appraiser to institute any suit to challenge the validity of any portion of the Constitution or of any duly enacted legislative act of this state;

2. There is a variance from the property appraiser's assessed value in excess of the following: 15 percent variance from any assessment of $50,000 or less; 10 percent variance from any assessment in excess of $50,000 but not in excess of $500,000; 7 ½ percent variance from any assessment in excess of $500,000 but not in excess of $1,000,000; or 5 percent variance from any assessment in excess of $1,000,000; or

3. There is an assertion by the property appraiser to the Department of Revenue that there exists a consistent and continuous violation of the intent of the law or administrative rules by the property appraisal adjustment board in its decisions. The property appraiser shall notify the department of those portions of the tax roll for which the assertion is made. The department shall thereupon notify the clerk of the board who shall, within 15 days of the notification by the department, send the written decisions of the board to the department. Within 30 days of the receipt of the decisions by the department, the department shall notify the property appraiser of its decision relative to further judicial proceedings. If the department finds upon investigation that a consistent and continuous violation of the intent of the law or administrative rules by the board has occurred, it shall so inform the property appraiser, who may thereupon bring suit in circuit court against the property appraisal adjustment board for injunctive relief to prohibit continuation of the violation of the law or administrative rules and for a mandatory injunction to restore the tax roll to its just value in such amount as determined by judicial proceeding. However, when a final judicial decision is rendered as a result of an appeal filed pursuant to subparagraph 194.032(6)(a)3. which alters or changes an assessment of a parcel of property of any taxpayer not a party to such procedure, such taxpayer shall have 60 days from the date of the final judicial decision to file an action to contest such altered or changed assessment pursuant to s. 194.171(1), and the provisions of s. 194.171(2) shall not bar such action.

(b) Any taxpayer may bring an action to contest a tax assessment pursuant to s. 194.171.

(c) The circuit court proceeding shall be de novo, and the burden of proof shall be upon the party initiating the action.

(7) Once an original application for tax exemption has been granted, in each succeeding year the property appraiser shall mail to the applicant, on or before February 1, a renewal application, and said property appraiser shall accept from all such applicants a renewal application on forms to be prescribed by the Department of Revenue. Such renewal applications shall be accepted as evidence of exemption by the property appraiser unless he shall deny the said application. Upon such denial, the property appraiser shall serve a notice on the applicant by first-class mail on or before July 1 of each year, setting forth the grounds for denial. Any applicant objecting to such denial may file a petition as provided for in s. 194.011(3) and this section.

(8) Appearance before an advisory board or agency created by the county may not be required as a prerequisite condition to appearing before the property appraisal adjustment board.

(9) The property appraisal adjustment board of each county may employ qualified property appraisers or evaluators to appear before the property appraisal adjustment board at that meeting of the board which is held for the purpose of hearing complaints. Such property appraisers or evaluators shall present testimony as to the just value of any property the value of which is contested before the board and shall submit to examination by the board, the taxpayer, and the property appraiser.

(10) The board shall remain in session from day to day until all petitions, complaints, appeals, and disputes are heard. If all or any part of an assessment roll has been disapproved by the department pursuant to s. 193.114(5) and (6), or disapproved by the Assessment Administration Review Commission or the Supreme Court pursuant to s. 195.098, the board shall reconvene to hear petitions, complaints, or appeals and disputes filed upon the finally approved roll or part of a roll.

PART II

JUDICIAL REVIEW

194.171 Circuit court to have original jurisdiction in tax cases.

194.181 Parties to a tax suit.

194.192 Costs; interest on unpaid taxes; penalty.

194.211 Injunction against tax sales.

194.231 Parties in suits relating to distribution, etc., of funds to counties, etc.

194.171 Circuit court to have original jurisdiction in tax cases.—

(1) The circuit courts have original jurisdiction at law of all matters relating to property taxation. Venue is in the county where the property is located.

(2) No action shall be brought to contest a tax assessment after 60 days from the date the assessment being contested is certified for collection under s. 193.122(2).

(3) Before a taxpayer may bring an action to contest a tax assessment, he shall pay to the collector the amount of the tax which he admits in good faith to be owing. The collector shall issue a receipt for the payment, and the taxpayer shall file the receipt with his complaint.

(4) No action to contest a tax assessment may be maintained unless all taxes on the property which the taxpayer in good faith admits to be owing, including taxes assessed in years after the action is brought, are paid before they become delinquent.

(5) Pending actions to contest tax assessments shall be dismissed unless the taxpayer shall have paid to the collector all taxes on the property which he in good faith admits to be owing, including taxes assessed in years after the action is brought.

(6) The clerk of the circuit court shall, after deducting his statutory fee, pay to the collector all taxes which have been admitted to be due and have been deposited in the registry of the court in connection with pending actions to contest tax assessments.

Note.—Former s. 192.21; s. 194.151; s. 196.01.

194.181 Parties to a tax suit.—

(1) The plaintiff in any tax suit shall be:

(a) The taxpayer contesting the assessment of any tax, the payment of which he is responsible for under the law; or

(b) The property appraiser pursuant to s. 194.032.

(2) In any case contesting the assessment of any property brought by the taxpayer, the county property appraiser shall be party defendant. In any case brought by the property appraiser pursuant to s. 194.032(6)(a) 1. or 2., the taxpayer shall be party defendant. In any case brought by the property appraiser pursuant to subparagraph 194.032(6)(a) 3., the property appraisal adjustment board shall be party defendant.

(3) In any suit involving the collection of any tax on property, as well as questions relating to tax certificates or tax deeds, the tax collector charged under the law with collecting such tax shall be the defendant.

(4) In any suit involving a tax other than an ad valorem tax on property, the tax collector charged under the law with collecting such tax shall be defendant. However, this section shall not apply in any instance wherein general law provides for some other person to be the party defendant.

(5) In any suit in which the assessment of any tax, or the collection of any tax, tax certificate, or tax deed is contested on the ground that it is contrary to the State Constitution, the official of the state government responsible for overall supervision of the assessment and collection of such tax shall be made a party defendant of such suit. Any such suit shall be brought in that county having venue under s. 194.171 or, when that section is inapplicable, in the circuit court of Leon County, and the attorney for the defendant county officer shall upon request represent the state official in any such suit or proceeding, for which he shall receive no additional compensation.

(6) In any suit in which the validity of any statute or regulation found in, or issued pursuant to, chapters 192 through 197, inclusive, is contested, the public officer affected may be a party plaintiff.

History.—s. 3, ch. 8586, 1921; CGL 1040; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 7, ch. 69-140; s. 32, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 73-74; s. 9, ch. 76-133; s. 4, ch. 76-234; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Former s. 196.03.

194.192 Costs; interest on unpaid taxes; penalty.—

(1) In any suit involving the assessment or collection of any tax, the court shall assess all costs.

(2) If the court finds that the amount of tax owed by the taxpayer is greater than the amount the taxpayer has in good faith admitted and paid, it shall enter judgment against the taxpayer for the deficiency and for interest on the deficiency at the rate of 8 percent per annum from the date the tax became delinquent or from January 1, 1971, whichever is later, and at the rate of 6 percent per annum for any period of delinquency before January 1, 1971. If it finds that the amount of tax which the taxpayer has admitted to be owing is grossly disproportionate to the amount of tax found to be due and that the taxpayer's admission was not made in good faith, the court shall also assess a penalty at the rate of 10 percent of the deficiency per annum from the date the tax became delinquent.

History.—s. 8, ch. 69-140; s. 33, ch. 70-243; s. 35, ch. 71-355; s. 2, ch. 72-239.

194.211 Injunction against tax sales.—In any tax suit, the court may issue injunctions to restrain the sale of real or personal property for any tax which shall appear to be contrary to law or equity, and in no case shall any complaint be dismissed because the tax assessment complained of, or the injunction asked for, involves personal property only.

History.—s. 2, ch. 8586, 1921; CGL 1039; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 34, ch. 70-243.
Note.—Former s. 196.02.

194.231 Parties in suits relating to distribution, etc., of funds to counties, etc.—

(1) No court shall hereafter enter any interlocutory or final order, decree or judgment in any case involving the validity or constitutionality of any law relating to the distribution, apportionment or allocation of any state excise or other taxes equally to the several counties in this state under such law, until it shall be made to appear of record in the case that the party to the cause seeking such order, decree or judgment has duly served upon the chairman of the board of county commissioners or the chairman of the school board of each of the counties of this state or upon both such chairmen of said boards, depending upon whether one or both of said boards has an interest in the subject matter, written notice of the pendency of the case and thereafter of all hearings of all applications or motions for such orders, decrees or judgments in such cases, at least 5 days before all hearings.

(2) Such notice shall state the time, place and date of each such hearing and adjournments thereof, and shall be accompanied by copy of the complaint and petition, motion or application for any such order, decree, or judgment and the exhibits thereto attached, if any; and upon such service such boards of such counties having an interest in the subject matter of the case shall forthwith be and become parties to the cause, and shall be by order of the court properly aligned as parties plaintiff or defendant.

195.0011 Short title.—Chapter 195 shall be known as the "Property Assessment Administration and Finance Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-172.

195.0012 Legislative intent.—It is declared to be the legislative purpose and intent in this entire chapter to recognize and fulfill the state's responsibility to secure a just valuation for ad valorem tax purposes of all property and to provide for a uniform assessment as between property within each county and property in every other county or taxing district.

History.—s. 47, ch. 70-243; s. 2, ch. 73-172.

Note.—Former s. 195.111.

195.002 Supervision by Department of Revenue.—The Department of Revenue shall have general supervision of the assessment and valuation of property so that all property will be placed on the tax rolls and shall be valued according to its just valuation, as required by the constitution. It shall also have supervision over tax collection and all other aspects of the administration of such taxes. The supervision of the department shall consist primarily of aiding and assisting county officers in the assessing and collection functions, with particular emphasis on the more technical aspects. In this regard, the department shall conduct schools to upgrade assessment skills of both state and local assessment personnel.

History.—s. 35, ch. 70-243; s. 7, ch. 74-234.

195.022 Forms to be prescribed by Department of Revenue.—The Department of Revenue shall prescribe and furnish all forms to be used by property appraisers, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, and property appraisal adjustment boards in administering and collecting ad valorem taxes. The department shall prescribe a form for each purpose. A county officer may use a form other than the form prescribed by the department, but only at the expense of his office and upon obtaining written permission from the executive director of the department; provided that no county officer shall use a form the substantive content of which is at variance with the form prescribed by the department for the same or a similar purpose. If the executive director finds good cause to grant such permission he may do so, but only for 1 year, subject to renewal upon reapplication by the county officer. Otherwise, all such officers and their employees shall use the forms, and follow the instructions applicable to the forms, furnished to them by the department. The department, upon request of any property appraiser or, in any event, at least once every 3 years, shall prescribe and furnish such aerial photographs and nonproperty ownership maps to the property appraisers as are necessary to insure that all real property within the state is properly listed on the roll. All forms and maps furnished by the department shall be paid for by the department as provided by law. All forms and maps and instructions relating to their use shall be substantially uniform throughout the state. An officer may employ supplemental forms and maps, at the expense of his office, which he deems expedient for the purpose of administering and collecting ad valorem taxes. The forms required in ss. 193.461(3)(a) and 196.011(1) for renewal purposes shall require sufficient information for the property appraiser to evaluate the changes in use since the prior year. If the property appraiser determines, in the case of a taxpayer, that he has insufficient current information upon which to approve the exemption, or if the information on the renewal form is inadequate for him to evaluate the taxable status of the property, he may require the resubmission of an original application.

History.—s. 37, ch. 70-243; s. 4, ch. 73-172; s. 7, ch. 74-234; s. 10, ch. 76-133; s. 2, ch. 78-185; s. 1, ch. 78-193.

195.027 Rules and regulations.—

(1) The Department of Revenue shall prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the assessing and collecting of taxes, and such rules and regulations shall be followed by the property appraisers, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, and property appraisal adjustment boards. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that the department shall formulate such rules and regulations that property will be assessed, taxes will be collected, and the administration will be uniform, just, and otherwise in compliance with the requirements of the general law and the constitution.

(2) It is the legislative intent that all counties operate on computer programs that are substantially similar and produce data which are directly comparable. The rules and regulations shall prescribe uniform standards and procedures for computer programs and operations for all programs installed in any property appraiser's office after July 1, 1973. The rules and regulations shall provide for a time schedule by which all programs and procedures in use on July 1, 1973, shall conform with the uniform standards. It is the legislative intent that the department shall require a high degree of uniformity so that data will be comparable among counties and that a single audit procedure will be practical for all property appraisers' offices.

¹(3) The rules and regulations shall provide procedures whereby the property appraiser, the Department of Revenue, and the Auditor General shall be able to obtain access, where necessary, to financial records relating to nonhomestead property, which records are required to make a determination of the proper assessment as to the particular property in question. Access to a taxpayer's records shall be provided only in those instances in which it is determined that such records are necessary to determine either the classification or the value of the taxable nonhomestead property. Access shall be provided only to those records which pertain to the property physically located in the taxing county as of January 1 of each year and to the income from such property generated in the taxing county for the year in which a proper assessment is made. All records produced by the taxpayer under this subsection shall be deemed to be confidential in the hands of the property appraiser, the department, the tax collector, and the Auditor General and shall not be divulged to any person, firm, or corporation, except upon court order or order of an administrative body having quasi-judicial powers in ad valorem tax matters.

(4)(a) The rules and regulations prescribed by the department shall require a return of tangible personal property, other than inventory, which shall include:

1. A general identification and description of the property or, when more than one item constitutes a class of similar items, a description of the class.
2. The location of such property.
3. The original cost of such property and, in the case of a class of similar items, the average cost.
4. The age of such property and, in the case of a class of similar items, the average age.
5. The condition, including functional and economic depreciation or obsolescence.
6. The taxpayer's estimate of fair market value.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, a class of property shall include only those items which are substantially similar in function and use. Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the department to prescribe a return requiring information other than that contained in this subsection; nor shall the department issue or promulgate any rule or regulation directing the assessment of property by the consideration of factors other than those enumerated in s. 193.011.

(5) The rules and regulations shall require that the property appraiser deliver copies of all pleadings in court proceedings in which his office is involved to the Department of Revenue.

¹(6) The rules and regulations shall prescribe an information form that will provide the property appraiser with adequate data on the transfer of interests in real property to enable him to evaluate the transfer, its terms, and consideration. The clerk of the circuit court shall require at the time of recording of a conveyance in real property either a properly executed information form or a copy of the closing statement in lieu thereof, provided that said statement shall contain no less information than that required on the form. Either the buyer or the seller or the agent of either shall complete the information form or supply the closing statement and certify that the form or statement is accurate to the best of his knowledge and belief. The information form or closing statement shall be confidential in the hands of all persons after delivery to the clerk, except that the Department of Revenue and the Auditor General shall have access to such in the execution of their official duties. The information form or closing statement may be used in any judicial proceeding, upon a motion to produce duly made by any party to such proceedings. Failure of the clerk to obtain an information form or closing statement with the recording shall not impair the validity of the recording or the conveyance. The form shall provide for a notation by the clerk indicating the book and page number of the conveyance in the official record books of the county. The clerk shall promptly deliver all information forms and closing statements received by him to the property appraiser for his custody and use.

History.—s. 39, ch. 70-243; s. 2, ch. 73-172; ss. 8, 22, 23, ch. 74-234; s. 11, ch. 76-133; s. 16, ch. 76-234; s. 14, ch. 79-334.

¹Note.—Subsection (3) as amended and subsection (6) as created by s. 14, ch. 79-334, apply to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

Note.—Former s. 195.042.

195.032 Establishment of standards of value.

—In furtherance of the requirement set out in s. 195.002, the Department of Revenue shall establish and promulgate standard measures of value not inconsistent with those standards provided by law, to be used by property appraisers in all counties, including taxing districts, to aid and assist them in arriving at assessments of all property. The standard measures of value shall provide guidelines for the valuation of property and methods for property appraisers to employ in arriving at the just valuation of particular types of property consistent with ss. 193.011 and 193.461. The standard measures of value shall assist the property appraiser in the valuation of property and be deemed prima facie correct, but shall not be deemed to establish the just value of any property.

History.—s. 38, ch. 70-243; s. 12, ch. 76-133; s. 9, ch. 76-234.

195.052 Research and tabulation of data.

The department shall conduct constant research and maintain accurate tabulations of data and conditions existing as to ad valorem taxation, and annually shall make such recommendations to the legislature as are necessary to insure that property is valued according to its just value and is equitably taxed throughout the state.

History.—s. 40, ch. 70-243.

195.062 Manual of instructions.—

(1) The department shall prepare and maintain a current manual of instructions for property appraisers and other officials connected with the administration of property taxes. This manual shall contain all:

- (a) Rules and regulations.
- (b) Standard measures of value.
- (c) Forms and instructions relating to the use of forms and maps.

Consistent with s. 195.032, the standard measures of value shall be adopted in general conformity with the procedures set forth in s. 120.54, but shall not have the force or effect of such rules and shall be used only to assist tax officers in the assessment of property as provided by s. 195.002.

(2) The department may also include in such manual any other information which it deems pertinent or helpful in the administration of taxes. Such manual shall instruct that the mere recordation of a plat on previously unplatted acreage shall not be construed as evidence of sufficient change in the character of the land to require reassessment until such time as development is begun on the platted acreage. Such manual shall be made available for distribution to the public at a nominal cost, to include cost of printing and circulation.

History.—s. 41, ch. 70-243; s. 1, ch. 71-367; s. 2, ch. 73-172; s. 9, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 75-12; s. 10, ch. 76-234; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

195.072 Cooperation of other agencies of state government.—The several departments and agencies of state government are hereby authorized and directed to render such necessary aid and assistance to the Department of Revenue as is required to enable the department to carry out its functions of insuring just valuation and equitable administration of property taxes in this state.

History.—s. 42, ch. 70-243.

195.073 Classification of property.—All items required by law to be on the assessment rolls shall receive a classification based upon the use of the property. The department shall promulgate uniform definitions for all classifications. The department may designate other subclassifications of property. No assessment roll may be approved by the department which does not show proper classifications.

(1) Real property shall be classified according to the assessment basis of the land into the following classes:

- (a) Residential:
 - 1. Single family.
 - 2. Mobile homes.
 - 3. Multifamily.
 - 4. Condominiums.
 - 5. Cooperatives.
 - 6. Retirement homes.
- (b) Commercial and industrial.
- (c) Agricultural.
- (d) Nonagricultural acreage.
- (e) Exempt, wholly or partially.
- (f) Centrally assessed.
- (g) Leasehold interests.
- (h) Other.

¹(2) Personal property shall be classified as:

- (a) Inventory.
- (b) Live-aboard vessels—residential.
- (c) Live-aboard vessels—nonresidential.
- (d) Mobile homes and attachments.
- (e) Household goods.
- (f) Other tangible personal property.

(3) When the tax roll is submitted to the department for approval, there shall also be appended a statement indicating the total assessed valuation of structures added to and deleted from the assessment roll for that year in each taxing jurisdiction.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-172; ss. 8, 23, ch. 74-234; s. 15, ch. 79-334.

¹Note.—As amended by s. 15, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

195.084 Information exchange.—

(1) The department shall promulgate rules and regulations for the exchange of information among the department, the property appraisers' offices, and the Auditor General. All records and returns of the department useful to the property appraiser shall be made available upon his request, but subject to the reasonable conditions imposed by the department. This section shall supersede statutes prohibiting disclosure only with respect to the property appraiser and the Auditor General, but the department may establish regulations setting reasonable conditions upon the access to and custody of such information. The Auditor General and the property appraisers shall be bound by the same requirements of confidentiality as the Department of Revenue. Breach of confidentiality shall be a misdemeanor of the first degree punishable as provided by ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

(2) All of the records of property appraisers and collectors, including, but not limited to, worksheets and property record cards, shall be made available to the Department of Revenue and Auditor General. Property appraisers and collectors are hereby directed to cooperate fully with representatives of the Department of Revenue and Auditor General in realizing the objectives stated in s. 195.0012.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-172; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

195.087 Property appraisers and tax collectors to submit budgets to Department of Revenue.—

(1)(a) On or before June 1 of each year, every property appraiser, regardless of the form of county government, shall submit to the Ad Valorem Tax Division of the Department of Revenue a budget for the operation of his office for the ensuing fiscal year beginning October 1. The property appraiser shall submit his budget in the manner and form required by the Executive Office of the Governor. A copy of such budget shall be furnished at the same time to the board of county commissioners. The division shall, upon proper notice to the county commission and property appraiser, review the budget request and may amend or change the budget request as it deems necessary, in order that the budget be neither inadequate nor excessive. On or before July 15, the division shall notify the property appraiser and the board of county commissioners of its tentative budget amendments and changes. Prior to August 15, the property appraiser and the board of county commissioners may submit additional information or testimony to the division respecting the budget. On or before August 15, the division shall make its final budget amendments or changes to the budget and shall provide notice thereof to the property appraiser and board of county commissioners.

(b) The Governor and Cabinet, sitting as the Administration Commission, may hear appeals from the final action of the Ad Valorem Tax Division upon a written request being filed no later than September 1 by the property appraiser or the presiding officer of the county commission. The Administration Commission may amend the budget if it finds that any aspect of the budget is unreasonable in light of the work load of the property appraiser's office in the county under review. The budget request as approved by the division and as amended by the commission shall become the operating budget of the property appraiser for the ensuing fiscal year beginning October 1, except that the budget so approved may subsequently be amended under the same procedure. After final approval the property appraiser shall make no transfer of funds between accounts without the written approval of the Ad Valorem Tax Division.

(2) On or before August 1 of each year, each tax collector shall submit to the Department of Revenue his budget for the operation of his office for the ensuing fiscal year, in the manner and form prescribed by the Department of Revenue. The department shall examine the budget and, if it is found adequate to carry on the work of the tax collector, shall approve the budget and certify it back to the tax collector. If the department finds the budget inadequate or excessive, it shall return such budget to the tax collector, together with its ruling thereon. The tax collector shall revise the budget as required and resubmit it to the department. After the final approval of the budget by the department, there shall be no reduction or increase by any officer, board, or commission without the approval of the department.

(3) Any check received by the office of the collector which is returned by the bank upon which the check is drawn shall be the personal liability of the tax collector unless the collector, after due diligence to collect the returned check, forwards the returned check to the State Attorney of the circuit where the check was drawn for prosecution. This subsection shall not apply to ad valorem taxes, in which case the collector shall proceed under chapter 197.

History.—s. 56, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 36, ch. 70-243; s. 6, ch. 73-172; s. 10, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 93, ch. 79-190; s. 16, ch. 79-334.

Note.—Former s. 193.02; s. 195.011.

195.092 Authority to bring and maintain suits.—The Department of Revenue shall have authority to bring and maintain such actions at law or in equity by mandamus or injunction, or otherwise, to enforce the performance of any duties of any officer or official performing duties with relation to the execution of the tax laws of the state, or to enforce obedience to any lawful order, rule, regulation or decision of the Department of Revenue lawfully made under the authority of these tax laws.

History.—s. 55, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 44, ch. 70-243.

Note.—Former s. 196.16; s. 195.041.

195.094 Property Assessment Loan Fund.—

(1) There is hereby created in the State Treasury under the Department of Revenue a trust fund designated as the "Property Assessment Loan Fund."

(2) The moneys deposited in the trust fund are appropriated to, and may be loaned by, the department to any property appraiser for the purpose of assisting the county assessment program in appraising all or a portion of the county and in equipping the property appraiser's office with capital outlay items.

(3) The department shall contract with the property appraiser for the repayment of the loan over a period of not more than 3 years and at an interest rate of not less than the interest rate being charged by the Federal Reserve Bank for discounting instruments of Florida member banks. All interest earnings shall be deposited in the trust fund to be used in the same manner as all other moneys in the fund.

(4) The Department of Revenue shall be a party to all contracts involving any expenditures from the loan fund. In the contract, the department shall include the specifications for the equipment or services to be purchased and standards for the methods to be used. The department shall retain the right to advance the loan funds only as needed and to withhold funds for deviations from the agreed terms, specifications, or standards.

(5) The department may expend money from the trust fund, with the written consent of the property appraiser, for the purpose of employing on a temporary basis consultants to assist the property appraiser in assessing complex or other difficult properties. The department shall charge the office of each consenting property appraiser based upon his relative use of the consultants. The department shall not hire any consultant for which the trust account will not be fully replenished by charges within 12 months from the date the expenditure is charged against the trust fund.

(6) In the event that any property appraiser does not pay in full any installment due under a loan extended under the provisions of this section, the department shall reduce the county distribution under s. 218.23 in an amount equal to the unpaid balance then due, which amount the county may deduct from the subsequent quarterly payment due the property appraiser for his services.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-172; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

195.095 Approved bidder list; standard contracts.—

(1) The department shall accept applications from all persons and firms who desire to contract with property appraisers, collectors, or county commissions for assessment or collection services or systems or for the sale of electronic data-processing programs or equipment. No application shall be approved unless the assessment procedures on the electronic data-processing programs fully meet the regulations of the department relating to uniformity of assessment. The regulations shall insure that the person or firm has sufficient and modern equipment as well as the necessary technology to fulfill the type of contract on which the person or firm proposes to bid. The firm or person shall be approved to bid only on the type of contract for which it is qualified. Chapter 475 shall not apply to persons contracting under the provisions of this section. The department shall establish a list of approved bidders for such contracts based upon an evaluation of each person's or firm's ability to comply satisfactorily with such contracts and the person's or firm's past performance on similar contracts. Any person or firm that has not fully complied with the terms of a contract with a Florida property appraiser, collector, or county commission shall be removed from the approved list for future contracts until there is full compliance. No property appraiser, collector, or county commission may contract for assessment services or purchase of data-processing programs or equipment for use by the property appraiser or collector unless the vendor is on the approved state bidder list.

(2) The department shall promulgate a standard contract containing the minimum standards that must be included in all contracts entered into with approved bidders. All contracts shall contain a requirement that the contractor shall post a performance bond and that the bond shall remain in effect at least 1 year after the completion of the contract. All contractors and bonding companies shall disclose all sureties, endorsers, and guarantors of performance. Any provision of the standard contract may be deleted or added to only with written approval of the department. The department shall, at the minimum, promulgate standard contracts for mass data reappraisals and computer service programs and equipment.

(3) The department may waive all or part of the requirements of this section in the case of property appraisers who, as of July 1, 1973, have electronic data-processing equipment, contracts, or programs in operation which are subject to review under s. 195.087.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-172; s. 11, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

195.096 Review of assessment rolls.—

(1) The assessment rolls of each county shall be subject to review by the Division of Ad Valorem Tax.

(2) Beginning with 1974, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall conduct, no less frequently than once every 4 years, an in-depth review of the assessment rolls of each county. The Division of Ad Valorem Tax need not study every use-class of property set forth in s. 195.073, but shall study the level of assessment in relation to just value of such classifications and such other strata as are significant in a particular county. Such in-depth review may include proceedings of the property appraisal adjustment board.

(a) The Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall, at least 30 days prior to the beginning of an in-depth review in any county, notify the property appraiser in the county of the pending review. At the request of the property appraiser, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall consult with the property appraiser regarding the classifications and strata to be studied, in order that the review will be useful to the property appraiser in evaluating his procedures.

(b) Every property appraiser whose roll is subject to an in-depth review in the current year shall, upon completion of the assessment roll, deliver a list of the parcel numbers of all parcels that did not appear on the assessment roll of the previous year, indicating the parcel number of the parent parcel from which each new parcel was created or "cut out."

(c) In the conduct of assessment ratio studies, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall utilize a statistically reliable sample of properties in tests of each classification, stratum, or roll made the subject of a ratio study published by it. Computations for the ratio studies shall use that measure of central tendency which most accurately reflects the true ratio for that particular classification, stratum, or roll.

(d) In the conduct of such reviews, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall adhere to all standards to which the property appraisers are required to adhere.

(e) The Division of Ad Valorem Tax and each property appraiser shall cooperate in the conduct of such reviews and each shall make available to the other all matters and records bearing on the preparation and computation of such reviews. The property appraisers shall provide any and all data requested by the Division of Ad Valorem Tax in the conduct of such studies, including electronic data processing tapes. Direct reimbursable costs of providing such data shall be borne by the Division of Ad Valorem Tax.

(f) Within 120 days following the receipt of the county's assessment roll by the executive director of the department pursuant to subsection 193.114(5), but in no event later than January 1, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall complete a county's review and forward its findings, except for portions of the review relating to personal property, together with all of its work-product upon which its findings are based, including a statement of the confidence interval for each stratum or classification studied and for the roll as a whole, employing a 95 percent level of confidence, to the executive director of the department and the appropriate property appraiser. The Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall complete the personal property review and forward its findings to the property appraiser and the executive director of the department no later than March 1. For any roll submitted to the department for approval after December 21 and upon good cause shown, the executive director of the department may grant the Division of Ad Valorem Tax an extension of 10 days from the submission date of the roll in which to complete its review.

(3) For those counties not being studied in the current year, the Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall project levels of assessment for each roll not subject to an in-depth review in the current year. The Division of Ad Valorem Tax shall make its projection based upon the best information available. The projections are recognized to be approximations only, and shall not be used as the sole basis of any legal or administrative action.

(4) It is declared to be the legislative intent that approval of the rolls by the department pursuant to subsection 193.114(5) and certification by the property appraisal adjustment board pursuant to subsection 193.122(1) shall not be deemed to impugn the use of postcertification reviews to require adjustments in the preparation of succeeding assessment rolls to insure that such succeeding assessment rolls do meet the constitutional mandates of just value.

(5) The Auditor General shall have the responsibility to perform postaudits and performance audits of the administration of ad valorem tax laws and programs pursuant to the general authority granted in chapter 11.

(6) Chapter 120 shall not apply to this section.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-172; ss. 11, 21, ch. 74-234; s. 2, ch. 75-211; s. 13, ch. 76-133.

195.097 Postaudit review of rolls; supervision by the department.—

(1) Upon evaluation of the findings of the Division of Ad Valorem Tax, and upon the independent study of his staff, the executive director of the department shall evaluate the assessment rolls of all counties and shall issue a notice to any property appraiser who he has determined has one or more classes or other strata of property listed on the assessment rolls in a manner inconsistent with the requirements of law, or is otherwise not assessing in accordance with law. The executive director shall specify in his notice the classes or strata of property that have been improperly assessed on the prior year's roll, the nature of the defect or defects, and the requirements of the department to obtain approval of the current year's assessment roll. Such notice shall be provided to the property appraiser no later than January 15.

(2) Within 15 days after receipt of a notice, but no later than February 1, the property appraiser shall either notify the executive director in writing of his intention to comply or request an immediate conference with the executive director for the purpose of attempting to resolve differences between himself and the executive director. Such conference shall be held no later than February 15. At the conclusion of such conference, but no later than March 1, the executive director shall issue his administrative order, which order shall incorporate the remedial steps, if any, to be taken by the property appraiser to insure that all property on his rolls is assessed at just value. An administrative order shall also be issued in the case of a property appraiser who has stated his intention to comply. The department may, with respect to the personal property assessment roll, amend its March 1 order prior to March 15 in those counties in which the auditor general has audited the prior year's personal property assessment roll.

(3) Upon the issuance of the administrative order, the department shall commence continuing supervision of the preparation of the current rolls to insure that every reasonable effort is being taken by the property appraiser to comply with the order. Supervision may include, but shall not be limited to, the conduct of ratio or other mass data studies on the roll being prepared. During its supervision, the department may seek any judicial remedy available to it under law to force compliance with its order, and may request removal of the property appraiser by the Governor when it deems such action necessary. No later than May 1, the executive director shall notify the property appraiser, in writing, as to whether he is in substantial compliance with the order. In the event that the executive director determines that the property appraiser is not in substantial compliance at that time, he shall send to the property appraiser and the governing body of each tax-levying agency in the county a notice of intent to disapprove the tax roll in whole or in part.

(4) Chapter 120 shall not apply to this section.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-172; ss. 14, 21, ch. 74-234; s. 3, ch. 75-211; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

195.098 Assessment Administration Review Commission; hearings; judicial review.—

(1) There is hereby created, pursuant to s. 1, Art. V of the State Constitution, 1968, as amended, the Assessment Administration Review Commission, which shall have adjudicatory authority to hear complaints relating to approval or disapproval of assessment rolls. The creation of this commission is not intended in any way to limit the jurisdiction of the Circuit Courts of this state in litigation relating to ad valorem taxation, except in regard to appeals from approval or disapproval of an assessment roll by the department.

(a) The Assessment Administration Review Commission shall consist of three persons knowledgeable in any of the following three general areas: property tax law, determination of property values, or statistics. Members of the commission shall be appointed by the Governor with the consent of three members of the cabinet, subject to approval by the Senate, and each shall serve for a term concurrent with the Governor. Each member shall receive compensation at the rate of $100 per day, but not more than $10,000 in any fiscal year. The members shall not be considered full-time employees of the state.

(b) The commission shall be authorized to employ the necessary clerical staff and hearing examiners to assist it in the performance of its duties. In addition, the commission shall engage a person to act as law officer of its hearings who shall have those qualifications set for the office of circuit judge by s. 8, Art. V of the State Constitution of 1968, as amended. Such law officer shall preside over all hearings of the commission, make all necessary rulings of law, and prepare the final order of the commission pursuant to its findings of facts.

(c) The commission is authorized to establish rules for its operations and for the conduct of its hearings. The law officer shall have the power to issue notices of hearings and subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence, administer oaths, and take testimony as may be necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities of the commission.

(2) Upon approval or disapproval of all or any part of any roll of any county, as provided for in subsection 193.114(5) or subsection 193.114(6), an appeal may be filed with the commission. The appeal shall be filed within 20 days of the issuance of the rule of the executive director approving or disapproving all or any part of a county assessment roll. Appeals shall be filed in the form and manner as prescribed by the rules of the commission. A property appraiser may appeal a disapproval of all or any part of any of his rolls, and the Auditor General, when expressly so directed by the joint legislative auditing committee, may appeal an approval of all or any part of any roll. When an appeal is taken by the Auditor General, the executive director, joined by the appropriate property appraiser, shall defend such approval. Upon receipt by the law officer of an appeal, the law officer shall promptly notify all proper parties of the hearing date.

(a) In a hearing reviewing the disapproval of all or any part of an assessment roll, neither the determination of the department nor the assessments of the property appraiser shall be presumed correct, but the burden of proof shall be on the executive director. In a hearing challenging the approval of all or any part of an assessment roll, the burden of proof shall be on the Auditor General.

(b) The commission shall make findings of fact, and the law officer shall prepare the final order of the commission, which order shall be binding upon all parties. Such order shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court as provided below.

(3) The Supreme Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review the final order of the Assessment Administration Review Commission as a matter of right as provided by s. 3(b)(7), Art. V of the State Constitution of 1968, as amended. The court is requested to give such review the highest priority and to expedite hearing and determination of the matter. Upon the court rendering a decision requiring reassessment of part or all of the rolls of a county, the court may, within its discretion, require the department to do any or all of the following in order to implement the decision of the court:

(a) Enter such orders as are necessary to insure that the roll under review shall be uniform, equitable at just value, and otherwise in compliance with law.

(b) Maintain jurisdiction for the purpose of supervising the revision of the rolls until such time as all of the requirements of the commission or of the court as expressed in its orders have been met.

(c) Order the preparation of a preliminary roll prior to full compliance as necessary for the purpose of preparing and mailing preliminary tax bills.

(d) Upon full compliance with the requirements of the court, order the preparation of a final roll and order the preparation of supplemental bills and refunds to be distributed to the taxpayers.

(e) Readjust the millage of each taxing authority within the county as necessary in order to produce the same revenue which would be generated under the preliminary roll.

(f) Direct the Comptroller to withhold distribution of any state-appropriated funds to the taxing entities within the county in excess of state distributions during the prior fiscal year.

(4) Chapter 120 shall not apply to this section.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-172; s. 21, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 48, ch. 77-104.

195.101 Withholding of state funds.—

(1) The Department of Revenue is hereby directed to determine each year whether the several counties of this state are assessing the real and tangible personal property within their jurisdiction in accordance with law. If the Department of Revenue determines that any county is assessing property at less than that prescribed by law, the comptroller shall withhold from such county a portion of any state funds to which the county may be entitled equal to the difference of the amount assessed and the amount required to be assessed by law.

(2) The Department of Revenue is hereby directed to determine each year whether the several municipalities of this state are assessing the real and tangible personal property within their jurisdiction in accordance with law. If the Department of Revenue determines that any municipality is assessing property at less than that prescribed by law, the comptroller shall withhold from such municipality a portion of any state funds to which that municipality may be entitled equal to the difference of the amount assessed and the amount required to be assessed by law.

Note.—Former ss. 193.326, 195.051; ss. 167.445, 195.061.

195.106 Department of Revenue to pass upon and order refunds.—

(1)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), the Department of Revenue shall pass upon and order refunds when payment has been made voluntarily or involuntarily of taxes assessed on the county tax rolls by reason of any of the following circumstances:

1. Any over-payment;
2. Payment when no tax was due;

3. When a bona fide controversy exists between the tax collector and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due, the taxpayer pays the amount claimed by the tax collector to be due, and it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof.

(b) Those refunds which have been ordered by a court and those refunds which do not result from changes made in the assessed value on a tax roll certified to the tax collector shall be made directly by the tax collector without order from the department and from undistributed funds without approval of the various taxing authorities.

(c) Claims for refunds shall be made in accordance with the rules of the department. No refund shall be granted unless claim is made therefor within 4 years of January 1 of the tax year for which the taxes were paid.

(2)(a) When the Department of Revenue orders a refund, it shall forward a copy of its order to the tax collector who shall then determine and certify to the county, district school board, each municipality, and the governing body of each taxing district their pro rata share of such refund, the reason for the refund, and the date the refund was ordered by the department.

(b) The board of county commissioners, the district school board, each municipality, and the governing body of each taxing district shall comply with the order of the department in the following manner:

1. Authorize the tax collector to make refund from undistributed funds held for that taxing authority by the tax collector;
2. Authorize the tax collector to make refund and forward to the tax collector their pro rata share of the refund from currently budgeted funds, if available; or
3. Notify the tax collector that the taxing authority does not have funds currently available and provide in their budget for the ensuing year funds for the payment of the refund.

(3) A refund ordered by the department pursuant to this section shall be made by the tax collector in one aggregate amount composed of all the pro rata shares of the several taxing authorities concerned, except that a partial refund is allowed when one or more of the taxing authorities concerned do not have funds currently available to pay their pro rata share of the refund and this would cause an unreasonable delay in the total refund. A statement by the tax collector explaining the refund shall accompany the refund payment.

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize any taxing authority to make any tax levy in excess of the maximum authorized by the constitution or the laws of Florida.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply with respect to refunds of amounts paid for tax certificates which are subsequently determined to be void, as provided in s. 197.116 (8).

Note.—Former s. 193.40; s. 195.081.

195.207 Effect on levy of municipal taxes.—

No municipal charter may prohibit or limit the authority of the governing body to levy ad valorem taxes or utility service taxes authorized under s. 167.431. Any word, sentence, phrase, or provision, of any special act, municipal charter, or other law, that prohibits or limits a municipality from levying ad valorem taxes within the millage limits fixed by s. 9, Art. VII of the State Constitution, or prohibits or limits a municipality from levying utility service taxes within the limits fixed by s. 167.431, is hereby nullified and repealed.

196.001 Property subject to taxation.—Unless expressly exempted from taxation, the following property shall be subject to taxation in the manner provided by law:

(1) All real and personal property in this state and all personal property belonging to persons residing in this state; and

(2) All leasehold interests in property of the United States, of the state, or any political subdivision, municipality, agency, authority, or other public body corporate of the state.

History.—s. 16, ch. 71-133.

196.002 Legislative intent.—For the purposes of assessment roll recordkeeping and reporting:

(1) The increase in the homestead exemption provided in s. 196.031(3)(d) shall be reported separately for those persons entitled to exemption under paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of s. 196.031(3) and for those persons entitled to exemption under s. 196.031(1) but not under said paragraphs; and

(2) The exemptions authorized by each provision of this chapter shall be reported separately for each category of exemption in each such provision, both as to total value exempted and as to the number of exemptions granted.

History.—s. 8, ch. 79-332.

¹*Note.*—Effective upon approval of S.J.R. 1-B (1979) at a special election to be held on March 11, 1980, or at the 1980 general election; but will "apply to assessment rolls for the year 1980 and each year thereafter."

196.011 Annual application required for exemption.—

(1) Every person or organization who has the legal title to real or personal property which is entitled by law to exemption from taxation as a result of its ownership and use shall, before March 1 of each year, file an application for exemption with the county property appraiser, listing and describing the property for which exemption is claimed and certifying its ownership and use. The Department of Revenue shall prescribe the forms upon which the application is made. Failure to make application, when required, by March 1 of any year shall constitute a waiver of the exemption privilege for that year.

However, application for exemption will not be required on public roads rights-of-way and borrow pits owned, leased, or held for exclusive governmental use and benefit or on property owned and used exclusively by a municipality for municipal or public purposes in order for such property to be released from all ad valorem taxation. The owner of property that received an exemption in the prior year may reapply on a short form as provided by the department.

¹(2) It shall not be necessary to make annual application for exemption on houses of public worship, the lots on which they are located, personal property located therein or thereon, parsonages, house of public worship owned burial grounds and tombs, other such property not rented or hired out for other than religious or educational purposes at any time; household goods and personal effects of residents of this state; and property of the state, any county, any municipality, or any school district or community college district thereof.

(3) When any property has been determined to be fully exempt from taxation because of its exclusive use for religious, literary, scientific, or charitable purposes and the application for its exemption has met the criteria of s. 196.195, the property appraiser may accept, in lieu of the annual application for exemption, a statement certified under oath that there has been no change in the ownership and use of the property.

cf.—ss. 3, 6, Art. VII, State Const.

196.012 Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter the following terms are defined as follows except where the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Exempt use of property" means predominant or exclusive use of property for educational, literary, scientific, religious, charitable, or governmental use, as defined in this chapter.

(2) "Exclusive use of property" means property that is used 100 percent for exempt purposes. Such purposes may include more than one class of exempt use.

(3) "Predominant use of property" means property used for exempt purposes in excess of 50 percent but less than exclusive.

(4) "Educational institutions" means state, parochial, church, and private schools, colleges, and universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for eligibility to certification by, accreditation to, or membership in, the State Department of Education of Florida, Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, or the Florida Council of Independent Schools.

(5) Governmental, municipal, or public purpose or function shall be deemed to be served or performed when the lessee under any leasehold interest created in property of the United States, the state or any of its political subdivisions, or any municipality, agency, authority, or other public body corporate of the state, is demonstrated to perform a function or serve a governmental purpose which could properly be performed or served by an appropriate governmental unit, or which is demonstrated to perform a function or serve a purpose which would otherwise be a valid subject for the allocation of public funds. The term "governmental purpose" shall include a direct use of property on federal lands in connection with the Federal Government's Space Exploration Program. Real property and tangible personal property owned by the Federal Government and used for defense and space exploration purposes or which is put to a use in support thereof shall be deemed to perform an essential national governmental purpose and shall be exempt.

(6) "Charitable purpose" means a function or service which is of such a community service that its discontinuance could legally result in the allocation of public funds for the continuance of the function or service.

(7) "Hospitals" means institutions which possess a valid license granted under chapter 395 on January 1 of the year for which exemption from ad valorem taxation is requested.

(8) "Nursing homes," "homes for special services," and "homes for the aged" mean institutions which possess a valid license under chapter 400 on January 1 of the year for which exemption from ad valorem taxation is requested.

(9) "Gross income" means all income from whatever source derived, including, but not limited to, the following items, whether actually owned by, or received by, or not received by but available to, any person or couple: earned income, income from investments, gains derived from dealings in property, interest, rents, royalties, dividends, annuities, income from retirement plans, pensions, trusts, estates and inheritances, and direct and indirect gifts. Gross income specifically shall not include payments made for the medical care of the individual, return of principal on the sale of a home, social security benefits, or public assistance payments payable to the person or assigned to an organization designated specifically for the support or benefit of that person.

(10) "Totally and permanently disabled persons" means those persons who are currently certified by two licensed physicians of this state who are professionally unrelated or the Veterans' Administration to be totally and permanently disabled.

(11) "Couple" means a husband and wife legally married under the laws of any state or territorial possession of the United States or of any foreign country.

(12) "Real estate used and owned as a homestead" means real property to the extent provided in s. 6(a), Art. VII, and s. 4(a)(1), Art. X, of the State Constitution, but less any portion thereof used for commercial purposes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-133; s. 1, ch. 72-367; s. 1, ch. 73-340; s. 14, ch. 74-234; s. 13, ch. 76-234; s. 1, ch. 77-447.

196.021 Tax returns to show all exemptions and claims.—In making tangible personal property tax returns under this chapter it shall be the duty of the taxpayer to completely disclose and claim any and all lawful or constitutional exemptions from taxation to which he may be entitled or which he may desire to claim in respect to taxable tangible personal property. The failure to disclose and include such exemptions, if any, in a tangible personal property tax return made under this chapter shall be deemed a waiver of the same on the part of the taxpayer and no such exemption or claim thereof shall thereafter be allowed for that tax year.

History.—s. 14, ch. 20723, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.

Note.—Former s. 200.15.

cf.—ss. 3, 6, Art. VII, State Const.

196.031 Exemption of homesteads.—

(1) Every person who has the legal title or beneficial title in equity to real property in this state and who resides thereon and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home, or the permanent home of another or others legally or naturally dependent upon said person, shall be entitled to an exemption from all taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of $5,000 on the said home and contiguous real property, as defined in s. 6, Art. VII of the State Constitution. Said title may be held by the entireties, jointly, or in common with others, and said exemption may be apportioned among such of the owners as shall reside thereon, as their respective interests shall appear, but no such exemption of more than $5,000 shall be allowed to any one person or on any one dwelling house, except that an exemption up to the assessed valuation of $5,000 may be allowed on each apartment occupied by a tenant-stockholder or member of a cooperative apartment corporation and on each condominium parcel occupied by its owner, nor shall the amount of the exemption allowed any person exceed the proportionate assessed valuation based on the interest owned by such person.

(2) As used in subsection (1), "cooperative apartment corporation" means a corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, organized for the purpose of owning, maintaining and operating an apartment building or apartment buildings to be occupied by its stockholders or members; and "tenant-stockholder or member" means an individual who is entitled, solely by reason of his ownership of stock or membership in a cooperative apartment corporation, to occupy for dwelling purposes an apartment in a building owned by such corporation. A corporation leasing land for a term of 98 years or more for the purpose of maintaining and operating a cooperative apartment thereon shall be deemed the owner for purposes of this exemption.

¹(3)(a) For every person who is entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (1) who has been a permanent resident of this state for the 5 consecutive years prior to claiming an exemption under this subsection and who is 65 years of age or older, the exemption is increased to $10,000 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by governing bodies of school districts, counties, municipalities, and special districts. Submission of an affidavit that the applicant claiming the additional exemption under this subsection has been a permanent resident of this state for the 5 years immediately preceding the date of application shall be prima facie proof of such residence.

(b) For every person who is entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (1) who has been a resident of this state for the 5 consecutive years prior to claiming the exemption under this subsection and who qualifies for the exemption granted pursuant to s. 196.202 as a totally and permanently disabled person, the exemption shall be increased by $4,500 of assessed valuation so that the sum of the combined exemptions is $10,000 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by the governing bodies of school districts, counties, municipalities, and special districts.

(c) No homestead shall be exempted under both paragraphs (a) and (b). In no event shall the combined exemptions of s. 196.202 and this section exceed $10,000.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(2); s. 1, ch. 67-339; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 1, 3, ch. 71-309; s. 1, ch. 72-372; s. 1, ch. 72-373; s. 9, ch. 74-227; s. 1, ch. 74-264; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 3, ch. 79-332.

Note.—As amended by s. 3, ch. 79-332, effective upon approval of S.J.R. 1-B (1979) at a special election to be held on March 11, 1980, or at the 1980 general election, and applicable to "assessment rolls for the year 1980 and each year thereafter," subsections (3) and (4) will read:

(3)(a) For every person who is entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (1) who has been a permanent resident of this state for the 5 consecutive years prior to claiming an exemption under this subsection and who is 65 years of age or older, the exemption is increased to $10,000 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by governing bodies of counties, municipalities, and special districts. Submission of an affidavit that the applicant claiming the additional exemption under this subsection has been a permanent resident of this state for the 5 years immediately preceding the date of application shall be prima facie proof of such residence.

(b) For every person who is entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (1) who has been a resident of this state for the 5 consecutive years prior to claiming the exemption under this subsection and who qualifies for the exemption granted pursuant to s. 196.202 as a totally and permanently disabled person, the exemption is increased to $9,500 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by governing bodies of counties, municipalities, and special districts.

(c) No homestead shall be exempted under both paragraphs (a) and (b). In no event shall the combined exemptions of s. 196.202 and paragraph (a) or (b) exceed $10,000.

(d) For every person who is entitled to the exemption provided in subsection (1) who has been a resident of this state for the 5 consecutive years prior to claiming the exemption under this subsection, the exemption is increased to a total of $25,000 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by governing bodies of school districts.

(4)(a) The property appraisers of the various counties shall each year compile a list of taxable property and its value removed from the assessment rolls of each local governmental unit, except school districts, as a result of the increased exemptions provided in subsection (3), as well as a statement of the loss of tax revenue to each such governmental unit, except school districts, and shall deliver a copy thereof to the Department of Revenue upon certification of the assessment roll to the tax collector.

(b) The property appraisers of the various counties shall each year compile a list of taxable property and its value removed from the assessment rolls of each school district as a result of the excess of exempt value above that amount allowed for nonschool levies as provided in subsections (1) and (3), as well as a statement of the loss of tax revenue to each school district from levies other than the minimum financial effort required pursuant to s. 236.02(6), and shall deliver a copy thereof to the Department of Revenue upon certification of the assessment roll to the tax collector.

196.032 Local Government Exemption Trust Fund; annual payments to local governments for certain tax revenues lost.—

(1) There is created the Local Government Exemption Trust Fund, to be administered by the Department of Revenue.

(2) Each qualified county, municipality, or special district is entitled to receive an annual payment from the fund in an amount equal to the revenue lost as a result of the additional exemptions provided in s. 196.031(3) and the reduction of inventory assessment provided in s. 193.511 as amended by chapter 77-476, Laws of Florida. Revenue lost shall be calculated by multiplying 96 percent of the additional exemption granted in s. 196.031(3) and the reduction of inventory assessment provided in s. 193.511 as amended by chapter 77-476, Laws of Florida, by the applicable millage. A qualified local government is one which either:

(a) Made application to the department not later than December 1; or

(b) Participated in the distribution from the trust fund for the preceding year and levied an ad valorem tax for the current year.

(3) Not later than 30 days after the application deadline of each year, the department shall authorize payment to qualified local governments from the trust fund, as follows:

(a) Qualified local governments for which the department has received the data necessary to compute the amount of revenue lost in the current fiscal year's ad valorem tax levy as a result of the additional exemptions or reduction of inventory assessment shall receive payment in the amount of that loss. The department is authorized to make payments on a prorated basis if it deems the balance in the trust fund insufficient to make projected payments.

(b) Qualified local governments for which the department has not received sufficient data to compute the amount of revenue so lost shall receive payment in an amount equivalent to 85 percent of the replacement funds received the previous year from the trust fund. The department shall make full payment, or the proration if the fund is being prorated, upon receipt of sufficient data.

(4) Amounts by which actual payments to any qualified local government are less than the amount finally determined as the revenue lost from that year's ad valorem tax levy as the result of the additional homestead tax exemptions provided in s. 196.031(3) and the reduction of inventory assessment provided in s. 193.511, as amended by chapter 77-476, Laws of Florida, shall constitute a first priority charge against the following year's distribution from the trust fund. Such deficiency payments shall be made as soon as funds are available. At the end of each state fiscal year all funds not distributed from the Local Government Exemption Trust Fund shall revert to the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-264; s. 4, ch. 77-476; s. 86, ch. 79-400.

196.033 School District Homestead Trust Fund; annual payments to school districts for certain revenues lost.—

(1) There is created the School District Homestead Trust Fund, to be administered by the Department of Revenue.

(2) Each school district shall receive an annual payment from the fund in an amount equal to the revenue lost from levies other than minimum financial effort required pursuant to s. 236.02(6) as a result of the increase of exemption amounts for school districts provided in ch. 79-332, Laws of Florida. Revenue lost shall be calculated by multiplying 96 percent of the additional exempt value resulting from said increase by the applicable school millage.

(3) The department shall authorize such payment to each school district no later than January 31 of each year.

(4) The Legislature shall annually appropriate from the General Revenue Fund a sum sufficient to meet the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-332.

Note.—Effective upon approval of S.J.R. 1-B (1979) at a special election to be held on March 11, 1980, or at the 1980 general election, but will "apply to assessment rolls for the year 1980 and each year thereafter."

196.041 Extent of homestead exemptions.—

Vendees in possession of real estate under bona fide contracts to purchase when such instruments, under which they claim title, are recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court where said properties lie, and who reside thereon in good faith and make the same their permanent homes; persons residing on real estate by virtue of dower or other estates therein limited in time by deed, will, jointure, or settlement; and lessees owning the leasehold interest in a bona fide lease having an original term of 98 years or more in a condominium parcel as defined in chapter 718, or persons holding leases of 50 years or more, existing prior to June 19, 1973, for the purpose of homestead exemptions from ad valorem taxes and no other purpose, shall be deemed to have legal or beneficial and equitable title to said property. In addition, a tenant-stockholder or member of a cooperative apartment corporation who is entitled solely by reason of his ownership of stock or membership in the corporation to occupy for dwelling purposes an apartment in a building owned by the corporation, for the purpose of homestead exemption from ad valorem taxes and for no other purpose, is deemed to have beneficial title in equity to said apartment and a proportionate share of the land on which the building is situated. A person who otherwise qualifies by the required residence for the homestead tax exemption provided in s. 196.031 shall be entitled to such exemption where his possessory right in such real property is based upon an instrument granting to him a beneficial interest for his life, such interest being hereby declared to be "equitable title to real estate," as that term is employed in s. 6, Art. VII of the State Constitution; and such person shall be entitled to the homestead tax exemption irrespective of whether such interest was created prior or subsequent to the effective date of this act. However, nothing herein shall be deemed to render any property owned by any municipality, county, district, or agency thereof subject to taxation.

Note.—Former s. 192.14.

196.061 Rental of homestead to constitute abandonment.—The rental of an entire dwelling previously claimed to be a homestead for tax purposes shall constitute the abandonment of said dwelling as a homestead, and said abandonment shall continue until such dwelling is physically occupied by the owner thereof; provided, however, that such abandonment of such homestead after January 1 of any year shall not affect the homestead exemption for tax purposes for that particular year; provided further, the provisions of this section shall not apply to a member of the Armed Forces of the United States whose service in such forces is the result of a mandatory obligation imposed by the Federal Selective Service Act or who volunteers for service as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States; provided, however, that this section shall have no effect on the status of any property involved in litigation pending on June 12, 1959.

196.081 Exemption for certain permanently and totally disabled veterans.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by a veteran, honorably discharged with service-connected total and permanent disability and having a letter from the United States Government or United States Veterans' Administration or its successors certifying that the ex-serviceman is totally and permanently disabled, shall be exempt from taxation, provided the veteran was a permanent resident of the state on January 1, 1976, or a permanent resident of the state for a period of not less than 5 years as of January 1 of the tax year for which exemption is being claimed.

(2) The production by an ex-serviceman of a letter of total and permanent disability from the United States Government or United States Veterans' Administration before the property appraiser of the county wherein said ex-serviceman's property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemption.

(3) In the event the homestead of the totally and permanently disabled veteran is held with the veteran's wife as an estate by the entirety, and in the event the veteran predeceases his wife, the exemption from taxation shall carry over to the benefit of the veteran's wife, provided, however, that she continues to reside on said real estate and use it as her domicile or until such time as she remarries or sells or otherwise disposes of the property.

196.091 Exemption for disabled veterans confined to wheelchairs.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by an ex-serviceman, honorably discharged with service connected total disability and who has a certificate from the government or United States Veterans' Administration, or its successors, certifying that the ex-serviceman is receiving or has received special pecuniary assistance due to disability requiring specially adapted housing and required to use a wheelchair for his transportation, shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) The production by an ex-serviceman of a certificate of disability from the United States Government or United States Veterans' Administration before the property appraiser of the county wherein his property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemptions.

(3) In the event the homestead of the wheelchair veteran was or is held with the veteran's wife as an estate by the entirety, and in the event the veteran did or shall predecease his wife, the exemption from taxation shall carry over to the benefit of the veteran's wife provided however, that she continue to reside on said real estate and use it as her domicile or until such time as she shall remarry or sell or otherwise dispose of the property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-761; s. 2, ch. 65-193; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

196.101 Exemption for totally and permanently disabled persons.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by any quadriplegic shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by a paraplegic, hemiplegic, or other totally and permanently disabled person, as defined in subsection 196.012(10), who must use a wheelchair for mobility or who is legally blind, shall be exempt from taxation.

(3) The production by any totally and permanently disabled person entitled to the exemption in subsection (1) or subsection (2) of a certificate of such disability from two licensed doctors of this state or from the Veterans' Administration to the property appraiser of the county wherein the property lies shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemption.

(4) A person entitled to the exemption in subsection (2) must be a resident of this state for 5 consecutive years prior to claiming the exemption under this section. Submission of an affidavit that the applicant claiming the exemption under subsection (2) has been a permanent resident of this state for the 5 years preceding the date of application shall be prima facie proof of such residence. However, the income of all persons residing in or upon the homestead shall not exceed $8,200. For purposes of this section, gross income shall include Veterans' Administration and any social security benefits payable to the persons.

(5) The physician's certification shall read as follows:

PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATION OF
TOTAL AND PERMANENT DISABILITY

I, (name of physician), a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458, Florida Statutes, hereby certify Mr. Mrs. Miss Ms. (name of totally and permanently disabled person), social security number, is totally and permanently disabled as of January 1, (year), due to the following mental or physical condition(s):

..... Quadriplegia

..... Paraplegia

..... Hemiplegia

..... Other total and permanent disability requiring use of a wheelchair for mobility

..... Legal Blindness

It is my professional belief that the above named condition(s) render Mr. Mrs. Miss Ms. totally and permanently disabled, and that the foregoing statements are true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge and professional belief.

196.111 Property appraisers to notify persons entitled to homestead exemption; publication of notice; costs.—

(1) As soon as practicable after February 5 of each current year, the property appraisers of the several counties shall mail to each person to whom homestead exemption was granted for the year immediately preceding and whose application for exemption for the current year has not been filed as of February 1 thereof, a form for application for homestead exemption, together with a notice reading substantially as follows:

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS ENTITLED TO HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

Records in this office indicate that you have not filed an application for homestead exemption for the current year.

If you wish to claim such exemption, please fill out the enclosed form and file it with your property appraiser on or before March 1, 19.....

Failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of said exemption for the year 19.....

..... (Property Appraiser).....

..... County, Florida

(2) The expenditure of funds for any of the requirements of this section is hereby declared to be for a county purpose and the board of county commissioners of each county shall appropriate and provide the necessary funds for such purposes.

196.131 Homestead exemptions; claims.—

(1) Each taxpayer who claims said exemption shall file one of said forms, properly filled out and executed, with the property appraiser on or before March 1 of each year; and the failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of said exemption for such year. At the time each taxpayer files claim for homestead exemption, the property appraiser shall deliver to him a receipt over his signature, or that of a duly authorized deputy, which shall appropriately identify the property covered in the application, shall bear date as of the day such application is received by the property appraiser, and shall include any serial number or other identifying data desired by said property appraiser. The possession of such receipt shall constitute conclusive proof of the timely filing of such application.

(2) Any person who shall knowingly give false information for the purpose of claiming homestead exemption as provided for in this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

196.141 Homestead exemptions; duty of property appraiser.—The property appraiser shall examine each claim for exemption filed with him or referred to him and shall allow the same if found to be in accordance with law, by marking the same approved and by making the proper deductions on the tax books. In every case the property shall be assessed whether of the value more or less than $5,000 and an appropriate deduction shall be made as the case may be.

History.—s. 6, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(7); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 6, ch. 79-332.

Note.—As amended by s. 6, ch. 79-332, effective upon approval of S.J.R. 1-B (1979) at a special election to be held March 11, 1980, or at the 1980 general election, and applicable to "assessment rolls for the year 1980 and each year thereafter," s. 196.141 will read:

196.141 Homestead exemptions; duty of property appraiser.—The property appraiser shall examine each claim for exemption filed with him or referred to him and shall allow the same, if found to be in accordance with law, by marking the same approved and by making the proper deductions on the tax books.

Note.—Former s. 192.17.

196.151 Homestead exemptions; approval, refusal, hearings.—The property appraisers of the several counties of the state shall, as soon as practicable after March 1 of each current year and prior to the first Monday in May of said year, carefully consider all applications for tax exemptions that shall have been filed in their respective offices on or before March 1 of that year. If upon such investigation the property appraiser finds the applicant entitled to the tax exemption applied for under the law, he shall mark the application "approved" and "exemption granted" and file same in the permanent records of his office and shall make such entries upon the tax rolls of his county as will be necessary to allow such exemption to the applicant. If, after due consideration, the property appraiser should find the applicant not to be entitled under the law to the exemption asked for, such property appraiser shall immediately make out in triplicate form a notice of such disapproval, giving his reasons therefor, a copy of which notice shall be served upon the applicant by the property appraiser either by personal delivery or by registered mail to the post-office address given by the applicant and shall make return of the manner in which such notice was served upon said applicant upon the original notice thereof and immediately file same with the clerk of the property appraisal adjustment board of said county. The third copy of said notice shall likewise have entered upon it the return of the property appraiser as to service had and filed among the permanent records of his office. The original notice of disapproval of application for exemption, with entry of service upon the applicant, when filed with the clerk of the property appraisal adjustment board, shall constitute an appeal of the applicant from the decision of the property appraiser refusing to allow the exemption for which application was made to the board, and said board shall review the application and evidence presented to the property appraiser upon which the applicant based his claim for exemption and shall hear the applicant in person or by agent on behalf of his right to such exemption. The property appraisal adjustment board shall reverse the decision of the property appraiser in said cause and grant exemption to the applicant if in its judgment the applicant is entitled thereto or affirm the decision of the property appraiser. Such action of the board shall be final in said cause unless the applicant shall, within 15 days from the date of refusal of said application of said board, file in the circuit court of the county in which the homestead is situated a proceeding against the property appraiser for a declaratory judgment as is provided by chapter 86 or other appropriate proceeding. The failure of the taxpayer to appear before the property appraiser or property appraisal adjustment board or to file any paper other than the application above provided shall not constitute any bar or defense to said proceedings.

196.161 Homestead exemptions; lien imposed on property of person claiming exemption although not a bona fide resident.—

(1) When the estate of any person is being probated or administered in another state under an allegation that such person was a resident of that state and the estate of such person contains real property situated in this state upon which homestead exemption has been allowed pursuant to s. 6, Art. VII of the State Constitution for any year or years within 10 years immediately prior to the death of the deceased, then within 3 years after the death of said person the property appraiser of the county where said real property is located shall, upon knowledge of said fact, record a notice of tax lien against said property among the public records of said county, and said property shall be subject to the payment of all taxes exempt thereunder, plus 6 percent interest per annum, unless the circuit court having jurisdiction over the ancillary administration in this state determines that the decedent was a bona fide resident of this state during the year or years an exemption was allowed, whereupon said lien shall not be filed or, if filed, shall be canceled of record by the property appraiser of the county where said real estate is located.

(2) The collection of the taxes provided in this section shall be in the same manner as existing ad valorem taxes, and the above procedure of recapturing said taxes shall be supplemental to any existing provision under the laws of this state.

(3) The lien herein provided shall not attach to the property until said notice of tax lien is filed among the public records of the county where the property is located. Prior to the filing of such notice of lien any purchaser for value of the subject property shall take free and clear of such lien.

(4) Notice of the lien described hereinabove shall be included on all applications for homestead exemption forms.

196.192 Exemptions from ad valorem taxation.—

(1) All property used exclusively for exempt purposes shall be totally exempt from ad valorem taxation.

(2) All property used predominantly for exempt purposes shall be exempted from ad valorem taxation to the extent of the ratio that such predominant use bears to the nonexempt use.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-133.

196.193 Exemption applications; review by property appraiser.—

(1)(a) All property exempted from the annual application requirement of s. 196.011 shall be returned, but shall be granted tax exemption by the property appraiser. However, no such property shall be exempt which is rented or hired out for other than religious, educational or other exempt purposes at any time.

(b) The property appraiser may deny exemption to property claimed by religious organizations to be used for any of the purposes set out in s. 196.011 if the use is not clear or if the property appraiser determines that the property is being held for speculative purposes or that it is being rented or hired out for other than religious or educational purposes.

(c) If the property appraiser does deny such property a tax exemption, appeal of the determination to the property appraisal adjustment board may be made in the manner prescribed for appealed tax exemptions.

(2) Applications required by this chapter shall be filed on forms distributed to the property appraisers by the Department of Revenue. Such forms shall call for accurate description of the property, the value of such property, and the use of such property.

(3) Upon receipt of an application for exemption the property appraiser shall determine:

(a) Whether the applicant falls within the definition of any one or several of the exempt classifications.

(b) Whether the applicant requesting exemption uses the property predominantly or exclusively for exempt purposes.

(c) The extent to which the property is used for exempt purposes.

In doing so, the property appraiser shall use the standards set forth in this chapter as applied by regulations of the Department of Revenue.

(4) The property appraiser shall find that the person or organization requesting exemption meets the requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) before any exemption can be granted.

(5) In the event the property appraiser shall determine that any property claimed as wholly or partially exempt under this section is not entitled to any exemption or is entitled to an exemption to an extent other than that requested in the application, he shall notify the person or organization filing the application on such property of that determination in writing not later than June 1 of the year for which the application was filed. All notifications must specify the right to appeal to the property appraisal adjustment board and the procedures to follow in obtaining such an appeal. Thereafter, the person or organization filing such application, or a duly designated representative, may appeal that determination by the property appraiser to the board at the time of its regular hearing. In the event of an appeal, the property appraiser or his representative shall appear at the board hearing and present his findings of fact. If the applicant is not present or represented at the hearing, the board may make a determination on the basis of information supplied by the property appraiser or such other information on file with the board.

History.—s. 5, ch. 71-133; s. 15, ch. 76-133; s. 1, ch. 77-102; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

196.194 Property appraisal adjustment board; notice; hearings; appearance before the board.—

(1) The property appraisal adjustment board shall hear disputed or appealed applications for exemption and shall grant such exemptions in whole or in part in accordance with criteria set forth in this chapter. It may review exemptions on its own motion or upon motion of the property appraiser. Review of an exemption application upon motion of the board shall not be held until the applicant has had at least 5 calendar days' notice of the board's intent to review the application.

(2) At least 2 weeks prior to the meeting of the property appraisal adjustment board, but no sooner than May 15, notice of the meeting shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county or, if no such newspaper is published within the county, notice shall be placed on the courthouse door and two other prominent places within the county. Such notice shall list:

(a) Applicants for exemption under this chapter that have had their applications wholly or partially approved by the property appraiser with the street address or, if no street address is available, another designation of location of the property granted the exemption, its assessed value, and the extent of the exemption granted. However, this notice shall not apply to exemptions granted pursuant to s. 196.031, s. 196.081, s. 196.091, s. 196.101, s. 196.199, or s. 196.202. The notice shall indicate that a list maintained by the property appraiser of all applicants for exemption under the above mentioned sections who have had their applications for exemption wholly or partially approved is available to the public, at a location specified in the notice, and the hours during which the list may be seen. The notice shall further indicate, by name, the types of exemptions which are included in the list.

(b) Applicants for exemption under this chapter that have had their applications denied by the property appraiser, with the street address or, if no street address is available, another designation of location of the property so denied and its assessed value. However, this notice shall not apply to exemptions authorized pursuant to s. 196.031, s. 196.081, s. 196.091, s. 196.101, or s. 196.202. The notice shall further indicate that a list maintained by the property appraiser of all applicants for exemption under the above mentioned sections who have had their applications for exemption denied is available to the public, at a location specified in the notice, and the hours during which the list may be seen. The notice shall further indicate, by name, the types of exemptions which are included in the list.

(3) The exemption procedures of the property appraisal adjustment board shall be as provided in chapter 194 except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Records of the property appraisal adjustment board showing the names of persons and organizations granted exemptions, the street address or other designation of location of the exempted property, and the extent of the exemptions granted shall be part of the public record.

History.—s. 6, ch. 71-133; s. 1, ch. 76-122; s. 16, ch. 76-133.

196.195 Criteria for determining profit or nonprofit status of applicant.—

(1) Applicants requesting exemption shall supply such fiscal and other records showing in reasonable detail the financial condition, record of operation, and exempt and nonexempt uses of the property, where appropriate, for the immediately preceding fiscal year as are requested by the property appraiser or the property appraisal adjustment board.

(2) In determining whether an applicant for a religious, literary, scientific, or charitable exemption under this chapter is a nonprofit or profit-making venture or whether the property is used for a profit-making purpose, the following criteria shall be applied:

(a) The reasonableness of any advances or payment directly or indirectly by way of salary, fee, loan, gift, bonus, gratuity, drawing account, commission, or otherwise (except for reimbursements of advances for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the applicant) to any person, company, or other entity directly or indirectly controlled by the applicant or any officer, director, trustee, member, or stockholder of the applicant;

(b) The reasonableness of any guaranty of a loan to, or an obligation of, any officer, director, trustee, member, or stockholder of the applicant or any entity directly or indirectly controlled by such person, or which pays any compensation to its officers, directors, trustees, members, or stockholders for services rendered to or on behalf of the applicant;

(c) The reasonableness of any contractual arrangement by the applicant or any officer, director, trustee, member, or stockholder of the applicant regarding rendition of services, the provision of goods or supplies, the management of the applicant, the construction or renovation of the property of the applicant, the procurement of the real, personal, or intangible property of the applicant, or other similar financial interest in the affairs of the applicant;

(d) The reasonableness of payments made for salaries for the operation of the applicant or for services, supplies and materials used by the applicant, reserves for repair, replacement, and depreciation of the property of the applicant, payment of mortgages, liens, and encumbrances upon the property of the applicant, or other purposes;

(e) The reasonableness of charges made by the applicant for any services rendered by it in relation to the value of those services.

(3) Each applicant must affirmatively show that no part of the subject property, or the proceeds of the sale, lease, or other disposition thereof, will inure to the benefit of its members, directors, or officers or any person or firm operating for profit or for a non-exempt purpose.

(4) No application for exemption may be granted for religious, literary, scientific, or charitable use of property until the applicant has been found by the property appraiser or, upon appeal, by the property appraisal adjustment board to be nonprofit as defined in this section.

History.—s. 7, ch. 71-133; s. 17, ch. 76-133.

196.196 Criteria for determining that portion of charitable, religious, scientific or literary property entitled to exempt status.—

(1) In the determination of whether an applicant is actually using all or a portion of its property predominantly for a charitable, religious, scientific, or literary purpose, the following criteria shall be applied:

(a) The nature and extent of the charitable, religious, scientific, or literary activity of the applicant, a comparison of such activities with all other activities of the organization, and the utilization of the property for charitable, religious, scientific or literary activities as compared with other uses.

(b) The extent to which the property has been made available to groups who perform exempt purposes, at a charge that is equal to or less than the cost of providing the facilities for their use, or the extent to which services are provided to persons at a charge that is equal to or less than the cost of providing such services. Such rental or service shall be considered as part of the exempt purposes of the applicant.

(2) Only those portions of property used predominantly for charitable, religious, scientific or literary purposes shall be exempt. In no event shall an incidental use of property either qualify such property for an exemption or impair the exemption of an otherwise exempt property.

(3) Except as otherwise provided herein, property claimed as exempt for literary, scientific, or charitable purposes which is used for profit-making purposes shall be subject to ad valorem taxation. Use of property for functions not requiring a business or occupational license conducted by the organization at its primary residence the revenue of which is used wholly for exempt purposes shall not be considered profit making. In this connection the playing of bingo on such property shall not be considered as using such property in such a manner as would impair its exempt status.

History.—s. 8, ch. 71-133.
cf.—s. 3, Art. VII, State Const.

196.197 Additional provisions for exempting property used by hospitals, nursing homes, and homes for special services.—In addition to criteria for granting exemptions for charitable use of property set forth in other sections of this chapter, hospitals, nursing homes, and homes for special services shall be exempt to the extent that they meet the following criteria:

(1) The applicant must be a Florida corporation not for profit that has been exempt as of January 1 of the year for which exemption from ad valorem property taxes is requested from federal income taxation by having qualified as an exempt organization under the provisions of s. 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of the corresponding section of a subsequently enacted federal revenue act.

(2) In determining the extent of exemption to be granted to institutions licensed as hospitals, nursing homes, and homes for special services, portions of the property leased as parking lots or garages operated by private enterprise shall not be deemed to be serving an exempt purpose and shall not be exempt from taxation. Property or facilities which are leased to a nonprofit corporation which provides direct medical services to patients in a nonprofit or public hospital and qualifies under s. 196.196 of this chapter are excluded and shall be exempt from taxation.

History.—s. 9, ch. 71-133; s. 2, ch. 73-340; s. 1, ch. 73-344; s. 3, ch. 74-264; ss. 14, 15, ch. 76-234.
cf.—s. 3, Art. VII, State Const.

196.1975 Additional provisions for exempting property used by homes for the aged.—In addition to criteria for granting exemptions for charitable use of property set forth in other sections of this chapter, homes for the aged shall be exempt to the extent that they meet the following criteria:

(1) The applicant must be a Florida corporation not for profit that has been exempt as of January 1 of the year for which exemption from ad valorem property taxes is requested from federal income taxation by having qualified as an exempt organization under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of the corresponding section of a subsequently enacted federal revenue act.

(2) Licensing by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall not be required for tax exemption hereunder if a home for the aged applicant requires its residents to be ambulatory, furnishes no medical facilities, nursing services, or dining services to its residents, and is exempt from the payment of income taxes to the United States for income derived from the operation of the home.

(3) Portions of the home for the aged devoted exclusively to the conduct of religious services or the rendering of nursing or medical services shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation.

(4)(a) After removing the assessed value exempted in subsection (3), homes for the aged shall be deemed to be used for charitable purposes only to the extent that residency in the applicant home is restricted to or occupied by persons who have resided in the applicant home and in good faith made the State of Florida their permanent home for 5 years prior to January 1 of the year in which exemption is claimed and also meet the requirements set forth in one of the following paragraphs:

1. Persons having a gross income of not more than $7,200 per year, who are 62 years of age or older.

2. Couples, one of whom must be 62 years of age or older, having a combined gross income of not more than $8,000 per year.

3. Persons who are totally and permanently disabled and have gross incomes of not more than $7,200 per year.

4. Couples, one or both of whom are totally and permanently disabled, having a combined gross income of not more than $8,000 per year.

However, the requirement for 5 consecutive years' residence shall not apply to any person who has lived in the home for the aged on or before July 4, 1976, or to nonprofit housing projects which are financed by a mortgage loan made or insured by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development made under s. 202 of the Housing Act of 1959, as amended, or s. 236 or s. 221(d)(3) of the National Housing Act, as the same shall apply to nonprofit rental housing programs for lower income elderly and handicapped persons.

(b) The maximum income limitations permitted in subsection (4) shall be adjusted, effective January 1, 1977, and on each succeeding year, by the percentage change in the average cost-of-living index in the period January 1 through December 31 of the immediate prior year compared with the same period for the year prior to that. The index is the average of the monthly consumer price index figures for the stated 12-month period, relative to the United States as a whole, issued by the United States Department of Labor.

(5) For the purposes of this section, gross income shall include social security benefits payable to the person or couple or assigned to an organization designated specifically for the support or benefit of that person or couple. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature that this section implements the ad valorem tax exemption authorized in the third sentence of s. 3(a), Art. VII, State Constitution, for purposes of granting such exemption to homes for the aged. The Legislature, while recognizing that problems facing the aged of the state frequently require the expenditure of public funds or the extending of charity to the aged by nongovernmental entities, realizes that not all aged persons are in need of public or private assistance. Age has its drawbacks and hardships which require special care and attention and are aggravated by indigency. Homes for the aged frequently provide such care and attention, but a home for the aged does not necessarily serve a charitable purpose. Charity is a function performed to help those in need of assistance and is not necessarily based exclusively on age. It is for this reason that the Legislature hereby provides criteria to be used by the state's property appraisers and property appraisal adjustment boards in determining whether a particular home for the aged is being used for a charitable purpose and is thereby entitled to an exemption from ad valorem taxation.

(6) Physical occupancy on January 1 shall not be required in those instances in which a home restricts occupancy to persons meeting the income requirements specified in this section. Those portions of such property failing to meet those requirements shall qualify for an alternative exemption as provided in subsection (7). In those homes in which at least 25 percent of the units or apartments of the home are restricted to or occupied by persons meeting the income requirements specified in this section, the common areas of said home shall be exempt from taxation.

(7)(a) Each unit or apartment of homes for the aged which are owned and operated by a Florida corporation organized under the provisions of chapter 617 not exempted in subsections (3) or (4), which property is used by such homes for the aged for the purposes for which they were organized, shall be exempt from all ad valorem taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, to the extent of $5,000 of assessed valuation of such property for each apartment or unit:

1. Which is used by such homes for the aged for the purposes for which they were organized, and

2. Which is occupied on January 1 of the year in which exemption from ad valorem property taxation is requested, by a person who resides therein and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home.

(b) The exemption provided for in paragraph (a) shall be increased to $10,000 of assessed valuation for taxes levied by governing bodies of school districts, counties, municipalities, and special districts for each apartment or unit:

1. Which is used by such homes for the aged for the purpose for which they were organized, and

2. Which is occupied on January 1 of the year in which exemption from ad valorem property taxation is requested, by a person who is 65 years of age or older and who has resided therein and in good faith made the State of Florida his or her permanent home for the 5 consecutive years prior to such date. However, the requirement for 5 consecutive years' residence shall not apply to any person who has lived in the home for the aged on or before July 4, 1976.

(c)1. Each applicant home for an exemption under paragraph (a) shall file with the annual application for exemption an affidavit from each person who occupies a unit or apartment for which an exemption under said paragraph is claimed, stating that he or she resides therein and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home.

2. Each applicant home for the increased exemption under paragraph (b) shall file with the annual application for exemption an affidavit from each person who occupies a unit or apartment for which such increased exemption is claimed, stating that he or she was 65 years of age or older on January 1 of the year in which the exemption is claimed and that he or she has resided in the state for the 5 consecutive years prior to such date.

(d) The words "permanent home" as used in this section shall not be construed so as to require a continuous physical residence in such unit or apartment but means only that the person occupying such apartment or unit rightfully and in good faith calls it his or her home to the exclusion of all other places where he or she may, from time to time, temporarily reside.

196.1976 Provisions of ss. 196.1975 or 196.197(1) or (2); severability.—If any provision of s. 196.1975 or subsections 196.197(1) or (2), created and amended by chapter 76-234, Laws of Florida, is held to be invalid or inoperative for any reason, it is the legislative intent that the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of said sections which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of said sections are declared to be severable.

History.—s. 18, ch. 76-234; s. 2, ch. 77-448; s. 88, ch. 79-400.

196.198 Educational property; exemption.—Educational institutions within this state and their property used exclusively for educational purposes shall be exempt from taxation. Sheltered workshops providing rehabilitation and retraining of disabled individuals and exempted by a certificate under s. (d) of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, are declared wholly educational in purpose and shall be exempted from certification, accreditation, and membership requirements set forth in s. 196.012. Those portions of property of college fraternities and sororities certified by the president of the college or university to the appropriate property appraiser as being essential to the educational process, shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation. The use of property by public fairs and expositions chartered by chapter 616 is presumed to be an educational use of such property and shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation to the extent of such use.

History.—s. 10, ch. 71-133; s. 1, ch. 77-102.
cf.—s. 3, Art. VII, State Const.

196.1985 Exemptions for property owned and used by labor organizations.—Real property owned and used by any labor organization which has a charter from a state or national organization, which property is used predominantly by such organization for educational purposes, is hereby defined as property within the purview of s. 3, Art. VII of the State Constitution and shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation to the extent of such use pursuant to s. 196.192(2). Any portion of such property used for nonexempt purposes may be valued and placed upon the tax rolls separately from any portion entitled to exemption pursuant to this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-459.

196.199 Exemptions for property owned by governmental units.—

(1) Property owned and used by the following governmental units shall be exempt from taxation under the following conditions:

(a) All property of the United States shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation, except such property as is subject to tax by this state or any political subdivision thereof or any municipality under any law of the United States.

(b) All property of this state which is used for governmental purposes shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation except as otherwise provided by law.

(c) All property of the several political subdivisions and municipalities of this state which is used for governmental, municipal, or public purposes shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation, except as otherwise provided by law.

(2) Property owned by the following governmental units, but used by nongovernmental lessees, shall only be exempt from taxation under the following conditions:

(a) Leasehold interests in property of the United States, of the state or any of its several political subdivisions, or of municipalities, agencies, authorities, and other public bodies corporate of the state shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation only when the lessee serves or performs a governmental, municipal, or public purpose or function, as defined in s. 196.012(5). In all such cases, all other interests in the leased property shall also be exempt from ad valorem taxation.

(b) The exemption provided by this subsection shall not apply to those portions of a leasehold estate which are used predominantly for a private, commercial purpose and serve no governmental, municipal, or public purpose.

(c) Any governmental property leased to an organization which uses the property exclusively for literary, scientific, religious, or charitable purposes shall be exempt from taxation.

(3) Nothing herein or in s. 196.001 shall require a governmental unit or authority to impose taxes upon a leasehold estate created, extended, or renewed prior to April 15, 1976, if the lease agreement creating such leasehold estate contains a covenant on the part of such governmental unit or authority as lessor to refrain from imposing taxes on the leasehold estate during the term of the leasehold estate, but any such covenant shall not prevent taxation of a leasehold estate by any such taxing unit or authority other than the unit or authority making such covenant.

(4) Property owned by any municipality, agency, authority, or other public body corporate of the state which becomes subject to a leasehold interest or other possessory interest of a nongovernmental lessee other than that described in paragraph (a) of subsection (2), after April 14, 1976, shall be subject to ad valorem taxation unless the lessee is an organization which uses the property exclusively for literary, scientific, religious, or charitable purposes.

(5) Leasehold interests in governmental property shall not be exempt pursuant to this subsection unless an application for exemption has been filed on or before March 1 with the property appraiser. The property appraiser shall review the application and make findings of fact which shall be presented to the property appraisal adjustment board at its convening, whereupon the board shall take appropriate action regarding the application. If the exemption in whole or in part is granted, or established by judicial proceeding, it shall remain valid for the duration of the lease unless the lessee changes its use, in which case the lessee shall again submit an application for exemption. The requirements set forth in s. 196.194 shall apply to all applications made under this subsection.

(6) No exemption granted before June 1, 1976, shall be revoked by this chapter if such revocation will impair any existing bond agreement.

(7) Property which is originally leased for 99 years or more, exclusive of renewal options, shall be deemed to be "owned" for purposes of this section.

(8)(a) Any and all of the aforesaid taxes on any leasehold described in this section shall not become a lien on same or the property itself, but shall constitute a debt due and shall be recoverable by legal action or by the issuance of tax executions that shall become liens upon any other property in any county of this state of the taxpayer who owes said tax.

(b) Nonpayment of any such taxes by the lessee shall result in the revocation of any occupational license of such person or the revocation, upon certification hereunder by the property appraiser to the Department of State, of the corporate charter of any such domestic corporation or the revocation, upon certification hereunder by the property appraiser to the Department of State, of the authority of any foreign corporation to do business in Florida, as appropriate, which such license, charter, or authority is related to the leased property.

196.2001 Exemption for property owned by a not-for-profit sewer and water company.—

(1) Property of any sewer and water company owned or operated by a Florida corporation not for profit, the income from which has been exempt, as of January 1 of the year for which the exemption from ad valorem property taxes is requested, from federal income taxation by having qualified under s. 115(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of a corresponding section of a subsequently enacted federal revenue act, shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation, provided the following criteria for exemption are met by the not-for-profit sewer and water company:

(a) Net income derived by the company does not inure to any private shareholder or individual.

(b) Gross receipts do not constitute gross income for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Members of the company's governing board serve without compensation.

(d) Rates for services rendered by the company are established by the governing board of the county or counties within which the company provides service; by the Public Service Commission, in those counties in which rates are regulated by the commission; or by the Farmers Home Administration.

(e) Ownership of the company reverts to the county in which the company conducts its business upon retirement of all outstanding indebtedness of the company.

Notwithstanding anything above, no exemption shall be granted until the property appraiser has considered the proposed exemption and has made a specific finding that the water and sewer company in question performs a public purpose in the absence of which the expenditure of public funds would be required.

(2)(a) No exemption authorized pursuant to this section shall be granted unless the company applies to the property appraiser on or before March 1 of each year for such exemption. In its annual application for exemption, the company shall provide the property appraiser with the following information:

1. Financial statements for the immediately preceding fiscal year, certified by an independent certified public accountant, showing the financial condition and records of operation of the company for that fiscal year.

2. Any other records or information as may be requested by the property appraiser for the purposes of determining whether the requirements of subsection (1) have been met.

(b) The exemption from ad valorem taxation shall not be granted to a not-for-profit sewer and water company unless the company meets the criteria set forth in subsection (1). In determining whether the company is operated as a profit-making venture, the property appraiser shall consider the following:

1. Any advances or payments directly or indirectly by way of salary, fee, loan, gift, bonus, gratuity, drawing account, commission, or otherwise (except for reimbursement of advances for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the applicant) to any person, company, or other entity directly or indirectly controlled by such persons, or which pays any compensation to its officers, directors, trustees, members, or stockholders for services rendered to or on behalf of the corporation;

2. Any contractual arrangement by the corporation with any officer, director, trustee, member, or stockholder of the corporation regarding rendition of services, the provision of goods or supplies, the management of applicant, the construction or renovation of the property of the corporation, the procurement of the real, personal, or intangible property of the corporation, or other similar financial interest in the affairs of the corporation;

3. The reasonableness of payments made for salaries for the operations of the corporation or for services, supplies, and materials used by the corporation, reserves for repair, replacement, and depreciation of the property of the corporation, payment of mortgages, liens, and encumbrances upon the property of the corporation, or other purposes.

196.28 Cancellation of delinquent taxes upon lands used for road purposes, etc.—

(1) The board of county commissioners of each county of the state be and it is hereby given full power and authority to cancel and discharge any and all liens for taxes, delinquent or current, held or owned by the county or the state, upon lands, heretofore or hereafter, conveyed to, or acquired by any agency, governmental subdivision or municipality of the state, or the United States, for road purposes, defense purposes, recreation, reforestation or other public use; and said lands shall be exempt from county taxation so long as the same are used for such public purpose.

(2) Such cancellation shall be by resolution of the board of county commissioners, duly adopted and entered upon its minutes, properly describing such lands, and setting forth the public use to which the same are, or will be, devoted. Upon receipt of a certified copy of such resolution, the proper officials of the county, and of the state, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make proper entries upon the records to accomplish such cancellation and to do all things necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and to make the same effective, this section being their authority so to do.

Note.—Former s. 192.59.

196.29 Cancellation of certain taxes on real property acquired by counties.—Whenever any county or school board of this state has heretofore acquired, or shall hereafter acquire, title to any real property, the taxes of all political subdivisions, as defined in s. 1.01, upon such property for the year in which title to such property was acquired, or shall hereafter be acquired, shall be that portion of the taxes levied or accrued against such property for such year which the portion of such year which has expired at the date of such acquisition bears to the entire year, and the remainder of such taxes for such year shall stand canceled.

Note.—Former s. 192.60.

196.295 Property transferred to exempt governmental unit; tax payment into escrow.—In the event fee title to property shall be acquired between January 1 and November 1 of any year by a governmental unit exempt under this chapter by any means except condemnation or shall be acquired by any means except condemnation for use exclusively for federal, state, county, or municipal purposes, the taxpayer shall be required to place in escrow with the county tax collector an amount equal to the current taxes prorated to the date of transfer of title, based upon the current assessment and millage rates on the land involved. This fund shall be used to pay any ad valorem taxes due, and the remainder of taxes which would otherwise have been due for that current year shall stand canceled.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-234; s. 1, ch. 75-103.

196.31 Taxes against state properties; notice.—Whenever lands or other property of the state or of any agency thereof are situated within any district, subdistrict or governmental unit for the purpose of taxation, which said lands or any of them or other property, are or shall be subject to special assessments or taxes, the tax collector or other tax collecting agency having authority to collect such taxes or special assessments shall, upon such taxes or special assessments becoming legally due and payable, mail to the state agency or department holding such land or other property, or if held by the state, then to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund at Tallahassee, a notice and make notation under the same date of such notice on the tax roll, which said notice shall contain a description of the lands or other property owned by the state or its agency upon which taxes or special assessments have been levied and are collectible, and the amount of such special assessments or taxes, and unless such notation of notice on the tax roll shall have been made, any nonpayment by the said state or its agency of taxes or special assessments shall not constitute a delinquency or be the basis on which the said lands or other property may be sold for the nonpayment of such taxes or special assessments.

197.012 When taxes due; discounts if paid before certain time.—All taxes shall be due and payable on November 1 of each year or as soon thereafter as the assessment roll, of which he shall give notice by publication, may come into the hands of the tax collector. The tax collector is hereby vested with the power, and it shall be his duty, to collect all taxes as shown on the tax roll, which taxes shall become delinquent on April 1 following the year in which they are assessed. On all taxes assessed on the county tax rolls and collected by the county tax collector, discounts for early payment thereof shall be at the rate of 4 percent in the month of November and at any time within 30 days after the mailing of the original tax notice; 3 percent in the month of December; 2 percent in the following month of January; and 1 percent in the following month of February. The taxes paid in March shall be without discount. It shall also be his duty, and he is hereby vested with the power, to collect by sale of the tax liens on the real property and by seizure and sale of personal property, all taxes assessed on the roll and which are not paid prior to April 1 of the year following the year in which the taxes are assessed.

Note.—Former ss. 193.41, 197.055.

197.013 Prepayment of estimated tax by installment method.—

(1) Ad valorem taxes on any real property may be prepaid in installments as provided in this section. A taxpayer who elects to prepay taxes shall make payments based upon an estimated tax, equal to the actual taxes levied upon the subject property in the prior year. Such taxpayer shall complete and file with the tax collector prior to making the first installment payment pursuant to this section an application to prepay such taxes by installment. The application shall be made on forms supplied by the Department of Revenue and provided to the taxpayer by the tax collector. Installment payments shall be made according to the following schedule:

(a) The first payment of one-quarter of the total amount of estimated taxes due shall be made in June of the year in which the taxes are assessed. A 6 percent discount applied against the amount of the installment shall be granted for such payment.

(b) The second payment of one-quarter of the total amount of estimated taxes due shall be made in September of the year in which the taxes are assessed. A 4.5 percent discount applied against the amount of the installment shall be granted for such payment.

(c) The third payment of one-quarter of the total amount of estimated taxes due, plus one-half of any adjustment made pursuant to a determination of actual tax liability, shall be made in December of the year in which taxes are assessed. A 3 percent discount applied against the amount of the installment shall be granted for such payment.

(d) The fourth payment of one-quarter of the total amount of estimated taxes due, plus one-half of any adjustment made pursuant to a determination of actual tax liability, shall be made in March following the year in which taxes are assessed. No discount shall be granted for such payment.

(2) A taxpayer who fails to make a timely installment payment shall not be required to discontinue his participation in the installment payment plan. Instead, such taxpayer shall be required to remit with his next installment payment an amount equal to the current installment amount plus any installment amount due but unpaid. The applicable discount rate for the current installment shall be applied against the sum of the current and past due installment payment amounts.

(3) Nothing in this section shall preclude a taxpayer who has applied for the installment method of payment or who has made one or more installment payments from discontinuing his participation in such plan. In such event, the remainder of the taxpayer's taxes shall be due and payable as provided in s. 197.012.

(4) Upon receiving a taxpayer's application for participation in the prepayment installment plan, the tax collector shall mail to the taxpayer a statement of the taxpayer's estimated tax liability which shall be equal to the actual taxes levied on the subject property in the preceding year, and which statement shall indicate the amount of each quarterly installment after application of the discount rates provided in this section, and a payment schedule, based upon the schedule provided in this section and furnished by the Department of Revenue. During the first month that the tax roll is open for payment of taxes, the tax collector shall mail to such taxpayer a statement which shows the amount of the remaining installment payments to be made after application of the discount rates provided in this section.

(5) The moneys collected under this section shall be placed in an interest-earning escrow account. The interest earned on this account shall be distributed as provided in s. 197.016(2).

(6) Notice of the right to prepay taxes pursuant to this section shall be provided by publication in a newspaper of general circulation within the county twice each year during the month of May. Such notice shall be no less than one-quarter page in size of a standard-size or a tabloid-size newspaper, and the headline in the notice shall be in a type no smaller than 18 point. Such notice shall not be published in that section of the newspaper where legal or classified advertisements appear. In addition, the tax collector shall mail to the owner of each parcel appearing on the assessment roll an application form that includes an explanation of the right to prepay taxes pursuant to this section. The application forms shall be provided by the Department of Revenue and shall accompany the notice of taxes provided for by s. 197.012. Said newspaper notice shall include a facsimile of the application form for installment payment as issued by the department pursuant to subsection (1), and may be used by the taxpayer in lieu thereof.

History.—s. 18, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As created by s. 18, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

197.014 Payment of taxes prior to certified roll procedure.—

(1) It is the legislative intent to provide a method for voluntary payment of ad valorem taxes when the tax roll cannot be certified for collection of taxes in time to allow payment prior to January 1 of the current tax year. It is the legislative intent that all taxpayers shall be afforded the opportunity to pay estimated taxes pursuant to this section.

(2) When it appears that it shall be impossible for the property appraiser to certify the tax roll for collection in time sufficient to allow payment of current taxes prior to January 1, the property appraiser shall certify such circumstances in writing to the tax collector on or before December 1 and shall provide to the collector a true copy of the preceding year's tax roll as certified for collection and statement of current year's millages from taxing authorities which have so certified. The property appraiser's certification shall constitute authority for the collector to receive payments of estimated taxes.

(3) Immediately upon receipt of the property appraiser's certification, the tax collector shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, and shall prominently post at the courthouse door, a notice that the tax roll will not be certified for collection prior to January 1 and that payments of estimated taxes will be allowed by those taxpayers who tender payment to the collector on or before December 31.

(4) The tax collector shall accept payment of estimated current taxes based upon an amount equal to the taxes levied against the parcel in the previous year or an amount the tax collector deems to be a more accurate representation of the taxpayer's current tax liability.

(5) When estimated taxes are paid, the collector shall issue a validated temporary tax notice-receipt. Estimated taxes collected pursuant to this section shall be accounted for, deposited, and distributed as provided generally for ad valorem taxes. However, no distribution shall be made of estimated taxes until receipt of a tax roll properly certified for collection, except upon request for an emergency distribution made by the governing body of a taxing authority, certifying a lack of funds for current operations.

(6) Discounts shall not be allowed on payments of estimated taxes, but shall be allowed on the amount of total taxes levied, determined at the time the tax roll has been certified for collection and final tax notice-receipts are issued.

(7) Interest earned on payments of estimated taxes prior to certification of the tax roll for collection shall be retained by the tax collector's office and disbursed as follows:

(a) First, to pay the expenses of the tax collector's office in administering and accounting for payments of estimated taxes;

(b) Second, any excess remaining shall be distributed pro rata to the taxing authorities in the proportion that each authority's tax levy for the prior tax year bears to the total ad valorem tax levy for the prior tax year; however, a taxing authority which has requested and received an emergency distribution of estimated taxes shall not receive this distribution.

(8) Upon receipt of the tax roll certified for collection, the tax collector shall prepare a tax notice-receipt for each taxpayer who has made payment of estimated taxes, showing the amount of estimated taxes paid and the taxes remaining unpaid or any overpayment. Each such tax notice-receipt shall show the periods in which discounts are authorized, the amount of discount, and the discount applied to the estimated taxes with the appropriate remainder due.

(9) After the discount has been applied to the estimated taxes paid and it is determined that an overpayment has occurred, the following shall apply:

(a) If the amount of overpayment is $5.00 or less, then no refund shall be processed.

(b) If the amount of overpayment is more than $5.00, the tax collector shall immediately refund to the person who paid the estimated tax the amount of overpayment. Department of Revenue approval shall not be required for the refund of overpayment made pursuant to this subsection.

(10) Any remaining unpaid taxes which become delinquent after notice by the tax collector shall be collected as are other delinquent taxes pursuant to this chapter.

(11) Payment of estimated taxes shall not preclude the right of the taxpayer to challenge his assessment as provided in chapter 194.

History.—s. 28, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As created by s. 28, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1980 and each year thereafter.

197.016 When collections are to be made; distributions to taxing authorities; when taxes are delinquent; time of final settlement.—

(1) Tax collectors are required to make all collections before April 1 following the year in which the taxes were assessed. All taxes collected shall be delivered forthwith to the governmental unit levying the tax. All unpaid taxes upon real and personal property shall become delinquent on April 1 of the year following the year in which the taxes were assessed. Real property taxes shall bear interest at the rate of 18 percent per year from that date until a certificate is sold, from which time the interest rate shall be as bid by the buyer. Delinquent taxes on real property may be paid after April 1 but prior to the sale of a tax certificate by paying all taxes, costs, advertising charges, and interest. Personal property taxes shall bear interest at 18 percent per year from April 1 until paid or barred under chapter 95.

(2) The collector shall distribute to each taxing authority taxes collected according to the following schedule: During the first 2 months after the tax roll comes into his possession for collection, there shall be at least four distributions; in all other months there shall be at least one. A different schedule may be used if the collector and the governing board of the taxing authority mutually agree.

(3) On or before the third Monday in July following the year in which the taxes were assessed, the collector shall make a final report and settlement with the county commissioners. All warrants now outstanding shall be in full force until all the taxes remaining unpaid shall have been collected and the final report and settlement made by the tax collector with the county authorities, and all warrants heretofore issued or to be issued shall be in full force in the hands of any successor of the tax collector to whom they may have been issued.

(4) The tax collector of every county in this state shall collect the taxes so assessed on railroad spurs and sidetracks by the county property appraiser or the Department of Revenue as other personal taxes are collected.

197.0161 Calculation of interest.—Except as provided in s. 197.0168 with regard to deferred payment tax certificates, interest to be accrued pursuant to this chapter shall be calculated on a monthly basis from the first day of each month. Certificate holders shall draw no interest during the period of time the 3 percent mandatory charge under s. 197.062(3) is in effect.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-32.

197.0163 Short title.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Homestead Property Tax Deferral Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-301.

197.0164 Definitions.

(1) "Household" means a person or group of persons living together in a room or group of rooms as a housing unit.

¹(2) "Income" means the "adjusted gross income," as defined in s. 62 of the United States Internal Revenue Code, of all members of a household.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-301; s. 1, ch. 78-161; s. 19, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As amended by s. 19, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1979 and each year thereafter.

197.0165 Homestead tax deferral.

¹(2)(a) Approval of an application for tax deferral shall defer that portion of ad valorem taxes otherwise due and payable on the applicant's homestead pursuant to s. 197.012 which exceeds 5 percent of the applicant's household's income for the prior calendar year.

(b) In the event the applicant is entitled to claim the increased exemption by reason of age and residency as provided in s. 196.031(3)(a), approval of such application shall defer that portion of said taxes which exceeds 3 percent of the applicant's household's income for the prior calendar year.

(c) The household income of an applicant who applies for a tax deferral before the end of the calendar year in which the taxes are assessed shall be for the current year, adjusted to reflect estimated income for the full calendar year period.

(3) No tax deferral shall be granted:

(a) If the total amount of deferred taxes and interest plus the total amount of all other unsatisfied liens on the homestead exceeds 85 percent of the assessed value of the homestead, or

(b) If the primary mortgage financing on the homestead is for an amount which exceeds 70 percent of the assessed value of the homestead.

(4) The amount of taxes and interest deferred pursuant to this act shall accrue interest at a rate equal to the semiannually compounded rate of one-half of 1 percent plus the average yield to maturity of the long-term fixed-income portion of the Florida Retirement System investments as of the end of the quarter preceding the date of the sale of the deferred payment tax certificates.

(5) The taxes and interest deferred pursuant to this act shall constitute a prior lien and shall attach as of the date and in the same manner and be collected as other liens for taxes, as provided for under this chapter, but such deferred taxes shall only be due, payable, and delinquent as provided in this act.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-301; s. 2, ch. 78-161; s. 20, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As amended by s. 20, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1979 and each year thereafter.

197.0166 Homestead tax deferral; application.

¹(1) The application for deferral shall be made upon a form prescribed by the Department of Revenue and furnished by the county tax collector. The application form shall be signed upon oath by the applicant before an officer authorized by the state to administer oaths. The tax collector may, in his discretion, require the applicant to submit such other evidence and documentation as deemed necessary by the tax collector in considering the application. The application form shall advise the applicant of the manner in which interest is computed. Each application form shall contain an explanation of the conditions to be met for approval and the conditions under which deferred taxes and interest become due, payable, and delinquent. Each application shall clearly state that all deferrals pursuant to this act shall constitute a lien on the applicant's homestead.

(2)(a) The tax collector shall consider each annual application for homestead tax deferral within 30 days of the day the application is filed or as soon as practicable thereafter. If the tax collector finds that the applicant is entitled to the tax deferral, he shall approve the application and file the application in the permanent records. If the tax collector finds the applicant is not entitled to the deferral, he shall send a notice of disapproval within 30 days of the filing of the application, giving his reasons therefor to the applicant, either by personal delivery or by registered mail to the mailing address given by the applicant, and shall make return in which such notice was served upon the applicant upon the original notice thereof and file among the permanent records of his office. The original notice of disapproval sent to the applicant shall advise the applicant of his right to appeal the decision of the tax collector to the property appraisal adjustment board and shall inform the applicant of the procedure for filing such an appeal.

(b) Appeals of the decision of the tax collector to the property appraisal adjustment board shall be in writing on a form prescribed by the Department of Revenue and furnished by the tax collector. Such appeal shall be filed with the property appraisal adjustment board within 20 days after the applicant's receipt of the notice of disapproval. The property appraisal adjustment board shall review the application and evidence presented to the tax collector upon which the applicant based his claim for tax deferral and, at the election of the applicant, shall hear the applicant in person, or by agent on his behalf, on his right to homestead tax deferral. The property appraisal adjustment board shall reverse the decision of the tax collector and grant homestead tax deferral to the applicant, if in its judgment the applicant is entitled thereto, or affirm the decision of the tax collector. Such action of the property appraisal adjustment board shall be final unless the applicant or tax collector or other lienholder, within 15 days from the date of disapproval of the application by the board, files in the circuit court of the county in which the property is located, a proceeding for a declaratory judgment or other appropriate proceeding.

(3) Each application shall contain a list of, and the current value of, all outstanding liens on the applicant's homestead.

(4) For approved applications, the date of receipt by the tax collector of the application for tax deferral shall be used in calculating taxes due and payable net of discounts for early payment as provided for by s. 197.012.

(5) If such proof has not been furnished with a prior application, each applicant shall furnish proof of fire and extended coverage insurance in an amount which is in excess of the sum of all outstanding liens and deferred taxes and interest with a loss payable clause to the county tax collector.

(6) The tax collector shall notify the property appraiser in writing of those parcels for which taxes have been deferred.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-301; s. 3, ch. 78-161; s. 21, ch. 79-334.

Note.—As amended by s. 21, ch. 79-334, applies to assessment rolls and taxes levied thereon for the year 1979 and each year thereafter.

197.0167 Annual notification to property owner.—

(1) The tax collector shall notify the owner of record of each parcel appearing on the real property assessment roll of the right to defer payment of taxes pursuant to ss. 197.0163-197.0174. Such notice shall be printed on the back of envelopes used for mailing the notice of taxes provided for by s. 197.072. Such notice of the right to defer payment of taxes shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS ENTITLED TO HOMESTEAD EXEMPTION

Florida law entitles you to DEFER PAYMENT of that portion of the property taxes levied against your homestead which exceeds 5 percent (3 percent for senior citizens) of your household income, subject to certain conditions. Interest is charged on deferred taxes at a rate set by law. The deferred taxes and interest are treated as a lien against your homestead.

Application for deferral of payment must be made on or before January 31 of each year. Application forms are available from your county tax collector.

(2) On or before November 1 of each year, the tax collector shall notify each property owner to whom a tax deferral has been previously granted of the accumulated sum of deferred taxes and interest outstanding.

(3) In the event the tax collector has envelopes delivered to his office or on order prior to July 3, 1979, the notice required in subsection (1) may, for the mailing of 1979 tax notices only, be printed on a separate sheet of paper and enclosed with each tax notice.

History.—s. 5, ch. 77-301; s. 22, ch. 79-334.

197.0168 Deferred payment tax certificates.—

(1) The tax collector shall notify each local governing body of the amount of taxes deferred which would otherwise have been collected for such governing body. The county shall then, at the time of the tax certificate sale held pursuant to s. 197.116, conduct a separate deferred payment tax certificate sale in the manner set forth in said section. The maximum rate of interest for deferred payment tax certificates shall be equal to the semiannually compounded rate of 0.5 percent plus the average yield to maturity of the long-term fixed-income portion of the Florida Retirement System investments as of the end of the quarter preceding the date of the sale of the deferred payment tax certificates, as certified to the tax collector by the State Board of Administration; however, the tax collector shall accept bids in even increments and in fractional interest rate bids of 0.25 percent only.

(2) If there remain unsold certificates following the sale of deferred payment tax certificates in accordance with the procedure set forth in s. 197.116, the county shall:

(a) Hold the unsold certificates until such time as deferred taxes plus interest become due; or

(b) Offer the unsold certificates for purchase to the State Board of Administration. Upon such offer to the State Board of Administration, the board shall purchase said certificates; however, not more than 10 percent of any fund shall be invested in such certificates as specified in s. 215.47(2)(e).

(3) The certificates so held by the county or purchased by the State Board of Administration shall bear interest at a rate equal to the semiannually compounded rate of one-half of 1 percent plus the average yield to maturity of the long-term fixed-income portion of the Florida Retirement System investments as of the end of the quarter preceding the date of the sale of the deferred payment tax certificates.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-301; s. 4, ch. 78-161.

197.0169 Change in ownership or use of property.—

(1) In the event that there is a change in use of tax-deferred property such that the owner is no longer entitled to claim homestead exemption for such property pursuant to s. 196.031(1), or such person fails to maintain the required fire and extended insurance coverage, the total amount of deferred taxes and interest for all previous years shall be due and payable November 1 of the year in which the change in use occurs or on the date failure to maintain insurance occurs and shall be delinquent on April 1 of the year following the year in which the change in use or failure to maintain insurance occurs.

(2) In the event that there is a change in ownership of tax-deferred property, the total amount of deferred taxes and interest for all previous years shall be due and payable on the date the change in ownership takes place and shall be delinquent on April 1 following said date. When, however, the change in ownership is to a surviving spouse and such spouse is eligible to claim homestead exemption on such property pursuant to s. 196.031(1), such surviving spouse may continue the deferment of previously deferred taxes and interest pursuant to the provisions of this act.

(3) Whenever the property appraiser discovers that there has been a change in the ownership or use of property which has been granted a tax deferral, he shall notify the tax collector in writing of the date such change occurs, and the tax collector shall collect any taxes and interest due or delinquent.

(4) During any year in which the total amount of deferred taxes, interest, and all other unsatisfied liens on the homestead exceeds 85 percent of the assessed value of the homestead, the tax collector shall immediately notify the owner of the property on which taxes and interest have been deferred that the portion of taxes and interest which exceeds 85 percent of the assessed value of the homestead shall be due and payable within 30 days of receipt of the notice. Failure to pay the amount due shall cause the total amount of deferred taxes and interest to become delinquent.

(5) Each year, upon notification, each owner of property on which taxes and interest have been deferred shall submit to the tax collector a list of, and the current value of, all outstanding liens on the owner's homestead. Failure to respond to this notification within 30 days shall cause the total amount of deferred taxes and interest to become payable within 30 days.

History.—s. 7, ch. 77-301; s. 5, ch. 78-161.

197.017 Prepayment of deferred taxes.—

(1) All or part of the deferred taxes and accrued interest may at any time be paid to the tax collector by:

(a) The owner of the property or the spouse of the owner.

(b) The next of kin of the owner, heir of the owner, child of the owner, or any person having or claiming a legal or equitable interest in the property, provided no objection is made by the owner within 30 days after the tax collector notifies the owner of the fact that such payment has been tendered.

(2) Any partial payment made pursuant to this section shall be applied first to accrued interest.

History.—s. 8, ch. 77-301.

197.0171 Distribution of payments.—When any deferred taxes or interest is collected, the tax collector shall maintain a record of the payment, setting forth a description of the property and the amount of taxes or interest collected for such property. The tax collector shall distribute payments received in accordance with the procedures for distribution of ad valorem taxes or redemption moneys as prescribed in this chapter.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-301; s. 6, ch. 78-161.

197.0172 Construction.—Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the collection of personal property taxes which become a lien against tax-deferred property, defer payment of special assessments to benefited property, or affect any provision of any mortgage or other instrument relating to property requiring a person to pay ad valorem taxes.

History.—s. 10, ch. 77-301.

197.0173 Penalties.—

(1) The following penalties shall be imposed on any person who willfully files information required under s. 197.0165 or s. 197.0169 which is incorrect:

(a) Such person shall pay the total amount of taxes and interest deferred, which amount shall immediately become due;

(b) Such person shall be disqualified from filing a homestead tax deferral application for the next 3 years; and

(c) Such person shall pay a penalty of 25 percent of the total amount of taxes and interest deferred.

(2) Any person against whom the penalties prescribed in this section have been imposed may appeal the penalties imposed to the Property Appraisal Adjustment Board within 30 days after said penalties are imposed.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-301.

197.0174 Payment by mortgagee.—If any mortgagee shall elect to pay the taxes when an applicant qualifies for tax deferral, then such election shall not give the mortgagee the right to foreclose.

History.—s. 12, ch. 77-301.

197.018 Tax certificate notice.—The tax collector shall mail to each taxpayer, at the address shown on the latest tax roll, a notice stating that there is a tax certificate against a parcel of real property taxable to him. The notice shall be given by first-class mail annually with or prior to the mailing of the current tax notices.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 15, ch. 74-234.

197.026 Correcting erroneous returns.—If any tax collector has reason to believe that any taxpayer has filed an erroneous or incomplete statement of his personal property or has not returned the full amount of all his property subject to taxation, the collector shall notify the property appraiser of the erroneous or incomplete statement.

History.—s. 38, ch. 4322, 1895; s. 5, ch. 4515, 1897; GS 538; s. 37, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 737; CGL 945; s. 8, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former ss. 193.37, 197.031.

197.032 Double assessment.—When any tax collector discovers that any land has been assessed more than once for the same year's taxes, he shall collect only the tax justly due thereon, and shall make return of the balance as a double assessment and shall be credited therefor by the county commissioners and Department of Revenue, and he shall notify the different parties to whom the property is assessed. He shall also report to the county commissioners the errors, double assessments and insolvencies for which he is to be credited under different heads, giving in every case the names of the parties on whose account the credit is to be allowed.

History.—s. 46, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 548; s. 45, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 746; CGL 959; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 193.38, 197.035.

197.046 Land shall not be subdivided; no plat filed until taxes paid.—No land shall be divided or subdivided and no drawing or plat of the division or subdivision of any land shall be filed or recorded in the public records of any court until all taxes have been paid on the land.

History.—s. 2½, ch. 22079, 1943; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.56, 197.051.

cf.—Chapter 177 Maps and plats.

197.052 Destruction of 20-year-old tax receipts.—The tax collector in each county of the state is authorized to destroy all duplicate tax receipts and microfilm of tax receipts on file in his office as they become 20 years old. Tax receipts may be destroyed after 5 years if microfilmed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26891, 1951; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 193.391, 197.240.

197.056 Lien of taxes.—

(1) All taxes imposed pursuant to the Constitution and laws of this state shall be a first lien, superior to all other liens, on any property against which the taxes have been assessed, and shall continue in full force from January 1 of the year the taxes were levied until discharged by payment or until barred by chapter 95. All personal property tax liens, to the extent that the property to which the lien is applicable cannot be located in the county or to which the sale of the property is insufficient to pay all delinquent taxes, interest, fees, and costs due, shall be liens against all other personal property of the taxpayer within that county. No act of omission or commission on the part of any property appraiser, tax collector, board of county commissioners, clerk of the circuit court, or county comptroller, or their deputies or assistants, or newspaper in which any advertisement of sale may be published shall operate to defeat the payment of the taxes; but any acts of omission or commission may be corrected at any time by the officer or party responsible for them in like manner as provided by law for performing acts in the first place, and when so corrected they shall be construed as valid ab initio and shall in no way affect any process by law for the enforcement of the collection of any tax. All owners of property shall be held to know that taxes are due and payable annually and are charged with the duty of ascertaining the amount of current and delinquent taxes and paying them before April 1 of the year following the year in which taxes are assessed. No sale or conveyance of real or personal property for nonpayment of taxes shall be held invalid except upon proof that:

(a) The property was not subject to taxation;

(b) The taxes had been paid before the sale of personal property; or

(c) The real property had been redeemed before the execution and delivery of a deed based upon a certificate issued for nonpayment of taxes.

(2) A lien created through the sale of a tax certificate may not be foreclosed or enforced in any manner except as prescribed in this chapter.

197.062 Advertisement of real or personal property with delinquent taxes.—

(1) PROCEDURE; COSTS.—The board of county commissioners shall, whenever legal advertisements are required, select and advertise as provided in chapter 50. The office of the tax collector shall pay all newspaper charges, and the proportionate cost of the advertisements shall be added to the delinquent taxes when they are collected.

(2) PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Within 45 days after the personal property taxes become delinquent, the tax collector shall advertise a list of the names of delinquent personal property taxpayers and the amount of tax due by each. The advertisement shall include a notice that all personal property taxes are now drawing interest at the rate of 18 percent per year and that, unless the delinquent taxes are paid, warrants will be issued thereon pursuant to s. 197.086 and the tax collector will apply to the circuit court for an order directing levy upon and seizure of the personal property of the taxpayer for the unpaid taxes.

(3) REAL PROPERTY.—The tax collector shall advertise once each week for 4 weeks and sell tax certificates on all real property with taxes due on or before June 1 of each year. He shall make a list of such properties specifying the amount due on each parcel, including interest at the rate of 18 percent per year from April 1 to the date of sale, provided that the minimum charge for any taxes redeemed prior to the sale of a tax certificate shall be 3 percent regardless of the time of redemption, with the cost of advertising and expense of sale in the same order in which the lands were assessed.

(4) FORM.—All advertisements shall be in the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 4, ch. 73-332; s. 1, ch. 75-136; s. 3, ch. 78-32.

197.066 Publisher to furnish copy of advertisement to tax collector; proof of publication; fees.—

(1) The newspaper publishing the notice of a tax sale shall transmit by mail a copy of the paper containing each notice to the tax collector within 10 days after the last required publication. When the publication of the tax sale notice is completed as provided by law, the publisher shall make affidavit in the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue, which shall be delivered to the tax collector and annexed to the report of lands sold for taxes as provided by s. 197.116.

(2) When tax certificates are advertised for sale under this law, the tax collector shall be entitled to 15 cents for certification of sale, and shall be entitled to 5 percent commission on the amount of each delinquent tax when actual sale is made. However, the tax collector shall not be entitled to any commission for the sale of property made to the county until the commission is paid upon the redemption or sale of the tax certificates issued to the county. When a tax deed is issued to the county, the tax collector shall not receive his commission for the certificates until after the property is sold and conveyed by the county.

Note.—Former ss. 193.53, 197.091, 193.52, 197.085.

197.072 Notice of taxes by mail, etc.—

(1) Within 20 days after delivery to him of the tax roll with the property appraiser's warrant and recapitulation sheet, the tax collector shall mail to each taxpayer appearing on the assessment roll, whose post-office address is known to him, notice that the tax roll is open for payment of taxes, stating the amount of taxes due by the taxpayer and advising the taxpayer of the discounts allowed for early payment. The notice shall be accompanied by a printed statement that shall clearly designate and separately identify the rate of taxation to be levied for the use of the county and school board and the total rate of taxation for all other taxing authorities in the county. The postage shall be paid out of the general fund of the county upon statement thereof by the tax collector.

(2) Upon delivery of a written request from a mortgagee stating that he is the trustee of an escrow account for ad valorem taxes due on the property, the tax collector shall mail to the mortgagee or lienholder a notice of taxes against the property or a copy of the newspaper, if available, containing the list of lands advertised for sale for nonpayment of taxes, as may be requested. When the original tax notice is mailed to a trustee of an escrow account, the tax collector shall mail a duplicate notice to the owner of the property with the additional statement that the original has been sent to the trustee. The tax collector shall also mail a duplicate tax notice to the vendee of a recorded contract for deed, or, if the contract is not recorded, the duplicate shall be mailed upon written application by the vendee.

(3) At the recommendation of the county tax collector, the board of county commissioners may adopt a resolution instructing the collector not to mail notices to any taxpayer when the amount of taxes shown on the tax notice is less than $5. The resolution shall also instruct the property appraiser that he shall not make an extension on the tax roll for any parcel for which the tax will amount to less than $5. The minimum tax bill so established may not exceed $5.

(4) The tax collector shall mail such additional notices as he may deem proper and necessary or as may be required by reasonable rules and regulations of the Department of Revenue. Additional notices shall be mailed to those taxpayers whose payment has not been received prior to March 1 of the year following the year of assessment. However, this requirement does not preclude the tax collector from mailing such other notices as he may deem necessary or be required to mail.

Note.—Former ss. 193.45, 197.065.

197.076 Notice to mortgagee.—

(1) On or before May 1 of each year, the holder or mortgagee of an unsatisfied mortgage, upon filing with the tax collector a description of land encumbered by a recorded mortgage and paying an annual service charge of $2, may request and receive information during the current tax year concerning any delinquent taxes appearing on the current tax roll and certificates issued on the described mortgaged land. The collector, upon receipt of such request, will furnish the following information to the mortgagee within 60 days following the tax certificate sale:

(a) Description of land sold as requested by the mortgagee.

(b) The number of each certificate issued and to whom.

(c) The face amount of the certificate.

(d) The cost for redemption of the certificate.

(2) On or before May 1 of each year, the holder or mortgagee of an unsatisfied mortgage or lien upon personal property, upon filing with the tax collector a description of the personal property encumbered by said mortgage or lien and the name and address of the owner of such property, and upon paying an annual service charge of $2, may request and receive information during the current tax year concerning any delinquent taxes appearing on the current tax roll for such property as is described as provided above or as may be owned by the named taxpayer. The collector, upon receipt of such request, will furnish the following information to the mortgagee or lienholder prior to April 25 of the following year:

(a) A description of property against which taxes are assessed.

(b) The amount of taxes and costs owed.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 8472, 1921; CGL 977, 978; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 6, ch. 73-332; s. 2, ch. 75-136.

Note.—Former ss. 194.14, 197.485.

197.082 Errors and insolvencies list.—On or before the third Monday in July of each year, the tax collector shall make out a report to the county commissioners showing the discounts, errors, double assessments, and insolvencies for which he is to be credited under the different heads, giving, in every case except discounts, the names of the parties on whose account the credit is to be allowed. In no case, however, shall the tax collector take credit on the list as insolvent items, any personal property tax due by a solvent taxpayer. The county commissioners, upon receiving the report, shall examine it, make such investigations as may be necessary, and, if it is discovered that the tax collector has taken credit as an insolvent item any personal property tax due by a solvent taxpayer, then the amount of taxes represented by such item shall be charged to the tax collector, and the report shall not be approved until the tax collector strikes such item from the report.

History.—s. 37, ch. 20723, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 7, ch. 73-332.

Note.—Former ss. 200.38, 197.041.

197.086 Delinquent personal property taxes; warrants; court order for levy and seizure of personal property; seizure; fees of tax collectors.—

(1) Prior to May 1 of each year immediately following the year of assessment, the tax collector shall prepare a list of the unpaid personal property taxes containing the names and addresses of the taxpayers and the property subject to the tax, as the same appear on the tax roll. Prior to April 30 of the next year, the tax collector shall prepare warrants against the delinquent taxpayers providing for the levy upon, and seizure of, tangible personal property. Within 30 days from the date such warrants are prepared, the tax collector shall cause the filing of a petition in the circuit court for the county in which the tax collector serves, which petition shall briefly describe the levies and nonpayment of taxes, the issuance of warrants, and proof of the publication of notice as provided for in s. 197.062, and shall list the names and addresses of the taxpayers who failed to pay taxes and the personal property taxed, as the same appear on the assessment roll. Said petition shall pray for an order ratifying and confirming the issuance of said warrants and directing the tax collector or his deputy to levy upon and seize the tangible personal property of each delinquent taxpayer to satisfy the unpaid taxes set forth in the petition. At the time such petition is directed to be filed, such tax collector is empowered to employ counsel and agree upon his or their compensation for conducting such suit or suits and to pay such compensation out of the general office expense fund, and he may include such item in the budget. Immediately upon the filing of said petition, the tax collector, through his attorney, shall request the earliest possible time for hearing before the circuit court on said petition, at which hearing the tax roll shall be presented and the tax collector or one of his deputies shall appear to testify under oath as to the nonpayment of the personal property taxes listed in the petition. Upon the filing of said petition, the clerk of the court shall notify each delinquent taxpayer who is included within the petition that a petition has been filed and that upon ratification and confirmation of the petition the tax collector shall be authorized to issue warrants and levy upon, seize, and sell so much of the personal property as to satisfy the delinquent taxes plus cost, interest, attorney's fees, and other charges. Said notice shall be by certified mail, return receipt requested. If it shall appear to the circuit court that the taxes as appear on the tax roll are unpaid, the court shall issue its order directing the tax collector or his deputy to levy upon and seize so much of the tangible personal property of the taxpayers who are listed in the petition as is necessary to satisfy the unpaid taxes. The Department of Revenue shall provide reasonable rules and regulations to guide the tax collector in the collection and enforcement of taxes which are delinquent or which may become delinquent. This proceeding is specifically provided to safeguard the constitutional rights of the taxpayers in relation to their tangible personal property and to allow the tax collector sufficient time to collect said delinquent personal property taxes before the filing of petitions in the circuit court as provided and shall be conducted with these objectives in mind. The court shall retain jurisdiction over the matters raised in the petition to hear such objections of taxpayers to the levy and seizure of their tangible personal property as may be warranted under the statutes and laws of the state.

(2) A tax warrant issued by the tax collector for the collection of tangible personal property taxes shall, after the court has issued its order as set forth in subsection (1), have the same force as a writ of garnishment when levied by the tax collector upon any person, firm, or corporation who has any goods, moneys, chattels, or effects of the delinquent taxpayer in his hands, possession, or control or who is indebted to such delinquent taxpayer. When any tax warrant is levied upon any debtor or person holding property of the taxpayer, the debtor or person shall pay the debt or deliver the property of the tax delinquent to the tax collector levying the warrant, and the receipt of the tax collector shall be complete discharge to that extent of the debtor or person holding the property. The tax collector shall make note of the levy upon the tax warrant.

(3) The tax collector shall be entitled to the following fees that shall be collected from delinquent taxpayers at the same time of the payment of their taxes:

(a) On amounts of less than $5 for taxes, his fee shall be $1.

(b) On amounts of over $5 but less than $10 for taxes, his fee shall be $1.50.

(c) On amounts over $10 for taxes, he shall receive a fee of $2.

Note.—Former ss. 200.27, 197.095, 200.31, 197.155.

197.092 Attachment of tangible personal property in case of removal; taxes assessed a judgment.—If any tangible personal property upon which taxes have been assessed is removed from the county in which the tangible personal property was assessed, the tax collector of the county, by issuing a warrant, may authorize the sheriff of the county to which the tangible personal property has been removed to collect the taxes, and the sheriff shall proceed as upon execution from the circuit court. The tax collector of each county shall have the power to attach for taxes thereon any tangible personal property that has been assessed at any time before payment, if he has reason to believe that the property is being, or has been, removed or disposed of so as to prevent or endanger the payment of taxes thereon, in the same manner and under the rules of law governing attachments of debts in other cases. All taxes assessed upon tangible personal property shall have all the force of a judgment and execution at law against the owner of the property from the date the taxes become due.

History.—s. 29, ch. 20723, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 4, ch. 75-136; s. 3, ch. 76-143.

Note.—Former ss. 200.30, 197.150.

197.096 Tax collector to keep record of warrants and levies on tangible personal property.—The tax collector shall keep a record of all warrants and levies made under this chapter and shall note on such record the date of payment, the amount of money, if any, received, and the disposition thereof made by him. Such record shall be known as "the tangible personal property tax warrant register" and the form thereof shall be prescribed by the Department of Revenue.

History.—s. 31, ch. 20723, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 200.32, 197.160.

197.101 Continuing duty of the tax collector to collect delinquent tax warrants.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector issuing a tax warrant for the collection of delinquent tangible personal property taxes to continue from time to time his efforts to collect them for a period of 7 years from the date of the issuance of the warrant. After the expiration of 7 years, the warrant shall be barred by this statute of limitation and no action may be maintained in any court. No tax collector shall be relieved of accountability for collection of any taxes assessed on tangible personal property until he has completely performed every duty devolving upon him as required by law.

History.—ss. 32, 33, ch. 20723, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 200.33, 197.165, 200.34, 197.170.

197.106 Sale of personal property after seizure.—

(1) When personal property is levied upon for any delinquent taxes as provided for in s. 197.086, the tax collector shall give public notice by advertisement of the time and place of sale of the property to be sold at least 15 days before the sale. The notice shall be posted in at least three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse, and the property shall be sold at public auction at the courthouse door. The property sold shall be present if practical, but at any time before the sale the owner or claimant of the property may release it by the payment of the taxes plus delinquency charges, interest, and costs for which it was liable to be sold. In all cases, immediate payment for the property shall be required. In case any sale is made as aforesaid, the tax collector shall be entitled to the same fees and charges as are allowed sheriffs upon execution sales.

(2) If the property levied upon is sold for more than the amount of taxes, delinquent charges, interest, costs, and collection fees, the surplus shall be returned to the person in whose possession the property was when the levy was made or to the owner of the property.

(3) If the property levied upon cannot be located in the county or is sold for less than the amount of taxes, delinquent charges, interest, costs, and collection fees, the deficit shall be a general lien against all other personal property of the taxpayer situated in the county. The other property may be seized and sold in the same manner as like property on which there is a specific lien for delinquent taxes.

Note.—Former ss. 200.28, 197.140, 200.29, 197.145.

197.111 Notice of delinquent real property taxes to owners of subsurface rights.—When the taxes under s. 193.481 on subsurface rights have become delinquent and a tax certificate is to be sold under this chapter, a notice of the delinquency shall be given by registered mail to the owner of the fee to which these subsurface rights are attached. On the day of the tax sale the fee owner shall have the right to purchase the tax certificate at the maximum rate of interest provided by law before bids are accepted for the sale of such certificate.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 69-60; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 36, ch. 79-164.

Note.—Former s. 197.083.

197.116 Sale of tax certificates for unpaid taxes.—

(1) On the day and approximately at the time designated in the notice of the sale, the tax collector shall commence the sale of tax certificates on those lands on which taxes have not been paid, and shall continue same from day to day until each parcel is sold to pay the taxes, interest, costs, and charges thereon, and in case there are no bidders, each parcel shall be bid off by the tax collector for the county. The tax collector shall offer all the lands as assessed.

(2) The land shall be struck off to the person who will pay the tax, interest, costs, and charges and will demand the lowest rate of interest, not in excess of 18 percent per year. The tax collector shall accept bids in even increments and in fractional interest rate bids of one-quarter of 1 percent only. If there is no buyer the land shall be struck off to the county at the maximum rate of interest allowed by law.

(3) The tax collector shall require immediate payment of a reasonable deposit from any person to whom any parcel of land may be struck off, and failure to pay such deposit shall cause the bid to be canceled. When tax certificates are ready for issuance, the tax collector shall notify all persons to whom any parcel was struck off that the certificate is ready for issuance, and payment must be made within 48 hours from the mailing of such notice or the deposit shall be forfeited and the bid canceled. In any event, payment shall be made before delivery of the certificate by the tax collector. Upon the cancellation of any bid, the tax collector shall resell that certificate the following day or as soon thereafter as possible, provided the certificate is sold within 10 days after cancellation of such bid.

(4) The tax collector shall make a list of all the certificates sold for taxes, showing the date of the sale, the number of each certificate, the name of the owner as returned, a description of the land within the certificate, the name of the purchaser, the interest rate bid, and the amount for which sale was made. The tax collector shall append to the list a certificate setting forth the fact that the sale was made in accordance with this chapter.

(5) As soon as is practical after the sale of tax certificates, the tax collector shall deliver to the property appraiser a list of all lands struck off to the county.

(6) Delinquent property taxes of all governmental units due on a parcel of land due in any one year shall be combined into one certificate.

(7) No certificate shall be sold on, nor any lien created in, property owned by any governmental unit whose property has become subject to taxation due to its lease to a nongovernmental lessee. Such delinquent taxes shall be enforced and collected in the manner provided in s. 196.199(7).

(8) Any tax certificates issued pursuant to the provisions of this section on or after the effective date of this subsection which are void due to an error of the property appraiser, the tax collector, any other county official, or any municipal official and which are subsequently canceled pursuant to the provisions of this chapter (Tax Collections, Tax Sales, Tax Liens) or chapter 196 (Exemption) shall earn interest at the rate of 8 percent per annum, simple interest, calculated from the date the certificate was purchased. Refunds made on tax certificates which are void shall be processed as provided in s. 195.106.

197.121 Collector not to sell certificates on land on which taxes have been paid; penalty.—If any tax collector sells any tax certificates on land upon which the taxes have been paid, upon written demand by the aggrieved taxpayer alleging the circumstances, the tax collector shall initiate action to cancel any improperly issued tax certificate or deed in accordance with the provisions of s. 197.206. If the tax collector fails to act within a reasonable time, his office shall be liable for all legitimate expenses to which the aggrieved taxpayer may be put in clearing his title, including a reasonable attorney's fee. The office of the tax collector shall be responsible to the publisher for costs of advertising lands on which the taxes have been paid, and the office of the property appraiser shall be responsible to the publisher for the costs of advertising lands doubly assessed or assessed in error.

Note.—Former ss. 193.55, 197.185.

197.132 Duplicate certificates.—

(1) If application is made to the board of county commissioners for issuance of a duplicate tax sale certificate instead of a certificate alleged by affidavit to be the property of affiant and to have been lost or destroyed, the board may authorize the tax collector to issue a duplicate certificate upon such reasonable terms, conditions, and assurances as the board may require. The duplicate certificate shall be plainly marked or stamped "duplicate," and the tax collector shall thereupon issue it to the affiant upon payment of $2 and enter the fact of the duplicate in the tax sale record opposite the entry of the sale for which the lost or destroyed certificate was issued. He shall enter in the same place a notation of the alleged loss or destruction, whether the duplicate is issued or not. If the tax collector certifies to the board of county commissioners that a tax sale certificate belonging to the county has been lost or misplaced, the board shall enter an order in its minute book directing the collector to issue and file in his office a duplicate certificate.

(2) The tax collector shall immediately issue, mail and file the duplicate certificate. At the same time, he shall make an entry on the tax sale record showing the issuance of the duplicate certificate.

Note.—Former ss. 193.59, 197.205.

197.136 Certificate of sale.—Immediately after the tax sale, the tax collector shall give to the purchaser a certificate of sale describing the lands and the amount paid therefor, which amount shall bear interest from the date of sale at the rate bid by a purchaser. The form of the certificate shall be as prescribed by the Department of Revenue.

Note.—Former ss. 193.59, 197.205.

197.141 Tax sale certificate transferable by endorsement.—

(1) All tax sale certificates issued, whether to the county, a municipality, or an individual, shall be transferable by endorsement at any time before they are redeemed or a tax deed is executed thereunder.

(2) The official endorsement of a tax sale certificate by the tax collector with the date and the amount received shall be sufficient evidence of the assignment of it. Any part of land or interest therein contained in any tax certificate that can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision may be redeemed or sold by a certificate of the transfer or redemption under the hand and official seal of the tax collector, and a deed may issue thereupon in compliance with the terms of this law.

(3) The tax collector shall receive as a service charge 50 cents for each endorsement.

Note.—Former ss. 193.60, 197.460, 194.11, 197.465.

197.143 Judicial sale; payment of taxes.—All officers of the court selling property under process or court order shall pay all taxes that are due and unpaid against the property from the proceeds of the sale after the payment of the costs of the proceedings and any attorney's fee allowed by the court when the court order or process directs that taxes shall be paid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 10285, 1925; CGL 954; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.28, 197.255.

197.151 Tax sale certificates belonging to the county held by the tax collector; redemption.—

(1) All tax sale certificates issued to the county or any municipality shall be held by the tax collector of the county where the lands covered by the certificates are located. All certificates held by the county shall be enforced in the manner prescribed for county certificates without regard to which governmental unit's taxes the certificates relate.

(2) The tax collector of the county is authorized and directed to allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, when the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal description, of any tax certificates held by the county, at any time before the vesting of title in the county. The property appraiser shall, within 15 days after request from the collector, apportion the property into the parts sought to be redeemed or purchased. The payment of the amount of the tax certificate or certificates, or the part thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased bears to the whole, and any and all subsequent unpaid or omitted taxes due on the land to be redeemed or purchased shall be paid with interest thereon at the rate of 18 percent per annum for the period of time from the date of the certificate. For each certificate redeemed, each county certificate purchased, or each omitted year, the collector shall receive a fee of $5.

Note.—Former ss. 194.01, 197.265, 194.45, 197.270.

197.156 Redemption of tax sale certificates sold to purchaser other than county.—

(1) Any person owning or claiming lands upon which a tax sale certificate has been sold, or any part or parcel thereof or any interest therein, or the creditor of any owner or claimant, may redeem the lands at any time after the issuance of the tax sale certificate and before a tax deed is issued by paying to the tax collector in the county where the land is situated the face amount of the certificate of sale, or the part thereof as the part or interest redeemed shall bear to the whole, upon the collector's being furnished within 15 days by the property appraiser with a certificate apportioning the value to the part or parts sought to be redeemed and to the remaining land or lands under said certificate or certificates, according to their respective part or parts, the apportionment to be made upon the basis of valuation. Upon redemption being made, the person redeeming the tax sale certificate shall pay all taxes, interest, costs, charges, and omitted taxes, if any, as provided by law upon the part or parts of the certificate so redeemed or purchased, with interest as stated in the certificate from the date of the certificate to the date of redemption. When a tax sale certificate is redeemed and the interest earned on the tax sale certificate is less than 5 percent of the face amount of the certificate, then a mandatory charge of 5 percent shall be levied upon the tax sale certificate. The person redeeming the tax sale certificate shall pay the interest rate bid or the 5 percent mandatory charge, whichever is greater. This shall apply to all tax sale certificates except those with an interest rate bid of zero percent.

(2) When any land subject to a tax sale certificate has been redeemed, the collector shall pay to the holder of the tax certificate the amount received by him for redemption, less service charges. The certificate shall be surrendered to the collector and canceled, if the whole is redeemed. If only a part is redeemed, the portion and description of land, with date of redemption, shall be endorsed on the certificate by the collector. The certificate shall be retained by the owner subject to the endorsement, and the redemption shall be forthwith entered by the collector on the record of tax sales on file in his office. Nothing herein shall be deemed to deny the right to redeem any outstanding tax sale certificate in accordance with the law in force when it was issued. However, the provisions of s. 197.281, relating to survival of restrictions and covenants after tax deed, shall not be repealed by this chapter, and shall apply with the same force and effect to lands covered by such chancery decrees as the same apply to tax deeds and masters' deeds as provided in the section.

(3) When any land covered by certificates in the hands of individuals is redeemed, the tax collector shall give to the person making the redemption a receipt and certificate showing the amount paid for the redemption, a description of the land redeemed, and the date, number and amount of the certificate, certificates, or part of certificate from which the same is redeemed, which shall be in the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue.

History.—ss. 5, 6, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 570, 571; RGS 770, 771; CGL 985, 986; s. 9, ch. 14572, 1929; ss. 19, 20, ch. 20722, 1941; s. 8, ch. 22079, 1943; s. 1, ch. 28254, 1953; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 11, ch. 73-332; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

197.161 Payment of back taxes as condition precedent to cancellation of tax certificate held by county.—No decree shall be made by any court in an action brought by or on behalf of any landowner to enjoin any tax sale or to set aside or cancel any tax certificate held by any county in the state until the owner pays to the tax collector of the county where the property is assessable the full amount of the taxes that could have been lawfully assessed against the property for the period covered by the assessment complained of, whether the real estate has been returned for assessment by the owner or not. In all such cases the court shall ascertain and determine the amount of tax to be paid by the owner.

History.—s. 52, ch. 20722, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 196.15, 197.305.

197.166 Party recovering land must refund taxes paid and interest.—If, in an action at law or in equity involving the validity of any tax deed, the court holds that the tax deed was invalid at the time of its issuance and that title to the land therein described did not vest in the tax deed holder, then, if the taxes for which the land was sold and upon which the tax deed was issued had not been paid prior to issuance of the deed, the party in whose favor the judgment or decree in the suit is entered shall pay to the party against whom the judgment or decree is entered the amount paid for the tax deed and all taxes paid upon the land, together with 12 percent interest thereon per year from the date of the issuance of the tax deed and all legal expenses in obtaining the tax deed, including publication of notice and clerk's fees for issuing and recording the tax deed, and also the fair cash value of all permanent improvements made upon the land by the holders under the tax deed. The amount of the expenses and the fair cash value of improvements shall be ascertained and found upon the trial of the action, and the tax deed holder or anyone holding thereunder shall have a prior lien upon the land for the payment of the sums.

History.—s. 64, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 592; s. 61, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 795; s. 3, ch. 12409, 1927; CGL 1026; ss. 1, 2, ch. 23637, 1947; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 50, ch. 77-104.

Note.—Former ss. 196.07, 197.310.

197.171 Redemption of omitted taxes.—Unpaid or omitted taxes shall be collected upon the basis of the regular valuation placed by the property appraiser upon the land for the year for which taxes remain unpaid, and, when no valuation was so placed, then the last assessed valuation prior thereto shall be considered the regular valuation.

History.—s. 5, ch. 7806, 1919; CGL 997; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former ss. 194.10, 197.455.

197.176 Redemption of portion of tax certificate.—Any portion of land, or interest therein, contained in a tax sale certificate or certificates may be redeemed under the hand and official seal of the tax collector, upon his being furnished by the property appraiser with a certificate apportioning the value to that portion sought to be redeemed and to the remaining land or lands under said certificate or certificates, according to their respective portion, said apportionment to be made upon the basis of valuation. The tax collector shall submit to the property appraiser a written request for apportionment, and the property appraiser shall, within 15 days, return the apportionment to the collector. The person shall pay all taxes, interest, costs, and charges as provided by law upon the portion of the land being redeemed.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 17404, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(109)-(111); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 12, ch. 73-332; s. 53, ch. 73-333; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former ss. 194.13, 197.480.

197.181 Duty of the collector as to redemption of land.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to enter on the record of tax sales the partial or total redemption or sale of every tax certificate made through him, and he shall also keep a permanent record of all sales and redemptions, giving the number of the tax certificate, the date of the tax certicate, the amount or proportionate amount of the face value of the certificate, and the disposition of the proceeds, with the date thereof, in a form approved by the Department of Revenue. The collector shall remit to the general fund of each taxing unit all amounts due the unit including interest from the certificate, and shall file with the board of county commissioners a report showing the amount of money collected and disposition thereof in detail.

Note.—Former ss. 194.25, 197.545.

197.186 Disposition of unclaimed redemption moneys.—When money is held by the tax collector for the redemption of tax certificates, which money is by the course of law provided to be paid over to the holder of a redeemed tax certificate, but as to which the tax collector has not made payment over to the tax certificate holder of record, the tax collector shall, upon the expiration of 90 days from the receipt of the moneys, remit, on the first day of the following quarter, to the board of county commissioners the unclaimed redemption moneys, less the sum of $1 on each $100 or fraction thereof, which shall be retained by the collector as service charges. Two years after the date the unclaimed redemption moneys were remitted to the board of county commissioners, all claims to such moneys are hereby declared to be forever barred, and such moneys shall become the property of the county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 18313, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 999(149); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 13, ch. 73-332; s. 55, ch. 73-333.

Note.—Former ss. 192.24, 197.550.

197.191 Redemptions before November 1.—When application is made before November 1 of any year for the redemption of lands heretofore or hereafter sold for taxes, the person applying for redemption shall not be required to pay the taxes for the year in which redemption is made. Taxes for the year in which such redemption is made, if unpaid, shall continue to be a lien against the lands, and, if not paid before a tax sale is held in the county, the same shall be included by the tax collector in his sale as are other lands. The taxes shall be extended by the property appraiser, if the property is redeemed before the completion of the rolls, and by the tax collector, if the property is redeemed after the completion of the rolls. However, in the event the party redeeming pays the current year's taxes for the year of redemption during the time when discounts are allowed for payment of taxes, then the same discounts shall be allowed the party as are allowed in other cases of the payment of taxes.

Note.—Former ss. 194.07, 197.285.

197.196 Record of tax redemptions.—

(1) The tax collector shall keep a record of all moneys received by him for redemption from sales of real estate for taxes or special assessments, which record shall show the names of the persons who purchased the property at the sales, or the assignees of the purchaser, if known, and the amount due the lawful holder of the tax certificate for each redemption sale.

(2) The tax collector at the expiration of his term of office shall account for and pay over to his successor in office all moneys in his hands received for redemptions from sale for taxes or special assessments on real estate.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 8569, 1921; CGL 990, 991; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.12, 197.475.

197.201 Tax collector shall notify property appraiser of the purchase or redemption of county-owned tax certificates.—Immediately after any tax certificate held by the county is redeemed or purchased, the collector shall notify the property appraiser, advising him of the name of the assignee or grantee, the description of the property, and the year for which taxes were last collected.

History.—s. 35, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 14, ch. 73-332; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

Note.—Former ss. 194.46, 197.645.

197.206 Cancellation of void tax certificates; procedure; return of payments.—

(1) When it is proved to the tax collector of any county that lands in his county have been sold for unpaid taxes, and the tax sale certificate evidencing the sale is void because the taxes on the lands have been paid, the lands were not subject to taxation at the time of the assessment on which they were sold, or the description of the property in the tax sale certificate is void, or because of some error or omission that invalidates the sale, or if the tax sale certificate is void for any other reason, he shall forward a certificate of the fact to the Department of Revenue and enter upon the list of land sold for taxes a memorandum of the fact. The department, upon receipt of such certificate, if satisfied of the correctness, shall notify the collector, who shall cancel the certificate. When the certificate is held by an individual, the collector shall at once notify the original purchaser of the certificate, or the subsequent holder thereof, if known, that upon the voluntary surrender of the certificate or deed of release of his rights under any tax deed that may have been issued to him upon the certificate, it will refund to the holder of the certificate the amount received for the purchase of the certificate and the sum of $1 for the deed of release, as may be necessary, and the county commissioners shall refund from the general fund the amount received by the county for the certificate, and likewise any school board, school district, or other district, commission, or governmental subdivision or agency that has received any sums from the tax sale shall refund to the holder of the certificate the amount received by it. A certificate that is void for any reason shall be canceled only by a court of proper jurisdiction or by the procedure herein set forth.

(2) The holder of a void tax sale certificate shall be entitled to the return of the amount paid therefor; and if the holder of a tax sale certificate pays, redeems, or causes to be canceled and surrendered any other tax sale certificates, or pays any subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with obtaining a tax deed or in connection with the foreclosure of a tax sale certificate or tax deed, and when such other tax sale certificates or such subsequent and omitted taxes are void for any reason, the person paying, redeeming or causing to be canceled and surrendered the other tax sale certificates or paying the other subsequent and omitted taxes, shall be entitled to obtain the return of the amount paid therefor.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 18314, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1009(1), (2); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.36, 197.590, 194.35, 197.585.

197.214 Special assessment; method of collection.—Special assessment liens on property in special districts shall be collected as provided for ad valorem taxes under this chapter, whether created by general or special law or by county ordinance which now exists or which may become law.

History.—s. 4, ch. 75-103; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

197.216 Cancellation of void omitted taxes or subsequent certificates.—If the holder of any tax sale certificate should pay, redeem, or cause to be canceled and surrendered any other tax sale certificate, or should pay or redeem any subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed, and if it should develop that the other tax sale certificate or any of the subsequent and omitted taxes are void for any reason, the collector shall forward a certificate of the fact to the Department of Revenue and enter upon the records in his office a memorandum of the fact, as provided for in s. 197.206. If the department, upon receipt of such certificate, is satisfied of the correctness thereof, the tax collector shall refund to the person so paying or redeeming the other tax sale certificate, or to the person so paying the subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed, the amount received by the state, and thereupon the county commissioners, and any school district, school board, drainage district, or other district, commission, or governmental subdivision or agency shall likewise refund the amount received by it in accordance with the provisions of s. 197.206.

History.—s. 3, ch. 18314, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1009(3); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 15, ch. 73-332; s. 53, ch. 73-333.

Note.—Former ss. 194.37, 197.595.

197.221 Cancellation of tax liens held by the county on property of the United States and the State of Florida.—When the board of county commissioners finds that the United States, or any duly constituted agency thereof, has acquired by purchase or contract to purchase any lands in that county for reforestation, game preserve, or military aviation purposes, or that any duly constituted authorities of the state have acquired lands for public road or aeronautical purposes, against which there is any outstanding tax lien held by the county, the board shall by resolution describe the lands acquired, the nature of the lien thereon, and the purpose for which the lands are to be used and request the Department of Revenue for authority to cancel the lien against the lands. A certified copy of the resolution shall be furnished to the Department of Revenue, and upon receipt of the authority from the department to cancel the tax lien, the tax collector and the clerk of the county in which the lands are located shall record the authority in the official records of the county and note on the proper tax records of the office the action taken by the board of county commissioners and the Department of Revenue by noting: "Canceled by authority of s. 197.221, Florida Statutes," the date of the authority, and reference to the book and page number where the authorization is recorded. All taxes and liens shall thereafter be canceled. No charge shall be made for costs or expenses to secure cancellation of any tax lien affected by the provisions of this section.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 17424, 1935; ss. 1-3, ch. 17426, 1935; ss. 1-3, ch. 17459, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 992(2), (3), (5)-(7), (9)-(11); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.33, 197.245, 194.34, 197.250.

197.226 Cancellation of certificates on riparian rights separate from land.—

(1) All tax sale certificates describing riparian rights, as defined by s. 197.228, only and separately from the land in the hands of any governmental taxing agency are hereby declared invalid and are hereby canceled.

(2) Any title presumed to have vested in the state under chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, known as the Murphy Act, by virtue of such certificates is hereby declared invalid, and the riparian rights affected thereby are hereby restored to their original status and become appurtenant to the adjoining upland.

(3) The tax collector of each county and the proper tax officer of any governmental taxing agency are hereby authorized and directed to withhold all such tax sale certificates in their hands from redemptions or sale and to enter such cancellation upon the face of any such tax sale certificate and upon the tax sale record of the county or other taxing agency.

History.—s. 3, ch. 28262, 1953; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.63, 192.61(1)-(4), 197.315.

197.228 Riparian rights defined; certain submerged bottoms subject to private ownership.—

(1) Riparian rights are those incident to land bordering upon navigable waters. They are rights of ingress, egress, boating, bathing and fishing and such others as may be or have been defined by law. Such rights are not of a proprietary nature. They are rights inuring to the owner of the riparian land but are not owned by him. They are appurtenant to and are inseparable from the riparian land. The land to which the owner holds title must extend to the ordinary high watermark of the navigable water in order that riparian rights may attach. Conveyance of title to or lease of the riparian land entitles the grantee to the riparian rights running therewith whether or not mentioned in the deed or lease of the upland.

(2) Navigable waters in this state shall not be held to extend to any permanent or transient waters in the form of so-called lakes, ponds, swamps or overflowed lands, lying over and upon areas which have heretofore been conveyed to private individuals by the United States or by the state without reservation of public rights in and to said waters.

(3) The submerged lands of any nonmeandered lake shall be deemed subject to private ownership where the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund of Florida conveyed the same more than 50 years ago without any deductions for water and without any reservation for public use and when taxes have been levied and collected on said submerged lands since conveyance by the state.

(4) Where private ownership of submerged bottoms outward from the shore has originated in a Spanish or other land grant approved by the Congress specifically describing an area in which was included navigable water, or by patent out of the United States prior to the date on which Florida became a state likewise containing a description including navigable water, or upon a valid conveyance out of the state, the submerged land included in such grant, patent or conveyance shall be subject to taxes lawfully imposed.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 28262, 1953; s. 2, ch. 61-119.

Note.—Former ss. 192.61(1)-(4), 271.09, 197.315(3).

197.231 Cancellation of tax certificates; suit by holder.—

(1) The holder of any tax sale certificate that is void for any reason shall have the right to bring an action in the circuit court to have such tax sale certificate canceled and to obtain the return of the money paid for the tax sale certificate. If such tax sale certificate embraces county taxes, the only necessary party defendant shall be the tax collector. If such tax sale certificate is issued for nonpayment of city or municipal taxes, the only necessary party defendant shall be the city or municipality. If such tax sale certificate is issued by a district, board, commission, or other governmental subdivision or agency, the only necessary party defendant shall be the district, board, commission, or other governmental subdivision or agency.

(2) The complaint shall briefly describe the tax sale certificate, state that it is void, state briefly the reason the same is void, and demand that the tax sale certificate be declared void and that all amounts received by the governmental unit be returned. The plaintiff may include as many void certificates as he sees fit, whether they cover the same land or different parcels of land, and whether they were issued by the same governmental agency or by different governmental agencies.

(3) If the court finds for the plaintiff, it shall enter a final judgment declaring the tax sale certificate to be void, canceling it of record, and ordering each governmental unit or agency receiving any sums for the tax sale certificate to return the amounts received by them to the plaintiff; and thereupon the amount received for the certificate by the governmental units or agencies shall be returned. In such cases the county commissioners shall make all refunds on void tax sale certificates from the general fund. The same procedure shall be followed as in other civil actions.

(4) If the holder of any tax sale certificate pays, redeems, or causes to be canceled and surrenders any other tax sale certificate, or pays or redeems any other subsequent or omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed or in connection with tax foreclosure proceedings, and if the other tax sale certificate or other subsequent and omitted taxes are void for any reason, the person so paying, redeeming, or causing to be canceled the void tax sale certificate, or paying or redeeming the void subsequent and omitted taxes, shall have the right to bring an action in chancery to obtain the return of the moneys received for the void tax sale certificate or for the void subsequent and omitted taxes in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(5) The provisions of this section shall not be exclusive, but a refund of moneys may be obtained under s. 197.206 or s. 197.216.

History.—s. 4, ch. 18314, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1009(4); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.38, 197.600.

197.236 Limitation upon lien of tax certificates.

(1) A period of 7 years is declared to be the life of any tax certificate issued against any lands and held by any private holder. The period of 7 years shall be computed from the date of the issuance of the tax certificate.

(2) When such certificate becomes 7 years old, the certificate is deemed and held to be barred by this statute of limitation, and no action on the certificate may be maintained by any private holder in any court of this state, and no tax deed shall issue therefor.

(3) The provisions and limitations herein prescribed for tax certificates shall not apply to tax certificates which were sold under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, commonly known as the Murphy Act.

(4) After the expiration of 7 years from the date of issuance of any tax sale certificate issued against any land for taxes, when no application for a tax deed or other administrative or legal proceeding has existed of record, the tax sale certificate is declared null and void, and the tax collector shall cancel all 7-year-old tax sale certificates, noting the date of the cancellation of any of the tax sale certificates upon all appropriate records in his office. The collector shall complete the cancellation by entering opposite the record of the 7-year-old tax sale certificate a notation in substantially the following form: "Canceled by Act of 1973 Florida Legislature." All certificates outstanding July 1, 1973 shall have a life of 20 years.

197.241 Application for obtaining tax deed by holder of tax sale certificate; fees.

(1) Tax deeds on real estate may be obtained by the holder of a tax certificate in the following manner: The holder of any tax certificate other than the county may at any time after 2 years have elapsed since April 1 of the year of issuance of the tax sale certificate and before the expiration of 7 years from the date of issuance, file the certificate and an application for a tax deed with the tax collector of the county where the lands described in the certificate are located. The holder shall notify the tax collector that he desires the lands, or any part thereof which is capable of being readily separated from the whole, advertised for sale as provided in s. 197.246. Consolidated applications on more than one tax sale certificate are prohibited.

(2) Any certificate holder, other than the county, making application for a tax deed shall pay the collector all amounts required for redemption or purchase of all other outstanding tax certificates, plus interest, any omitted taxes, plus interest, and delinquent taxes, plus interest, covering the land. The distribution to certificate holders of record of tax certificates redeemed or purchased shall be made as prescribed by the Department of Revenue. The tax collector shall then deliver to the clerk of the circuit court a statement certifying the names and addresses of all persons the clerk is required by law to notify prior to the sale of the property and that payment has been made to the collector for all outstanding certificates or if the certificate is held by the county that all appropriate fees have been deposited. The clerk shall advertise and administer the sale and receive such fees for the issuance of the deed and sale of the property as is provided in s. 28.24. The certificate shall be signed by the collector and his seal affixed. The collector may purchase a reasonable bond for errors and omissions of his office in making such certificates.

(3) The county shall make application for a deed on all certificates 2 years from the date the taxes to which they relate were due. A county shall apply for a deed on all certificates in its possession that have been in its possession for more than 2 years. Upon application for a tax deed, the county shall deposit with the collector all applicable costs and fees, but shall not deposit any money to cover the redemption of other outstanding certificates covering the land. The opening bid shall be the sum of the value of all outstanding certificates against the land, plus omitted years' taxes, delinquent taxes, interest, and all costs and fees paid by the county.

(4) If there are no bidders at the public sale, the clerk shall enter the land on a list entitled "Lands Available for Taxes" and shall immediately notify the county commission and all other persons holding certificates against the land that the land is available. The county may, at any time within 90 days after the day of offering for public sale, purchase the land at the minimum bid. After 90 days any person or governmental unit may purchase the land from the clerk, without further notice or advertising, for the minimum bid.

(5) Taxes shall not be extended against parcels listed as lands available for taxes, but in each year the taxes that would have been due shall be treated as omitted years and added to the required minimum bid. Seven years from the day the land was offered for public sale, the land shall escheat to the county in which it is located, and the clerk shall execute a tax deed vesting title in the board of county commissioners of the county in which it is located.

(6) Any fees collected pursuant to this section shall be refunded to the certificate holder in the event that the tax deed sale is canceled for any reason.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(136); s. 24, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 17, ch. 73-332; s. 5, ch. 76-143; s. 4, ch. 78-32.

Note.—Former ss. 194.15, 197.490.

197.246 Notice, form of publication for obtaining tax deed by holder.

(1) Upon the receipt of the application as provided by s. 197.241, and after the proper charges have been paid, the clerk shall publish a notice once each week for 4 consecutive weeks at weekly intervals in a newspaper selected as provided in s. 197.062. The form of notice of the application for a tax deed shall be as prescribed by the Department of Revenue. No tax deed sale shall be held until 30 days after the first publication of the notice.

(2) Proof of the publication or posting of the notice provided for in this section shall be filed by the clerk of the circuit court in his office on or before the date fixed for the making of the sale. When there is no newspaper, the clerk shall execute and file in his office a certificate of the posting of the notices, stating where and on what dates the notices were posted.

(3) Upon ultimate disposition of the application for a tax deed, the clerk shall enter his certificate of notice and his certificate of advertising in the public records of the county with such other relevant documents as may be required by the Department of Revenue.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999 (137, 138); ss. 25, 27, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; ss. 18, 30, ch. 73-332.

Note.—Former ss. 194.16, 197.495, 194.17, 197.500, 197.251.

197.256 Mailing notice to owner where application is made by holder.—

(1) In addition to the publication of the notice provided for by s. 197.246, the clerk of the circuit court shall notify, by certified mail with return receipt requested, the legal titleholder and lienholders of record of the property and each lienholder as listed in the collector's certification who claims a lien thereon at the date of the filing of the application for obtaining tax deed, if the address of the owner appears on the record of the conveyance of the lands to the owner, or, if the address of the owner does not appear thereon, then the notice shall be mailed, by certified mail with return receipt requested, to the owner to whom the property was assessed on the tax roll for the year in which the property was last assessed, or, if the name and address of such person does not appear thereon, then the notice shall be mailed, by certified mail with return receipt requested, to the person last paying taxes upon the lands. If, upon diligent search, no address can be found, then no notice shall be required. The collector shall also mail, by certified mail with return receipt requested, notices to other lienholders who make application to his office. The clerk shall mail, by certified mail with return receipt requested, a copy of the notice to each mortgagee whose mortgage upon such lands is recorded in the county in which the property is located. The clerk shall also mail, by certified mail with return receipt requested, a notice to vendees of recorded contracts for deed or those who have made application to receive tax notices, including those making application for homestead exemption. The clerk shall enclose with every copy mailed a statement as follows: "Warning, property in which you are interested is listed in the copy of the enclosed notice"; and the clerk shall make out and attach to the affidavit of the publisher a certificate containing the names and addresses of those persons to whom the copy was sent and the date thereof. The certificate shall be signed by the clerk and his official seal affixed. The certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that the notice was mailed. In the event the addresses of the owners, if any, do not appear on the tax roll and the address of the person last paying taxes upon the lands is not shown, the clerk shall execute a certificate to this effect. The failure of the owner, contract vendee, mortgagee, or municipality or other taxing district to receive the notice shall not affect the validity of the tax deed issued pursuant to the notice.

(2) The notice referred to in this section may be sent any time not later than 20 days prior to the date of sale, and a printed copy of the notice as published in the newspaper shall be sufficient.

History.—s. 4, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(139); s. 28, ch. 20722, 1941; s. 11, ch. 22079, 1943; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 20, ch. 73-332; s. 1, ch. 75-192; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Former ss. 194.18, 197.505.

197.261 Fees for mailing additional notices, when application is made by holder.—When the certificate holder makes a written request for him to do so and furnishes him with the names and addresses at the time of the filing of the application, the clerk shall send a copy of the notice referred to in s. 197.256 to anyone to whom the certificate holder may request him to send it, and the clerk shall include in it the statement required in s. 197.256. The certificate holder shall pay the clerk the service charges as prescribed in s. 28.24(9) for preparing and mailing each copy of notice requested by the holder. When the charges are made, they shall be added by the clerk to the amount required to redeem the land from sale.

History.—s. 5, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(140); s. 29, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 20, ch. 73-332; s. 3, ch. 77-354.

Note.—Former ss. 194.19, 197.510.

197.266 Sale at public auction.—

(1) The lands advertised for sale to the highest bidder as a result of an application filed under s. 197.241 shall be sold at public auction by the clerk of the circuit court, or his deputy, of the county where the lands are located, on the date, at the time, and at the courthouse door as set forth in the published notice, which shall be during the regular hours his office is open. At the time and place the clerk shall read the notice of sale, and shall offer the lands described in the notice for sale to the highest bidder for cash at public outcry. The amount required to redeem the tax certificate, plus the amounts paid by the holder to the clerk of the circuit court in charges for costs of sale, redemption of other tax certificates on the same lands, and all other costs to the applicant for tax deed, plus interest thereon at the rate of 18 percent per year for one month, shall be considered the bid of the certificate holder for the property. If there are no higher bids, the land shall be struck off and sold to the certificate holder. If there are other bids, the certificate holder shall have the right to bid as others present may bid, and the property shall be struck off and sold to the highest bidder.

(2) The clerk of the circuit court shall demand immediate payment for cost by the highest bidder of an amount equal to his bid plus applicable documentary stamp taxes and recording fees. The successful bidder shall make a reasonable deposit within 24 hours after the closing of the sale. If a reasonable deposit is not timely received, the clerk shall cancel the bids and sell the property on the following day. The clerk shall receive full payment prior to the issuance of the tax deed.

History.—s. 7, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(142); s. 30, ch. 20722, 1941; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 19, ch. 73-332.

Note.—Former ss. 194.21, 197.520.

197.271 Tax deeds.—All tax deeds shall be issued in the name of a county and shall be signed by the clerk of the county. The deed shall be witnessed by two witnesses, the official seal shall be attached thereto, and the deed shall be acknowledged or proven as other deeds. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, no right, interest, restriction, or other covenant shall survive the issuance of a tax deed, except that a lien of record held by a municipal or county governmental unit, when such lien is not satisfied as of the disbursement of proceeds of sale under the provisions of s. 197.291, shall survive the issuance of a tax deed. The charges by the clerk shall be as provided in s. 28.24. Tax deeds issued to a purchaser of land for delinquent taxes shall be in the form prescribed by the Department of Revenue. All deeds issued pursuant to this section shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings from the valuation of the lands to the issuance of the deed, inclusive.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 21, ch. 73-332; s. 1, ch. 79-334.

197.276 Easements for public service purposes or for ingress and egress survive tax sales and deeds.—When any lands are sold for the non-payment of taxes, or any tax certificate is issued thereon by a governmental unit or agency or pursuant to any tax lien foreclosure proceeding, the title to the lands shall continue to be subject to any easement for telephone, telegraph, pipeline, power transmission, or other public service purpose and shall continue to be subject to any easement for the purpose of ingress and egress to and from other land. The easement and the rights of the owner of it shall survive and be enforceable after the execution, delivery, and recording of a tax deed, master's deed, or a clerk's certificate of title pursuant to foreclosure of a tax deed, tax certificate, or tax lien, to the same extent as though the land had been conveyed by voluntary deed. The easement must be evidenced by written instrument recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where such land is located before the recording of such tax deed or master's deed, or, if not recorded, an easement for a public service purpose must be evidenced by wires, poles, or other visible occupation, and an easement for the purpose of ingress and egress must be evidenced by a road or other visible occupation to be entitled to the benefit of this section; however, this shall only apply to tax deeds issued after the effective date of this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 21805, 1943; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 1, ch. 77-138.

Note.—Former ss. 192.58, 197.525.

197.281 Survival of restrictions and covenants after tax sale.—

(1) When a deed in the chain of title contains restrictions and covenants running with the land, as hereinafter defined and limited, the restrictions and covenants shall survive and be enforceable after the issuance of a tax deed or master's deed, or a clerk's certificate of title upon foreclosure of a tax deed, tax certificate, or tax lien, to the same extent that it would be enforceable against a voluntary grantee of the owner of the title immediately before the delivery of the tax deed, master's deed, or clerk's certificate of title.

(2) This section shall apply to the usual restrictions and covenants limiting the use of property, the type, character and location of building, covenants against nuisances and what the former parties deemed to be undesirable conditions, in, upon, and about the property, and other similar restrictions and covenants; but this section shall not protect covenants creating any debt or lien against or upon the property, except one providing for satisfaction or survival of a lien of record held by a municipal or county governmental unit, or requiring the grantee to expend money for any purpose, except one that may require that the premises be kept in a sanitary or slightly condition or one to abate nuisances or undesirable conditions.

(3) Any right that the former owner had to enforce like restrictions and covenants against the immediate, mediate, or remote grantor and other parties owning other property held or sold under the same plat or plan, or in the same or adjacent subdivisions of land, or otherwise, except forfeitures, right of reentry, or reverter, shall likewise survive to the grantee in the tax deed or master's deed or clerk's certificate of title and to his or its heirs, successors and assigns. All forfeitures, rights of reentry, and reverter rights shall be destroyed and shall not survive to the grantee in the tax deed or master's deed or clerk's certificate of title or to his or its heirs, successors and assigns.

Note.—Former ss. 192.33, 197.530.

197.291 Disbursement of proceeds of sale.—

(1) If the property is purchased by any person other than the certificate holder, the clerk shall forthwith pay to the certificate holder all of the sums he has paid, including the amount required for the redemption of the certificate or certificates together with any and all subsequent unpaid taxes plus the costs and expenses of the application for deed, with interest on the total of such sums for 1 month at the rate of 18 percent per year. The clerk shall distribute the amount required to redeem the certificate or certificates and the amount required for the redemption of other tax certificates on the same land with omitted taxes and with all costs, plus interest thereon at the rate of 18 percent per year for 1 month, in the same manner as he distributes money received for the redemption of tax certificates owned by the county.

(2) If the property is purchased for an amount in excess of the statutory bid of the certificate holder, the excess shall be paid over and disbursed by the clerk. The clerk shall distribute the excess to the governmental units for the payment of any lien of record held by a governmental unit against the property. In the event the excess is not sufficient to pay all of such liens in full, the excess shall then be paid to each governmental unit pro rata. If, after all liens of record of the governmental units upon the property are paid in full, there remains a balance of undistributed funds, the balance of the purchase price shall be retained by the clerk for the benefit of the person who on the day of the sale was the legal ti-titleholder of record. The clerk shall mail a notice to the legal titleholder of record notifying him of the funds held for his benefit and shall pay to him upon demand the entire balance less a service charge at the same rate as prescribed in s. 28.24(14) and less the cost of mailing. Excess proceeds shall be held and disbursed in the same manner as unclaimed redemption moneys in s. 197.186 [F. S. 1973]. In the event excess proceeds are not sufficient to cover the service charge and mailing costs, the clerk shall receive the total amount of excess proceeds as a service charge.

(3) Any distribution by a clerk of unclaimed funds to the county from the sale of lands for taxes accumulated and disbursed prior to July 1, 1972 is ratified and validated upon the passage of this act.

197.302 County delinquent tax lands; method and procedure for sale by county.

(1) Lands acquired by any county of the state for delinquent taxes in accordance with law which have not been previously sold or dedicated by the board of county commissioners may, at its discretion, be conveyed to the record fee simple owner of such lands as of the date the county obtained title to the lands. However, before any conveyance shall be made, the former owner of the lands may file with the board of county commissioners a verified written application which shall show:

(a) The description of the lands for which a conveyance is sought;

(b) The name and address of the former owner;

(c) The date title was acquired by the county;

(d) The price of the lands as previously fixed by resolution of the board of county commissioners, if this has been done;

(e) The use to which the lands were enjoyed by the record fee simple owner at the time of acquisition by the county;

(f) A brief statement of the facts and circumstances upon which the former owner bases the request for restitution of the described property;

(g) An offer to pay an amount equal to all taxes, including municipal taxes and liens, if any, which had become delinquent, together with interest and costs provided by law.

(2) In the event the described lands have not been assessed for taxes for the current year in which the petition is filed, the applicant shall pay, in addition, the taxes for current and omitted years, the latter amount to be determined by applicable millage for the omitted years and based on the last assessment of the described lands.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22870, 1945; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 23, ch. 73-332.

Note.—Former ss. 194.471, 197.655.

197.306 Corrective county deeds without consideration or further notice.—As to all lands acquired by any county for delinquent taxes and thereafter described and recorded in the book designated "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes" on file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court and that have been through the procedures of public notice and public sale to the highest and best bidder and a conveyance issued by any county and the proceeds of the sale received by the county and the conveyance being invalid because the purchaser or one of the purchasers at the public sale and in the deed from the county was the clerk of the circuit court of the county, the board of county commissioners is authorized and empowered to convey the title to the lands to the record fee simple owners or the record grantees or successor grantees of the purchaser from the county and execute a proper conveyance therefor without further public notice or without further consideration.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-827; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 194.601, 197.690.

197.311 Grantee of tax deed entitled to immediate possession.—Any person, firm, corporation, or county that is the grantee of any tax deed under this law shall be entitled to the immediate possession of the lands described in the deed. If a demand for possession is refused, the purchaser may apply to the circuit court for a writ of assistance upon 5 days' notice directed to the person refusing to deliver possession. Upon service of the responsive pleadings, if any, the matter shall proceed as in chancery cases. If the court finds for the applicant, an order shall be issued by the court directing the sheriff to put the grantee in possession of the lands.

Note.—Former ss. 194.42, 197.640.

197.351 When taxes not due at time of sale.—When it appears to the Department of Revenue that the taxes on any land heretofore sold, or that may hereafter be sold, by the county for taxes were not due at the time of the sale upon the lands or any part thereof embraced in any certificate of sale, or that the sale was otherwise illegal or improper, the department shall have the power to cause the certificate to be canceled, in whole or in part, or cause it to be surrendered, in the manner and upon the terms as may in its judgment be best to protect the interest of the state and county and do justice to the owners. The collector shall make the cancellation or surrender and refund to the owner of the certificate on the order of the department.

Note.—Former ss. 194.26, 197.555.

197.354 False return of collection; penalty.—If any tax collector returns to the Department of Revenue and county commissioners as unpaid any tax that has been paid to him, he is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 40, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 5331; CGL 7464; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 95, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 193.74, 197.135.

197.356 Implementation of this act.—

(1) For the calendar year 1972 the clerks of the circuit court shall continue to administer delinquent taxes.

(2) The Department of Revenue is directed to provide any assistance to the tax collectors and the clerks of the circuit court during the period of implementation necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

(3) No clerk of the circuit court shall be relieved of accountability for any duty performed by his office prior to the transfer of the duty to the tax collector.

(4) All clerks of the circuit court and municipalities shall deliver to the county tax collector all lists of land sold for taxes and certificates for his collection. Every municipality which on January 1, 1973, had delinquent taxes for which certificates have never been sold shall retain until January 1, 1980, the power and duty to enforce the taxes as if this act and chapter 72-268, Laws of Florida, had not been enacted. All such municipal taxes shall, on January 1, 1980, become extinguished, null and void, unenforceable, and uncollectible in any manner and shall have no effect on the marketability of the title in any way.

(5) All certificates issued prior to December 31, 1972, shall remain in force with all rights then vested plus any that are created by chapter 72-268, except that the interest rate limit of 8 percent for all years subsequent to the first year after issuance shall remain in effect.

(6) The repeal by chapter 73-332 or chapter 72-268, Laws of Florida, of a curative provision that validates any document or act by any official under the provisions of this chapter shall not be interpreted as an impairment of the validation.

(7) The tax collector shall administer all lists of lands sold for taxes delivered to him by any governmental agency in the same manner as prescribed for county taxes.

(8) All unclaimed redemption moneys and tax deed surplus moneys in the possession of the state shall, if still unclaimed by July 1, 1975, become the property of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 26, ch. 73-332.

197.361 Murphy Act lands; costs and attorney fees for quieting title.—No costs or attorney fees of any party adverse to the state may be charged to the state in any proceeding to quiet title in any person to lands the title to which vested in the state under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268; s. 1, ch. 75-269; s. 52, ch. 77-104; s. 89, ch. 79-400.

197.366 Murphy Act; tax certificates barred.—The right to apply for a tax deed or to institute other action for recovery on, or enforcement of, tax sale certificates, and subsequent and omitted taxes in connection therewith, that were sold and assigned under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, commonly known as the Murphy Act, and which certificates are held by private holders, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee, estate of deceased person, or other person or persons under disability, or otherwise, shall be deemed and held to be barred by this section from and after midnight June 30, 1956.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29794, 1955; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.351, 197.325.

197.371 Murphy Act; cancellation of tax certificates held by clerks of the circuit court.—

(1) The clerk of the circuit court is authorized and directed, immediately after June 30, 1956, to note the cancellation of all tax sale certificates that were sold under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, commonly known as the Murphy Act, and that were then still outstanding upon any and all records in his office.

(2) The several clerks of the circuit court shall show the cancellation by entering opposite the record of the tax sale certificates, a notation in substantially the following form: "Canceled by Laws of Florida, 1955."

(3) For making each cancellation and otherwise complying with law in relation thereto the clerk shall receive the fees as provided by general law from the General Revenue Fund of the county for canceling tax certificates by marginal notations.

197.381 Title to certain tax certificate lands vested in state.—

(1) At the expiration of 2 years from the date chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, became a law, the fee simple title to all lands in this state against which there remained outstanding tax sale certificates which, on the date the act became a law, were more than 2 years old, became absolutely vested in the state, and every right, title, or interest of every nature or kind whatsoever of the former owner of the property or anyone claiming by, through, or under him, or anyone holding a lien thereon, terminated, and the state, through the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, may:

(a) Sell the lands to the highest bidder for cash at the time and after giving such notice and according to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the board of trustees;

(b) Sell or lease the lands to any governmental unit without notice and public sale, on terms and conditions to be determined by the board of trustees.

Such conveyances may, upon a showing of good cause, be made without consideration by the governmental unit receiving the property;

(c) Convey any parcel or easements for right-of-way to any agency or county of the state, without giving notice, on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board of trustees. Conveyances made under this section shall be subject to any interests granted or withheld;

(d) Withdraw parcels from public sale considered by the board of trustees to be valuable for public purposes, and dedicate the parcels to such public use as is considered necessary and proper by the trustees;

(e) Exchange lands for other lands when the exchange is considered by the board of trustees to be in the public interest;

(f) Convey easements to railroad companies, light and power companies, and other public service corporations without notice and on such terms and conditions as to the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund may be proper, and conveyances under (a), (b) and (e) herein shall be subject thereto.

(2) The Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is vested and charged with the administration, management, control, supervision, conservation and protection of lands and products on, under, or growing out of, or connected with, lands mentioned in this section, and for such purposes, laws relating to lands of the board of trustees shall be applicable.

197.386 Sale of Murphy Act lands to former owner; application; conveyance; distribution of proceeds.—

(1) Lands acquired by the state through delinquent ad valorem tax liens and the Murphy Act, chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, that have not been previously sold, conveyed, dedicated, or otherwise disposed of by the state, may be sold and conveyed by the state, through the board of trustees, to the record fee simple owner of the lands as of June 9, 1939, the date the lands became absolutely vested in the state, or to those claiming by, through, or under him by virtue of conveyance, mortgage, lien, or agreement, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as the board of trustees shall deem equitable and proper. No publication of a notice of sale or sale at auction to the highest and best bidder shall be necessary hereunder.

(2) Sale and conveyance of the lands hereunder shall be pursuant to application by the former owner, or those claiming by, through, or under the owner, that shall contain:

(a) A description of the lands sought to be purchased.

(b) The name and address, if known, of the former owner and the name and address of the applicant, if other than the former owner, showing the chain of title from the owner to the applicant.

(c) The mortgage and lienholders, if any, claiming under the former owner or his successors in title.

(d) The price offered for the lands, the amount of which shall accompany the application in cash or certified or cashier's checks.

(e) Any equities or elements of hardship, why the lands should be sold to the applicant under this statute instead of under s. 197.381.

(f) Such other information as the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund requires.

(g) Evidence satisfactory to the board of trustees of the payment of all taxes and assessments levied and assessed on the lands before the vesting of title in the state, with the payment of an amount equal to the sum of taxes and assessments that would have been due had the lands not vested in the state.

(3) Any original application pending for the purchase of the lands under s. 197.381 shall be suspended, upon the filing of the application hereunder, until the final disposition of the application, and the pendency of an original application shall not bar sale and conveyance hereunder unless and until a deed under s. 197.381 has been delivered to the purchaser.

(4) The form for conveyances hereunder shall be adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund.

(5) The proceeds of sales hereunder shall be distributed and disposed of as are the proceeds from sale under s. 197.381.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 28317, 1953; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.381, 197.355.

197.391 Construction of recodification.—This recodification of the sections relating to chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, by chapter 72-268, Laws of Florida, shall not serve to reinstate any right to maintain any action that had expired prior to this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-268.

197.401 Murphy Act lands; suits by former owners; limitations.—The former owner of land vested in the state by virtue of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, and others having or claiming by, through, or under him, shall have a period of 6 months from the time this section becomes a law to bring an action to recover the land or to enforce any right of the former owner, or any claim by, through, or under the former owner, or to set aside a sale by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund, and on failure to assert the right within the time set in this section, shall be forever barred and foreclosed of all claims in and to the lands.

History.—s. 1, ch. 21685, 1943; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.47, 197.380.

197.406 Murphy Act lands and other lands held under tax proceedings; suits by former owners; limitations.—

(1) The former owner, and others having or claiming by, through or under him, of land title to which is or was claimed by the state under and by virtue of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, shall have 1 year from the time a deed of the land by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund is recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court to sue to recover the land or to enforce any right of the former owner, or any claim by,

through or under the former owner, or to set aside a sale by the trustees, and on failure to assert the right within the time set out in this section shall be forever barred and foreclosed of claims as aforesaid in and to the land.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to any deed hereafter executed pursuant to any tax foreclosure or tax forfeiture to satisfy a tax lien and to any deed executed by the state, county, municipality, drainage district, or other taxing unit, conveying or purporting to convey any real estate title to which is claimed pursuant to any tax foreclosure, tax forfeiture, or any other proceeding to satisfy a tax lien, in the same manner and to the same extent as this section applies to a deed executed by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund as referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The former owner of, and any persons having or claiming any interest in, any land the title to which has heretofore passed or purportedly passed to another by virtue of any deed executed within the past 5 years pursuant to any tax foreclosure or procedure or tax forfeiture to satisfy a tax lien, and executed by the state, or any county, municipality, drainage district, or other taxing unit within the state, shall have 1 year from the time this section becomes law within which to sue to recover the land or to enforce any right of the former owner or any claim or interest of any person therein, and upon failure to assert the right, claim, or interest within the time set out in this subsection, the owner and other persons shall be forever barred and foreclosed of rights, claims, or interests as aforesaid in and to the land.

(4) When the land conveyed by any such deed is in the actual and open possession of anyone other than the grantee named in the deed, the grantee in the deed, or any one claiming by, through, or under him, shall bring appropriate action within 3 years from the date of the deed for the possession of the land described in the deed.

(5) This section shall not apply to any lands upon which the taxes that were the basis for the issuance of a tax deed had been paid or the land in question was tax exempt or was not subject to any portion of the tax.

History.—s. 2, ch. 21685, 1943; s. 1, ch. 23827, 1947; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.48, 197.385.

197.411 Murphy Act lands; conveyances, leases, etc., confirmed.—Subject to the time limit set forth in ss. 197.401 and 197.406, all deeds, leases, and easements heretofore executed by the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund on behalf of the state under the provisions of chapter 18296, Laws of Florida, 1937, and s. 197.381 shall be valid in all respects.

History.—s. 3, ch. 21685, 1943; s. 2, ch. 61-119; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; ss. 27, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.49, 197.390.

197.421 Certificates purchased under Murphy Act.—Holders of tax sale certificates together with subsequent omitted taxes, purchased by persons not the owners of the lands described in such certificates, under the provisions of chapter 18296, Acts 1937, shall, at the expiration of 2 years from the date of the sale of such certificates, except certificates encumbering homesteads, have the right to apply for tax deeds, in the manner provided by law, to the lands described in such certificates; provided, that for 2 years from the date of the sale of any certificate, the person holding title to the lands described in said certificate, on the date it became 2 years old, his grantee or legal representative or anyone holding a lien upon such land, shall have the right to redeem the same from said certificate so sold, by the payment of the amount bid therefor plus 3 percent per annum from the date of said certificate, together with all costs paid by the purchaser in connection with the purchase of said certificate.

History.—s. 6, ch. 18296, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 992(17); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.35, 197.320.

197.426 Homesteads; certificates purchased under Murphy Act.—In the event any tax certificate, together with subsequent or omitted taxes, encumbering a homestead was purchased under chapter 18296, Acts 1937, by any person, not the owner of the land described in such certificate, then at the expiration of 10 years from the date of such sale of such certificate such purchaser shall have the right to apply for tax deed, as provided by law, for land described in such certificate; provided, that for 10 years from date of sale of such certificate the person who held title to said land on date said certificate became 2 years old, his grantee or legal representative or anyone holding a lien on such land shall have the right to redeem such land from such certificate by the payment of the amount bid therefor plus 3 percent per annum from the date of sale of such certificate together with all costs paid in connection with sale of said certificate.

History.—s. 11, ch. 18296, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 992(22); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.36, 197.340.

197.431 Cancellation of certificates purchased under Murphy Act.—The holder of any tax sale certificate, by purchase, assignment, or otherwise, purchased under the provisions of chapter 18296, Acts of 1937, shall have the right, at any time, to deliver such certificate to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the lands are situated, for cancellation and said clerk shall cancel the certificates of record upon the payment of a fee of 10 cents for each certificate so canceled.

History.—s. 7, ch. 18296, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 992(18); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 72-268.

Note.—Former ss. 192.37, 197.345.

197.441 Cancellation of certain tax sale certificates.—

(1) The clerks of the circuit court of the several counties of the state are hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to note the cancellation by this section of any and all tax sale certificates issued for state taxes, state and county taxes, or municipal taxes, and held by any private holder, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee estate of a deceased person, or other person or persons under disability or otherwise, where the land covered by such tax sale certificate heretofore reverted to the state for non-payment of delinquent taxes under the provisions of the Murphy Act.

(2) The clerks of the circuit court shall accomplish such cancellation by entering opposite the record of each such tax sale certificate so canceled a notation in substantially the following form: "Canceled by Acts 1947 Florida Legislature."

198.01 Definitions.—When used in this chapter the term, phrase or word:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Revenue.

(2) "Executor" means the executor, administrator or curator of the decedent, or, if there is no executor, administrator or curator appointed, qualified and acting, then any person who is in the actual or constructive possession of any property included in the gross estate of the decedent;

(3) "Person" means persons, corporations, associations, joint stock companies and business trusts;

(4) "Transfer" shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or appointment in the manner herein described;

(5) "Decedent" shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, or donor;

(6) "Resident" means a natural person domiciled in the state;

(7) "Nonresident" means a natural person domiciled without the state;

(8) "Gross estate" means the gross estate as determined under the provisions of the applicable Federal Revenue Act;

(9) "Net estate" means the net estate as determined under the provisions of the applicable Federal Revenue Act;

(10) "Tangible personal property" means corporeal personal property, including money; and the term "intangible personal property" means incorporeal personal property including deposits in banks, negotiable instruments, mortgages, debts, receivables, shares of stock, bonds, notes, credits, evidences of an interest in property, evidences of debt and choses in action generally.

(11) "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the 50 states, and the District of Columbia.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(81); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 44, ch. 71-377.

198.015 Domicile of decedent.—

(1) For the purposes of this chapter, every person shall be presumed to have died a resident and not a nonresident of the state:

(a) If such person has dwelt or lodged in the state during and for the greater part of any period of 12 consecutive months in the 24 months next preceding his death, notwithstanding the fact that from time to time during such 24 months such person may have sojourned outside of this state, and without regard to whether or not such person may have voted, may have been entitled to vote, or may have been assessed for taxes in this state; or

(b) If such person has been a resident of Florida, sojourning outside of this state.

(2) The burden of proof in an estate tax proceeding shall be upon any person claiming exemption by reason of alleged nonresidency. Domicile shall be determined exclusively in the proceedings provided in this chapter, and orders relating to domicile previously entered in the probate proceedings shall not be conclusive for the purposes of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-411.

198.02 Tax upon estates of resident decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every person who, at the time of death, was a resident of this state, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states shall exceed the lesser of:

(1) The aggregate amount of all constitutionally valid estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states of the United States (other than this state) in respect of any property owned by such decedent or subject to such taxes as a part of or in connection with his estate, or

(2) An amount equal to such proportion of such allowable credit as the value of properties taxable by other states bears to the value of the entire gross estate wherever situate.

All values shall be as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes.

History.—s. 3, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(83); s. 1, ch. 71-202.

198.03 Tax upon estates of nonresident decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of real property situate in this state, upon tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state, upon intangible personal property having a business situs in this state and upon stocks, bonds, debentures, notes and other securities or obligations of corporations organized under the laws of this state, of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of this state but was a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount of the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states, as the value of the property taxable in this state bears to the value of the entire gross estate wherever situate.

History.—s. 4, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(84); s. 1, ch. 28031, 1953.

198.04 Tax upon estates of alien decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of real property situate and tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state and upon intangible personal property physically present within this state of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the credit allowable under the applicable Federal Revenue Act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states, as the value of the property taxable in this state bears to the value of the estate taxable by the United States wherever situate. For the purpose of this section, stock in a corporation organized under the laws of this state shall be deemed physically present within this state.

The amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a decedent who at the time of his death was not a resident of the United States, and any moneys deposited with any person carrying on the banking business by or for such decedent who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death, shall not, for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be physically present in this state.

History.—s. 5, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(85).

198.05 Administration of law by Department of Revenue.—The Department of Revenue shall, except as otherwise provided, have jurisdiction and be charged with the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.06 Examination of books, papers, records, etc., by the department.—

(1) The department, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, may examine any books, papers, records or memoranda, bearing upon the matter required to be included in the return; may require the attendance of persons rendering return or of any officer or employee of such persons, or of any person having knowledge in the premises, at any convenient place in the county in which such person resides, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, and may administer oaths to such persons.

(2) If any person summoned to appear under this chapter to testify, or to produce books, papers, or other data, shall refuse to do so, the circuit court for the county in which such person resides shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, or other data.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.07 Appointment of agents by department; bonds of agents; may administer oaths; credentials.—

(1) The department may appoint and remove such examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees as it may deem necessary, such persons to have such duties and powers as the department may from time to time prescribe. The salaries of all examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees employed by the department shall be such as it may prescribe, and such examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061.

(2) The department may require such of the examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees as it may designate to give bond payable to the state for the faithful performance of their duties in such form and with such sureties as it may determine, and all premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the state.

(3) All officers empowered by law to administer oaths and the examiners, appraisers and attorneys appointed by the department may administer an oath to all persons giving any testimony before them or to take the acknowledgment of any person in respect to any return or report required under this chapter.

(4) All examiners, appraisers and attorneys appointed by the department shall have for identification purpose proper credentials issued by the department and exhibit the same upon demand.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); s. 19, ch. 63-400; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.
cf.—s. 112.061 Traveling expenses.
s. 113.07 Bonds of officials.

198.08 Rules and regulations.—The department may from time to time make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as it may deem necessary to enforce its provisions, and may adopt such rules and regulations as are or may be promulgated with respect to the estate tax provisions of the Revenue Act of the United States insofar as they shall be applicable hereto. The department may from time to time prescribe such forms as it shall deem proper for the administration of this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.09 Information confidential; exceptions.—

(1) Except in accordance with proper judicial order, as provided by subsection (2), or as otherwise provided by law, it constitutes a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, for the department or any examiner, appraiser, attorney, or other employee to divulge or make known in any manner the value of any estate or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof. However, the department may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, any collector of Internal Revenue or Internal Revenue agent of the United States, or the proper officer of any state imposing an estate tax or inheritance tax or the authorized representative of such officer to inspect the estate tax returns of any individual or may furnish to such officer or his authorized representatives an abstract of the return of any executor or furnish information concerning any item contained in any return or disclosed by the report of any investigation of the return of any executor.

(2)(a) Any information received by the Department of Revenue in connection with the operation and enforcement of this chapter, including, but not limited to, information contained in returns and reports filed by persons subject to tax, shall be made available by the department to the Auditor General or his authorized agent in the performance of his official duties; however, no information shall be disclosed to the Auditor General or his authorized agent when such disclosure is prohibited by federal law. The Auditor General and his authorized agent shall be subject to the same requirements of confidentiality and subject to the same penalties for violation of the requirements as the department. The provisions of this subsection shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law unless the conflicting provision contains a specific exemption from this subsection.

(b) This subsection shall expire and cease to take effect on July 1, 1981.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 96, ch. 71-136; ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-252.

198.10 Suits by or against department; special counsel.—

(1) The department may sue and be sued but shall not be required to give supersedeas or other bond in any cause or court of this state.

(2) Said department may employ special counsel to advise it and to conduct any litigation or proceeding that may be brought by or against it, and such special counsel shall be paid such compensation as said department shall deem proper.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.11 Appointment of special appraisers.—The department may employ special appraisers for the purpose of determining the value of any property which is, or is believed by the department to be, subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and such special appraisers shall be paid such compensation as said department shall deem proper.

History.—s. 6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.12 Notice of death to department; tax return.—The executor, within 2 months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the department on the form prepared and published by the department known as the preliminary notice and report.

History.—s. 7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); s. 1, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 71-202.

198.13 Tax return to be made in certain cases.—The executor of every estate required by the laws of the United States to file a federal estate tax return shall file with the department within 9 months from the date of death a return consisting of an executed copy of the federal estate tax return, and shall file with such return all supplemental data, if any, as may be necessary to determine and establish the correct tax under this chapter. Such return shall be made in the case of every decedent who at the time of his death was not a resident of the United States and whose gross estate shall include any real property situate and tangible personal property having an actual situs in the state and intangible personal property physically present within the state.

History.—s. 7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); s. 2, ch. 28031, 1953; s. 2, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 71-202.

198.14 Failure to make return; extension of time for filing.—If the federal taxing authorities grant an extension of time for filing a return the department shall allow a like extension of time for filing upon the filing by the executor of a copy of such federal extension with the department. An extension of time for filing a return shall not operate to extend the time for payment of the tax. If any person fails to file a return at the time prescribed by law or files, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the department shall make the return from its own knowledge and from such information as it can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any such return so made by the department shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes.

History.—s. 7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); s. 3, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.15 When tax due; extension; interest.—The tax imposed by this chapter shall be due and payable 9 months after the decedent's death, and shall be paid by the executor to the department. Where the department finds that the payment on the due date of the tax or any part thereof would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the department may extend the time for payment of any such part, but no extension shall be for more than 1 year, and the aggregate of extensions with respect to any estate shall not exceed 10 years from the due date. In such case, the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension, unless a further extension be granted. If the time for the payment is thus extended, there shall be collected, as part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of one-half of 1 percent per month of the amount due from the due date of the tax to the date the same shall be paid.

History.—s. 8, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(88); s. 3, ch. 28031, 1953; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 71-202; s. 1, ch. 76-261; s. 2, ch. 77-411.

198.16 Notice of determination of deficiency in federal estate tax to be filed with department.—It shall be the duty of the executor to file with the department within 60 days after a final determination of any deficiency in federal estate tax has been made, written notice thereof. If, based upon such deficiency and the ground therefor, it shall appear that the amount of tax previously paid is less than the amount of tax owing, the difference, together with interest at the rate of 1 percent per month from the due date of the tax, shall be paid upon notice and demand by the department. In the event the executor shall fail to give the notice required by this section, any additional tax which shall be owing may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment at any time prior to the filing of such notice or within 30 days after the delinquent filing of such notice, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 198.28.

History.—s. 9, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(89); s. 4, ch. 28031, 1953; s. 4, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 77-411.

198.17 Deficiency; hearing by department.—If upon examination of any return a tax or a deficiency in tax is disclosed, the department shall proceed to determine all questions involving such tax or deficiency. Such tax or deficiency in tax shall be assessed and paid together with the penalty and interest, if any, applicable thereto, within 60 days after such demand as may be included in the department's order.

History.—s. 10, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(90); s. 5, ch. 29718, 1955; s. 19, ch. 63-559; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

198.18 Failure to pay tax; civil penalties; delinquent or deficient taxes, interest.—

(1) If any part of a deficiency in tax due under the provisions of this chapter is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations issued pursuant hereto, with knowledge thereof but without intent to defraud, there shall be added as a penalty 5 percent of the total amount of the deficiency in tax, and if any part of such deficiency is willfully made with intent to defraud, there shall be added as a penalty 50 percent of the total amount of such deficiency, which penalty shall become due and payable upon notice and demand by the department, and such executor shall be liable to the state personally and on his official bond, if any, for any loss to the state accruing under the provisions of this section through his negligence or willful neglect. No interest shall be collected upon the amount of any penalty. The department may compromise or remit any penalty imposed pursuant to this section.

(2) Any deficiency in tax or any tax payment not received by the department on or before the due date as provided in s. 198.15, in addition to any other penalties, shall bear interest at the rate of 1 percent per month of the amount due from the due date until paid.

History.—s. 11, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(91); s. 6, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 76-261; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

198.19 Receipts for taxes.—The department shall issue to the executor upon payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, receipts in triplicate, any of which shall be sufficient evidence of such payment, and shall entitle the executor to be credited and allowed the amount thereof by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts. If the executor files a complete return and makes written application to the department for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the department as soon as possible, and in any event within 1 year after receipt of such application, shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax, and upon payment thereof the executor shall be discharged from personal liability for any additional tax thereafter found to be due, and shall be entitled to receive from the department a receipt in writing showing such discharge; provided, however, that such discharge shall not operate to release the gross estate of the lien of any additional tax that may thereafter be found to be due, while the title to such gross estate remains in the executor or in the heirs, devisees, or distributees thereof; but after such discharge is given, no part of such gross estate shall be subject to such lien or to any claim or demand for any such tax after the title thereto has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value.

History.—s. 12, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(92); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.20 Failure to pay tax when due, department's warrant, etc.—If any tax imposed by this chapter or any portion of such tax be unpaid within 90 days after the same becomes due, and the time for payment be not extended, the department shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the state in which the estate or any part thereof may be situated, commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of such estate found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with such interest and penalties, if any, as may have accrued thereon or been assessed against the same, together with the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant, to the department and pay to it the money collected by virtue thereof, by a time to be therein specified, not less than 60 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff thereupon shall proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for services in executing the warrant as are now allowed by law for like services to be collected in the same manner as now provided by law. Alias and pluries warrants may issue from time to time as said department may deem proper until the entire amount of the tax, deficiency, interest, penalties and costs have been recovered.

History.—s. 13, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(93); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.21 Tax due payable from entire estate; third persons.—If the tax or any part thereof is paid or collected out of that part of the estate passing to or in possession of any person other than the executor in his capacity as such, such person shall be entitled to a reimbursement out of any part of the estate still undistributed or by a just and equitable contribution by the person whose interest in the estate of the decedent would have been reduced if the tax had been paid before the distribution of the estate or whose interest in the estate is subject to an equal or prior liability for the payment of tax, debts, or other charges against the estate, it being the purpose and intent of this section that so far as is practical and unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent, the tax shall be paid out of the estate before its distribution; but the department shall not be charged with enforcing contribution from any person.

History.—s. 14, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(94); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.22 Lien for unpaid taxes.—Unless the tax is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien for 12 years upon the gross estate of the decedent, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of such lien, and except that such part of the gross estate of a resident decedent as is transferred to a bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or pledgee, for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of such lien and such lien shall then attach to the consideration received for such property from such purchaser, mortgagee, or pledgee. If the department is satisfied that no tax liability exists or that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, it may issue a waiver releasing any or all property of such estate from the lien herein imposed.

History.—s. 15, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(95); s. 1, ch. 57-108;

s. 13, ch. 59-1; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 77-411.

198.23 Personal liability of executor, etc.—If any executor shall make distribution either in whole or in part of any of the property of an estate to the heirs, next of kin, distributees, legatees or devisees without having paid or secured the tax due the state under this chapter, or obtained the release of such property from the lien of such tax he shall become personally liable for the tax so due the state, or so much thereof as may remain due and unpaid, to the full extent of the full value of any property belonging to such person or estate which may come into his hands, custody or control.

History.—s. 16, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(96).

198.24 Sale of real estate by executor to pay tax.—Every executor shall have the same right and power to take possession of or sell, convey and dispose of real estate as assets of the estate for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter as he may have for the payment of the debts of the decedent.

History.—s. 17, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(97).

198.25 Actions to enforce payment of tax.—Actions may be brought within the time or times herein specified by the department to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties and interest due under this chapter. Every such action shall be brought in the county where the estate is being or has been administered, or if no administration be had in this state, then in any county where any of the property of the estate shall be situate.

History.—s. 18, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(98); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.26 No discharge of executor until tax is paid.—No final account of an executor of the estate of a nonresident, nor of the estate of a resident where the value of the gross estate wherever situate exceeds $60,000 shall be allowed by any court unless and until such account shows, and the judge of said court finds, that the tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter upon said executor, which has become payable, has been paid. The certificate of the department of nonliability for tax or its receipt for the amount of tax therein certified shall be conclusive in such proceedings as to the liability or the payment of the tax to the extent of said certificate.

History.—s. 19, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(99); s. 7, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.27 Agreements as to amount of tax due.—For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by executors, the department may, on behalf of the state, agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such executor under the provisions of this statute, and payment in accordance with such agreement shall be full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates.

History.—s. 20, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(100); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.28 Time for assessment of tax.—The amount of estate tax due under this chapter shall be determined and assessed within 4 years from the date the return was filed, or within a period expiring 90 days after the last day on which the assessment of a deficiency in federal estate tax may lawfully be made under applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States, whichever date last occurs, and no suit or other proceedings for the collection of any tax due under this chapter shall be begun after such date; provided, however, that in the case of a false or fraudulent return or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

History.—s. 21, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(101); s. 5, ch. 28031, 1953; s. 8, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.29 Refunds of excess tax paid.—

(1) Wherever it appears upon the examination of any return made under this chapter or upon proof submitted to the department by the executor, that an amount of estate tax has been paid in excess of the tax legally due under this chapter, then the amount of such overpayment, together with any overpayment of interest thereon shall be refunded to the executor and paid upon the warrant of the Comptroller drawn upon the State Treasurer who shall honor and pay the same; and such refund shall be made by the department as a matter of course regardless of whether or not the executor has filed a written claim therefor, except that upon request of the department, the executor shall file with the department a conformed copy of any written claim for refund of federal estate tax which has theretofore been filed with the United States.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, no refund of estate tax shall be made nor shall any executor be entitled to bring any action for refund of estate tax after the expiration of 4 years from the date of payment of the tax to be refunded unless there shall have been filed with the department written notice of any administrative or judicial determination of the federal estate tax liability of the estate, whichever shall last occur, and such notice shall have been so filed not later than 60 days after such determination shall have become final.

(3) For the purpose of this section, an administrative determination shall be deemed to have become final on the date of receipt by the executor or other interested party of the final payment to be made refunding federal estate tax or upon the last date on which the executor or any other interested party shall receive notice from the United States that an overpayment of federal estate tax has been credited by the United States against any liability other than federal estate tax of said estate. A final judicial determination shall be deemed to have occurred on the date on which any judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction and determining that there has been an overpayment of federal estate tax becomes final.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent an executor from bringing or maintaining an action in any court of competent jurisdiction within any period otherwise prescribed by law to determine any question bearing upon the taxable situs of property, the domicile of a decedent, or otherwise affecting the jurisdiction of the state to impose an inheritance or estate tax with respect to a particular item or items of property.

198.30 Circuit judge to furnish department with names of decedents, etc.—The circuit judges of this state shall, on or before the tenth day of every month, notify the department of the names of all decedents, the names and addresses of the respective executors, administrators or curators appointed, the amount of the bonds, if any, required by the court, and the probable value of the estates, in all estates of decedents whose wills have been probated or propounded for probate before him or upon which letters testamentary or upon whose estates letters of administration or curatorship have been sought or granted, during the preceding month, and such report shall contain any other information which the circuit judge may have concerning the estate of such decedents; and said circuit judge shall also furnish forthwith such further information, from the records and files of the circuit court in regard to such estates, as the department may from time to time require.

History.—s. 23, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(103); s. 9, ch. 29718, 1955; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 20, ch. 73-334.

198.31 Duties and powers of corporate executors of nonresident decedents.—If the executor of the estate of a nonresident be a corporation duly authorized, qualified and acting as such executor in the jurisdiction of the domicile of such decedent, it shall be under the duties and obligations as to the giving of notices and filing of returns required by this chapter, and may bring and defend actions and suits as may be authorized or permitted by this chapter, to the same extent as an individual executor, notwithstanding that such corporation may be prohibited from exercising, in this state, any powers as executor, but nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed as authorizing corporations not authorized to do business in this state to qualify or act as executor, administrator or in any other fiduciary capacity, if otherwise prohibited by the laws of this state, except to the extent herein expressly provided.

History.—s. 24, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(104).

198.32 Prima facie liability for tax.—The estate of each decedent whose property shall be subject to the laws of the state shall be deemed prima facie liable for estate taxes under this chapter, and shall be subject to a lien therefor in such amount as may be later determined to be due and payable on such estate as provided in this chapter. Such presumption of liability shall begin on the date of the death of the decedent and shall continue until the full settlement of all taxes which may be found to be due under this chapter, such settlement to be shown by receipts for all taxes due to be issued by the department as provided for in this chapter. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the department that an estate is not subject to any tax under this chapter such department shall issue to the executor, administrator, curator, or other personal representative, or to the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the decedent, a certificate in writing to that effect, showing such nonliability to tax, which certificate of nonliability shall have the same force and effect as a receipt showing payment. Such certificate of nonliability shall be subject to record and admissible in evidence in like manner as receipts showing payment of taxes. There shall be paid to the department a fee of $5 for each certificate so issued.

History.—s. 25, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(105); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 71-202.

198.33 Discharge of estate, notice of lien, limitation on lien, etc.—

(1) Where no receipt for the payment of taxes, or no receipt of nonliability for taxes has been issued or recorded as provided for in this chapter, the property constituting the estate of the decedent in this state shall be deemed fully acquitted and discharged of all liability for estate and inheritance taxes under this chapter after a lapse of 10 years from the date of the filing with the department of notice of the decedent's death, or after a lapse of 10 years from the date of the filing with the department of an estate tax return, whichever date shall be earlier, unless the department shall make out and file and have recorded in the public records of the county wherein any part of the estate of the decedent may be situated in this state, a notice of lien against the property of the estate, specifying the amount or approximate amount of taxes claimed to be due to the state under this chapter, which notice of lien shall continue said lien in force for an additional period of 5 years or until payment is made. Such notice of lien shall be filed and recorded in the book of deeds in the office of the clerk of the circuit court; provided, where no receipt for the payment of taxes, or no certificate of nonliability for taxes, has been issued or recorded as provided for in this chapter, the property constituting the estate of the decedent in this state, if said decedent was a resident of this state at the time of his death, shall be deemed fully acquitted and discharged of all liability for tax under this chapter after a lapse of 10 years from the date of the death of the decedent, unless the department shall make out and file and have recorded notice of lien as herein provided, which notice shall continue said lien in force against such property of the estate as is situated in the county wherein said notice of lien was recorded for an additional period of 5 years or until payment is made.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section or this chapter, no lien for estate and inheritance taxes under this chapter shall continue for more than 20 years from the date of death of the decedent, whether the decedent be a resident or non-resident of this state.

cf.—s. 28.24 Fees of clerk of circuit court.

198.331 Retroactive effect of ss. 198.22 and 198.33.—The provisions of ss. 198.22 and 198.33 as amended by ch. 57-108 shall apply to estates of decedents dying after 12:01 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, October 1, 1933.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-108; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 57, ch. 73-333.

198.34 Disposition of proceeds from taxes.—

All taxes and fees levied and collected under this chapter shall be paid into the Treasury of the State to the credit of the general revenue fund.

198.35 Interpretation and construction.—

When not otherwise provided for in this chapter, the rules of interpretation and construction applicable to the estate and inheritance tax laws of the United States effective January 1, 1979, shall apply to and be followed in the interpretation of this chapter.

History.—s. 32, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(111); s. 5, ch. 77-411; s. 1, ch. 79-34.

198.36 Failure to produce records; penalty.—

Whoever fails to comply with any duty imposed upon him by this law, or having in his possession or control any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate of the decedent, or, having in his possession or control any property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, fails to exhibit the same upon request to the department or any examiner, appraiser, or attorney appointed pursuant to this chapter, who desires to examine the same in the performance of his duties under this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $500 to be recovered, with costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the state.

History.—s. 27, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(107); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

198.37 Failure to make return; penalty.—

Any person required under this chapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 27, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(3a); s. 97, ch. 71-136.

198.38 False return; penalty.—

Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises, the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, this chapter of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim or document) be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 27, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(3a); s. 98, ch. 71-136.

198.39 False statement in return; penalty.—Whoever knowingly makes any false statement in any notice or return required to be filed under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 27, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(3a); s. 99, ch. 71-136.

198.40 Failure to pay tax, evasion of tax, etc.; penalty.—Any person required under this chapter to collect, account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this chapter who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 27, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(3a); s. 100, ch. 71-136.

198.41 Effectiveness of this chapter, etc.—This chapter shall remain in force and effect so long as the Government of the United States retains in full force and effect as a part of the Revenue Laws of the United States a Federal Estate Tax, and this chapter shall cease to be operative as and when the Government of the United States ceases to impose any Estate Tax of the United States.

History.—s. 29, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(109).

198.42 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Estate Tax Law of Florida."

History.—s. 1, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(80).

198.44 Certain exemptions from inheritance and estate taxes.—The tax imposed under the inheritance and estate tax laws of this state in respect to personal property (except tangible property having an actual situs in this state) shall not be payable:

(1) If the transferor at the time of his death was a resident of a state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, which at the time of his death did not impose a death tax of any character in respect to property of residents of this state (except tangible personal property having an actual situs in such state, territory or district); or

(2) If the laws of the state, territory or district of the residence of the transferor at the time of his death contained a reciprocal exemption provision under which nonresidents were exempted from said death taxes of every character in respect to personal property (except tangible personal property having an actual situs therein), and provided that the state, territory or district of the residence of such nonresident decedent allowed a similar exemption to residents of the state, territory or district of residence of such decedent.

199.012 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Intangible Personal Property Tax Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.023 Definitions.—The following terms and phrases when used in this chapter shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Intangible personal property" means all personal property which is not in itself intrinsically valuable, but which derives its chief value from that which it represents, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Money, including, without limitation, United States legal tender, certificates of deposit, cashier's and certified checks, bills of exchange, drafts, the cash equivalent of annuities and life insurance policies, and similar instruments:

1. Held by a taxpayer;
2. Deposited in or with banks or other corporations, institutions, or persons doing a similar type of business;
3. Placed with, deposited with, or entrusted as a shareholder to building and loan associations, savings associations, credit unions, or similar institutions; or
4. Deposited with or held by any person.

(b) All stocks or shares of incorporated or unincorporated companies, business trusts, and mutual funds.

(c) All beneficial interests of residents in trusts.

(d) All notes, bonds, and other obligations for the payment of money.

(e) All condominium and cooperative apartment leases of recreation facilities, land leases, and leases of other commonly used facilities. These leases shall not be valued as other than intangibles.

(2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, joint adventure, syndicate, or other group or combination acting as a unit, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or other fiduciary and shall include the plural as well as the singular.

(3) "Taxpayer" means any person liable for taxes imposed under this chapter, any agent required to file and pay any taxes imposed hereunder, and the heirs, successors, assignees, and transferees of any such person or agent.

(4) "Department" means the Department of Revenue.

(5) "In the state" means within the exterior limits of Florida.

(6) "Beneficial interest" means the ownership of one or more property rights in the principal or income of a trust, whether vested, contingent, or subject to conditions, but it shall not mean an interest in trust income only.

(7) "Affiliated group" means one or more chains of includable corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation, incorporated in or having its principal place of business in the state, which is an includable corporation, providing that:

(a) Stock possessing at least 80 percent of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 80 percent of each class of the nonvoting stock of each of the includable corporations, excepting therefrom the common parent corporation, is owned directly by one or more of the other includable corporations; and

(b) The common parent corporation owns directly stock possessing at least 80 percent of the voting power of all classes of stock and at least 80 percent of each class of the nonvoting stock of at least one of the other includable corporations.

As used in this subsection the term "nonvoting stock" does not include nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

(8) "Genuine primary security" means the collateral to which the taxpayer, either by law, regulation, or contract, looks first for collection.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 1, ch. 74-237; s. 1, ch. 76-130; s. 4, ch. 76-222.

199.032 Levy.—There is hereby levied, to be assessed and collected as provided by this chapter:

(1) An annual tax of 1 mill on the dollar of the just valuation of all intangible personal property, except money as defined in s. 199.023(1)(a), and except notes, bonds, and other obligations for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real property situated in the state;

(2) A nonrecurring tax of 2 mills on the dollar of the just valuation of all notes, bonds, and other obligations for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real property situated in the state.

(3) When notes, bonds, and other obligations for the payment of money are secured by personalty, taxable as provided for in subsection (1), are also secured by real property, taxable as provided for in subsection (2), the taxpayer may elect to be taxed under subsections (1) and (2) hereof, and the tax shall be apportioned, based upon the value of the genuine primary security.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 1, ch. 71-987; s. 2, ch. 76-130.

199.042 Date of delinquency; discounts for early payment.—

(1)(a) All annual taxes on intangible personal property shall be due and payable so as to be received by the department by June 30 of each year, and shall be delinquent on and after July 1 of each year. However, no return to the department shall be considered delinquent when said return is postmarked, other than by a postage meter, not later than the thirtieth day of such month.

(b) The full amount of the taxes shown on any return required under this chapter shall accompany the return at the time of its filing. On all payments, discounts for early payment thereof shall be allowed as follows:

1. For payment in April or prior thereto, 4 percent;

2. For payment in May, 2 percent;

3. Tax payments made in June shall be without discount.

(2) All intangible taxes on notes, bonds and other obligations for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real property situated in the state shall be due and payable when the instrument is recorded or sought to be enforced.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 3, ch. 72-277.

199.052 Returns.—

(1) It is hereby made the duty of every person in the state, and every person who has become a legal resident of the state on or before January 1, who owns or has control, management, or custody of intangible personal property which is subject to annual taxation under this chapter to file a sworn return with the department on or before June 30 of each year, listing separately the character, description, location, and just valuation of all such property.

(2) No taxpayer subject to the annual tax imposed by this chapter shall be required to file a return or pay a tax thereunder if the aggregate annual tax upon the taxpayer's intangible personal property for any year is less than $5. Agents and fiduciaries shall report for each person for whom they hold intangibles if the aggregate annual tax on each person is more than $5.

(3) Husband and wife may file a joint return listing all intangible personal property held jointly or singly by them, and they shall be jointly liable for the payment of all taxes due under this chapter.

Husband and wife filing jointly shall be entitled to two exemptions as provided in s. 199.072(3).

(4) The beneficial interest of a resident of Florida in a foreign trust shall be returned by the resident unless the trustee returns the resident's beneficial interest for taxation. Any foreign trustee may return the full value of the principal of the trust for taxation, in which event the owners of all beneficial interests in the trust shall not be required to return such interests.

(5) An affiliated group of corporations shall have the privilege of making a consolidated return. The making of a consolidated return shall be upon the condition that all includable corporations which are members of the affiliated group consent to be included in said return. The making of a consolidated return shall be considered as such consent; however, the making of a consolidated return shall not operate to provide taxable situs for intangibles held by an includable corporation when the intangibles would not otherwise be required to be returned for taxation. The fact that members of an affiliated group own stock in corporations which do not qualify under the stock ownership requirements as members of an affiliated group will not preclude the filing of a consolidated return on behalf of the qualified members. In the case of consolidated returns, intercompany accounts, including the capital stock of an includable corporation other than the parent, owned by another includable corporation, shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter. However, capital stock and other intercompany accounts of a nonqualified member of the affiliated group shall be returned and taxed. Each corporation filing a consolidated return shall submit therewith a separate balance sheet, which shall properly identify and separately state all intercompany accounts, for each company included therein.

(6) The tax imposed on intangible personal property reported and paid by a trustee under subsections (1) or (4), as agent, shall not be returned by the person owning, or having a beneficial interest in, such property.

(7)(a) Every person who shall take, receive, or record any note, bond, or other obligation for the payment of money which is secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other written specific lien in the nature of a mortgage upon real property situated in the state shall pay the tax prescribed by this chapter in respect to the debt or obligation secured thereby to the clerk of the circuit court at the time the instrument is presented for recordation or, if not so presented, at the time of execution. In evidence thereof the clerk of the circuit court, upon receiving payment thereof, shall place on such instrument a notation showing the amount of tax levied by this chapter and received by him.

(b) Any mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien given to replace a defective mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, covering the identical real property as the original and securing identical original note or obligation, may be recorded without payment of additional tax upon proof of payment of the tax upon the original recording. The clerk shall place a notation on the new mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien showing that the tax has been paid on the original recording.

(c) No mortgage, deed of trust, or written evidence of a specific lien in the nature of a mortgage on real property shall be recorded in any public record of the state or be enforceable in any court of the state unless and until the tax levied by this chapter shall have been paid and until the notation of the clerk of the circuit court shall have been placed thereon showing the payment of the tax. However, the failure to place the notation thereon or to pay the correct amount of tax shall not affect the constructive notice given by the recordation of the mortgage, deed of trust, or instrument evidencing a lien. However, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the assumption of a mortgage agreement between the mortgagor and his grantee when the amount of the indebtedness remains the same whether or not the original obligor is released from liability on the note and mortgage.

(d) If the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien subject to the tax levied by this chapter secures future advances, as provided in s. 697.04, the tax shall be paid at the time of execution on the initial debt or obligation secured, excluding future advances; at the time and so often as any future advance is made, the tax shall be paid on all sums then advanced. The trustee under any such deed of trust or the owner of any such mortgage or other instrument evidencing such lien making any such advance shall pay the tax prescribed in this chapter in respect to the amount of the advance, and the clerk shall place a notation on the record of the mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument evidencing such lien, or upon any supplemental instrument evidencing such advance and offered for recording, showing the amount of tax received by him. Failure to pay the tax shall not affect the lien for any such future advance given by s. 697.04, but any person who shall fail or refuse to pay such tax due by him shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined accordingly. The mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument shall not be enforceable in any court of this state as to any such advance unless and until the tax due thereon upon each advance that may have been made thereunder has been paid.

(e) The clerk of the circuit court shall, on or before the twentieth day of each month, transmit to the department all intangible taxes collected by him during the preceding month, together with a list of all instruments upon which the tax was paid.

(8)(a) Filing returns or paying all or any portion of tax as shown on the return after the due date shall require a delinquency penalty of 5 percent for each month, or portion thereof, on the amount of tax delinquent but not to exceed 25 percent of the total tax levied against the property covered by that return.

(b) If any amount of tax imposed by s. 199.032(1) is not paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of such tax, determined without regard to any extensions, interest of 12 percent per year on the unpaid amount shall be paid from such date to the date of payment. Interest prescribed by this paragraph on any tax shall be deemed assessed upon the assessment of the tax to which such interest relates and shall be collected and paid in the same manner as taxes.

(c) Property omitted from any return shall require, in addition to the delinquency penalty, a specific penalty of 15 percent of the tax attributed to the omitted property.

(d) Property undervalued shall require a specific penalty of 15 percent of the tax attributed to the undervaluation. This specific penalty may be waived or compromised by the department upon a showing by the taxpayer that the undervaluation was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect.

(9) Stock held in margin accounts in other than a fiduciary relationship shall be reported and the tax thereon paid by the customer purchasing the same, but under no circumstances shall the security broker from whom the stock is purchased be required to report or pay the tax on said margin accounts.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 2, ch. 72-277; s. 2, ch. 74-237; s. 1, ch. 76-32; s. 3, ch. 76-261; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 79-350.
cf.—s. 199.282 Punishment for violation of this chapter.

199.062 Information reports; companies, corporations, and brokers.—

(1) Every company or corporation, including financial institutions, qualified to do business in this state, domestic or foreign, shall, on or before April 1 of each year, forward to the department a record of all registered holders of its securities of record as of December 31 of the preceding year, taxable under this chapter, whose mailing address on the records of the company or corporation or its agencies is within the state. Such record shall contain the name, address, and social security or federal identification number of each registered holder, together with the number and class of shares of stock and the published market value, or just value as of January 1, if not listed or regularly traded, the face amount and class of bonds registered in the holder's name, and such other information as the department may require from time to time. Payment of the tax on any class of such securities, as agent, by any such company or corporation, including any such financial institution, shall exempt such company or corporation, including financial institutions, from the provisions of this subsection and of subsection (4) with respect to such securities and the holders thereof, except that notification of the election to make such payment shall be filed with the department before April 1.

(2) The department may establish regulations requiring every bank, savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, and any other person engaged in a similar business in the state to furnish to the department on or before April 1 of each year the name, address, and social security or federal identification number of depositors who had a deposit on January 1 and whose mailing address is in the state. Payment of the tax on money, as agent, by any such institution or person shall exempt such institution or person from the provisions of this subsection.

(3) All security brokers registered under the laws of Florida shall furnish to the department, on or before April 1 of each year, the name, address, and social security or federal identification number of each customer whose mailing address is in the state, together with the number and class of shares of stock, the face amount and class of bonds held by each customer as of December 31 of the preceding year, and such other information as the department may require from time to time.

(4)(a) In order to provide for uniform reporting, every company or corporation qualified to do business in the state, both domestic and foreign, shall on or before April 1 of each year:

1. Notify all of its Florida stockholders of record as of December 31 of the preceding year of the just value of each share of stock. However, no notification is required if the stocks and values of a company or corporation are listed on any of the public stock exchanges or are regularly traded over the counter, and are not restricted; and

2. Notify the owners or holders of stock listed on the public stock exchanges or regularly traded over the counter which are for any reason restricted in value as of January 1 if a value less than the published value is returnable.

(b) Values determined by a company or corporation shall not be binding on the department, and, in the event it is later found that the stock was undervalued, the department shall assess and collect from each person required to make a tax return the amount of the tax and penalties due and payable.

(c) Any company or corporation required under the provisions of this section to notify its stockholders of its stock values shall certify to the department on or before April 1 of each year that all of its stockholders have been notified as required herein and shall include as a part of the certification the following:

1. Method used to determine share value;
2. Type or kind of stock to be valued;
3. Value for each share of each type or kind; and
4. Balance sheet as of the last day of the corporation's accounting period which ended within the immediately preceding calendar year.

(5)(a) If any company, corporation, or broker shall fail to produce or provide such information as described in this section in the manner required or within the time required, that company, corporation, or broker shall pay a penalty of $100 and, in addition, shall also pay a penalty of $50 for each month or portion thereof until satisfactory filing with the department, with the stockholders, or with both, has been made.

(b) All such penalties shall be payable to, and collectible by, the department in the same manner as other penalties assessed under this chapter.

(6)(a) In order to administer properly the provisions of this section, the department is hereby specifically authorized and empowered to examine at all reasonable hours all books, records, and other documents relating to the report of companies, corporations, and brokers charged with the duty to file a report or make a report as required in this section.

(b) In the event a company, corporation, or broker shall refuse to permit examination of such records by the department, the department shall have the right to proceed in any circuit court against such company, corporation, or broker to seek a mandatory injunction or other appropriate remedy to enforce its right, as granted by this section, to require examination of such records. If the injunction or other appropriate remedy is granted, the court may order the company, corporation, or broker to pay the costs of such legal action and the cost of the subsequent examination by the department.

(7) The companies, corporations and brokers subject to the provisions of this section shall keep and preserve all books, records, and documents for a period of 3 years in order to aid the proper administration of this chapter.

199.072 Exemptions.—

(1) The following intangible property shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter:

(a) Property owned by the state or any political subdivision or municipality thereof;

(b) Franchises;

(c) Any interest in a partnership, either general or limited. It is declared to be the legislative intent that this paragraph is an interpretation of the prior law, and that the provisions of this chapter are not intended to tax any interest of a partner in a partnership;

(d) Bonds of the several municipalities, counties, and other taxing districts of the state, and bonds of the United States Government and its agencies;

(e) Intangible personal property held in trust pursuant to any employee welfare or benefit plan which is qualified under s. 401, United States Internal Revenue Code, 1954; and

(f) Notes, bonds, and other obligations secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real property situated outside the state upon which a documentary or recording tax has been paid in the jurisdiction where said real property is located.

(2)(a) There shall also be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter intangible personal property owned by nonprofit religious, nonprofit educational, or nonprofit charitable institutions.

(b) The provisions of this subsection authorizing exemptions from tax for religious, educational and charitable institutions shall be strictly defined, limited, and applied in each category as follows:

1. "Religious institutions" shall mean churches and ecclesiastical or denominational organizations, or established physical places for worship in this state at which nonprofit religious services and activities are regularly conducted and carried on, and shall also mean church cemeteries.

2. "Educational institutions" shall mean state tax-supported or parochial, church, and nonprofit private schools, colleges, or universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for accreditation by, or membership in, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Department of Education, or the Florida Council of Independent Schools. Nonprofit libraries, art galleries, and museums open to the public are defined as educational institutions and are eligible for exemption.

3. "Charitable institutions" shall mean only nonprofit corporations operating physical facilities in Florida at which are provided charitable services, a reasonable percentage of which shall be without cost to those unable to pay, and those institutions qualified as charitable under s. 501(c)(3), United States Internal Revenue Code, 1954.

(c) Property owned by such exempt institutions shall not include intangible personal property held in trusts of any kind over which the institution has no interest in the trust principal except the right to compel the performance of the trust agreement.

(3) There shall be allowed to every taxpayer who is a natural person an exemption of the first $20,000 of property subject to the taxes imposed by s. 199.032(1). Agents and fiduciaries filing as such shall not be entitled to claim the exemption afforded hereby in their own right or on behalf of their principals or beneficiaries. When any property is held by an agent or fiduciary, a principal or beneficiary may file a return, and the exemption afforded hereby may be claimed by such principal or beneficiary on his return. No taxpayer shall be entitled to more than one exemption as provided by this section.

PART II

ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES

- 199.103 Basis of assessment.
- 199.112 Business situs.
- 199.122 Valuation.

199.103 Basis of assessment.—The department shall assess all intangible personal property subject to the annual tax imposed by this chapter at its just valuation as of January 1 of each year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.112 Business situs.—All bills, notes or accounts receivable, obligations, or credits, wheresoever situated, arising out of, or issued in connection with, the sale, leasing, or servicing of real or personal property in the state are subject to taxation under this chapter, it being the legislative intent to provide that such intangibles shall be assessable regardless of where they are kept, approved as to their creation, or paid. This provision shall apply to any person representing business interests in the state that may claim a domicile elsewhere, the intent being further that no nonresident, either by himself or through an agent, shall transact business in the state without paying the same tax which the state would impose on residents transacting the same business. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale. The provisions of this section shall in no way be construed to alter the tax status of intangibles not connected with the sale, leasing, or servicing of real or personal property in the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 1, ch. 77-413.

199.122 Valuation.—Intangible personal property shall be valued in the following manner:

- (1) Shares of stock of corporations regularly listed on any stock exchange or regularly traded over the counter shall be valued at their closing prices on the last business day of the previous calendar year.
- (2) Bonds regularly listed on any stock exchange or regularly traded over the counter shall be valued at their closing bid prices on the last business day of the previous calendar year.

(3) Shares of stocks, bonds, or similar instruments of corporations not listed on any stock exchange or not regularly traded over the counter shall be valued in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles which take into account those factors customarily considered in determining intrinsic value.

(4) The blockage rule or discount theory shall have no effect on valuation of shares of stocks as defined herein.

(5) Accounts receivable shall be valued at their face value less a reasonable allowance for uncollectible accounts.

(6) All notes and other obligations shall have a value equal to their unpaid balance as of January 1 of each year, unless the taxpayer can establish a lesser value upon proof satisfactory to the department.

(7) All notes, bonds, and other obligations for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real property situated in the state shall be valued at the principal amount of indebtedness evidenced by such obligation.

(8) All other forms of intangible personal property shall be valued in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles which take into account those factors customarily considered in determining intrinsic value.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

PART III

ADMINISTRATIVE, COLLECTION, AND ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

- 199.202 Administration of law; rules and regulations.
- 199.212 All state agencies to cooperate in administration of law.
- 199.222 Information confidential.
- 199.232 Department's powers.
- 199.243 Actions involving legality of tax or penalty.
- 199.252 Refunds.
- 199.262 Tax liens and garnishment.
- 199.272 Suits for violation of this chapter; jurisdiction and service.
- 199.282 Punishment for violation of this chapter.
- 199.292 Disposition of intangible personal property taxes; appropriations for expenses of assessment and collection; county sharing.

199.202 Administration of law; rules and regulations.—

(1) The cost of preparing and distributing the reports, forms, and paraphernalia for the collection of the tax imposed by this chapter and expenses of the inspection and enforcement duties required herein shall be borne by the revenue produced by this chapter.

(2) The department shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by this chapter. It is authorized to make and publish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as it may deem necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Penalties as provided in this chapter, unless waived or compromised by the department, shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax levied by this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.212 All state agencies to cooperate in administration of law.—The department is empowered to call on any state, county, or municipal agency, department, bureau, or board for any and all information which may, in its judgment, be of assistance in administering, or preparing for the administration of, this chapter, and such state, county, or municipal agency, department, bureau, or board is hereby authorized, directed, and required to furnish such information.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.222 Information confidential.—

(1) It is unlawful for the department or any examiner or employee to divulge or make known in any manner the values or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns. However, the department shall permit the auditor general or his authorized agent, and may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or other duly authorized official of the Internal Revenue Service of the United States or the proper officer of any state or his authorized agent to inspect the tax returns of any individual, and the department may furnish to such person an abstract of any return or any item of information contained in any return. The department shall also permit a taxpayer or his authorized representative or the administrator or executor of his estate to inspect a taxpayer's return and may furnish an abstract of such return.

(2) It shall be the duty of the department to destroy all intangible personal property tax returns filed with the department 4 years after the tax with respect to the return has been paid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 4, ch. 74-237; s. 54, ch. 77-104.

199.232 Department's powers.—

(1) The department shall ascertain by diligent search and inquiry whether all persons as defined in this chapter have made proper returns and whether all intangible personal property subject to taxation has been assessed. If the department discovers that any intangible personal property has for any reason escaped taxation or has been undervalued, it shall assess the same separately for each year that the property may have escaped taxation or has been undervalued, and the tax and penalties shall be levied and collected by the department.

(2) Upon discovery of any person that the department has reason to believe should have filed a return but who failed or refused to do so, the department may require that person to file completed returns for all years under investigation, including the current year. The total tax and penalties accrued to the date of payment must accompany such returns. On receipt of such returns, the department, using available information, shall ascertain if any intangible personal property has either been omitted or undervalued. Upon discovery that intangible personal property was either omitted or undervalued, the department shall assess such property at the rate and in the manner as provided in this chapter.

(3) If, upon examination of returns that have been filed, the department has reason to believe that any intangible personal property has been omitted or has been undervalued, it may require the person filing the return to produce the books, records, and documents deemed necessary by the department to discover omitted property or to determine the just values of all listed or omitted property.

(4) The department is authorized to audit or inspect the books, records, or documents of persons and correct by credit or refund any overpayment of tax, and, in the event of a deficiency, an assessment of such deficiency shall be made and collected. No assessment shall be made, except pursuant to an investigation, after the expiration of 3 years from the due date for filing a return or the date of filing, whichever is later.

(5)(a) In the event any person charged herein:

1. Fails or refuses to make his books, records, or documents available for inspection, so that no audit or examination can be made of the books and records of such person; or
2. Fails to make a return and pay the tax as provided by this chapter; or
3. Makes a grossly incorrect return; or
4. Makes a return that is false and fraudulent, it shall be the duty of the department to make an assessment from an estimate based on the best information then available to it for the taxable period, together with penalties if such have accrued.

(b) The department shall proceed to collect such taxes and penalties, if such have accrued, on the basis of such assessment, which shall be considered prima facie correct. The burden to show the contrary shall rest upon the person so assessed.

(6) It shall be the duty of every person required to make a return and pay tax under this chapter to keep and preserve suitable records of intangible personal property and such other books and documents as may be necessary to determine the amount of the tax due hereunder and other information as may be required by the department. It shall be the further duty of every such person so charged to keep and preserve, for the same 3-year period in which a refund would be allowed or the same 3-year period as prescribed herein for the time an assessment may be made by the department, all such records as may be required by the department for the reasonable administration of this chapter; and all such records shall be open to examination at all reasonable hours by the department or any of its duly authorized agents.

(7) An investigation may be made against a person for any year in which that person's right to a refund is available. The date a taxpayer is contacted personally by an agent of the department, or the date of a certified letter from the department to the last known address of the taxpayer, shall be the date that will govern the period subject to assessment.

(8) After an investigation has been completed and a deficiency is found to be due, the taxpayer shall be notified in writing, either by delivery or by certified mail at his or its last known address, of the amount of tax and penalty due. Full payment for the total amount shall be made by the taxpayer to the place designated and within the time specified in such notice.

(9) The department shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, papers, books, records, and other evidence before it in any matter over which it has jurisdiction under this chapter. Any duly authorized representative of the department shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to any person.

(10) If any person shall refuse to obey any such subpoena, to give testimony, or to produce evidence as required thereby, any judge of a circuit court having jurisdiction over that person may, upon application of the department showing such failure and refusal to comply, make and issue such orders as may be necessary to secure the compliance of such person.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.
cf.—s. 1.01 Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

199.243 Actions involving legality of tax or penalty.—In any action involving the legality of any tax or penalty assessed under this chapter, the court shall inquire into and determine the legality and validity of the assessment and shall issue decrees setting aside such assessment or any part of the same which is contrary to law. The complainant shall in every case, except where the taxes assessed, including penalties and interest, have been paid to the department prior to the institution of suit, tender into court and file with the complaint the full amount of the assessment complained of, including penalties and interest, or file with the complaint a cash bond or a surety bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state or by such sureties as may be approved by the court, conditioned to satisfy any judgment or decree in full, including the taxes complained of, costs, penalties, and interest.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 1, ch. 78-79; s. 54, ch. 78-95.
Note.—Former s. 199.242(3), as amended by s. 1, ch. 78-79. See s. 1, ch. 78-95, concerning the effect of the amendment by s. 1, ch. 78-79, on the repeal of s. 199.242 by s. 54, ch. 78-95.

199.252 Refunds.—

(1) Any person or his heirs, personal representatives, or assigns shall be entitled to a refund of any tax or penalty levied under this chapter, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, which should not have been paid. No refund shall be allowed unless proper application has been made and delivered to the department for approval within 3 years from the date the right to such refund shall have accrued.

(2) When a bona fide controversy exists between the department and a taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the department to be due, or such lesser amount as may be fixed by a court of competent jurisdiction, and, if it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of taxes and penalties, or any part thereof, the comptroller shall make such refund as the court may direct.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.262 Tax liens and garnishment.—

(1) When any tax imposed by this chapter becomes delinquent, or is otherwise in jeopardy, it shall be the duty of the department to issue a warrant for the full amount of tax due or estimated to be due, together with penalties and cost of collection. Such warrant shall be directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state and shall be recorded with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the delinquent taxpayer's property is located. Upon recording, the amount of such warrant shall become a lien upon the taxpayer's real or personal property in such county in the same manner as a judgment duly docketed and recorded, and the clerk of the circuit court shall issue execution thereon the same as on a judgment. The sheriff shall thereupon proceed in all respects and with like effect and in the same manner as prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgment of the circuit court, and he shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant. Upon payment of such execution, warrant, or judgment, the department is authorized and directed to satisfy the lien of record within 30 days; and any interested person may thereafter compel the department to satisfy the lien of records.

(2) Whenever it becomes necessary in the judgment of the department, it may issue an alias tax execution or tax executions which, however, shall be so designated on the face of the tax execution. Any such alias tax execution shall have the same force and effect as the original.

(3) Tax executions shall have the same force and effect as a writ of garnishment when levied upon any person, firm, or corporation that shall have any goods, moneys, chattels, or effects of the delinquent taxpayer in its hands, possession, or control or that shall be indebted to such delinquent taxpayer. When any tax execution is so levied upon any debtor or person holding property of the taxpayer, such debtor or person shall pay the debt or deliver the property of the delinquent taxpayer to the department or an authorized agent of the department levying such writ, and the receipt of the department or an authorized agent of the department shall be complete discharge to that extent of the debtor or person holding such property.

(4) Any employee of the department designated in writing by the executive director of the department is authorized to make and sign assessments, tax warrants, assignments of tax warrants, and satisfactions of tax warrants.

(5) Whenever any tax execution issued under the provisions of this chapter or any previous law providing for the administration of intangible personal property tax becomes void by virtue of the expiration of any statute of limitations or otherwise, the department or any tax collector or other officer having official custody of the pertinent records shall have authority to cancel the same of record and shall do so upon the request of any interested person. Such cancellation shall be recorded by the clerks of the courts.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134; s. 1, ch. 78-43.

199.272 Suits for violation of this chapter; jurisdiction and service.—

(1) All suits brought hereinafter by the department against any person defined in this chapter for any violation of this chapter and for the purpose of effecting collection of any tax due from any person, including garnishment proceedings, regardless of the amount, shall be brought thereon in the circuit courts of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter.

(2) Every person having his principal place of business outside of this state but subject to the provisions of this chapter shall designate with the department an agent for service within the state for the purpose of enforcing this chapter. If such person has not designated an agent, the Department of State shall be deemed the agent for service, or any agent or employee of the person within the state shall be deemed agent for service.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-134.

199.282 Punishment for violation of this chapter.—Any person willfully failing or refusing to comply with this chapter or violating any of the provisions hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1A, ch. 71-134.

199.292 Disposition of intangible personal property taxes; appropriations for expenses of assessment and collection; county sharing.—

(1) All intangible personal property taxes levied, assessed, and collected under and pursuant to this chapter shall be promptly remitted by the clerk of the circuit court or, during the implementation period, by the tax collector, to the Department of Revenue, to be placed in a special fund designated as the "Intangible Tax Trust Fund." The amount collected by the Department of Revenue shall also be deposited in the Intangible Tax Trust Fund.

(2) There is hereby appropriated annually out of the Intangible Tax Trust Fund the amount necessary for the effective and efficient performance of the duties, services, functions, and enforcement by the department of the provisions of chapters 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, and this chapter and for the fees of the county property appraisers and tax collectors allowed them by the law for the assessment and collection of intangible personal property taxes. It shall be the duty of the department to pay from the Intangible Tax Trust Fund these costs and fees.

(3) The department shall pay from the Intangible Tax Trust Fund the entire cost of all forms, books, and records of any type required by law to be furnished each county or county officer by the Department of Revenue, and a sum sufficient to pay therefor is hereby annually appropriated out of the Intangible Tax Trust Fund.

(4) An amount equal to 55 percent of the total net intangible taxes collected shall be transferred to the Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for Counties in the month following collection. The remaining balance of net collections from this tax shall be transferred to the Local Government Exemption Trust Fund provided for in s. 196.032. For the purposes of this law, "net collections" means the total amount collected less a pro rata share of all costs as provided in subsections (2) and (3).

(5) The distribution of these amounts shall be made quarterly in the months of September, December, March, and June, and shall include the net collections through the end of the month preceding the distributions thereof.

- 200.171 Mandamus to levy tax; limitations; etc.
- 200.181 Bond payments; tax levies; restrictions.
- 200.191 Millages; definitions.

200.011 Duty of county commissioners and school board in setting rate of taxation.—

(1) The county commissioners shall determine the amount to be raised for all county purposes except for county school purposes, and shall enter upon their minutes the rates to be levied for each fund respectively, together with the rates certified to be levied by the board of county commissioners for use of the county, special taxing district, board, agency or other taxing unit within the county for which the board of county commissioners is required by law to levy taxes.

(2) The county commissioners shall ascertain the aggregate rate necessary to cover all such taxes and certify the same to the county property appraiser within 30 days after the adjournment of the property appraisal adjustment board. The property appraiser shall carry out the full amount of taxes for all county purposes, except for school purposes, under one heading in the assessment roll to be provided for that purpose, and the county commissioners shall notify the clerk and auditor and tax collector of the county of the amounts to be apportioned to the different accounts out of the total taxes levied for all purposes.

(3) The county depository, in issuing receipts to the tax collector, shall state in each of his receipts, which shall be in duplicate, the amount deposited to each fund out of the deposits made with it by the tax collector. When any such receipts shall be given to the tax collector by the county depository, he shall immediately file one of the same with the clerk and auditor of the county, who shall credit the same to the tax collector with the amount thereof and make out and deliver to the tax collector a certificate setting forth the payment in detail, as shown by the county depository's receipt.

(4) The county commissioners and school board shall file written statements with the county property appraiser setting forth the boundary of each special school district and the district or territory in which other special taxes are to be assessed, and the county property appraiser shall, upon receipt of such statements and orders from the board of county commissioners and school board setting forth the rate of taxation to be levied on the real and personal property therein, proceed to assess such property and enter the taxes thereon in the assessment rolls to be provided for that purpose.

(5) The property appraiser shall designate and separately identify by certificate to the tax collector the rate of taxation to be levied for the use of the county and school board and the total rate of taxation for all other taxing authorities in the county.

(6) The board of county commissioners shall certify to the property appraiser the millage rates to be levied for the use of the county and special taxing districts, boards, authorities, and all other taxing units within the county for which the board of county commissioners is required by law to levy taxes. The district school board, each municipality, and the governing board or governing authority of each special taxing district or other taxing unit within the county whose taxes are assessed on the tax roll prepared by the county property appraiser, but for which the board of county commissioners is not required by law to levy taxes, shall certify to the county property appraiser the millage rate set by said board, municipality, authority, special taxing district, or taxing unit. The certifications required by this subsection shall be made within 30 days after the property appraisal adjustment board adjourns.

Note.—Former s. 193.31.

200.065 Method of fixing millage.—

(1) At the time the assessment roll is prepared and published, the property appraiser shall certify to each taxing authority the taxable value within the jurisdiction of the taxing authority. The property appraiser shall also send to each taxing authority a copy of the statement required to be submitted under s. 195.073(3), as applicable to that taxing authority. Exclusive of new construction, improvements, and deletions, the property appraiser shall certify to each taxing authority a millage rate which will provide the same ad valorem tax revenue for each taxing authority as was levied during the prior year. For the purpose of calculating the certified millage, the property appraiser shall use 98 percent of such taxable value.

(2) No millage in excess of the property appraiser's certified millage shall be levied until a resolution or ordinance has been approved by the governing board of the taxing authority, which resolution or ordinance must be approved by said taxing authority according to the following procedure:

(a) After the meeting finalizing the budget, the taxing authority shall advertise its intent to exceed the property appraiser's certified millage in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, as provided in subsection (3). A public hearing shall be held after 5 p.m., approximately 7 days after the day that the advertisement is published for the purpose of hearing comments regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for the proposed increase.

(b) After the first public hearing has been held in accordance with paragraph (a), the taxing authority shall readvertise and meet again within 2 weeks to adopt a resolution or ordinance levying a millage rate in excess of the certified millage. The advertisement shall be as provided in subsection (3). The day, time, and place at which the resolution or ordinance will be scheduled for consideration and approval by the taxing authority must be announced at the first public hearing. If the resolution or ordinance is not adopted within 2 weeks from the first public hearing, the taxing authority must again advertise and meet in the same manner as provided in this subsection. The adoption of the budget and the levy of the millage shall be by separate votes.

(3)(a) The advertisement shall be no less than one-quarter page in size of a standard size or a tabloid size newspaper, and the headline in the advertisement shall be in a type no smaller than 18 point. The advertisement shall not be placed in that portion of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. The advertisement shall be published in a newspaper of general paid circulation in the county. It is the legislative intent that, whenever possible, the advertisement shall appear in a newspaper that is published at least 5 days a week unless the only newspaper in the county is published less than 5 days a week. It is further the legislative intent that the newspaper selected shall be one of general interest and readership in the community, and not one of limited subject matter, pursuant to chapter 50. The advertisement shall be in the following form:

NOTICE OF TAX INCREASE

The (name of the taxing authority) proposes to increase your property taxes by (percentage of increase over certified millage) percent.

A public hearing on the increase will be held on (date and time) at (meeting place).

(b) In lieu of publishing the notice set out in this subsection, the taxing authority may mail a copy of the notice to each elector residing within the jurisdiction of the taxing authority.

(c) The advertising required by the provisions of paragraph (a) shall not be required when the total millage levied does not exceed the district required local effort under the provisions of chapter 236.

(4) The resolution or ordinance approved in the manner provided for in this section shall be forwarded to the property appraiser, tax collector, and Department of Revenue. No millage in excess of the property appraiser's certified millage can be levied until the resolution or ordinance to levy required in subsection (3) is approved by the governing board of the taxing authority and submitted to the property appraiser and the Department of Revenue.

(5) The property appraiser shall notify each taxing authority of the aggregate change in the assessment roll which results from actions by the property appraisal adjustment board or from corrections of errors in the assessment roll. Such notification shall be delivered within 1 week after the certification in

s. 193.122(1). An increase in the taxing authority's millage above that certified by the property appraiser or adopted by resolution or ordinance of the governing body of the taxing authority which is required by a reduction of the assessment roll by 5 percent or less due to actions of the property appraisal adjustment board or to errors in the assessment roll may be approved by the Department of Revenue without further proceedings under this section upon a showing that the total reduction is 5 percent or less of the assessment roll. If the reduction is more than 5 percent, then the property appraiser shall recertify the millage. Only those taxing authorities which had voted to levy a millage equal to or less than the prior certified levy which are in excess of the new certified levy need proceed to advertise as required herein to maintain the tax levy approved by the taxing authority.

(6) If, after the initial millage vote provided for in subsection (2), the taxing authority determines that it requires a greater millage or fails to act in the specified period, it shall readvertise and revote as required in subsections (2) and (3).

(7) Nothing contained in this section shall serve to extend or authorize any millage in excess of the maximum millage permitted by law nor prevent the reduction of millage.

(8) Upon written request from the presiding officer of a taxing authority within the county, the property appraiser shall deliver to the presiding officer for budget planning purposes an estimate of the total assessed value of nonexempt property for the current year. The property appraiser shall deliver the estimate within 10 days after receipt of the request, but in no event shall he be required to deliver an estimate earlier than June 1.

(9) Multicounty taxing authorities shall be subject to the provisions of this section. The term "taxable value" shall mean the taxable value of all property subject to taxation by the authority. The property appraiser shall not certify a millage to multicounty taxing authorities, but, rather, shall submit to the Department of Revenue the taxable value of property in his county which is subject to taxation by the multicounty taxing authority, and the executive director of the Department of Revenue shall certify the millage to such authorities. If the department has not received such information from a county by September 1, it shall make the certification, based upon the best information available. The multicounty district shall add the following sentence to the advertisement set forth in subsection (3): "This tax increase is applicable to (name of county or counties)." This section shall not apply to any multicounty taxing authority wherein the district or board is limited by law to ad valorem tax revenues based on separate levies of 1 mill or less.

200.071 Limitation of millage; counties.—

(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, no aggregate ad valorem tax millage shall be levied against real and tangible personal property by counties and districts as herein defined in excess of 10 mills on the dollar of assessed value, except for special benefits and debt service on obligations issued in connection therewith, and except for that millage authorized in s. 9, Art. VII of the State Constitution. However, nothing in ss. 200.071, 200.091, 200.111, 200.121, 200.141, and 200.161 shall prevent any board of county commissioners or district school board to each levy at least 5 mills.

(2) The board of county commissioners in counties not having a budget commission or board shall have authority, in event the aggregate of the proposed millage for said county and districts therein aggregate more than the maximum allowed hereunder, to apportion the millage to be levied for county officers, departments, divisions, districts, commissions, authorities and independent taxing agencies so as not to exceed the maximum millage provided herein under this section or s. 200.091. The budget commission or budget board in counties presently having such a commission or board shall make the apportionment as above provided, in event the apportionment is necessary.

(3) In any county which, through a special taxing district or a municipal service taxing unit covering a specific area of the county not within the boundaries of any municipality, provides services or facilities of the kind or type commonly provided by municipalities, there may be levied, in addition to the millages otherwise provided in this section, against real and tangible personal property within each such special taxing district or municipal service taxing unit an additional ad valorem tax millage not in excess of 10 mills on the dollar of assessed value to pay for such services or facilities provided through such special tax district or with the funds obtained through such levy within such municipal service taxing unit.

Note.—Former s. 193.321.

200.081 Millage limitation; municipalities.

No municipality shall levy ad valorem taxes for real and tangible personal property in excess of 1 percent of the assessed value thereof (10 mills), except for special benefits and debt service on obligation issued with the approval of those taxpayers subject to ad valorem taxes on real and tangible personal property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-396; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 167.441.

200.091 Referendum to increase millage.

The millage authorized to be levied in s. 200.071 for county purposes, including districts therein, may be increased for periods not exceeding 2 years, provided such levy has been approved by a majority of those voting in an election participated in only by the qualified electors of the county or district who pay taxes on real or personal property. Such elections may be called by the governing body of any such county or district on its own motion, or shall be called upon submission of a petition specifying the amount of millage sought to be levied and the purpose for which the proceeds will be expended and containing the signatures of at least 10 percent of the persons qualified to vote in such election, signed within 60 days prior to the date said petition is filed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-395; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 193.322.

200.101 Referendum for millage in excess of limits.—Those taxpayers subject to ad valorem taxes on real and tangible personal property may approve an increase of millage above those limits imposed by s. 200.081 in a referendum called for such purpose by the governing body of the municipality, provided that such increase does not exceed a period of 2 years. Such referendum also may be initiated by submission of a petition to the governing body of the municipality containing 10 percent of the signatures of those persons eligible to vote in such referendum which signatures are affixed to the petition within 60 days prior to its submission.

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-396; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 167.442.

200.111 Definition of "district."—The term "district" is defined to mean special districts having the power to levy taxes or require the levy of taxes, including but not limited to boards, commissions, authorities and agencies having authority to levy taxes or require the levy of taxes but shall not include special school districts or multicounty districts.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-395; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 193.323.

200.131 Existing millage in excess of limits; municipalities.—Applications for continued non-compliance with ss. 200.081 and 200.101 shall be submitted to the Department of Revenue, together with sales ratio studies in such method, form, and content as the department may require. If the department finds, on the basis of such studies, that the average assessment level of such municipality is not at least just value, such municipality shall be required to hold a referendum as set forth in s. 200.101 before assessing any millage in excess of 1 percent (10 mills), unless such municipality had caused a good faith program of reassessment to be commenced prior to January 1, 1971, or has commenced court proceedings prior to January 1, 1971, to require the responsible party to commence such good faith program of reassessment.

200.132 Municipal Financial Assistance Trust Fund; administration of grant program.

(1) The Department of Revenue shall administer a program of grants to municipalities within the amount appropriated each fiscal year for this purpose to the Municipal Financial Assistance Trust Fund. Each municipality which has qualified under the provisions of paragraph 218.23(1)(c) shall receive a pro rata distribution from the Municipal Financial Assistance Trust Fund created under s. 210.20(2)(a), to be distributed to the municipality in such proportion as the population of the municipality is to the total population of the other municipalities in the county qualified to receive distributions under this section. Counties which, under the constitution, exercise powers conferred by general law upon municipalities shall receive a share of that county's revenue in a ratio of the population of the unincorporated area of that county to the entire population of the county. Amounts distributed hereunder shall be considered general revenues of the municipality and shall be subject to expenditure for any public purpose. Payment shall be made monthly during each fiscal year. For the purposes of this section, "population" means the latest official state estimate of population certified pursuant to s. 23.019. If there is no such annual certification of population for any urban service district, the population of such district shall be estimated by using the most current available data.

(2) Amounts deposited in the Municipal Financial Assistance Trust Fund are hereby appropriated exclusively for grants to municipalities as provided in subsection (1). No deduction from these amounts shall be made for the service charge provided in ss. 215.20 and 215.22.

History.—ss. 3, 4, ch. 71-364; s. 60, ch. 73-333; s. 1, ch. 74-629; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 77-409; s. 39, ch. 79-164.
cf.—s. 210.03 Prohibition against levying of cigarette taxes by municipalities.

200.141 Millage following consolidation of city and county functions.—Those cities or counties which now or hereafter provide both municipal and county services as authorized under ss. 9-11 and 24 of Art. VIII of the State Constitution of 1885 shall have the right to levy for county, district and municipal purposes a millage up to 20 mills on the dollar of assessed valuation under this section. For each increase in the county millage above 10 mills which is attributable to an assumption of municipal services by a county having "home rule," or for each increase in the municipal millage above 10 mills which is attributable to an assumption of county services by a city having "home rule," there shall be a decrease in the millage levied by each and every municipality which has a service or services assumed by the county, or by the county which has a service or services assumed by the city. Such decrease shall be equal to the cost of that service or services assumed, so that an amount equal to that cost shall be eliminated from the budget of the county or city giving up the performance of such service or services.

History.—s. 5, ch. 67-395; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 11, ch. 69-216.
Note.—Former s. 193.325.

200.151 Millage to replace lost revenue.—In the event any municipality should lose revenue through the loss of a proprietary activity or other source of revenue, the governing body of the municipality is authorized to increase the millage in an amount sufficient to restore such loss of revenue. In the event any municipality should relinquish any governmental function to a county or other governmental body, the governing body of such municipality shall reduce the millage in an amount which will equal the cost of such governmental function.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-396; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 167.443.

200.161 Legislative intent.—The Legislature hereby finds and determines that taxation on real and tangible personal property above the rate of 2 percent or 20 mills is oppressive and that there are many areas in the State of Florida in which the combined millage levied against real and tangible personal property by the various taxing authorities, including boards of county commissioners, municipalities, and various other districts and boards, far exceeds a rate of 2 percent or 20 mills. Thus, the Legislature hereby declares its intent to provide replacement revenues for the operation of local governmental bodies by the fiscal year 1970-1971, or as soon thereafter as possible, so that ad valorem or property taxation may be further reduced to such an extent that it is no longer oppressive and will not exceed an aggregate or total rate of 2 percent or 20 mills.

History.—s. 7, ch. 67-395; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 193.327.

200.171 Mandamus to levy tax; limitations; etc.—In any suit brought in any court of this state seeking to compel the levy of any tax for the payment of any bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness, or to establish a sinking fund for their ultimate redemption at maturity, the peremptory writ, if issued by the court, shall in no case require a levy in excess of the ability of the taxing unit involved to pay the taxes commanded to be levied; and if such taxing unit be one having other functions of civil government to perform, the court shall also take into consideration in commanding such levy, the necessity of such unit to make a reasonably ample levy of taxes for the purpose of raising revenue with which to pay for the operation of the ordinary functions of civil government which such unit performs; provided, this section shall not apply to bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness issued subsequent to the passage of this law. The ability of the taxing unit involved to pay the taxes commanded to be levied shall be determined by the court within its sound discretion by the application of equitable considerations in view of all the conditions of the taxing unit bearing upon such ability to pay; and such ability to pay shall be first found and determined before the issuance of any such peremptory writ.

History.—s. 1, ch. 18301, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 2321(3); ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55.
Note.—Former s. 192.34.

200.181 Bond payments; tax levies; restrictions.—

(1) None of the provisions of this chapter or of any other law, whether general, special or local or of the charter of any municipality or county, shall limit or restrict the rate or the amount of the ad valorem taxes levied for the payment of the principal of and the interest on any debt service whether secured by revenue certificates or by bonds for which the full faith and credit of any county, municipality or taxing district may be pledged, and such taxes shall be in addition to all other taxes authorized or limited by law.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent any municipality, county or school board from levying at least 5 mills of ad valorem tax during any fiscal year.

History.—ss. 1, 3, ch. 67-536; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-55; s. 1, ch. 69-300.
Note.—Former s. 193.77.

200.191 Millages; definitions.—

(1) County millages shall be composed of three categories of countywide millage rates, as follows:

(a) General county millage, which shall be that nonvoted millage rate set by the governing body of the county.

(b) County debt service millage, which shall be that millage rate necessary to raise taxes for debt service as authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(c) County voted millage, which shall be that millage rate set by the governing body of the county as authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to s. 9(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(2) Municipal millages shall be composed of three categories of municipalwide millage rates, as follows:

(a) General municipal millage, which shall be that nonvoted millage rate set by the governing body of the municipality.

(b) Municipal debt service millage, which shall be that millage rate necessary to raise taxes for debt service as authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(c) Municipal voted millage, which shall be that millage rate set by the governing body of the municipality as authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to s. 9(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(3) School millages shall be composed of four categories of countywide millage rates, as follows:

(a) Nonvoted district school operating millage, which shall be that nonvoted millage rate set by the county school board for current operating purposes.

(b) Voted district school operating millage, which shall be that millage rate set by the district school board for current school operating purposes as authorized by the electors pursuant to s. 9(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(c) Voted district school capital improvement millage, which shall be that millage rate set by the district school board for capital improvements as authorized by the electors.

(d) Voted district school debt service millage, which shall be that millage rate set by the district school board as authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to s. 12, Art. VII of the State Constitution.

(4) Special district millages shall be composed of two categories, as follows:

(a) Countywide millages, which shall be separated into two areas:

1. A millage rate set by the board of county commissioners, ex officio or otherwise, which shall be identified as to whether authorized by a special act approved by the electors, authorized pursuant to s. 15, Art. XII of the State Constitution, or otherwise; or

2. A millage rate set by a governing body of a special district independently of the board of county commissioners, which shall be identified as to whether authorized by a special act approved by the electors, authorized pursuant to s. 15, Art. XII of the State Constitution, or otherwise.

(b) Less than countywide millages, which shall be separated into two areas:

1. A millage rate set by the board of county commissioners or the governing body of a municipality, ex officio or otherwise, which shall be identified as to the area covered and as to whether authorized by a special act approved by the electors, authorized pursuant to s. 15, Art. XII of the State Constitution, or otherwise; or

2. A millage rate set by a governing body of a special district independently of the board of county commissioners or the governing body of a municipality, which shall be identified as to whether authorized by a special act approved by the electors, authorized pursuant to s. 15, Art. XII of the State Constitution, or otherwise.

(c) Millage rates set by multicounty special districts shall be reported by the respective county areas as provided above.

(5) At any time millage rates are published for the purpose of giving notice, the rates shall be stated in terms of dollars and cents per every thousand dollars of assessed property value.

201.01 Documents taxable, generally.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid the taxes specified in this chapter, for and in respect to the several documents, bonds, debentures or certificates of stock and indebtedness, and other documents, instruments, matters, writings, and things described in the following sections, or for or in respect of the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which such document, instrument, matter, writing, or thing, or any of them, is written or printed by any person who makes, signs, executes, issues, sells, removes, consigns, assigns, records, or ships the same, or for whose benefit or use the same are made, signed, executed, issued, sold, removed, consigned, assigned, recorded, or shipped in the state. The documentary stamp taxes required under this chapter shall be affixed to and placed on all recordable instruments requiring documentary stamps according to law, prior to recordation. With respect to mortgages or trust deeds which do not incorporate the certificate of indebtedness, a notation shall be made on the note or certificate that the tax has been paid and that the proper stamps have been affixed to the mortgage or trust deed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); s. 1, ch. 61-278; s. 1, ch. 77-414.

201.02 Tax on deeds and other instruments relating to lands, etc.—

(1) On deeds, instruments, or writings whereby any lands, tenements, or other realty, or any interest therein, shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser, or any other person by his direction, on each $100 of the consideration therefor the tax shall be 40 cents. When the full amount of the consideration for the execution, assignment, transfer, or conveyance is not shown in the face of such deed, instrument, document, or writing, the tax shall be at the rate of 40 cents for each $100 or fractional part thereof of the consideration therefor.

(2) The tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall also be payable upon documents by which the right is granted to a tenant-stockholder to occupy an apartment in a building owned by a cooperative apartment corporation.

(3) The tax imposed by subsection (2) shall be paid by the purchaser, and the document recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court as evidence of ownership.

(4) The tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section shall also be payable upon documents which convey or transfer, pursuant to s. 689.071, any beneficial interest in lands, tenements, or other realty, or any interest therein, even though such interest may be designated as personal property, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 689.071(4). The tax shall be paid upon execution of any such document.

History.—s. 1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); s. 1, ch. 57-397; s. 1, ch. 63-533; s. 1, ch. 70-304; s. 1, ch. 71-362; ss. 2, 3, ch. 79-350.

201.04 Tax on bills of sale, agreements, transfers, etc., of stock or shares in corporations and interests therein.—

(1) On all sales, agreements to sell or memoranda of sales or deliveries of, transfers of legal title to shares, or certificates of stock or profits or interest in property or accumulations in any corporation, or to rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation, or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale, whether entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock interest rights or not, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof the tax shall be 15 cents; and where such shares are without par or face value the tax shall be 15 cents on each $100 of actual value or fraction thereof but not to exceed 15 cents on each share; provided, that in case of sale, where evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation, the stamps shall be placed upon such books of the corporation; and where the change of ownership is by transfer of the certificate, the stamps shall be placed upon the certificates; and in case of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is made by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank, there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed; and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned, shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or things to which it refers. Any person or corporation liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or anyone who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person or corporation, or who makes any such sale, or who in pursuance of any such sale, delivers any certificate or evidence of the sale of any stock, interest or right, or bill or memorandum thereof, as herein required, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with intent to evade the foregoing provisions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term "stock" includes corporate stock, shares however designated in a joint stock company, trust in the nature of a common law trust or Massachusetts trust, association or other trust in which the trustees are associated together in substantially the same manner as directors in a corporation for the purpose of carrying on a business enterprise. Such shares are declared to be personal property, and not interests in land, notwithstanding the nature of the property of which the trust shall consist, unless provided otherwise in the trust instrument.

201.07 Tax on bonds, debentures and certificates of indebtedness.—On all bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued in the state by any person, and all instruments and documents, however termed, issued by any corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, on each hundred dollars of the face value or fraction thereof, the tax shall be 15 cents; provided, however, that only that part of the value of the bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued by any such person, the property of which is located within the state shall bear to the whole value of the property described in said instrument or obligation shall be taxed hereunder.

History.—s. 1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); s. 4, ch. 63-533.

201.08 Tax on promissory notes, written obligations to pay money, assignments of wages, etc.; exception.—

(1) On promissory notes, nonnegotiable notes, written obligations to pay money, or assignments of salaries, wages, or other compensation made, executed, delivered, sold, transferred, or assigned in the state, and for each renewal of the same, on each $100 of the indebtedness or obligation evidenced thereby the tax shall be 15 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof. On mortgages, trust deeds, security agreements, or other evidences of indebtedness filed or recorded in this state, and for each renewal of the same, on each $100 of the indebtedness or obligation evidenced thereby the tax shall be 15 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof. Mortgages, including, but not limited to, mortgages executed without the state and recorded in the state, which incorporate the certificate of indebtedness, not otherwise shown in separate instruments, are subject to the same tax at the same rate. When there is both a mortgage, trust deed, or security agreement and a note, certificate of indebtedness, or obligation, the tax shall be paid on the mortgage, trust deed, or security agreement at the time of recordation. A notation shall be made on the note, certificate of indebtedness, or obligation that the tax has been paid and the proper stamps affixed to the mortgage, trust deed, or security agreement. If the mortgage, trust deed, security agreement, or other evidence of indebtedness subject to the tax levied by this section secures future advances, as provided in s. 697.04, the tax shall be paid at the time of recordation on the initial debt or obligation secured, excluding future advances; at the time and so often as any future advance is made, the tax shall be paid on all sums then advanced regardless of where such advance is made. Failure to pay the tax shall not affect the lien for any such future advance given by s. 697.04, but any person who fails or refuses to pay such tax due by him is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree. The mortgage, trust deed, or other instrument shall not be enforceable in any court of this state as to any such advance unless and until the tax due thereon upon each advance that may have been made thereunder has been paid.

(2) On promissory notes, nonnegotiable notes, written obligations to pay money, or other compensation, made, executed, delivered, sold, transferred, or assigned in the state, in connection with sales made under retail charge account services, incident to sales which are not conditional in character and which are not secured by mortgage or other pledge of purchaser, the tax shall be 15 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the gross amount of the indebtedness evidenced by said instruments, payable quarterly on such forms and under such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the Department of Revenue. No documentary stamps shall be required to be attached to instruments under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) No documentary stamps shall be required on promissory notes executed in compliance with s. 240.235(2), and the holder of such promissory notes shall not lose any rights incident to the payment of said stamp costs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); s. 1, ch. 28216, 1953; ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-277; s. 5, ch. 63-533; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 77-57; s. 2, ch. 77-414; s. 105, ch. 79-222; s. 6, ch. 79-350; s. 91, ch. 79-400.

201.09 Renewal of existing promissory notes and mortgages; exemption.—

(1) When any promissory note is given in renewal of any existing promissory note, which said renewal note only extends or continues the identical contractual obligations of the original promissory note and evidences part or all of the original indebtedness evidenced thereby, not including any accumulated interest thereon and without enlargement in any way of said original contract and obligation, such renewal note shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter if such renewal note has attached to it the original promissory note with canceled stamps affixed thereon showing full payment of the tax due thereon.

(2) When any mortgage, trust deed, security agreement, or other evidence of indebtedness evidences a promissory note which would not be subject to taxation pursuant to subsection (1), then such mortgage, trust deed, security agreement, or other evidence of indebtedness shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(118); s. 7, ch. 79-350.

201.10 Certificates of deposit issued by banks exempt.—All certificates of deposit issued by any bank, banking association, or trust company are exempt from the requirement for an excise tax imposed by this chapter.

History.—s. 2, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(119).

201.11 Administration of law by Department of Revenue.—

(1) The administration of this chapter shall be vested in the Department of Revenue, which shall prescribe suitable rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions thereof, and shall administer and enforce the taxes levied and imposed by this chapter. The Department of Revenue may enter upon the premises of any taxpayer, and examine or cause to be examined by any agent or representative designated by it for that purpose, any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the amount of taxes payable, and secure other information directly or indirectly concerned in the enforcement of this chapter. Any person, subject to this tax, who shall by any practice or evasion make it difficult to enforce the provisions of this chapter by inspection, or any person, agent or officer, who shall, after demand by the department or any agent or representative designated by it for that purpose, refuse to allow full inspection of the premises or any part thereof, or any books, records, documents, or other instruments in any way relating to the liability of the taxpayer for the tax herein imposed, or shall hinder or in anywise delay or prevent such inspection, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) The county comptroller or, if there be none, then the clerk of the circuit court, shall serve ex officio, and the Department of Revenue may appoint others, as agents for the collection of the tax imposed by this chapter. The department may adopt rules and regulations requiring the agents to meet certain standards, including, without limitation, a demonstrated volume of business or a geographical distribution. All agents shall be subject to audit and shall post a bond as may be required by the Department of Revenue. The Department of Revenue may purchase a blanket bond; however, all costs associated with such a bond shall be allocated by department regulation to those agents so bonded. An agent shall be compensated one-half of 1 percent of the value of the stamps sold as collection costs in the form of a deduction from the amount of the tax due and remitted by him, and the department shall allow the said deduction to the agent paying and remitting the tax in the manner as provided for by the department. However, no deduction or allowance shall be granted when there is a manifest failure to maintain proper records or make proper reports.

History.—s. 2, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(112), 7473(5); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 104, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 71-344; s. 2, ch. 74-325; s. 1, ch. 76-199.

201.12 Duties of clerks of the circuit court.—

Clerks of the circuit court shall report to the Department of Revenue the names and addresses of any and all individuals, firms or corporations, who shall fail to have affixed the required amount of stamps of any conveyance or taxable instrument or document which may be recorded in their respective offices; and any such clerk who knowingly fails to report any such violation within 30 days after recording of any taxable instrument or document, without such stamps, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction punished accordingly.

History.—s. 2, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(113), 7473(6); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

201.13 Department of Revenue to furnish stamps for tax.—The Department of Revenue shall cause to be prepared and distributed for the payment of the taxes prescribed in this chapter, suitable stamps denoting the tax on the documents to which same are required to be affixed, and shall prescribe such method for affixing of said stamps as shall be necessary to carry out and comply with the intent and purpose of this chapter.

History.—s. 3, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(114); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

201.131 Metering machines.—

(1) The taxes imposed by this chapter may also be paid through the use of excise tax on documents stamp insignia to be applied by the use of metering machines. The Department of Revenue shall prescribe and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations governing the use of metering machines, the procedure for the payment of such excise taxes on documents through the use thereof, requiring adequate surety bonds of the nongovernmental users thereof to assure the proper use of such machines and the payment of all excise taxes on documents, and all other rules and regulations necessary and proper to govern the use of same.

(2) Users of such metering machines will have to supply such machines at their own expense.

(3) All provisions of this chapter governing the use of excise tax in documents stamps and pertaining to the payment of such excise taxes through the use of stamps shall likewise be applicable, where appropriate, to the payment of such taxes through the use of metering machines.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-107; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

201.14 Cancellation of stamps when used, etc.—Whenever an adhesive stamp is used for denoting any tax imposed by this chapter on documents, the person using or affixing the same shall write or stamp or cause to be written or stamped thereon, the initials of his or its name, and the date upon which same is attached or used, so that the same may not again be used. Stamps shall be affixed in such manner that their removal will require continued application of steam or water; provided, that the Department of Revenue may prescribe such other method for the cancellation of such stamps as it may deem expedient.

History.—s. 5, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(116); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

201.15 Distribution of taxes collected.—All taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Six-sevenths of the total taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state, to be used and expended for the purposes for which said General Revenue Fund was created and exists by law.

(2) One-seventh of the total taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Land Acquisition Trust Fund. Sums deposited in such fund pursuant to this section may be used for any purpose for which funds deposited in the Land Acquisition Trust Fund may lawfully be used and may be used to pay the cost of the collection and enforcement of the tax levied by this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(117); s. 4, ch. 79-350.

201.16 Other laws made applicable to chapter.—All revenue laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes are hereby extended to and made a part of this chapter, so far as applicable, for the purpose of collecting stamp taxes omitted through mistake or fraud from any instrument, document, paper, or writing named herein.

History.—s. 3, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(115).

201.17 Penalties for failure to pay tax required.—

(1) Whoever makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever, without the full amount of the tax herein imposed thereon being fully paid, or whoever makes use of any adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this chapter without canceling or obliterating such stamps as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Any document, instrument, or paper upon which the tax under this chapter is imposed and which, upon audit or at time of recordation, does not bear the proper value of stamps shall subject the person or persons liable for the tax upon the document, instrument, or paper to:

(a) Purchase of the stamps not affixed.

(b) Payment of a penalty to the Department of Revenue equal to 25 percent of the purchase price of the stamps not affixed. If it is determined by clear and convincing evidence that any part of a deficiency is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax as a civil penalty, in lieu of the aforementioned penalty under this paragraph, an amount equal to 100 percent of the deficiency. These penalties are to be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other penalties imposed by law.

(c) Payment of interest to the Department of Revenue, accruing from the date of recordation until paid, at the rate of 1 percent per month or fraction thereof, based on the purchase price of the stamps not affixed.

(3) The department may compromise any penalty on any proposed assessment which has not become final on July 1, 1977, if its investigation reveals that the penalty would be too severe or unjust.

History.—s. 4, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(7); s. 105, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 71-344; s. 4, ch. 76-261; s. 1, ch. 77-281.

201.18 Penalties for illegal use of stamps, etc.—

(1) Whoever fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter, any adhesive stamp used in pursuance of this chapter, or fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter:

(a) Any adhesive stamp which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter;

(b) Any adhesive stamp of insufficient value, or

(c) Any forged or counterfeited stamp.

(2) Whoever willfully removes or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares any adhesive stamp with intent to use or cause the same to be used after it has already been used, or knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same, or whoever knowingly and without lawful excuse has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document; or whoever knowingly or willfully prepares, buys, sells, offers for sale, or has in his or its possession any counterfeit stamps, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(7); s. 106, ch. 71-136; s. 3, ch. 71-344.

201.19 Forfeiture for illegally avoiding tax on notes.—Any person, either maker or payee, who shall attach to any original note any other note which is not in fact a renewal of the original note without paying the tax and affixing the stamps required by law on each and all of such notes, shall forfeit to the state a sum of money equal to twice the face value of all such notes as may be so attached, and the Department of Revenue shall direct the State Attorney of the judicial circuit within which such parties or any of them reside, or where the act was committed, to bring suit in the name of the state to collect the amount due, and such State Attorney shall institute and prosecute to judgment and collection the amount due, and the maker and the payee shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment thereof.

History.—s. 3, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(120); ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

201.20 Penalties for illegally avoiding tax on notes.—Any person using the provisions of s. 201.09 to avoid the payment of any tax justly due shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7473(7a); s. 107, ch. 71-136; s. 4, ch. 71-344.

201.21 Notes and other written obligations exempt under certain conditions.—There shall be exempt from all excise taxes imposed by this chapter all promissory notes, nonnegotiable notes, and other written obligations to pay money bearing date subsequent to July 1, 1955, hereinafter referred to as "principal obligations," when the maker thereof shall pledge or deposit with the payee or holder thereof pursuant to any agreement commonly known as a wholesale warehouse mortgage agreement, as collateral security for the payment thereof, any collateral obligation or obligations, as hereinafter defined, provided all excise taxes imposed by this chapter upon or in respect to such collateral obligation or obligations shall have been paid. If the indebtedness evidenced by any such principal obligation shall be in excess of the indebtedness evidenced by such collateral obligation or obligations, the exemption provided by this section shall not apply to the amount of such excess indebtedness, and, in such event, the excise taxes imposed by this chapter shall apply and be paid only in respect to such excess of indebtedness of such principal obligation. The term "collateral obligation" as used in this section shall mean any note, bond, or other written obligation to pay money secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien upon real or personal property. The pledging of a specific collateral obligation to secure a specific principal obligation, if required under the terms of the agreement, shall not invalidate the exemption provided by this section. The temporary removal of the document or documents representing one or more collateral obligations for a reasonable commercial purpose, for a period not exceeding 60 days, shall not invalidate the exemption provided by this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29981, 1955; s. 8, ch. 79-350.

Note.—The words "for a period" were inserted by the editors.

201.22 Financing statements under chapter 679 of the Uniform Commercial Code.—The excise tax on documents provided by this chapter shall be applicable to transactions covered by the Uniform Commercial Code to the same extent that it would be if the code had not been enacted. The clerk or filing officer shall not accept for filing or filing and recording any financing statement under chapter 679, unless there appears thereon the notation that the stamps required by this chapter have been placed on the promissory instruments secured by said financing statement and will be placed on any additional promissory instruments, advances or similar instrument that may be secured by said financing statement. The failure to pay the tax required by this chapter as so stated, shall be subject to the penalties provided by this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-254.

201.23 Foreign notes and other written obligations exempt.—

(1) There shall be exempt from all excise taxes imposed by this chapter:

(a) All promissory notes, nonnegotiable notes, and other written obligations to pay money bearing date on or after July 1, 1977, if the makers thereof or the obligors thereunder, at the time of the making or execution thereof, are individuals residing outside the United States or business organizations or other persons located outside the United States.

(b) All drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon and, on or after July 1, 1977, accepted by a bank having an office in Florida, which arise out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods or the storage of goods abroad, or drawn by banks or bankers in foreign countries or dependencies or insular possessions of the United States for the purpose of furnishing dollar exchange as required by the usages of trade in the respective countries, dependencies, or insular possessions, if at the date of the acceptance of any of the foregoing the drawer of the draft or bill of exchange or the persons for whose benefit the financing is conducted are individuals residing outside the United States or business organizations or other persons located outside the United States.

(c) Any promissory note, nonnegotiable note, or other written obligation to pay money if said note or obligation is executed and delivered outside this state and at the time of its making is secured only by a mortgage, deed of trust, or similar security agreement encumbering real estate located outside this state and if such promissory note, nonnegotiable note, or other written obligation for payment of money is brought into this state for deposit as collateral security under a wholesale warehouse mortgage agreement or for inclusion in a pool of mortgages deposited with a custodian as security for obligations issued by an agency of the United States Government or for inclusion in a pool of mortgages to be serviced for the account of a customer by a mortgage broker licensed or exempt from licensing under chapter 494.

(2) The exemptions provided in this chapter shall not apply:

(a) To mortgages, trust deeds, security agreements, or other evidences of indebtedness relating to the purchase or transfer of real property located in Florida and filed or recorded in the state, which shall be taxable as if they were entered into within this state.

(b) If the purpose of the financing evidenced by any instrument described in (1)(a) is to finance all or any part of the purchase of real estate located in Florida or personal property for use in Florida. However, the obligee under any such instrument shall be entitled to rely on a written certificate by the makers thereof or the obligors thereunder that no part of the proceeds of such financing is intended for any such purpose.

(c) If, at the date of any instrument described in paragraph (1)(a) or at the date of acceptance of any instrument described in paragraph (1)(b), a majority of the equity securities of any maker of any instrument described in paragraph (1)(a) or of any obligor thereunder, or of any drawer or person for whose benefit the financing referred to in paragraph (1)(b) is conducted, are owned by individuals residing within the United States or business organizations or other persons located within the United States. However, the obligee under or acceptor of any such instrument shall be entitled to rely upon the written certificate of each maker, obligor, or person for whose benefit the financing is conducted, other than an individual, certifying that a majority of its equity securities are not owned by individuals residing within the United States or business organizations or other persons located within the United States.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not be construed so as to impair the obligation of any contract entered into prior to July 1, 1977.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-463; s. 9, ch. 79-350; s. 92, ch. 79-400.

201.24 Obligations of municipalities, political subdivisions, and agencies of the state.—

There shall be exempt from all taxes imposed by this chapter any obligation to pay money issued by a municipality, political subdivision, or agency of the state.

History.—s. 10, ch. 79-350.

CHAPTER 203

GROSS RECEIPTS TAXES

- 203.01 Tax on gross receipts for utility services.
- 203.011 Certain credits authorized.
- 203.02 Powers of Department of Revenue.
- 203.03 Penalties.
- 203.04 Repeal of laws granting exemptions or exceptions.
- 203.05 Gross receipts taxes against express companies; reports; penalties; distribution.
- 203.06 Interest on delinquent payments.

203.01 Tax on gross receipts for utility services.—Every person, including municipal corporations, receiving payment for electricity for light, heat or power, for natural or manufactured gas for light, heat or power, for use of telephones, and for the sending of telegrams and telegraph messages, shall report semiannually to the Department of Revenue, not later than January 31 for the 6 months ending December 31, and not later than July 31 for the 6 months ending June 30, under oath of the secretary or some other officer of such person, the total amount of gross receipts derived from business done within this state, or between points within this state, for the preceding 6 months and, at the same time, shall pay into the state treasury the sum of $1.50 upon each $100 of such gross receipts. The term "gross receipts" as used herein shall not include gross receipts of any person derived from the sale of natural gas to a public or private utility, including municipal corporations and rural electric cooperative associations, either for resale or for use as fuel in the generation of electricity. If any person fails to make such report to the department and pay the tax as herein provided, the department shall, after having given at least 5 days' notice to such person or some official or representative thereof within this state, estimate the amount of such gross receipts from such information as it may be able to obtain and shall add 10 percent of the amount of such taxes as a penalty, for the failure of such person to make report, and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with all costs and the penalty, the same as other delinquent taxes are collected; provided, no penalty shall be added as aforesaid if a return is made and the amount due is paid to the State Treasurer before the expiration of the time stated in the department's notice aforesaid.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 15658, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(108), (109); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 1, ch. 57-819; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 10, ch. 75-292.
cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of person.

203.011 Certain credits authorized.—Whenever a purchase is made of any utility service and a tax is paid thereon by a public utility that is regulated by the Florida Public Service Commission, municipality or a rural electric cooperative association as provided in s. 203.01, and such public utility, municipality or rural electric cooperative association resells the same directly to consumers, such public utility, municipality or rural electric cooperative association shall be entitled and shall receive credit upon such taxes as may be due it under s. 203.01 to the extent of the tax paid or payable upon such utility service by the person, firm or corporation from whom such purchase was made.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28091, 1953; s. 1, ch. 57-820; s. 1, ch. 63-279; s. 1, ch. 65-52.

203.02 Powers of Department of Revenue.—The Department of Revenue may audit the reports provided for in s. 203.01 and each and every such person shall submit all records, books, papers and accounts as to business done to the department or its duly authorized agents for examination or investigation upon demand.

History.—s. 3, ch. 15658, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(110); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

203.03 Penalties.—Any officer, agent, or representative of any such person who receives any payment for the furnishing of the things or the services above mentioned without first complying with the provisions of this chapter as required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 15658, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7455(3); s. 108, ch. 71-136.

203.04 Repeal of laws granting exemptions or exceptions.—

(1) All provisions of presently existing general, special or local statutes or laws, or parts thereof, including municipal charters and laws relating to quasi-municipal corporations, of this state granting or providing exemptions or exceptions, either directly or indirectly, from the gross receipts taxes imposed by chapter 203 are hereby repealed. This section shall not repeal, modify or amend any of the provisions of s. 203.01 or s. 203.011.

(2) No statute or law, general, special or local hereafter enacted which either directly or indirectly relates to exemptions or exceptions from taxation in this state shall be construed as including or extending to the gross receipts taxes imposed by chapter 203 unless its application to said chapter, either directly or indirectly, is clearly and specifically expressed and no repeals by implication shall be recognized in this connection. This is a rule of statutory construction to be applied to statutes and laws hereafter enacted.

(3) Subsection (1) shall be construed as applying to chapter 29334, 1953, as amended by chapter 31051, 1955; chapters 30415, 30576, 30845 and 31166, 1955; and chapters 57-1174 and 57-1348, all Laws of Florida. This enumeration of chapters, shall not be construed as being all inclusive.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 63-535.

203.05 Gross receipts taxes against express companies; reports; penalties; distribution.—

(1) Every express company doing business in this state shall annually, on October 1, make a report under oath to the Department of Revenue of the total amount of gross receipts derived from business done between points in this state during the year ending June 30, next preceding October 1 and shall at the same time pay to the department a sum equal to 2 percent upon the total amount of such gross receipts, and if any such company shall fail to make such report and payment to the department as herein provided, on or before November 1 of any year, the department shall, after having given at least 5 days' notice to an official or representative of the company located in this state, estimate the amount of such gross receipts from such information as it may be able to obtain, and shall add 10 percent to the amount of such taxes as a penalty for the failure of such company to make report, and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with all costs and penalties thereon, the same as delinquent railroad taxes are collected; provided, that no penalty shall be added if a return is made and the amount due paid to the department before the expiration of the time stated in the notice required to be given by this section.

(2) Of the sum paid to the Department of Revenue, as provided by this section, one-half shall be distributed by the department among the various counties of this state in proportion to the assessed valuation thereof as shown by the assessment of the previous year, and the remaining one-half shall immediately be turned over to the treasury of the state as license money.

205.013 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Local Occupational License Tax Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.022 Definitions.—When used in this chapter the following terms and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except when the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Local occupational license" means the method by which a local governing authority grants the privilege of engaging in or managing any business, profession, or occupation within its jurisdiction. It shall not mean any fees or licenses paid to any board, commission, or officer for permits, registration, examination, or inspection. Unless otherwise provided by law, these are deemed to be regulatory and in addition to, and not in lieu of, any local occupational license imposed under the provisions of this chapter.

(2) "Local governing authority" means the governing body of any county or incorporated municipality of this state.

(3) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, joint adventure, syndicate, or other group or combination acting as a unit, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or other fiduciary, and shall include the plural as well as the singular.

(4) "Taxpayer" means any person liable for taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter; any agent required to file and pay any taxes imposed hereunder; and the heirs, successors, assignees and transferees of any such person or agent.

(5) "Classification" means the method by which a business or group of businesses is identified by size or type, or both.

(6) "Department" means the Department of Revenue.

(7) "Business," "profession," and "occupation" do not include the customary religious, charitable, or educational activities of nonprofit religious, nonprofit charitable, and nonprofit educational institutions in this state, which institutions are more particularly defined and limited as follows:

(a) "Religious institutions" shall mean churches and ecclesiastical or denominational organizations or established physical places for worship in this state at which nonprofit religious services and activities are regularly conducted and carried on, and shall also mean church cemeteries.

(b) "Educational institutions" shall mean state tax-supported or parochial, church and nonprofit private schools, colleges, or universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for accreditation by or membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Department of Education or the Florida Council of Independent Schools. Nonprofit libraries, art galleries, and museums open to the public are defined as educational institutions and eligible for exemption.

(c) "Charitable institutions" shall mean only nonprofit corporations operating physical facilities in this state at which are provided charitable services, a reasonable percentage of which shall be without cost to those unable to pay.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.032 Levy; counties.—The governing body of a county may levy, by appropriate resolution or ordinance, an occupational license tax for the privilege of engaging in or managing any business, profession, or occupation within its jurisdiction. However, such governing body shall first give at least 15 days' public notice between the first and last reading of such resolution or ordinance by publishing such notice in a newspaper of general circulation within its jurisdiction as defined by law. The said public notice shall contain the proposed classifications and rates applicable to the occupational license tax which is the subject thereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.033 Conditions for levy; counties.—

(1) The following conditions are hereby imposed on the authority of a county governing body to levy an occupational license tax:

(a) The tax shall be based upon reasonable classifications and shall be uniform throughout any class.

(b) No occupational license tax levied hereunder shall be at a rate greater than the rate provided by chapter 205 in effect for the year beginning October 1, 1971.

(c) No license shall be issued for more than 1 year, and all licenses shall expire on October 1 of each year, except as otherwise provided by law.

(2) All business licenses may be transferred to a new owner when there is a bona fide sale of the business upon payment of a transfer fee of $3 and presentation of the original license and evidence of the sale.

(3) Upon written request and presentation of the original license, any license may be transferred from one location to another location in the same county upon payment of a transfer fee of $3.

(4) The revenues derived from the occupational license tax, exclusive of the costs of collection and any credit given for municipal license taxes, shall be apportioned between the unincorporated area of the county and the incorporated municipalities located therein by a ratio derived by dividing their respective populations by the population of the county.

(5) The revenues so apportioned shall be sent to the governing authority of each municipality, according to its ratio, and to the governing authority of the county, according to the ratio of the unincorporated area, within 15 days following the month of receipt.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144; s. 1, ch. 77-55.

205.042 Levy; municipalities.—The governing body of an incorporated municipality may levy, by appropriate resolution or ordinance, an occupational license tax for the privilege of engaging in or managing any business, profession, or occupation within its jurisdiction. However, such governing body shall first give at least 15 days' public notice between the first and last reading of such resolution or ordinance by publishing such notice in a newspaper of general circulation within its jurisdiction as defined by law. The said public notice shall contain the proposed classifications and rates applicable to the occupational license tax which is the subject thereof. Such occupational license tax may be levied on:

(1) Any person who maintains a permanent business location or branch office within said municipality, for the privilege of engaging in or managing any business within its jurisdiction.

(2) Any person who maintains a permanent business location or branch office within said municipality, for the privilege of engaging in or managing any profession or occupation within its jurisdiction.

(3) Any person who does not qualify under the provisions of subsection (1) or subsection (2) and who transacts any business or engages in any occupation or profession in interstate commerce, if such license tax is not prohibited by s. 8 of Art. I of the United States Constitution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.043 Conditions for levy; municipalities.—

(1) The following conditions are hereby imposed on the authority of a municipal governing body to levy an occupational license tax:

(a) The tax shall be based upon reasonable classifications and shall be uniform throughout any class;

(b) No occupational license tax levied hereunder shall be at a rate greater than that in effect in such municipality for the year beginning October 1, 1971;

(c) No license shall be issued for more than 1 year and all licenses shall expire on October 1 of each year, except as otherwise provided by law.

(2) All business licenses may be transferred to a new owner when there is a bona fide sale of the business upon payment of a transfer fee of $3 and presentation of the original license and evidence of the sale.

(3) Upon written request and presentation of the original license, any license may be transferred from one location to another location in the same municipality upon payment of a transfer fee of $3.

(4) If the governing body of the county in which the municipality is located has levied an occupational license tax or subsequently levies such a tax, the collector of the county tax may issue the license and collect the tax thereon.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144; s. 1, ch. 77-55.

205.053 Occupational licenses; dates due and delinquent; penalties.—

(1) All licenses shall be sold by the appropriate tax collector beginning September 1 of each year and shall be due and payable on October 1 of each year and expire on September 30 of the succeeding year. Provisions for partial licenses may be made in the resolution or ordinance authorizing such licenses. Those licenses not renewed by October 1 shall be considered delinquent and subject to a delinquency penalty of 10 percent for the month of October, plus an additional 5 percent penalty for each month of delinquency thereafter until paid. However, the total delinquency penalty shall not exceed 25 percent of the occupational license fee for the delinquent establishment.

(2) Any person engaging in or managing any business, occupation, or profession without first obtaining a local occupational license, if required hereunder, shall be subject to a penalty of 25 percent of the license determined to be due, in addition to any other penalty provided by law or ordinance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.063 Exemptions; motor vehicles.—Vehicles used by any person licensed under this chapter for the sale and delivery of tangible personal property at either wholesale or retail from his place of business on which a license is paid shall not be construed to be separate places of business, and no license may be levied on such vehicles or the operators thereof as salesmen or otherwise by a county or incorporated municipality, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding.

History.—s. 3, ch. 72-306; s. 1, ch. 73-144.

205.064 Farm, grove, horticultural, floricultural, tropical piscicultural, and tropical fish farm products; certain exemptions.—

(1) No local occupational license shall be required of any natural person for the privilege of engaging in the selling of farm, grove, horticultural, floricultural, tropical piscicultural, or tropical fish farm products, or products manufactured therefrom, except intoxicating liquors, wine, or beer, when such products were grown or produced by such natural person in the state.

(2) A wholesale farmers' produce market shall have the right to pay a tax of not more than $200 for a license that will entitle the market's stall tenants to engage in the selling of agricultural and horticultural products therein, in lieu of such tenants being required to obtain individual local occupational licenses to so engage.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-271.

205.162 Exemption allowed cripples, invalids, aged, etc.—

(1) All confirmed cripples or invalids physically incapable of manual labor, widows with minor dependents, and persons 65 years of age or older, with not more than 1 employee or helper, and who use their own capital only, not in excess of $1,000, shall be allowed to engage in any business or occupation in counties in which they live without being required to pay for a license; except that this exemption shall not apply to any of the occupations specified in ss. 205.311 and 205.341. The exemption provided by this section shall be allowed only upon the certificate of the county physician, or other reputable physician, that the applicant claiming the exemption is a confirmed cripple or invalid, the nature and extent of the disability being specified therein, and in case the exemption is claimed by a widow with minor dependents, or a person over 65 years of age, proof of the right to the exemption shall be made. Any person entitled to the exemption provided by this section shall, upon application and furnishing of the necessary proof as aforesaid, be issued a license which shall have plainly stamped or written across the face thereof the fact that it is issued under this section, and the reason for the exemption shall be written thereon.

(2) In no event under this or any other law shall any person, veteran or otherwise, be allowed any exemption whatsoever from the payment of any amount required by law for the issuance of a license to sell intoxicating liquors, malt and vinous beverages; or for the operation of any slot machine, punch board or any other gaming or gambling device.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-433.

205.171 Exemptions allowed disabled veterans of any war or their unmarried spouses.—

(1) Any bona fide, permanent resident elector of the state who served as an officer or enlisted person in the United States Air Force or Air Force Reserve, United States Army or Army Reserve, National Guard, United States Navy or Naval Reserve, United States Coast Guard or Coast Guard Reserve, or United States Marine Corps or Marine Corps Reserve, or any temporary members thereof, who have actually been, or may hereafter be, reassigned by the air force, army, navy, coast guard, or marines to active duty during any war, declared or undeclared, armed conflicts, crises, etc., since the Spanish-American War, beginning April 21, 1896, who was honorably discharged from the Service of the United States, and who at the time of his or her application for a license as hereinafter mentioned shall be disabled from performing manual labor shall, upon sufficient identification, proof of being a permanent resident elector in the state, and production of an honorable discharge from the Service of the United States during the aforesaid period of time, respectively:

(a) Be granted a license to engage in any business or occupation in the state which may be carried on mainly through the personal efforts of the licensee as a means of livelihood and for which the state, county, or municipal license does not exceed the sum of $50 for each without payment of any license tax otherwise provided for by law; or

(b) Be entitled to an exemption to the extent of $50 on any license to engage in any business or occupation in the state which may be carried on mainly through the personal efforts of the licensee as a means of livelihood when the state, county, or municipal license for such business or occupation shall be more than $50. The exemption heretofore referred to shall extend to and include the right of licensee to operate an automobile-for-hire of not exceeding five-passenger capacity, including the driver, when it shall be made to appear that such automobile is bona fide owned or contracted to be purchased by the licensee and is being operated by him or her as a means of livelihood and that the proper license tax for the operation of such motor vehicle for private use has been applied for and attached to said motor vehicle and the proper fees therefor paid by the licensee.

(2) When any such person shall apply for a license to conduct any business or occupation for which either the county or municipal license tax as fixed by law shall exceed the sum of $50, the remainder of such license tax in excess of $50 shall be paid by him in cash.

(3) Each and every tax collecting authority of this state and of each county thereof and each municipality therein shall issue to such persons as may be entitled hereunder a license pursuant to the foregoing provision and subject to the conditions thereof. Such license when issued shall be marked across the face thereof "Veterans Exempt License"—"Not Transferable." Before issuing the same, proof shall be duly made in each case that the applicant is entitled under the conditions of this law to receive the exemption herein provided for. The proof may be made by establishing to the satisfaction of such tax collecting authority by means of certificate of honorable discharge or certified copy thereof that the applicant is a veteran within the purview of this section and by exhibiting:

(a) A certificate of government-rated disability to an extent of 10 percent or more;

(b) The affidavit or testimony of a reputable physician who personally knows the applicant and who makes oath that the applicant is disabled from performing manual labor as a means of livelihood;

(c) The certificate of the veteran's service officer of the county in which applicant lives, duly executed under the hand and seal of the chief officer and secretary thereof, attesting the fact that the applicant is disabled and entitled to receive a license within the meaning and intent of this section;

(d) A pension certificate issued to him or her by the United States by reason of such disability; or

(e) Such other reasonable proof as may be required by the tax collecting authority to establish the fact that such applicant is so disabled.

All licenses issued under this section shall be in the same general form as other state, county, and municipal licenses and shall expire at the same time as such other licenses are fixed by law to expire.

(4) All licenses obtained under the provisions of this section by the commission of fraud upon any issuing authority shall be deemed null and void. Any person who has fraudulently obtained any such license, or who has fraudulently received any transfer of a license issued to another, and has thereafter engaged in any business or occupation requiring a license under color thereof shall be subject to prosecution as for engaging in a business or occupation without having the required license under the laws of the state. Such license shall not be issued in any county other than the county wherein said veteran is a bona fide resident citizen elector, unless such veteran applying therefor shall produce to the tax collecting authority in such county a certificate of the tax collector of his or her home county to the effect that no exemption from license has been granted to such veteran in his or her home county under the authority of this section.

(5) In no event under this or any other law shall any person, veteran or otherwise, be allowed any exemption whatsoever from the payment of any amount required by law for the issuance of a license to sell intoxicating liquors, malt and vinous beverages; for the operation of any slot machine, punchboard or any other gaming or gambling device; or for any of the occupations specified in ss. 205.311 and 205.341.

(6) The unremarried spouse of the deceased disabled veteran of any war in which the United States Armed Forces participated will be entitled to the same exemptions as the disabled veteran.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-433; s. 38, ch. 71-355; s. 1, ch. 77-163; s. 93, ch. 79-400.

205.191 Religious tenets; exemption.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require a license for practicing the religious tenets of any church.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-433.

205.192 Charitable, etc., organizations; occasional sales, fund raising; exemption.—No occupational license shall be required of any charitable, religious, fraternal, youth, civic, service, or other such organization when the organization makes occasional sales or engages in fund-raising projects when the projects are performed exclusively by the members thereof and when the proceeds derived from the activities are used exclusively in the charitable, religious, fraternal, youth, civic, and service activities of the organization.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-400.

205.193 Mobile home setup operations; exemption.—No county, municipality, or other unit of local government may require a duly licensed mobile home dealer or a duly licensed mobile home manufacturer, or an employee of such dealer or manufacturer, who performs setup operations as defined in s. 320.822 to be licensed to engage in such operations. However, such dealer or manufacturer shall be required to obtain a local occupational license for his permanent business location or branch office, which license shall not require for its issuance any conditions other than those required by chapter 320.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-120.

205.195 Veterinary medical practice.—No occupational license, whether state, county, or city, shall be issued to any person to practice veterinary medicine unless he shall present to the tax collector a valid current license issued by the Department of Professional Regulation.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-228.

Note.—Section 2, ch. 79-228, in effect provides that this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1985, and shall be reviewed by the Legislature pursuant to the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended by ch. 77-457.

205.196 Pharmacies and pharmacists.—No state, county, or municipal licensing agency shall issue an occupational license to operate a pharmacy unless the applicant shall first exhibit a current permit issued by the Board of Pharmacy; however, no such occupational license shall be required in order to practice the profession of pharmacy.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-226.

205.197 Architecture.—Any person applying to the licensing official of any county or municipality for an occupational license to practice architecture shall, at the time of application, exhibit to the licensing official satisfactory evidence that the applicant possesses a valid certificate of registration, and no occupational license shall be granted until such evidence is presented.

History.—ss. 13, 19, ch. 79-273.

Note.—Section 19, ch. 79-273, in effect provides that this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1985, and shall be reviewed by the Legislature pursuant to the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976.

205.198 Engineering.—Any person applying to the licensing official of any county or municipality for an occupational license to practice engineering shall, at the time of application, exhibit to the licensing official satisfactory evidence that the applicant possesses a valid certificate of registration, and no occupational license shall be granted until such evidence is presented.

History.—ss. 13, 42, ch. 79-243.

Note.—Section 42, ch. 79-243, in effect provides that this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1985, and shall be reviewed by the Legislature pursuant to the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended.

205.199 Land surveying.—Any person applying to the licensing official of any county or municipality for an occupational license to practice land surveying shall, at the time of application, exhibit to the licensing official satisfactory evidence that the applicant possesses a valid certificate of registration, and no occupational license shall be granted until such evidence is presented.

History.—ss. 32, 42, ch. 79-243.

Note.—Section 42, ch. 79-243, in effect provides that this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1985, and shall be reviewed by the Legislature pursuant to the Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, as amended.

206.01 Definitions.—As used in part I of this chapter:

(1) "Motor fuel" means and includes what is commonly known and sold as gasoline and fuels containing a mixture of gasoline and other products.

(2) "Public highways" means and includes every way or place, of whatever nature generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right, for the purpose of vehicular travel, notwithstanding that the same shall have been temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair.

(3) "Person" means and includes natural persons, corporations, copartnerships, firms, companies, agencies, or associations; state agencies; and counties, municipalities, or other political subdivisions of this state, singular or plural.

(4) "Distributor" is any person who holds a valid distributor of motor fuel license issued by the department and who:

(a) Imports or causes to be imported and sells at wholesale, retail, or otherwise, within this state, any motor fuel.

(b) Imports and withdraws for use within this state by himself or others any motor fuel from the tank car, truck, or other original container or package in which imported into this state.

(c) Manufactures, refines, produces, or compounds any motor fuel within this state and sells the same at wholesale or retail or otherwise within this state for use or consumption within this state.

(d) Imports into this state from any other state or foreign country or receives by any means into this state, and keeps in storage in this state for a period of 24 hours or more after the same loses interstate character as a shipment in interstate commerce any motor fuel which is intended to be used for consumption in this state.

(e) Is primarily liable under the gas tax laws of this state for the payment of motor fuel taxes.

(f) Was holding, on December 30, 1970, an unrevoked license issued by the department to engage in business as a distributor of motor fuel.

(g) Purchases or receives in this state for resale to dealers motor fuel upon which the tax has not been paid.

(5) "Department" means the Department of Revenue.

(6) "Duly licensed distributor" means and includes any distributor holding an unrevoked license issued by the department.

(7) "Gas tax" means and includes any tax imposed by the laws of the state upon or measured by the sale, use, distribution, or consumption of motor fuel.

(8) "Gas tax collection trust fund" means any fund or funds heretofore or hereafter created by the Legislature for the purpose of enforcing the gas tax laws of the state.

(9) "Dealer" means a person other than a distributor who sells motor fuel in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(62); s. 1, ch. 28100, 1953; s. 1, ch. 57-162; s. 2, ch. 61-119; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 1, ch. 75-286.

Note.—Former s. 207.01.

206.02 Application for license.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to engage in business as a distributor of motor fuel within this state unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked distributor's license issued by the department to engage in such business. To procure such license, every person shall file with the department an application upon oath and in such form as the department may prescribe, setting forth:

(a) The name under which the person will transact business within the state;

(b) The location, with street number address, of its principal office or place of business within this state and the location where records will be made available for inspection;

(c) The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if such person is a partnership, or of the principal officers, if such person is a corporation or association; and if such person is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory, or country, he shall also file with the application a certified copy of the certificate or license issued by the Department of State showing that such corporation is authorized to transact business in the state.

(2)(a) Upon filing of an application for a license, and concurrently therewith, a bond of the character stipulated and in the amount provided for shall be filed with the department. No license shall issue upon any application unless accompanied by such a bond, except as provided in s. 206.05(1).

(b) Upon the filing of the application for a license, a filing fee of $5 shall be paid to the department.

Note.—Former s. 207.02.

206.025 Application by person whose license has been canceled; procedure.—In the event that any application for a license to transact business as a distributor in the state shall be filed by any person whose license at any time theretofore shall have been canceled for cause by the department, or in case the department is of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith or that such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person-in-interest whose license or registration theretofore shall have been canceled for cause by said department, the department may refuse to issue to such person a license to transact business as a distributor in the state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(63); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

Note.—Former s. 207.03.

206.03 Licensing of distributors.—

(1) The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid, and the bond accepted and approved, except as provided in s. 206.05(1), the department shall issue to such person a license to transact business as a distributor in the state, subject to cancellation of such license as provided by law.

(2) The license so issued by the department shall not be assignable, shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the distributor in the state.

(3) The department shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all duly licensed distributors.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(63); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 2, ch. 77-149.

Note.—Former s. 207.04.

206.04 License number and cards; penalties.

—Each distributor shall be assigned a license number upon qualifying for a license hereunder, and the department shall issue to each such licensee separate license cards for each tank truck operated by the distributor. Such license card shall indicate the number so assigned the distributor, the motor number of the truck authorized to be operated under such license card, and such other information as the department may prescribe. The license card shall be conspicuously displayed in the vehicle to which it is assigned, and any person operating a tank truck in this state conveying or transporting motor fuel without such license card or, if a common carrier, a bill of lading shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

Note.—Former s. 207.05.

206.05 Bond required of licensed distributors.—

(1) Each distributor, except a municipality, county, school board, or special district which is licensed as a distributor under this part, shall file with the department a bond in a penal sum of not less than $3,000 or more than $35,000, said sum to be approximately 3 times the average monthly gas tax paid by, or due from, such distributor during the preceding 12 calendar months under the laws of this state. The bond shall be in such form as may be approved by the department, executed by some surety company duly licensed to do business under the laws of the state as surety thereon, and conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by such distributor to the department of any and all gas taxes which are now or which hereafter may be levied or imposed by the state, together with any and all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of the gas tax laws of the state. The distributor shall be the principal obligor, and the state shall be the obligee.

(2) In the event that liability upon the bond thus filed by the distributor with the department shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department any surety on the bond theretofore given shall have become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, then the department may require the distributor to file a new bond with satisfactory sureties in the same amount, failing which the department shall forthwith cancel the license of said distributor. If such new bond is furnished by the distributor as above provided, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond of the distributor for which such new bond shall be substituted.

(3) In the event that the department shall decide that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of the tax and any penalties and interest for which the distributor is or may at any time become liable, then the distributor shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the department, file additional bond in the same manner and form with like security thereon as hereinbefore provided, and the department shall forthwith cancel the license of any distributor failing to file an additional bond as herein provided.

(4) Any surety on any bond furnished by a distributor as above provided shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the state accruing on such bond after the expiration of 60 days from the date upon which such surety shall have filed with the department written request to be released and discharged. However, such request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge such surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of said 60-day period. The department shall, promptly on receipt of notice of such request, notify the distributor who furnished the bond, and, unless the distributor shall on or before the expiration of the 60-day period file with the department a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the department in the amount and form hereinbefore in this section provided, the department shall forthwith cancel the license of the distributor. If the new bond is furnished by the distributor as above provided, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond of the distributor for which the new bond shall be substituted.

Note.—Former s. 207.06.

206.055 Department may cancel licenses; surrender of bond.—

- (1) If a distributor at any time:
 - (a) Knowingly files a false monthly report of the data or information required by the gas tax laws;
 - (b) Fails, refuses, or neglects to file the monthly report required by such laws; or,
 - (c) Fails to pay the gas tax as required by this chapter and the laws of the state;

the department may cancel the license of the distributor.

(2) The department may cancel any license hitherto or hereafter issued to any distributor if it ascertains and finds that the person to whom such license has been issued is no longer engaged in business as a distributor and has not been so engaged for the period of 6 months immediately preceding such cancellation; but no license shall be canceled upon the request of any distributor until and unless the distributor has, prior to the date of such cancellation, paid to the state all gas taxes payable under the laws of the state, together with any and all penalties and fines accruing by reason of any failure on the part of said distributor to make accurate reports as required by the gas tax laws of Florida or to pay said taxes and penalties. In the event that the license of any distributor is canceled by the department as provided in this section, and in the further event that the distributor shall have paid to the state all gas taxes due and payable by it under the laws of this state, together with any and all penalties accruing by reason of any failure on the part of the distributor to make accurate reports or to pay said tax and penalties, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond theretofore filed by the distributor.

Note.—Former s. 207.07.

206.06 Estimate of amount of gas taxes due and unpaid.—

(1) Whenever any distributor neglects or refuses to make and file any report for any calendar month, as required by the gas tax laws of this state, or files an incorrect or fraudulent report, or is in default in the payment of any gas taxes and penalties thereon payable under the laws of this state, the department, after giving at least 10 days' notice to the distributor, shall, from any information it may be able to obtain from its office or elsewhere, estimate the number of gallons of motor fuel with respect to which the distributor has become liable for taxes under the gas tax laws of this state and the amount of taxes due and payable thereon, to which sum shall be added a sum equal to 10 percent thereof as a penalty for the failure of such distributor or his default aforesaid.

(2) In any action or proceeding for the collection of the gas tax and any penalties or interest imposed in connection therewith, an assessment by the department of the amount of the tax due and interest or penalties due to the state shall constitute prima facie evidence of the claim of the state, and the burden of proof shall be upon the distributor to show that the assessment was incorrect or contrary to law.

History.—ss. 5, 24, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(66), (84); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.
Note.—Former s. 207.08.

206.07 Suits for collection of unpaid taxes.— Upon demand of the department, the Department of Legal Affairs, or any State Attorney of any judicial circuit, shall bring appropriate actions, in the name of the state or in the name of the Department of Revenue in the capacity of its office, for the recovery of the above-mentioned taxes, penalties, and interest, and judgment shall be rendered for the amount so found to be due together with costs. However, if it shall be found as a fact that such failure to pay was willful on the part of any distributor, judgment shall be rendered for double the amount of the tax found to be due with costs. The department may employ an attorney-at-law to institute and prosecute proper proceedings to enforce payment of the gas taxes provided for by the laws of this state and penalties and interest provided for by this chapter and fix the compensation for the services of said attorney-at-law.

History.—s. 5, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(66); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 11, 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.
Note.—Former s. 207.09.

206.075 Department's warrant for collection of unpaid taxes.—

(1) Upon the determination of the amount of unpaid taxes and penalties due, the department may issue a warrant, under its official seal, directed to the sheriff of any county of the state, commanding said sheriff to levy upon and sell the goods and chattels of such distributor found within his jurisdiction for the payment of the amount of such delinquency, with the added penalties and interest and the cost of executing the warrant and conducting the sale, and to return such warrant to the department and pay the department the money collected by virtue thereof. However, any surplus resulting from said sale after all payments of costs, penalties, and delinquent taxes have been made shall be returned to the defaulting distributor.

(2) The sheriff to whom any such warrant shall be directed shall proceed upon the same in all respects to and with like effect and in the same manner (with the exceptions herein noted) as prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against goods and chattels upon judgments by the several circuit courts.

(3) In the event there shall be a contest or claim of any kind with reference to the property levied upon or the amount of taxes, costs, or penalties due, such contest or claim shall be tried in the circuit court in and for the county in which the warrant was executed as nearly as may be in the same manner and means as such contest or claim would have been tried in such court had the warrant originally issued upon a judgment rendered by said court. The warrant issued as aforesaid shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due to the state by the distributor, and the burden of proof shall be upon the distributor to show that the amounts or penalties were incorrect.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights to collect such taxes or penalties by an action upon any bond that may be filed with the department under the provisions of this chapter or by suit or otherwise, and in case such suit, action, or other proceeding is instituted for the collection of the tax, such suit, action, or other proceeding shall not be construed as waiving any other right herein provided. Any civil proceeding under this chapter shall not be construed as a waiver or estoppel in any criminal proceeding against such distributor under this chapter.

Note.—Former s. 207.10.

206.08 Report from persons not distributors.—

(1) Every person purchasing or otherwise acquiring motor fuel in tank car, truck, or cargo lots and selling, using, consuming, or otherwise disposing of the same for delivery in Florida who is not required by the provisions of this chapter to be licensed as a distributor of motor fuel or by the laws of Florida to make reports, shall file a statement setting forth:

(a) The name under which such person is transacting business within the state;

(b) The location with street number address of such person's principal office or place of business within the state; and

(c) The name and address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if such person is a partnership, or the principal officers, if such person is a corporation or association.

(2) On or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month, such person shall, on forms prescribed by the department, report to the department all purchases or other acquisition and sales or other disposition of motor fuel during the preceding calendar month, giving a record of each tank car, truck, or cargo lot delivered to a point within Florida. Such report shall set forth:

(a) From whom each tank car, truck, or cargo lot was purchased or otherwise acquired;

(b) The point of shipment;

(c) To whom sold or shipped;

(d) The point of delivery;

(e) The date of shipment;

(f) The name of the carrier, the initials and number of the car, and the number of gallons contained in the tank car, if shipped by rail;

(g) The name and owner of the boat, barge, or vessel and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by water;

(h) The name of the owner of the truck and the number of gallons contained in such truck, if shipped by truck; and any other additional information the department may require relative to such motor fuel.

Note.—Former s. 207.11.

206.09 Reports from carriers transporting motor fuel or similar products.—

(1) Every railroad company, streetcar, suburban or interurban railroad company, pipeline company, water transportation company, and common carrier transporting motor fuel, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate, either in interstate or intrastate commerce, to points within Florida and every person transporting motor fuel, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate, by whatever manner, to a point in Florida from any point outside of said state, shall report under oath to the department on forms prescribed by the department all deliveries of motor fuel, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate so made to points within the state.

(2) Such reports shall cover monthly periods and be submitted within 15 days after the close of the month covered by the report and shall show:

(a) The name and address of the person to whom the deliveries of motor fuel, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate have actually and in fact been made;

(b) The name and address of the originally named consignee, if motor fuel, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate has been delivered to any other than the originally named consignee;

(c) The point of origin, the point of delivery, the date of delivery, and the number and initials of each tank car and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by rail;

(d) The name of the boat, barge, or vessel and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by water;

(e) The license number of each tank truck and the number of gallons contained therein, if transported by motor truck;

(f) If delivered by other means, the manner in which such delivery is made; and

(g) Such other additional information relative to shipments of motor fuel as the department may require.

Note.—Former s. 207.13.

206.10 Reports to be filed whether taxes due or not.—All statements or reports required by this chapter and the gas tax laws of this state to be made to the department monthly shall be filed each month regardless of whether or not a gas tax is due under the provisions of the laws of Florida.

History.—s. 17, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(78); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.
Note.—Former s. 207.14.

206.11 Penalties.—

(1) Any false or fraudulent statement or report submitted under the gas tax laws of this state and sworn to by a person knowing same to be false or fraudulent shall constitute perjury, and, upon conviction thereof, the person so convicted shall be punished as provided by law for conviction of perjury under s. 837.01.

(2) Any person:

(a) Who willfully refuses or neglects to make any statement, report, or return required by the provisions of this law;

(b) Who knowingly makes, or assists any other person in making, a false statement in a return or report or in connection with an application for refund of any tax;

(c) Who knowingly collects, or attempts to collect or causes to be paid to him or to any other person, either directly or indirectly, any refund of such tax without being entitled to the same; or

(d) Who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, a penalty for which is not otherwise provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. For a second or further offense, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and in addition thereto the department may revoke or suspend the license of any violator. Each day or part thereof during which any person engages in business as a distributor without being the holder of an uncanceled license as provided by this part shall constitute a separate offense within the meaning of this section. In addition to the penalty imposed by this chapter, the defendant shall be required to pay all gas taxes and penalties due to the state. The penalties provided in this section shall be in addition to those provided for in s. 206.44.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 115, ch. 71-136.

206.12 Retention of records by distributors and other persons.—

(1) Each distributor shall maintain and keep, for a period of 3 years, such record of motor fuel received, used, transferred, sold, and delivered within this state by such distributor, together with invoices, bills of lading, and other pertinent records and papers, as may be required by the department for the reasonable administration of the motor fuel tax laws of this state.

(2) Every person not a distributor purchasing motor fuel taxable under the laws of this state for the purpose of resale shall maintain and keep for a period of 1 year a record of motor fuel received, the amount of tax paid as part of the purchase price, together with delivery tickets, invoices, and bills of lading, and such other records as the department requires.

History.—s. 8, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(69), 7794(7); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.16.

206.13 Refund of taxes erroneously or illegally collected.—When any taxes or penalties imposed by this chapter have been erroneously or illegally collected, the department may permit the distributor within 1 year to take credit against a subsequent tax report for the amount of the erroneous or illegal amount overpaid, or the distributor may apply for refund as provided by s. 215.26.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 39, ch. 71-355.

206.14 Inspection of records; hearings; forms; rules and regulations.—

(1) The department shall have the authority to prescribe all forms upon which reports shall be made to it and any other forms required for the proper administration of this law and shall prescribe and publish all rules and regulations for the enforcement of this part, which rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of law.

(2) The department or any authorized deputy, employee, or agent is authorized to examine the records, books, papers, and equipment of distributors, dealers, or common carriers to verify the truth and accuracy of any statement or report and ascertain whether or not the tax imposed by this law has been paid.

(3) The department or any of its duly authorized agents shall have the power in the enforcement of the provisions of this part to hold hearings, administer oaths to witnesses, and take sworn testimony of any person and cause it to be transcribed into writing; and for such purposes the department shall be authorized to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, compel the attendance of witnesses and records, and conduct such investigations as it may deem necessary.

(4) If any person unreasonably refuses access to such records, books, papers or other documents, or equipment, or if any person fails or refuses to obey such subpoenas duces tecum or to testify, except for lawful reasons, before the department or any of its authorized agents, the department shall certify the names and facts to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of any county, and the Circuit Court shall enter such order against such person in the premises as the enforcement of this law and justice shall require.

(5) In any action or proceeding for the collection of the tax and penalties or interest imposed in connection therewith, an assessment by the department of the amount of the tax, penalties, or interest due shall be prima facie evidence of the claim of the state, and the burden of proof shall be upon the person charged to show the assessment was incorrect and contrary to law.

Note.—Former s. 207.17.

206.15 Gas taxes a lien on property.—If any person liable for the gas tax imposed by law neglects or refuses to pay it, the amount of the tax (including any interest, penalty, or addition to the tax, with any cost that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the state upon all franchises, property, and rights to property, whether real or personal, then belonging to, or thereafter acquired by, the person, (whether the property is employed by the person in the prosecution of business or is in the hands of an assignee, trustee, or receiver for the benefit of creditors) from the date the taxes are due and payable. The lien shall have priority over any lien or encumbrance whatsoever except the lien of other state taxes having priority by law, and except that the lien shall not be valid as against any bona fide mortgagee, pledgee, judgment creditor, or purchaser whose rights have attached before the time when the department has filed claim of lien in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the principal place of business of the person is located or, if the person has no principal place of business in the state, in the office of the Department of State (for which no filing fee shall be required). The lien shall continue until the amount of the tax, with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing, is paid or the tax is barred under chapter 95. The department may issue a certificate of release of lien when the amount of the tax, with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing thereon, has been satisfied by the person, and the person may record it with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the claim of lien was filed.

History.—s. 10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 32, ch. 74-382.

Note.—Former s. 207.18.

206.16 Officer, etc., selling property.—

(1) No sheriff, receiver, assignee, master, or other officer shall sell the property or franchise of any person for failure to pay gas taxes, penalties, or interest without first filing with the department a statement containing the following information:

- (a) The name of the plaintiff or party at whose instance or upon whose account the sale is made;
- (b) The name of the person whose property or franchise is to be sold;
- (c) The time and place of sale; and
- (d) The nature of the property and the location of the same.

(2) The department, after receiving notice as aforesaid, shall furnish to the sheriff, receiver, trustee, assignee, master, or other officer having charge of the sale a certified copy or copies of all gas taxes, penalties, and interest on file in the office of the department as liens against such person, and, in the event there are no such liens, a certificate showing that fact, which certified copies or copy of certificate shall be publicly read by such officer at and immediately before the sale of the property or franchise of such person.

Note.—Former s. 207.19.

206.17 Department to furnish certificates of liens.—The department shall furnish to any person applying therefor a certificate showing the amount of all liens for gas tax, penalties, and interest that may be of record in the files of the department against any person under the provisions of this part.

History.—s. 10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.20.

206.175 Foreclosure of liens.—The department may file an action in the name of the state to foreclose the liens provided for herein. The procedure shall be the same as the procedure for foreclosure of mortgages on real estate. A certificate of the department setting forth the amount of gas taxes due shall be prima facie evidence of the matter therein contained. The action may be instituted at any time after the lien becomes effective and before it is barred under chapter 95. The title to the land conveyed by such deed shall be indefeasible as to all parties defendant in the action.

206.18 Discontinuance or transfer of business; penalty.—

(1) Whenever a person ceases to engage in business as a distributor within the state by reason of the discontinuance, sale, or transfer of the business of such distributor, such person shall notify the department in writing at least 10 days prior to the time the discontinuance, sale, or transfer takes effect. Such notice shall give the date of discontinuance and, in the event of a sale or transfer of the business, the date thereof and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee. All gas taxes, penalties, and interest not due and payable under the provisions of the laws of this state shall, notwithstanding such provisions, become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance, sale, or transfer; and any such person shall, concurrently with such discontinuance, sale, or transfer, make a report, pay all such taxes, interest, and penalties, and surrender to the department the license certificate theretofore issued to said person by the department.

(2) Unless the above notice shall have been given to the department as above provided, such purchaser or transferee shall be liable to the state for the amount of all taxes, penalties, and interest under the laws of Florida accrued against any such distributor selling or transferring his business on the date of such sale or transfer, but only to the extent of the value of the property and business thereby acquired from such distributor.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as releasing the distributor so transferring or discontinuing his business from liability for any gas taxes or for any interest or penalty due under the gas tax laws.

Note.—Former s. 207.22.

206.19 Not to settle for less than amounts actually due.—The department shall have no right, power, or authority to settle or compromise with any distributor any claim of the state accruing under the gas tax laws of this state for a sum less than the full amount due, in conformity with this chapter.

History.—s. 12, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(73); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.23.

206.20 Transportation of motor fuel over public highways.—

(1) Every person hauling, transporting, or conveying motor fuel over any of the public highways of this state must, during the entire time he is so engaged, have in his possession an invoice or delivery ticket, bill of sale, or other record evidence showing the true name and address of the person from whom he has received the motor fuel, the number of gallons so originally received by him from said person, the true name and address of every person to whom he has made deliveries of said motor fuel, and the number of gallons so delivered to each of said persons, and the destination of the undelivered gallons. The person hauling, transporting or conveying such motor fuel shall, at the request of any person required by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection said invoice or delivery ticket, bill of sale, or record evidence. If the person fails to produce the invoice or delivery ticket, bill of sale, or record evidence, or if, when produced, it fails clearly to disclose said information, the same shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to vehicles transporting motor fuel not in excess of 200 gallons contained in the fuel tank of such vehicle provided for the carrying of motor fuel for propelling same, which motor fuel is to be used solely for the motive power of such vehicle, to vehicles transporting motor fuel in quantities of not more than 5 gallons for emergency purposes, or to motor fuel being transported by common carrier in railroad cars.

Note.—Former s. 207.24.

206.204 Transportation of motor fuel by boats over the navigable waters of this state.—

(1) Every person hauling, transporting, or conveying motor fuel over any of the navigable waters of this state must, during the entire time he is so engaged, have in his possession an invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence showing the true name and address of the person from whom he has received said motor fuel and the true name and address of every person or persons to whom he has made or is making deliveries of same, and the number of gallons (that is, a person hauling, transporting or conveying said motor fuel must have in his possession record evidence of the name and address of the person from whom he has received the same, and also of the name and address of the person to whom he has delivered or is going to deliver the same, and the number of gallons). The person hauling, transporting or conveying said motor fuel shall at the request of any person authorized by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection the invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence. If the person fails to produce the invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence, or if, when produced, it fails to clearly disclose said information, the same shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

(2) No person shall haul, transport, or convey motor fuel in boats over any of the navigable waters of the state, except in boats plainly and visibly marked on both sides and above the waterline thereof with the word "gasoline" or other name of the motor fuel being transported, in letters at least 4 inches high and of corresponding appropriate width, together with the name and address of the owner of the boat in which such motor fuel is contained.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to boats transporting motor fuel to be used solely for their own motive power.

History.—s. 14, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(75), 7794(10); s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.25.

206.205 Forfeiture of vehicles and boats illegally transporting or delivering motor fuel.—

(1) The right of property in and to all conveyances, boats, and other vehicles of transportation, and all tanks and other equipment used in connection therewith, employed in the illegal transportation or delivery of motor fuel in this state for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding any gas tax provided or imposed by the laws of this state, and all other personal property that may have been used by any person for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding any such tax, or which may have been used to facilitate the illegal evasion or avoidance of any such tax, is declared not to exist in any person, and the same shall be forfeited. The department and its authorized agents and the several sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, and police officers of municipalities shall seize any and all such things, and the same shall be safely kept by the sheriff of the county until disposed of as provided by law. Every conveyance, boat, and other vehicle of transportation, and all tanks and other equipment used in connection therewith, as hereinabove described shall be seized and may be forfeited as provided by the Florida Uniform Contraband Transportation Act. All other personal property shall be seized and forfeited as provided by this section.

(2) The sheriff of the county, within 10 days after the receipt of any such things, shall make and subscribe to an affidavit in writing before some officer authorized by law to administer an oath, reciting such seizure, with the date, place, and things seized, giving a reasonably full description thereof, the name of the alleged owner and person from whose possession same were taken, if either or both be known to such sheriff, and a short statement of the circumstances under which said property was being used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding, or had been used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding, any gas tax provided or imposed by the laws of Florida.

(3) Within 10 days after the receipt of such things by the sheriff, the sheriff shall present such affidavit to the Judge of the Circuit Court of the county where such things were seized, and the Circuit Judge of said court shall direct that such sheriff shall serve written notice upon such owner and person from whose possession such things were taken, if known, and if he, it, or they be within the county, of time and place of the hearing upon such affidavit, which may be in term time or in vacation, and at any place within the judicial circuit as the Circuit Judge may fix, which notice shall be signed by the Circuit Judge citing such person to appear and show cause, if any, why such things should not be adjudged forfeited and disposed of as in this section provided.

(4) If such sheriff shall recite in his affidavit that such things were not taken from the possession of any person, or that the owner is unknown, or that either of such persons is without the county, conceals himself or themselves, or that personal service of such notice cannot be made by such sheriff for any good reason, the Circuit Judge shall by written order direct that, in lieu of personal notice of such hearing to any such person, written notice of such hearing shall be posted at the county courthouse door, directed to all persons interested in such things and giving notice of such seizure, and of the date and place thereof and a reasonable description of the things seized, and of the time and place of the hearing upon such affidavit, which notice shall be signed by the Circuit Judge.

(5) If at the time and place provided for the hearing upon such affidavit no person shall appear and claim such things, the affidavit of the sheriff shall stand as confessed and taken as true, and the recitals therein contained shall not thereafter be open to question in any other court or proceeding, and the Circuit Judge shall thereupon make an order in writing directing the sale thereof.

(6) Such sale shall be in the presence of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county and at such times and places and in such manner as the judge shall in his order direct.

206.21 Trial of issues interposed by defense; sale, etc.—

(1) Should any person appear at the hearing provided for in s. 206.205 and claim the things seized and interpose any defense to the affidavit mentioned in said section, the Circuit Judge shall determine whether the evidence adduced proves beyond a reasonable doubt that such things are forfeited and make his written order accordingly. If he shall determine in the affirmative, such things shall be sold by the sheriff in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as provided in s. 206.205, but if he shall determine in the negative respecting all or any of such things, the part not forfeited shall be returned to the person legally entitled thereto.

(2) The hearing before the Circuit Judge shall be informal, and he may make all rules and orders to carry this section into effect. The sheriff may call upon the state attorney to assist him in preparing the affidavit herein mentioned and represent him at the hearing before the Circuit Judge, and in taking and perfecting any appeal from the final decision of the Circuit Judge.

(3) If the state, the sheriff, or the claimant shall be dissatisfied with the decision, he may appeal from the final decision of the court to the appropriate District Court of Appeal in the same manner and within the time as appeals in chancery are taken under the Florida Appellate Rules, and upon such appeal being entered such Circuit Judge shall cause to be reduced to writing and authenticate with his signature all oral evidence considered by him upon such hearing, and the same shall be filed with the papers in the case and thereby become a part of the record proper.

(4) If authorized by the State Constitution, appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court. No appeal taken by any party shall operate as a supersedeas, but such things shall remain in the custody of the sheriff pending such appeal and to abide the final decision of the appellate court.

Note.—Former s. 207.28.

206.215 Costs and expenses of proceedings.—

(1) For the performance of the duties required of the sheriff by the provisions of ss. 206.205 and 206.21 he shall receive the same fees provided by law for the arrest and return of persons charged with crime, including the same mileage and the actual cost of transporting such things, and all such fees and compensations shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale.

(2) The clerks of the courts performing duties under the provisions aforesaid shall receive the same fees as prescribed by the general law for the performance of similar duties, and witnesses attending any investigation pursuant to subpoena shall receive the same mileage and per diem as if attending as a witness before the Circuit Court in term time.

(3) All fees and costs provided for shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale, or if there be no sale or if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to meet such fees and costs then such fees and costs shall be paid out of the Gas Tax Collection Trust Fund or other funds available for the enforcement of the gas tax laws by the department.

(4) In the event the proceeds of the sale are more than sufficient to pay all costs and fees attending the sale, then the surplus thereof shall be sent to the department to be disposed of as provided for the disposition of the taxes collected under the gas tax laws of the state; provided, however, that any property seized under s. 206.205 against which there is existing a mortgage lien or retain title contract held by a person who has no knowledge that such property is being used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding the payment of the gas taxes provided for under the laws of the state, then such seizure shall not invalidate such lien or retain title contract, but the same shall be paid out of any funds derived from a sale of said property, provided the retain titleholder or mortgagee shall within 30 days after seizure come into court and set up his claim to such retained title lien or mortgage.

206.22 Restraining and enjoining violations.

—Any person who violates any of the provisions of this part or who fails to pay gas taxes and all interest and penalties due by him to the state under the provisions of the laws of this state may be restrained and enjoined in a suit or other proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction instituted in the name of the state by the Department of Legal Affairs or by any state attorney at the direction of the department from selling, consuming, using, distributing, or transporting any motor fuel which is taxable under the laws of this state until such person shall have paid all of said taxes, interest, and penalties due the state and complied with the provisions of this part. Any proceeding instituted under this section shall not operate as a bar to the prosecution of any person guilty of violating any of the criminal laws of the state.

Note.—Former s. 207.30.

206.23 Tax; must be stated separately.—Distributors shall add the amount of the gas tax to the price of the motor fuel sold by them and shall state the rate of the tax separately from the price of the motor fuel on all invoices. However, this section shall not apply to retail sales by a retail service station.

206.24 Department and agents may make arrests, seize property and execute warrants.—

(1) The department and its deputies, agents, and employees may make arrests without warrants for any violation of the provisions of this part. Any person arrested for violation of any provision of this part shall be surrendered without delay to the sheriff of the county in which the arrest was made and formal complaint made against him, in accordance with law.

(2) The department and its deputies, agents, and employees also may seize property as set out in ss.

206.205, 206.21, and 206.215, and upon said seizure being made shall surrender without delay such seized property to the sheriff of the county where said property was seized for further procedure as set out in said sections.

(3) When the department deems advisable, it may direct the warrant provided for in s. 206.075 to one of the said department's deputies, agents, and employees who shall then execute said warrant and proceed thereon in the same manner provided for sheriffs in such cases.

Note.—Former s. 207.36.

206.28 Exchange of information among the states.—The department shall, upon request duly received from the officials to whom are entrusted the enforcement of the gas tax laws of any other state, forward to such officials any information which it may have in its possession relative to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation, or shipment by any person of motor fuel.

History.—s. 21, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(81); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.37.

206.29 Refunds to city transit companies; definitions.—

(1) "City transit system" as used in ss. 206.30-206.40 means any system of mass public transportation authorized to operate within any city, town, or municipality in this state, as distinguished from any over-the-road system of public transportation operating between one or more cities, towns, or municipalities. However, a city transit system as defined above may operate within 25 miles outside the corporate limits of any city, town, or municipality when such operation outside the corporate limits is found necessary adequately and efficiently to provide mass public transportation services for the city, town, or municipality involved. A city transit system as defined above shall not include taxicab or limousine operations.

(2) "City or cities" as used in ss. 206.30-206.40 includes collectively or individually any city, town, or municipality organized in this state by virtue of any general or special law enacted by the legislature.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-451; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.39.

206.30 Legislative findings.—It is hereby expressly recognized and declared by the legislature that mass public transportation is essential to the continued economic growth and development of the cities of this state and therefore essential to the general welfare of the state; that the constant population growth throughout the state has brought an ever-increasing use of private individual means of transportation, resulting in the overburdening of traffic arteries within our cities and thereby causing an increase in police requirements, higher cost of traffic regulation and law enforcement, and severe economic loss to and a blight on the central business districts in the cities; that relief of present city traffic congestion is essential to the continued economic growth and development of the cities of this state, and thus essential to the general welfare of this state; that further deterioration of the central areas of the cities must be prevented; that by reason of the heavy population growth and the increase in the use of private means of transportation, existing city transit systems have had to reduce route mileage and areas served, limit the hours of operation, and raise rates to compensate for the loss in revenue; that by reason of the reduced operations of the city transit systems as described herein, income and capital investment have declined while operating expenses have increased, resulting in the obsolescence of equipment and a further decline in services; that present excise taxes imposed on city transit systems by this part constitute but a minor source of revenue to the state but constitute a major item of cost to each city transit system; and that the vehicles used by the city transit systems do not operate normally over state maintained roads but operate primarily over streets and roads maintained by the cities involved. In view of the foregoing facts, the legislature finds that the improvement, revitalization, modernization, and expansion of the city transit systems of this state are necessary and proper in the best interest of the state, and in order to obtain these objectives the legislature finds it necessary to grant certain tax advantages to the city transit systems as set forth below.

206.31 Refunds on fuel used for city transit systems.—Any person who uses any motor fuel for a city transit system on which the taxes, as imposed by this chapter, have been paid shall be entitled to a refund of the first 4 cents of said state taxes. However, no refund shall be authorized unless sworn applications therefor containing such information as the department may determine shall be filed with it no later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

History.—s. 3, ch. 63-451; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 39, ch. 71-355.

Note.—Former s. 207.41.

206.32 Powers and duties of department.—

(1) The department shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary to establish the procedure for procuring the refund provided for in s. 206.31 and to enforce the provisions of ss. 206.29-206.40.

(2) Agents of the department are authorized to go upon the premises of any person who has applied for or who has received a refund under s. 206.31, or of any licensed dealer or his duly authorized agent to make inspection to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of ss. 206.29-206.40 or the enforcement thereof. However, no agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from a court of competent jurisdiction.

Note.—Former s. 207.42.

206.33 Permit for refunds required; procedure for issuance; bond.—

(1) No person shall secure a refund of tax under s. 206.31 unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked refund permit issued by the department before the purchase of the motor fuel, which permit shall be numbered and issued annually and entitle such person to make application for a refund under ss. 206.29-206.40.

(2) To procure a permit a person shall file with the department an application, on forms furnished by the department, stating that he is engaged in the business of city transit systems and that he intends to file an application for refund for the current calendar year, and shall furnish the department such other information as the department shall request.

(3) No person shall, in any event, be allowed a refund unless he has filed the application provided for above with the department. The permit shall be effective on the date issued by the department.

(4) If an applicant for a refund permit has violated any provisions of ss. 206.29-206.40 or regulation pursuant thereto or has been convicted of bribery, theft, or false swearing within the period of 5 years preceding the application or if the department has evidence of the applicant's financial irresponsibility, the department may require the applicant to execute a corporate surety bond of $1,000 to be approved by the department and conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and fines for which such applicant may become liable under ss. 206.29-206.40.

History.—s. 5, ch. 63-451; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.43.

206.34 Sales; invoices required.—When motor fuel is sold to a person who claims to be entitled to refund under s. 206.31, the seller of such motor fuel shall make out a motor fuel invoice in accordance with such rules and in such form and containing such information as the department may require. No person shall execute a motor fuel invoice who is not a distributor or a duly authorized agent thereof. No refund invoices shall be executed for purchases from retail service stations.

History.—s. 6, ch. 63-451; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.44.

206.35 When refund claims allowed; procedure; right of refund nonassignable, exception; fee.—

(1) When the department is satisfied that a refund is proper it shall authorize the first 4 cents of the state taxes imposed by this chapter to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by it from current gas tax receipts in its possession.

(2) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings of such person entitled thereto.

(3) Claims shall be paid annually on a calendar year basis. Claims shall be filed not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

(4) The department shall deduct a fee of $2 for each claim, which $2 shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 7, ch. 63-451; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.45.

206.36 Appropriation for payment of claims.—The department is authorized to withhold from gas tax revenues and special fuel tax revenues sufficient funds to make the refund provided for in s. 206.29.

Note.—Former s. 207.46.

206.37 False information in permit or refund application.—No person shall knowingly make a false or fraudulent statement in an application for a refund permit or in a motor fuel refund invoice, or in an application for a refund of any taxes under this law; or fraudulently obtain a refund of such taxes; or knowingly aid or assist in making any such false or fraudulent statement or claim; or having bought motor fuel or any part thereof to be used for any person other than as provided in s. 206.29.

History.—s. 9, ch. 63-451; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 207.47.

206.38 Revocation, suspension of refund permit.—

(1) The refund permit of any person who violates any provisions of s. 206.37 shall be revoked by the department and may not be reissued until 2 years have elapsed from the date of such revocation, and such person, whether or not his permit has been revoked by the department, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) The refund permit of any person who violates any provision of ss. 206.29-206.40, other than those contained in s. 206.37, may be suspended by the department for any period in its discretion not exceeding 6 months.

206.41 Gasoline taxes imposed.—

(1) An excise or license tax of 6 cents per gallon, herein termed "gas tax," is imposed upon every gallon of motor fuel sold in this state, or brought into this state for use, upon which such tax has not been paid or the payment thereof not lawfully assumed by some person handling the same in this state. This levy of tax is upon the consumer but shall be paid upon the first sale or transfer of title, or use, within this state whether by a distributor or dealer, except as expressly provided in subsection (2), who shall act as agent for the state in the collection of said tax whether he be the ultimate seller or not.

(2)(a) Persons who hold valid distributors' licenses may purchase motor fuel without the tax imposed by this section being paid upon the first sale or transfer of title in this state as aforesaid for sale in wholesale quantities to dealers in the state and be liable for and pay the tax on all motor fuel so purchased and sold, and shall act as agents for the state in the collection and payment thereof. As a condition precedent to a distributor purchasing and selling motor fuel under this subsection without the tax being paid upon the first sale or transfer of title in this state, he must have made average monthly sales for the 12 months next preceding of not less than 40,000 gallons. Sales made under provisions of s. 206.62 shall be included in arriving at such average monthly sales.

(b) The sale of motor fuel for export from the state is exempt from the taxes imposed by part I of this chapter when exempted by any provision of the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Florida. The sale of motor fuel for export from the state which is not exempted from the taxes imposed by this chapter either by the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Florida shall also be exempt, but only if both the seller and the exporter of the motor fuel are duly licensed distributors of motor fuel under the terms of this part.

(3) Upon the payment or lawful assumption of the tax by the distributor or dealer, the amount of the tax paid or assumed shall be added to the sales price of the product sold, and the amount of the tax shall be stated separately from the price of the product on all sales or delivery slips, invoices, bills, or statements. However, this subsection shall not apply to retail sales by retail service stations. The delivery of the product sold shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination.

(4) The above "gas tax" is made up of two separate taxes:

(a) First gas tax.—A tax of 4 cents per gallon for the use of the Department of Transportation, except as provided in s. 206.625;

(b) Second gas tax.—A tax of 2 cents per gallon as levied by s. 16, Art. IX of the Constitution of 1885, as amended, and continued by s. 9(c), Art. XII of the 1968 Constitution.

(5) Motor fuel in the fuel tanks in any motor vehicle entering this state used to propel said motor vehicle shall be exempt from the taxes imposed by this part. Fuel tanks shall mean the reservoir or receptacle attached to the motor vehicle by the manufacturer as the container for fuel used to propel said vehicle.

206.42 Aviation motor fuel exempt from tax.—

Each and every dealer in aviation motor fuel in the state by whatever name designated who sells aviation motor fuel testing 78 octane number (A.S.T.M. method D-357-33T) or higher, of such quality not adapted for use in ordinary motor vehicles, being designed for and sold and exclusively used for aircraft motors, is exempted from the payment of any and all excise taxes levied by the state upon such motor fuel.

Note.—Former s. 208.05.

206.43 Distributor to report to department monthly; deduction.—The taxes levied and assessed as provided in part I of this chapter shall be paid to the department monthly in the following manner:

(1) On or before the 20th day of each month the distributor shall mail to the department verified reports on forms prescribed by the department of the number of gallons of such products sold by him during the preceding month and shall at the same time pay to the department the amount of tax computed to be due. However, if the 20th day falls on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a federal or state legal holiday, returns shall be accepted if postmarked on the next succeeding workday. The distributor shall deduct from the amount of tax shown by the report to be payable an amount equivalent to 2 percent of the tax on motor fuels not exceeding 500,000 taxable gallons, and less an amount equivalent to 1 percent of the tax on motor fuels in excess of 500,000 gallons but not exceeding 1 million taxable gallons, which is hereby allowed to the distributor on account of services and expenses in complying with the provisions of the law. However, this allowance shall not be deductible unless payment of tax is made on or before the 20th day of the month as herein required. The United States post-office date stamped on the envelope in which the report is submitted shall be considered as the date the report is received by the department.

(2) Such report shall show in detail the number of gallons so sold and delivered by the distributor in the state, and the distributor shall specify in his report the destination as to the county in the state to which the motor fuel was delivered for resale at retail or use. The total taxable gallons sold shall agree with the total gallons reported to the county destinations for resale at retail or use. All gallons of motor fuel sold shall be invoiced and shall name the county of destination for resale at retail or use.

(3) All persons purchasing tax-paid motor fuel for resale at wholesale shall, at the time of purchase, specify to the distributor the county or counties in which the motor fuel is to be delivered for resale at retail or use. If it results that such deliveries for use were inaccurately reported at the time of purchase, the person shall, within 5 days after the end of the month in which the motor fuel was purchased, file a corrected report with the distributor from whom the purchase was made. The report shall show the date and number of the purchase invoice being corrected.

(4) The taxes herein levied and assessed shall be in addition to any and all other taxes authorized, imposed, assessed, or levied on motor fuel under any laws of this state.

Note.—Former s. 208.06.

206.44 Penalty for failure to report on time.—

(1) If any distributor fails to make the report and payment to the department as provided in s. 206.43 on or before the twentieth day of the month succeeding the month for which the tax is due as therein provided, the department shall estimate the amount of such products sold by the distributor during such months from such information as the department may be able to obtain and shall add 10 percent to the amount of the taxes, as estimated, as the penalty for the failure of the distributor to make such report or payment, and shall proceed to collect the tax, together with the penalty and costs, and obtain the same as delinquent railroad taxes are collected by law. However, the department may waive the penalty for late filing if the distributor has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of 24 months in accordance with the provisions of s. 206.43, and the distributor files an acceptable excuse for the late filing under oath with the department.

(2) In addition to any other penalties, any payment that is not received by the department on or before the due date as provided in s. 206.43 shall bear interest at the rate of 1 percent per month, from the date due until paid.

206.45 Payment of tax into State Treasury.—

All moneys derived from the gas taxes imposed by part I of this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury by the department, for deposit in the Gas Tax Collection Trust Fund, which fund is created and from which the following transfers shall be made:

(1) The first gas tax shall, after withholding and transferring such funds as are required under the provisions of s. 213.11, and after withholding $50,000 to be used as a revolving cash balance in the "Gas Tax Collection Trust Fund," and except as provided in s. 206.625, be transferred into the "State Transportation Trust Fund," which fund is created for use as provided by law.

(2) The second gas tax shall be remitted to the State Board of Administration for distribution as provided in the Constitution.

(3) The additional seventh cent gas tax collected pursuant to s. 206.60, as such may be amended by the 1971 Legislature, shall be distributed as therein provided.

(4) The additional eighth cent gas tax collected pursuant to s. 206.605 shall be distributed as therein provided.

206.46 State Transportation Trust Fund; construction, etc., of roads.—

All moneys in the State Transportation Trust Fund shall be used for the construction and maintenance of state roads, as otherwise provided by law, under the direction of the Department of Transportation, which department may from time to time make requisition on the Comptroller for funds to pay for the construction and maintenance of state roads. Money from said fund shall be drawn by the Comptroller by warrant upon the State Treasury pursuant to vouchers and shall be paid in like manner as other state warrants are paid out of the appropriated fund against which same are drawn. All sums of money necessary to provide for the payment of the warrants by the Comptroller drawn upon said fund are appropriated annually out of the fund for the purpose of making such payments from time to time.

Note.—Former s. 208.09.

206.47 Distribution of second gas tax pursuant to s. 9, Art. XII, State Constitution.—

(1) The second gas tax shall be allocated among the several counties in accordance with the formula stated in s. 16 of Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended, to the extent necessary to comply with all obligations to or for the benefit of holders of bonds, revenue certificates, and tax anticipation certificates or any refundings thereof secured by any portion of the second gas tax allocated under the provisions of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended.

(2) The Department of Revenue will transmit the second gas tax as collected monthly to the State Board of Administration allocated and distributed to the credit of the several counties of the state based on the formula of distribution contained in s. 16, Art. IX of the Constitution of 1885, as amended.

(3) The State Board of Administration will calculate a distribution of the second gas tax received from the Department of Revenue under subsection (2), based on the formula contained in s. 9(c)(4), Art. XII of the revised State Constitution of 1968.

(4) The State Board of Administration shall allocate the second gas tax beginning with the tax collected January 1969 on the formula contained in s. 9(c)(4), Art. XII of the revised State Constitution of 1968, subject only to the debt service requirements of bonds pledging all or part of the second gas tax allocated under the provisions of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended.

(5) The distribution factor, "the tax collected on retail sales or use in each county," shall be based upon a certificate of the Department of Revenue of the sales and use tax collected in each county as of June 30 for each fiscal year. The Department of Revenue shall furnish a certificate to the State Board of Administration on or before July 31 following the end of each fiscal year, and said certificate shall be conclusive as to the sales and use tax collected in each county for the prior fiscal year. The factor based on said certificate shall be applied to the gas tax collections for the following fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending June 30.

(6) The State Board of Administration will calculate a monthly allocation of the second gas tax received from the Department of Revenue based on the formula contained in s. 9(c)(4), Art. XII of the revised State Constitution of 1968, and credit to the account of each county the amount of the second gas tax to be allocated under said formula.

(7) The gas tax funds credited to each county will be first distributed to meet the debt service requirements, if any, of the s. 16, Art. IX debt assumed or refunded by the State Board of Administration payable from the second gas tax. The remaining gas tax funds credited to each county are surplus gas tax funds and shall be divided, 80 percent to the Department of Transportation and 20 percent to the board of county commissioners of the county for the acquisition and construction of roads. As provided in s. 339.08(4), the department is authorized to maintain on deposit with the State Board of Administration all proceeds of the 80 percent surplus of the second gas tax.

(8) The State Board of Administration shall retain a reasonable percentage of the total surplus gas tax in an amount to be determined by the board in each fiscal year and shall hold said funds in a reserve account to make any adjustments required for the distribution of the gas tax for the fiscal year. Funds in the reserve account may be invested in direct obligations of the United States maturing not later than June 30 of each fiscal year.

(9) The State Board of Administration will, in each fiscal year, distribute the 80 percent surplus gas tax allocated to each county to the debt service requirements of each bond issue pledging the 80 percent surplus accruing to that county under the provisions of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended. The remaining 80 percent surplus gas tax funds will be advanced monthly, to the extent practicable, to the Department of Transportation for use in the county.

(10) The State Board of Administration will, in each fiscal year, distribute the 20 percent surplus gas tax allocated to each county to the debt service requirements of each bond issue pledging the 20 percent surplus accruing to that county under the provisions of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended. The remaining 20 percent surplus gas tax funds will be advanced monthly, to the extent practicable, to the boards of county commissioners for use in the county.

(11) After receiving the gas tax collections for the twelfth month of each fiscal year, the State Board of Administration shall make a complete and total distribution of all earnings on investments and remaining gas tax collected during the fiscal year, taking into account all the requirements of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended, of bonds pledging all or any portion of the second gas tax accruing thereunder, and s. 9(c), Art. XII of the revised State Constitution of 1968.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-304; ss. 21, 23, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 3, ch. 77-165.

Note.—Former s. 208.111.

206.48 Reports required of distributors.—Each distributor of motor fuels shall, when making his report to the Department of Revenue of the amount of such products sold in this state upon which the tax provided is due and payable by him to the department, at the same time report to the department each and every sale made by such distributor of any quantity of motor fuel which shall not have been at the time of such sale divested of its interstate character, which report shall show the name and business location of the person to whom the same is sold in this state. Every distributor shall, at the time other reports are required to be made to the department, report to the department each and every purchase of such products not theretofore divested of their interstate character made by such distributor upon which the tax is shown by the invoice thereof to have been assumed for report and payment by the distributor selling to him.

History.—s. 12, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167 (27); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.15.

206.49 Invoice to show whether or not tax paid.—Each distributor, when selling to any other distributor any of the products taxed under this part, shall render an invoice of such sale to the purchaser, and upon such invoice the distributor rendering such invoice shall plainly state thereon whether or not the tax required will be reported and paid by him, and the purchaser buying and receiving such products may fully rely upon the statement made in such invoice.

Note.—Former s. 208.16.

206.50 Retail gasoline dealers, refund allowed.—Every person licensed to sell motor fuel at retail to the general public at posted retail prices, hereinafter referred to as "retail dealers," shall be entitled to a refund of 2 percent on the first gas tax, as defined in s. 206.41, imposed by the state, on such motor fuel purchased by such retail dealer to cover losses due to evaporation and shrinkage of such motor fuel, subject to the conditions set forth in the following sections.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.181.

206.51 Requirements for refund.—

(1) No retail dealer shall be entitled to a refund unless he is the holder of a current certificate of license as prescribed by s. 206.405.

(2) The department shall not approve refund payment to any person other than a currently licensed retail dealer except the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased currently licensed retail dealer.

History.—s. 2, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 1, ch. 63-332; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.182.

206.52 Application for refund.—

(1) Retail dealers holding a current certificate of license may file application for refunds provided by ss. 206.50-206.55 with the department. Said application shall be filed quarterly, within 6 months of date of purchase of motor fuel with respect to which refund is claimed, on forms prescribed by the department; shall be sworn to; and shall state total quantity of motor fuel purchased, location where purchased, period for which refund is claimed, date of purchase, from whom purchased, and any other information reasonably required by the department. Original or duplicate original invoice for each purchase of motor fuel made during the period for which refund is claimed shall be attached to said application.

(2) The department shall deduct a fee of $1 for each claim, which shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 3, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 2, ch. 63-332; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.183.

206.53 Approval of application; payment of refund.—The department shall promptly examine each such application for refund and approve or disapprove it. If the department approves the application, it shall authorize the amount claimed to be refunded as other refunds are made, and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by it from current gas tax receipts. After refund is made, the invoices required under s. 206.52 shall be perforated and returned to the applicant.

History.—s. 4, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 3, ch. 63-332; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

Note.—Former s. 208.184.

206.54 Refund overpayment; adjustment.—In the event of overpayment of any refund provided for in s. 206.53, the department shall refuse to make further refund until such overpayment is adjusted in a manner satisfactory to it.

History.—s. 5, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.185.

206.55 False statement; penalty.—Any retail dealer who falsely swears to a refund application, knowing such statement to be false, is guilty of perjury; and upon conviction, in addition to the penalty prescribed by law, shall not be allowed to make future applications for refund during the current license year.

History.—s. 6, ch. 29699, 1955; s. 4, ch. 63-332; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.186.

206.56 Failure to account for tax collected; embezzlement.—If any distributor collects from another, upon an invoice rendered, the tax in this part contemplated, and fails to report and pay the same to the department as provided, he shall be deemed to be guilty of embezzlement of funds, the property of the state, and upon conviction shall be punished as if convicted of larceny of a like sum.

History.—s. 15, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7254(1); s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 208.19.
cf.—s. 812.014 Theft.

206.57 Gasoline tax imposed upon motor fuels in vehicle reservoirs.—

(1) A tax of 8 cents per gallon is fixed and levied on all motor vehicle fuel carried in reserve motor vehicle reservoirs upon which other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid, and such tax shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

(2) The terms "reserve motor vehicle reservoirs" and "reserve reservoirs" shall be deemed to be any reservoir or receptacle in, upon, or attached to any motor vehicle other than the reservoir provided by the manufacturer as the container for fuel used in propelling said motor vehicle.

(3) The term "motor vehicle fuel" shall be deemed to include any petroleum or petroleum products.

(4) The term "other gasoline taxes" shall be deemed to refer to any gasoline taxes provided by law, as long as any such law shall be in effect, and to apply to any gasoline taxes provided for by any subsequent statute.

(5) Gasoline inspection laws of the state are declared to be applicable to the enforcement of this section.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 16081, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(55)-(57); s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 3, ch. 71-363.

Note.—Former s. 208.20.
cf.—Ch. 525 Gasoline and oil inspection.

206.58 Duties of police officers; penalties, etc.—

(1) All sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, and police officers in their respective jurisdictions shall, with or without warrant, stop and detain any person operating a motor vehicle in this state when they have good cause to suspect that such person is carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which the gasoline taxes in this state have not been paid, and seize any such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoirs containing such fuel that may be found and arrest the parties so operating such motor vehicle or having such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoir containing such fuel in their possession. If such fuel is found in such quantities as to confirm the belief of the illegal carrying of the same, the fuel and the reserve reservoirs containing such fuel shall be prima facie evidence of the carrying of such fuel contrary to law.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle in this state carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid, and any person so operating a motor vehicle carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which the other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid or having such fuel in their possession shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Upon the conviction of the person arrested for the violation of the provisions of this section, the judge of the court trying the case, after such notice to the person convicted and any other person entitled to such notice, as the judge may deem reasonable, may issue to the officer so making the arrest and seizure a written order adjudging and declaring such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoirs containing such fuel, or either, forfeited and directing the officer to destroy the motor vehicle fuel or reserve reservoir containing such fuel. Such destruction shall be in the presence of the judge or the clerk of his court and at such time and place and in such manner as the judge shall in his order direct.

206.59 Department to make rules; powers.—

(1) The department shall make rules and regulations, which shall have the force and effect of law, to govern reports and accounts by all persons dealing in or handling motor fuel for the purpose of enabling the department to ascertain whether or not any motor fuels are being dealt with, handled, or stored in this state under such circumstances as to become liable to the tax imposed by any law relating to a tax on motor fuel.

(2) The department is further given power to investigate, or cause to be investigated under its authority, all cases involving dealing in motor fuel by persons receiving, handling, or storing the same and to determine from such investigation whether or not any law relating to the gas tax is being evaded or illegally avoided, and the determination of the department in any case shall be prima facie valid and authentic in all courts in this state and all actions involving the validating of taxes on persons subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Note.—Former s. 208.28.

206.60 Additional seventh cent tax upon motor fuel.—

(1) Every distributor of motor fuel, in addition to all other taxes required by law, shall pay an additional tax of 1 cent per gallon for every gallon of motor fuel sold or used by him on which the tax herein provided has not been paid or the payment thereof has not been assumed by a person preceding him in the handling of said lot of products. Delivery shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination. This additional license tax of 1 cent per gallon on motor fuel shall be paid to the department monthly as provided in s. 206.43.

(2) The proceeds of said tax are hereby appropriated for public transportation purposes in the manner following:

(a) The department, after deducting its expenses of collection, and provided that no deduction shall be made from said tax proceeds as presently provided for by ss. 215.20 and 215.22(2), shall monthly divide the proceeds of said tax into 4 equal parts and allocate said parts to the credit of each county upon the following formula distribution factors:

1. Three of the 4 parts in the ratio that the total taxable gallons sold and delivered to each county of the state for resale at retail or use during the previous state fiscal year bears to the total taxable gallons sold in the state.

2. One of the 4 equal parts in the ratio that the area of each county bears to the total area of all the counties.

(b)1. The Department of Revenue shall, from month to month, distribute the amount allocated to each of the several counties under paragraph (a) to the board of county commissioners of the county, who shall use said funds solely for the acquisition of rights-of-way; the construction, reconstruction, operation, maintenance, and repair of transportation facilities, roads, and bridges therein; or the reduction of bonded indebtedness of such county or of special road and bridge districts within such county, incurred for road and bridge or other transportation purposes. In the event the powers and duties relating to transportation facilities, roads, and bridges usually exercised and performed by boards of county commissioners are exercised and performed by some other or separate county board, such board shall receive the proceeds, exercise the powers, and perform the duties designated in this section to be done by the boards of county commissioners.

2. On and after October 1, 1971, the board of county commissioners of each county, or any separate board or local agency exercising the powers and performing the duties relating to transportation facilities, roads, and bridges usually exercised and performed by the boards of county commissioners, shall be assigned the full responsibility for the maintenance of transportation facilities in the county and of roads in the county road system.

3. In calculating the distribution of funds under paragraph (a), the Department of Revenue shall obtain from the auditor general the certification of the level of assessment in each district and shall pay only the amount of money which is derived by multiplying said ratio and the amount which would be due a district under paragraph (a). The funds which are raised under this section but are not distributed under this section shall be deposited in the Additional Gas Tax Pour-over Fund. All funds placed in the Additional Gas Tax Pour-over Fund shall be distributed in the same manner as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.

4. Nothing in this paragraph as amended by chapter 71-212, Laws of Florida, shall be construed to permit the expenditure of public funds in such manner or for such projects as would violate the state constitution or the trust indenture of any bond issue or which would cause the state to lose any federal aid funds for highway or transportation purposes; and the provisions of this paragraph shall be applied in a manner to avoid such result.

(3) The gasoline inspection laws of the state shall be and are declared to be applicable to the enforcement of this section.

(4) The license tax herein levied shall be in addition to all other license taxes levied under the laws of the state and in addition to the dealer's license tax for each place of business levied under the provisions of the laws of the state.

(5) It is hereby expressly recognized and declared by the legislature that all public roads and bridges being constructed or built or which will be hereafter constructed or built, including the acquisition of rights-of-way as incident thereto, either by the Department of Transportation or the several counties of the state, were, are, and will be, constructed and built as general public projects and undertakings and that the cost of the construction and building thereof, including the acquisition of rights-of-way as incident thereto, was, is, and will be, legitimate proper state expense incurred for a general public and state purpose. And it is expressly recognized and declared that the construction, reconstruction, maintenance, and acquisition of rights-of-way of all secondary roads are essential to the welfare of the state and that such roads when constructed, reconstructed, or maintained, or such rights-of-way when acquired, are and will be for a general public and state purpose. And the legislature has found and hereby declares that for the proper and efficient construction and maintenance of public highways designated state roads, it is in the best interest of the state to further integrate the activities of the Department of Transportation and the several boards of county commissioners as provided in subsection (2) in order that both state and local highway needs may be adequately provided for.

(6) It is declared to be the legislative intent that the funds derived from this section shall be used in such manner and for the purposes aforesaid to reduce the burden of ad valorem taxes in the several counties.

206.605 Additional eighth cent tax on motor fuel.—

(1) Every distributor of motor fuel, in addition to all other taxes required by law, shall pay an additional tax of 1 cent per gallon for every gallon of motor fuel sold or used by him or brought into this state by him for sale or use on which the tax herein provided has not been paid or the payment thereof has not been assumed by a person preceding him in the handling of said lot products. Delivery shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination. This additional license tax of 1 cent per gallon on motor fuel shall be paid to the department monthly, as provided in s. 206.43.

(2) The proceeds of said tax shall be transferred into the Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for Municipalities.

(3) Funds available under this section shall be used only for purchase of transportation facilities and road and street rights-of-way, construction, reconstruction, maintenance of roads and streets; for the adjustment of city-owned utilities as required by road and street construction, and the construction, reconstruction, transportation-related public safety activities, maintenance, and operation of transportation facilities. Municipalities are authorized to expend the funds received under this section in conjunction with other cities or counties or state or federal government in joint projects.

(4)(a) If any municipality subject to this section does not have the transportation facilities capability, the municipality may designate by resolution the projects to be undertaken, and the engineering may be thereafter performed and administered and the construction administered by the State Department of Transportation or, in the case of a municipality, by the appropriate county, if said county has the capability and agrees to undertake the projects.

(b) In the event the municipality desires the Department of Transportation either to perform or administer the engineering services or to administer the construction, or both, it must so indicate at the time of the presentation of the annual budget or it must so designate at the time the county presents its annual budget.

206.61 Municipal taxes, limited.—No municipality or other political subdivision shall levy or collect any gas tax or other tax measured or computed by the sale, purchase, storage, distribution, use, consumption, or other disposition of motor fuel except such municipalities as are now levying such a tax under authorization of special laws. However, nothing herein shall prevent the levying by municipalities or other political subdivisions of reasonable flat license fees or taxes upon the business of selling gasoline at wholesale or retail.

Note.—Former s. 209.22.

206.62 Certain sales to United States tax exempt; rules and regulations.—

(1) Every distributor of motor fuels shall be exempt from the payment of all excise taxes upon motor fuels sold by such distributor in the state to the United States or its departments or agencies when the motor fuel is sold and delivered by the distributor in bulk lots of not less than 500 gallons in each delivery to and for the exclusive use by the United States or its departments or agencies.

(2) The term "exclusive use by the United States or its departments or agencies" shall be construed to mean the consuming by the United States or its departments or agencies of the motor fuel in equipment, devices, or motors owned and operated by the United States or its departments or agencies and operated by contract flying schools training cadet aviators for the United States Air Force under contract whereby the United States reimburses the contract flying school for the motor fuel so used.

(3) The term "exclusive use by the United States or its departments or agencies" shall be further construed to exclude specifically the use of motor fuel by any person, whether operating under contract with the United States or its departments or agencies or not, the original purchase by whom from a distributor of motor fuel in this state would have rendered such distributor liable for the payment of excise taxes upon such motor fuel under the laws of the state.

(4) The above definitions of the term "exclusive use by the United States or its departments or agencies," shall not be construed to be the sole meaning intended by the use of such term in this section, but such term shall be given its ordinary and usual meaning in all instances not specifically mentioned herein, and the enumeration of the above definitions shall be construed as an extension of the ordinary and usual meaning of the term "exclusive use."

(5) The department shall promulgate such rules and regulations and prescribe such forms as shall be necessary to effectuate and enforce the purpose of this section.

(6) If any subsection, provision, or clause of this section is declared to be invalid or unconstitutional and such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall have the effect of defeating or striking down the attempted exemption, it shall not affect the operation or validity of other statutes of the state providing for the taxation of every gallon of motor fuel sold in the state, it being hereby declared to be the legislative intent to grant exemption from taxation under conditions set forth in subsection (1) only in the event and to such extent that such exemption is lawful and constitutional; and it is further declared to be the legislative intent that if any subsection, provision or clause of this section is declared to be invalid or unconstitutional and such declaration shall have the effect of defeating or striking down the attempted exemption, the distributors of motor fuel shall pay each and every excise tax levied upon every gallon of motor fuel sold in the state.

206.625 Return of tax to municipalities.—

(1) Those portions of the first gas tax, imposed by s. 206.41, and the additional gas tax, imposed by s. 206.60, which result from the collection of such taxes paid by a municipality on gasoline for use in a motor vehicle operated by it shall be returned to the governing body of each such municipality for the construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of roads and streets within the municipality.

(2) The department shall promulgate such rules and regulations and shall prescribe such forms as shall be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this section.

206.63 Definitions.—For the purposes of ss. 206.64-206.77, the following words and terms when used herein shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Agricultural purposes" shall be construed to mean motor fuel used in any tractor, vehicle, or other farm equipment which is used exclusively on a farm or for processing farm products on the farm and no part of which is used in any vehicle or equipment driven or operated upon the public highways of this state. This restriction shall not apply to the movement of farm vehicles or farm equipment between farms. The transporting of bees by water and the operating of equipment used in the apiary of a beekeeper shall be also deemed an agricultural purpose.

(2) "Commercial fishing purposes" shall be construed to mean motor fuel used in the operation of boats, vessels, and equipment used exclusively for the taking of fish, crayfish, oysters, shrimp, and sponges from the salt and fresh waters under the jurisdiction of the state for resale to the public, but shall in no way be construed to include fuel used for sports or pleasure fishing, no part of which is used in any vehicle or equipment driven or operated upon the highways of this state.

Note.—Former s. 208.47.

206.64 Refunds on fuel used for agricultural or commercial fishing purposes; limitation; claims.

—Any person who uses any motor fuel for agricultural purposes or commercial fishing purposes on which the tax, as imposed by this part, has been paid shall be entitled to a refund of the state tax except the 2 cents per gallon gas tax known as the second gas tax and the seventh cent gas tax as provided by s. 206.60. However, no refund shall be authorized unless sworn applications therefor containing such information as the department may determine are filed with it not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed. When claim is filed after January 31 and there is presented to the department a justified excuse for late filing and the last preceding claim has been filed on time, such late filing may be accepted through February of the year filed. No refund shall be authorized for purchases of less than 26 gallons at any one time, and no refund shall be authorized unless the amount due is for $5 or more in any 12-month period.

206.65 Powers and duties of department.

—Agents of the department are authorized to go upon the premises of any permit holder or any distributor or his duly authorized agent as defined in this part to make inspection to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of ss. 206.63-206.77 or the enforcement thereof. However, no agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from the court of competent jurisdiction.

Note.—Former s. 208.49.

206.66 Permit for refunds required; procedure for issuance; bond.

(1) No person shall secure a refund of tax under s. 206.64 unless such person is the holder of an unre-voked refund permit issued by the department before the purchase of the motor fuel, which permit shall be numbered and issued annually and shall entitle such person to make application for a refund under ss. 206.63-206.77.

(2) To procure a permit every person shall file with the department an application, on forms furnished by the department, stating that he is engaged in the business of farming or commercial fishing and that he intends to file an application for refund for the current calendar year, and shall furnish the department such other information as the department shall request.

(3) No person shall in any event be allowed a refund unless he has filed the application provided for above with the department. The permit shall be effective on the date issued by the department and continuous from year to year so long as the permit-holder files refund claims year to year. In the event he fails to file a claim for any year, then he must apply for a new permit.

(4) The department may, if applicant for a refund permit has violated any provision of ss. 206.63-206.77 or any regulation pursuant thereto, or been convicted of bribery, theft, or false swearing within the period of 5 years preceding the application or if the department has evidence of the applicant's financial irresponsibility, require the applicant to execute a corporate surety bond of $1,000 to be approved by the department, conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and fines for which such applicant may become liable under ss. 206.63-206.77.

Note.—Former s. 208.51.

206.68 Sales; quantities limited; invoices required, requirements.—

(1) When motor fuel is sold to a person who claims to be entitled to refund under s. 206.64, the seller of such motor fuel shall make out a sales invoice, which shall contain the following information:

- (a) The name and post-office and resident address of the purchaser;
- (b) The number of gallons purchased;
- (c) The date on which purchase was made;
- (d) The price paid for such refund motor fuel; and
- (e) The name and place of business of the seller of the refund motor fuel.

(2) The sales invoice shall be retained by the purchaser for an attachment to his application for refund as a part thereof. No refund shall be allowed unless the seller executes such invoices and proof of payment of such taxes for which refund is claimed is attached. The department may refuse to grant a refund if the invoice in any particular is incomplete and fails to contain the full information required under ss. 206.63-206.77. When refund payment is made the department shall perforate the invoices and return them to the permit-holder.

(3) Refund motor fuel shall not be sold or delivered in quantities of less than 26 gallons.

(4) No person shall execute a sales invoice, as described in subsection (1), except a distributor or a dealer or a duly authorized agent thereof. No refund invoices shall be executed for purchases from retail service stations, except that the department shall have authority to designate certain retail service stations as agents of distributors when no distributors are available to serve commercial fishermen.

Note.—Former s. 208.53.

206.70 When refund claims allowed; procedure; right of refund nonassignable, exception; fee.—

(1) When the department is satisfied that a refund is proper, it shall authorize the amount of the state gas tax paid except the 2 cents per gallon gas tax known as the "second gas tax" and the seventh cent gas tax as provided by s. 206.60, to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by it from current gas tax receipts in its possession. Such refunds shall be allowed only on motor fuel purchased in quantities of 26 gallons or more and used in machines, boats, and equipment listed by the claimant in his application for refund.

(2) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator, or to the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings, of such person entitled thereto.

(3) Claims shall be paid annually on a calendar-year basis. Claims shall be filed not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

(4) The department shall deduct a fee of $2 for each claim, which $2 shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

Note.—Former s. 208.54.

206.71 Appropriation for payment of claims.—

The annual claims to be refunded shall not exceed $500,000, which amount shall be withheld from gas tax revenues available for the purpose of refund. In the event claims exceed this amount, the department shall reduce such refunds proportionally so that each claim shall receive the same percentage reduction.

Note.—Former s. 208.55.

206.72 Erroneous refunds.—If any gas taxes are erroneously refunded, the department shall advise the payee by registered mail of the erroneous refund. If the payee fails to reimburse the state within 15 days after the receipt of letter, an action may be instituted by the department against such payee in the Circuit Court, and the department shall recover from the payee the amount of the erroneous refund plus a penalty of 20 percent.

Note.—Former s. 208.56.

206.73 Records of sales and purchases of motor fuel under refund permit.—

(1) Each distributor shall, in accordance with the department's requirements, keep at his principal place of business in this state, or at the bulk plant where the sale is made, a complete record or duplicate sales tickets of all such motor fuel sold by him for the refund provided for in s. 206.69, which records shall give the date of each such sale, the number of gallons sold, the name of the person to whom sold, and the sale price. No distributor or his agent or employee shall acknowledge or assist in the preparation of any claim for tax refund.

(2) Every person to whom a refund permit has been issued under this part shall, in accordance with the department's requirements, keep at his residence or principal place of business in this state a record of each purchase of motor fuel from a distributor or the distributor's authorized agent, the number of gallons purchased, the name of the seller, the date of the purchase, and the sale price.

(3) The records required to be kept under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall at all reasonable hours be subject to inspection by the department or by any person duly authorized by it. Such records shall be preserved and shall not be destroyed until 3 years after the date the motor fuel to which they relate was sold or purchased.

206.85 Purpose.—The tax imposed by this part II of this chapter is levied for the purpose of providing revenue to be used by this state to defray in whole or in part the cost of constructing, widening, reconstructing, maintaining, resurfacing, and repairing the public highways of this state and the cost and expense incurred in the administration and enforcement of this part and for no other purpose whatsoever.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 209.001.

206.86 Definitions.—As used in this part:

(1) "Special fuels" means any liquid product or gas product or combination thereof used in an internal combustion engine or motor to propel any form of vehicle, machine, or mechanical contrivance, or used for the generation of power, heat, light, or energy. This term shall include, but not be limited to, all forms of fuel commonly or commercially known or sold as diesel fuel, kerosene, butane gas, propane gas, and all other forms of liquefied petroleum gases, except such fuels that are subject to the tax imposed by part I of this chapter.

(2) "Motor vehicle" means any form of vehicle, machine, or mechanical contrivance which is propelled by any form of engine or motor which utilizes special fuel and is required, or which would be required, to be licensed under the motor vehicle license law if owned by a resident.

(3) "Public highways" includes every way or place of whatever nature generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of vehicular travel, notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance, or repair.

(4) "Person" includes any individual, association, firm, copartnership, corporation, receiver, trustee, conservator or other officer appointed by any state or federal court or state agency, or any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of this state.

(5) "Use" means the placing of special fuel into any receptacle on a motor vehicle from which fuel is supplied for the propulsion thereof.

(6) "User" includes any person who shall use special fuels within this state for the propulsion of a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state, even though the motor is also used for a purpose other than the propulsion of the vehicle.

(7) "Department" means the Department of Revenue.

(8) "Dealer" is any person who holds a valid dealer of special fuels license issued by the department and who:

(a) Imports and sells at wholesale or retail or otherwise within this state any of the special fuel as specified above;

(b) Imports, or causes to be imported, and withdraws for use within this state by himself or others any special fuels from the tank car, truck, or other original container or package in which imported into this state;

(c) Exports special fuels from this state to another state or foreign country;

(d) Manufactures, refines, produces, or compounds any special fuels within this state and sells the same at wholesale or retail or otherwise within this state;

(e) Imports into this state from any other state or foreign country or receives by any means into this state and keeps in storage in this state for a period of 24 hours or more after the same shall lose interstate character as a shipment in interstate commerce any special fuel which is intended to be used in this state;

(f) Is primarily liable under the special fuel tax laws of this state for the payment of special fuel taxes;

(g) Purchases or receives in this state special fuels in bulk quantities for resale to service stations, to a user or another dealer, or to the ultimate consumer for nontaxable consumption upon which the tax has not been paid; or

(h) Has both a taxable use and nontaxable consumption of the same special fuel in this state. However, this paragraph shall not require a person to be a dealer when his only purchases of special fuel are delivered into reservoirs attached to motor vehicles to fuel internal combustion engines attached to said motor vehicles.

(9) "Duly licensed dealer" means any dealer holding a valid license issued by the department.

(10) "Service station" means a person who purchases special fuel within the state and sells special fuel only for use.

History.—s. 1, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(103); s. 2, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 4, ch. 75-286.

Note.—Former s. 209.01.

206.87 Levy of tax.—

(1) An excise tax of 8 cents per gallon is hereby imposed upon every gallon of special fuel used or sold in this state for use. Unless expressly provided to the contrary in this part, every sale shall be deemed to be for use in this state. This levy of tax is upon the consumer but shall be paid upon the first sale or transfer of title within this state by a dealer, except as expressly provided in this part, who shall act as agent for the state in the collection of said tax whether he be the ultimate seller or not.

(2) A dealer may purchase special fuel without the tax imposed by this section being paid upon the first sale or transfer of title in the state, and shall pay the tax on all special fuel used or sold by him and act as agent for the state in the collection and payment thereof.

(3) Upon payment or lawful assumption of the tax by the dealer, the amount of tax paid or assumed shall be added to the sale price of the product sold, and the amount of the tax shall be stated separately from the price of the product on all price display slips, bills, or statements which indicate the price of the product. The delivery of the product sold shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination.

(4) The following sales shall not be subject to the tax herein imposed:

(a) Sales by a dealer when the special fuel is delivered for home, industrial, commercial, agricultural, or marine purposes, for consumption other than use, or for resale pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof.

(b) Sales at the dealer's place of business of not more than 110 gallons by a dealer into a receptacle not connected to the fuel supply system of a motor vehicle for consumption other than use.

(c) Sales of 5 gallons or less by a person not a dealer who has no facilities for placing special fuel in the fuel supply system of a motor vehicle.

(d) Exports of special fuel by a dealer from the state when exempted by any provision of the Constitutions of the United States or the State of Florida. The sale for export from the state of special fuel which is not exempted from the taxes imposed by part II of this chapter by either the Constitution of the United States or of the state shall also be exempt, but only if both the seller and the exporter of the special fuel are duly licensed as dealers of special fuel under the terms of this part.

(e) Transfers or deliveries of special fuel into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle regularly engaged in interstate travel when such fuel is used on the highways of another state, provided:

1. The transfer or delivery shall occur within the State of Florida and be executed by a duly licensed dealer who is regularly engaged in interstate travel;

2. A similar tax is paid in another state; and

3. The tax is paid to the State of Florida on all special fuel brought into the state and used in the state.

Any licensed dealer claiming such exemption must have evidence of the payments of such tax, and must keep records showing the number of trips out of the state, the number of trips into the state, the number of gallons of special fuel carried out of state in fuel tanks, and the number of gallons brought into the state in fuel tanks for use in this state. However, when the dealer maintains adequate records of vehicle consumption of fuel as related to miles traveled and such records show more mileage per gallon than standards determined by the department for mileage per gallon, the miles shown by such records may be used for computing the exemption on a mileage basis.

(f) Transfers or deliveries of special fuel into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle operated by a common carrier when the fuel is used on highways in another state, provided the common carrier is a duly licensed dealer who is under the jurisdiction of the Florida Public Service Commission and files timetables of schedules showing operations on regular routes in interstate commerce with the Public Service Commission and maintains a complete record of miles operated; and provided the tax on the special fuel deducted for use in another state is paid to the taxing authorities of that state. However, when the dealer maintains adequate records of vehicle consumption of fuel as related to miles traveled and such records show more mileage per gallon than standards determined by the department for mileage per gallon, the miles shown by such records may be used for computing the exemption on a mileage basis.

(g) Sales or use by a dealer of special fuel consumed by a power take-off for the purpose of turning a concrete mixer drum used in the manufacturing process which is mounted on a motor vehicle and which has no separate fuel tank or power unit.

(5) Sales or exports enumerated in paragraphs (4)(a), (b), and (d) shall not be exempt sales unless the sale or export is conducted by a person who is the holder of a valid license as a dealer of special fuels as issued by the department.

(6) The provisions of ss. 206.63-206.77 relating to refunds and refund procedures shall apply to purchases of 26 gallons or more of special fuel upon which the tax has been paid when such fuel is for nonhighway agricultural or marine purposes.

Note.—Former s. 209.02.

206.875 Allocation of tax.—

(1) All moneys derived from the taxes imposed by this chapter shall be paid into the State Treasury by the department for deposit in the "Special Motor Vehicle Fuel Tax Clearing Trust Fund," which fund is created and from which the following transfers shall be made: After withholding $10,000 from the proceeds of 4 cents of said tax, to be used as a revolving cash balance, all other moneys shall be transferred in the same manner and for the same purpose as provided by law for allocation of the taxes levied in part I.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that this section be construed to provide for the distribution of the appropriate portion of the special fuels tax imposed by this part, in the same manner as provided by ss. 206.29, 206.30, 206.31, 206.32, 206.33, 206.34, 206.35, 206.36, 206.37, 206.38, 206.39, 206.40, 206.41, 206.45, 206.60, 206.605, and 206.625.

Note.—Former s. 209.03.

206.88 Appropriation for expenses of administration.—The legislature shall include in its appropriation act a sum sufficient for the payment by the department of expenses incident to the administration of this chapter, including legal expenses, costs and expenses incident to litigation, and the payment of such sums of money as the department may from time to time determine shall be refunded to any person making overpayment of such taxes.

History.—s. 4, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(106); s. 15, ch. 26869, 1951; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 209.04.

206.89 Licenses; necessity; prerequisites; issuance; nonassignability.—

(1) No person shall act as a dealer unless he holds a valid dealer's license issued by the department. However, a service station shall not be required nor be eligible to be licensed as a dealer. A person who has no facilities for placing special fuel into the supply system of a motor vehicle and who sells into containers of 5 gallons or less shall not be required to be licensed as a dealer.

(2) To procure a dealer's license, a person shall file with the department an application in such form as the department may prescribe, with a bond. No license shall be issued upon any application unless accompanied by said bond, except as provided in s. 206.90(1).

(3) When an application for a dealer's license is filed by a person whose license has been canceled for cause by the department or when the department is of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith or is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license has theretofore been canceled, the department shall have authority, if the evidence warrants, to refuse to issue to said person a license.

(4) At the time of filing an application for a license, a filing fee of $5 shall be paid to the department for deposit into the General Revenue Fund.

(5) All requirements of this section having been complied with, the department shall issue to the applicant a license, and such license shall remain in effect until canceled as provided in this part.

(6) Said license shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the dealer in whose name issued. It shall be displayed conspicuously by the dealer in the principal place of business for which it was issued.

History.—s. 5, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(107); s. 6, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 4, ch. 77-149; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

Note.—Former s. 209.05.

206.90 Bond required of licensed dealers.—

(1) Every dealer, except a municipality, county, school board or special district which is licensed as a dealer under this part, shall file with the department a bond or bonds in the penal sum of not more than $35,000. The sum of said bond shall be approximately 3 times the average monthly special fuels tax paid or due by such dealer during the preceding 12 calendar months under this part, with a surety approved by the department, upon which the dealer shall be the principal obligor and the state shall be the obligee, conditioned upon the faithful compliance with the provisions of this part. If the sum of three times a dealer's average monthly tax is less than $50, no bond shall be required.

(2) When the liability upon the bond filed as provided in subsection (1) shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made, or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department any surety on the bond theretofore given has become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the department may require the dealer to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount.

(3) If such new bond shall be furnished as provided in subsection (2), the department shall cancel and surrender the bond of the dealer for which such new bond shall be substituted. If the dealer fails to post the new bond, the department shall forthwith cancel the license of the dealer.

(4) If the department decides that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of tax and any penalties and interest for which the dealer is liable, the dealer shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the department, file additional bond in the same manner and form with like security thereon. The department shall forthwith cancel the license of any dealer failing to file the additional bond.

(5) Any surety on any bond furnished by a dealer, as provided in this section, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond after the expiration of 60 days from the date upon which such surety has lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged. Such request shall not operate to relieve, release, or discharge such surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of said 60-day period. The department shall, promptly on receipt of such request, notify the dealer who furnished such bond, and, unless the dealer shall on or before the expiration of the 60-day period file with the department a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the department in the amount and form as provided in subsection (1), the department shall forthwith cancel the license of said dealer. If the new bond shall be furnished, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond of the dealer for which the new bond shall be substituted.

Note.—Former s. 209.06.

206.91 Tax reports; computation and payment of tax.—

(1) For the purpose of determining the amount of tax imposed by s. 206.87, each dealer shall, not later than the 20th day of each calendar month, mail to the department on forms prescribed by the department, monthly reports which shall include the total gallons of special fuels sold for use or used by the dealer on which the tax has not been paid by a dealer in this state, during the preceding calendar month. However, if the 20th day falls on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a federal or state legal holiday, returns shall be accepted if postmarked on the next succeeding workday. The reports shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that such report is made under the penalties of perjury. The dealer shall deduct from the amount of tax shown by the report to be payable an amount equivalent to 2 percent of the tax on special fuels not exceeding 500,000 taxable gallons, and less an amount equivalent to 1 percent of the tax on special fuels in excess of 500,000 taxable gallons but not exceeding 800,000 taxable gallons, which is hereby allowed to the dealer on account of services and expenses in complying with the provisions of this part. This allowance shall not be deductible unless payment of tax is made on or before the 20th day of the month as herein required.

(2) At the time of filing the monthly report, each dealer shall pay to the department the full amount of special fuels tax for the preceding calendar month at the rate provided for in s. 206.87, less the amount allowable to the dealer on account of services and expenses as provided in subsection (1).

History.—s. 7, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(109); s. 8, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 4, ch. 78-250.

Note.—Former s. 209.07.

206.92 Surrender of bond or license.—

(1) Upon receipt of a written request from any dealer to cancel the license, the department shall have the power to cancel such license, effective 60 days from the date of such written request. No such license shall be canceled unless the dealer has, prior to the date of such cancellation, paid to this state all taxes due and payable, together with all penalties and interest accruing under any of the provisions of this part, and unless the dealer has surrendered to the department the license certificate issued to him.

(2) If, upon investigation, the department ascertains and finds that any person to whom a license has been issued under this part is no longer engaged in the sale, use, transfer, or delivery of special fuels and has not been so engaged for a period of 6 months, the department shall have the power to cancel the license by giving such person 60 days' notice of the cancellation, mailed to his last known address, in which event the license certificate theretofore issued to such person shall be surrendered to the department.

(3) If any license is canceled by the department as provided in this section, and if the dealer has paid to this state all taxes due and payable, together with any and all penalties and interest accruing under this part, the department shall cancel and surrender the bond theretofore filed by said dealer.

History.—s. 8, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(110); s. 9, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995.

Note.—Former s. 209.08.

206.93 Penalty for failure to report and pay taxes promptly.—If any person willfully fails to file the monthly report and pay the tax as provided in s. 206.91, the department shall revoke his license unless it appears that the failure to comply with this part was not due to fraud or to an intent to violate this part.

History.—s. 9, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(111); s. 10, ch. 26718, 1951; s. 3, ch. 63-512; s. 7, ch. 62-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-995; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

Note.—Former s. 209.09.

206.94 Department may estimate special fuels sold or used.—

(1) When any dealer neglects or refuses to file any report for any calendar month as required by s. 206.91 or files an incorrect or fraudulent report, the department shall determine, after investigation, the number of gallons of special fuels with respect to which the dealer has incurred liability under this part for any particular month or months and fix the amount of taxes due and payable thereon, to which sum shall be added a sum equal to 10 percent thereof as a penalty for the default of the dealer. However, the department may waive the penalty for late filing if the dealer has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of 24 months in accordance with the provisions of s. 206.91 and the dealer files an acceptable excuse under oath with the department for the late filing.

(2) Any payment that is not received by the department on or before the due date as provided in s. 206.91, in addition to any other penalties, shall bear interest at the rate of 1 percent per month of the amount due from the date due until paid.

Note.—Former s. 209.10.

206.95 Information privileged.—Any information obtained by the department or its agents or representative as a result of a report, investigation, or verification authorized to be made in this part, shall be confidential, and any person divulging any such information except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or except to an officer of the state entitled to receive the same in his official capacity shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

Note.—Former s. 209.14.

206.96 Reports from Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.—Upon the request of the department at the time of issuing a license plate to the owner of a motor vehicle, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles shall determine the kind of fuel used to propel the motor vehicle, and for those motor vehicles using fuel other than gasoline, shall report to the Department of Revenue within 30 days the name and address of the owner, the make, and motor number of the vehicle. Forms for making such reports shall be furnished by the Department of Revenue.

206.97 Applicability of specified sections of part I.—The provisions of ss. 206.04, 206.055, 206.07, 206.075, 206.08, 206.09, 206.10, 206.11, 206.12, 206.13, 206.14, 206.15, 206.16, 206.17, 206.175, 206.18, 206.19, 206.20, 206.204, 206.205, 206.21, 206.215, 206.22, 206.23, 206.24, 206.25, 206.26, 206.28, 206.41(5), 206.49, 206.56, 206.57, 206.58, 206.59, 206.61, 206.62 of part I of this chapter, shall, as far as lawful or practicable, be applicable to the tax herein levied and imposed and to the collection thereof as if fully set out in this part II. However:

(1) "Distributor" means "dealer."

(2) "Motor fuel" means "special fuel."

(3) No provision of any such section shall apply if it conflicts with any provision of part II of this chapter.

- 210.22 Declaration of legislative intent.

210.01 Definitions.—When used in this chapter the following words shall have the meaning herein indicated:

(1) "Cigarette" means any roll for smoking, except one of which the tobacco is fully naturally fermented, without regard to the kind of tobacco or other substances used in the inner roll or the nature or composition of the material in which the roll is wrapped, which is made wholly or in part of tobacco irrespective of size or shape and whether such tobacco is flavored, adulterated or mixed with any other ingredient.

(2) "Persons" means any individual, copartnership, society, club, association, corporation, joint stock company, and any combination of individuals and also an executor, administrator, receiver, trustee or other fiduciary.

(3) "Sale" means any transfer, exchange or barter in any manner, or by any means whatever.

(4) "Retail sale" or "sale at retail" means a sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than resale.

(5) "Dealer" means any wholesale dealer as hereinafter defined.

(6) "Wholesale dealer" means any person who sells cigarettes to retail dealers or other persons for purposes of resale only, or any person who operates more than one cigarette vending machine located in more than one place of business.

(7) "Retail dealer" means any person other than a wholesale dealer engaged in the business of selling cigarettes.

(8) "Package" means the individual package, box or other container in or from which retail sales of cigarettes are normally made or intended to be made.

(9) "Agent" means any person authorized by the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco to purchase and affix adhesive or meter stamps under this chapter.

(10) "Division" means the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation.

(11) "Use" means the consuming, giving away or disposing, in any manner, of cigarettes.

(12) "First sale" means the first use or consumption of cigarettes within this state.

(13) "Operating ad valorem millage" means all millages other than those fixed for debt service.

(14) "Distributing agent" means every person, firm or corporation in this state who acts as an agent for any person, firm or corporation outside or inside the state by receiving cigarettes in interstate or intrastate commerce and storing such cigarettes subject to distribution or delivery upon order from said principal to wholesale dealers and other distributing agents inside or outside this state.

(15) "Place of business" means any place where cigarettes are sold or where cigarettes are stored or kept for the purpose of sale or consumption; or if cigarettes are sold from a vending machine the place in which the vending machine is located.

(16) "Manufacturer's representative" means a person who represents a manufacturer of cigarettes but who has no place of business in this state where cigarettes are stored. A manufacturer's representative is required to obtain any cigarettes required by him through a wholesale dealer in this state and to make such reports as may be required by the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation.

(17) "Exporter" means a person who transports tax exempt cigarettes into this state under bond for delivery beyond the borders of this state. Each permit shall entitle the permittee to store such cigarettes under bond at one location in this state pending shipment beyond the borders of this state.

(18) "Unstamped package" or "unstamped cigarettes" means a package on which the tax required by this chapter has not been paid, regardless of whether or not such package is stamped or marked with the indicia of any other taxing authority, or a package on which there has been affixed a counterfeit or fraudulent indicium or stamp.

210.02 Cigarette tax imposed; collection; etc.—

(1) An excise or privilege tax, in addition to all other taxes of every kind imposed by law, is imposed upon the sale, receipt, purchase, possession, consumption, handling, distribution, and use of cigarettes in this state, in the following amounts, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, for cigarettes of standard dimensions:

(a) Upon all cigarettes weighing not more than 3 pounds per thousand, 10.5 mills on each cigarette.

(b) Upon all cigarettes weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand and not more than 6 inches long, 21 mills on each cigarette.

(c) Upon all cigarettes weighing more than 3 pounds per thousand and more than 6 inches long, 42 mills on each cigarette.

(2) The description of cigarettes contained in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) are hereby declared to be standard as to dimensions for taxing purposes as provided in this law and should any cigarette be received, purchased, possessed, sold, offered for sale, given away or used of a size other than of standard dimensions, the same shall be taxed at the rate of 1 cent on each such cigarette.

(3) Where cigarettes, as described in paragraph (1)(a) above, are packed in varying quantities of 20 cigarettes or less, the following rate shall govern:

(a) Packages containing 10 cigarettes or less require a 10.5-cent tax.

(b) Packages containing more than 10 but not more than 20 cigarettes require a 21-cent tax.

(4) Where cigarettes, as described in paragraph (1)(b) above, are packed in varying quantities of 20 cigarettes or less, the following rates shall govern:

(a) Packages containing 10 cigarettes or less require a 21-cent tax.

(b) Packages containing more than 10 but not more than 20 cigarettes require a 42-cent tax.

(5) Where cigarettes, as described in paragraph (1)(c) above, are packed in varying quantities of 20 cigarettes or less, the following rates shall govern:

(a) Packages containing 10 cigarettes or less require a 42-cent tax.

(b) Packages containing more than 10 but not more than 20 cigarettes require an 84-cent tax.

(6) This tax shall be paid by the dealer to the division for deposit and distribution as hereinafter provided upon the first sale or transaction within the state, whether or not such sale or transfer be to the ultimate purchaser or consumer. The seller or dealer shall collect the tax from the purchaser or consumer and the purchaser or consumer shall pay the tax to the seller. The seller or dealer shall be responsible for the collection of the tax and the payment of the same to the division. Whenever cigarettes are shipped from outside the state to anyone other than a distributing agent or wholesale dealer, the person receiving the cigarettes shall be responsible for the tax on said cigarettes and the payment of same to the division.

(7) It is the legislative intent that the tax on cigarettes shall be uniform throughout the state.

210.03 Prohibition against levying of cigarette taxes by municipalities.—No municipality shall, after July 1, 1972, levy or collect any excise tax on cigarettes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26320, 1949; s. 1, ch. 63-486; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 10, ch. 72-360.

210.04 Construction; exemptions; collection, etc.—

(1) The amount of taxes advanced and paid to the state aforesaid shall be added to and collected as a part of the sales price of the cigarettes sold or distributed, which amount may be stated separately from the price of the cigarettes on all display signs, sales and delivery slips, bills and statements which advertise or indicate the price of the product.

(2) The cigarette tax imposed shall be collected only once upon the same package or container of such cigarettes.

(3) No tax shall be imposed by this chapter upon cigarettes not within the taxing power of the state under the Commerce Clause of the United States Constitution.

(4) No tax shall be required to be paid:

(a) Upon cigarettes sold at post exchanges, ship service stores, ship stores, slop chests, or base exchanges to members of the Armed Services of the United States when such post exchanges, ship service stores, or base exchanges are operated under regulations of the Army, Navy, or Air Force of the United States or military, naval, or air force reservations in this state or when such ship stores or slop chests are operated under the regulations of the United States Navy on ships of the United States Navy; however, it is unlawful for anyone, including members of the Armed Services of the United States, to purchase such tax-exempt cigarettes for purposes of resale. Any person who resells, or offers for resale, tax-exempt cigarettes purchased at post exchanges, ship service stores, ship stores, slop chests, or base exchanges is guilty of a violation of the cigarette tax law, punishable as provided in s. 210.18(1).

(b) Upon the sale or gift of cigarettes by charitable organizations to bona fide patients in regularly established government veterans' hospitals in Florida for the personal use or consumption of such patients.

(5) It shall be presumed that all cigarettes are subject to the tax imposed by this chapter until the contrary is established, and the burden of proof that they are not taxable shall be upon the person having possession of them.

(6) The sale of single or loose unpacked cigarettes is prohibited. The division may authorize any person to give away sample packages of cigarettes, each to contain not less than two cigarettes upon which the taxes have been paid.

(7) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the sale of cigarettes, upon which the tax has been advanced, through the medium of vending machines where the tax is collected by the said vending machines.

(8) Except as hereinafter provided, all agents shall be liable for the collection and payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, and shall pay the tax to the division by purchasing, under such regulations as it shall prescribe, adhesive stamps of such design and denominations as it shall prescribe.

(9) Agents, located within or without the state, shall purchase stamps and affix such stamps in the manner prescribed to packages or containers of cigarettes to be sold, distributed or given away within the state, in which case any dealer subsequently receiving such stamped packages of cigarettes will not be required to purchase and affix stamps on such packages of cigarettes. Provided however, that the division may, in its discretion, authorize manufacturers to distribute in the state, through their representatives, free sample packages or containers of cigarettes containing not less than two or more than five cigarettes without affixing any tax stamps provided that copies of shipping invoices to such representatives be furnished, and payment of all taxes imposed on said cigarettes by law be made, directly to the division not later than the 10th day of each calendar month.

210.05 Preparation and sale of stamps; discount.

(1) The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid by affixing stamps in the manner herein set forth, or by affixing stamp insignia through the device of metering machines authorized in this chapter.

(2) The division shall prescribe, prepare and furnish stamps of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, and may from time to time and as often as it deems advisable provide for the issuance and exclusive use of stamps of a new design and forbid the use of stamps of any other design. The division shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps at such places and at such time as it may deem necessary.

(3)(a) The division may appoint dealers in cigarettes, manufacturers of cigarettes, within or without the state as agent to buy or affix stamps to be used in paying the tax herein imposed, but an agent shall at all times have the right to appoint a person in his employ who is to affix the stamps to any cigarettes under the agent's control; provided, however, that any wholesale dealer in the state shall have the right to buy and affix such stamps. Whenever the division shall sell and deliver to any such agent or wholesaler any such stamps, such agent or wholesaler shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent or wholesaler in affixing and accounting for the taxes represented by such stamps and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps, a discount of 2 percent of the par value of any amount of stamps purchased during any fiscal year from July 1 through June 30 of the following year; provided, that the discount shall be computed on the basis of 21 cents per pack. No such discount shall be allowed to a dealer, vendor, or distributor who sells or deals in any form of candy which resembles drug paraphernalia. Stamping locations approved by the division shall be responsible for computing the discount they receive pursuant to this paragraph, and said computations shall be retained by the stamping location for a period of 5 years and shall be available to the division. All stamps purchased from the division under this chapter shall be paid for in cash on delivery, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Agents appointed by the division to affix stamps shall be authorized to purchase stamps by furnishing an irrevocable letter of credit or unconditional guaranty contract or by executing bond with a solvent surety company qualified to do business in this state, in an amount of 110 percent of the agent's estimated tax liability for 30 days, but not less than $2,000, conditioned upon said agent paying all taxes due the state arising hereunder. This form of payment in lieu of cash on delivery or its equivalent shall not preclude supplemental purchases for cash. Payment for each month's liability shall be due on or before the 10th day of the month following the month in which the stamps were sold. Default in the aforesaid bonding and payment provisions by any agent may result in the revocation of his privilege to purchase stamps except for cash on delivery for a period up to 12 months in the discretion of the division.

(4) The division may in its discretion revoke the authority of any agent failing to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder and such agent may in addition be punished in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Agents or wholesale dealers may sell stamped but untaxed cigarettes to the Seminole Indian Tribe, or to members thereof, for retail sale. Agents or wholesale dealers shall treat such cigarettes and the sale thereof in the same manner, with respect to reporting and stamping, as other sales under this chapter, but agents or wholesale dealers shall not collect from the purchaser the tax imposed by s. 210.02. The purchaser hereunder shall be responsible to the agent or wholesale dealer for the services and expenses incurred in affixing the stamps and accounting therefor.

210.06 Affixation of stamps; presumption.

(1) Every dealer within or without the state shall affix or cause to be affixed to such package or container of such cigarettes, stamps, evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by virtue of this chapter before such cigarettes are offered for sale or use or consumed or before they are otherwise disposed of in the state.

(2) Each retail dealer shall open such box, carton or other container of cigarettes prior to exposing for sale or selling such cigarettes and examine the packages contained therein for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the said packages have affixed thereto the proper tax stamp. If unstamped or improperly stamped packages of cigarettes are discovered, the retail dealer shall immediately notify the dealer from whom said cigarettes were purchased. Upon such notification, the dealer from whom said cigarettes were purchased shall replace such unstamped or improperly stamped packages of cigarettes with those upon which stamps have been properly affixed, or immediately affix thereto the proper amount of stamps.

(3) Whenever any cigarettes are found in the place of business of any such retail dealer, or in the possession of any other person without the stamps affixed, the presumption shall be that such cigarettes are kept in violation of the provisions of this law.

(4) Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents therein, and shall be affixed in such manner as to be visible to the purchaser. All stamps shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by the division.

History.—s. 4, ch. 21946, 1943; s. 4, ch. 22645, 1945; s. 1, ch. 26320, 1949; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 79-11.

210.07 Metering machines.—

(1)(a) The tax may also be paid through the use of cigarette tax stamp insignia to be applied by the use of metering machines. The division shall prescribe and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations governing the use of metering machines, the procedure for the payment of such cigarette taxes through the use thereof, requiring adequate surety bonds of the users thereof to assure the proper use of such machines and payment of all cigarette taxes that might come due by the users thereof, and all other rules and regulations necessary and proper to govern the use of same.

(b) The provisions of s. 210.05(3)(a) and (b) shall be applicable to cigarette taxes paid through the use of metering machines.

(2) All provisions of this chapter governing the use of cigarette tax stamps, the compiling of records, the making of reports, permits and revocation of permits, seizures and forfeitures, penalties, and all other provisions pertaining to the payment of cigarette taxes through the use of stamps, shall likewise be applicable to the payment of said taxes through the use of metering machines.

(3) Wholesale or retail dealers of cigarettes owning, leasing, furnishing, or operating cigarette vending machines shall affix to each such machine, in a conspicuous place, an identification sticker furnished by the division. Every sticker shall show the vending machine serial number and the name and address of the cigarette wholesale or retail dealer owning, leasing, furnishing, or operating said vending machine.

(4) No vending machine shall be allowed to operate in the state that does not have affixed thereto the identification sticker required by this section nor shall any vending machine be allowed to operate in the state that does not display at all times at least one package of each brand of the packages located therein so the same are clearly visible and arranged in such a manner that the cigarette tax stamps or meter impressions of stamps affixed thereto are clearly visible. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation operating a cigarette vending machine in this state to furnish the division the location of the vending machine and to report within 30 days to the division any change of location of the vending machine.

210.08 Bond for payment of taxes.—Each dealer, agent or distributing agent shall file with the division a surety bond acceptable to the division in the sum of $10,000 as surety for the payment of all taxes; provided, however, that where in the discretion of the division the amount of business done by the dealer, agent or distributing agent is of such volume that a bond of less than $10,000 will be adequate to secure the payment of all taxes assessed as authorized by the Cigarette Tax Law, the division may accept a bond in a lesser sum than $10,000, but in no event shall it accept a bond of less than $1,000, and it may at any time in its discretion require any bond in an amount less than $10,000 to be increased not to exceed $10,000.

210.09 Records to be kept; reports to be made; examination.—

(1) Every person who shall possess or transport any unstamped cigarettes upon the public highways, roads or streets of the state, shall be required to have in his actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes. The absence of such invoices or delivery tickets shall be prima facie evidence that such person is a dealer in cigarettes in this state and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The division is authorized to prescribe and promulgate by rules and regulations, which shall have the force and effect of the law, such records to be kept and reports to be made to the division by any distributing agent, wholesale dealer, retail dealer, common carrier, or any other person handling, transporting or possessing cigarettes for sale or distribution within the state as may be necessary to collect and properly distribute the taxes imposed by s. 210.02. All reports shall be made on or before the tenth day of the month following the month for which the report is made, unless the division by rule or regulation shall prescribe that reports be made more often.

(3) All distributing agents, wholesale dealers, agents, or retail dealers shall maintain and keep for a period of 3 years at the place of business where any transaction takes place, such records of cigarettes received, sold or delivered within the state as may be required by the division. The division or its duly authorized representative is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, invoices and other records, stock of cigarettes in and upon any premises where the same are placed, stored and sold and equipment of any such distributing agents, wholesale dealers, agents or retail dealers, pertaining to the sale and delivery of cigarettes taxable under this chapter. To verify the accuracy of the tax imposed and assessed by this chapter, each person is hereby directed and required to give to the division or its duly authorized representatives the means, facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are herein provided for and required.

(4)(a) All persons who are either cigarette wholesalers, vending machine operators or distributing agents, and agents and employees of the same, are required to keep daily sales tickets or invoices of cigarette sales and it shall be the duty of said persons to see that each sales ticket and invoice handled by them or on behalf of them show the correct name and address to whom sold and the number of packages or cartons of each brand sold. It shall also be the duty of said persons to see that each sales ticket or invoice correctly shows whether the same is inside or outside of a qualified municipality and if the sale is made within the limits of a qualified municipality, the correct name of the municipality must be indicated.

(b) The division shall suspend or revoke the license of any person who is either a cigarette wholesaler, vending machine operator or distributing agent upon sufficient cause appearing that the said persons, their agents or employees have failed to keep daily sales tickets or invoices in accordance with this section.

(5) Common carriers in this state are required to report to the division all packages or cartons of unstamped cigarettes which are refused by the consignee because of damage or otherwise. Authority in writing from the division must be obtained to sell or dispose of such unstamped cigarettes. Any dealer or distributing agent, who refuses any shipment or part of a shipment of unstamped cigarettes, must show in his next monthly report to the division the number of packages or cartons of cigarettes refused and the name of the common carrier from whom the cigarettes were refused.

210.10 General powers of the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco.—

(1) The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco is authorized to prescribe and promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter and consistent with the terms hereof. All cigarette permits issued hereunder shall have printed thereon a notice to the effect that such permit is issued subject to the provisions of this chapter and said rules and regulations. The division shall provide upon request without charge to any applicant for a permit a copy of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed by it pursuant hereto.

(2) The division and all officers and employees under this chapter shall, in the administration thereof and in the administration of the State Beverage Law, have all the authority and power vested in officers and employees of the division as provided by s. 561.07, and such power and authority is hereby conferred upon the division and all officers and employees under this chapter with respect to the administration of this chapter and also with respect to the administration of the Beverage Law.

History.—s. 7, ch. 21946, 1943; s. 8, ch. 22645, 1945; s. 1, ch. 26320, 1949; s. 7, ch. 29615, 1955; ss. 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 6, ch. 77-421.

210.11 Refunds; sales of stamps and payment of tax.—Whenever any cigarettes upon which stamps have been placed, or upon which the tax has been paid by metering machine, have been sold and shipped into another state for sale or use therein, or have become unfit for use and consumption or unsalable, or have been destroyed, the dealer involved shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of the tax paid with respect to such cigarettes less any discount allowed by the division in the sale of the stamps or payment of the tax by metering machine, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the dealer's right to receive such refund, provided application for refund is made within 3 months of the date the cigarettes were shipped out of the state, became unfit or were destroyed. Only the division shall sell, or offer for sale, any stamp or stamps issued under this chapter. The division may redeem unused stamps lawfully in the possession of any person. The division may prescribe necessary rules and regulations concerning refunds, sales of stamps, and redemptions under the provisions of this chapter. Appropriation is hereby made out of revenues collected under this chapter for payment of such allowances.

210.12 Seizures; forfeiture proceedings.—

(1) The state, acting by and through the division, shall be authorized and empowered to seize, confiscate and forfeit for the use and benefit of the state, any cigarettes upon which taxes payable hereunder may be unpaid, and also any vending machine or receptacle in which such cigarettes are held for sale, or any vending machine that does not have affixed thereto the identification sticker required by the provisions of s. 210.07, or which does not display at all times at least one package of each brand of cigarettes located therein so the same is clearly visible and arranged in such a manner that the cigarette tax stamp or meter impression of the stamp affixed thereto is clearly visible. Such seizure may be made by the division, its duly authorized representative, any sheriff or deputy sheriff, or any police officer.

(2) The procedure for seizure, the listing, appraisal, advertisement and sale of the property seized, the bond of any claimant, the court proceedings, if any, including the parties, personal service of citation, and other personal services, the services by publication, judicial sale, and all other proceedings for the confiscation and forfeiture of the property for the nonpayment of the taxes shall be regulated, conducted, governed and controlled in the manner provided by chapter 562, relating to the seizure, confiscation and forfeiture of property under the beverage law which is incorporated herein by reference except to the extent that such sections may conflict or be inconsistent herewith.

(3) From the proceeds of any sale hereunder the division shall collect the tax on the property, together with a penalty of 50 percent thereof and the costs incurred in such proceedings; the balance, if any, shall be payable by the division to the person in whose possession the said property was found or as the court may direct.

(4) The distribution by the division of the proceeds of the sale from any cigarettes or other property that may be forfeited and confiscated hereunder, shall, after the payment of expenses of such forfeiture, be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(5) No sale shall be made hereunder to any person except a licensed wholesale or retail dealer authorized to engage in the sale of cigarettes under the laws of Florida. All sales shall be made to the highest and best bidder for cash. The division shall provide for the payment of any taxes payable upon any cigarettes sold hereunder before the same are delivered to any purchaser.

(6) The state attorney for the judicial circuit in which such property was seized shall act as the attorney for the division in such confiscation and forfeiture proceedings.

210.13 Determination of tax on failure to file a return.—If a dealer fails to file any return required under this chapter, or having filed an incorrect or insufficient return, fails to file a correct or sufficient return, as the case may require, within 10 days after the giving of notice to him by the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco that such return or corrected or sufficient return is required, the division shall determine the amount of tax due by such dealer any time within 3 years after the making of the earliest sale included in such determination and give written notice of such determination to such dealer. Such a determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the dealer against whom it is assessed shall, within 30 days after the giving of notice of such determination, apply to the division for a hearing. Judicial review shall not be granted unless the amount of tax stated in the decision, with penalties thereon, if any, shall have been first deposited with the division, and an undertaking or bond filed in the court in which such cause may be pending in such amount and with such sureties as the court shall approve, conditioned that if such proceeding be dismissed or the decision of the division confirmed, the applicant for review will pay all costs and charges which may accrue against him in the prosecution of the proceeding. At the option of the applicant, such undertaking or bond may be in an additional sum sufficient to cover the tax, penalties, costs, and charges aforesaid, in which event the applicant shall not be required to pay such tax and penalties precedent to the granting of such review by such court.

210.14 Warrant for collection of taxes.—

(1) In addition to all other remedies for the collection of any taxes due under the provisions of this chapter, the division may issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county commanding said sheriff to levy upon and sell the goods and chattels of the specified delinquent person found within his jurisdiction, for the payment of the amount of such delinquency plus a penalty equal to 50 percent of the amount thereof, and interest on the total at 1 percent per month and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the division and to pay it the money collected by virtue thereof within 60 days after receipt of such warrant. The sheriff shall, within 5 days after receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the circuit court of his county a copy thereof, and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the tax and penalties for which the warrant was issued, and the date that such copy is filed. Said clerk shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed by law for similar services rendered in judgment execution proceedings.

(2) Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to or the interest in real or personal property of the person against whom the warrant is issued. The sheriff to whom any such warrant shall be directed shall proceed upon the same in all respects and with like effect and in the same manner as prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against goods and chattels upon judgments by a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant to be collected in the same manner.

(3) In the discretion of the division a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any officer or employee of the division and in the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the power conferred by law upon sheriffs, but he shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the division may from time to time issue new warrants and shall also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the state had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned satisfied.

210.15 Permits.—

(1)(a) Every person, firm, or corporation desiring to deal in cigarettes as a distributing agent, wholesale dealer, or exporter within this state shall file an application for a cigarette permit for each place of business with the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco. Every application for a cigarette permit shall be made on forms furnished by the division and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his place of business within the state, and such other information as the division may require. If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business dealing in cigarettes within this state, the application shall state the location of each place of business. If the applicant is an association, the application shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons constituting the association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof and any other information prescribed by the division for the purpose of identification. The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner, if a natural person, and in the case of an association or partnership, members or partners thereof, and in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer thereof or by any person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached the written evidence of this authority. The cigarette permit for a distributing agent shall be issued annually for which an annual fee of $5 shall be charged.

(b) The holder of any duly issued, annual permit for a distributing agent shall be entitled to a renewal of his annual permit from year to year as a matter of course, on or before July 1, upon making application to the division and upon payment of this annual permit fee.

(c) The permit for a wholesale dealer or exporter shall be issued only to persons of good moral character, who are not less than 18 years of age. Wholesale dealer or exporter permits to corporations shall be issued only to corporations whose officers are of good moral character and not less than 18 years of age. There shall be no exemptions from the permit fees herein provided to any persons, association of persons or corporation, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. No wholesale dealer or exporter permit shall be issued to any person who has been convicted within the past 5 years of any offense against the cigarette laws of this state or who has been convicted in this state, any other state, or the United States during the past 5 years of any offense designated as a felony by such state or the United States, or to a corporation, any of whose officers have been so convicted. The term "conviction" shall include an adjudication of guilt on a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, or the forfeiture of a bond when charged with a crime.

(d) The division may refuse to issue a wholesale or exporter permit to any person, firm or corporation whose permit under the cigarette law has been revoked or to any corporation, an officer of which has had his permit under the cigarette law revoked, or to any person who is or has been an officer of a corporation whose permit has been revoked under the cigarette law. Any permit issued to a firm or corporation prohibited from obtaining such permit under the cigarette law may be revoked by the division.

(e) Prior to an application for a wholesale dealer or exporter permit being approved, the applicant shall file a set of fingerprints on forms provided by the division. The applicant shall also file a set of fingerprints for any person or persons interested directly or indirectly with the applicant in the business for which the permit is being sought, when so required by the division. If the applicant or any person interested with the applicant, either directly or indirectly, in the business for which the permit is sought shall be such a person as is within the definition of persons to whom a wholesale dealer or exporter permit shall be denied, then the application may be denied by the division. If the applicant is a partnership, all members of the partnership are required to file said fingerprints, or if a corporation, all principal officers of the corporation are required to file said fingerprints. The cigarette permit for a wholesale dealer or exporter shall be originally issued at a fee of $100, which sum is to cover the cost of the investigation required before issuing such permit.

(f) The cigarette permit for a wholesale dealer or exporter shall be renewed from year to year as a matter of course, at an annual cost of $100, on or before July 1, upon making application to the division and upon payment of the annual renewal fee.

(g) Permittees, by acceptance of their permits, agree that their places of business or vehicles transporting cigarettes shall always be subject to be inspected and searched without search warrants for the purpose of ascertaining that all provisions of this chapter are complied with by authorized employees of the division and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and police officers during business hours or during any other time such premises are occupied by the permittee or other persons. Retail cigarette dealers and manufacturers' representatives by dealing in cigarettes, agree that their places of business or vehicles transporting cigarettes shall always be subject to inspection and search without search warrant for the purpose of ascertaining that all provisions of this chapter are complied with by authorized employees of the division and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and police officers during business hours or other times when the premises are occupied by the retail dealer or manufacturers' representatives or other persons.

(h) No retail sales of cigarettes may be made at a location for which a wholesale dealer, distributing agent, or exporter permit has been issued. The excise tax on sales made to any traveling location, such as an itinerant store or industrial caterer, shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund unallocated. Cigarettes may be purchased for retail purposes only from a person holding a wholesale dealer permit. The invoice for the purchase of cigarettes must show the place of business for which the purchase is made and the cigarettes cannot be transferred to any other place of business for the purpose of resale.

(2) The division may not sell stamps or approve the use of meter machines to evidence the payment of the taxes on cigarettes except to qualified wholesale dealers.

(3) Upon approval of the application, the division shall grant and issue to each applicant a cigarette permit for each place of business set forth in his application. Cigarette permits shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the persons in whose names issued and for the transaction of business at the places designated therein and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued.

(4) All permits of distributing agents, wholesale dealers, or exporters shall remain in force and effect until July 1 following their issuance, or until suspended, surrendered, or revoked for cause by the division.

(5) Whenever any permit issued under the provisions of this chapter is destroyed or lost, the holder thereof shall immediately make application for a duplicate permit on a form prescribed by the division, which application shall be filed with the division. The said application shall be under oath and shall state that the applicant is a holder of a valid permit which has been destroyed or lost as the case may be and that the said permit has not been suspended, surrendered, or revoked for cause by the division.

(6) Applicants for a permit hereunder, by the acceptance of such permit, agree that their places of business covered by such permit shall always be subject to be inspected and searched without search warrant by the division or any of its authorized assistants and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs or police officers.

(7) The division shall promulgate suitable rules for carrying out the provisions of this section.

(8) Every person, firm, corporation, or business entity who deals in, or sells, stores, or operates as a wholesaler dealer in, cigarettes, or who acts as a cigarette distributing agent or exporter in any manner whatsoever, and who does so without a cigarette permit as required by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of minor.

210.16 Revocation or suspension of permit.—

(1) The Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco is given full power and authority upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter by any wholesale dealer receiving a permit to engage in business under this chapter to revoke the permit of such wholesale dealer.

(2) The division may suspend for a reasonable period of time, in its discretion, the permits of wholesale dealers issued under the provisions of this chapter for the same causes and under the same limitations as is authorized hereunder to revoke the permits of such wholesale dealers.

(3) No wholesale dealer whose permit for any place of business has been revoked shall engage in business under this chapter at such place of business after such revocation until a new permit is issued to him. No wholesale dealer whose permit for any place of business has been revoked shall be permitted to have said permit renewed, or to obtain an additional cigarette permit for any other place of business, for a period of 6 months after the date such revocation becomes final.

(4) In lieu of the suspension or revocation of permits, the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco may impose civil penalties against holders of permits for violations of this chapter or rules and regulations relating thereto. No civil penalty so imposed shall exceed $1,000 for each offense, and all amounts collected shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. If the holder of the permit fails to pay the civil penalty, his permit shall be suspended for such period of time as the division may specify.

210.161 Examination of records.—The division, or any employee designated by it, shall have the power and authority to examine into the business, books, records, and accounts of any permittee and to issue subpoenas to said permittee or any other person from whom information is desired and to take depositions of witnesses within or without the state. The division, or any employee designated by it, may administer oaths and issue subpoenas. The provisions of the civil law of the state in relation to enforcing obedience to a subpoena lawfully issued by a judge or other person duly authorized to issue subpoenas in civil cases shall apply to a subpoena issued by the division, or any employee designated by it, as authorized in this section, and may be enforced by writ of attachment to be issued by the division, or any employee designated by it, for such witness to compel him to attend before the division, or any employee designated by it, and give his testimony and to bring and produce such books, papers, and documents as may be required for examination. The division, or any employee designated by it, may punish any willful refusal to so appear or give testimony by citation of any witness before the circuit court which shall punish such witness for contempt as in cases of refusal to obey the orders and process of the circuit court. The division may in such cases pay such attendance and mileage fees as are permitted to witnesses in civil cases appearing before the circuit court.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-351.

210.18 Penalties for tax evasion; reports by sheriffs.—

(1) Any person who possesses or transports any unstamped packages of cigarettes upon the public highways, roads, or streets in the state for the purpose of sale, or, who sells or offers for sale unstamped packages of cigarettes in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or, who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter, or the payment thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person, who shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of the Cigarette Tax Law and shall thereafter be convicted of a further violation of the Cigarette Tax Law, shall, upon conviction of said further offense, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any wholesale or retail dealer who shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with, or shall violate the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated by the division under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any wholesale or retail dealer, who shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of the Cigarette Tax Law and shall thereafter be convicted of a further violation of the Cigarette Tax Law, shall, upon conviction of said further offense, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Any person who falsely or fraudulently makes, forges, alters, or counterfeits any stamp or impression die used in meter machines prescribed by the division under the provisions of this chapter, or causes or procures to be falsely or fraudulently made, forged, altered or counterfeited any such stamp or die, or knowingly and willfully utters, purchases, passes or tenders as true any such false, altered, or counterfeited stamp or die impression shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4)(a) Any person or corporation who shall own or have in his or its possession any cigarettes upon which a tax is imposed by the cigarette law, or which would be imposed if such cigarettes were manufactured in or brought into this state in accordance with the regulatory provisions of the cigarette law, and upon which such tax has not been paid shall, in addition to the fines and penalties otherwise provided in the cigarette law, be personally liable for the amount of the tax imposed on such cigarettes, and the division may collect such tax from such person by suit or otherwise.

(b) This subsection shall not apply to manufacturers or distributors licensed under the cigarette law, to state bonded warehouses, or to persons possessing not in excess of three cartons of such cigarettes, which cigarettes shall have been purchased by said possessor outside of the state in accordance with the laws of the place where purchased and brought into this state by said possessor. The burden of proof that such cigarettes were purchased outside the state and in accordance with the laws of the place where purchased shall in all cases be upon the possessor of such cigarettes.

(5)(a) All cigarettes on which taxes are imposed by the cigarette law or would be imposed if such cigarettes were manufactured in or brought into this state in accordance with the regulatory provisions of such law, which shall be found in the possession or custody or within the control of any person for the purpose of being sold or removed by him in fraud of the cigarette law or with design to evade payment of said taxes may be seized by the division or any supervisor, sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other law enforcement agent and shall be forfeited to the state.

(b) This subsection shall not apply to persons possessing not in excess of three cartons of cigarettes, which cigarettes shall have been purchased by said possessor outside of the state in accordance with the laws of the place where purchased and brought into this state by said possessor.

(6)(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, other than a licensee under the provisions of this chapter, who possesses, removes, deposits, or conceals, or aids in the possessing, removing, depositing, or concealing of, any unstamped cigarettes not in excess of 50 cartons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. In lieu of the penalties provided in said sections, however, the person, firm, or corporation may pay the tax plus a penalty equal to the amount of the tax authorized under s. 210.02 on the unstamped cigarettes.

(b) Every person, firm, or corporation, other than a licensee under the provisions of this chapter, who possesses, removes, deposits, or conceals, or aids in the possessing, removing, depositing, or concealing of, any unstamped cigarettes in excess of 50 cartons is presumed to have knowledge that they have not been taxed and is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) This section shall not apply to persons possessing not in excess of three cartons of such cigarettes purchased by said possessor outside of the state in accordance with the laws of the place where purchased and brought into this state by said possessor. The burden of proof that such cigarettes were purchased outside the state and in accordance with the laws of the place where purchased shall in all cases be upon the possessor of such cigarettes.

(7) Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or police officer, upon the seizure of any unstamped cigarettes under this section, shall promptly report such seizure to the division or its representative, together with a description of all such unstamped cigarettes seized so that the state may be kept informed as to the size and magnitude of the illicit cigarette business.

(8)(a) It is unlawful for any person to conspire with any other person or persons to do any act in violation of the provisions of this chapter, when any one or more of such persons does or commits any act to effect the object of the conspiracy.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection:

1. If the act conspired to be done would constitute a misdemeanor, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

2. If the act conspired to be done would constitute a felony, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

210.20 Employees and assistants; distribution of funds.—

(1) The division under the applicable rules of the Department of Administration shall have the power to employ such employees and assistants and incur such other expenses as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter, within the limits of an appropriation for the operation of the Department of Business Regulation as may be authorized by the General Appropriations Act.

(2) As collections are received by the division from such cigarette taxes, it shall pay the same into a trust fund in the state treasury designated "Cigarette Tax Collection Trust Fund" which shall be paid and distributed as follows:

(a) The division shall from month to month certify to the Comptroller the amount derived from the cigarette tax imposed by s. 210.02, less the service charge provided for in s. 215.22, specifying the amounts to be transferred from the Cigarette Tax Collection Trust Fund and credited on the basis of two-twenty-firsts to the Municipal Financial Assistance Trust Fund, eleven-twenty-firsts of the net collections to the Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for Municipalities, and one-twenty-first of the net collections to the Revenue Sharing Trust Fund for Counties.

(b) The division shall from month to month certify to the Comptroller the amount derived from the cigarette tax imposed by s. 210.02 on all cigarettes sold at retail on any property of the Inter-American Center Authority, created by chapter 554, and such amount, less the service charge provided for in s. 215.22, shall be paid to said Inter-American Center Authority by warrant drawn by the Comptroller upon the state treasury, which amount is hereby appropriated monthly out of such Cigarette Tax Collection Trust Fund.

(3) After all distributions hereinabove provided for have been made, the balance of the revenue produced from the tax imposed by this chapter shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

211.01 Definitions.—Whenever used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the definition and the meaning ascribed to them in this section, unless the intention to give a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context:

(1) The word "department" means the Department of Revenue.

(2) The word "annual" means the calendar year, or the taxpayer's fiscal year, when permission is obtained from the department to use a fiscal year as a tax period in lieu of a calendar year.

(3) The word "value" means the sales price, or market value, at the mouth of the well. If the oil or gas is exchanged for something other than cash, or if there is no sale at the time of severance, or if the relation between the buyer and the seller is such that the consideration paid, if any, is not indicative of the true value or market price, then the department shall determine the value of the oil or gas subject to tax, considering the sales price for cash at the place where produced of oil or gas of like quality. Where gas is returned to a horizon or horizons in the field where produced either through wells on the lease from which produced or on other leases, that portion of the gas so returned shall not be considered in arriving at the value of the gas produced.

(4) The word "taxpayer" means any natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, fiduciary, or representative of any kind liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

(5) The word "oil" means crude petroleum oil and other hydrocarbons, regardless of gravity, which are produced at the well in liquid form by ordinary production methods, and which are not the results of condensation of gas after it leaves the reservoir.

(6) The word "gas" means all natural gas, including casinghead gas, and all other hydrocarbons not defined as oil in subsection (5) above.

(7) The word "severed" means the extraction or withdrawal from below the surface of the soil or water of any oil or gas, whether such extraction or withdrawal shall be by natural flow, mechanically enforced flow, pumping, or any other means employed to get the oil or gas from below the surface of the soil or water, and shall include the withdrawal by any means whatsoever of oil or gas upon which the tax has not been paid, from any surface reservoir, natural or artificial, or from a water surface, and the recovery of escaped oil or gas on which the tax has not been paid.

(8) The word "person" means any natural person, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, receiver, or any other group, or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(9) The word "producer" means any person, owning, controlling, managing or leasing any oil or gas property, or oil or gas well, and any person who produces in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or water in this state, and shall include any person owning any royalty or other interest in any oil or gas or its value, whether produced by him, or by some other person on his behalf, either by lease contract or otherwise.

(10) The word "barrel," for oil measurements, means a barrel of 42 U.S. gallons of 231 cubic inches per gallon, computed at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit.

(11) The term "cubic feet," for gas measurement, means the volume of gas expressed in cubic feet and computed at a base pressure of 4 ounces per square inch above the average atmosphere barometric pressure of 144/10 pounds per square inch, a standard base and flowing temperature of 60° Fahrenheit; correction to be made for pressure according to Boyle's Law, and for specific gravity according to test made by the balance method.

(12) The word "production," for oil measurement, means the total gross amount of oil produced and saved, including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be measured or determined by tank tables compiled to show 100 percent of the full capacity of tanks without deduction for overage or losses in handling. Allowance for any reasonable and bona fide deduction for basis sediment and water, and for correction of temperature to 60° Fahrenheit will be allowed. If the amount of oil produced has been measured or determined by tank tables compiled to show less than 100 percent of the full capacity of tanks, then such amount shall be raised to a basis of 100 percent for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(13) The word "production," for gas measurement, means the total gross amount of gas produced and sold, or used, including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be measured or determined by meter readings showing 100 percent of the full volume expressed in cubic feet.

(14) The term "gathering system" means the pipelines, pumps, compressors, meters, and other property used in gathering or removing oil or gas from the property on which it is produced, the tanks used for storage at a central place, loading racks and equipment for loading oil into tank cars or other transporting media, and all other equipment and appurtenances necessary to a gathering system for transferring oil or gas into trunk pipelines.

211.015 Tax on small wells.—All wells producing less than 100 barrels of oil per day or oil produced by tertiary methods shall be taxed at the rate of 5 percent of the gross value at the point of production. The proceeds from this tax shall be distributed in the same manner as the first and second gas tax.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-408.

211.02 Levy of oil and gas tax and amount thereof; first and second taxes; basis of tax.—

(1) There is hereby levied, to be collected hereafter, as provided herein, an excise tax upon every person engaging or continuing within this state in the business of producing or severing oil or gas, as defined herein, from the soil or water for sale, transport, storage, or profit or for commercial use. The amount of such tax shall be measured by the value of the oil produced and saved, and by the value of the gas produced and sold, or used, and is hereby levied and assessed at the following rates: For oil, 8 percent of the gross value thereof at the point of production; and for gas, 5 percent of the gross value thereof at the point of production; said tax on oil and gas being made up of separate taxes, being:

(a) First oil tax: 37.5 percent of the total tax for the state for the use of the General Revenue Fund and 50 percent of the total tax for the state for the use of the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund.

(b) Second oil tax: 12.5 percent of the total tax for the county in which the oil is produced for the use of the general revenue fund of the board of county commissioners.

(c) First gas tax: 30 percent of the total tax for the state for the use of the General Revenue Fund and 50 percent of the total tax for the state for the use of the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund.

(d) Second gas tax: 20 percent of the total tax for the county in which the gas is produced for the use of the general revenue fund of the board of county commissioners.

(2) It is the intention of the Legislature to impose the first oil and gas tax as a state excise tax and to impose the second oil and gas tax as a county excise tax to compensate the county in which oil and gas is produced for the loss of ad valorem taxes by reason of the provision of this chapter, and to make it possible for the board of county commissioners of such county to provide the additional public services that will be required in a county where oil and gas are produced.

(3) The tax is hereby levied upon the basis of the entire production in this state, including what is known as the royalty interest, on which production the amount of such tax shall be a lien, regardless of the place of sale or to whom sold, or by whom used, or the fact that the delivery may be made to points outside the state; and the tax shall accrue at the time such oil is severed from the soil or water, and in its natural, unrefined, or unmanufactured condition, provided, however, oil and gas used for lease operations on the lease where produced shall not be taxed hereunder.

History.—s. 2, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 2, ch. 23883, 1947; s. 1, ch. 77-408; s. 6, ch. 79-255.

211.03 Measure of value.—In computing the tax levied under this chapter, where the gross proceeds of sales of such oil or gas are taken as the measure of the value of such products for the purpose of computing the tax, if such products shall have been sold on a delivered price, the actual freight charge prepaid by the taxpayer or included in the invoice price on such products to the place of delivery shall be deducted from the gross proceeds of sales used in determining the amount of the tax.

History.—s. 3, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 3, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.031 Exclusion from value of production.

—The value of any oil or gas production shall not include any wellhead or other production taxes imposed by the United States on producers to the extent such tax or taxes do not provide a credit or deduction for the taxes imposed by this chapter.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-408.

211.04 Assessment upon escaped oil; claims against same.—

(1) When any regular monthly report required from taxpayers by this chapter does not disclose the actual source of any oil taxable under this chapter, but does show such oil to have escaped from a well or wells and to have been recovered from streams, lakes, ravines, or other natural depression; it shall be the duty of the department to collect, in addition to the excise tax herein imposed, an additional amount equal to 12½ percent of the gross value of such escaped oil. The department shall hold such additional collection in a special escrow account for a period of 12 months from the date of the collections, during which time any person or persons, who claim to be the rightful owner or owners of any royalty interest in the escaped oil, may present proper and satisfactory proof of such ownership to the department. If the department shall be satisfied as to the ownership of such escaped oil, then it shall pay to such claimant or claimants a proportionate part of such additional collection held in escrow, according to their proper interest or interests. No payment to any claimant shall be made, however, before it is approved by the Department of Legal Affairs or before it is ordered by any court having proper jurisdiction.

(2) After the lapse of 12 months from the date of any additional collection, if no claim or claims have been made to it, or to the balance remaining of it after the payment by the department of any claim or claims, the department shall distribute the additional collection or any balance of it in the same manner as is herein provided for the distribution of the tax imposed by this chapter.

History.—s. 4, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 4, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 11, 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

211.05 Penalty for failure to pay tax.—Should the taxpayer fail to pay when due the tax levied hereunder and same becomes delinquent, such tax as a penalty for such delinquencies shall bear interest at the rate of 18 percent per annum from the date such tax is due and payable and shall be collected in the manner hereinafter provided. If any taxpayer shall fail to make the report or return herein required as to the production of oil or gas from any well in this state it shall be the duty of the department to examine the books, records and files of such taxpayer to ascertain the amount and value of such production, to compute the tax thereon as herein provided, and it shall add thereto the cost of such examination, together with any penalties accrued thereon.

History.—s. 5, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 5, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

211.06 Oil and gas tax trust fund; distribution.—

(1) All taxes herein levied and collected shall be placed in a special fund known as the oil and gas tax trust fund and shall be monthly distributed by the department as follows:

(a) The proceeds from the first oil and gas tax shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund of the state.

(b) The proceeds from the second oil and gas tax shall be paid into the general revenue fund of the board of county commissioners of the county in which the tax is imposed.

(2) The department is authorized and empowered to adjust and make proper settlements and refunds in cases of overpayment of the tax or where payment is made when no tax is due or when payment is made through error, under regulations prescribed by it, and there is hereby appropriated a sufficient amount for the Comptroller to refund said taxes, when and if on proper application and proof filed with him within 1 year from the date of the payment of such taxes, he deems it necessary to make such refunds, and this provision shall in no way prejudice any right of action that may accrue to any person liable for the payment of the tax to contest in any court of competent jurisdiction the payment of any or all of the taxes imposed herein.

211.07 When taxes due; statements; information; penalties; powers of Department of Revenue.—

(1) The taxes levied hereunder shall be due and payable on or before the 25th day of the calendar month next succeeding the calendar month in which the tax accrued.

(2) Every producer of oil or gas, as defined in this chapter, shall on or before the 25th day of each calendar month file with the department a statement on forms prescribed by the department, showing the location of each oil or gas well operated or controlled by such producer during the last preceding calendar month, the kind of oil or gas produced; the gross quantity thereof produced, and the actual cash value thereof at the time and place of production, including any and all premiums received from the sale thereof; the amount of royalty payable thereof; and, where such royalty is claimed to be exempt from taxation by law, the facts on which such claim of exemption is based; and such other information as the department may require. Such statement shall be accompanied by a return showing the amount of tax payable on the oil or gas covered by such report, together with a remittance for the amount of the tax due. Such statement and report shall be mailed or sent to the office of the department and shall be signed by the taxpayer or duly authorized agent of the taxpayer and shall be verified by oath.

(3) The department shall have the power to require any person engaged in the production of oil or gas, and the purchaser thereof, or the owner of any royalty interest therein to furnish any information by it deemed necessary for the purpose of computing correctly the amount of tax to be levied and collected under the provisions of this chapter; and to examine the books, records and files of such persons, and shall have power to conduct hearings and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records and papers of any person.

(4) Any person or any member of any firm, association or corporation, or any officer, official, agent or employee of any corporation who shall fail or refuse to testify; or who shall fail or refuse to produce any books, records or papers which the department shall require; or who shall fail or refuse to furnish any other evidence which the department may require; or who shall fail or refuse to answer any competent questions which may be put to him by the department, touching the business, property, assets or effects of any such person, firm, association or corporation, or relating to the gross production tax imposed by this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; and each day such refusal on the part of such person shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

(5) The department shall have the power and authority to ascertain and determine whether or not any return herein required to be filed with it is a true and correct return of the gross products and of the value, quantity or volume thereof of such person engaged in the production of oil or gas; and, if any person has made an untrue or incorrect return of the gross production or value, or quantity, or volume thereof, as hereinbefore required, or shall have failed or refused to make such return, the department shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by it ascertain the correct amount of either, and compute said tax.

211.08 Common carriers to furnish information; inspection of bills of lading.—

(1) When requested by the department, all transporters, railroads, motor vehicles, pipelines, or other carriers, of oil or gas out of, within, or across the state shall be required to furnish the Department of Natural Resources such information relative to the transportation of such oil or gas as may be required.

(2) The department shall have authority to inspect bills of lading, waybills, or other similar documents, and such books and records as may relate to the transportation of oil or gas in the facilities of each transporter herein referred to; and the department shall further be empowered to demand the production of such bills of lading, waybills or other similar documents and books and records relating to the transportation of oil or gas at any point in the state which it may designate.

(3) Provided, however, that in case of common carriers using bills of lading or waybills prescribed or approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, such common carriers shall only be required to keep the usual records at office or offices in this state where such records usually are kept.

211.09 Collection of tax.—

(1) The tax hereby imposed is levied upon the producers of such oil or gas in the proportion of their ownership at the time of severance, but, except as otherwise herein provided, shall be paid by the person in charge of the production operations, who is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from any amount due to producers of such production at the time of severance, the proportionate amount of the tax herein levied before making payments to such producers; said tax shall become due and payable as provided by this chapter, and such tax shall constitute a first lien upon any of the oil or gas so produced, when in the possession of the original producer, or any purchaser of such oil or gas in its unmanufactured state or condition.

(2) When any person in charge of production operations shall sell the oil or gas produced by him to any person under contracts requiring such purchaser to pay all owners of such oil or gas direct, then the person in charge of the production operations may not be required to deduct the tax herein levied, but, in which event, such deduction shall be made by the purchaser before making payments to each owner of such oil or gas, and the purchaser in that case shall account for the tax; provided that nothing herein shall be construed as releasing the person in charge of production operations from liability for the payment of said tax.

(3) When any person in charge of production operations shall sell oil or gas produced by him on the open market, or shall use or dispose of the oil or gas for fuel or any purpose other than for lease operations on the lease where produced, he shall withhold the tax imposed by this chapter, and, if he is required to pay other interest holders, is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from any amounts due them the amount of the tax levied and due under the provisions of this chapter before making payment to them.

(4) Every person in charge of production operations by which oil or gas is severed from the soil or water in this state, who fails to deduct and withhold, as required herein, the amount of tax from sale or purchase price, when such oil or gas is sold or purchased under contract or agreement, or on the open market, or otherwise, shall be liable to the state for the full amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due which should have been deducted, withheld and remitted to the state; and the department shall proceed to collect the tax from the person in charge of production operations, under the provisions of this chapter, as if he were the producer of the oil and gas.

History.—s. 9, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 9, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

211.10 Procedure where tax in dispute.—

When the title to any oil or gas that has been severed or is being severed from the soil or water, is in dispute, or whenever the producer of such oil or gas, or the purchaser thereof, shall be withholding payments on account of litigation, or for any other reason, such producer or purchaser is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from the gross amount thus held, the amount of the tax herein levied and imposed, and to make remittance thereof to the department as provided by this chapter.

History.—s. 10, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 10, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

211.11 Lien of tax.—The tax, interest, and penalty shall constitute and remain a lien upon the property, assets, and effects of the taxpayer until paid or until barred under chapter 95, and may be recovered in an action by the department on behalf of the state in any county where the property, assets, and effects are located. All penalties and other revenue derived hereunder in addition to any delinquent tax shall be apportioned in the same manner as the taxes are apportioned.

History.—s. 11, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 11, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 34, ch. 74-382.

211.12 Delinquent taxes.—When any tax provided for in this chapter shall become delinquent the department shall issue its warrant directed to the sheriff of any county wherein the same or any part thereof accrued for the collection of said tax, interest and penalty; and the sheriff to whom the said warrant shall be directed shall proceed to levy upon the property, assets and effects of the person, firm, association or corporation against whom said tax is assessed and shall sell the same and make return thereof as upon execution and such sheriff shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale or deed as the case may be. The state, through the Department of Revenue, shall be authorized to make bids at any such sale to the amount of the tax, penalty and costs accrued. In the event such bid is successful, the sheriff shall issue proper muniment of title to the department which shall hold such title for the use and benefit of the state; and any taxpayer or transferee of such taxpayer shall have the right at any time within 30 days from the date of such sale to redeem such property upon the payment of all taxes, penalties and costs accrued to the date of redemption. Such applicants shall not be entitled to a credit upon such taxes, penalties and costs by reason of any revenue that might have accrued to the state or other purchaser under sale prior to such redemption. After the expiration of the period of redemption herein provided for, the department may sell such property at public auction upon giving a 7-day notice in writing, said notice to be published in one issue in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which such property is located, to the highest and best bidder for cash, or, if such newspaper is not published in said county, then such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in Leon County. Upon a sale had thereof or when a redemption is made the department, for and on behalf of the state, shall issue bill of sale or quitclaim deed as the case may be, to the successful bidder or other redemptioner. Such muniment of title shall be executed by the department.

History.—s. 12, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 12, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

211.13 Tax exclusive.—No other excise or license tax in addition to the tax provided herein shall be imposed by the state, counties, municipalities, drainage districts, road, school and other taxing districts within this state upon any person who produces in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or water of this state. The several property appraisers of this state and tax assessors of the cities therein, when assessing the value of any land for ad valorem taxes, shall not increase the value thereof by reason of the fact that there may be oil or gas under the surface of such land, inasmuch as it is impossible under known valuation methods to accurately ascertain the true value of oil and gas in place and taxation thereof is more certainly accomplished after its capture or severance from the earth or water. The value of land for ad valorem tax purposes shall not be increased by reason of the location thereon of any producing oil or gas equipment or machinery used in and around any oil or gas well and actually used in the operation thereof.

History.—s. 13, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 13, ch. 23883, 1947; s. 19, ch. 72-360; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

211.17 Rules and regulations.—The department shall prescribe rules and regulations and appropriate forms for effectuating the purposes of s. 211.18.

History.—s. 14, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 14, ch. 23883, 1947; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 40, ch. 79-164.

211.18 Records.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to keep a record book to be provided by the board of county commissioners of the county for the purpose of accepting for record any subsurface owner's interest in real estate of said county and any owner of subsurface interest in the lands of said county may register with the clerk the name of such owner, his address, the description of the land in which he has subsurface interest and such recording shall entitle such subsurface owner to notice by registered mail with return receipt requested of nonpayment of taxes by the surface owner, sale of tax certificates affecting the surface of said lands, application for tax deed of the surface interest and any foreclosure proceedings against said lands for unpaid taxes thereon, and no tax deed nor foreclosure proceedings shall affect such subsurface owner's interest if the notice hereby provided for is not given. For his services in registering such subsurface owner's interest as herein provided, the clerk shall receive a fee of $1, plus the fee per page for recording now provided by law. Where an owner of a subsurface interest or interests has registered with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said subsurface interest is located, the name of such owner, his address, and the description of the land in which he has subsurface interests pursuant to the provisions of chapter 22784, Acts of 1945, such registration shall be and operate as a registration of his subsurface interests and shall entitle the owner thereof to the notices and immunities hereinabove provided the same as if such owner had registered with said clerk his subsurface interests under and pursuant to this chapter.

History.—s. 14, ch. 22784, 1945; s. 14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.20 Construction of chapter.—Nothing in this chapter shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for taxes due under existing laws, prior to July 1, 1947, whether such assessment, appeal, suit, claim or action shall have been begun before the said date, or shall thereafter be begun; and any existing law amended or repealed by this chapter is expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment and collection of any taxes due under it prior to July 1, 1947, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for a failure to comply therewith.

PART II

TAX ON SEVERANCE OF SOLID MINERALS

- 211.30 Definitions.
- 211.31 Levy of tax on severance of solid minerals; rate, basis, distribution, and implementation of tax.
- 211.32 Tax on solid minerals; credit for ad valorem taxes and royalties; certain exclusions; refund for restoration and reclamation.
- 211.33 Administration of the severance tax; estimated tax; confidentiality of returns.
- 211.34 Local ordinances not preempted.

211.30 Definitions.—In addition to the definitions contained in s. 211.01 of part I, the following words and terms shall have the definition and meaning ascribed to them in this section, unless the intention to give a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context:

(1) The words "solid mineral" mean all solid minerals, including, but not limited to, clay, gravel, phosphate rock, lime, shells (excluding live shellfish), stone, sand, and any rare earths which have heretofore been discovered or may be discovered in the future, which are contained in the soils or waters of this state.

(2) The word "severed" means the extraction or withdrawal from the soil or water of this state, either on or below the surface, of any solid minerals.

(3) The word "producer" means any person severing solid minerals from the soils and waters of this state.

(4) The word "production," for measuring solid minerals, means the total gross amount severed from the soils and waters of this state from any type of production unit, including but not limited to mines, quarries, pits, or other sites of extraction.

(5) The word "value" means the sales price or true market price of the solid mineral at the point of severance. If the solid mineral is exchanged for something other than cash or is not sold but is further refined, processed, or otherwise retained, or if the relation between the buyer and seller is such that the consideration paid, if any, is not indicative of the true market price, the true market price shall be determined by the average market price per ton of the solid mineral at the point of severance for the year for which the tax is being paid. This shall be determined by the Department of Revenue after notice and hearing to the taxpayers affected. When there is no market value or evidence of sales of a solid mineral within the state, the department may use the true market value in this state of a comparable mineral in competition with the solid mineral the value of which is being determined or such other method as may be determined to arrive most equitably at the value of the solid mineral. In calculating or determining the true market price at the point of severance, it is the intent of the legislature not to include any shipping, handling, processing, or other charges arising between the point of severance and point of sale.

(6) The words "point of severance" mean that point, at which the solid mineral being severed is identifiable as to kind and quality and is capable of being transported for use or further processing.

(7) The words "site of severance" mean the mine, quarry, pit, or other geographical location at which a solid mineral is actually being severed from the soils and waters of this state.

(8) The words "taxable year" means calendar year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-105; s. 1, ch. 75-40.

211.31 Levy of tax on severance of solid minerals; rate, basis, distribution, and implementation of tax.—

(1) There is hereby levied, to be collected as provided herein, an excise tax upon every person engaging in the business of severing solid minerals from the soils and waters of this state for commercial use. Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), such tax shall be 5 percent of the value at the point of severance of the identifiable solid minerals severed.

The proceeds of the tax imposed by this subsection, excluding the amount credited for ad valorem tax payments, shall be paid into the State Treasury as follows:

(a) 50 percent to the credit of the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund of the state; and

(b) 50 percent to the credit of the Land Reclamation Trust Fund established for refunds under the provisions of s. 211.32(3).

(2) The 5 percent rate provided in subsection (1) shall be suspended for a period of 4 years beginning July 1, 1971. In its place the following rates shall be applicable for the periods set forth:

(a) July 1, 1971 through June 30, 1973—3 percent of the value of solid minerals severed.

(b) July 1, 1973 through June 30, 1975—4 percent of the value of solid minerals severed.

(3) Until July 1, 1983, the excise tax upon persons engaged in the business of severing phosphate rock from the soils and waters of this state for commercial use shall be 10 percent of the value at the point of severance of the identifiable phosphate rock severed. The proceeds from the 10 percent tax imposed by this subsection, excluding the amount credited for ad valorem tax payments, shall be paid into the State Treasury as follows:

(a) 50 percent to the credit of the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund;

(b) 25 percent to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state;

(c) 20 percent to the credit of the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund which is established for reclamation and acquisition of unreclaimed lands disturbed by phosphate mining and not subject to mandatory reclamation; and

(d) 5 percent to the credit of the Phosphate Research Trust Fund which is created to carry out the purposes set forth in s. 378.101.

(4) On and after July 1, 1983, the excise tax upon persons engaged in the business of severing phosphate rock from the soils and waters of this state for commercial use shall be 8 percent of the value at the point of severance of the identifiable phosphate rock severed, unless additional funding of the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund is approved by law. The proceeds from the 8 percent tax imposed by this subsection, excluding the amount credited for ad valorem tax payments, shall be paid into the State Treasury as follows:

(a) 50 percent to the credit of the Conservation and Recreation Lands Trust Fund;

(b) 43.75 percent to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state; and

(c) 6.25 percent to the credit of the Phosphate Research Trust Fund.

(5) On April 1, 1980, and annually thereafter until such funding ends, the Executive Director of the Department of Natural Resources shall report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives as to the sufficiency of the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund and whether the funding of that fund needed substantially to complete the Master Reclamation Plan as provided in s. 378.021 should be decreased, increased, or otherwise modified by law.

(6) Interest earned on funds within any trust fund created under this part shall be invested and reinvested to the credit of such trust fund in accordance with s. 215.44.

(7) The expenses of administering this part and ss. 378.011, 378.021, 378.031, and 378.101 shall be borne by the Land Reclamation Trust Fund, the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund, and the Phosphate Research Trust Fund.

History.—ss. 1, 3, ch. 71-105; s. 2, ch. 75-40; s. 1, ch. 77-406; s. 1, ch. 78-136; s. 7, ch. 79-255.

cf.—s. 193.481 Assessment of oil, mineral, and other subsurface rights.

211.32 Tax on solid minerals; credit for ad valorem taxes and royalties; certain exclusions; refund for restoration and reclamation.—

(1)(a) A taxpayer shall be entitled to a credit against the tax imposed by this part in an amount equal to the full amount of ad valorem taxes paid upon the separately assessed mineral interest of the real property upon which the site of severance is located. However, in no event shall the ad valorem tax credit exceed 20 percent of the taxes due under this part.

(b) The amount of ad valorem taxes allowed for credit may be accumulated from year to year on property upon which a site of severance may be or is located.

(c) A credit for payment of ad valorem taxes shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a program for reclamation and restoration of the site of severance approved by, and filed with, the Department of Natural Resources.

(2) Solid minerals which are extracted by the owner of the site of severance for the purposes of improving the site of severance and, so long as a reclamation plan is approved by the county, when the site of severance is located in accordance with subsection (3)(a), or by the state, should the county not have provision for approving such a plan, solid minerals upon which a sales tax is ultimately paid to the state or which are sold to governmental agencies in this state, including cities and counties, shall not be subject to the tax imposed by this part.

(3)(a) Each taxpayer shall institute and complete a reclamation and restoration program upon each site of severance subject to the taxes imposed by this part, in accordance with criteria adopted by the Department of Natural Resources, which shall include the following standards:

1. Control of the physical and chemical quality of the water draining from the area of operation;
2. Soil stabilization, including contouring and vegetation;
3. Elimination of health and safety hazards;
4. Conservation and preservation of remaining natural resources; and
5. Time schedule for the completion of the program and the various phases thereof.

The Department of Natural Resources may adopt as criteria local ordinances which, at the minimum, meet the above standards. The mandatory obligation to institute and complete a reclamation and restoration program under this paragraph shall not apply to acres disturbed by the severance of solid minerals before July 1, 1975. However, if such acres are included within sites of severance that are subject to reclamation and restoration programs approved by the Department of Natural Resources, such acres shall be treated as being subject to this paragraph for purposes of the refunds provided under paragraph (d).

(b) The reclamation and restoration program may include qualified sites other than the site of severance upon which the taxes were paid. The Department of Natural Resources may adopt a list of sites qualifying under this paragraph, which must meet, at the minimum, the following qualifications:

1. The restoration or reclamation of the site and the program to be instituted is in the public interest; and

2. The location of the site is in an area where economic considerations would not be conducive to immediate restoration or reclamation of the site.

(c) As part of accomplishing a program of restoration and reclamation at a particular site of severance or at other sites qualified pursuant to paragraph (b), the taxpayer may request the Department of Natural Resources to accept a portion or portions of the site as state land. Such a request shall be accompanied by an offer to transfer to the state title to the land involved and suitable ingress thereto and egress therefrom. If such request is granted by the Department of Natural Resources, the refund under this election shall be computed on the fair market value of the land at the time of transfer, as determined by the taxpayer and the Department of Natural Resources, with the approval of the Board of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund and concurred in after public hearing by said board.

(d) The Comptroller shall, upon written verification of compliance with paragraph (a), paragraph (b), or paragraph (c) by the Department of Natural Resources, and upon verification of the cost of the restoration and reclamation program or, if paragraph (c) is elected, the fair market value of the land, grant refunds, to be paid from the Land Reclamation Trust Fund, of the taxes paid under this part, in an amount equal to 100 percent of the costs incurred in complying with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b), or 100 percent of the fair market value of the land transferred in complying with paragraph (c), subject to the following limitations:

1. A taxpayer shall not be entitled to refunds in excess of the amount of taxes paid by the taxpayer under this part which are deposited in the Land Reclamation Trust Fund.

2. A taxpayer shall not be entitled to the payment of a refund for costs incurred in connection with a particular restoration and reclamation program unless and until the taxpayer is accomplishing the program in reasonable compliance with the criteria established by the Department of Natural Resources.

(e) Claims for reclamation refunds under paragraph (d) shall be filed on an annual basis within 60 days after the taxpayer has paid the tax imposed under this part for the preceding taxable year. The taxpayer may include in the claim for refund all costs incurred in complying with paragraphs (a) or (b), or the values of all land transferred in complying with paragraph (c), for the period July 1, 1971, through December 31 of the preceding taxable year, to the extent that such costs or values have not been previously allowed for refund purposes.

(f) To encourage the rapid accomplishment of reclamation, the taxes credited to the Land Reclamation Trust Fund shall be available for refund to the taxpayer under paragraph (d) for a maximum period of 5 years from the date the tax is paid. In allocating the tax paid into the Land Reclamation Trust Fund for a particular taxable year to refunds claimed and received by the taxpayer, the taxes first paid into the trust fund shall be deemed the taxes first paid out in refunds. The department shall determine by July 1 of each year that portion of the Land Reclamation Trust Fund for which refund claims have not been timely filed and allowed in accordance with this paragraph, and such portion shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

(g) If, during any 3 consecutive taxable years, a taxpayer has not performed work under any approved reclamation and restoration program and if, at the end of such 3-year period, the taxpayer has completed reclamation on all lands he is obligated to reclaim pursuant to paragraph (a), then all moneys in the Land Reclamation Trust Fund to the taxpayer's account at the end of such period shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

(h) If the Department of Natural Resources determines that a taxpayer has abandoned a reclamation program subject to this part or has failed to complete such program by the completion date specified by the Department of Natural Resources, and if the Department of Natural Resources further determines that the taxpayer, after 60 days' notice of such deficiency from the Department of Natural Resources, has failed to return work on the reclamation program to a rate of progress that would reasonably insure completion of the program within not more than 6 months after the date of such deficiency notice from the Department of Natural Resources or within not more than 6 months from the completion date established by the Department of Natural Resources, whichever period is longer, then such reclamation program shall be permanently ineligible for purposes of reclamation refunds under this part.

(i) In determining a taxpayer's compliance with completion dates specified by the Department of Natural Resources for reclamation programs under this part, such completion dates shall be extended by the period of any delays attributable to causes beyond the reasonable control of the taxpayer.

(j) The Department of Natural Resources shall be empowered to institute a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of obtaining injunctive relief necessary to compel a taxpayer, or any person or persons claiming a fee interest in the land subject to reclamation, to comply with the mandatory reclamation provisions of paragraph (a). If a person other than the taxpayer is compelled to reclaim land pursuant to this paragraph, then such person shall be entitled to receive the reclamation refunds that would be available to the taxpayer under paragraph (d) if the taxpayer had performed said reclamation.

(k) The obligation to reclaim under paragraph (a) shall run with the land and shall be enforceable against any person claiming a fee interest in the land subject to said obligation.

(l) The amendments by ch. 75-40, Laws of Florida, to paragraphs (d), (e), (f) and (g) shall apply to the balance in the Land Reclamation Trust Fund on July 1, 1975, regardless of the date the taxes were paid that gave rise to said balance and to refund claims filed on or after July 1, 1975, regardless of the date the reclamation costs were incurred on which the claim is based.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision in this part, refunds from the taxes levied under this part based upon the severance of solid minerals before July 1, 1978, shall be paid from the Land Reclamation Trust Fund for so long as funds remain available only for the cost of restoration and reclamation of land:

1. Disturbed by the severance of solid minerals prior to July 1, 1975; or

2. Included within a site of severance on or before July 1, 1977, for which a restoration and reclamation program was filed with the Department of Natural Resources on or before July 1, 1977.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-105; ss. 3, 6, ch. 75-40; s. 2, ch. 77-406; ss. 2, 7, ch. 78-136.

211.33 Administration of the severance tax; estimated tax; confidentiality of returns.—

(1) For the 1977 taxable year, the department shall determine the value of solid minerals by March 1, 1978. The tax imposed by this part for the 1977 tax year shall be due on or before April 1, 1978, and shall be paid at the same time the annual return is filed. Increased taxes imposed by this act shall apply to the severance of solid minerals and to the performance of land reclamation occurring on and after July 1, 1977. The annual return shall be signed by the taxpayer or his duly authorized agent and shall be verified by oath. The return shall be filed on or before April 1 for the preceding taxable year and shall include the following:

(a) The location of each site of severance operated or controlled by the taxpayer during the taxable period and the total number of acres in each site;

(b) The kind and quantity of the solid minerals severed;

(c) The value of the severed resources at the point of severance;

(d) If claiming an ad valorem tax credit, copies of the ad valorem tax return and receipts for payment thereof; and

(e) Such other information as the department may require.

(2)(a) For the taxable year commencing January 1, 1978, and all subsequent taxable years, every taxpayer shall make a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year, in such form as the department shall prescribe. The term "estimated tax" shall mean the amount the taxpayer estimates to be his tax under this part for the taxable year. A taxpayer may amend a declaration under regulations prescribed by the department.

(b) The declaration is required to be filed on or before the first day of the fifth month of the taxable year. The estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the required filing of the declaration; the second and third installments shall be paid on or before the first day of the seventh and tenth months of the taxable year, respectively; and the fourth installment shall be paid on or before the first day of the next taxable year.

(c) If an amended declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased, as the case may be, to reflect the increase or decrease in the estimated tax occasioned by such amendment.

(3)(a) For the taxable year commencing January 1, 1978, and all subsequent taxable years, the department shall determine the value of solid minerals by March 1 of the year following the close of the taxable year.

(b) The department shall provide by regulation for a credit against estimated taxes of any amount determined by the department to be an overpayment of the tax imposed by this part for the preceding tax year.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (5), the taxpayer shall pay the amount of any tax due for the preceding tax year by April 1.

(4) Any amount paid as estimated tax shall be deemed assessed upon the due date for the taxpayer's return for the taxable year.

(5)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (d), the taxpayer shall be liable for interest at the rate of 12 percent per year and for a penalty in an amount determined at the rate of 10 percent per year upon the amount of any underpayment of estimated tax determined under this subsection.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, the amount of any underpayment of estimated tax shall be the excess of:

1. The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to 80 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return were filed, 80 percent of the tax for such year, over

2. The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

(c) The period of the underpayment for which interest and penalties shall apply shall commence on the date the installment was required to be paid and shall terminate on the date on which the amount of underpayment is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subparagraph (b)1. for such installment date.

(d) No penalty or interest for underpayment of any installment of estimated tax shall be imposed if the total amount of all such payments made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were the lesser of:

1. An amount equal to 80 percent of the tax finally due for the taxable year; or

2. An amount equal to the tax shown on the taxpayer's return for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the taxpayer for the preceding year.

(6) The information contained in any tax return or declaration of any estimated taxes shall be confidential; however, this shall not be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns when more than one return is made by a particular segment of the industry and identification would adversely affect competitive conditions.

212.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known as the "Florida Revenue Act of 1949" and the taxes imposed herein shall be in addition to all other taxes imposed by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.02 Definitions.—The following terms and phrases when used in this chapter, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Person" includes any individual, firm, co-partnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, or other group or combination acting as a unit, and shall include any political subdivision, municipality, state agency, bureau or department, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(2) "Sale" means and includes:

(a) Any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease or rental, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, of tangible personal property for a consideration.

(b) The rental of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses or roominghouses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinafter defined in this chapter.

(c) The producing, fabricating, processing, printing or imprinting of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the producing, fabricating, processing, printing or imprinting.

(d) The furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property for consumption on or off the premises of the person furnishing, preparing, or serving such tangible personal property which includes the sale of meals or prepared food by an employer to his employees.

(e) A transaction whereby the possession of property is transferred but the seller retains title as security for the payment of the price.

(3)(a) "Retail sale" or a "sale at retail" means a sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than for resale in the form of tangible personal property, and shall mean and include all such transactions that may be made in lieu of retail sales or sales at retail. A resale must be in strict compliance with rules and regulations and any dealer making a sale for resale which is not in strict compliance with rules and regulations shall himself be liable for and pay the tax.

(b) The terms "retail sales," "sales at retail," "use," "storage," and "consumption" shall include the sale, use, storage or consumption of all tangible advertising materials imported or caused to be imported into this state. Tangible advertising material shall include displays, display containers, brochures, catalogs, pricelists, point of sale advertising and technical manuals or any tangible personal property which does not accompany the product to the ultimate consumer.

(c) The terms "retail sales," "sale at retail," "use," "storage," and "consumption" shall not include materials, containers, labels, sacks, or bags intended to be used one time only for packaging tangible personal property for sale, and shall not include the sale, use, storage, or consumption of industrial materials for future processing, manufacture, or conversion into articles of tangible personal property for resale when such industrial materials become a component or ingredient of the finished product. However, said terms shall include the sale, use, storage, or consumption of tangible personal property, including fuels, used and dissipated in fabricating, converting, or processing tangible personal property for sale.

(d) The term "gross sales" means the sum total of all retail sales of tangible personal property as defined herein, without any deduction whatsoever of any kind or character, except as provided in this chapter.

(4) "Sales price" means the total amount paid for tangible personal property, including any services that are a part of the sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, and includes any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses or any other expense whatsoever. Sales price also includes the consideration for a transaction which requires both labor and material to alter, remodel, maintain, adjust or repair tangible personal property. Trade-ins or discounts allowed and taken at the time of sale shall not be included within the purview of this subsection.

(5) "Cost price" means the actual cost of articles of tangible personal property without any deductions therefrom on account of the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, transportation charges, or any expenses whatsoever.

(6) "Lease," "let," or "rental" means leasing or renting of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist or trailer camps and real property, the same being defined as follows:

(a) Every building or other structure kept, used, maintained, advertised as or held out to the public to be a place where sleeping accommodations are supplied for pay to transient or permanent guests or tenants, in which ten or more rooms are furnished for the accommodation of such guests, and having one or more dining rooms or cafes where meals or lunches are served to such transient or permanent guests, such sleeping accommodations and dining rooms or cafes being conducted in the same building or buildings in connection therewith, shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed a hotel.

(b) Any building or part thereof, where separate accommodations for two or more families living independently of each other are supplied to transient or permanent guests or tenants, shall for the purpose of this chapter be deemed an apartment house.

(c) Every house, boat, vehicle, motor court, trailer court or other structure or any place or location kept, used, maintained, advertised or held out to the public to be a place where living quarters or sleeping or housekeeping accommodations are supplied for pay to transient or permanent guests or tenants, whether in one or adjoining buildings, shall for the purpose of this chapter be deemed a roominghouse.

(d) In all hotels, apartment houses and roominghouses within the meaning of this chapter, the parlor, dining room, sleeping porches, kitchen, office and sample rooms shall be construed to mean "rooms."

(e) A "tourist camp" is a place where two or more tents, tent houses, or camp cottages are located and offered by a person or municipality for sleeping or eating accommodations, most generally to the transient public for either a direct money consideration or an indirect benefit to the lessor or owner in connection with a related business.

(f) A "trailer camp" is a place where space is offered, with or without service facilities, by any persons or municipality to the public for the parking and accommodation of two or more automobile trailers which are used for lodging, for either a direct money consideration or an indirect benefit to the lessor or owner in connection with a related business, such space being hereby defined as living quarters, and the rental price thereof shall include all service charges paid to the lessor.

(g) "Lease," "let," or "rental" also means the leasing or rental of tangible personal property and the possession or use thereof by the lessee or rentee for a consideration, without transfer of the title of such property, except as expressly provided to the contrary herein. Provided that, where two taxpayers, in connection with the interchange of facilities, rent or lease property, each to the other, for use in providing or furnishing any of the services mentioned in s. 167.431, the term "lease" or "rental" shall mean only the net amount of rental involved. The term "lease," "let," or "rental" does not mean hourly, daily, or mileage charges, to the extent that such charges are subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Interstate Commerce Commission, when such charges are paid by reason of the presence of railroad cars owned by another on the tracks of the taxpayer.

(h) "Real property" means any interest in the surface of real property unless said property is:

1. Assessed as agricultural property under s. 193.461.

2. Used exclusively as dwelling units.

3. Property subject to tax on parking, docking or storage spaces under s. 212.03(6).

(7) "Storage" means and includes any keeping or retention in this state of tangible personal property for use or consumption in this state, or for any purpose other than sale at retail in the regular course of business.

(8) "Use" means and includes the exercise of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership thereof, or interest therein, except that it shall not include the sale at retail of that property in the regular course of business.

(9) "Business" means any activity engaged in by any person, or caused to be engaged in by him, with the object of private or public gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect. Except for sales of motor vehicles, the term "business" shall not be construed in this chapter to include occasional or isolated sales or transactions involving tangible personal property by a person who does not hold himself out as engaged in business, but shall include other charges for the sale or rental of tangible personal property, sales of or charges of admission, communication services, all rentals and leases of living quarters, other than low-rent housing operated under chapter 421, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist or trailer camps, and all rentals of real property, other than low-rent housing operated under chapter 421, all leases or rentals of parking lots or garages for motor vehicles, docking or storage spaces for boats in boat docks or marinas as defined in this chapter and made subject to a tax imposed by this chapter. Any tax on such sales, charges, rentals, admissions, or other transactions made subject to the tax imposed by this chapter shall be collected by the state, county, municipality, any political subdivision, agency, bureau, or department, or other state or local governmental instrumentality in the same manner as other dealers, unless specifically exempted by this chapter.

(10) "Retailer" means and includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail, or for distribution, or use, or consumption, or storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(11) The term "department" means the Department of Revenue.

(12) "Tangible personal property" means and includes personal property which may be seen, weighed, measured, or touched or is in any manner perceptible to the senses, including electric power or energy, boats, motor vehicles as defined in s. 320.01(1), aircraft as defined in s. 330.01, and all other types of vehicles. The term "tangible personal property" shall not include stocks, bonds, notes, insurance, or other obligations or securities; intangibles as defined by the intangible tax law of the state; or pari-mutuel tickets sold or issued under the racing laws of the state.

(13) The term "use tax" referred to in this chapter includes the use, the consumption, the distribution, and the storage as herein defined.

(14) The term "intoxicating beverages" or "alcoholic beverages" referred to in this chapter includes all such beverages as are so defined or may be hereafter defined by the laws of the state.

(15) The terms "cigarettes" or "tobacco" or "tobacco products" referred to in this chapter include all such products as are defined or may be hereafter defined by the laws of the state.

(16) The term "admissions" means and includes the net sum of money after deduction of any federal taxes for admitting a person or vehicle or persons to any place of amusement, sport, or recreation or for the privilege of entering or staying in any place of amusement, sport, or recreation, including but not limited to theaters, outdoor theaters, shows, exhibitions, games, races, or any place where charge is made by way of sale of tickets, gate charges, seat charges, box charges, season pass charges, cover charges, greens fees, participation fees, entrance fees, or other fees or receipts of anything of value measured on an admission or entrance or length of stay or seat box accommodations in any place where there is any exhibition, amusement, sport, or recreation, and all dues paid to private clubs providing recreational facilities, including but not limited to golf, tennis, swimming, yachting and boating facilities. The term "admissions" shall not mean or include charges for admission by any organization described in s. 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, to live performances of ballet, dance, or choral performances, concerts (instrumental and vocal), plays (with and without music), operas, and readings, ocean science centers, museums of science, historical museums, and botanical and zoological gardens, and exhibitions of paintings, sculpture, photography, and graphic and craft arts.

(17) "In this state" or "in the state" means within the exterior limits of Florida and includes all territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States.

(18) "Nurseryman" or "grower" means any person engaged in the production of nursery stock or horticultural plants.

(19) "Solar energy system" means equipment and requisite hardware which provide and are used for the collection, transfer, storage, and use of incident solar energy for water heating, space heating, cooling, or other application which would otherwise require the use of a conventional source of energy such as petroleum products, natural gas, manufactured gas, or electricity. This subsection is repealed effective June 30, 1984.

212.03 Transient rentals tax; rate, procedure, enforcement, exemptions, etc.—

(1) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who engages in the business of renting, leasing, or letting any living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in, from, or a part of, or in connection with any hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp, as hereinbefore defined in this chapter. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is hereby levied as follows: in the amount equal to 4 percent of and on the total rental charged for such living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations by the person charging or collecting the rental; provided that such tax shall apply to hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined in this chapter, whether or not there be in connection with any of the same, any dining rooms, cafes, or other places where meals or lunches are sold or served to guests.

(2) The tax provided for herein shall be in addition to the total amount of the rental and shall be charged by the lessor or person receiving the rent in and by said rental arrangement to the lessee or person paying the rental, and shall be due and payable at the time of the receipt of such rental payment by the lessor or person, as defined in this chapter, who receives said rental or payment. The owner, lessor, or person receiving the rent shall remit the tax to the department at the times and in the manner hereinafter provided for dealers to remit taxes under this chapter. The same duties imposed by this chapter upon dealers in tangible personal property respecting the collection and remission of the tax, the making of returns, the keeping of books, records, and accounts and the compliance with the rules and regulations of the department in the administration of this chapter shall apply to and be binding upon all persons who manage or operate hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist and trailer camps, and the rental of condominium units, and to all persons who collect or receive such rents on behalf of such owner or lessor taxable under this chapter.

(3) Where rentals are received by way of property, goods, wares, merchandise, services or other things of value, the tax shall be at the rate of 4 percent of the value of said property, services or other things of value.

(4) The tax levied by this section shall not apply to, be imposed upon, or collected from any person who shall have entered into a bona fide written lease for longer than 6 months in duration for continuous residence at any one hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp, or condominium, or to any person who shall reside continuously longer than 6 months at any one hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp, or condominium and shall have paid the tax levied by this section for 6 months of residence in any one hotel, roominghouse, apartment house, tourist or trailer camp, or condominium. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, no tax shall be imposed upon rooms provided guests when there is no consideration involved between the guest and the public lodging establishment. Further, any person who, on the effective date of this act, has resided continuously for 6 months at any one hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp, or condominium, or, if less than 6 months, has paid the tax imposed herein until he shall have resided continuously for 6 months, shall thereafter be exempt, so long as such person shall continuously reside at such location. The Department of Revenue shall have the power to reform the rental contract for the purposes of this chapter if the rental payments are collected in other than equal daily, weekly, or monthly amounts so as to reflect the actual consideration to be paid in the future for the right of occupancy during the first 6 months.

(5) The tax imposed by this section shall constitute a lien on the property of the lessee or rentee of any sleeping accommodations in the same manner as and shall be collectible as are liens authorized and imposed by ss. 713.68 and 713.69.

(6) It is the legislative intent that every person is engaging in a taxable privilege who leases or rents parking or storage spaces for motor vehicles in parking lots or garages or who leases or rents docking or storage spaces for boats in boat docks or marinas. For the exercise of this privilege a tax is hereby levied at the rate of 4 percent on the total rental charged.

(7)(a) Full-time students enrolled in an institution offering postsecondary education and military personnel currently on active duty who reside in the facilities described in subsection (1) shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this section. The department shall be empowered to determine what shall be deemed acceptable proof of full-time enrollment. The exemption contained in this subsection shall apply irrespective of any other provisions of this section. The tax levied by this section shall not apply to or be imposed upon or collected on the basis of rentals to any person who resides in any building or group of buildings intended primarily for lease or rent to persons as their permanent or principal place of residence.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that this subsection provide tax relief for persons who rent living accommodations rather than own their homes, while still providing a tax on the rental of lodging facilities that primarily serve transient guests.

(c) The rental of facilities, including trailer lots, which are intended primarily for rental as a principal or permanent place of residence is exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter. The rental of facilities that primarily serve transient guests is not exempt by this subsection. In the application of this law, or in making any determination against the exemption, the department shall consider and be guided by, among other things:

1. Whether or not a facility caters primarily to the traveling public;
2. Whether less than half of the total rental units available are occupied by tenants who have a continuous residence in excess of 3 months; and
3. The nature of the advertising of the facility involved.

(d) The provisions of this subsection shall become effective March 1, 1972, but shall not be construed to exempt taxes on rentals paid, or for services received, prior to March 1, 1972.

(e) The rental of living accommodations in migrant labor camps is not taxable under this section. "Migrant labor camps" are defined as one or more buildings or structures, tents, trailers, or vehicles, or any portion thereof, together with the land appertaining thereto, established, operated, or used as living quarters for seasonal, temporary, or migrant workers.

212.031 Lease or rental of real property.—

(1)(a) It is declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who engages in the business of renting, leasing, or letting any real property unless such property is:

1. Assessed as agricultural property under s. 193.461.
2. Used exclusively as dwelling units.
3. Property subject to tax on parking, docking or storage spaces under s. 212.03(6).

(b) When a lease involves multiple use of real property wherein a part of the real property is subject to the commercial rental tax herein, and a part of the property would be excluded from the tax under subparagraphs 1., 2., or 3. of paragraph (a), the department shall determine from the lease and such other information as may be available, that portion of the total rental charge which is exempt from the tax imposed by this section.

(c) For the exercise of such privilege a tax is levied in the amount equal to 4 percent of and on the total rent charged for such real property by the person charging or collecting the rental.

(d) Where the rental of any such real property is paid by way of property, goods, wares, merchandise, services or other thing of value, the tax shall be at the rate of 4 percent of the value of the property, services or other things of value.

(2)(a) The tenant actually occupying, using or entitled to the use of any property the rental from which is subject to taxation under this section shall pay the tax to his immediate landlord or other person granting the right to such tenant to occupy or use such real property.

(b) It is the further intent of this Legislature that only one tax be collected on the rental payable for the occupancy or use of any such property and that the tax so collected shall not be pyramided by a progression of transactions and further that the amount of the tax due the state shall not be decreased by any such progression of transactions.

(3) The tax imposed by this section shall be in addition to the total amount of the rental and shall be charged by the lessor or person receiving the rent in and by a rental arrangement with the lessee or person paying the rental and shall be due and payable at the time of the receipt of such rental payment by the lessor or other person who receives said rental or payment. The owner, lessor or person receiving the rent shall remit the tax to the department at the times and in the manner hereinafter provided for dealers to remit taxes under this chapter. The same duties imposed by this chapter upon dealers in tangible personal property respecting the collection and remission of the tax, the making of returns, the keeping of books, records and accounts and the compliance with the rules and regulations of the department in the administration of this chapter shall apply to and be binding upon all persons who manage any leases or operate real property, hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist and trailer camps, and to all persons who collect or receive such rents on behalf of such owner or lessor taxable under this chapter.

(4) The tax imposed by this section shall constitute a lien on the property of the lessee of any real estate in the same manner as, and shall be collectible as are liens authorized and imposed by ss. 713.68 and 713.69.

(5) No money paid to a merchants' association by a lessee shall be considered rent for the purposes of this section, whether or not the payment of the money to the association is a condition of the lease. As used in this subsection, "merchants' association" means a corporation not for profit organized and existing for the sole and exclusive purpose of promoting the businesses of a group of merchants.

(6) When space is subleased to a convention or industry trade show in a convention hall, exhibition hall, or auditorium, whether publicly or privately owned, the sponsor who holds the prime lease is subject to tax on the prime lease and the sublease shall be exempt.

212.04 Admissions tax; rate, procedure, enforcement, etc.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who sells or receives anything of value, by way of admissions. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is levied as follows:

(1) At the rate of 4 percent of sales price, or the actual value received from such admissions said 4 percent to be added and collected with all such admissions from the purchaser thereof and such tax shall be paid for the exercise of the privilege as defined in the preceding paragraph. Each ticket shall reflect on its face the actual sales price of admission and the tax shall be computed and collected on the basis of each such admission price.

(2)(a) The sale price or actual value of admissions shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be that price remaining after deduction of federal taxes, if any, imposed upon said admission and the rate of tax on each admission shall be according to the brackets established by s. 212.12(10).

(b)1. No tax shall be levied on admissions to athletic or other events held by elementary schools, junior high schools, middle schools, high schools, community colleges, deaf and blind schools, facilities of the youth services programs of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and state correctional institutions when only student, faculty, or inmate talent is utilized.

2. No tax shall be levied on dues, membership fees, and admission charges imposed by not-for-profit sponsoring organizations or community or recreational facilities. To receive this exemption, the sponsoring organization or facility must qualify as a not-for-profit entity under the provisions of s. 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(c) No municipality of the state shall hereafter levy an excise tax on admissions.

(d) The taxes imposed by this section shall be collected in addition to the admission tax collected pursuant to s. 550.09, but the amount collected under s. 550.09 shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter.

(3) Such taxes shall be paid and remitted at the same time and in the same manner as provided for remitting taxes on sales of tangible personal property, as hereinafter provided.

(4) Each person, who, after November 1, 1949, exercises the privilege of charging admission taxes, as herein defined, shall apply for and at that time shall furnish the information and comply with the provisions of s. 212.18, not inconsistent herewith and receive from the department a certificate of right to exercise such privilege, which certificate shall apply to each place of business where such privilege is exercised, and shall be in the manner and form prescribed by the department. Such certificate shall be issued upon payment to the department of a registration fee of $1 by the applicant. Each person exercising the privilege of charging such admission taxes as herein defined shall cause such records and ac-showing the admission which shall be in the form of a receipt as the department may from time to time prescribe, inclusive of records of all tickets numbered and issued for a period of not less than 3 years, and inclusive of all bills or checks of customers who are charged any of the taxes defined herein, showing the charge made to each for a period of not less than 3 years. The department shall be empowered to use each and every one of the powers granted herein to the department to discover the amount of tax to be paid by each such person and to enforce the payment thereof as are hereby granted the department for the discovery and enforcement of the payment of taxes hereinafter levied on the sales of tangible personal property. The failure of any person to pay such taxes before the twenty-first day of the succeeding month after the same are collected shall render such person liable to the same penalties that are hereafter imposed upon such person for being delinquent in the payment of taxes imposed upon the sales of tangible personal property, and the failure of any person to render returns and to pay taxes as prescribed herein shall render such person subject to the same penalties, by way of charges for delinquencies, at the rate of 5 percent per month for a total amount of tax delinquent up to a total of 25 percent of such tax, and at the rate of 50 percent penalty for attempted evasion of payment of any such tax, or for any attempt to file false or misleading returns that are required to be filed by the department.

(5) All of the provisions of this chapter relating to collection, investigation, discovery and aids to collection of taxes upon sales of tangible personal property shall likewise apply to all privileges described or referred to in this section, and the obligations imposed in this chapter upon "retailers" are hereby imposed upon the seller of such admissions. Where tickets or admissions are sold and not used but returned and credited by the seller, the seller may apply to the department for a credit allowance for such returned tickets or admissions where advance payments have been made by the buyer and have been returned by the seller upon such form and in such manner as the department may from time to time prescribe, and the department may upon obtaining satisfactory proof of the refunds on the part of seller credit the seller for taxes paid upon admissions that have been returned unused to the purchaser of those admissions. The seller of admissions upon the payment of the taxes before they become delinquent and the rendering of the returns in accordance with the requirement of the department, and as provided in this law, shall be entitled to a discount of 3 percent of the amount of taxes upon the payment of the same before the same become delinquent, in the same manner as permitted the sellers of tangible personal property in this chapter.

(6) Admission taxes required to be paid by this chapter shall be paid to the department by the owner or the collector of such admission, and where any place of business is sold or transferred by any owner, wherein such admission taxes have or are accruing, such owner shall be obligated before such sale becomes effective to notify the department of such pending sale and secure from the department a certificate of registration as prescribed in this section, and the purchaser shall become obligated to withhold from the sales price such sum of money as will safely be required to discharge all accrued admission taxes upon such places of business, and upon the failure of any such purchaser to withhold, he shall become obligated to pay all accrued admission taxes, and the same shall become a lien upon all of the purchaser's assets until the same have been paid and fully discharged.

(7) The taxes under this section shall become a lien upon the assets of the owner of any business exercising the privilege of selling admissions, and the collection of such admissions, as defined hereunder, and shall remain a lien until fully paid and discharged, and such lien may be enforced in the manner provided hereinafter for the enforcement of the collection of taxes imposed upon the sales of tangible personal property.

(8) The word "owners" as used in this chapter shall be taken to include and mean all persons obligated to collect and pay over to the state the tax imposed under this section, inclusive of all holders of certificates of registration issued as herein provided, and wherever the words "owner" or "owners" are used herein it shall be taken to mean and include all persons liable for such admission taxes unless and except it appears from the context that the words are descriptive of property owners.

212.05 Sales, storage, use tax.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail in this state, or who rents or furnishes any of the things or services taxable under this chapter, or who stores for use or consumption in this state any item or article of tangible personal property as defined herein and who leases or rents such property within the state. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is levied on each taxable transaction or incident and shall be due and payable, according to the brackets set forth in s. 212.12(10), as follows:

(1)(a) At the rate of 4 percent of the sales price of each item or article of tangible personal property when sold at retail in this state, the tax to be computed on each taxable sale for the purpose of remitting the amount of tax due the state, and to include each and every retail sale.

(b) Occasional or isolated sales of aircraft, boats, and motor vehicles of a class or type which is required to be registered, licensed, titled, or documented in this state or by the United States Government shall be subject to tax at the rate provided in this subsection.

(c) This subsection shall not apply to the sale of a boat by or through a registered dealer under this chapter to a purchaser who removes such boat from this state within 10 days after the date of purchase or, when the boat is repaired or altered, within 10 days after completion of such repairs or alterations. In no event shall the boat remain in this state more than 90 days after the date of purchase. This exemption shall not be allowed unless the seller:

1. Obtains from the purchaser within 90 days from the date of sale written proof that the purchaser licensed, registered, or documented the boat outside of the state;
2. Requires the purchaser to sign an affidavit that he has read the provisions of this section; and
3. Makes the affidavit a part of his permanent record.

In the event the purchaser fails to remove the boat from this state within 10 days after purchase or, when the boat is repaired or altered, within 10 days after completion of such repairs or alterations, or permits the boat to return to this state within 6 months from date of departure, the purchaser shall be liable for use tax on the cost price of the boat and, in addition thereto, payment of a penalty to the Department of Revenue equal to the tax payable. This penalty shall be in lieu of the penalty imposed by s. 212.12(2) and is mandatory and shall not be waived by the department.

(2) At the rate of 4 percent of the cost price of each item or article of tangible personal property when the same is not sold but is used, consumed, distributed or stored for use or consumption in this state.

(3) At the rate of 4 percent of the gross proceeds derived from the lease or rental of tangible personal property, as defined herein, except the rental of motion-picture film where an admission is charged for viewing such film and the lease or rental of a motor vehicle to one lessee or rentee for a period of not less than 12 months where tax was paid on the acquisition of such vehicle by the lessor, where the lease or rental of such property is an established business or part of an established business or the same is incidental or germane to said business.

(4) At the rate of 4 percent of the lease or rental price paid by lessee or rentee, or contracted or agreed to be paid by lessee or rentee, to the owner of the tangible personal property.

(5) At the rate of 4 percent on charges for all telegraph messages and long distance telephone calls beginning and terminating in this state; on recurring charges to regular subscribers for local telephone service and for wired television service; on all charges for the installation of telephonic, wired television, and telegraphic equipment; and, at the same rate, on all charges for electrical power or energy. Telephone and telegraph services originating within this state and completed outside this state or originating outside this state and completed within this state are not taxable. The provisions of s. 212.17(3), regarding credit for tax paid on charges subsequently found to be worthless, shall be equally applicable to any tax paid under the provisions of this section on charges for telephone and telegraph services and electric power subsequently found to be uncollectible. The word "charges" in this subsection shall not include any excise or similar tax levied by the federal government, any political subdivision of the state, or any municipality upon the purchase or sale of telephone, wired television or telegraph service, or electric power, which tax is collected by the seller from the purchaser.

(6) At the rate of 4 percent on the sale, rental, use, consumption, or storage for use in this state of machines and equipment and parts and accessories therefor used in manufacturing, processing, compounding, producing, mining, or quarrying personal property for sale or to be used in furnishing communications, transportation or public utility service. However, in the case of any written agreement executed prior to July 1, 1971, which became binding before the effective date of this act, for the sale, rental, use, consumption, or storage for use in this state of such property, the dealer making such agreement, and paying the tax, or his assigns, may apply to the department within 3 years after the effective date of this act and, upon furnishing sworn proof of the existence of such binding written agreement and of the payment of such taxes, shall obtain a refund of 25 percent of the tax paid with respect to such property.

(7) The said tax shall be collected by the dealer as defined herein and remitted by him to the state at the time and in the manner as hereinafter provided.

(8) The tax so levied is and shall be in addition to all other taxes, whether levied in the form of excise, license or privilege taxes, and shall be in addition to all other fees and taxes levied.

History.—s. 5, ch. 26319, 1949; s. 3, ch. 59-289; s. 4, ch. 63-526; ss. 5, 6, ch. 68-27; ss. 8, 9, ch. 69-222; s. 4, ch. 71-360; s. 1, ch. 76-6; s. 2, ch. 78-74.

212.051 Equipment or machinery for pollution control; subject to sales or use tax.—Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, sales, use, or privilege taxes shall be collected with respect to any facility, device, fixture, equipment or machinery used primarily for the control or abatement of pollution or contaminants from manufacturing or industrial plants or installations, and any structure, machinery or equipment installed in the reconstruction or replacement of such facility, device, fixture, equipment or machinery.

History.—s. 22, ch. 69-222.

212.055 Discretionary tax; charter counties; administration and collection.—

(1) Each charter county which adopted a charter prior to June 1, 1976, may levy, subject to the provisions of s. 125.0165 [F. S. 1976 Supp.], a discretionary 1 percent tax on all 4 percent taxable transactions under the provisions of this chapter, except that the sales amount above $1,000 of any one transaction shall not be taxable.

(2) The department shall administer and collect the tax authorized under the provisions of this section in the same manner and pursuant to the same procedures utilized with respect to the administration and collection of the tax otherwise imposed under the provisions of this chapter. The receipts of any tax levied under the provisions of this section shall be distributed by the department on a regular and periodic basis to the governing authority of the county which levies the tax.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-284.

212.06 Sales, storage, use tax; collectible from dealers; dealers defined; dealers to collect from purchasers; legislative intent as to scope of tax.—

(1)(a) The aforesaid tax at the rate of 4 percent of the retail sales price as of the moment of sale, 4 percent of the cost price as of the moment of purchase or percent of the cost price as of the moment of commingling with the general mass of property in this state, as the case may be, shall be collectible from dealers as herein defined on the sale at retail for use, the consumption, the distribution and storage for use or consumption in this state, of tangible personal property. The full amount of the tax on credit sales, installment sales, and sales made on any kind of deferred payment plan shall be due at the moment of the transaction in the same manner as a cash sale.

(b) Any person who manufactures, produces, compounds, processes or fabricates in any manner tangible personal property for his own use shall pay tax upon the cost of the product manufactured, produced, compounded, processed or fabricated without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of material used, labor or service costs or transportation charges, notwithstanding the provisions of s. 212.02(5) defining "cost price." However, fabrication labor shall not be taxable when a person is using his own equipment and his own personnel, for his own account, as a producer, subproducer, or coproducer of video tapes or motion pictures prepared for showing on screens or through television, for either theatrical, commercial, advertising, or educational purposes.

(2)(a) The term "dealer" as used in this chapter shall include every person who manufactures or produces tangible personal property for sale at retail, for use, consumption or distribution, or for storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(b) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean every person, as used in this chapter, who imports or causes to be imported, tangible personal property from any state or foreign country, for sale at retail, for use, or consumption, or distribution, or for storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(c) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean every person, as used in this chapter, who sells at retail, or who offers for sale at retail, or who has in his possession for sale at retail, or for use, or consumption, or distribution, or storage to be used or consumed in this state, tangible personal property as defined herein.

(d) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean any person who has sold at retail, or used, or consumed, or distributed, or stored for use or consumption in this state, tangible personal property and who cannot prove that the tax levied by this chapter has been paid on the sale at retail, the use, the consumption, the distribution, or the storage of said tangible personal property.

(e) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean any person, as used in this chapter, who leases or rents tangible personal property, as defined in this chapter, for a consideration, permitting the use or possession of said property without transferring title thereto, except as expressly provided for to the contrary herein.

(f) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean any person as used in this chapter, who maintains or has within this state, directly or by a subsidiary, an office, distributing house, salesroom, or house, warehouse or other place of business.

(g) "Dealer" also means and includes every person who solicits business either by direct representatives, indirect representatives, manufacturers' agents, or by distribution of catalogs or other advertising matter or by any other means whatsoever and by reason thereof receives orders for tangible personal property from consumers, for use, consumption, distribution and storage for use or consumption in the state, and such dealer shall collect the tax imposed by this chapter from the purchaser and no action either in law or in equity on a sale or transaction as provided by the terms of this chapter may be had in this state by any such dealer unless it be affirmatively shown that the provisions of this chapter have been fully complied with.

(h) "Dealer" also means and includes every person who, as a representative, agent, or solicitor, of an out-of-state principal or principals, solicits, receives and accepts orders from consumers in the state for future delivery and whose principal refuses to register as a dealer.

(i) "Dealer" also means and includes the state, county, municipality, any political subdivision, agency, bureau or department or other state or local governmental instrumentality.

(j) The term "dealer" is further defined to mean any person who has leased living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, tourist or trailer camps, real property, space or spaces in parking lots or garages for motor vehicles or docking or storage space or spaces for boats in boat docks or marinas, or who has purchased communication services or electric power or energy, and who cannot prove that the tax levied by this chapter has been paid to the vendor or lessor on any such transactions.

(3) Every dealer making sales, whether within or outside the state, of tangible personal property, for distribution, storage, or use or other consumption, in this state, shall at the time of making sales, collect the tax imposed by this chapter from the purchaser.

(4) On all tangible personal property imported or caused to be imported from other states, territories, the District of Columbia, or any foreign country, and used by him, the dealer as herein defined, shall pay the tax imposed by this chapter on all articles of tangible personal property so imported and used, the same as if the said articles had been sold at retail for use or consumption in this state. For the purposes of this chapter, the use, or consumption, or distribution, or storage to be used or consumed in this state of tangible personal property, shall each be equivalent to a sale at retail, and the tax shall thereupon immediately levy and be collected in the manner provided herein, provided there shall be no duplication of the tax in any event.

(5)(a) It is not the intention of this chapter to levy a tax upon tangible personal property imported, produced or manufactured in this state for export, provided that tangible personal property shall not be considered as being imported, produced or manufactured for export unless the importer, producer or manufacturer delivers the same to a licensed exporter for exporting, or to a common carrier for shipment outside the state or mails the same by United States mail to a destination outside the state; or in the case of aircraft being exported under their own power to a destination outside the continental limits of the United States, or in the case of parts and equipment installed on aircraft of foreign registry, by submission to the department of duly authenticated copies of an aircraft manifest and a duly signed and validated United States customs declaration, each showing the departure of the aircraft and the export of the parts and equipment from the continental United States; and further with respect to aircraft, the canceled United States registry of said aircraft; nor is it the intention of this chapter to levy a tax on radio and television broadcasting, or any sale which the state is prohibited from taxing under the constitution or laws of the United States. Every retail sale made to a person physically present at the time of sale shall be presumed to have been delivered in this state.

(b) It is not the intention of this chapter to levy a tax upon the sale, use, storage, consumption, or distribution in this state, whether by the importer, exporter, or another person, of any telecommunications satellite or any associated launch vehicle, including components of, and parts and motors for, any such satellite or launch vehicle, imported or caused to be imported into this state for the purpose of export by means of launching into space. This intention is not affected by:

1. The destruction in whole or in part of the satellite or launch vehicle.

2. The failure of a launch to occur or be successful.

3. The absence of any transfer of title to, or possession of, the satellite or launch vehicle after launch.

4. Anything in this chapter to the contrary.

(6) It is however, the intention of this chapter to levy a tax on the sale at retail, the use, the consumption, the distribution, and the storage to be used or consumed in this state of tangible personal property after it has come to rest in this state and has become a part of the mass property of this state.

(7) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use or consumption of tangible personal property, or distribution or storage of tangible personal property for use or consumption in this state, upon which a like tax equal to or greater than the amount imposed by this chapter has been lawfully imposed and paid in another state. The proof of payment of such tax shall be made according to rules and regulations of the department. If the amount of tax paid in another state is not equal to or greater than the amount of tax imposed by this chapter, then the dealer shall pay to the department an amount sufficient to make the tax paid in the other state and in this state equal to the amount imposed by this chapter.

(8) Use tax will apply and be due on tangible personal property imported or caused to be imported into this state for use, consumption, distribution or storage to be used or consumed in this state; provided, however, that it shall be presumed that tangible personal property used in another state for 6 months or longer before being imported into this state was not purchased for use in this state. The rental or lease of tangible personal property which is used or stored in this state shall be taxable without regard to its prior use or tax paid on purchase outside this state.

(9) The taxes imposed by this chapter shall not apply to the use, sale or distribution of religious publications, bibles, hymn books, prayer books, vestments, altar paraphernalia, sacramental chalices and like church service and ceremonial raiments and equipment.

(10) No title certificate shall be issued on any boat or any vehicle, or, if no title is required by law, no license or registration shall be issued for any boat or vehicle, unless there be filed with such application for title certificate or license or registration certificate a receipt issued by an authorized dealer or a designated agent of the Department of Revenue, evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter where the same is payable. For the purpose of enforcing this provision, all county tax collectors and all persons or firms authorized to sell or issue boat and vehicle licenses are hereby designated agents of the department and are required to perform such duty in the same manner and under the same conditions prescribed for their other duties by the constitution or any statute of this state. All transfers of title to boats, motor vehicles, and all other vehicles are presumed to be taxable transactions until otherwise shown.

212.07 Sales, storage, use tax; tax added to purchase price; dealer not to absorb; liability of purchasers who cannot prove payment of the tax; penalties; general exemptions.—

(1) The privilege tax herein levied measured by retail sales shall be collected by the dealers from the purchaser or consumer.

(2) Dealers shall, as far as practicable, add the amounts of the tax imposed under this chapter to the sale price and the tax shall be separately stated as Florida tax on any charge tickets, sales slips, invoices or other tangible evidence of sale, and such tax shall constitute a part of such price, charge or proof of sale which shall be a debt from the purchaser or consumer to the dealer, until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. Any dealer who shall neglect, fail or refuse to collect the tax herein provided upon any, every and all retail sales made by him or his agents or employees of tangible personal property which is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter shall be liable for and pay the tax himself.

(3) Any dealer who shall fail, neglect or refuse to collect the tax herein provided, either by himself or through his agents or employees, shall, in addition to the penalty of being liable for and paying the tax himself, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) A dealer engaged in any business taxable under this chapter shall not advertise or hold out to the public, in any manner, directly or indirectly, that he will absorb all or any part of the tax, or that he will relieve the purchaser of the payment of all or any part of the tax, or that the tax will not be added to the selling price of the property sold or released or when added that it or any part thereof will be refunded either directly or indirectly by any method whatsoever. A person who violates this provision with respect to advertising or refund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent offense shall constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(5) The gross proceeds derived from the sale in this state of livestock, poultry and other farm products, direct from the farm are exempted from the tax levied by this chapter, provided that such sales are made directly by the producers. The producers shall be entitled to such exemptions although said livestock so sold in this state may have been registered with a breeders or registry association prior to said sale and although said sale takes place at a livestock show or race meeting, so long as said sale is made by the original producer and within this state. When sales of livestock, poultry or other farm products are made to consumers by any person, as defined herein, other than a producer, they are not exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter. The foregoing exemption shall not apply to ornamental nursery stock offered for retail sale by the producer.

(6) It is specifically provided that the "use tax" as defined herein shall not apply to livestock and livestock products, to poultry and poultry products, to farm and agricultural products, when produced by the farmer and used by him and members of his family and his employees on the farm.

(7) Provided, however, that each and every agricultural commodity sold by any person, other than a producer, to any other person who purchases not for direct consumption but for the purpose of acquiring raw products for use or for sale in the process of preparing, finishing, or manufacturing such agricultural commodity for the ultimate retail consumer trade shall be and is exempted from any and all provisions of this chapter, including payment of the tax applicable to the sale, storage, use, transfer or any other utilization or handling thereof, except when such agricultural commodity is actually sold as a marketable or finished product to the ultimate consumer, and in no case shall more than one tax be exacted.

(8) The term agricultural commodity, for the purposes hereof, shall mean horticultural, poultry and farm products, and livestock and livestock products.

(9) Any person who has purchased at retail, used, consumed, distributed, or stored for use or consumption in this state tangible personal property, admissions, communication services, or leased tangible personal property, or who has leased any commercial offices or buildings, real property, space or spaces in parking lots or garages for motor vehicles or docking or storage space, or spaces for boats in boat docks or marinas and cannot prove that the tax levied by this chapter has been paid to his vendor or lessor shall be directly liable to the state for any tax, interest, or penalty due on any such taxable transactions.

212.08 Sales, rental, storage, use tax; specified exemptions.—The sale at retail, the rental, the use, the consumption, the distribution, and the storage to be used or consumed in this state of the following tangible personal property are hereby specifically exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter.

(1) EXEMPTIONS; GENERAL GROCERIES.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter foods and drinks for human consumption and candy, but only when the price at which said candy is sold is 25 cents or less. Unless the exemption provided by subsection (7)(b) for school lunches or the exemption provided by subsection (7)(l) for meals provided by certain nonprofit organizations pertains, none of such items of food and drink shall mean:

(a) Foods and drinks served, prepared, or sold in or by restaurants, drugstores, lunch counters, cafeterias, hotels, or other like places of business or by any business or place required by law to be licensed by the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation;

(b) Foods and drinks sold ready for immediate consumption from vending machines, pushcarts, motor vehicles, or any other form of vehicle;

(c) Soft drinks; or

(d) Foods cooked and prepared on the seller's premises and sold ready for immediate consumption either on or off the premises.

(2) EXEMPTIONS, MEDICAL.—

(a) There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter medicine compounded in a retail establishment by a pharmacist licensed by the state, according to an individual prescription or prescriptions written by a practitioner of the healing arts licensed by the state, and common household remedies recommended and generally sold for the relief of pain, ailments, distress, or disorders of the human body, according to a list prescribed and approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, which said list shall be certified to the Department of Revenue from time to time and be included in the rules promulgated by the Department of Revenue. There shall also be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter artificial eyes and limbs; eyeglasses; dentures; hearing aids; crutches; prosthetic and orthopedic appliances; feminine hygiene products, including, but not limited to, sanitary panties, sanitary belts, sanitary napkins, and tampons; and funerals. Funeral directors shall pay tax on all tangible personal property used by them in their business.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, the term prosthetic and orthopedic appliances means any apparatus, instrument, device, or equipment used to replace or substitute for any missing part of the body, to alleviate the malfunction of any part of the body, or to assist any disabled person in leading a normal life by facilitating such person's mobility. Such apparatus, instrument, device, or equipment shall be exempted according to a list prescribed and approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, which list shall be certified to the Department of Revenue from time to time and be included in the rules promulgated by the Department of Revenue. This subsection shall be strictly construed and enforced.

(3) EXEMPTIONS, PARTIAL; CERTAIN FARM EQUIPMENT.—There shall be taxable at the rate of 3 percent the sale, use, consumption, or storage for use in this state of self-propelled or power-drawn farm equipment used exclusively by a farmer on a farm owned, leased, or sharecropped by him in plowing, planting, cultivating, or harvesting crops. The rental of self-propelled or power-drawn farm equipment shall be taxed at the rate of 4 percent.

(4) EXEMPTIONS, ITEMS BEARING OTHER EXCISE TAXES, ETC.—Also exempt are water (not exempting mineral water or carbonated water); all fuels used by a public or private utility, including municipal corporations and rural electric cooperative associations, in the generation of electric power or energy for sale; and motor fuels and special fuels on which a tax is imposed by chapter 206. All other fuels are taxable, except that those used by vehicles which are licensed as common carriers by the Interstate Commerce Commission or by the Civil Aeronautics Board to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce and vessels used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce are taxable only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage traveled by the carrier during the previous fiscal year of the carrier, such ratio to be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio shall be applied each month to the total purchases made in this state of gasoline and other fuels to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to tax under this chapter. Alcoholic beverages and malt beverages are not exempt. The terms "alcoholic beverages" and "malt beverages" as used in this subsection shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in ss. 561.01(4) and 563.01, respectively. It is determined by the legislature that the classification of alcoholic beverages made in this subsection for the purpose of extending the tax imposed by this chapter is reasonable and just, and it is intended that such tax be separate from, and in addition to, any other tax imposed on alcoholic beverages.

(5) EXEMPTIONS; ACCOUNT OF USE.—

(a) Items in agricultural use and certain nets.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter nets designed and used exclusively by commercial fisheries; feeds for raising poultry and livestock on farms, including race horses and all other horses not used for agricultural purposes, and for feeding dairy cows; fertilizers, insecticides, herbicides, and fungicides used for application on crops or groves; portable containers used for processing farm products; field and garden seeds; nursery stock, seedlings, cuttings, or other propagative material purchased for growing stock; cloth, plastic, and other similar materials used for shade, mulch, or protection from frost or insects on a farm; and liquefied petroleum gas or other fuel used to heat a structure in which started pullets or broilers are raised; however, such exemption shall not be allowed unless the purchaser or lessee signs a certificate stating that the item to be exempted is for the exclusive use designated herein.

(b) Machinery and equipment used to increase productive output.—

1. Industrial machinery and equipment purchased for use in new businesses which manufacture, process, compound, or produce for sale items of tangible personal property at fixed locations shall be considered exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter upon an affirmative showing by the taxpayer to the satisfaction of the department that said items will be used in a new business in this state. Said purchases must be made prior to the date said business first begins its productive operations, and delivery of the purchased item must be made within 12 months of said date.

2. Industrial machinery and equipment purchased for use in expanding manufacturing facilities or plant units which manufacture, process, compound, or produce for sale items of tangible personal property at fixed locations in this state shall be considered exempt from any amount of tax imposed by this chapter in excess of $100,000 per calendar year upon an affirmative showing by the taxpayer to the satisfaction of the department that said items will be used to increase the productive output of said expanded business by not less than 10 percent.

3. The exemptions provided by subparagraphs 1. and 2. shall inure to the taxpayer only through refund of previously paid taxes. Said refund shall be made within 30 days of formal approval by the department of the taxpayer's application.

4. The department shall promulgate regulations governing the manner and form in which said refund applications shall be made and may establish guidelines as to the requisites for an affirmative showing of increased productive output.

5. The exemptions provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2. shall not apply to machinery or equipment purchased or used by electric utility companies, communications companies, phosphate or other solid minerals severance, mining, or processing operations, oil or gas exploration or production operations, printing or publishing firms, any firm subject to regulation by the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation, or any firm which does not manufacture, process, compound, or produce for sale items of tangible personal property.

6. For the purposes of the exemptions provided in subparagraphs 1. and 2., these terms shall have the following meanings:

a. "Machinery and equipment" shall include parts and accessories only to the extent that the exemption thereof is consistent with the provisions of this paragraph.

b. "Productive output" means the number of units actually produced by a single plant or operation in a single continuous 12-month period, irrespective of sales. Increases in productive output shall be measured by the output for 1 year immediately following the completion of installation of such machinery or equipment over the output for 1 year immediately preceding said installation. The units used to measure productive output shall be physically comparable between the two periods.

(6) EXEMPTIONS; POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS, COMMUNICATIONS.—There shall also be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter sales made to the United States Government, the state, or any county, municipality or political subdivision of this state; provided this exemption shall not include sales of tangible personal property made to contractors employed either directly or as agents of any such government or political subdivision thereof when such tangible personal property goes into or becomes a part of public works owned by such government or political subdivision thereof, except public works in progress or for which bonds or revenue certificates have been validated on or before August 1, 1959; and further provided this exemption shall not include sales, rental, use, consumption, or storage for use in any political subdivision or municipality in this state of machines and equipment and parts and accessories therefor used in the generation, transmission, or distribution of electrical energy by systems owned and operated by a political subdivision in this state except sales, rental, use, consumption or storage for which bonds or revenue certificates are validated on or before January 1, 1973, for transmission or distribution expansion. Likewise exempt are newspapers, film rentals, when an admission is charged for viewing such film, and charges for services rendered by radio and television stations, including line charges, talent fees or license fees and charges for films, video tapes, and transcriptions used in producing radio or television broadcasts.

(7) MISCELLANEOUS EXEMPTIONS.—

(a) Religious, charitable, educational, and veteran.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter articles of tangible personal property sold or leased direct to or by churches or sold or leased to nonprofit religious, nonprofit educational, or nonprofit charitable institutions and state headquarters for veteran organizations when used in carrying on their customary nonprofit religious, nonprofit educational, nonprofit charitable, or veteran organization activities, including church cemeteries.

(b) School books and school lunches.—This exemption shall apply to school books used in regularly prescribed courses of study, and school lunches served to students, in public, parochial or nonprofit schools operated for and attended by pupils of grades 1 through 12. School books and food sold or served at community colleges and other institutions of higher learning are taxable.

(c) Restrictive definitions.—The provisions of this section authorizing exemptions from tax shall be strictly defined, limited, and applied in each category as follows:

1. "Religious institutions" shall mean churches and established physical places for worship in this state at which nonprofit religious services and activities are regularly conducted and carried on.

2. "Educational institutions" shall mean state tax-supported or parochial, church and nonprofit private schools, colleges, or universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for accreditation by or membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Department of Education, or the Florida Council of Independent Schools. Nonprofit libraries, art galleries, and museums open to the public are defined as educational institutions and eligible for exemption. The term "educational institutions" shall include private nonprofit corporations whose purpose is to raise funds for colleges and universities located in this state.

3. "Charitable institutions" shall mean only nonprofit corporations operating physical facilities in Florida at which are provided charitable services, a reasonable percentage of which shall be without cost to those unable to pay.

4. "Veteran organizations" shall mean nationally chartered veteran organizations holding a current exemption from federal income tax under s. 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code, or, in the case of the Disabled American Veterans, Department of Florida, Inc., and its auxiliaries, under s. 501(c)(4) of said code.

(d) Hospital meals and rooms.—Also exempt from payment of the tax imposed by this chapter on rentals and meals are patients and inmates of any hospital or other physical plant or facility designed and operated primarily for the care of persons who are ill, aged, infirm, mentally or physically incapacitated or otherwise dependent on special care or attention.

(e) Professional services.—

1. Also exempted are professional, insurance or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

2. The above exempted personal service transactions do not exempt the sale of information services involving the furnishing of printed, mimeographed, multigraphed matter or matter duplicating written or printed matter in any other manner, other than professional services and services of employees, agents or other persons acting in a representative or fiduciary capacity or information services furnished to newspapers and radio and television stations. Information services shall mean and include the services of collecting, compiling or analyzing information of any kind or nature and furnishing reports thereof to other persons.

(f) Magazines.—There shall likewise be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter subscriptions to magazines entered as second-class mail sold for an annual or longer period of time.

(g) Volunteer fire departments.—Also exempt are firefighting and rescue service equipment and supplies purchased by volunteer fire departments, duly chartered under the Florida Statutes as corporations not for profit.

(h) Guide dogs for the blind.—Also exempt are the sale or rental of guide dogs for the blind, commonly referred to as "seeing-eye dogs," and the sale of food or other items for said guide dogs.

1. The department shall issue a consumer's certificate of exemption to any blind person who holds an identification card as provided for in s. 413.091 and who either owns or rents, or contemplates the ownership or rental of, a guide dog for the blind. The consumer's certificate of exemption shall be issued without charge and shall be of such size as to be capable of being carried in a wallet or billfold.

2. The department shall make such rules concerning items exempt from tax under the provisions of this paragraph as may be necessary to provide that any person authorized to have a consumer's certificate of exemption need only present such a certificate at the time of paying for exempt goods and shall not be required to pay any tax thereon.

(i) Household fuels.—Also exempt from payment of the tax imposed by this chapter are sales of utilities to residential households in this state by utility companies who pay the gross receipts tax imposed under s. 203.01, and sales of fuel to residential households, including oil, kerosene, liquefied petroleum gas, coal, wood and other fuel products used in the household for the purposes of heating, cooking, lighting, and refrigeration, regardless of whether such sales of utilities and fuels are separately metered and billed direct to the residents or are metered and billed to the landlord. If any part of the utility or fuel is used for a nonexempt purpose the entire sale shall be taxable. The landlord shall provide a separate meter for nonexempt utility or fuel consumption.

(j) Flags.—Also exempt are sales of the flag of the United States and the official state flag of Florida.

(k) Crustacea bait.—Also exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter shall be the purchase by commercial fishermen of bait intended solely for use in the entrapment of Callinectes sapidus and Menippe mercenaria.

(l) Meals provided by certain nonprofit organizations.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter the sale of prepared meals by a nonprofit volunteer organization to handicapped, elderly, or indigent persons when such meals are delivered as a charitable function by the organization to such persons at their place of residence.

(m) Artificial commemorative flowers.—Also exempted from the tax imposed by this chapter is the sale of artificial commemorative flowers by bona fide nationally chartered veterans' organizations.

(n) Aircraft.—Also exempt is any sale, including an occasional or isolated sale, of an aircraft to an air carrier which is based in the state and which is subject to regulation by the Florida Public Service Commission.

(o) "Boiler" fuels.—Purchases of natural gas, residual oil, coal, or wood, wood residues, or wood bark used in an industrial manufacturing, processing, compounding, or production process at a fixed location in this state shall be exempt from the taxes imposed by this chapter. This exemption shall not apply to the use of boiler fuels used by any firm subject to regulation by the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation.

(p) Resource recovery equipment.—Also exempt is resource recovery equipment which is owned and operated by or on behalf of any county or municipality, certified by the Department of Environmental Regulation under the provisions of s. 403.715.

(q) Solar energy systems and components.—Also exempt from payment of the tax imposed by this chapter is the sale at retail, rental, use, consumption, distribution, or storage to be used or consumed in this state of a solar energy system or any component thereof. The Florida Solar Energy Center shall from time to time certify to the department a list of equipment and requisite hardware considered to be a solar energy system or component thereof. This paragraph is repealed effective June 30, 1984.

(8) PARTIAL EXEMPTIONS, VESSELS ENGAGED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE.—

(a) The sale or use of vessels and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce shall be subject to the taxes imposed in this chapter only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage traveled by the carrier during the previous fiscal year. The ratio would be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio shall be applied to the total purchases of such vessels and parts thereof each month to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to the tax at the applicable rate. Items, appropriate to carry out the purposes for which a vessel is designed or equipped and used, purchased by the owner, operator, or agent of a vessel for use on board such vessel shall be deemed to be parts of the vessel upon which the same are used or consumed. Vessels and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate and foreign commerce are hereby determined to be susceptible to a distinct and separate classification for taxation under the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The partial exemption provided for in this subsection shall not be allowed unless the purchaser signs an affidavit stating that the item or items to be partially exempted are for the exclusive use designated herein and setting forth the extent of such partial exemption. Any person furnishing a false affidavit to such effect for the purpose of evading payment of any tax imposed under this chapter shall be subject to the penalties set forth in s. 212.12 and as otherwise provided by law.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature that neither subsection (4) or this subsection, whether as currently in effect or as amended by chapter 73-240, Laws of Florida, and in effect between June 22, 1973, and June 13, 1977, shall be construed as imposing the tax provided by this chapter on vessels used as common carriers, contract carriers, or private carriers, engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, except to the extent provided by the pro-rata formula provided in subsection (4) and in paragraph (a).

(9) PARTIAL EXEMPTIONS, VEHICLES ENGAGED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE.—Vehicles which are licensed as common carriers by the Interstate Commerce Commission or by the Civil Aeronautics Board and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce are subject to tax imposed in this chapter only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage traveled by the carrier during the previous fiscal year of the carrier, such ratio to be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio shall be applied each month to the total purchases of such vehicles and parts thereof which are used in Florida to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to tax under this chapter. Vehicles which are licensed as common carriers by the Interstate Commerce Commission or the Civil Aeronautics Board and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate and foreign commerce are hereby determined to be susceptible to a distinct and separate classification for taxation under the provisions of this chapter.

(10) PARTIAL EXEMPTION; MOTOR VEHICLE SOLD TO RESIDENT OF ANOTHER STATE.—The tax collected on the sale of a new or used motor vehicle in this state to a resident of another state shall be an amount equal to the sales tax which would be imposed on such sale under the laws of the state of which the purchaser is a resident, except that such tax shall not exceed the tax that would otherwise be imposed under this chapter. At the time of the sale, the purchaser shall execute a notarized statement of his intent to license the vehicle in the state of which he is a resident within 10 days of the sale and of the fact of the payment to the State of Florida of a sales tax in an amount equivalent to the sales tax of his state of residence and shall submit the statement to the appropriate sales tax collection agency in his state of residence.

(11) PARTIAL EXEMPTION; FLYABLE AIRCRAFT.—

(a) The tax imposed on the sale by a manufacturer of flyable aircraft, who designs such aircraft, which sale may include necessary equipment and modifications placed on such flyable aircraft prior to delivery by the manufacturer, shall be an amount equal to the sales tax which would be imposed on such sale under the laws of the state in which the aircraft will be domiciled.

(b) This partial exemption shall only apply if the purchaser is a resident of another state who will not use the aircraft in this state, or if the purchaser is a resident of another state and uses the aircraft in interstate or foreign commerce, or if the purchaser is a resident of a foreign country.

(c) The maximum tax collectible under this subsection shall not exceed 4 percent of the sales price of such aircraft. No Florida tax shall be imposed on the sale of such aircraft if the state in which the aircraft will be domiciled does not allow Florida sales or use tax to be credited against its sales or use tax. Furthermore, no tax shall be imposed on the sale of such aircraft if the state in which the aircraft will be domiciled has enacted a sales and use tax exemption for flyable aircraft or if the aircraft will be domiciled outside the United States.

(d) The purchaser shall execute a sworn affidavit attesting that he is not a resident of Florida and stating where the aircraft will be domiciled. If the aircraft is subsequently used in this state within 6 months of the time of purchase, in violation of the intent of this subsection, the purchaser shall be liable for payment of the full use tax imposed by this chapter and shall be subject to the penalty imposed by s. 212.12(2), which penalty shall be mandatory.

(e) The provisions of s. 212.12(1) notwithstanding, manufacturers of flyable aircraft granted the partial sales tax exemption under this subsection shall be allowed to retain a 10 percent deduction of the amount of sales tax due on sales of flyable aircraft manufactured by them if such manufacturers conform to the provisions of this chapter.

(12) No transactions shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter except those expressly exempted herein. Except for s. 423.02, all special or general laws granting tax exemptions, to the extent they may be inconsistent or in conflict with this chapter, including but not limited to the following designated laws, shall yield to and be superseded by the provisions of this subsection: ss. 153.76, 258.14, 315.11, 323.15(6), 340.20, 348.65, 348.762, 349.13, 374.132, 616.07, 623.09, 637.131, 637.151, 637.291, and 637.311 and the following Laws of Florida, acts of the year indicated: s. 31, ch. 30843, 1955; s. 19, ch. 30845, 1955; s. 12, ch. 30927, 1955; s. 8, ch. 31179, 1955; s. 15, ch. 31263, 1955; s. 13, ch. 31343, 1955; s. 16, ch. 59-1653; s. 13, ch. 59-1356; s. 12, ch. 61-2261; s. 19, ch. 61-2754; s. 10, ch. 61-2686; s. 11, ch. 63-1643; s. 11, ch. 65-1274; s. 16, ch. 67-1446; and s. 10, ch. 67-1681.

212.081 Legislative intent.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent of the amendments to ss. 212.08, 212.11(1), 212.12(10) and 212.20 by chapter 57-398, Laws of Florida:

(1) To raise the additional revenue required to meet the appropriations of the Legislature, by amending the sales and use tax exemptions previously allowed on clothing, fabrics, lubricating oil and grease and cigarettes included in this section. By amending the sales and use tax exemption on alcoholic and malt beverages to exclude from such exemption alcoholic and malt beverages consumed on the premises, and imposing a partial tax on motor vehicles, by increasing the tax on industrial machinery from $300 to $1,000 and further restricting and clarifying the definition of such machinery; and by eliminating all other exemptions allowed by s. 212.08, not specifically mentioned herein.

(2) To aid in the enforcement of this chapter by recognizing the effect of court rulings involving such enforcement and to incorporate herein substantial rulings of the department which have been recognized as necessary to supplement the interpretation of some of the terms used in this section.

(3) To arrange the exemptions allowed in this section in more orderly categories thereby eliminating some of the confusion attendant upon the present arrangement where cross-exemptions frequently occur.

(a) It is further declared to be the legislative intent that the tax levied by this chapter and imposed by this section is not a tax on motor vehicles as property but a tax on the privilege to sell, to rent, to use or to store for use in this state motor vehicles; that such tax is separate from and in addition to any license tax imposed on motor vehicles; and that such tax is not intended as an ad valorem tax on motor vehicles as prohibited by the constitution.

(b) It is also the legislative intent that there shall be no pyramiding or duplication of excise taxes levied by the state under this chapter and no municipality shall levy any excise tax upon any privilege, admission, lease, rental, sale, use or storage for use or consumption which is subject to a tax under this chapter unless permitted by general law; provided, however, that this provision shall not impair valid municipal ordinances which are in effect and under which a municipal tax is being levied and collected on July 1, 1957.

(4) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that revenue produced by this law [ch. 59-402 amending s. 212.08(5) and (7)] together with other available general revenue in excess of money required to meet the general revenue appropriations shall accrue to the sixth fund, the same being the Working Capital Fund, as provided by law.

(5) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that all purchases made by banks are subject to state sales tax in the same manner as is provided by law for all other purchasers. It is further declared to be the legislative intent that if for any reason the sales tax on federal banks is declared invalid, that sales tax shall not apply or be applicable to purchases made by state banks.

212.085 Fraudulent claim of exemption; penalties.—When any person shall fraudulently, for the purpose of evading tax, issue to a vendor or to any agent of the state a certificate or statement in writing in which he claims exemption from sales tax, such person, in addition to being liable for payment of the tax plus a mandatory penalty of 100 percent of the tax, shall be liable for fine and punishment as provided by law for a conviction of a misdemeanor of the second degree, as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-59.

212.09 Trade-ins deducted.—

(1) Where used articles are taken in trade, or a series of trades, as a credit or part payment on the sale of new articles, the tax levied by this chapter shall be paid on the sales price of the new article, less the credit for the used article taken in trade.

(2) Where used articles are taken in trade, or a series of trades, as a credit or part payment on the sale of used articles, the tax levied by this chapter shall be paid on the sales price of the used article less the credit for the used article taken in trade.

History.—s. 9, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.091 Written agreements for improvement of real estate; refund.—In all cases of written agreements for the improvement of real property which become binding before April 1, 1968, the contractor making said improvements shall pay the sales or use tax at the rates provided in this chapter. However, upon application by said contractor or assigns to the department within 3 years after the effective date of this chapter, and upon sworn proof by said contractor or assigns of the existence of such binding written agreement and of payment of such additional sales or use taxes, the department shall forthwith make refund to the applicant of said additional sales or use taxes.

212.10 Sale of business; liability for tax, procedure, penalty for violation.—

(1) If any dealer liable for any tax, interest or penalty levied hereunder shall sell out his business or stock of goods, he shall make a final return and payment within 15 days after the date of selling the business; his successor, successors, or assigns, shall withhold a sufficient portion of the purchase money to safely cover the account of such taxes, interest, or penalties due and unpaid until such former owner shall produce a receipt from the department showing that they have been paid or a certificate stating that no taxes, interest, or penalty are due. If the purchasers of a business or stock of goods shall fail to withhold sufficient amount of the purchase money as above provided, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the taxes, interest and penalties accruing and unpaid on account of the operation of the business by any former owner, owners or assigns.

(2) If any dealer liable for any tax, interest or penalty shall quit the business without the benefit of a purchaser and there is no successor, successors or assigns, he shall make a final return and payment within 15 days. Any person failing to file such final return and make payment shall be denied the right to engage in any business in the state until he has filed such final return and paid any moneys due, and the Department of Legal Affairs is hereby authorized to proceed by injunction, when requested by the department to do so, to prevent by injunction any activity in the performance of further business activity until such tax is paid, and any temporary injunction enjoining further business activity shall be granted without notice by any judge or chancellor authorized by law to grant injunctions.

(3) In the event any dealer is delinquent in the payment of the tax herein provided for, the department may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to such dealer or owing any debts to such dealer at the time of receipt by them of such notice. All persons so notified shall within 5 days after receipt of the notice advise the department of all such credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession, under their control, or owing by them. After receiving the notice the persons so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of the credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession or under their control at the time they receive the notice until the department consents to a transfer or disposition or until 60 days elapse after the receipt of the notice, whichever period expires the earlier. All persons notified shall likewise within 5 days advise the department of any subsequent credits or other personal property belonging to such dealer or any debts incurred and owing to such dealer which may come within their possession or under their control during the time prescribed by the notice or until the department consents to a transfer or disposition whichever expires the earlier. If such notice seeks to prevent the transfer or other disposition of a deposit in a bank or other credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, the notice to be effective shall be delivered or mailed to the office of such bank at which such deposit is carried or at which such credits or personal property is held. If, during the effective period of the notice to withhold, any person so notified makes any transfer or disposition of the property or debts required to be withheld hereunder, to the extent of the value of the property or the amount of the debts thus transferred or paid he shall be liable to the state for any indebtedness due under this chapter from the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given if solely by reason of such transfer or disposition the state is unable to recover the indebtedness of the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given. All such credits or other personal property or debts are subject to garnishment by the department for satisfaction of the delinquent tax due.

(4) Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 10, ch. 26319, 1949; s. 1, ch. 59-426; s. 3, ch. 61-276; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; s. 6, ch. 67-180; ss. 11, 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 124, ch. 71-136.

212.11 Tax returns and regulations.—

(1) The taxes levied hereunder upon rentals, admissions, and sales of tangible personal property shall be due and payable monthly on the first day of each month, and for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under this chapter, it shall be the duty of all dealers to make a return, on or before the 20th day of the month, to the department, upon forms prepared and furnished by it, showing the rentals, admissions, gross sales or purchases as the case may be, arising from all leases, rentals, admissions, sales or purchases taxable under this chapter during the preceding calendar month; however, the department may authorize a quarterly return and payment when the tax remitted by the dealer for the preceding quarter did not exceed $100 and may authorize a semiannual return and payment when the tax remitted by the dealer for the preceding 6 months did not exceed $200. The department shall accept returns if postmarked on or before the 20th day of the month; if the 20th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or state legal holiday, returns shall be accepted if postmarked on the next succeeding workday. Any dealer who operates two or more places of business for which returns are required to be filed with the department, and who maintains records for such places of business in a central office or place, shall have the privilege on each reporting date of filing a consolidated return for all such places of business in lieu of separate returns for each such place of business; however, such consolidated returns must clearly indicate the amounts collected within each county of the state.

(2) Gross proceeds from rentals or leases of tangible personal property shall be reported and the tax shall be paid with respect thereto in accordance with such rules and regulations as the department may prescribe.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, it is hereby declared to be the intention of this chapter to impose a tax on the gross proceeds of all leases and rentals of tangible personal property in this state where the lease or rental is a part of the regularly established business, or the same is incidental or germane thereto.

History.—s. 11, ch. 26319, 1949; s. 10, ch. 26871, 1951; s. 2, ch. 57-398; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; s. 7, ch. 67-180; s. 15, ch. 68-27; s. 19, ch. 69-222; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-85; s. 1, ch. 75-50; s. 2, ch. 78-59; s. 2, ch. 78-250.

212.12 Dealer's credit for collecting tax; penalties for noncompliance; powers of Department of Revenue in dealing with delinquents; brackets applicable to taxable transactions; records required.—

(1) For the purpose of compensating the lessors of real and personal property taxed hereunder, and for the purpose of compensating dealers in tangible personal property and for the purpose of compensating owners of places where admissions are collected, as compensation for the keeping of prescribed records and the proper accounting and remitting of taxes by them, such seller, lessor, owner and dealer shall be allowed 3 percent of the amount of the tax due and accounted for and remitted to the department, in the form of a deduction in submitting his report and paying the amount due by him, and the department shall allow the said deduction of 3 percent of the amount of the tax to the person paying the same for remitting the tax in the manner herein provided, and for paying the amount due to be paid by him provided, however, that the 3 percent allowance shall not be granted nor shall any deduction be permitted where the tax is delinquent at the time of payment, or where there is a manifest failure to maintain proper records or make proper prescribed reports; and as further compensation to dealers in tangible personal property for the keeping of prescribed records and collection of taxes and remitting the same.

(2) When any person, firm, or corporation required hereunder to make any return or to pay any tax imposed by this chapter shall fail to make such return or shall fail to pay such tax, within the time required hereunder, in addition to all other penalties provided herein, and by the laws of Florida in respect to such taxes, a specific penalty shall be added to the tax in the amount of 5 percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 percent for each additional 30 days, or fraction thereof, during the time which the failure continues, not to exceed, however, a total penalty of 25 percent in the aggregate; however, in no event shall the penalty be less than $5. In the case of a false or fraudulent return or a willful intent to evade payment of any tax imposed under this chapter, in addition to the other penalties provided by law, the person making such false or fraudulent return or willfully attempting to evade the payment of such a tax shall be liable to a specific penalty of 50 percent of the tax bill and for fine and punishment as provided by law for a conviction of a misdemeanor of the second degree.

(3) When any dealer, or other person charged herein, fails to remit the tax, or any portion thereof, on or before the day when such tax shall be required by law to be paid, there shall be added to the amount due interest at the rate of 1 percent per month of the amount due from the date due until paid.

(4) All penalties and interest imposed by this chapter shall be payable to and collectible by the department in the same manner as if they were a part of the tax imposed.

(5) The department, for good cause shown by written request, may extend, but not to exceed 30 days, the time for making any returns required under the provisions of this chapter, and may compromise penalties after its investigation reveals that the penalty would be too severe or unjust, but interest shall be collected. If an extension is granted, there shall be collected a charge of 0.75 percent of the tax to be remitted, for an extension of 15 days or less, or a charge of 1.5 percent of such tax, for an extension of more than 15 days. No other penalty or interest shall be collected if such tax is remitted within the extension time granted. In lieu of paying the interest charge imposed by this subsection, a dealer may remit an estimated amount of tax by the 20th day of the month following the month of collection. Any dealer who remits an estimated tax payment shall be granted a normal extension period in which to file and remit the actual tax due without the interest charge provided hereunder being imposed, unless the estimated tax payment remitted by the dealer is less than 90 percent of the actual tax due for that month.

(6)(a) The department is authorized to audit or inspect the records and accounts of dealers defined herein and correct by credit any overpayment of tax and, in the event of a deficiency, an assessment shall be made and collected. No administrative finding of fact is necessary prior to the assessment of any tax deficiency.

(b) In the event any dealer or other person charged herein fails or refuses to make his records available for inspection so that no audit or examination has been made of the books and records of such dealer or person, fails or refuses to register as a dealer or fails to make a report and pay the tax as provided by this chapter; or makes a grossly incorrect report, or makes a report that is false or fraudulent, then, in such event, it shall be the duty of the department to make an assessment from an estimate based upon the best information then available to it for the taxable period of retail sales of such dealer, the gross proceeds from rentals, the total admissions received, amounts received from leases of tangible personal property by such dealer, or of the cost price of all articles of tangible personal property imported by the dealer for use or consumption or distribution or storage to be used or consumed in this state, together with interest, plus penalty, if such have accrued, as the case may be. Then the department shall proceed to collect such taxes, interest and penalty on the basis of such assessment, which shall be considered prima facie correct; and the burden to show the contrary shall rest upon the dealer, seller, owner or lessor, as the case may be.

(7) The department is given the power to prescribe the records to be kept by all persons subject to taxes imposed by this chapter and it shall be the duty of every person required to make a report and pay any tax under this chapter, and every person receiving rentals, and owners of places of admission, to keep and preserve suitable records of the sales, leases, rentals, admissions, or purchases, as the case may be, taxable under this chapter, and such other books of account as may be necessary to determine the amount of the tax due hereunder, and other information as may be required by the department; and it shall be the duty of every such person so charged with such duty, moreover, to keep and preserve, for a period of 3 years, all invoices and other records of goods, wares and merchandise, records of admissions, leases and rentals and all other subjects of taxation under this chapter; and all such books, invoices and other records shall be open to examination at all reasonable hours to the department or any of its duly authorized agents.

(8) In the event the dealer has imported the tangible personal property and he fails to produce an invoice showing the cost price of the articles as defined in this chapter, which are subject to tax, or the invoice does not reflect the true or actual cost price as defined herein, then the department shall ascertain, in any manner feasible, the true cost price, and assess and collect the tax thereon with interest plus penalties, if such have accrued on the true cost price as assessed by it. The assessment so made shall be considered prima facie correct, and the duty shall be on the dealer to show to the contrary.

(9) In the case of the lease or rental of tangible personal property, or other rentals as herein defined and taxed, if the consideration given or reported by the lessor, person receiving rental or dealer does not, in the judgment of the department, represent the true or actual consideration, then the department is authorized to ascertain the same and assess and collect the tax thereon in the same manner as above provided, with respect to imported tangible property, together with interest, plus penalties, if such have accrued.

(10) Taxes imposed by this chapter upon the privilege of the use, consumption, or storage for consumption, or sale of tangible personal property, admissions and rentals, and communication services as herein taxed shall be collected upon the basis of an addition of the tax imposed by this chapter to the total price of such admissions, rentals, communication services or sale price of such article or articles that are purchased, sold or leased at any one time by or to a customer or buyer, and the dealer, or person charged herein, is required to pay a privilege tax in the amount of the tax imposed by this chapter on the total of his gross sales of tangible personal property, admissions, and rentals, communication services and such person or dealer shall add the tax imposed by this chapter to the price, rental or admissions, and communication services and collect the total sum from the purchaser, admittee, lessee or consumer. Notwithstanding the rate of taxes imposed upon the privilege of sales, admissions and rentals, and communication services, the following brackets shall be applicable to all 4 percent taxable transactions:

(a) On single sales of less than 10 cents no tax shall be added.

(b) On single sales in amounts from 10 cents to 25 cents, both inclusive, 1 cent shall be added for taxes.

(c) On sales in amounts from 26 cents to 50 cents, both inclusive, 2 cents shall be added for taxes.

(d) On sales in amounts from 51 cents to 75 cents, both inclusive, 3 cents shall be added for taxes.

(e) On sales in amounts from 76 cents to $1, both inclusive, 4 cents shall be added for taxes.

(f) On sales in amounts of more than $1, 4 percent shall be charged upon each dollar of price, plus the above bracket charges upon any fractional part of a dollar.

(11) In charter counties which have adopted the discretionary 1 percent tax, the following brackets shall be applicable to all taxable transactions which would otherwise have been 4 percent taxable transactions:

(a) On single sales of less than 10 cents, no tax shall be added.

(b) On single sales in amounts from 10 cents to 20 cents, both inclusive, 1 cent shall be added for taxes.

(c) On sales in amounts from 21 cents to 40 cents, both inclusive, 2 cents shall be added for taxes.

(d) On sales in amounts from 41 cents to 60 cents, both inclusive, 3 cents shall be added for taxes.

(e) On sales in amounts from 61 cents to 80 cents, both inclusive, 4 cents shall be added for taxes.

(f) On sales in amounts from 81 cents to $1, both inclusive, 5 cents shall be added for taxes.

(g) On sales in amounts from $1 up to, and including, the first $1,000 in price, 5 percent shall be charged upon each dollar of price, plus the above bracket charges upon any fractional part of a dollar.

(h) On sales in amounts of more than $1,000 in price, 5 percent shall be added upon the first $1,000 in price; and 4 percent shall be added upon each dollar of price in excess of the first $1,000 in price, plus the bracket charges upon any fractional part of a dollar as provided for in subsection (10).

(12) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that wherever in the construction, administration or enforcement of this chapter there may be any question respecting a duplication of the tax, that the end consumer, or last retail sale shall be the sale intended to be taxed and insofar as may be practicable there be no duplication or pyramiding of the tax.

(13) In order to aid the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rentals, each lessor of any hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp, or any interest therein, or any portion thereof, inclusive of owners, property managers, lessors, landlords, hotel, apartment house and roominghouse operators and all licensed real estate agents within the state leasing or renting such property, shall be required to keep a record of each and every such lease or rental transaction which is taxable under this chapter, in such a manner and upon such forms as the department may prescribe, and to report such transaction to the department or its designated agents, and to maintain such records for a period of not less than 3 years, subject to the inspection of the department and its agents, and upon failure by such owner, property manager, lessor, landlord, hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp operator, or real estate agent to keep and maintain such records and to make such reports upon the forms and in the manner prescribed, such owner, property manager, lessor, landlord, hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, tourist or trailer camp operator, receiver of rent, or real estate agent shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, for the first offense; and for subsequent offenses, they shall each be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 12, ch. 26319, 1949; s. 11, ch. 26871, 1951; s. 3, ch. 57-109; s. 3, ch. 57-398; s. 4, ch. 61-276; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 10, ch. 65-329; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; s. 8, ch. 67-180; s. 13, ch. 68-27; s. 17, ch. 69-222; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 125, ch. 71-136; s. 10, ch. 76-261; s. 3, ch. 76-284; s. 3, ch. 78-59.

212.13 Records required to be kept; power to inspect.—

(1) For the purpose of enforcing the collection of the tax levied by this chapter, the department is hereby specifically authorized and empowered to examine at all reasonable hours the books, records and other documents of all transportation companies, agencies, or firms that conduct their business by truck, rail, water, aircraft, or otherwise, in order to determine what dealers, or other persons charged with the duty to report or pay a tax under this chapter, are importing or are otherwise shipping in articles or tangible personal property which are liable for said tax. In the event said transportation company, agency or firm shall refuse to permit such examination of its books, records, or other documents by the department as aforesaid, it shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. The department shall have the right to proceed in any chancery court to seek a mandatory injunction or other appropriate remedy to enforce its right against the offender, as granted by this section, to require an examination of the books and records of such transportation company or carrier.

(2) Each dealer, as defined in this chapter, shall secure, maintain, and keep for a period of 3 years a complete record of tangible personal property received, used, sold at retail, distributed or stored, leased or rented by said dealer, together with invoices, bills of lading, gross receipts from such sales and other pertinent records and papers as may be required by the department for the reasonable administration of this chapter, and all such records which are located or maintained in this state shall be open for inspection by the department at all reasonable hours at such dealer's store, sales office, general office, warehouse or place of business located in this state. Any dealer who maintains such books and records at a point outside this state must make such books and records available for inspection by the department where the general records are kept. Any dealer subject to the provisions of this chapter who violates these provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) For the purpose of enforcement of this chapter, every manufacturer and seller of tangible personal property licensed within this state is required to permit the department to examine his books and records at all reasonable hours, and upon his refusal the department may require him to permit such examination by resort to the circuit courts of this state, subject however to the right of removal of the cause to the judicial circuit wherein such person's business is located or wherein such person's books and records are kept, provided further that such person's books and records are kept within the state.

(4) For the further purpose of enforcement of this chapter every wholesaler of tangible personal property licensed within this state is required to permit the department to examine his books and records at all reasonable hours. He must also maintain such books and records for a period of not less than 3 years in order to disclose the sales of all goods sold, and to whom sold, and also the amount of items sold, in such form and in such manner as the department may reasonably require, and so as to permit the department to determine the volume of goods sold by wholesalers to dealers, as defined under this chapter, and the dates and amounts of sales made. The department may require any manufacturer or wholesaler who refuses to keep such records or to permit such inspection through the circuit courts of Florida to submit to such inspection, subject however to the right of removal of the cause as hereinbefore provided in this section.

212.14 Department's powers; hearings, subpoena; distress warrants; time for assessments.—

(1) Any person required to pay a tax imposed under this chapter, or to make a return, either or both, and who renders a return or makes a payment of a tax with intent to deceive or defraud the state, and to prevent the state from collecting the amount of taxes imposed by this chapter, or otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter for the taxable period for which any return is made, or any tax is paid, or any report is made to the department, may be required by the department to show cause at a time and place to be set by the department, after 10 days' notice in writing requiring such books, records or papers as the department may require relating to the business of such person for such tax period, and the department may require such person, or persons, or their employee or employees to give testimony under oath and answer interrogatories by the department, or an assistant, respecting the sale, use, consumption, distribution or storage rental of real or personal property within the state, or admissions collected therein, or the failure to make a true report thereof, as provided by this chapter, or failure to pay the true amount of the tax required to be paid under this chapter. At said hearing, in the event such person fails to produce such books, records or papers, or to appear and answer questions within the scope and investigation relating to matters concerning taxes to be imposed under this chapter, or prevents or impedes his or her agents or employees from giving testimony, then the department is authorized under this chapter to estimate any unpaid deficiencies in taxes to be assessed against such person upon such information as may be available to it and to issue a distress warrant for the collection of such taxes, interest or penalties estimated by him to be due and payable, and such assessment shall be deemed prima facie correct. In such cases said warrant shall be issued to any sheriff in the state where such person owns or possesses any property and such property as may be required to satisfy any such taxes, interest or penalties shall be by such sheriff seized and sold under said distress warrant in the same manner as property is permitted to be seized and sold under distress warrants issued to secure the payments of delinquent taxes as hereinafter provided, and the department shall also have the right to writ of garnishment to subject any indebtedness due to the delinquent dealer by a third person in any goods, money, chattels or effects of the delinquent dealer in the hands, possession or control of the third person in the manner provided by law. Respecting the place for the holding of a hearing, by the department or its agents, as provided in this section, the person whose tax return or report being investigated may by written request to the department require the hearing be set at a place within the judicial circuit of Florida wherein the person's business is located, or within the judicial circuit of Florida wherein such person's books and records are kept.

(2) Wherever returns are required to be made to the department hereunder the full amount of the taxes required to be paid as shown by said return shall be paid and accompany said return, and the failure to remit said full amount of taxes at the time of making said return shall cause said taxes to become delinquent. All taxes and all interest and penalties imposed under this chapter shall be paid to the department at Tallahassee, or to such designated offices throughout the state as the department may from time to time designate and in the form of remittance required by it.

(3) The department may require all reports of taxes to be paid under this chapter to be accompanied with a written statement, of the person or by an officer of any firm or corporation required to pay such taxes setting forth such facts as the department may reasonably require in order to advise the department as to the amount of taxes that are due and payable upon said return. Filing of return not accompanied by payment is prima facie evidence of conversion of the money due. Any person or any duly authorized corporation officer or agent, members of any firm or incorporated society, or organization who refuses to make a return and pay the taxes due, as required by the department and in the manner and in the form that the department may require, or to state in writing that the return is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, as so required by the department, shall be subject to a penalty of 6 percent per annum of the amount due and shall upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. The signing of a written return shall have the same legal effect as if made under oath without the necessity of appending such oath thereto.

(4) In all cases where it is necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the department shall require a cash deposit, bond or other security as a condition to a person obtaining or retaining a dealer's certificate of registration under this chapter. Such bond shall be in the form and such amount as the department deems appropriate under the particular circumstances. Every person failing to produce such cash deposit, bond or other security as provided for herein shall not be entitled to obtain or retain a dealer's certificate of registration under this chapter, and the Department of Legal Affairs is hereby authorized to proceed by injunction, when so requested by the Department of Revenue, to prevent such person from doing business subject to the provisions of this chapter until such cash deposit, bond or other security is posted with the department, and any temporary injunction for this purpose may be granted by any judge or chancellor authorized by law to grant injunctions. Any security required to be deposited may be sold by the department at public sale if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any tax, interest or penalty due. Notice of such sale may be served personally or by mail upon the person who deposited such security. If by mail, notice sent to the last known address as the same appears on the records of the department shall be sufficient for the purpose of this requirement. Upon such sale, the surplus, if any, above the amount due under this chapter shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

(5) Any person entering into a contract for the repair, alteration, construction or improvement of realty who is required to obtain a contractor's occupational license under the laws of this state shall, before entering into the performance of such contract, secure a dealer's certificate of registration, unless such person has held such contractor's occupational license for a period of at least 12 months immediately preceding the date of the contract. As a prerequisite for the issuance of such dealer's certificate of registration, the dealer shall execute and file with the department a good and valid bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, or with sufficient sureties to be approved by the department, conditioned that all taxes which may accrue to the state under this chapter will be paid when due; provided, however, that any taxpayer may pay the tax in advance on any contract in lieu of furnishing bond. Every person failing to procure the certificate of registration required by this law shall be denied the right to perform such contract until he complies with such requirement, and the Department of Legal Affairs is hereby authorized to proceed by injunction, when so requested by the Department of Revenue, to prevent any activity in the performance of such contract until the certificate of registration is secured, and any temporary injunction enjoining the execution of such contract may be granted without notice by any judge or chancellor now authorized by law to grant injunctions. The bond shall remain in full force and effect during the terms of the contract or until such time as the department has issued a formal certificate of clearance stating that the tax due on the contract has been paid.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed under this chapter may be determined and assessed within 3 years after the first day of the month following the date on which the tax becomes due and payable. However, this limitation shall be tolled by a request for inspection and examination of a dealer's books and records by the department within that period, in which event the period for which tax due may be determined and assessed shall be the 3 years immediately preceding the first day of the month in which a request for inspection and examination of the books and records has been made by the department.

(7) The department or any person authorized by it in writing is authorized to make and sign assessments, tax warrants, assignments of tax warrants and satisfaction of tax warrants.

212.141 Validation of assessments made prior to July 1, 1965.—

(1) Any tax assessment made under the authority of chapter 212, prior to July 1, 1965, by the State Comptroller or by any employee, agent or assistant authorized by the comptroller to make such assessment or by the State Revenue Commission or by any employee, agent or assistant of the commission authorized by the commission to make such assessment is validated and confirmed as an act of the State Comptroller or the commission, as the case may be.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that any such assessment made as provided in subsection (1) when such assessment is made on forms or stationery bearing the letterhead of the State Comptroller or State Revenue Commission is hereby validated and confirmed as an act of the State Comptroller or the State Revenue Commission, as the case may be, whether or not the word "State Comptroller" or "State Revenue Commission" appears above the signature of the person signing said assessment.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 65-2443.

212.15 Taxes declared state funds; penalties for failure to remit taxes; due and delinquent dates; judicial review.—

(1) The taxes imposed by this chapter shall become state funds at the moment of collection and shall for each month be due to the department on the first day of the succeeding month and delinquent on the 21st day of such month. All returns postmarked after the 20th day of such month are delinquent.

(2) Any person who, with intent to unlawfully deprive or defraud the state of its moneys or the use or benefit thereof, fails to remit taxes collected pursuant to this chapter is guilty of theft of state funds, punishable as follows:

(a) If the total amount of stolen revenue is less than $100, the offense is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Upon a second conviction within a 36-month period, the offender is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Upon a third or subsequent conviction within a 3-year period, the offender is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the total amount of stolen revenue is $100 or more, the offense is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(c) If the total amount of stolen revenue is $20,000 or more, the offense is a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Prosecution of a misdemeanor under this section shall commence no later than 2 years from the date of the offense. Prosecution of a felony under this section shall commence no later than 5 years from the date of the offense.

(4) All taxes collected under this chapter shall be remitted to the department. In addition to criminal sanctions, the department is empowered, and it shall be its duty, when any tax becomes delinquent or is otherwise in jeopardy under this chapter, to issue a warrant for the full amount of the tax due or estimated to be due, with the interest, penalties, and cost of collection, directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state, and mail the warrant to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where any property of the taxpayer is located. Upon receipt of the warrant, the clerk of the circuit court shall record it, and thereupon the amount of the warrant shall become a lien on any real or personal property of the taxpayer in the same manner as a recorded judgment. The department may issue a tax execution to enforce the collection of taxes imposed by this chapter and deliver it to any sheriff. The sheriff shall thereupon proceed in the same manner as prescribed by law for executions and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant to be collected. The department may also have a writ of garnishment to subject any indebtedness due to the delinquent dealer by a third person in any goods, money, chattels, or effects of the delinquent dealer in the hands, possession, or control of the third person in the manner provided by law for the payment of the tax due. Upon payment of the execution, warrant, judgment, or garnishment, the department shall satisfy the lien of record within 30 days.

(5) In any action involving the legality of any tax assessed under this chapter, the court shall inquire into and determine the legality and validity of the same and shall render decrees setting aside such tax assessment or any part of the same which is contrary to law, provided that the complainant shall in every case, except when the taxes assessed, including interest and penalties, have been paid to the department prior to the institution of suit, tender into court and file with the complaint the full amount of the assessment complained of, including any interest and penalties included in such assessment, or file with the complaint a cash bond or a surety bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state or by such sureties as may be approved by the court, conditioned to satisfy any judgment or decree in full, including the taxes complained of, costs, interest, and penalties.

212.151 Jurisdiction of suits for violation of Revenue Act; collection of tax; service on retailers, dealers or vendors not qualified to do business in state.—

(1) All suits brought hereafter by the department against any retailer, dealer, or vendor for any violation of this chapter, and for the purpose of effecting collection of any tax due from any dealer, including garnishment proceedings regardless of the amount, shall be brought thereon in the circuit courts of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter.

(2) Every retailer, dealer or vendor not qualified to do business in this state shall designate with the department an agent for service within the state, for the purpose of enforcing this chapter. If a retailer, dealer or vendor has not designated, or shall fail to designate, with the department an agent for service within the state, then the Secretary of State shall be deemed the agent for service, or any agent or employee of the retailer, dealer or vendor within the state shall be deemed agent for service.

History.—s. 10, ch. 29883, 1955; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; s. 13, ch. 67-180; ss. 10, 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

212.16 Importation of goods; permits; seizure for noncompliance; procedure; review.—

(1) For the protection of the revenue of this state, to prevent the illegal importation of tangible personal property which is subject to tax in this state, and to strengthen and make more effective the manner and method of enforcing payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, the department is hereby authorized and empowered to put into operation a system of permits whereby any person or dealer as defined in this chapter may import tangible personal property by truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier, without having said truck, automobile, or other means of transportation, seized and subjected to legal proceedings for its forfeiture. Such system of permits shall require the person or dealer who desires to import tangible personal property into this state, which property is subject to tax imposed by this chapter, to apply to the department or its designated agent for a certificate of registration and a permit stating the kind of vehicle used, the name of the driver, the license number of the vehicle, the kind or character of tangible personal property to be imported, the date, the name and address of the consignee and such other information as the department may deem necessary to prevent the illegal transportation of tangible personal property into this state. Such certificate of registration and permit shall be free of cost to the applicant and forms for such certificate of registration and permit may be obtained from the department or its designated agents.

(2) The importation into this state of tangible personal property which is subject to tax, by truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier without having first obtained a certificate of registration and permit as hereinabove described, (if the tax imposed by this chapter on the said tangible personal property has not been paid) shall be construed as an attempt to evade payment of the said tax and the same is hereby prohibited and the said truck, automobile or other means of transportation, other than that of common carrier, and said taxable property may be seized by the department in order to secure the same as evidence in a trial and the same shall be subject to forfeiture and sale in the manner provided for in this chapter. No certificate of registration or permit shall be required to transport personal effects of a driver, owner, or passengers of any private automobile or carrier vehicle not engaged in carrying goods for resale within the state. The department may issue a certificate of registration and permit to a person who is regularly or frequently importing into this state tangible personal property in trucks owned by him in connection with his own business, requiring that reports, copies of sales documents, and other information may be filed at regular or frequent intervals with the department after importation of tangible personal property subject to the tax, and the department may require as a condition for the issuance of such certificate of registration and permit that such person post a bond payable to the department in an amount sufficient to guarantee payment of the tax on such goods as may be imported by such person, which amount the department shall set.

(3) Subject to the above stated exception of private vehicles, any truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier which is used to import into this state tangible personal property which is subject to tax under this chapter, together with the contents thereof, is hereby declared to be contraband and subject to confiscation unless a certificate of registration and permit as hereinabove described was first obtained. The department may confiscate any such truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier together with its contents whenever the same is found to be importing without the certificate of registration and permit tangible personal property, the sale or use of which is taxable under this chapter. Such permit shall be posted in or on the vehicle or made immediately available for inspection. The department or its agent is authorized hereby to turn over to any sheriff or constable for safekeeping any vehicle or property seized hereunder, and such sheriff or constable shall collect from the vehicle owner costs provided by the general law for performing similar service.

(4) Upon seizure for confiscation, the department or its representatives shall appraise the value of the vehicle and its said contents according to its best judgment and shall deliver to the person, if any found in possession of such property, a receipt showing the fact of seizure, from whom seized, the place of seizure, a description of the vehicle and contents seized. A copy of said receipt shall be filed in the office of the department and shall be open to public inspection.

(5) The department, or any representative of the department, shall within 30 days advertise the said vehicle and its contents or other property so seized for sale to the highest bidder by one proper notice in a newspaper published in the county where the property is to be sold, if the county has such a newspaper, if there is no newspaper in such county, then by notice on the courthouse door, at least 30 days prior to the date of sale and contain a description of the vehicle and property to be sold.

(6) Any person claiming any property so seized as contraband goods may, at any time before the sale, file with the department, at Tallahassee, a claim in writing stating his interest in the article seized. The department shall determine the claim.

(7) In the event the ruling of the department is favorable to the claimant, the department shall deliver to the claimant the vehicle or property so seized. If the ruling of the department is adverse to the claimant, the department shall proceed to sell such contraband goods in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this chapter. The expense of storage and transportation shall be adjudged as part of the cost of the proceedings in such manner as the department shall fix pending any proceeding to recover a vehicle or other property seized under this chapter. The department may order delivery thereof to any claimant who shall execute with one or more sureties, approved by the department, and deliver to the department, a bond in favor of the state for the payment of a sum double the appraised value thereof as of the time of any hearing; and if the vehicle or other property is not returned at the time of the hearing, the bond shall stand in lieu of, and be forfeited in the same manner as, such vehicle or other property.

(8) The confiscated vehicle or goods shall not be sold pending any judicial review but shall be stored by the department until the final disposition of said case.

(9) Within the discretion of the department, the claimant may be awarded possession of the confiscated goods pending any judicial review; however, the claimant shall be required to execute a bond payable to the state in an amount double the value of the property seized, the sureties to be approved by the department. The condition of the bond shall be that the obligors shall pay to the state the full value of the vehicle or goods seized unless upon certiorari the decision of the department shall be reversed and the property awarded to the claimant.

(10) If no claim is interposed, such vehicle or other goods shall be forfeited without further proceedings and the same sold as hereinabove provided. The above procedure is the sole remedy of any claimant, and no court shall have jurisdiction to interfere therewith by replevin, injunction, or supersedeas or in any other manner.

(11) Any funds derived from the sale of confiscated vehicles or other goods shall be distributed or allocated in the same manner as other funds derived from the taxing statute.

212.17 Credits for returned goods, rentals or admissions; additional powers of department.—

(1) In the event purchases are returned to the dealer by the purchaser or consumer after the tax imposed by this chapter has been collected or charged to the account of the consumer or user, the dealer shall be entitled to reimbursement of the amount of tax collected or charged by him, in the manner prescribed by the department; and in case the tax has not been remitted by the dealer to the department, the dealer may deduct the same in submitting his return upon receipt of a signed statement of the dealer as to the gross amount of such refunds during the period covered by said signed statement, which period shall not be longer than 90 days. The department shall issue to the dealer an official credit memorandum equal to the net amount remitted by the dealer for such tax collected. Such memorandum shall be accepted by the department at full face value from the dealer to whom it is issued, in the remittance for subsequent taxes accrued under the provisions of this chapter; provided, in cases where a dealer has retired from business and has filed a final return, a refund of tax may be made if it can be established to the satisfaction of the department that the tax was not due.

(2) A dealer who has paid the tax imposed by this chapter on tangible personal property sold under a retained title, conditional sale, or similar contract, or under a contract wherein the dealer retains a security interest in the property pursuant to chapter 679, may take credit or obtain a refund for the tax paid by him on the unpaid balance due him when he repossesses (with or without judicial process) the property within 12 months following the month in which the property was repossessed. When such repossessed property is resold, the sale is subject in all respects to the tax imposed by this chapter.

(3) A dealer who has paid the tax imposed by this chapter on tangible personal property may take a credit or obtain a refund for any tax paid by him on the unpaid balance due on worthless accounts within 12 months following the month in which the bad debt has been charged off for federal income tax purposes. If any accounts so charged off for which a credit or refund has been obtained are thereafter in whole or in part paid to the dealer, the amount so paid shall be included in the first return filed after such collection and the tax paid accordingly.

(4) The department shall design, prepare, print and furnish to all dealers, or make available to said dealers, all necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to insure a full collection from dealers and an accounting for the taxes due, but failure of any dealer to secure such forms shall not relieve such dealer from the payment of said tax at the time and in the manner herein provided.

(5) The department and its assistants are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the oath for the purpose of enforcing and administering the provisions of this chapter.

(6) The department shall have the power to make, prescribe and publish reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter, or the other laws, or the constitution of this state, or the United States, for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and the collection of revenue hereunder, and such rules and regulations shall when enforced be deemed to be reasonable and just.

(7) The department, where admissions or rental payments are made and thereafter returned to the payers, after the taxes thereon have been paid, shall return or credit the taxpayer for taxes so paid on the moneys returned in the same manner as is provided for returns or credits of taxes where purchases or tangible personal property are returnable to a dealer.

212.18 Administration of law; rules and regulations.—

(1) The cost of preparing and distributing the reports, forms and paraphernalia for the collection of said tax and the inspection and enforcement duties required herein shall be borne by the revenue produced by this chapter, provisions for which are hereinafter made.

(2) The department shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by this chapter. It is authorized to make and publish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter, as it may deem necessary in enforcing its provisions in order that there shall not be collected on the average more than the rate levied herein. The department is authorized to and it shall provide by rule and regulation a method for accomplishing this end. It shall prepare instructions to all persons required by this chapter to collect and remit the tax to guide such persons in the proper collection and remission of such tax and to instruct such persons in the practices that may be necessary for the purpose of enforcement of this chapter and the collection of the tax imposed hereby. The use of tokens in the collection of this tax is hereby expressly forbidden and prohibited.

(3) Every person desiring to engage in or conduct business in this state as a dealer, as defined in this chapter, or to lease, rent, or let living quarters or sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, or tourist or trailer camps, as defined in this chapter, shall file with the department a certificate of registration for each place of business, showing the name of the interested persons in such business, their residences, the address of the business, and such other data as the department may reasonably require. The application shall be made to the department before the person, firm, copartnership, or corporation may engage in such business, and it shall be accompanied by a registration fee of $5. The department, upon receipt of such application, will grant to the applicant a separate certificate of registration for each place of business, which certificate may be canceled by the department or its designated assistants for any failure by such certificate holder to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter. The certificate shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the person, firm, copartnership, or corporation to whom issued, and such certificate shall be placed in a conspicuous place in the business or businesses for which it is issued and so displayed at all times. No person shall engage in business as a dealer or in leasing, renting, or letting of living quarters or sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, or tourist or trailer camps as hereinbefore defined without first having obtained such a certificate or after such certificate has been canceled, and no person shall receive any license from any authority within the state to engage in any such business without first having obtained such a certificate or after such certificate has been canceled. The engaging in the business of selling or leasing tangible personal property or as a dealer, as defined in this chapter, or the engaging in leasing, renting, or letting of living quarters or sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, or tourist or trailer camps as hereinbefore defined without such certificate first had and obtained or after being canceled by the department is prohibited. Failure or refusal of any person, firm, copartnership, or corporation to so qualify where required hereunder is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, or subject to injunctive proceedings as provided by law.

(4) The department is hereby given the authority to purchase such supplies and equipment as may be necessary and incur any other necessary expenses as are proper for the enforcement and administration of this chapter.

History.—s. 18, ch. 26319, 1949; s. 9, ch. 61-276; s. 7, ch. 63-253; s. 13, ch. 65-329; s. 5, ch. 65-371; s. 2, ch. 65-420; s. 15, ch. 67-180; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 128, ch. 71-136; s. 5, ch. 78-59; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

212.19 All state agencies to cooperate in administration of law.—The department is further empowered to call on any state agency, department, bureau or board for any and all information which may, in its judgment, be of assistance in administering or preparing for the administration of this chapter, and such state agency, department, bureau or board is hereby authorized, directed and required to furnish such information.

212.20 Funds collected, disposition; additional powers of department; operational expense.—

(1) The department shall pay over to the Treasurer of the State all funds received and collected by it under the provisions of this chapter, to be credited to the account of the General Revenue Fund of the state.

(2) The department is authorized to employ all necessary assistants to administer this chapter properly and is also authorized to purchase all necessary supplies and equipment which may be required for this purpose.

(3) The estimated amount of money needed for the administration of this chapter shall be included by the department in its annual legislative budget request for the operation of its office.

212.21 Declaration of legislative intent.—

(1) If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word of this chapter is for any reason held or declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, inoperative, ineffective, inapplicable, or void, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not be construed to affect the portions of this chapter not so held to be unconstitutional, void, invalid, or ineffective, or affect the application of this chapter to other circumstances not so held to be invalid, it being hereby declared to be the express legislative intent that any such unconstitutional, illegal, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void portion or portions of this chapter did not induce its passage, and that without the inclusion of any such unconstitutional, illegal, invalid, ineffective or void portions of this chapter, the legislature would have enacted the valid and constitutional portions thereof.

(2) It is hereby declared to be the specific legislative intent to tax each and every sale, admission, use, storage, consumption or rental levied and set forth in this chapter, except as to such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption, or rental, as shall be specifically exempted therefrom by this chapter, subject to the conditions appertaining to such exemption. It is further declared to be the specific legislative intent that should any exemption or attempted exemption from the tax or the operation or imposition of the tax or taxes be declared to be invalid, ineffective, inapplicable, unconstitutional or void for any reason, such declaration shall not affect the tax or taxes imposed herein, but such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption or rental or any of them exempted or attempted to be exempted from the tax or taxes or the operation or the imposition of the tax or taxes, shall be subject to the tax or taxes and the operation and imposition thereof to the same extent as if such exemption or attempted exemption had never been included herein.

(3) It is further declared to be the specific legislative intent to exempt from the tax or taxes or from the operation or the imposition thereof only such sales, admissions, uses, storages, consumption or rentals in relation to or in respect of the things set forth by this chapter as exempted from the tax to the extent that such exemptions are in accordance with the provisions of the constitutions of the state and of the United States. It is further declared to be the specific legislative intent to tax each and every taxable privilege made subject to the tax or taxes, except such sales, admissions, uses, storages, consumptions or rentals as are specifically exempted therefrom by this chapter to the extent that such exemptions are in accordance with the provisions of the constitutions of the state and of the United States.

(4) It being further declared to be the specific legislative intent that in the event any exemption or attempted exemption of any sale, admissions, use, storage, consumption or rental from the tax or taxes imposed by this chapter is for any reason declared to be unconstitutional, ineffective, inapplicable or void, that then and in such event each and every such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption or rental shall be subject to the tax or taxes imposed by this chapter as fully and to the same extent as if such exemption or attempted exemption had never been included herein, it being declared to be the specific legislative intent that no unconstitutional, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void exemption or attempted exemption or exemptions or attempted exemptions induced the passage of this chapter, it being further declared to be the specific legislative intent that without the inclusion herein of any such unconstitutional, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void exemption or attempted exemption, exemptions or attempted exemptions, the valid portions of this chapter would have been enacted.

(5) It is the legislative intent that the repeal of any provision heretofore exempting in whole or part any item or transaction from the tax imposed by this chapter shall result in the full imposition of the applicable tax to any such item or transaction.

213.04 Bond of executive director.—The executive director of the department shall, before he enters upon the discharge of the duties of his office, give bond conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of said office in such amounts and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Department of Revenue.

History.—s. 4, ch. 63-253; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

213.05 Department of Revenue; control and administration of revenue laws.—The Department of Revenue shall have the responsibility of regulating, controlling, and administering all revenue laws and performing all other duties provided in: Chapter 201, excise tax on documents; chapter 203, gross receipts taxes, generally; chapter 205, local occupational license taxes; chapter 206, taxation of motor and other fuels; chapter 211, tax on production of oil and gas and severance of solid minerals; chapter 212, tax on sales, use and other transactions; and chapter 220, income tax code.

History.—s. 5, ch. 63-253; s. 4, ch. 65-371; ss. 10, 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 43, ch. 71-355; s. 62, ch. 73-333; s. 1, ch. 79-9; s. 42, ch. 79-164.

cf.—s. 20.21 Department of Revenue.

s. 214.02 Department to collect taxes re nonproperty taxes.

213.051 Service of subpoenas.—For the purpose of administering and enforcing the provisions of the revenue laws of this state, the Executive Director of the Department of Revenue, or any of his assistants designated in writing by him, shall be authorized to serve subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum issued by the state attorney relating to investigations concerning the taxes enumerated in s. 213.05.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-59.

213.06 Rules and regulations.—The Department of Revenue shall be authorized to adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the intent and purposes of this act.

History.—s. 6, ch. 63-253; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

213.071 Certification under seal of certain records by executive director.—The executive director of the Department of Revenue may certify under appropriate seal, copies of any records, papers or documents placed in his custody, keeping and care by law. Such certified copies shall have the same force and effect as evidence as would the original records, papers or documents.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-41; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

213.072 Records of the Department of Revenue; confidential.—

(1) The records of the Department of Revenue of individual accounts and reports required under chapter 212 are confidential and shall not be subject to inspection by the public or release by the department except in accordance with proper judicial process or as otherwise provided by law. However, a dealer may authorize the department in writing to divulge information concerning his account. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular accounts or reports, to prohibit compliance with any formal agreement between the Department of Revenue and the federal government for the exchange of information, or to prohibit the disclosure of such information to properly qualified legislative committees.

(2) The Department of Revenue may, at its discretion, furnish to the multistate tax commission any information contained in tax returns, reports, and related schedules and documents filed pursuant to the laws of this state and contained in the report of an audit or investigation made with respect thereto, provided only that said information be furnished solely for tax purposes. Such information may pertain to any period open to audit by this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-450; s. 1, ch. 73-322.

213.10 Deposit of tax moneys collected.—Any and all tax moneys collected by the Department of Revenue shall be deposited in the appropriate fund as provided by law.

History.—s. 10, ch. 63-253; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

213.11 Gasoline tax; transfer to Department of Natural Resources.—The Department of Revenue is directed to pay and transfer to the Department of Natural Resources, or to such other successor agency as may be charged with controlling noxious aquatic vegetation in this state, a sum equal to 2 percent of all revenue collected under the first gasoline tax, imposed by chapter 206. However, such revenue collected under the first gas tax shall not exceed two million eight hundred thousand dollars. Such sum shall be transferred by the Department of Revenue at the same time the remainder of the first gasoline tax is transferred into the state transportation trust fund, as provided for in s. 206.45(1). All funds so transferred to the Department of Natural Resources or other agency shall be used for eradication, control, and research of water hyacinths and noxious aquatic vegetation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-232; ss. 2, 3, ch. 73-57; s. 1, ch. 73-217.

213.12 Certain state-chartered financial institutions; immunity from certain state and local taxes.—

(1) All banks, trust companies, and Morris Plan banks now or hereafter chartered under the laws of the state shall have the same immunity from state and local taxation that national banking associations have from time to time under the Statutes of the United States.

(2) All credit unions now or hereafter chartered under the laws of the state shall have the same immunity from state and local taxation that federally chartered credit unions have from time to time under the Statutes of the United States.

(3) No tax may be imposed by the state or any of its political subdivisions on any savings and loan association or its franchise, surplus, deposits, assets, reserves, loans, or income which is greater than the least onerous imposed by the state on any other financial institution as defined in chapter 658.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-153.

214.01 Application of chapter and short title.—This chapter shall be applicable only to such non-property taxes (taxes not based upon the assessed value of property) as are expressly made subject to the provisions hereof. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Tax Administration Act of 1971."

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.02 Collection authority.—The Department of Revenue, hereinafter referred to as "the department," shall collect the taxes imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter and shall pay all moneys received by it under such laws into the general revenue fund of the state.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.03 Assessment.—

(1) The amount of tax which is shown to be due on any return shall be deemed assessed on the date of filing the return, including any amended returns showing an increase of tax. In the event the amount of tax is understated on the taxpayer's return due to a mathematical error, the department shall notify the taxpayer that the amount of tax in excess of that shown on the return is due and has been assessed. Such notice of additional tax due shall not be considered a notice of deficiency, nor shall the taxpayer have any right of protest. In the case of a return properly filed without a computation of the tax due, the tax computed by the department on the basis of the return shall be deemed assessed on the date the return is filed.

(2) Whenever a notice of deficiency has been issued, the amount of the deficiency shall be deemed assessed on the date provided in s. 214.08 if no protest is filed or, if a protest is filed, on the date when the decision of the department with respect to the protest becomes final, as provided in s. 214.11(4).

(3) Any amount paid as tax or in respect to tax under this chapter shall be deemed assessed upon the date of receipt of payment.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.04 Limitation on assessment.—No deficiency shall be assessed with respect to a taxable year for which a return was filed unless a notice of deficiency for such year was issued not later than the date prescribed in s. 214.09.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.05 Notice and demand.—

(1) As soon as practicable after an amount payable under this chapter is deemed assessed under s. 214.03 or any other provision of this chapter, the department shall give notice of the amount unpaid to each taxpayer liable for any unpaid portion of such assessment and shall demand payment thereof. The amount stated in such notice shall be payable upon receipt of such notice, at the place and time stated in such notice.

(2) No notice and demand need be issued when a deficiency has been determined by a proceeding in court for review of an assessment.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.06 Deficiency determinations.—

(1) As soon as practicable after a return is filed, the department shall examine it to determine the correct amount of tax. If the department finds that the amount of tax shown on the return is less than the correct amount and the difference is not solely the result of mathematical error, it shall issue a notice of deficiency to the taxpayer, setting forth the amount of additional tax and any penalties proposed to be assessed. The findings of the department under this subsection shall be prima facie correct and shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the amount of tax and penalties due.

(2) If a taxpayer fails to file a tax return, the department shall determine the amount of tax due according to its best judgment and information, and it shall issue a notice of deficiency to the taxpayer, setting forth the amount of tax and any penalties proposed to be assessed. The amount so determined by the department shall be prima facie correct and shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the amount of tax due.

(3) An erroneous refund shall be considered deficiency of tax on the date made, and shall be deemed assessed and shall be collected as provided in ss. 214.03 and 214.05.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.07 Notice of deficiency.—A notice of deficiency issued under this chapter shall set forth, in addition to the amount of tax and any penalties, a computation of the adjustments giving rise to the proposed assessment and the reason or reasons therefor.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.08 Assessment after notice.—Upon the expiration of 60 days after the date on which it was issued (150 days, if the taxpayer is outside the United States), a notice of deficiency shall constitute an assessment of the amount of tax and penalties specified therein, except for amounts as to which the taxpayer shall have filed a protest with the department under s. 214.11.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.09 Limitations on notices and deficiencies.—

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section:

(a) A notice of deficiency shall be issued not later than 3 years after the date on which the return was filed, and

(b) No deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the taxable year for which the return was filed unless such notice is issued within such period.

(2) If the taxpayer omits from a return an amount properly includable which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income or property value, as the case may be, which is stated in the return, a notice of deficiency may be issued not later than 6 years after the date on which the return was filed. For purpose of this subsection, no amount shall be deemed omitted if such amount, or the item giving rise to such amount, is disclosed in the return, or in a statement attached to the return, in a manner adequate to apprise the department of the nature and the amount of such item.

(3) If no return is filed, or if a false and fraudulent return is filed with intent to evade the tax made applicable to this chapter, a notice of deficiency may be issued at any time.

(4) If, before the expiration of the time prescribed in this section for the issuance of a notice of deficiency, both the department and the taxpayer have consented in writing to its issuance after such time, such notice may be issued at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(5) In any case in which there has been an erroneous refund of tax, a notice of deficiency may be issued at any time within 2 years from the making of such refund, or within 5 years from the making of such refund, if it appears that any part of the refund was induced by fraud or the misrepresentation of a material fact. However, if such notice of deficiency is issued after the time limitation prescribed in subsection (1) or subsection (2), the amount of any proposed assessment set forth in such notice shall be limited to the amount of such erroneous refund.

(6) If a protest has been filed with respect to a notice of deficiency and the decision of the department on such protest has become final, the department shall be barred from issuing a further or additional notice of deficiency for the taxable years involved in such protest, except in the case of fraud or mathematical error or as provided in subsection (5).

(7) For purposes of this section, a tax return filed before the last day prescribed by law, including any extension thereof, shall be deemed to have been filed on such last day.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.10 Waiver of restrictions on assessment.

—At any time, whether or not a notice of deficiency has been issued, a taxpayer shall have the right to waive the restrictions on assessment and collection of the whole or any part of any proposed assessment of tax by a signed notice in writing filed with the department in such form as the department may by regulation prescribe.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.11 Protest of proposed assessment.—

(1) Within 60 days (150 days if the taxpayer is outside the United States) after the issuance of a notice of deficiency, the taxpayer may file with the department a written protest against the proposed assessment in such form as the department may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the portion or portions of the proposed deficiency protested and the grounds on which such protest is based.

(2) Whenever a protest is filed, the department shall reconsider the proposed assessment.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

214.12 Jeopardy assessments.—

(1) If the department finds that a taxpayer is about to depart from the state, to conceal its property, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or render wholly or partly ineffectual the normal procedures for collection of any amount of tax, penalty, or interest made subject to this chapter, or if the department otherwise finds that the collection of such amount will be jeopardized by delay, the department shall issue to the taxpayer a notice of such findings and shall make demand for the immediate payment of such amount, whereupon such amount shall be deemed assessed and shall become immediately due and payable.

(2) If, within 5 days after issuance of a notice and demand, or within the period of any extension of time the department may grant, the taxpayer does not comply with such notice or show to the department that the findings in such notice are erroneous, the department may file a notice of jeopardy assessment lien in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which any property of the taxpayer may be located, and it shall notify the taxpayer of such filing. A jeopardy assessment lien shall have the same scope and effect as other liens prescribed by this chapter.

(3) If the notice and demand relate to the taxpayer's current taxable period or year, the department shall declare the taxable period or year of the taxpayer immediately terminated, and the notice and demand shall relate to the period or year declared terminated and shall include therein income, deductions, and values accrued or accumulated up to the date of termination if not otherwise properly includable in respect of such taxable year or period.

(4) If the taxpayer believes that he does not owe some or all of the amount for which the jeopardy assessment lien against him has been filed, or that no jeopardy to the revenue in fact exists, he may protest to the department, whereupon the department shall determine whether or not such jeopardy assessment lien will be released.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

214.13 Overpayments; credits.—

(1) If, after a return has been filed, the department finds that the tax paid with the return is more than the correct amount, it shall credit or refund the overpayment as is appropriate.

(2) In the case of any overpayment, the department may within the applicable period of limitations credit the amount of such overpayment, including any interest allowed thereon, against any part of the liability in respect of the tax giving rise to the overpayment of the taxpayer who made the overpayment, refunding any balance to such taxpayer.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.14 Overpayments; interest.—Interest shall be allowed and paid at the rate of 6 percent per year upon any overpayment in respect of a tax made subject to this chapter, except that if any overpayment is refunded within 9 months after the last date prescribed for filing the return of such tax, including any extension thereof, or within 9 months after the return was filed, whichever is later, no interest shall be allowed on such overpayment. For purposes of this section, no amount of tax for any taxable year shall be treated as having been paid before the date on which the tax return for such year was due under applicable law, without regard to any extension of the time for filing such return.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.15 Overpayments; refunds.—

(1) Every claim for refund shall be filed with the department in writing, in such form as the department may by regulation prescribe, and shall state the amount claimed, the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, and the taxable years or periods involved.

(2) As soon as practicable after a claim for refund is filed, the department shall examine the claim and either issue a notice of refund, abatement, or credit to the claimant or issue a notice of denial.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

214.16 Limitations on claims for refund.—

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section:

(a) A claim for refund shall be filed not later than 3 years after the date the return was filed or 1 year after the date the tax was paid, whichever is the later; and

(b) No credit or refund shall be allowed or made with respect to the taxable year for which a claim was filed unless such claim is filed within such period.

(2) If, before the expiration of the time prescribed in this section for filing a claim for refund, both the department and the claimant shall have consented in writing to its filing after such time, such claim may be filed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(3) The amount of any credit or refund resulting from a claim for refund shall be limited as follows:

(a) If the claim was filed during the 3-year period prescribed in subsection (1), the amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of tax paid within the period, equal to 3 years plus the period of any extension of time for filing the return, immediately preceding the filing of the claim.

(b) If the claim was not filed within such 3-year period, the amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the year immediately preceding the filing of the claim.

(4) For purposes of this section, a tax return filed on or before the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such return, determined without regard to any extensions thereof, shall be deemed to have been filed on such last day.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.17 Access to books and records.—All books, records, and other papers and documents which are required by applicable law to be kept shall be subject to inspection by the department or its duly authorized agents and employees at all times during business hours.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.18 Investigations.—For the purpose of administering and enforcing the provisions of applicable tax laws, the department or any officer, agent, or employee of the department designated by the executive director in writing or by regulation may:

(1) Hold investigations concerning any matters;

(2) Require the attendance of any individual, or any officer or employee of a taxpayer, having knowledge of such matters; and

(3) Take testimony and require proof for its information.

In the conduct of any investigation, neither the department nor any officer, agent, or employee thereof shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence, and the informality in any proceeding or in the manner of taking testimony shall not invalidate any order, decision, rule, or regulation made or approved or confirmed by the department. Any officer or employee of the department authorized by the executive director or regulation shall have power to administer oaths. The books, papers, records, and memoranda of the department, or parts thereof, may be proved in any investigation or legal proceeding by a reproduced copy thereof, under the certificate of the executive director, and any such reproduced copy shall, without further proof, be admitted into evidence before the department or in any legal proceeding.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

214.19 Actions to recover taxes.—At any time that the department might commence proceedings for a levy under part II of this chapter, it may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction within or without the state, in the name of the state, to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due and unpaid under any law made applicable to this chapter. In any such action, a certificate of the department showing the amount of the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of such amount, the validity of its assessment, and its compliance with all the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.20 Production of witnesses and records.—

(1) The department, or any officer or employee of the department designated by the executive director in writing or by regulation, shall at its or his own instance, or on the written request of any other party to the proceeding, issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of, and the giving of testimony by, witnesses and issue subpoenas duces tecum requiring the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda. All subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum issued under this chapter may be served by any person of full age.

(2) Witnesses other than employees of the state shall be entitled to receive for attendance and travel the same fees as witnesses before the circuit courts of this state, such fees to be paid when the witness is excused from further attendance. When the witness is subpoenaed for the department or any officer or employee thereof, such fees shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the department. When the witness is subpoenaed for any other party, the cost of subpoena service and the witness fee shall be borne by the party at whose instance the witness is summoned, and the department may, in its discretion, require a deposit or advance payment to cover the cost of such service and witness fee. Subpoenas issued hereunder shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued from the circuit courts.

(3) Any circuit court of the state, or any judge thereof, upon application of the department or any officer or employee thereof or upon the application of any other party to the proceeding may, in its or his discretion, compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda, and the giving of testimony before the department or any officer or employee thereof conducting an investigation authorized by this chapter in the same manner as the production of evidence may be compelled before said court.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95.

214.21 Confidentiality and information sharing.—

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4), all information received by the department from returns filed under laws made applicable to this chapter, or from any investigation conducted under the provisions of this chapter, shall be confidential except for official purposes within the department or pursuant to official procedures for collection of any state tax or enforcement of any civil or criminal penalty or sanction imposed by this chapter or by another statute imposing a state tax. Any officer or employee of the department who shall divulge any such information in any manner, except for such purposes and pursuant to order of the department or in accordance with a proper judicial order, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $100 or more than $5,000 or be imprisoned for not less than 1 month or more than 1 year, or be both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

(2) Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the department from publishing or making available to the public the names and addresses of persons filing returns under applicable laws, or from publishing or making available reasonable statistics concerning the operation of a tax, provided the contents of returns are grouped into aggregates in such a way that the information contained in any individual return is not thereby disclosed.

(3) The department may make available to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States or his delegate or the proper officer or his delegate of any other state imposing taxes made applicable to this chapter, for exclusively official purposes, information received by the department in the administration of any such tax law, but such permission shall be granted only if the United States or such other state, as the case may be, grants the department substantially similar privileges.

(4)(a) Any information received by the Department of Revenue in connection with the administration of taxes pursuant to this chapter, including but not limited to information contained in returns and reports filed by persons subject to tax, shall be made available by the department to the Auditor General or his authorized agent in the performance of his official duties; however, no information shall be disclosed to the Auditor General or his authorized agent when such disclosure is prohibited by federal law. The Auditor General and his authorized agent shall be subject to the same requirements of confidentiality and subject to the same penalties for violation of the requirements as is the department. The provisions of this subsection shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law unless the conflicting provision contains a specific exemption from this subsection.

(b) This subsection shall expire and cease to take effect on July 1, 1981.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 1, ch. 75-293; ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-251.

Note.—Subsection (4) expires on July 1, 1981.

214.22 Amounts less than $1.—

(1) The department may by regulation provide that if a total amount of less than $1 is payable, refundable, or creditable, such amount either may be disregarded or shall be disregarded if it is less than 50 cents and increased to $1 if it is 50 cents or more.

(2) The department may by regulation provide that any amount which is required to be shown or reported on any return or other document required under laws made applicable to this chapter shall, if such amount is not a whole dollar, be increased to the nearest whole dollar when the fractional part of a dollar is 50 cents or more and decreased to the nearest whole dollar when the fractional part of a dollar is less than 50 cents.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.23 Procedure for notices.—Whenever notice is required by this chapter, such notice shall, if not otherwise provided, be given or issued by mailing it by registered or certified mail to the taxpayer concerned at his last known address as shown on the most recently filed return under applicable law or, if no return has previously been filed, at the address shown on the corporation report last filed under s. 607.357.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 54, ch. 78-95; s. 2, ch. 79-9.

214.24 Closing agreements.—The department may by regulation prescribe the manner and form of closing agreements by which the department and taxpayers may agree that any liability for tax, penalties, or interest under laws made applicable to this chapter, shall be forever barred, absent fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.26 Actions involving legality of tax or penalty.—In any case involving the legality of any tax or penalty assessed under this chapter, the complainant shall, except where the taxes assessed, including penalties and interest, have been paid to the department prior to the institution of suit, tender into court and file with the complaint the full amount of the assessment complained of, including penalties and interest, or file with the complaint a cash bond or a surety bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state or by such sureties as may be approved by the court, conditioned to satisfy any judgment or decree in full, including the taxes complained of, costs, penalties, and interest.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-79.

PART II

PENALTIES, INTEREST, AND ENFORCEMENT

214.40 Penalties; failure to file timely returns.

214.41 Penalties; failure to pay tax.

214.42 Assessment of penalties.

214.43 Interest on deficiencies.

214.44 Liens; attachment and notice.

214.45 Liens; priority and filing.

214.46 Liens; duration.

214.47 Liens; release.

214.48 Liens; certificates of release.

214.49 Liens; costs.

214.50 Liens; foreclosure.

214.51 Collection procedures.

214.52 Liability of transferees.

214.40 Penalties; failure to file timely returns.—

(1) In case of failure to file any tax return required under laws made applicable to this chapter on the date prescribed therefor, including any extensions thereof, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, there shall be added as a penalty to the amount of tax due with such return 5 percent of the amount of such tax, if the failure is not for more than 1 month, plus an additional 5 percent for each additional month or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. For purposes of this section, the amount of tax due with any return shall be reduced by any part of the tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which was properly allowable on the date the return was required to be filed.

(2) In case of failure to file any tax return required by s. 220.22, notwithstanding that no tax is shown to be due thereon, a penalty in the amount of $25 for each month or portion thereof, not to exceed $150 in the aggregate, shall be assessed and paid for each such failure to file. This subsection shall only apply to corporations when they also are required to file a federal income tax return.

(3) If any penalty is assessed under subsection (1) for failure to file a return by the prescribed date, no penalty under subsection (2) for failure to file a return with no tax shown to be due shall be assessed with respect to the same return.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 4, ch. 74-324.

214.41 Penalties; failure to pay tax.—

(1) If any part of a deficiency is due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations prescribed by or under applicable law, but without intent to defraud, there shall be added to the tax as a penalty an amount equal to 5 percent of the deficiency.

(2) If any part of a deficiency is due to fraud, there shall be added to the tax as a penalty, in lieu of the penalty under subsection (1), an amount equal to 50 percent of the deficiency.

(3) For purposes of this section, the amount shown as tax by the taxpayer upon a return shall be taken into account in determining the amount of the deficiency only if such return was filed on or before the last day prescribed by law for the filing of such return, including any extensions of the time for such filing.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.42 Assessment of penalties.—The penalties provided by this part shall be paid upon notice and demand and shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as taxes. Any reference in this chapter to the tax imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter shall be deemed a reference to penalties provided by this part.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.43 Interest on deficiencies.—

(1) If any amount of tax imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter is not paid on or before the date, determined without regard to any extensions, prescribed for payment of such tax, interest on the unpaid amount at the rate of 12 percent per year shall be paid from such date to the date of payment.

(2) Interest prescribed by this section on any tax or penalty shall be deemed assessed upon the assessment of the tax or penalty to which such interest relates, and shall be collected and paid in the same manner as taxes. Any reference in this chapter to the tax imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter shall be deemed a reference to interest imposed by this section.

(3) No interest shall be imposed upon the interest provided by this section.

(4) Interest shall be paid in respect to any penalty which is not paid within 20 days of the notice and demand therefor, but only for the period from the date of the notice and demand to the date of payment.

(5) If notice and demand is made for the payment of any amount due under laws made applicable to this chapter, and if such amount is paid within 30 days after the date of such notice and demand, interest under this section on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after the date of such notice and demand.

(6) Any tax, interest, or penalty imposed by applicable laws or this chapter which has been erroneously refunded and which is recoverable by the department shall bear interest at the rate of 12 percent per year from the date of payment of such refund.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 11, ch. 76-261.

214.44 Liens; attachment and notice.—

(1) The state shall have a lien for all or any portion of the tax or any penalty, or for any amount of interest which may be due, upon all the real and personal property of any taxpayer assessed with a tax under applicable laws or this chapter.

(2) If the lien arises from an assessment pursuant to a notice of deficiency, such lien shall not attach, and the notice described in subsection (3) shall not be filed, until all proceedings in court for review of such assessment have terminated or the time for the taking thereof has expired without such proceedings being instituted.

(3) The lien created by assessment pursuant to a notice of deficiency shall expire unless a notice of lien is filed as provided in this part within 5 years from the date all proceedings in court for the review of such assessment have terminated or the time for the taking thereof has expired without such proceeding being instituted. The lien created by assessment pursuant to the filing of a return without payment of the tax shown to be due, or the penalty or interest properly due, shall expire unless a notice of lien is filed within 5 years from the date such return was filed with the department.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.45 Liens; priority and filing.—

(1) Nothing in this part shall be construed to give the state a preference over the perfected rights of any bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other lienholder in existence prior to the filing of notice of lien or of jeopardy assessment lien in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the property subject to the lien is located.

(2) The clerks of the circuit courts of the several counties shall establish and maintain a file and index book for liens arising under this chapter and the laws made applicable hereto, in the manner and form prescribed by the department, which shall contain numerical and alphabetical indexes. Each entry in the file shall show the name and address of the taxpayer named in the notice, the tax to which the lien relates, the serial number of the notice, the date and hour of filing, whether the lien is a regular lien or a jeopardy assessment lien, and the amount of taxes, penalties, and interest due and unpaid at the time the notice is filed.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.46 Liens; duration.—The liens arising under applicable laws and this chapter shall continue in effect for 5 years from the date of filing the notice of lien, unless sooner released or otherwise discharged.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.47 Liens; release.—

(1) The department may release all or any portion of the property subject to a lien if it determines that the release will not endanger or jeopardize the collection of the amount secured thereby.

(2) The department shall release all or any portion of the property subject to a lien upon a final determination of a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer does not owe some or all of the amount secured by the lien or that no jeopardy to the revenue exists.

(3) The department shall release the lien against any taxpayer whenever the tax, penalties and interest covered by the lien are paid.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.48 Liens; certificates of release.—

(1) The department shall issue a certificate of complete or partial release of lien:

(a) To the extent that the fair market value of any property subject to the lien exceeds 200 percent of the amount of the lien plus the amount of all prior liens upon such property;

(b) To the extent that such lien expires or otherwise becomes unenforceable;

(c) To the extent that the amount of such lien is paid, together with any interest which may become due between the date when the notice of lien is filed and the date when the amount of such lien is paid;

(d) To the extent that there is furnished to the department, on such form as the department may prescribe and with such surety or sureties as are satisfactory to the department, a bond that is conditioned upon the payment of 200 percent of the amount of such lien, plus any interest which may become due after the notice of lien is filed and before the amount thereof is fully paid; and

(e) To the extent and under the circumstances specified in s. 214.47.

(2) A certificate of complete or partial release of any lien shall be conclusive that the lien upon the property covered by the certificate is extinguished to the extent indicated by such certificate.

(3) The clerks of the circuit court shall permanently attach the certificates of release to the notice of lien or notice of jeopardy assessment lien and record same whenever a certificate of complete or partial release of lien issued by the department is presented for filing in the office where a notice of such lien was filed.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.49 Liens; costs.—The department shall not be required to furnish any bond or to make a deposit or to pay any costs or fees of any court or officer thereof in any legal proceedings or in connection with the recordation in any county of any notice or other document filed by the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.50 Liens; foreclosure.—In addition to any other remedy provided by the laws of this state, and provided that no hearing or proceedings for review provided by this chapter shall be pending and that the time for the taking of review shall have expired, the department may foreclose in any court of competent jurisdiction any lien on real or personal property for any tax, penalty, or interest to the same extent and in the same manner as in the enforcement of other liens. Any proceeding to foreclose shall be instituted not more than 5 years after the filing, or availability for filing, of the notice of lien under the provisions of s. 214.45.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.51 Collection procedures.—

(1) In addition to any other remedy provided by the laws of this state, if any tax imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter is not paid within the time required by this chapter, the department, or someone designated by it, may cause a demand to be made on the taxpayer for the payment thereof. If such tax remains unpaid for 10 days after such demand has been made and no proceedings have been taken to review the same, the department may issue a warrant directed to any sheriff or other person authorized to serve process, commanding said sheriff or other person to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the taxpayer found within his jurisdiction for the payment of the amount thereof, including penalties, interest, and the cost of executing the warrant. Such warrant shall be returned to the department together with the money collected by virtue thereof within the time therein specified, which shall not be less than 20 nor more than 90 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff or other person to whom such a warrant shall be directed shall proceed upon the same in all respects and with like effect as is prescribed by law for executions issued against property upon judgments of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. No proceedings for a levy under this section shall be commenced more than 5 years after the filing of the notice of lien under the provisions of this part.

(2) Whenever an execution or writ of attachment issued from any court for the enforcement or collection of any tax liability created by laws made applicable to this chapter shall be levied by any sheriff or other authorized person upon any personal property, and such property shall be claimed to be exempt from execution or attachment by any person other than the defendant in the execution or attachment, then it shall be the duty of the person making such claim to give notice in writing of his claim and of his intention to prosecute the same to the sheriff or other person within 10 days after the making of said levy. The giving of such notice shall be a condition precedent to any legal action against the sheriff or other authorized person for wrongful levy or seizure or for sale of said property, and any such person who fails to give notice within said time shall be forever barred from bringing any legal action against such sheriff or other person for injury or damages to or conversion of said property.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.52 Liability of transferees.—The liability of a transferee of a taxpayer for any tax, penalty, or interest due shall be assessed, paid, and collected in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of the tax to which the liability relates. The term "transferee" shall include any corporation or other person which succeeds by operation of law or otherwise to substantially all of the business or property of a taxpayer.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

PART III

TAX CRIMES

214.60 Willful and fraudulent acts.

214.61 Willful failure to pay over.

214.62 Aiding and abetting.

214.60 Willful and fraudulent acts.—Any taxpayer who is subject to the provisions of this chapter and who willfully fails to file a return or keep required books and records, files a fraudulent return, willfully violates any rule or regulation of the department, or willfully attempts in any other manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by laws made applicable to this chapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.61 Willful failure to pay over.—Any person who accepts money from a taxpayer that is due to the department, for the purpose of acting as the taxpayer's agent to make the payment to the department, but who willfully fails to remit such payment to the department when due or who purports to make such payment but willfully fails to do so because his check or other remittance fails to clear the bank or other depository against which it is drawn shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.62 Aiding and abetting.—Any person who aids, abets, counsels, or conspires to commit any of the acts described in s. 214.60 or s. 214.61 shall be subject to fine or imprisonment to the same extent as the perpetrator of such act.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

PART IV

APPORTIONMENT

214.70 Definition.

214.71 Apportionment; general method.

214.72 Apportionment; methods for special industries.

214.73 Apportionment; other methods.

214.70 Definition.—The term "tax base" as used in this part shall mean the amount to which a tax rate is applied under any law made applicable to this chapter, exclusive of any exemptions from, or credits against, such tax which are authorized by the law imposing such tax.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

214.71 Apportionment; general method.—Except as otherwise provided in ss. 214.72 and 214.73, the base upon which any tax made applicable to this chapter shall be apportioned shall be determined by multiplying same by a fraction the numerator of which is the sum of the property factor, the payroll factor, and the sales factor and the denominator of which is 3. In the event any of the factors described in subsections (1), (2), or (3) has a denominator which is zero or is determined by the department to be insignificant, the denominator of the apportionment fraction shall be reduced by the number of such factors.

(1) The property factor is a fraction the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the taxable year or period and the denominator of which is the average value of such property owned or rented and used everywhere.

(a) Real and tangible personal property owned by the taxpayer shall be valued at original cost. Real and tangible personal property rented by the taxpayer shall be valued at eight times the net annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received from subrentals.

(b) The average value of real and tangible personal property shall be determined by averaging the value at the beginning and the end of the taxable year or period, unless the department determines that an averaging of monthly values during the taxable year or period is reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property.

(2) The payroll factor is a fraction the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the taxable year or period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the taxable year or period.

(a) The term "compensation" shall mean wages, salaries, commissions, and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(b) Compensation is paid in this state if:

1. The employee's service is performed entirely within the state; or

2. The employee's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the employee's service within the state; or

3. Some of the employee's service is performed in the state and

a. The base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or

b. The base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed and the employee's residence is in this state.

¹(3) The sales factor is a fraction the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year or period and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the taxable year or period.

(a)1. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale.

²2. When citrus fruit is delivered by a cooperative for a grower-member, by a grower-member to a cooperative, or by a grower-participant to a Florida processor, the sales factor for such growers for such citrus fruit delivered to such processor shall be the same as the sales factor for the most recent taxable year of that processor. That sales factor, expressed only as a percentage and not in terms of the dollar volume of sales, so as to protect the confidentiality of the sales of the processor, shall be furnished on the request of such a grower promptly after it has been determined for that taxable year.

³3. Reimbursement of expenses under an agency contract between a cooperative, a grower-member of a cooperative, or a grower and a processor will not be deemed a sale within this state.

(b) Sales of a financial organization, including, but not limited to, banking and savings institutions, investment companies, real estate investment trusts, and brokerage companies, shall be in this state if derived from:

1. Fees, commissions, or other compensation for financial services rendered within this state;

2. Gross profits from trading in stocks, bonds, or other securities managed within this state;

3. Interest and dividends received within this state;

4. Interest charged to customers at places of business maintained within this state for carrying debit balances of margin accounts, without deduction of any costs incurred in carrying such accounts; and

5. Any other gross income resulting from the operation as a financial organization within this state.

In computing the amounts referred to in this paragraph, any amount received by a member of an affiliated group (determined under s. 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, but without reference to whether any such corporation is an "includable corporation" under s. 1504(b) of the Internal Revenue Code) from another member of such group shall be included only to the extent such amount exceeds expenses of the recipient directly related thereto.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 2, ch. 71-980; s. 43, ch. 79-164; s. 1, ch. 79-326.
Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-326, provides that the amendment to subsection (3) by that act, with the exception of subparagraphs (a) 2. and 3., "operate retroactively to the date on which official publication of the 1973 Florida Statutes occurred."

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-326, provides that this subparagraph applies to "any taxpayer whose accounting year begins after December 31, 1978."

214.72 Apportionment; methods for special industries.—

(1)(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), the tax base of an insurance company for a taxable year or period shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying such base by a fraction the numerator of which is the direct premiums written for insurance upon properties and risks in this state and the denominator of which is the direct premiums written for insurance upon properties and risks everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "direct premiums written" means the total amount of direct premiums written, assessments, and annuity considerations, as reported for the taxable year or period on the annual statement filed by the company with the commissioner of insurance in the form approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners or such other form as may be prescribed in lieu thereof.

(b) If the principal source of premiums written by an insurance company consists of premiums for reinsurance accepted by it, the tax base of such company shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying such base by a fraction the numerator of which is the sum of:

1. Direct premiums written for insurance upon properties and risks in this state, plus
2. Premiums written for reinsurance, accepted in respect to properties and risks in this state, and the denominator of which is the sum of direct premiums written for insurance upon properties and risks everywhere plus premiums written for reinsurance accepted in respect to properties and risks everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph, premiums written for reinsurance accepted in respect to properties and risks in this state, whether or not otherwise determinable, may, at the election of the company, either be determined on the basis of the proportion which premiums written for reinsurance accepted from companies resident in or having a regional home office in the state bears to premiums written for reinsurance accepted from all sources or, alternatively, on the basis of the proportion which the sum of the direct premiums written for insurance upon properties and risks in this state by each ceding company from which reinsurance is accepted bears to the sum of the total direct premiums written by each such ceding company for the taxable year.

(2) The tax base for a taxpayer furnishing transportation services, for the purpose of computing a tax on those activities, shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying such base by a fraction the numerator of which is the revenue miles of the taxpayer in this state and the denominator of which is the revenue miles of the taxpayer everywhere.

(a) For transportation other than by pipeline, a revenue mile is the transportation of one passenger or 1 net ton of freight the distance of 1 mile for a consideration. When a taxpayer is engaged in the transportation of both passengers and freight, the fraction shall be determined by means of an average of the passenger revenue mile fraction and the freight revenue mile fraction, weighted to reflect the taxpayer's relative railway operating income from total passenger and total freight service as reported to the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the case of transportation by railroad, or weighted to reflect the taxpayer's relative gross receipts from passenger and freight transportation, in case of transportation other than by railroad.

(b) For transportation by pipeline, a revenue mile is the transportation by pipeline of 1 barrel of oil, 1,000 cubic feet of gas, or any specified quantity of any other substance the distance of 1 mile for a consideration.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (a), in computing the revenue miles of any taxpayer engaged in furnishing air or sea transportation services to or from points in the state from or to points outside the state but in the continental United States, the "revenue miles in this state" shall include all miles traversed from points of origin in the state to the point at which the carrier crosses the northern land border of the state, the meridian of longitude 87°30' west from Greenwich, or the parallel of latitude 31° north from the equator, as the case may be, and with respect to transportation emanating outside the state but in the continental United States, all miles traversed from such crossing places to points of destination in this state. The "revenue miles in this state" shall also include all miles traversed between points in this state, even though the route of travel is not wholly over the land mass of the state. The department may prescribe standard mileage tables for the purpose of determining revenue miles in the state under this paragraph, rather than requiring taxpayers to compute from their records the actual number of miles traversed within such boundaries or points from time to time.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359; s. 63, ch. 73-333.

214.73 Apportionment; other methods.—If the apportionment methods of ss. 214.71 and 214.72 do not fairly represent the extent of a taxpayer's tax base attributable to this state, the taxpayer may petition for, or the department may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's tax base, if reasonable:

- (1) Separate accounting;
- (2) The exclusion of any one or more factors;
- (3) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's tax base attributable to this state; or

- (4) The employment of any other method which will produce an equitable apportionment.

History.—s. 19, ch. 71-359.

215.85 Direct deposit of public funds.

215.01 Fiscal year.—The fiscal year shall begin on July 1 and end on June 30 in each and every year.

History.—s. 5, ch. 515, 1853; RS 405; GS 597; RGS 1032; s. 1, ch. 10124, 1925; s. 1, ch. 10130, 1925; CGL 1343.

215.02 Manner of paying money into the treasury.—Whenever any officer of this state or other person desires to pay any money into the Treasury of the state on account of his indebtedness to the state, he shall first go into the Department of Banking and Finance, and there ascertain from the department's books the amount of his indebtedness to the state, and thereupon the department shall give him a memorandum or certificate of the amount of such indebtedness, and on what account. Second, he shall take said certificate with him to the Department of Insurance and deliver the same and pay over to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer the amount called for in said certificate. Third, the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer shall receive the money, make a proper entry thereof, file the certificate of the Department of Banking and Finance, and give a certificate to the party paying over the money, acknowledging the receipt of the money, and on what account; which certificate thus received, the party shall return to the Department of Banking and Finance, on receipt of which the department shall give the party a receipt for the amount, and enter a credit on the party's account in his books for the amount thus paid by him to the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer, and file the certificate received from the Insurance Commissioner and Treasurer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 1292, 1861; RS 406; GS 598; RGS 1033; CGL 1344; ss. 12, 13, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.03 Party to be reimbursed on reversal of judgment for state.—Whenever upon appeal in civil cases, any judgment in favor of the state has been or shall be reversed and set aside, which may have been paid in part by the appellant, the Comptroller shall issue his warrant upon the Treasurer to reimburse the appellant for all sums paid in discharge of such judgment and cost, provided the appellant shall adduce satisfactory evidence to the Comptroller of the sums paid as aforesaid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 723, 1855; GS 615; RGS 1051; CGL 1362; s. 21, ch. 63-559.

215.04 Department of Banking and Finance to report delinquents.—The Department of Banking and Finance shall report to the state attorney of the proper circuit the name of any delinquent officer whose delinquency concerns the department, so soon as such delinquency shall occur; and the state attorney shall proceed forthwith against such delinquent.

History.—s. 4, Mar. 4, 1839; RS 407; GS 599; RGS 1034; CGL 1345; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.05 Department of Banking and Finance to certify accounts of delinquents.—When any revenue officer or other person accountable for public money shall neglect or refuse to pay into the treasury the sum or balance reported to be due to the state, upon the adjustment of his account, the Department of Banking and Finance shall immediately hand over to the state attorney of the proper circuit the statement of the sum or balance certified under its seal of office, so due; and the state attorney shall institute suit for the recovery of the same, adding to the sum or balance stated to be due on such account the commissions of the delinquent, which shall be forfeited in every instance where suit is commenced and judgment is obtained thereon, and an interest of 8 percent per annum from the time of the delinquent's receiving the money until it shall be paid into the State Treasury.

History.—s. 1, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 408; GS 600; RGS 1035; CGL 1346; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.06 Certified accounts of delinquents as evidence.—In every case of delinquency, where suit has been or shall be instituted, the certified statement provided for in s. 215.05, shall be admitted as evidence and shall be prima facie proof of the facts therein stated. All copies of bonds, contracts, or other papers relating to or connected with the settlement of any account between the state and an individual, when certified as aforesaid to be true copies of the original, may be annexed to such statement aforesaid, and shall have equal validity and be entitled to the same degree of credit which would be due to the original papers if produced and authenticated in court; provided, where suit is brought upon a bond or other sealed instrument, and the defendant shall plead non est factum, or upon motion to the court, such plea or motion being verified by the oath of the defendant, it is lawful for the court to take the same into consideration, and, if it shall appear necessary for the attainment of justice, to require the production of the original bond, contract, or other paper specified in such affidavit.

History.—s. 2, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 409; GS 601; RGS 1036; CGL 1347.

215.07 Preference of state in case of insolvency.—When any revenue officer or other person now indebted or hereafter becoming indebted to the state, by bond or otherwise, shall become insolvent, or when the estate of any deceased debtor in the hands of executors or administrators shall not be sufficient to pay all the debt due from the deceased, the debt due to the state shall be first satisfied; and the priority established shall be deemed to extend as well to cases in which a debtor, not having sufficient property to pay all his debts, shall make a voluntary assignment thereof, or in which the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed or absent debtor shall be attached by process of law, as to cases in which the party shall be insolvent.

History.—s. 5, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 410; GS 602; RGS 1037; CGL 1348.

215.08 Delinquent collectors to be reported to State Attorney.—The Department of Revenue, the county court judge, the chairman of the board of county commissioners and the members of the said board representing the same, after sufficient time has expired to receive the reports required of the tax collector by law and they have not received them, or if the collector has failed to turn over money collected to either the proper state or county officer as provided by law, shall report the same to the state attorney of the circuit in which the collector resides; and the state attorney shall institute such proper proceedings, both civil and criminal, as are authorized by law; and the said state attorney shall, in case the said defaulting tax collector shall either attempt to collect taxes or perform any other act prohibited by law, or shall fail or refuse to deliver all the official tax rolls and books, with the statement required by law, to his successor or the person appointed by the Governor to perform the duties appertaining to the office of the collector of any county in lieu of any such defaulting collector, apply in a summary way, by petition to the circuit court or to the judge thereof in vacation, of the proper county, for an order prohibiting and enjoining in the one case such defaulting collector from collecting or attempting to collect taxes, or performing any other act prohibited to him by law, and requiring him in the other case to deliver to his successor, or to the person appointed by the Governor to perform his duties as aforesaid, all the official tax rolls and books, with the statement required by law; and the said court or judge in vacation may make such order and compel the performance of, or obedience to, such order by attachment and punishment as for a contempt of court.

History.—s. 3, ch. 1977, 1874; RS 411; GS 603; RGS 1038; CGL 1349; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 20, ch. 73-334.

215.09 Delinquent collectors; forfeiture of commissions.—For any failure on the part of any tax collector to make reports or to pay over any money as required by law, he shall forfeit for every week's delay one-fifth of his commissions, and if the delay extends beyond 30 days he shall forfeit all commissions on all amounts to which such failure applies, and all future commissions upon all collections to be made; provided, that the Department of Revenue, for good cause shown, may suspend the force and operation of this section with regard to such defaulting collector.

History.—s. 5, ch. 1977, 1874; RS 412; GS 604; RGS 1039; CGL 1350; ss. 21, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.10 Delinquent collectors; suspension.—For a failure or refusal of any tax collector or other officer, whose duty it is to perform any act connected with the assessment or collection of taxes, to perform any duty or act, to make any return, or pay over any money required by law, the Governor, by his written order, may suspend any such defaulting or noncomplying collector or other officer from office, and from further acting in his office until his further order, but not beyond the adjournment of the next session of the Senate; and appoint or designate some other person to perform and discharge all the duties of such collector or other officer, who shall discharge such duties until the further order of the Governor, but not beyond the adjournment of the next session of the Senate, and to whom the official tax rolls, books and statements as required by law shall be delivered.

History.—s. 4, ch. 1977, 1874; RS 413; GS 605; RGS 1040; CGL 1351.

215.11 Defaulting officers; Department of Banking and Finance to report to clerk.—The Department of Banking and Finance shall, within 90 days after the expiration of the term of office of any tax collector, sheriff, clerk of the circuit or county court, treasurer, or any other officer of any county who has the collection, custody, and control of any state funds, who shall be in arrears in his accounts with the state, make up and forward to the clerk of the circuit court of such county a statement of his accounts with the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3854, 1889; RS 417; GS 606; RGS 1041; CGL 1352; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 20, ch. 73-334.

215.12 Defaulting officers; duty of clerk.—The clerk of the circuit court to whom any such statement shall be forwarded, shall file the same in his office, and within 10 days thereafter shall furnish each of the sureties of such delinquent officer with an abstract of such statement, showing the amount of indebtedness of such delinquent officer to the state, and shall at the same time furnish the sureties with a statement showing his indebtedness to the county, if there be any.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3854, 1889; RS 418; GS 607; RGS 1042; CGL 1353.

215.15 School appropriations to have priority.—Appropriations, other than from the General Revenue Fund, made for school purposes under any statute or law, shall be payable out of the first funds available after payment of the salaries of public officers and other current expenses as hereinbefore provided, and the moneys for such appropriations shall be available as fast as they come in, without waiting for the whole amount of any such appropriation to be received into the Treasury.

History.—s. 2, ch. 5603, 1907; RGS 1053; s. 1, ch. 19001, 1939; CGL 1364.

215.16 School appropriations from General Revenue Fund.—

(1) All state appropriations, from the General Revenue Fund, for the benefit of the uniform system of public free schools and the state institutions of higher learning shall be on a parity with all other state appropriations for all other purposes from the general revenue fund; provided, that the appropriations by the Legislature of the proceeds from specific tax levies set aside and earmarked for a particular purpose shall not be affected by this section.

(2) If the state appropriations from the General Revenue Fund for the benefit of the uniform system of public free schools and the state institutions of higher learning cannot be paid in full during any given year, they shall be diminished only in the same proportion that appropriations for all other purposes from the General Revenue Fund are diminished during such year.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 19001, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892.

215.18 Transfers between funds; limitation.—Whenever there exists in any fund provided for by s. 215.32 a deficiency which would render such fund insufficient to meet its just requirements, and there shall exist in the other funds in the State Treasury moneys which are for the time being or otherwise in excess of the amounts necessary to meet the just requirements of such last-mentioned funds, the State Administration Commission, with the concurrence of the Governor, may order a temporary transfer of moneys from one fund to another in order to meet temporary deficiencies in a particular fund without resorting to the necessity of borrowing money and paying interest thereon. The fund from which any money is temporarily transferred shall be repaid the amount transferred from it not later than the end of the fiscal year in which such transfer is made, the date of repayment to be specified in the order of the State Administration Commission.

History.—s. 2, ch. 12295, 1927; CGL 1365; s. 24, ch. 57-1; s. 1, ch. 59-82; s. 15, ch. 63-572; s. 1, ch. 72-224.

Note.—See s. 10, ch. 79-190, which transferred the powers, duties, and functions of the Department of Administration provided for in this section to the Executive Office of the Governor.

215.195 State-Federal Relations Trust Fund.—

(1) CREATION.—There is created, within the Executive Office of the Governor, the State-Federal Relations Trust Fund.

(2) APPLICATION FOR ALLOCABLE STATE-WIDE OVERHEAD.—Each state agency making application for federal grant or contract funds shall, in accordance with the Statewide Cost Allocation Plan, include in its application a prorated share of the cost of services provided by state central service agencies which are reimbursable to the state pursuant to the provisions of Federal Management Circular 74-4.

(3) DEPOSIT OF OVERHEAD IN THE TRUST FUND.—If an application for federal grant or contract funds is approved, the state agency receiving the federal grant or contract shall identify that portion representing reimbursement of allocable state-wide overhead and deposit that amount into the State-Federal Relations Trust Fund.

(4) USE OF MONEYS DEPOSITED IN THE TRUST FUND.—Moneys deposited in the State-Federal Relations Trust Fund shall be used to support the activities and operations of a state-federal relations office in Washington, D. C., as provided in s. 14.23, including the staff of the Washington office and five positions in the Executive Office of the Governor in Tallahassee, to provide adequate research, analysis, and statistical support to the Washington office for the conduct of its business and to effectuate its purpose, and to provide support services for each.

(5) DISPOSITION OF EXCESS MONEYS DEPOSITED IN THE TRUST FUND.—As of June 30 each year, the fund shall consist of an amount equal to that certified pursuant to s. 216.301 (undisbursed balances), plus 25 percent of the amount appropriated for the current fiscal year for the purposes authorized in subsection (4). All funds in excess of the above shall revert to the General Revenue Fund unallocated.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 77-419; s. 1, ch. 78-350; s. 8, ch. 79-190.

215.20 Certain moneys and certain trust funds to contribute to the General Revenue Fund.—A deduction of 4 percent, representing the estimated pro rata share of the cost of general government paid from the General Revenue Fund, shall be made from the moneys and trust funds enumerated in s. 215.22. The deduction shall be as provided in s. 215.22. All such deductions shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20890, 1941; s. 1, ch. 61-493; s. 1, ch. 63-567.

215.22 Certain moneys and certain trust funds enumerated.—The following described moneys and trust funds, by whatever name designated, shall be those from which the deductions authorized by s. 215.20 shall be made:

(1) The first gas tax levied pursuant to the provisions of s. 206.41.

(2) The 7th cent additional tax upon gasoline or other like products of petroleum levied pursuant to the provisions of s. 206.60.

(3) All taxes levied on motor fuels other than gasoline, exclusive of 2 cents of said tax, levied pursuant to the provisions of s. 206.87.

(4) The Professional Regulation Trust Fund.

(5) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the General Inspection Trust Fund and subsidiary accounts thereof, unless a different percentage is authorized in s. 570.20.

(6) All income of a revenue nature received by the Division of Pari-mutuel Wagering.

(7) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Florida Citrus Advertising Trust Fund created in s. 601.15(7), including transfers from any subsidiary accounts thereof, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid section.

(8) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Special Disability Trust Fund created in s. 440.49(4)(h)1.

(9) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Workers' Compensation Administration Trust Fund created in s. 440.50(1)(a).

(10) All transfers to the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund created in s. 443.14(2).

(11) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Employment Security Administration Trust Fund created in s. 443.14(1).

(12) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Municipal Firemen's Pension Trust Fund created in s. 175.041.

(13) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Municipal Police Officers' Retirement Trust Fund created in s. 185.03.

(14) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Administrative Trust Fund created in s. 527.02.

(15) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the State Fire Marshal Trust Fund named in s. 624.516.

(16) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Insurance Commissioner's Regulatory Trust Fund created in s. 624.523.

(17) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Educational Certification and Service Trust Fund created in s. 231.30.

(18) All income of revenue nature deposited in the Cigarette Tax Collection Trust Fund created in s. 210.20.

(19) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the [Land Acquisition Trust Fund] created in s. 253.01.

(20) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Motorboat Revolving Trust Fund created in s. 371.171.

(21) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the State Game Trust Fund established in s. 372.09.

(22) All income derived from outdoor advertising and overweight violations which is deposited in the State Transportation Trust Fund created in s. 206.45.

(23) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Agents and Solicitors County License Tax Trust Fund created in s. 624.506.

(24) The motor carrier road tax levied pursuant to the provisions of chapter 323, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid chapter.

(25) The trust fund of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants, as defined in s. 509.071, with the exception of those fees collected for the purpose of funding of the hospitality education program as stated in s. 509.302.

The enumeration of the above moneys or trust funds shall not prohibit the applicability thereto of s. 215.24 should the Governor determine that for the reasons mentioned in said s. 215.24 said money or trust fund should be exempt herefrom, as it is the purpose of this law to exempt all trust funds from its force and effect where, by the operation of this law, federal matching funds or contributions to any trust fund would be lost to the state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20890, 1941; s. 2, ch. 61-493; s. 2, ch. 63-235; s. 1, ch. 63-249; s. 16, ch. 63-572; s. 2, ch. 63-496; ss. 1, 28-30, ch. 65-269; s. 4, ch. 65-337; ss. 32, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 53, 60, 65, ch. 69-353; s. 1, ch. 69-394; s. 2, ch. 71-98; s. 45, ch. 71-355; ss. 2, 3, ch. 73-57; s. 2, ch. 75-184; s. 62, ch. 77-104; s. 3, ch. 79-36; s. 63, ch. 79-40.

Note.—The uncommitted fund balance and all revenues subsequently accruing to the Internal Improvement Trust Fund were transferred to the Land Acquisition Trust Fund. See s. 15, ch. 75-22.

Note.—See s. 3, ch. 79-380, which renamed the "Municipal Firemen's Pension Trust Fund" as the Municipal Firefighters' Pension Trust Fund."

215.23 When contributions to be made.—The deduction hereby required shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund by the Department of Banking and Finance or by the State Treasurer, as the case may be, for quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year, and when so paid into the General Revenue Fund shall thereupon become a part of said fund to be accounted for and disbursed as provided by law with respect to the General Revenue Fund.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20890, 1941; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.24 Exemptions where federal contributions.—

(1) Should any state fund be the recipient of federal contributions, either by the matching of state funds or by a general donation to state funds, and the payment of moneys into the General Revenue Fund under this law should cause such fund to lose federal assistance, the Governor shall certify to the Department of Banking and Finance and to the State Treasurer that said fund is for that reason exempt from the force and effect of this law.

(2) Should it be determined by the Governor that by reason of payments already made into the General Revenue Fund by any fund under this law, such fund is subject to the loss of federal assistance, then the Governor shall certify to the Department of Banking and Finance and to the State Treasurer that such fund is exempt from the provisions of this law, and the Department of Banking and Finance or the State Treasurer, as the case may be, shall thereupon refund and pay over to such fund any amount or amounts previously paid into the General Revenue Fund by such fund.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20890, 1941; s. 5, ch. 61-493; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

215.25 Manner of contributions; rules and regulations.—The Department of Banking and Finance and the State Treasurer are hereby authorized to ascertain and determine the manner in which the required amounts shall be deducted and paid and to adopt and effectuate such rules and procedure as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this law. Such rules and procedure shall be approved by the Executive Office of the Governor.

History.—s. 7, ch. 20890, 1941; ss. 2, 3, ch. 67-371; ss. 12, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 95, ch. 79-190.

215.26 Repayment of funds paid into State Treasury through error, etc.—

(1) The Comptroller of the state may refund to the person who paid same, or his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, any moneys paid into the State Treasury which constitute:

(a) An overpayment of any tax, license or account due;

(b) A payment where no tax, license or account is due; and

(c) Any payment made into the State Treasury in error; and if any such payment has been credited to an appropriation, such appropriation shall at the time of making any such refund, be charged therewith. There are appropriated from the proper respective funds from time to time such sums as may be necessary for such refunds.

(2) Application for refunds as provided by this section shall be filed with the Comptroller, except as otherwise provided herein, within 3 years after the right to such refund shall have accrued else such right shall be barred. The Comptroller may delegate the authority to accept an application for refund to any state agency vested by law with the responsibility for the collection of any tax, license, or account due. Such application for refund shall be on a form approved by the Comptroller and shall be supplemented with such additional proof as the Comptroller deems necessary to establish such claim; provided, such claim is not otherwise barred under the laws of this state. Upon receipt of an application for refund, the state agency to which the funds were paid shall make a determination of the amount due. If an application for refund is denied, in whole or in part, such state agency shall so notify the applicant stating the reasons therefor. Upon approval of an application for refund, such state agency shall furnish the Comptroller with a properly executed voucher authorizing payment.

(3) No refund of moneys referred to in this section shall be made of an amount which is less than $1, except upon application.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22008, 1943; s. 14, ch. 57-1; s. 1, ch. 57-18; s. 1, ch. 59-181; s. 1, ch. 63-271; s. 2, ch. 78-352.

cf.—s. 11.065 Limitation on claims against state.

215.28 United States Securities, purchase by state and county officers and employees; deductions from salary.—

(1) Upon the request in writing, signed by any officer or employee of the state, or of any county, or other political subdivision or subordinate agency of the state or any county, any officer or employee who acts as disbursing agent for the payment of salaries and wages is hereby authorized and empowered to deduct from the salary or wages of such officer or employee, periodically, such sum as authorized by such written application, for the purchase of United States Securities.

(2) The participation in such payroll deduction plan by any officer or employee shall be entirely voluntary at all times, and any officer or employee may from time to time increase or decrease the amount to be so deducted, or cancel his payroll deduction authorization, or change the form of registration for securities to be purchased.

(3) All deductions so made by any such disbursing authority shall be deposited in a trust account separate and apart from the funds of the state, county or subordinate agency. Such account will be subject to withdrawal only for the purchase of United States Securities on behalf of officers and employees, or for refunds to such persons in accordance with the provisions of this law. Whenever the sum of $18.75 or the purchase price of the security requested to be purchased is accumulated from deductions so made from the salaries or wages of an officer or employee, such disbursing agent shall arrange the purchase of the bond or security applied for and have it registered in the name or names requested in the deduction authorization. Securities so purchased will be delivered in such manner as may be convenient for the issuing agent and the purchaser.

(4) Upon request, the disbursing agent will advise the officer or employee of the amount accumulated in his account for the purchase of United States Securities. A periodic statement showing amounts accumulated to the credit of the officer or employee need not be issued.

(5) When an officer or employee leaves the service of the state, county or subordinate governmental agency, the payroll deduction authorization will be canceled automatically and any amount credited to the officer or employee's account shall immediately be refunded and paid to the officer or employee entitled to receive the same. In case of death of an officer or employee, the payroll deduction authorization will be canceled automatically and any amount to the credit of the officer or employee's account will be paid immediately to the surviving spouse, children or parents of the officer or employee, according to and as provided by ss. 222.15 and 222.16.

(6) The disbursing agent is authorized to promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations with reference to the handling of such payroll deduction plan as will promote the purposes thereof and as shall most conveniently meet the facilities of the office of such disbursing agent.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 21794, 1943.

215.29 Classification of Comptroller's warrants; report.—All disbursements made by the state upon Comptroller's warrants countersigned by the Governor shall be classified according to officers, offices, bureaus, divisions, boards, commissions, institutions, or other agencies and undertakings and shall be further classified according to personal services, contractual services, commodities, current charges, current obligations, capital outlays, debt payments, investments, and such additional classifications as may be prescribed or authorized by law; and such detail classifications shall be printed in the Comptroller's annual reports.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22901, 1945.

215.31 State funds; deposit in State Treasury.

—Revenue, including licenses, fees, imposts, or exactions collected or received under the authority of the laws of the state by each and every state official, office, employee, bureau, division, board, commission, institution, agency or undertaking of the state shall be promptly deposited in the State Treasury, and immediately credited to the appropriate fund as herein provided, properly accounted for by the Department of Banking and Finance as to source and no money shall be paid from the State Treasury except as appropriated and provided by the annual General Appropriations Act, or as otherwise provided by law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 22833, 1945; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-305.

215.311 State funds; exceptions.—The provisions of s. 215.31 shall not apply to funds collected by and under the direction and supervision of the Division of Blind Services of the Department of Education as provided under ss. 413.011, 413.041 and 413.051; however, nothing in this section shall be construed to except from the provisions of s. 215.31 any appropriations made by the state to the division.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29872, 1955; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 22, ch. 77-259.

215.32 State funds; segregation.—

(1) All moneys received by the state shall be deposited in the State Treasury unless specifically provided otherwise by law and shall be deposited in and accounted for by the State Treasurer and the Department of Banking and Finance within the following funds, which funds are hereby created and established:

- (a) General Revenue Fund,
- (b) Trust funds,
- (c) Working Capital Fund, and
- (d) Federal Revenue Sharing Fund.

(2) The source and use of each of the aforesaid funds shall be as follows:

(a) The General Revenue Fund shall consist of all moneys received by the state from every source whatsoever, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection. Said moneys shall be expended pursuant to General Revenue Fund Appropriations Acts or transferred as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(b)1. The trust funds shall consist of moneys received by the state which under law or under trust agreement are segregated for a purpose authorized by law. The Administration Commission of the Department of Administration shall have the power and authority to approve the establishment of any trust fund it deems necessary to preserve the integrity of any moneys received or collected by a state agency for a specific use or purpose authorized by law. The state agency receiving or collecting such moneys shall be responsible for their proper expenditure as provided by law.

2. In order to maintain a minimum number of trust funds in the State Treasury, each state agency may consolidate, if permitted under the terms and conditions of their receipt, the trust funds administered by it; provided, however, the agency employs effectively a uniform system of accounts sufficient to preserve the integrity of such trust funds; and provided further, that such consolidation is approved by the Administration Commission of the Department of Administration.

3. All such moneys are hereby appropriated for the purpose for which they were received, to be expended in accordance with the law or trust agreement under which they were received, subject always to other applicable laws relating to the deposit or expenditure of moneys in the State Treasury.

(c) The Working Capital Fund shall consist of an amount, not more than 10 percent of the amount of net revenue of the General Revenue Fund for the preceding fiscal year, which accrues from moneys in the General Revenue Fund which are in excess of the amount needed to meet the General Revenue Fund Appropriation Acts, as determined by the Executive Office of the Governor. Said moneys are hereby appropriated for transfer to the General Revenue Fund whenever it is determined by the Administration Commission that revenue collections in the General Revenue Fund will be less than the estimated amount recommended to the Legislature by the Executive Office of the Governor during the same fiscal year and when the Administration Commission determines, after consultation with the Legislative Appropriations Committees, that it would be more prudent to transfer the Working Capital Funds than to reduce agency operating budgets pursuant to s. 216.221. When not required to meet General Revenue Fund appropriations, said moneys shall be used as a revolving fund for transfers as provided by s. 215.18, and, when the Comptroller determines that said moneys are not needed for either type of transfer, they may be temporarily invested as provided in ss. 215.44-215.53.

(d) The Federal Revenue Sharing Fund shall consist of all moneys received by the state from any federal revenue sharing act. Said funds shall be expended pursuant to appropriation acts or as otherwise provided for by law.

History.—s. 3, ch. 22833, 1945; s. 1, ch. 59-91; s. 2, ch. 59-257; s. 1, ch. 61-119; s. 1, ch. 65-266; s. 3, ch. 65-420; ss. 2, 3, ch. 67-371; ss. 12, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-196; ss. 1, 2, ch. 73-316; s. 1, ch. 77-352; s. 15, ch. 79-190.

Note.—See ss. 1 and 19, ch. 79-190, which, respectively, created an Administration Commission as part of the Executive Office of the Governor and deleted the Administration Commission as an organizational unit of the Department of Administration.

215.321 Regulatory Trust Fund.—All funds received pursuant to chapters 494, 516, 520, 559, parts I and IV, and 657, shall be deposited into the Regulatory Trust Fund.

215.34 State funds; noncollectible items; procedure.—

(1) Any check, draft, or other order for the payment of money in payment of any licenses, fees, taxes, commissions or charges of any sort authorized to be made under the laws of the state and deposited in the State Treasury as provided herein, which may be returned for any reason by the bank or other payor upon which same shall have been drawn shall be forthwith returned by the State Treasurer for collection to the state officer or the state agency making the deposit. In such case, the Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue a debit memorandum charging the proper fund or account to which same shall have been originally credited and shall send a copy of said debit memorandum to the state agency making the deposit and to the Comptroller stating the reasons for returning the said check, draft, or other order. Such procedure for handling noncollectible items shall not be construed as paying funds out of the State Treasury without an appropriation, but shall be considered as an administrative procedure for the efficient handling of state records and accounts.

(2) Whenever a check, draft, or other order for the payment of money is returned by the State Treasurer to a state officer or state agency for collection, the officer or agency shall add a $5 service fee to the amount due. The $5 service fee shall be in addition to all other penalties imposed by law. Proceeds from this fee shall be deposited in the same fund as the collected item.

(3) When a county or municipal official or agency is acting for a state official or agency in the collection of fees or other charges, the service fee collected under this section shall be retained by the collector of the fee.

History.—s. 5, ch. 22833, 1945; s. 1, ch. 75-56.

215.35 State funds; warrants and their issuance.—All warrants issued by the Comptroller shall be numbered in chronological order commencing with number one in each fiscal year and each warrant shall refer to the Comptroller's voucher by the number thereof, which voucher shall also be numbered as above set forth. Each warrant shall state the name of the payee thereof and the amount allowed, and said warrant shall be stated in words at length. No warrant shall issue until same has been authorized by an appropriation made by law but such warrant need not state or set forth such authorization. The Comptroller shall register each warrant in his office. The warrants shall be coded to show the fund, account, purpose and department involved in the issuance of such warrant. In those instances where the expenditure of funds of regulatory boards or commissions has been provided for by laws other than the annual appropriation bill, warrants shall issue upon requisition to the State Comptroller by the governing body of such board or commission.

History.—s. 6, ch. 22833, 1945; s. 1, ch. 73-305.

215.36 State funds; laws not repealed.—Nothing in ss. 215.31-215.32, 215.34-215.36 shall be construed as repealing ss. 215.20, 215.22 to 215.25, inclusive, or as affecting the proceeds of 2 cents per gallon of the total tax levied by state law upon gasoline and other like products of petroleum now known as the second gas tax, and upon other fuels used to propel motor vehicles, placed in the State Treasury and divided and distributed as required by s. 16 of Art. IX of the Constitution of 1885 as adopted by the 1968 revised Constitution or by s. 9, Art. XII of said revision.

History.—s. 7, ch. 22833, 1945; s. 18, ch. 69-216.

215.37 Department of Professional Regulation and the boards to be financed from fees collected; moneys deposited in trust fund; 4 percent to General Revenue Fund; appropriation.—

(1) All fees, licenses, and other charges assessed by each board within the Department of Professional Regulation shall be collected by the Department of Professional Regulation and shall be deposited in the State Treasury into the Professional Regulation Trust Fund to the credit of the department.

(2) The department shall be financed solely from revenue collected by it from fees and other charges, and all such revenue is hereby appropriated to the department. All salaries and expenses of the department shall be paid as budgeted after the budget has been approved by the secretary of the Department of Administration or within the conditions and limitations of the appropriation for that purpose which may be included in the General Appropriations Act.

(3) The department shall be charged 4 percent of all revenue collections (excluding refunds, grants, donations, etc.) made and credited to its account. The amount so charged shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund unallocated.

(4) The department shall submit a biennial legislative budget by division and operating budgets as required of all governmental subdivisions in chapters 215 and 216, to be based upon anticipated revenues.

(5) The department shall maintain separate revenue accounts in the Professional Regulation Trust Fund for every profession within the department. The department shall, to the extent practicable, provide for the proportionate allocation among the accounts of expenses incurred by the department in the performance of its duties with respect to each regulated profession. The department shall provide each board an annual report of revenue and allocated expenses related to the regulation of that profession, and these reports shall be used by the board to determine the amount of licensing fees for each profession regulated by the department.

Note.—See s. 10, ch. 79-190, which abolished the Division of Budget of the Department of Administration and transferred all records, property, and funds of the division to the Executive Office of the Governor.

215.42 Purchases from appropriations, proof of delivery.—The State Comptroller may require proof, as he deems necessary, of delivery and receipt of purchases before honoring any voucher for payment from appropriations made in the General Appropriations Act or otherwise provided by law.

History.—s. 20, ch. 28115, s. 14, ch. 28231, 1953.

215.422 Warrants, vouchers, and invoices; processing time limits; agency compliance.—

(1) The voucher authorizing payment of an invoice submitted to an agency of the state, required by law to be filed with the Comptroller, shall be filed with the Comptroller not later than 15 days after receipt of the invoice and receipt, inspection, and approval of the goods or services, except that in the case of a bona fide dispute the voucher shall contain a statement of the dispute and authorize payment only in the amount not disputed. If a voucher filed within the 15-day period is returned by the Department of Banking and Finance because of an error, it shall nevertheless be deemed timely filed. The 15-day filing requirement may be waived by the Department of Banking and Finance on a showing of exceptional circumstances in accordance with rules and regulations of the department.

(2) The warrant in payment of an invoice submitted to an agency of the state shall be mailed not later than 15 days after filing of the voucher authorizing payment. However, this requirement may be waived by the Department of Banking and Finance on a showing of exceptional circumstances in accordance with rules and regulations of the department.

(3)(a) Each agency of the state which is required by law to file vouchers with the Comptroller shall keep a record of the date of receipt of the invoice, dates of receipt, inspection, and approval of the goods or services, date of filing of the voucher, and date of mailing of the warrant in payment thereof. If the voucher is not filed or the warrant is not mailed within the time required, an explanation in writing by the agency head shall be attached to the voucher.

(b) If a warrant in payment of an invoice is not mailed by a state agency within 45 days after receipt of the invoice and receipt, inspection, and approval of the goods and services, the agency shall be liable to the vendor, in addition to the amount of the invoice, for interest at a rate of 1 percent per month or portion thereof on the unpaid balance from the expiration of said 45-day period until such time the warrant is mailed to the vendor. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply only to undisputed amounts for which payment has been authorized. In the case of an error on the part of the vendor, the 45-day period shall begin to run upon receipt of a corrected invoice by the agency. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply when the filing requirement under subsection (1) or subsection (2) has been waived by the Department of Banking and Finance. The various state agencies shall be responsible for initiating the penalty payments required by this subsection and shall use this subsection as authority to make such payments. The budget request submitted to the Legislature shall specifically disclose the amount of any interest paid by any agency pursuant to this subsection.

(4) If the terms of the invoice provide a discount for payment in less than 30 days, agencies of the state shall preferentially process it and use all diligence to obtain the saving by compliance with the invoice terms.

(5) The Department of Banking and Finance is authorized and directed to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations to implement this section.

(6) Persistent failure to comply with this section by any agency of the state shall constitute good cause for discharge of employees duly found responsible, or predominantly responsible, for failure to comply.

(7) In order to alleviate any hardship that may be caused to a health care provider as a result of delay in receiving reimbursement for services, any payment or payments for hospital, medical, or other health care services which are to be reimbursed by the state, either directly or indirectly, shall be made to the health care provider not more than 35 days from the date eligibility for payment of such claim is determined.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-7; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 78-352; s. 3, ch. 79-106.

215.425 Extra compensation claims prohibited.—No extra compensation shall be made to any officer, agent, employee, or contractor after the service shall have been rendered, or the contract made; nor shall any money be appropriated or paid on any claim, the subject matter of which shall not have been provided for by preexisting laws, unless such compensation or claim be allowed by bill passed by two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the Legislature. The provisions of this section shall not apply to extra compensation given to state employees who are included within the senior management group pursuant to rules adopted by the Department of Administration.

History.—Formerly s. 11, Art. XVI of the Constitution of 1885, as amended; converted to statutory law by s. 10, Art. XII of the Constitution as revised in 1968; s. 27, ch. 77-190.

215.43 Public bonds, notes, and other securities.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the following words and term shall have the following meanings:

(a) The word "unit" shall mean any department, board, commission or other agency of Florida, or any county, city, town, village, district or any other political subdivision of the state, heretofore or hereafter created or established, or any board, commission, authority or other public agency or instrumentality which is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to issue bonds.

(b) The term "governing body" shall mean the officer or officers, or the department, board, body, council, commission, authority or other agency which is authorized by law to take the proceedings which are required to authorize or to provide for the issuance of bonds.

(c) The word "bonds" shall include all bonds, notes, certificates and other similar obligations and securities of a unit whether payable in whole or in part from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes, revenues or any other source.

(2) EXECUTION OF PUBLIC SECURITIES.—

(a) Any bonds heretofore or hereafter authorized to be issued by any unit under the provisions of any general, special or local law heretofore or hereafter enacted and any interest coupons attached thereto may, if so authorized by the governing body of such unit, bear or be executed with the facsimile signature of any official authorized by such law to sign or to execute such bonds or coupons; provided, however, that each such bond shall be manually signed by at least one official of such unit. In case any such law shall provide for the sealing of such bonds with the official or corporate seal of such unit or of its governing body or any official thereof, a facsimile of such seal may be imprinted on the bonds if so authorized by the governing body of such unit, and it shall not be necessary in such case to impress such seal physically upon such bonds.

(b) In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery, and any bond may bear the facsimile signature of, or may be signed by, such persons as at the actual time of the execution of such bond shall be the proper officers to sign such bond although at the date of such bond such persons may not have been such officers.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-763.

215.431 Issuance of bond anticipation notes.

—Each of the counties, school boards, districts, authorities and municipalities in the state shall have power, at any time and from time to time after the issuance of bonds thereof shall have been authorized, whether such bonds be general, special, revenue or other obligations of such county, school board, district, authority, or municipality, and, if the approval of such bonds at an election is required after the holding of such election, to borrow money for the purposes for which such bonds are to be issued in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds and within the authorized maximum amount of such bond issue. Any such loan shall be paid within 3 years after the date on which the issuance of such bonds shall have been authorized or, if such bonds shall have been approved at an election, within 5 years after the date on which such election shall have been held. Bond anticipation notes shall be issued for all moneys borrowed under the provisions of this law, and such notes may be renewed from time to time, but all such notes shall mature within the time above limited for the payment of the original loan. Such notes shall be authorized by resolution of the governing body of the issuer and shall be in such denomination or denominations, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate permitted by law or by the resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, whichever shall be the lesser, shall be in such form and shall be executed in such manner, all as such governing body shall prescribe. Such notes may be sold at either public or private sale or, if such notes shall be renewal notes, they may be exchanged for notes then outstanding on such terms as the governing body shall determine. The governing body may, in its discretion, retire any such notes by means of current revenues, in lieu of retiring them by means of bonds, provided, however, that before the retirement of such notes by any means other than the issuance of bonds it shall amend or repeal the resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds in anticipation of the proceeds of the sale of which such notes shall have been issued so as to reduce the authorized amount of the bond issue by the amount of the notes so retired. Such amendatory or repealing resolution or ordinance shall take effect upon its passage and need not be published. All powers and rights conferred by this law shall be in addition to and supplemental to those conferred by any other general or special law and shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes hereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-127.

215.44 Board of Administration; powers and duties in relation to investment of funds of state agencies.—

(1) Except where otherwise specifically provided by the State Constitution and subject to any limitations of the trust agreement relating to a trust fund, the Board of Administration, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "board," composed of the Governor as chairman, the State Treasurer, and the State Comptroller, shall invest all the trust funds and all agency funds of each state agency, as defined in s. 216.011, to the fullest extent that is consistent with the cash requirements and investment objectives of the particular trust fund or agency fund.

(2) The board shall have the power to make purchases, sales, exchanges, investments, and reinvestments for and on behalf of any of the funds or accounts referred to in subsection (1), and it shall be the duty of the board to see that moneys invested under the provisions of ss. 215.44-215.53 are at all times handled in the best interests of the state.

(3) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, all investments made by the State Board of Administration pursuant to ss. 215.44-215.53 shall be subject to the restrictions and limitations contained in s. 215.47.

(4) The board shall prepare and approve an operating budget each fiscal year consistent with the provisions of chapter 216. The approved operating budget shall be submitted to the legislative appropriation committees and the Executive Office of the Governor prior to July 1 of each year.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-353; ss. 1, 10, ch. 67-354; s. 46, ch. 71-355; s. 1, ch. 77-270; s. 97, ch. 79-190.

215.45 Sale and exchange of securities.—Securities or investments purchased or held under the provisions of this chapter may be sold or exchanged for other securities or investments; provided, however, that no sale or exchange shall be at a price less than the market price of the securities or investments to be sold or exchanged unless such sale or exchange has received the unanimous approval of the board.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-353.

215.46 Collection of defaulted investments.—In the event of default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, any investments made, the Attorney General, upon request of the board, is authorized to institute the proper proceedings to collect such matured principal or interest, and may, with the approval of the board, accept proposals for the exchange of bonds for refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness at interest rates to be agreed upon with the obligor, and to make such compromises, adjustments, or disposition of interest or defaulted principal, or to make such compromises or adjustments as to future payments of interest or principal, as deemed advisable for the purposes of protecting the funds invested.

History.—s. 4, ch. 57-353.

215.47 Investments; authorized securities.—Subject to the limitations and conditions of the State Constitution or of the trust agreement relating to a trust fund, moneys available for investments under ss. 215.44-215.53 may be invested as follows:

(1) Without limitation in:

¹(b) State bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the state and revenue bonds additionally secured by the full faith and credit of the state.

¹(c) Bonds of the several counties or districts in the state containing a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county or district involved.

¹(d) Bonds issued or administered by the State Board of Administration secured solely by a pledge of all or part of the 2 cents second gasoline tax accruing under the provisions of s. 16, Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended, or of s. 9, Art. XII of the 1968 revised State Constitution.

¹(e) Bonds issued by the State Board of Education pursuant to ss. 18 and 19 of Art. XII of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended, or to s. 9, Art. XII of the 1968 revised State Constitution, as amended.

¹(f) Bonds issued by the Florida Outdoor Recreational Development Council pursuant to s. 17 of Art. IX of the State Constitution of 1885, as amended.

¹(g) Bonds issued by the Florida State Improvement Commission, Florida Development Commission, or Division of Bond Finance of the Department of General Services.

¹(h) Savings accounts in, or certificates of deposit of, any bank incorporated under the laws of this state or any national bank organized under the laws of the United States doing business and situated in this state, to the extent that such savings accounts are insured by the Federal Government or an agency thereof, and if the certificates of deposit are secured in the manner prescribed in chapter 18.

(i) Obligations of the Federal Farm Credit Banks and obligations of the Federal Home Loan Bank and its district banks.

(j) Obligations of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, including participation certificates.

(k) Obligations guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association.

(2) Not more than 25 percent of any fund in:

(a) Bonds, notes, or obligations of any municipality or political subdivision or any agency or authority of this state, if such obligations are rated by at least two nationally recognized rating services in any one of the three highest classifications approved by the Comptroller of the Currency for the investment of the funds of national banks. However, if only one nationally recognized rating service shall rate such obligations, then such rating service must have rated such obligations in any one of the two highest classifications heretofore mentioned.

(b) Savings accounts of any savings and loan association or bank incorporated under the laws of this state or in savings accounts of any federal savings and loan association or national bank domiciled in this state, to the extent that such investments are insured by the Federal Government or any agency thereof and additional sums not to exceed 15 percent of the net worth of the institution, the amount to be determined by the Governor, Comptroller, and Treasurer, as the State Board of Administration.

(c) Notes secured by first mortgages on Florida real property, insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration or the Veterans' Administration.

(d) Interest-bearing obligations of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development or the Inter-American Development Bank.

(e) Deferred payment tax certificates offered for sale by a county pursuant to s. 197.0168(2)(b).

(f) Investments collateralized by first mortgages covering single-family Florida residences, provided such mortgages do not exceed $60,000, do not exceed 80 percent of value, are not delinquent, and are originated by a lender regulated by the state or Federal Government and the aggregate of the collateral furnished is at least 150 percent of the aggregate investment under this subsection. The mortgages used for collateral shall be segregated by the lending institution so that said segregation may be confirmed by independent audit. In the event any such mortgage used as collateral becomes more than 3 months delinquent, the lender shall immediately substitute therefor a mortgage of equal or greater value.

(3) Not more than 25 percent of any fund in:

(a) Common stock, preferred stock, and interest-bearing obligations of a corporation having an option to convert into common stock, issued by a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, any state or organized territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, provided the corporation is listed, and has been listed for at least 36 consecutive months, on any one or more of the recognized national stock exchanges in the United States. However, the board shall not invest more than 3 percent of the assets of any fund in common stock, preferred stock, and interest-bearing obligations having an option to convert into common stock, of any one issuing corporation, and the aggregate investment of any fund in any one issuing corporation shall not exceed 3 percent of the outstanding capital stock of that corporation.

(b) Group annuity contracts of the pension investment type with insurers licensed to do business in this state, except that amounts invested by the board with any one insurer shall not exceed 3 percent of their assets.
